PART I

Item 1. Business

As used in this Annual Report, the terms "Lithia," "Lithia and Driveway," "LAD," "the Company," "we," "us," and "our" refer collectively to Lithia Motors, Inc. and its subsidiaries, unless otherwise required by the context. Our store operations are conducted by our subsidiaries.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this Annual Report, including in the sections entitled "Risk Factors," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," and "Business" constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Generally, you can identify forward-looking statements by terms such as "project," "outlook," "target," "may," "will," "would," "should," "seek," "expect," "plan," "intend," "forecast," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "predict," "potential," "likely," "ensure," "goal," "strategy," "future," "maintain," and "continue" or the negative of these terms or other comparable terms. Examples of forward-looking statements in this Form 10-K include, among others, statements regarding:

- The profitability of our strategy and growth
- Future market conditions, including anticipated vehicle and other sales, gross profit and inventory supply
- Our business strategy and plans, including our achieving our long-term financial targets
- The growth, expansion, make-up, and success of our network, including our finding accretive acquisitions that meet our target valuations and acquiring additional stores
- Annualized revenues from acquired stores or achieving target returns
- The growth and performance of our Driveway e-commerce home solution and DFC, their synergies and other impacts on our business and our ability to meet Driveway and DFC-related targets
- The impact of sustainable vehicles and other market and regulatory changes on our business, including evolving vehicle distribution models
- Our capital allocations and uses and levels of capital expenditures in the future
- Expected operating results, such as improved store performance, continued improvement of SG&A as a percentage of gross profit and any projections
- Our anticipated financial condition and liquidity, including from our cash and the future availability of our credit facilities, unfinanced real estate, and other financing sources
- Our continuing to purchase shares under our share repurchase program
- Our compliance with financial and restrictive covenants in our credit facilities and other debt agreements
- Our programs and initiatives for team member recruitment, training, and retention
- Our strategies and targets for customer retention, growth, market position, operations, financial results, and risk management

Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks, and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict and many of which are outside of our control. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and our actual results of operations, financial condition, and liquidity and development of the industry in which we operate may differ materially from those made in or suggested by the forward-looking statements in this Annual Report. Therefore, you should not rely on any of these forward-looking statements. The risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from estimated or projected results include, without limitation, the factors as discussed in Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors, and in Part II, Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, and, from time to time, in our other filings we make with the SEC.

Any forward-looking statement made by us in this Annual Report is based only on information currently available to us and speaks only as of the date on which it is made. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

Business Overview

Lithia and Driveway (NYSE: LAD) is the largest global automotive retailer providing an array of products and services throughout the vehicle ownership lifecycle. Simple, convenient and transparent experiences are offered through our comprehensive network of physical locations, e-commerce platforms, captive finance solutions, fleet management offerings, and other synergistic adjacencies. We have delivered consistent profitable growth in a massive and unconsolidated industry. Our highly diversified and competitively differentiated design provides us the flexibility and scale to pursue our vision to modernize personal transportation solutions wherever, whenever, and however consumers desire. As of December 31, 2025, we operated 455 locations representing 54 brands in the United States, the United Kingdom, and Canada.

We offer a wide array of products and services fulfilling the entire vehicle ownership lifecycle including new and used vehicles, financing and insurance products, and aftersales automotive repair and maintenance services. We strive for diversification in our products, services, brands, and geographic locations to reduce dependence on any one manufacturer, reduce susceptibility to changing consumer preferences, manage market risk and maintain profitability. Our diversification, along with our operating structure, provides a resilient and nimble business model.

Founded in 1946 and incorporated in Oregon in 1968, we completed our initial public offering in 1996.

Business Strategy

We seek to provide customers choice with a seamless, blended online and physical retail experience, broad selection, and access to specialized expertise and knowledge. Our comprehensive network provides convenient touch points for customers and provides services throughout the vehicle life cycle. We seek to increase market share and optimize profitability by focusing on the consumer experience and applying proprietary performance measurement systems fueled by data science. Our Driveway and GreenCars brands and online customer portal complement our in-store experiences in the United States and provide convenient, simple, and transparent platforms that serve as our e-commerce home solutions and allow us to deliver differentiated, proprietary digital experiences. Enhancing our business, our captive auto financing division allows us to provide financing solutions for customers and diversify our business model with adjacent products.

Our long-term strategy to create value for our customers, team members, and shareholders includes the following elements:

Driving operational excellence, innovation, and diversification

LAD builds magnetic customer loyalty across our 455 stores, our Driveway and GreenCars e-commerce platforms, and our entire omnichannel ecosystem by focusing on convenient and transparent experiences supported by proprietary data science. Our entrepreneurial model that emphasizes personal accountability for our team powers efficient operations and allows dynamic responsiveness to each of our local markets. Our best-in-class performance management reporting provides the foundation to enable high-performing teams to drive our platform's full potential.

Investments across our ecosystem built a framework that is responsive to evolving consumer preferences, providing a foundation that supports our current business and our ongoing expansion. These investments, particularly in our digital strategies, connect our experienced, knowledgeable team members with our expansive inventory and physical network of stores to ensure we are agile and adaptable. Additionally, we systematically explore and invest in transformative adjacencies that are synergistic and complementary to our existing business, such as our captive auto finance and fleet management offerings.

These investments support the foundational elements of our strategy. We seek to create durable customer loyalty in our stores and our digital platforms, such as our My Driveway customer portal. These experiences and offerings, backed by our extensive physical network, broad geographic reach, and customized digital offerings, empower our people to provide transparent, flexible, and simple retail experiences.

Our performance-based culture is geared toward an incentive-based compensation structure for a majority of our personnel. We develop pay plans that measure factors such as customer satisfaction, profitability, and individual performance metrics. These plans reward team members for creating customer loyalty, achieving store potential, developing high-performing talent, meeting and exceeding manufacturer requirements, and living our core values.

We centralize many administrative functions to drive efficiencies and streamline store-level operations. These efficiencies allow our local managers to focus on serving customers to increase revenues and gross profit. Our operations are supported by regional and corporate management, as well as dedicated training and personnel development programs which allow us to share best practices across our network and develop talent.

Growth through acquisition and network optimization
Our acquisition growth strategy has been financially and culturally successful. Our disciplined approach focuses on acquiring new vehicle franchises in markets ranging from mid-sized regional markets to metropolitan markets. Acquisition of these businesses increases our proximity to consumers throughout North America and the United Kingdom. While we target annual after tax return of more than 15% for our acquisitions, we have averaged over a 25% return by the third year of ownership due to a disciplined approach focusing on accretive, cash flow positive targets at reasonable valuations. In addition to being financially accretive, acquisitions aim to drive network growth that improves our ability to serve customers through vast selection, greater density, easy access, and the ability to leverage national branding and advertising.

As we focus on expanding our physical network, one of the criteria we evaluate is a valuation multiple between 3x to 6x of investment in intangibles to estimated annualized adjusted EBITDA, with various factors including location, ability to expand our network and talent considered in determining value. We also target an investment in intangibles as a percentage of annualized revenues in the range of 15% to 30%.

During 2025, we acquired 17 stores and divested 12 stores. We invested $751.0 million, net of floor plan debt, to acquire these stores and we anticipate these acquisitions to add nearly $2.4 billion in annualized revenues.

We regularly optimize and balance our network through strategic divestitures to ensure continued high performance. We believe our disciplined approach provides us with attractive acquisition opportunities and expanded coast-to-coast coverage.

Thoughtful capital allocation
We manage our liquidity and available cash to support our long-term plan focused on growth through acquisitions and investments in our existing business, technology, and adjacencies that expand and diversify our business model. Our current free cash flow deployment strategy includes a target allocation of 25% to 35% investment in acquisitions, 25% investment in capital expenditures, innovation, and diversification and 40% to 50% in shareholder return in the form of dividends and share repurchases due to current valuation trends in acquisitions relative to stock price performance. During 2025, we utilized $350.9 million for capital expenditures investing in our existing business and paid $55.3 million in dividends. As of December 31, 2025, we had available liquidity of approximately $1.5 billion, which was comprised of $109.2 million in unrestricted cash, $56.4 million in marketable securities, and $1.4 billion availability on our credit facilities.

Marketing
Lithia & Driveway's core value, "Earn Customers for Life," drives our marketing strategy to empower consumers throughout the vehicle ownership lifecycle. To place ease and value at our customers' fingertips, we are constantly evolving the retail experience so customers can choose transparent, convenient ways to buy, sell, or service their vehicles wherever, whenever, and however they desire.

Our national, regional, and local brands connect with consumers through advertising tailored to the individual brand and market. Utilizing data and omnichannel communications, we strive to create deeper and richer offerings to build lifelong loyalty throughout the vehicle ownership lifecycle.

With a vast selection represented by the largest U.S. new and preowned vehicle inventory for sale online, we employ search engine optimization, search engine marketing, online display, retargeting, social advertising, traditional media, and direct marketing to reach current owners and new consumers.

Most consumers begin their shopping, buying, or selling activity on our store websites, Driveway.com, and GreenCars.com. Our proprietary customer lifecycle communication platform targets specific stages in the shopping process or ownership lifecycle. In an industry where the competition often relies on third parties to manage their customer data, we manage our data internally. This strategy allows us to leverage our customer insights across many revenue streams and goes beyond automotive needs.

These online channels provide customers with simple, transparent ways to search new and used inventories, view current pricing, apply incentives and offers, calculate payments for purchase or lease, apply for financing, buy online, sell their vehicle online and/or in-store, schedule service appointments both in store or at home, schedule vehicle pick-up and delivery, and provide us feedback about their experience.

