

Cassandre Voltaire, DO
5 Lake Street, Lexington, MA 02421
(857) 236-9015 ♦ cassandre.voltaire@gmail.com
www.linkedin.com/cassandrevoltaire

Professional Summary

Experienced family medicine physician specializing in wound care, urgent care, geriatrics, and clinical documentation. Prior experience working in skilled nursing facilities, and utilization management. Offers medical-legal consulting in the areas of personal injury, pressure injury staging, wound care standards, documentation compliance, Medicare medical necessity, and long-term care practices.

Skills and Competencies

- Pressure Injuries & Chronic Wounds
- Medicare Documentation & Compliance
- Family Medicine
- Urgent Care
- Skilled Nursing & Home Health Care
- Geriatric Medicine & Long-Term Care
- Chart Review & Medical Necessity Evaluation
- Wound Treatment Standards of Care
- Translation of complex medical information into layman's terms.

Relevant Professional Experience

Primary Care & Wound Care Physician

02/ 2025 – Present

Soldiers' Home in Chelsea, MA

Chelsea, MA

- Provide primary care and wound management in a state-run facility.

Urgent Care Physician

09/2022 - Present

Atrius Health

Burlington, MA

- Provide skillful and comprehensive urgent care medical services, including a variety of hands-on procedures, in conjunction with physician colleagues and staff.

Physician Reviewer

01/2024- Present

Oscar Health

Remote

- Collaborate with team to apply efficient and sound medical judgment to render medical necessity determinations.
- Analyze medical claims review, predeterminations, and peer-review discussions as an independent contractor.
- Adhere to URAC standards when making determinations.
- Maintain knowledge in current health plans, case management, and disease management guidelines.

Wound Care Physician

04/2023 - 04/2025

Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center

Boston, MA

- Administer high quality wound care using a variety of procedural skills in collaboration with nursing staff.

Wound Care Physician

10/2021-12/2022

Skilled Wound Care,
Boston, MA

- Treated a wide variety of wounds, including pressure ulcers, diabetic ulcers, post-surgical wounds, and traumatic injuries, utilizing best practices and evidence-based protocols.
- Conducted thorough documentation and record-keeping to ensure compliance with standards of care.
- Frequently collaborated with multidisciplinary teams to manage complex wound cases and optimize patient outcomes.

Family Medicine Physician

04/2021 - Present

Charles River Community Health
Brighton MA
Per Diem

- Collaborated with physician colleagues and staff to provide comprehensive patient care, including wound assessment and management, often involving patients with coexisting conditions such as diabetes or vascular issues.
- Developed expertise in wound healing factors, which informs detailed record analysis and case assessments.
- Review and respond to all patient messages, lab results, and tests daily to ensure the highest quality care and compliance with practice standards.
- Translate complex medical information for patients and families to improve trust, engagement, and participation in treatment plans.

Family Medicine Physician

07/2020 - 03/2021

Emerson Hospital at Maynard Family Medicine
Maynard MA

- Work in conjunction with physician colleagues and staff to provide high-quality and cost-effective medical care.
- Provide strategic, team-based clinical care to patients with acute and chronic medical conditions in an outpatient setting.

- Develop and update protocols for patient care and disease management on a regular basis.

Licensure and Board Certification

American Board of Osteopathic Family Physicians - Active through 07/2029
 Massachusetts Medical License- Active through 02/2026

American Board of Wound Medicine And Surgery- ABWMS Certification-Active through 1/203

Education and Training

M.S. in Health Informatics Nova Southeastern University School of Osteopathic Medicine	01/2024 - Present
AMIA 10X10 Introduction to Biomedical Informatics Oregon Health and Science University Remote	08/2023 - 10/2023
Family Medicine Residency Program Rochester Regional Health, United Memorial Medical Center	06/2017 - 06/2020
Doctor of Osteopathy, DO Nova Southeastern University School of Osteopathic Medicine,	07/2013 - 05/2017
M.A in Medical Sciences Boston University School of Medicine, Boston, MA Dissertation: The Effects of Vitamin D Supplementation on Genomic Expression	09/2008 - 09/ 2010
Bachelor of Science in Biology University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT	08/2004 - 05/2008

Publications

Voltaire C. Precision healing: The art & science of matrix products in lower extremity wound care. Lower Extremity Review (LER). Published October 2023. Available at: <https://lermagazine.com/article/precision-healing-the-art-science-of-matrix-products-in-lower-extremity-wound-care>

Editorial and Advisory Roles

Editorial Advisory Board Member
Wound Care Today

01/ 2025 – Present

- Serve as a clinical advisor on content related to wound care best practices, innovations, and standards of care.
- Contribute thought leadership to support evidence-based publishing and education in the wound care field.

Professional Affiliations

Member, Alliance of Wound Care Stakeholders

01/2025-Present

Member, American Professional Wound Care Association

01/2025-Present

Research Experience

Researcher

Boston University School of Medicine
Boston, MA

08/2009 - 09/2010

- Studied the nutritional value of vitamin D3 supplementation and its effects on biomarkers for calcium and bone metabolism and how they alter gene expression biomarkers in Michael Holick's (Ph.D., M.D.) laboratory in the Department of Endocrinology.
- Research techniques and procedures learned include mRNA isolation and DNA recovery and analyses.
- Maintained subject files and assisted in the basic upkeep of institutional review board documents.

Languages

Native English Speaker, Conversant in Haitian Creole