Driveway.com, our online experience, puts customers in control of every aspect of their car ownership. They can browse a vast nationwide inventory of new, used, and certified pre-owned (CPO) vehicles, and get their vehicle shipped straight to their driveway or pick it up at one of Lithia's 300+ U.S. stores in the Lithia & Driveway network. In 2025, we reduced our marketing cost per retail delivery by 21% and our marketing cost per purchase pickup by 51%, through relentlessly testing our media efficiency in conjunction with operational gains. Driveway provides a differentiated retail experience for customers who prefer the simplicity and convenience of online shopping and the optionality of home delivery. This platform allows us to significantly increase the geographic reach of our network.

With the industry transitioning to more sustainable practices and alternative-fuel vehicles, we are excited that GreenCars, our online education resource for sustainable mobility, had approximately 9.0 million unique visitors in 2025 at GreenCars.com, of which we saw a 50% increase in direct and organic traffic. GreenCars is a leading source of knowledge designed to promote the acceleration of electric vehicle and alternative powertrain offerings like Hybrid adoption by educating the consumer on such topics as fuel-efficient offerings from model comparisons, personalized incentives, and local rebates to charging network. GreenCars connects consumers with the largest new-and-preowned inventory when they are ready to purchase a sustainable vehicle. GreenCars.com was an important part of the shopping and selection process for over 10,000 vehicles across our dealer network in 2025.

Total advertising expense, net of manufacturer credits, was $257.0 million in 2025, $250.7 million in 2024 and $248.2 million in 2023. Over 88% of our advertising spent in 2025 was on digital, social, listings, and one-to-one owner communications. In all of our communications, we seek to convey the promise of a positive customer experience, competitive pricing, and wide selection. Our manufacturer partners influence a significant portion of our advertising expense. Certain advertising and marketing expenditures are offset by manufacturer cooperative programs, which require us to submit requests for reimbursement to manufacturers for qualifying advertising expenditures. These advertising credits are not tied to specific vehicles and are earned as qualifying expenses are incurred. These reimbursements are recognized as a reduction of advertising expense. Manufacturer cooperative advertising credits were $62.5 million in 2025, $56.2 million in 2024 and $54.2 million in 2023.

Human Capital

Our human capital strategy is guided by our mission of Growth Powered by People, which reflects management's focus on aligning workforce capability, leadership development, and performance with the execution of our business strategy.

As of December 31, 2025, our subsidiaries employed approximately 30,000 persons on a full-time equivalent basis across 455 retail locations worldwide.

Our success depends on the skills, experience, engagement, and performance of our workforce. We believe that a stable, skilled workforce supports operational performance and customer satisfaction. Management focuses on human capital practices that are material to the business, including workforce planning, leadership capability, employee development, engagement, and workplace safety.

Management seeks to attract, develop, and retain qualified team members by providing competitive compensation and benefits, opportunities for professional development, and pathways for internal advancement. A core focus of our talent strategy is the development and promotion of internal team members to support leadership continuity, operational excellence, and long-term growth.

We use structured talent and performance assessment approaches to inform workforce and leadership decisions. These include management frameworks designed to evaluate performance, potential, and readiness for expanded responsibility, as well as succession planning processes intended to identify and develop future leaders for key roles. These practices support continuity in leadership and informed talent investment across the organization.

We invest in learning and development initiatives designed to build technical, operational, and leadership capabilities aligned with business needs and job responsibilities. These efforts support internal mobility, leadership readiness, and the ongoing development of our workforce.

Management seeks to foster a workplace culture that emphasizes accountability, ethical conduct, collaboration, and respect. Workforce-related information and employee feedback are periodically reviewed to inform talent, organizational, and succession planning decisions.

Safety and well-being are integral to our operations, particularly in retail and service environments. We maintain policies, training, and practices designed to promote a safe and healthy workplace for employees and customers.

We believe that our human capital resources, together with our management practices and culture, support the execution of our strategy and contribute to our long-term performance.

Franchise Agreements

Each of our stores operates under a separate franchise agreement with the manufacturer of the new vehicle brand it sells.

Typical vehicle franchise agreements specify the locations within a designated market area at which the store may sell vehicles and related products and perform approved services. The designation of the market areas and the allocation of new vehicles among stores are at the discretion of the manufacturer. Franchise agreements do not, however, guarantee exclusivity within a specified territory.

A franchise agreement may impose requirements on the store with respect to:

- facilities and equipment;
- inventories of vehicles and parts;
- minimum working capital;
- training of personnel; and
- performance standards for market share and customer satisfaction.

Each manufacturer closely monitors compliance with these requirements and requires each store to submit monthly financial statements. Franchise agreements also grant a store the right to use and display manufacturers' trademarks, service marks and designs in the manner approved by each manufacturer.

We have determined the useful life of a franchise agreement is indefinite, even though certain franchise agreements are renewed after one to six years. In our experience, agreements are routinely renewed without substantial cost and there are legal remedies to help prevent termination. Certain franchise agreements have no termination date. In addition, state franchise laws protect franchised automotive retailers. Under certain laws, a manufacturer may not terminate or fail to renew a franchise without good cause or prevent any reasonable changes in the capital structure or financing of a store.

Our typical franchise agreement provides for early termination or non-renewal by the manufacturer upon:

- a change of management or ownership without manufacturer consent;
- insolvency or bankruptcy of the dealer;
- death or incapacity of the dealer/manager;
- conviction of a dealer/manager or owner of certain crimes;
- misrepresentation of certain sales or inventory information to the manufacturer;
- failure to adequately operate the store;
- failure to maintain any license, permit or authorization required for the conduct of business;
- poor market share; or
- low customer satisfaction index scores.

Franchise agreements generally provide for prior written notice before a franchise may be terminated under most circumstances. We also sign master framework agreements with most manufacturers that impose additional requirements. See Item 1A. Risk Factors.

Competition

The retail automotive business is highly competitive. Currently, there are nearly 17,000 new vehicle franchise dealers in the United States, 4,500 in the United Kingdom, and 3,800 in Canada. Many of these franchised dealers are independent stores managed by individuals, families or small retail groups. We compete primarily with other automotive retailers, both publicly- and privately-held, including automotive retailers that are primarily used-vehicle focused, such as CarMax, Carvana, and Cazoo.

Vehicle manufacturers have designated specific marketing and sales areas within which only one dealer of a vehicle brand may operate. In addition, our franchise agreements typically limit our ability to acquire multiple dealerships of a given brand within a particular market area. Certain jurisdictional franchise laws also restrict us from relocating our dealerships, or establishing new dealerships of a particular brand, within any area that is served by another dealer with the same brand. To the extent that a market has multiple dealers of a particular brand, as certain markets we operate in do, we are subject to significant intra-brand competition.

We are larger and have more financial resources than most private automotive retailers with which we currently compete in the majority of our regional markets. We compete directly with retailers with similar or greater resources in our existing metro and non-metro markets. We also compete based on dealer reputation in the various markets. If we enter other new markets, we may face competitors that have access to greater financial resources or have strong brands. We do not have any cost advantage in purchasing new vehicles from manufacturers. We rely on advertising and merchandising, pricing, our customer guarantees and sales model, our sales expertise, service reputation, and the location of our stores to sell new vehicles.

Regulation

Automotive and Other Laws and Regulations

We operate in a highly regulated industry. A number of laws and regulations affect our business. In every jurisdiction in which we operate, we must obtain various licenses to operate our businesses, including dealer, sales and finance and insurance licenses issued by regulatory authorities. Numerous laws and regulations govern our business, including those relating to our sales, operations, financing, insurance, advertising and employment practices. These laws and regulations include jurisdictional franchise laws and regulations, consumer protection laws, privacy laws, escheatment laws, anti-money laundering laws and wage-hour, anti-discrimination, and other employment practices laws.

Our financing activities with customers are subject to numerous federal, state and local laws and regulations. In recent years, there has been an increase in activity related to oversight of consumer lending by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), which has broad regulatory powers. The CFPB has supervisory authority over large non-bank auto finance companies, including DFC. The CFPB can use this authority to conduct supervisory examinations to ensure compliance with various federal consumer protection laws. The CFPB does not have direct authority over automotive dealers; however, its regulation of larger automotive finance companies and other financial institutions could affect our financing activities. Claims arising out of actual or alleged violations of law may be asserted against us or our stores by individuals, a class of individuals, or governmental entities. These claims may expose us to significant damages or other penalties, including revocation or suspension of our licenses to conduct store operations and fines.

The vehicles we sell are also subject to rules and regulations of various federal and state regulatory agencies.

Environmental, Health, and Safety Laws and Regulations

Our operations involve the use, handling, storage and contracting for recycling and/or disposal of materials such as motor oil and filters, transmission fluids, antifreeze, refrigerants, paints, thinners, batteries, cleaning products, lubricants, degreasing agents, tires and fuel. Consequently, our business is subject to a complex variety of federal, state, and local requirements that regulate the environment and public health and safety.

Most of our stores use above ground storage tanks, and, to a lesser extent, underground storage tanks, primarily for petroleum-based products. Storage tanks are subject to periodic testing, containment, upgrading and removal under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act and its state law counterparts. Clean-up or other remedial action may be necessary in the event of leaks or other discharges from storage tanks or other sources. In addition, water quality protection programs under the federal Water Pollution Control Act (commonly known as the Clean Water Act), the Safe Drinking Water Act and comparable state and local programs govern certain discharges from our operations. Similarly, certain air emissions from operations, such as auto body painting, may be subject to the federal Clean Air Act and related state and local laws. Health and safety standards promulgated by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration of the U.S. Department of Labor and related state agencies also apply.

Certain stores may become a party to proceedings under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, or CERCLA, typically in connection with materials that were sent to former recycling, treatment and/or disposal facilities owned and operated by independent businesses. The remediation or clean-up of facilities where the release of a regulated hazardous substance occurred is required under CERCLA and other laws.

We incur certain costs to comply with environmental, health and safety laws and regulations in the ordinary course of our business. We do not anticipate, however, that the costs of compliance will have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows, or financial condition, although such outcome is possible given the nature of our operations and the extensive environmental, public health and safety regulatory framework. We may become aware of minor contamination at certain of our facilities, and we conduct investigations and remediation at properties as needed. In certain cases, the current or prior property owner may conduct the investigation and/or remediation or we have been indemnified by either the current or prior property owner for such contamination. We do not currently expect to incur significant costs for remediation. However, we cannot provide assurance that material environmental commitments or contingencies will not arise in the future, or that they do not already exist but are unknown to us. See Item 1A. Risk Factors.

Seasonality and Quarterly Fluctuations

Our North American operations generally experience lower volumes in the first quarter of each year due to consumer purchasing patterns and inclement weather in certain of our markets. As a result, financial performance is expected to be lower during the first quarter than during the second, third, and fourth quarters of each fiscal year. Our U.K. operations generally experience higher volumes in the first and third quarter of each year, due primarily to new vehicle registration practices in the United Kingdom. We believe that interest rates, levels of consumer debt, consumer confidence and manufacturer sales incentives, as well as general economic conditions, also contribute to fluctuations in sales and operating results.

Available Information

We make available free of charge, on our website at www.lithiainvestorrelations.com, our annual reports on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, current reports on Form 8-K, and amendments to those reports filed or furnished pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, as soon as reasonably practicable after they are filed electronically with the SEC. Item 1A. Risk Factors

You should carefully consider the risks described below before making an investment decision. The risks described below are not the only ones facing our company. Additional risks not presently known to us, or that we currently deem immaterial, may also impair our business operations.

Risks Related to Our Business

The automotive retail industry is sensitive to changing economic conditions and various other factors. Our business and results of operations are substantially dependent on new vehicle sales levels in the United States and in our particular geographic markets and the level of gross profit margins that we can achieve on our sales of new vehicles, all of which are very difficult to predict.

Our business is heavily dependent on consumer demand and preferences. A downturn in overall levels of consumer spending may materially and adversely affect our revenues and gross profit margins. Retail vehicle sales are cyclical and historically have experienced periodic downturns characterized by weak demand. These cycles are often dependent on general economic conditions and consumer confidence, as well as the level of discretionary personal income and credit availability. Additionally, other economic factors, such as rising and sustained periods of high crude oil and fuel prices and other inflation, may impact consumer demand and preferences. As we operate internationally, including across the United States, the United Kingdom, and Canada, changes in and the severity of economic conditions may vary by market. Economic conditions may be anemic for an extended period of time or deteriorate in the future. This would have a material adverse effect on our retail business, particularly sales of new and used vehicles. These economic conditions and other factors may also materially impact our parts and repair and maintenance aftersales, and automotive finance and insurance (F&I) products.

The economies of the United States, the United Kingdom, and Canada have recently experienced heightened inflationary pressures, impacting the costs of labor, fuel, and other costs. In an inflationary environment, depending on automotive industry and other economic conditions, we may be unable to raise prices to keep up with the rate of inflation, which would reduce our profit margins, and if we do raise prices, we may experience less demand. A period of sustained inflationary and interest rate pressures could impact our profitability.

Additionally, elevated interest rates, along with higher vehicle prices, have impacted new and used vehicle sales and vehicle affordability due to the direct relationship between interest rates and monthly loan payments, a critical factor for many vehicle buyers, and the impact interest rates have on customers' borrowing capacity and disposable income. Consumer demand may be further adversely impacted if interest rates continue to increase or are sustained at current levels.

Natural disasters, adverse weather conditions, and public health emergencies can disrupt our business.

Our dealerships operate in geographic areas in which actual or threatened natural disasters and severe weather events (such as hurricanes, earthquakes, fires, floods, landslides, wind and/or hailstorms) or other extraordinary events have in the past, and may in the future, disrupt our dealership operations and impair the value of our dealership property. In addition, the occurrence of public health emergencies or other extraordinary events, such as regional epidemics or a global pandemic, such as COVID-19, and the governmental, business, and individuals' actions in response to the event, particularly with respect to our stores that rely on in-person experiences, could also disrupt our operations. A disruption in our operations may adversely impact our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

The automotive manufacturing supply chain spans the globe. As such, supply chain disruptions resulting from natural disasters, adverse weather events, or public health emergencies may affect the flow of inventory or parts to us or our manufacturing partners. Such disruptions could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows.

Intense competition among automotive retailers and new brands may reduce our vehicle sales and profit margins on vehicle sales and related businesses.

Vehicle retailing is a highly competitive business. Our competitors include many publicly and privately-owned dealerships. Our franchise agreements do not grant us the exclusive right to sell a manufacturer's product within a given geographic area and many of our competitors sell the same or similar makes of new and used vehicles that we offer in our markets at competitive prices, as well as competitive vehicles we may not sell. We do not have any cost advantage in purchasing new vehicles from manufacturers due to the volume of purchases or otherwise.

Our F&I business and other related businesses, which have higher margins than sales of new and used vehicles, are subject to strong competition from various financial institutions and others.

In addition, new manufacturers with whom we do not have franchises are entering the automotive industry. New companies have raised capital to produce fully electric vehicles or to license battery technology to existing manufacturers. Tesla and Rivian have demonstrated the ability to successfully introduce electric vehicles to the marketplace. Foreign manufacturers from China and India are producing significant volumes of new vehicles and are entering the United States and selecting partners to distribute their products. Because the automotive market in the United States is mature and the overall level of new vehicle sales may not increase in the coming years, the success of new competitors will likely be at the expense of other, established brands. This could have material adverse impact on our success in the future.

Changes to the retail delivery model and increased e-commerce and omnichannel competition could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Online and mobile applications have become a more significant part of the sales process in our industry as consumers are increasingly using these platforms to shop for new and used vehicles and vehicle repair and maintenance services. Some of our competition relies on or focuses exclusively on an online e-commerce business model. In addition, larger traditional automotive retailers are transforming their models to support omnichannel retail experiences, providing consumers with vehicle purchasing experiences outside of the traditional brick and mortar automotive dealership model.

In addition, there has been some growth in subscription business models that offer consumers and businesses pay-monthly access to vehicles that often include insurance, maintenance, and roadside assistance, often without a long-term commitment or lease. Other consumer delivery models may develop. We are uncertain as to the long-term effect on consumer delivery models that do no result in vehicle ownership by consumers.

We continue to develop our own technology, omnichannel experiences, and solutions to further expand the reach of the networks of service and delivery points in our geographic markets. We may face increased competition for market share with these other delivery models and omnichannel retailers over time which could materially and adversely affect our results of operations. There can be no assurance that our initiatives will be successful or that the amount we invest in these initiatives will result in our maintaining market share and continued or improved financial performance.

In addition, the growing use of social media by consumers increases the speed and extent that information and opinions can be shared, and negative posts or comments on social media about us or any of our stores could materially damage our retail brands, reputation, and sales channels.

We compete in a dynamic industry, and we may invest significant resources to pursue strategies, develop new offerings, and enter into adjacent businesses that do not prove effective or profitable.

The expectations and behaviors of vehicle customers are shifting as e-commerce and digital technology have become a more significant part of the sales process. We have made and may continue to make significant investments to drive the development of and support of e-commerce and digital technology capabilities, including the launch of Driveway, our e-commerce home solution, and DFC, our in-house consumer financing business. We have also recently invested in a dealer-management technology business and a fleet management business. Changes or additions to our offerings or businesses may not prove sufficiently profitable or attract or engage our customers, and may reduce confidence in our brands, expose us to increased market or legal risks, subject us to new laws and regulations, or otherwise harm our business.

Customers may prefer other channels for vehicle sales and related F&I services, because they may offer different or superior platforms, or because customers find those platforms easier to use, faster, or more cost effective than our services. We may not successfully anticipate or keep pace with industry changes, and we have and may continue to invest considerable financial resources, personnel, or other resources to pursue strategies that do not ultimately prove effective. A failure to capture the anticipated benefits of such investments could harm our results of operations and financial condition.

A decline of affordable and available vehicle financing may adversely affect our vehicle sales.

A significant portion of buyers finance their vehicle purchases. The primary finance sources our customers use in connection with the purchase of a new or used vehicle are manufacturer captive finance companies, DFC, and sub-prime lenders. These consumer vehicle financing sources rely to a certain extent on financing markets and sources to provide the capital necessary to support their financing programs. In addition, these financing sources, including DFC, will occasionally change their loan underwriting criteria to alter the risk profile of their loan portfolio. In the event that the cost to customers to finance vehicles becomes more expensive, due to increases in interest rates by the financing sources or their sources of capital, lenders tighten their credit standards, or available vehicle financing declines, consumers may be unable or less willing to purchase vehicles, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Regulatory requirements to reduce emissions in response to climate change, changes in consumer demand toward fuel-efficient vehicles and manufacturers' commitments to electric vehicles could adversely affect our new and used vehicle sales volumes, F&I and parts and service revenues and our results of operations.

Concerns over the impacts of climate change have led and may continue to lead to governmental initiatives aimed at mitigating those impacts. Consumers may also change their behavior as a result of these concerns, as well as having a preference for vehicles that require less fuel in response to increases in fuel prices.

Certain governments have declared commitments to various electric vehicle and zero emissions goals, such as the state of California's executive order requiring all new cars and passenger trucks sold in the state to be zero-emission vehicles by 2035. The U.K. government has announced a ban on the sale of gasoline-only engines in new cars and vans after 2030, and beginning in 2035, only electric vehicles will be allowed to be sold. Manufacturers continue to invest in increasing production and quality of electric vehicles, including Battery-Electric Vehicles (BEVs), Hybrid Electric Vehicles, and Plug-in Hybrid Electric Vehicles. These vehicles generally require less maintenance than traditional cars and trucks. The effects of electric-based vehicles on the automotive industry are uncertain and may include reduced after-sales revenues, as well as changes in the level of sales of certain F&I products such as extended warranty programs and lifetime lube, oil, and filter contracts.

Regulations around fuel economy standards and carbon emissions may continue to increase. New requirements may adversely affect any manufacturer's ability to profitably design, market, produce, and distribute vehicles that comply with such regulations. Our ability to market and sell these vehicles at affordable prices and to finance these inventories could be adversely impacted. These regulations could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Adverse conditions affecting one or more key manufacturers may negatively affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

We depend on our manufacturers to provide a supply of vehicles that support expected sales levels. Any event that adversely affects a manufacturer's timely delivery of new vehicles may adversely affect us by reducing our supply of popular new vehicles, leading to lower sales in our stores during those periods than may otherwise occur. For example, the shortage of semiconductor chips and labor disruptions during 2021 and 2022 significantly constrained the supply of new vehicles resulting in reduced sales volumes and increased gross profit margins on retail vehicle sales. As new vehicle availability has improved, gross profit margins have been negatively impacted.

We depend on our manufacturers to deliver high-quality, defect-free vehicles. If a manufacturer experiences quality issues, our sales and financial performance may be adversely impacted. In addition, the discontinuance of a particular brand that is profitable to us could negatively impact our revenues and profitability.
Vehicle manufacturers would be adversely affected by economic downturns or recessions, adverse fluctuations in currency exchange rates, significant declines in the sales of their new vehicles, increases in interest rates, constraints on financing, port closures, labor strikes or similar disruptions (including within their major suppliers), supply shortages or rising raw material costs, rising team member costs, adverse publicity that may reduce consumer demand for their products, product defects, vehicle recall campaigns, litigation, poor product mix or unappealing vehicle design, or other adverse events. These and other risks could materially adversely affect any manufacturer and limit its ability to profitably design, market, produce or distribute new vehicles, which, in turn, could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

New vehicles from five manufacturers, Honda, Toyota, Ford, BMW, and Stellantis, represent 25% of our sales. We are subject to a concentration of risk in the event of financial distress, including potential reorganization or bankruptcy, or other issue affecting one or more of these manufacturers.

In the event of a manufacturer or distributor bankruptcy, we could be held liable for damages related to product liability claims, intellectual property suits or other legal actions. These legal actions are typically directed towards the vehicle manufacturer and it is customary for manufacturers to indemnify us from exposure related to any judgments associated with the claims. However, if damages could not be collected from the manufacturer or distributor, we could be named in lawsuits and judgments could be levied against us.

If manufacturers or distributors discontinue or change sales incentives, warranties, and other promotional programs, our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows may be materially adversely affected.

We depend upon the manufacturers and distributors for sales incentives, warranties, and other programs that are intended to promote new vehicle sales or supplement dealer income. Manufacturers and distributors routinely make changes to their incentive programs. Key incentive programs include:

- customer rebates;
- dealer incentives on new vehicles;
- special financing rates on certified, pre-owned vehicles; and
- below-market financing on new vehicles and special leasing terms.

Our financial condition could be materially adversely impacted by a discontinuation or change in our manufacturers' or distributors' incentive programs. In addition, certain manufacturers use criteria such as a dealership's manufacturer-determined customer satisfaction index (CSI score), facility image compliance, team member training, digital marketing and parts purchase programs as factors governing participation in incentive programs. To the extent we do not meet minimum score requirements, we may be precluded from receiving certain incentives, which could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Franchised automotive retailers perform factory authorized service work and sell original replacement parts on vehicles covered by warranties issued by the automotive manufacturer. For the year ended December 31, 2025, approximately 25% of our aftersales revenue was for work covered by manufacturer warranties or manufacturer-sponsored maintenance services. To the extent a manufacturer reduces the labor rates or markup of replacement parts for such warranty work, our aftersales volume could be adversely affected.

The ability of our stores to make new vehicle sales depends in large part upon the franchise agreements with manufacturers and, therefore, any disruption or change in our relationships could impact our business.

We depend on the manufacturers to provide us with a desirable mix of new vehicles. The most popular vehicles usually produce the highest profit margins and are frequently in short supply. If we cannot obtain sufficient quantities of the most popular models, our profitability may be adversely affected. Sales of less desirable models may reduce our profit margins.

Each of our stores operates pursuant to a franchise agreement with each of the respective manufacturers for which it serves as franchisee. Each of our stores may obtain new vehicles from manufacturers, service vehicles, sell new vehicles, and display vehicle manufacturers' brands only to the extent permitted under these agreements. As a result of the terms of our franchise agreements, manufacturers exert significant control over the day-to-day operations at our stores. Such agreements contain provisions for termination or non-renewal for a variety of causes, including service retention, facility compliance, customer satisfaction, and sales and financial performance. From time to time, certain of our stores have failed to comply with certain provisions of their franchise agreements, and we cannot ensure that our stores will be able to comply with these provisions in the future.

Our franchise agreements expire at various times, and there can be no assurances that we will be able to renew these agreements on a timely basis or on acceptable terms or at all. Actions taken by a manufacturer to exploit its bargaining position in negotiating the terms of renewals of franchise agreements or otherwise could also have a material adverse effect on our revenues and profitability. If a manufacturer terminates or fails to renew one or more of our significant franchise agreements or a large number of our franchise agreements, such action could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Our franchise agreements also specify that, except in certain situations, we cannot operate a franchise by another manufacturer in the same building as the manufacturer's franchised store. This may require us to build new facilities at a significant cost. Moreover, our manufacturers generally require that the store meet defined image standards. These commitments could require us to make significant capital expenditures.

Our franchise agreements do not give us the exclusive right to a given geographic area. Manufacturers may be able to establish new franchises or relocate existing franchises, subject to applicable state franchise laws. The establishment of or relocation of franchises in our markets could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, and results of operations of our stores in the market in which the action is taken.

Changes to manufacturer distribution models may disrupt the way we do business and impact our revenues and profitability.

Generally, state dealer laws restrict the ability of vehicle manufacturers to directly enter the retail market. Manufacturer lobbying efforts and lawsuits have led to the repeal or revision of these laws. For example, Tesla received a favorable ruling in certain states allowing direct to consumer sales and service. In addition, some states have passed, or may consider introducing, legislation to permit direct to consumer auto sales in certain circumstances, allowing additional electric vehicle manufacturers such as Rivian to enter the market. In 2025, Scout Motors Inc. secured a dealer license in Colorado allowing it to sell vehicles directly to customers until October 2026, providing a temporary but official pathway to engage in direct-to consumer sales, which may serve as a catalyst for the expansion of the direct-to-consumer sales model. If manufacturers obtain the ability to directly retail vehicles in our markets, our role in the auto retail market would change and we could experience a loss of revenue and profits and other negative impacts that have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

In addition, other changes by manufacturers to their distribution models may impact our operations in the United Kingdom. Certain manufacturers, such as Honda, Volvo, Volkswagen, Mini, Mercedes-Benz and Smart, have already transitioned to an agency model in the United Kingdom, whereby the consumer places an order directly with the manufacturer and names a preferred delivery dealer. We have such an agency relationship with Mercedes-Benz with our U.K. dealers. Other manufacturers have announced their intentions to transition to an agency model in coming years, including, among others, BMW, Ford, Jeep, Peugeot, Citroen, Jaguar and Land Rover. Under an agency model, our dealerships receive a fee for facilitating the sale by the manufacturer of a new vehicle but do not hold such vehicle in inventory. The agency model will reduce reported revenues (as only the fee we receive, and not the price of the vehicle, will be reported as revenue), reduce SG&A expenses, and reduce floorplan interest expense, although the other impacts to our results of operations remain uncertain. If manufacturers continue to transition to an agency model in the United Kingdom or another new model is implemented in the United Kingdom or other countries and regions in which we operate, including in the United States and Canada, for the sale of electric or other vehicles, it could negatively affect our revenues, results of operations, and financial condition.

Our indebtedness and lease obligations could materially adversely affect our financial health, limit our ability to finance future acquisitions and capital expenditures and prevent us from fulfilling our financial obligations. Much of our debt is secured by a substantial portion of our assets. Much of our debt has a variable interest rate component that may significantly increase our interest costs in a rising rate environment.

As of December 31, 2025, we had $5.1 billion of total non-vehicle long-term debt and $6.1 billion of vehicle inventory financing, as well as substantial lease obligations and non-recourse debt under our warehouse facilities and ABS structure. Our substantial indebtedness and lease obligations could have important consequences to us, including the following:

- difficulty satisfying our debt service obligations and maintaining financial covenants, which if we fail to comply with these requirements, an event of default could result;
- limitations on our ability to make acquisitions;
- impaired ability to obtain additional financing for acquisitions, capital expenditures, working capital or general corporate purposes;
- reduced funds available for our operations and other purposes, as a larger portion of our cash flow from operations would be dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on our indebtedness;
- exposure to the risk of increasing interest rates as certain borrowings are, and will continue to be, at variable rates of interest; and
- increased risk in the event of an economic downturn.

In addition, our loan agreements and our senior note indentures contain covenants that limit our discretion with respect to business matters, including incurring additional debt, granting additional security interests in our assets, acquisition activity, disposing of assets, and other business matters. Other covenants are financial in nature, including current ratio, fixed charge coverage, and leverage ratio calculations. A breach of any of these covenants could result in a default under the applicable agreement. In addition, a default under one agreement could result in a default and acceleration of our repayment obligations under the other agreements under the cross-default provisions in such other agreements.

We have granted a security interest in a substantial portion of our assets to certain of our lenders and other secured parties, including those under our $6.5 billion syndicated credit facility and $1.1 billion CAD Canadian syndicated credit facility. If we default on our obligations under those agreements, the secured parties may be able to foreclose upon their security interests and otherwise be entitled to obtain or control those assets.

Certain debt agreements contain subjective acceleration clauses based on a lender deeming itself insecure or if a "material adverse change" in our business has occurred. If these clauses are implicated, and the lender declares that an event of default has occurred, the outstanding indebtedness would likely be immediately due and owing.

If these events were to occur, we may not be able to pay our debts or borrow sufficient funds to refinance them. Even if new financing were available, it may not be on terms acceptable to us. As a result of this risk, we could be forced to take actions that we otherwise would not take, or not take actions that we otherwise might take, in order to comply with these agreements.

In addition, the lenders' obligations to make loans or other credit accommodations under certain credit agreements is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions precedent including, for example, the satisfaction of financial covenants and conditions and that our representations and warranties in the agreement are true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the proposed credit extension. If any of the conditions precedent are not satisfied, we may not be able to request new loans or other credit accommodations under those credit facilities, which could have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Additionally, at various times in the future, we will need to refinance portions of our debt. At the time we must refinance, the market for new debt, or our financial condition or asset valuations, might not be favorable. It is possible that financing to replace or renew our debt may be unfavorable, which would adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations. In certain cases, we may turn to equity or other alternative financing.

Our floor plan notes payable, credit facilities and a portion of our real estate debt are subject to variable interest rates. As of December 31, 2025, 63% of our total debt was variable rate. In the event interest rates increase, our borrowing costs may increase substantially. Additionally, fixed rate debt that matures may be renewed at interest rates significantly higher than current levels. As a result, this could have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. We may use interest rate derivatives to hedge a portion of our variable rate debt, when appropriate, based upon market conditions. See Note 12 – Derivative Financial Instruments, related to current hedge activity.

We may experience greater credit losses in DFC's finance receivable portfolio than anticipated, which will create losses for us.

Customers who finance a vehicle purchase or lease a vehicle through a DFC auto loan or lease may be unable to repay the loans based on the original terms and the fair value of the vehicles used as collateral against the loans may not be sufficient to ensure full repayment. Credit and residual value losses are an inherent risk of our finance receivable portfolio and could result in a material adverse effect on our results of operations.

We estimate an allowance for credit losses based on a variety of assumptions about DFC's portfolio of finance receivables. Although management prepares an estimate it believes appropriate based on available information, this allowance for credit losses may not be a sufficient reserve for loan and lease losses. For example, sudden economic changes such as an economic downturn or a change in consumer spending may result in additional losses incurred that we did not estimate in our original allowance for credit losses. Losses in excess of our allowance for credit losses could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations. In addition, finance companies are highly regulated by governmental authorities, as discussed in the risk factors under the heading, "Regulatory Risks."

The growth and success of our DFC business is dependent upon obtaining sufficient capital to grow our finance receivable portfolio.

Changes in the availability or cost of financing to support our finance receivable portfolio under DFC could adversely affect our results of operations. Our finance receivable portfolio is funded through a combination of free cash flows from operations and securitized funding, including asset-backed securitization. Changes in the condition of the asset backed securitization market may result in increased costs to access funds in the market or require us to explore new financing options to fund new auto loans and leases. In the event that there is no alternative financing available, we may be forced to pause our auto loan and lease financing business for a period of time. The impact of reducing or pausing our auto loan and lease financing business could result in a material adverse effect on our results of operations.

In addition, securitizing our finance receivable portfolio decreases our credit loss exposure. Market conditions could result in our accumulating a significant portfolio without the ability to, or cost-effectively, securitize a portion of the portfolio.

Technology and Cybersecurity Risks

Technological advances could affect our sales and business.

Technological advances are facilitating the development of driverless vehicles. The eventual timing of availability of driverless vehicles is uncertain due to regulatory requirements, technological hurdles, and uncertain consumer acceptance of these technologies. The effect of driverless vehicles and other technologies that may result in lower vehicle ownership on the automotive industry is uncertain and could include changes in the level of new and used vehicle sales, the price of new vehicles, and the role of franchised dealers, any of which could materially and adversely affect our business.

Breaches in our data security systems or in systems used by our vendor partners, including cyber-attacks or unauthorized data distribution by team members or affiliated vendors, or disruptions to access and connectivity of our information systems could impact our operations or result in the loss or misuse of customers' proprietary information.

Our information technology systems are important to operating our business efficiently. We employ information technology systems, including websites, that allow for the secure handling and processing of customers' proprietary information. The failure of our information technology systems, and those of our partner software and technology vendors, to perform as we anticipate could disrupt our business and could expose us to a risk of loss or misuse of this information, litigation and potential liability.

Aspects of our operations are subject to privacy, data use, and data security regulations, which impact the way we use and handle data. We collect, process, share, disclose, transfer, and otherwise use personal information about identifiable individuals including, but not limited to, our customers, team members, partners, and vendors, and so are subject to U.S. and international laws and regulations, regarding data privacy and security such as the California Consumer Privacy Act and the U.K. General Data Protection Regulation. These laws impose comprehensive data privacy compliance obligations in relation to our processing of personal data, including providing privacy rights to the individuals whose data we process and introducing requirements to maintain policies, processes, and procedures regarding our data handing practices. Additionally, our expansion into Canada and the United Kingdom subjects us to additional privacy and security regulations which also impact the way we handle and secure data across borders.

Our internal and third-party systems have been and may in the future be subject to cyber-attacks, viruses, malicious software, ransomware, break-ins, theft, computer hacking, phishing, exploitation of system vulnerabilities or misconfigurations, team member error, or malfeasance or other security breaches or loss of service. We invest in commercially reasonable security technology to protect our data and business processes against many of these risks. We also purchase insurance to mitigate the potential financial impact of many of these risks. Despite the security measures we have in place, our facilities and systems, and those of our third-party service providers, could be vulnerable to security breaches, computer viruses, lost or misplaced data, programming errors, human errors, acts of vandalism, or other events. Any security breach or event resulting in the misappropriation, loss, or other unauthorized disclosure of confidential information, or degradation or loss of services provided by critical business systems, whether by us directly or our third-party service providers, or any other loss of access to such critical business systems, could adversely affect our business operations, sales, reputation with current and potential customers, associates or vendors, as well as other operational and financial impacts derived from investigations, litigation, imposition of penalties or other means. While we have policies and procedures in place for mitigating the impact of a cybersecurity event on our business, which adhere to widely recognized standards for managing cybersecurity risk, these policies and procedures may not ultimately be sufficient or otherwise as effective as intended to eliminate, or in some cases reduce or mitigate, the impact of a cybersecurity event on our business. For example, in June 2024, one of our third-party providers, Global CDK (CDK), suspended information systems used by us in response to a cybersecurity incident impacting CDK. While we activated our cyber incident response procedures as a result of the incident, we still experienced disruption to our business in North America, including to our CDK-hosted dealer management system, which temporarily resulted in declines in same store sales during that time. For more information regarding our cybersecurity policies and procedures, see Item 1C. Cybersecurity.

Regulatory Risks

Our dealerships and our new vehicle sales model may not be protected if U.S. or Canadian state or provincial dealer laws are repealed or weakened, a manufacturer becomes bankrupt, or there is a shift to other sales models.

State and provincial dealer laws generally provide that a manufacturer may not terminate or refuse to renew a franchise agreement unless it has first provided the dealer with written notice setting forth good cause and stating the grounds for termination or non-renewal. Certain U.S. state dealer laws allow dealers to file protests or petitions or attempt to comply with the manufacturer's criteria within the notice period to avoid the termination or non-renewal. If dealer laws are repealed in the states in which we operate, manufacturers may be able to terminate our franchises without an opportunity to cure or a showing of good cause. In Canada, although laws differ by province, provincial law generally provides that both a manufacturer and dealer each has a common law and statutory duty of good faith and fair dealing in performance and enforcement of any franchise agreement. Disputes are generally handled through the National Automobile Dealer Arbitration Program (NADAP). If a manufacturer wished to terminate a franchise, there is no guaranty that we would win such a dispute. Without the protection of state and provincial dealer laws, it may also be more difficult to renew our franchise agreements upon expiration or on terms acceptable to us.

As evidenced by the bankruptcy proceedings of both Chrysler and GM in 2009, state dealer laws do not afford continued protection from manufacturer terminations or non-renewal of franchise agreements. No assurances can be given that a manufacturer will not seek protection under bankruptcy laws, or that, in this event, they will not seek to terminate franchise rights held by us.

Our U.K. dealerships are subject to different regulatory frameworks than our U.S. and Canada operations, and changes to these regulatory frameworks could negatively affect our results of operations.

The majority of our dealerships in the United Kingdom currently operate under franchise agreements with vehicle manufacturers, however, unlike in the United States, the United Kingdom generally does not have automotive dealership franchise laws and, as a result, our U.K. dealerships operate without these types of specific protections that exist in the United States. In addition, our U.K. dealerships are also subject to U.K. antitrust regulations prohibiting certain restrictions on the sale of new vehicles and spare parts and on the provision of repairs and maintenance. For instance, authorized dealers are generally able to, subject to manufacturer facility requirements, relocate or add additional facilities throughout the EU, offer multiple brands in the same facility, allow the operation of service facilities independent of new car sales facilities and ease restrictions on cross supplies (including on transfers of dealerships) between existing authorized dealers within the EU. However, under the EU Motor Vehicle Block Exemption Regulation, which was retained in U.K. law following the United Kingdom's exit from the EU on January 31, 2020, certain restrictions on dealerships are permissible in franchise agreements provided certain conditions are met. In October 2022, the Competition and Markets Authority of the U.K. published recommendations to introduce an updated U.K. equivalent broadly similar to the EU Motor Vehicle Block Exemption Regulations, however, changes to these protections or rules could negatively affect our revenues, results of operations and financial condition.

Changes to laws or regulatory frameworks applicable to automotive consumer financing transactions could negatively affect our results of operations.

Our financing activities are subject to federal truth-in-lending, consumer leasing, and equal credit opportunity laws and regulations, as well as motor vehicle finance laws, installment finance laws, insurance laws, usury laws, and other installment sales laws and regulations. Some jurisdictions regulate finance, documentation, and administrative fees that may be charged in connection with vehicle sales. In recent years, private plaintiffs and state attorneys general in the United States have increased their scrutiny of advertising, sales, and F&I activities in the sale and leasing of motor vehicles. These activities have led many lenders to limit the amounts that may be charged to customers as fee income for these activities. If these or similar activities were to significantly restrict our ability to generate revenue from arranging financing for our customers, we could be adversely affected. Further, the Consumer Finance Protection Board has supervisory authority over certain non-bank lenders, including automotive finance companies, such as our captive auto finance company DFC. The CFPB can use this authority to conduct supervisory examinations or initiate enforcement actions and/or litigation to ensure compliance with various federal consumer protection laws.

Auto finance agreements between consumers and finance lenders typically include amounts to be paid as commissions to the dealership of purchase. In October 2024, the U.K. Court of Appeals ruled that brokers, including car dealerships, could not lawfully receive commissions from finance lenders without obtaining the customer's fully informed consent to the commission payments. This ruling is now on appeal to the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom. As a result of the appeals court ruling, car dealerships in the United Kingdom are now required to explicitly disclose to their customers the commissions they receive in connection with auto financing arrangements. In response to this ruling, several major finance lenders in the United Kingdom temporarily stopped underwriting new auto finance agreements to review their policies and practices and make any updates necessary to ensure compliance with the new requirements. While these lenders have resumed underwriting since, the initial pause caused significant disruption in the U.K. motor finance market and led to reduced sales volume. Because many of our customers in the United Kingdom rely on financing arrangements to purchase their vehicles from us, any additional judicial or legislative development that changes any of our or third parties' obligations with respect to auto finance transactions could lead to further disruption that causes our U.K. sales volumes and related commissions to decline. Similarly, any law, regulation, or court ruling that has a similar impact with respect to auto finance transactions in the United States or Canada could lead to reduced sales volumes and related commissions in those regions. If our sales volume or commissions are reduced as a result of any such changes in the United Kingdom, the United States, or Canada, it could negatively affect our revenues, results of operations, and financial condition.

Import product restrictions, currency valuations, tariffs, U.S. and foreign trade policies and risks may impair our ability to sell vehicles or parts profitably.

A significant portion of the vehicles we sell are manufactured outside of the geographic regions in which we operate, and all of the vehicles we sell include parts manufactured outside of the geographic regions in which we operate. As a result, our operations are subject to customary risks of importing merchandise, including currency fluctuation, import duties or tariffs, exchange rates, trade restrictions, work stoppages, transportation costs, natural or man-made disasters, and general political and socioeconomic conditions in other countries. The United States or the countries from which our products are imported, may, from time to time, impose new quotas, duties, tariffs or other restrictions, or adjust presently prevailing quotas, duties or tariffs, which may affect our operations and our ability to purchase imported vehicles and/or parts at reasonable prices. Changes in U.S. trade policies, including policies intended to penalize foreign manufacturing or imports, and policies of foreign countries in reaction to those changes, could increase the prices we pay for, or limit the supply of, the new vehicles and parts we sell. Any changes that increase the costs of vehicles and parts generally, to the extent passed on to customers, could negatively affect customer demand and our revenues and profitability. If not passed on to our customers, any cost increases will adversely affect our profitability. Any cost increase that disproportionately applies to manufacturers that sell to us could adversely affect our business compared to other vehicle retailers.

Our operations are subject to extensive governmental laws and regulations. If we are found to be in violation of or subject to liabilities under any of these laws, or if new laws or regulations are enacted that adversely affect our operations, our business, operating results, and prospects could suffer.

We are subject to federal, state, and local laws and regulations in the geographic regions in which we operate, such as those relating to franchising, motor vehicle sales, retail installment sales, leasing, F&I, marketing, licensing, consumer protection, consumer privacy, escheatment, anti-money laundering, environmental, vehicle emissions and fuel economy, and health and safety, as well as consumer financing as discussed above. In addition, with respect to employment practices, we are subject to various laws and regulations, including complex federal, state, and local wage and hour and anti-discrimination laws. New laws and regulations are enacted on an ongoing basis. With the number of stores we operate, the number of personnel we employ and the large volume of transactions we handle, it is possible that technical mistakes will be made. These regulations affect our profitability and require ongoing training. Current practices in stores may become prohibited. We are responsible for ensuring that continued compliance with laws is maintained. If there are unauthorized activities, the jurisdictional authorities have the power to impose civil penalties and sanctions, suspend or withdraw dealer licenses or take other actions. These actions could materially impair our activities or our ability to acquire new stores in those states where violations occurred. Further, private causes of action on behalf of individuals or a class of individuals could result in significant damages or injunctive relief.

We may be involved in legal proceedings arising from the conduct of our business, including litigation with customers, team member-related lawsuits, class actions, purported class actions and actions brought by or on behalf of governmental authorities. Claims arising out of actual or alleged violations of law may be asserted against us or any of our dealers by individuals, either individually or through class actions, or by governmental entities in civil or criminal investigations and proceedings. Such actions may expose us to substantial monetary damages and legal defense costs, injunctive relief, criminal and civil fines and penalties, and damage our reputation and sales.

In the United Kingdom, the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) regulates financial services firms and financial markets, including the practice of dealerships acting as the broker in arranging the financing for vehicle sales. The FCA is investigating the historic use of discretionary commission arrangements amid concerns that this practice may have been unfair to customers. We await the outcome of the FCA's investigation which is expected sometime in 2026. Any regulatory or judicial outcome that ultimately results in the refund of historical commissions paid to us or that reduces the commissions paid to us could materially and adversely affect us. Similarly, the U.S. Federal Trade Commission recently has attempted to prohibit certain automotive sales and marketing practices and establish significant new dealer disclosure and record-keeping requirements broadly applicable throughout the car-buying process. Depending on the results of ongoing litigation, regulatory review, and the final scope and implementation of the proposed rule, we may be subject to new administrative burdens that would likely increase our costs and could expose us to significant damages, other penalties, and/or adverse publicity.

If we or any of our team members at any individual dealership violate or are alleged to violate laws and regulations applicable to them or protecting consumers generally, we could be subject to individual claims or consumer class actions, administrative, civil or criminal investigations or actions and adverse publicity. Such actions could expose us to substantial monetary damages and legal defense costs, injunctive relief, and criminal and civil fines and penalties, including suspension or revocation of our licenses and franchises to conduct dealership operations.

Environmental laws and regulations govern, among other things, discharges into the air and water, storage of petroleum substances and chemicals, the handling and disposal of wastes and remediation of contamination arising from spills and releases. In addition, we may also have liability in connection with materials that were sent to third-party recycling, treatment and/or disposal facilities. Jurisdictional statutes impose liability for investigation and remediation of contamination without regard to fault or the legality of the conduct that contributed to the contamination. Similar to many of our competitors, we have incurred and expect to continue to incur capital and operating expenditures and other costs in complying with such statutes. In addition, we may be subject to broad liabilities arising out of contamination at our currently and formerly owned or operated facilities, at locations to which hazardous substances were transported from such facilities, and at such locations related to entities formerly affiliated with us. Although for some such potential liabilities we believe we are entitled to indemnification from other entities, we cannot assure you that such entities will view their obligations as we do or will be able or willing to satisfy them. Failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations, or significant additional expenditures required to maintain compliance therewith, may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows, and prospects.

Structural and Organizational Risks

Our ability to increase revenues and profitability through acquisitions depends on our ability to acquire and successfully integrate new vehicle franchises.

The vehicle industry in the jurisdictions in which we operate is considered a mature industry in which minimal growth is expected in unit sales of new vehicles. Accordingly, a principal component of our growth strategy is to make dealership acquisitions in our existing markets and in new geographic markets. Restrictions by our manufacturers and limitations on our access to capital resources may directly or indirectly limit our ability to acquire additional dealerships. In addition, increased competition for acquisitions, including from other national, regional, and local dealership groups, and other strategic and financial buyers, some of which may have greater financial resources than us, could result in fewer acquisition opportunities for us and higher acquisition prices in the future.

We are required to obtain consent from the applicable manufacturer prior to the acquisition of a franchised store, which typically takes 60 to 90 days. In determining whether to approve an acquisition, a manufacturer considers factors including the number of such manufacturers' stores currently owned, ownership of stores in contiguous markets, performance of existing stores, frequency of acquisitions, and our financial condition. In the past, manufacturers have not consented to our purchase of certain franchised stores and we cannot assure you that manufacturers will approve future acquisitions timely, if at all, which could significantly impair the execution of our acquisition strategy.

We make a substantial capital investment when we acquire dealerships. We finance acquisitions activity primarily with cash flows from our operations, borrowings under our credit arrangements, mortgage financing proceeds, and we may obtain financing from debt and equity capital market offerings. The size of our acquisition activity in recent years magnifies risks associated with debt service obligations. These risks include potential lower earnings per share, our inability to pay dividends and potential negative impacts to the debt covenants we negotiated under our credit agreement. In addition, issuances of equity securities could result in dilution to existing shareholders.

We face other risks commonly encountered with growth through acquisitions. These risks include, without limitation:

- failing to identify suitable acquisition candidates and negotiate acceptable terms;
- failing to assimilate the operations and personnel of acquired dealerships;
- straining our existing systems, procedures, structures and personnel, including by disrupting our ongoing business and diverting our management resources;
- failing to achieve expected performance levels;
- incurring significantly higher capital expenditures and operating expenses, including incurring additional facility renovation costs or other expenses required by the manufacturer;
- entering new, unfamiliar markets;
- encountering undiscovered liabilities and operational difficulties at acquired dealerships;
- failing to maintain uniform standards, controls, and policies;
- impairing relationships with team members, manufacturers, and customers; and
- overvaluing entities to be acquired.

Our failure to address these risks or other problems encountered in connection with our acquisitions could cause us to fail to realize the anticipated benefits of these acquisitions, cause us to incur unanticipated liabilities and otherwise harm our business. Any of these risks, if realized, could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Risks associated with our international operations may negatively affect our business, results of operations and, financial condition.

We operate dealerships in the United States, the United Kingdom, and Canada. While our operations outside of the United States currently represent 22% of our revenues, our international operations may expand. We face regulatory, operational, political, and economic risks and uncertainties with respect to our international operations that may be different from those in the United States. These risks may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- fluctuations in foreign currency translations within our financial statements driven by exchange rate volatility;
- inability to obtain or preserve franchise rights in the foreign countries in which we operate;
- changes in distribution models in the foreign countries in which we operate;
- compliance with changing laws and regulations;
- compliance with U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and other anti-corruption laws;
- wage inflation;
- treatment of revenue from international sources and changes to tax rules, including being subject to foreign tax laws;
- difficulties in managing foreign operations and dealing with different customs, practices, and local regulations with which we are less familiar;
- large uncertainties, timing delays, and expenses associated with tariffs, labor matters, import or export licenses, and other trade barriers; and
- changes in a country's economic or political conditions, including inflation, recession, and interest rate fluctuations, and exposure to regional or global public health issues, pandemics, or epidemics, such as the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The loss of key personnel or the failure to attract additional qualified management personnel could adversely affect our operations and growth.

Our success depends to a significant degree on the efforts and abilities of our senior management. Further, we have identified Bryan B. DeBoer in most of our store franchise agreements as the individual who controls the franchises and upon whose financial resources and management expertise the manufacturers may rely when awarding or approving the transfer of any franchise. If we lose these key personnel, our business may suffer.

In addition, as we expand into new markets and develop our digital e-commerce solutions, we will need to hire additional managers, engineers, data scientists, and other team members. The market for qualified team members in the automotive and technology-related industries is highly competitive and may subject us to increased labor costs during periods of low unemployment. The loss of the services of key team members or the inability to attract additional qualified personnel could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. In addition, the lack of qualified managers or other team members employed by potential acquisition candidates may limit our ability to consummate future acquisitions.

Risks Related to Investing in Our Common Stock

Oregon law and our Restated Articles of Incorporation may impede or discourage a takeover, which could impair the market price of our common stock.

We are an Oregon corporation, and certain provisions of Oregon law and our Restated Articles of Incorporation may have anti-takeover effects. These provisions could delay, defer or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a shareholder might consider to be in his or her best interest. These provisions may also affect attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by shareholders and may make removal of the incumbent management and directors more difficult, which, under certain circumstances, could reduce the market price of our common stock.

We may not be able to satisfy our debt obligations upon the occurrence of a change in control under our debt instruments.

Upon the occurrence of a change in control as defined in our credit agreement, the agent under the credit agreement will have the right to declare all outstanding obligations immediately due and payable and to terminate the availability of future advances to us. Upon the occurrence of a change in control, as defined in the indentures governing our senior notes, the holders of our senior notes will have the right to require us to purchase all or any part of such holders' notes at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any. There can be no assurance that we would have sufficient resources available to satisfy all of our obligations under the credit agreement in the event of a change in control or fundamental change. In the event we were unable to satisfy these obligations, it could have a material adverse impact on our business and our common stock holders. A "change in control" as defined in our credit agreement includes, among other events, the acquisition by any person, or two or more persons acting in concert, in either case other than Lithia Holdings Company, L.L.C., Sidney B. DeBoer or Bryan B. DeBoer, of beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 of the SEC under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) of 35% or more of the outstanding shares of our voting stock on a fully diluted basis.

Our issuance of preferred stock could adversely affect holders of common stock.

Our Board is authorized to issue a series of preferred stock without any action on the part of our holders of common stock. Our Board also has the power, without shareholder approval, to set the terms of any such series of preferred stock that may be issued, including voting powers, preferences over our common stock with respect to dividends or if we voluntarily or involuntarily dissolve or distribute our assets, and other terms. If we issue preferred stock in the future that has preference over our common stock with respect to the payment of dividends or upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, or if we issue preferred stock with voting rights that dilute the voting power of our common stock, the rights of holders of our common stock or the price of our common stock could be adversely affected.

Item 1C. Cybersecurity

Assessing, identifying, and managing material risks from cybersecurity threats
We are committed to maintaining cybersecurity practices designed to safeguard our information assets and ensure the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of our operations. We employ a comprehensive risk-based approach to assess, identify, and manage risks arising from cybersecurity threats that could reasonably be expected to materially affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, or reputation. The identification and oversight of material cybersecurity risks is integrated into our enterprise risk management (ERM) program and included in ongoing ERM Committee and Board meetings and reporting.

We complete regular cybersecurity risk assessments to identify potential vulnerabilities and threats, analyzing our infrastructure, systems, and data. Assessments are conducted both internally and by third parties and consider internal and external factors, technological changes, regulatory requirements, and emerging cyber threats. Our cybersecurity program is informed by widely recognized standards for managing cybersecurity risk, including the National Institute of Standards and Technology Cybersecurity Framework, Center for Internet Security Controls and U.K. Cyber Essentials.

We use threat detection and monitoring tools and technologies to identify potential cybersecurity risks. This includes continuous monitoring, mechanisms designed to detect unusual or anomalous activity, to promptly identify any unusual activities or security breaches. Threat intelligence sharing with industry partners helps us stay informed about the latest cybersecurity threats.

We assess cybersecurity risks for their potential impact on our operations, data, financial condition, and reputation. Risks are prioritized based on their severity and likelihood of occurrence before implementing appropriate controls, safeguards, and mitigation measures designed to manage and reduce those risks to acceptable levels.

We have developed a documented information security incident response plan that outlines procedures to be followed in the event of a cybersecurity incident. The plan is periodically tested through tabletop exercises and simulations with incident response team members and includes processes for identification, categorization, escalation and reporting of incidents and remediation, as appropriate. Team members are regularly trained on key cybersecurity subjects to ensure awareness.

While no company can or will be completely immune from cybersecurity threats, especially as they relate to vendors and government agencies that we rely on, we know of no cybersecurity incident that has or is reasonably likely to materially affect us, our business strategy, or our results of operations, or financial condition.

Board of Directors Cybersecurity Oversight
Our Board oversees our cybersecurity and data protection strategy and has designated a director to lead its cybersecurity efforts. Our Board is briefed on our cybersecurity posture, current and future risks and potential incidents or vulnerabilities on a quarterly basis. Board members and executives participate in engagements on cybersecurity, such as simulated cyber incident response and crisis management exercises. Our Board also receives and reviews third-party cybersecurity assessments at least annually, which include assessments of our cyber maturity and cyber risk.

Management's Assessment and Response to Material Risks from Cybersecurity Threats
Our information security team and its leadership have primary responsibility for assessing and managing cybersecurity risks, within the scope of the overall ERM Committee.

Our Senior Director of Information Security is responsible for identifying, assessing, and managing risks from cybersecurity threats. The Senior Director of Information Security manages our cybersecurity program and receives information regarding cybersecurity incidents and threats from our information security management team, through internal cyber risk management processes. The Senior Director of Information Security reports to the Chief Innovation and Technology Officer (CITO) and provides frequent, up-to-date reporting on cyber risk to our ERM Committee, a cross functional executive-level steering group, which includes the CITO. The ERM Committee meets on a quarterly basis or as necessary to assess and respond to enterprise risks, including cybersecurity, and reports updates to the Board. Management has authority to escalate significant cybersecurity matters to the Board as appropriate.

The Senior Director of Information Security has over 10 years of experience in senior level information security roles, has over 20 years' experience in Fortune 500 enterprise IT roles, and holds Associate and Bachelor Degrees and the Certified Information Security Manager (CISM) Professional certification. The members of our information security management team have extensive experience in technology and security roles, possessing cybersecurity certifications such as Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP), Cisco Certified Network Professional (CCNP) and Global Certified Incident Handler (GCIH).

Item 2. Properties

Our stores and other facilities consist primarily of vehicle showrooms, display lots, service facilities, collision repair and paint shops, supply facilities, vehicle storage lots, parking lots, and offices across the United States, the United Kingdom, and Canada. We believe our facilities are currently adequate for our needs and are in good repair. Some of our facilities do not currently meet manufacturer image or size requirements and we are actively working to find a mutually acceptable outcome in terms of timing and overall cost. We own our corporate headquarters in Medford, Oregon, and numerous other properties used in our operations. Certain of our owned properties are mortgaged or secured as part of commitments on our working capital lines of credit. As of December 31, 2025, we had outstanding mortgage debt of $1.0 billion and $2.3 billion committed as part of availability on our working capital lines of credit. We also lease certain properties, providing future flexibility to relocate our retail stores as demographics, economics, traffic patterns or sales methods change. Most leases provide us the option to renew the lease for one or more lease extension periods. We also hold certain vacant facilities and undeveloped land for future expansion.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

We are party to numerous legal proceedings arising in the normal course of our business. Although we do not anticipate that the resolution of legal proceedings arising in the normal course of business will have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, or cash flows, we cannot predict this with certainty.

PART II

Item 5. Market for Registrant's Common Equity, Related Stockholder Matters and Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities

Our common stock trades on the NYSE under the symbol LAD. The number of shareholders of record and approximate number of beneficial holders of common stock as of February 25, 2026 was 411 and 113,195, respectively.

Repurchases of Equity Securities

We made the following repurchases of our common stock during the fourth quarter of 2025:

For the full calendar month of	Total number of shares purchased [1]	Average price paid per share	Total number of shares purchased as part of publicly announced plan [2]	Maximum dollar value of shares that may yet be purchased under publicly announced plan (in thousands)
October	574,059	$ 321.80	573,984	$ 725,350
November	300,820	295.93	300,663	636,375
December	42,780	346.41	42,780	621,556
Total	917,659	314.47	917,427

(1) 232 shares repurchased in the fourth quarter of 2025 were related to tax withholding on the vesting of RSUs.

(2) On June 4, 2024, our Board approved an additional $350 million repurchase authorization of our common stock, in March 2025, our Board approved an additional $350 million repurchase authorization of our common stock, and in August 2025, our Board approved an additional $750 million repurchase authorization of our common stock. These authorizations were in addition to the amounts previously authorized by the Board for repurchase. There is no expiration dates for the share repurchase authorizations.

Stock Performance Graph

The stock performance graph and table that follow compare the cumulative total stockholder return on Lithia Motors, Inc.'s common stock with the cumulative total return of the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index (S&P 500 Index), and an auto peer group index composed of Penske Automotive Group, AutoNation, Sonic Automotive, Group 1 Automotive, Asbury Automotive Group, and CarMax for the five years ended December 31, 2025. The peer group indexes utilize the same methods of presentation and assumptions for the total return calculation as does Lithia Motors and the S&P 500 Index. All companies in the peer group indexes are weighted in accordance with their market capitalization.[1]

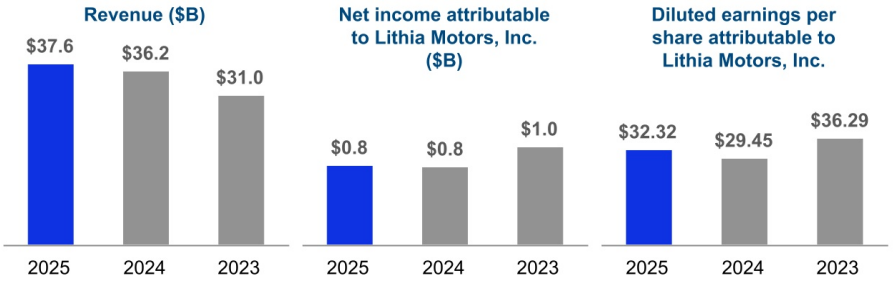
Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

You should read the following discussion in conjunction with Item 1. Business, Item 1A. Risk Factors, and our Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes thereto.

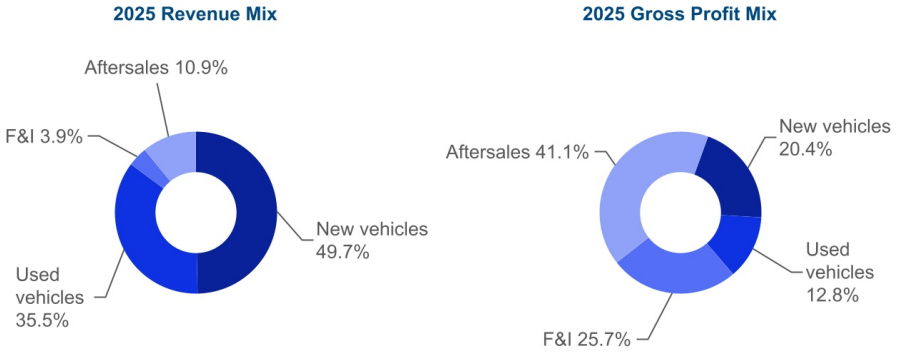
Overview

We are a global automotive retailer ranked #124 on the Fortune 500 in 2025. As of February 25, 2026, we offered 54 brands of new vehicles and all brands of used vehicles in 458 stores in the United States, the United Kingdom, and Canada and online at over 400 websites. We offer a wide range of products and services including new and used vehicles, F&I products, and vehicle repair and maintenance aftersales.

Financial Performance



We experienced revenue growth across all major business lines in 2025 compared to 2024, driven by same store growth and complemented by acquisitions. Improvements in same store aftersales and third-party finance and insurance gross profit contributed to total company gross profit growth, partially offset by decreases in new and used vehicle gross profit. On a same store basis, new and used vehicle retail gross profit declined due to lower gross profit per unit as margins continued to normalize toward pre-pandemic levels. The decline in net income was driven by this margin normalization, higher SG&A as a percentage of gross profit, and a higher effective income tax rate, partially offset by lower interest expense.



Segments

We operate in two reportable segments: Vehicle Operations and Financing Operations. Our Vehicle Operations segment consists of all aspects of our auto merchandising and service operations, excluding financing provided by our Financing Operations segment. Our Financing Operations segment provides financing options to customers buying and leasing retail vehicles from our Vehicle Operations segment, as well as leasing vehicles from our fleet management division.

Same Store Operating Data

We believe that same store comparisons are an important indicator of our financial performance. Same store measures demonstrate our ability to grow operations in our existing locations. Therefore, we have integrated same store measures into the discussion below.

Same store measures reflect results for stores that were operating in each comparison period, and only include the months when operations occurred in both periods. For example, a store acquired in November 2024 would be included in same store operating data beginning in December 2025, after its first complete comparable month of operations. The fourth quarter operating results for the same store comparisons would include results for that store in only the period of December for both comparable periods.

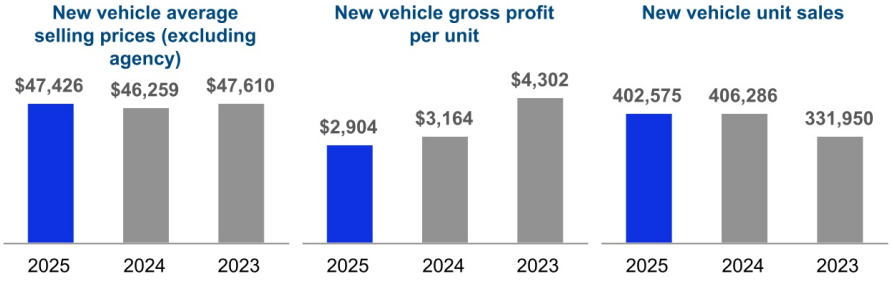
(1) Includes the sales and gross profit related to new, used, and F&I and unit sales for new and used retail

New Vehicles

Under our business strategy, we believe that our new vehicle sales create incremental profit opportunities through certain manufacturer incentive programs, providing used vehicle inventory through trade-ins, arranging of third-party financing, vehicle service and insurance contracts, future resale of used vehicles acquired through trade-in, and parts and service aftersales.



2025 vs. 2024

New vehicle revenue increased 2.1%, resulting from an increase in average selling prices of 2.5%, offset by a decrease in unit sales of 0.9%. Same store new vehicle revenue was primarily impacted by an increase in average selling prices of 2.0%, offset by a decrease in unit sales of 1.2%.

New vehicle gross profit decreased 9.0%, due to a decrease in average gross profit per unit of 8.2% and a decrease in unit sales of 0.9%. On a same store basis, gross profit per new vehicle decreased 8.5%, continuing to normalize to pre-pandemic levels.

2024 vs. 2023

New vehicle revenue increased 17.4%, resulting from an increase in unit sales of 22.4%, offset by a decrease in average selling prices of 2.8%. Same store new vehicle revenue was primarily impacted by a 1.4% increase in unit sales, offset by a decrease in average selling prices of 0.1%.

New vehicle gross profit decreased 10.0%, primarily due to a decrease in average gross profit per unit of 26.5%, partially offset by an increase in unit sales of 22.4%. On a same store basis, gross profit per new vehicle decreased 25.9%.

Used Vehicles

Used vehicle retail sales are a strategic focus for organic growth. We offer three categories of used vehicles: CPO vehicles; core vehicles, which are late-model vehicles with lower mileage; and value autos, which are vehicles with over 80,000 miles. We continue to focus on procuring vehicles across the full spectrum of the addressable used vehicle market to provide customers with a wide selection meeting all levels of affordability, driving increased used vehicle unit volumes. Our used vehicle operations provide an opportunity to generate sales to customers unable or unwilling to purchase a new vehicle, sell brands other than the store's new vehicle franchise(s), access additional used vehicle inventory through trade-ins, and increase sales from F&I products and aftersales.

Used vehicle revenues increased 5.9%, resulting from an increase in retail unit sales of 3.3% and an increase in average selling price per retail unit of 2.8%. On a same store basis, used vehicle revenues increased 5.8%, due to an increase in retail unit sales of 3.6% and an increase in average selling price per retail unit of 2.4%.

The same store revenue increase was primarily driven by an increase in our CPO vehicle category of 10.2% and an increase in our value auto category of 25.3%. The increase in our CPO vehicle category includes an increase in unit sales of 6.7% and an increase in average selling price per vehicle of 3.2%. The increase in our value auto category includes an increase in unit sales of 29.2%, partially offset by a decrease in average selling price per vehicle of 3.0%.

Used vehicle gross profits increased 1.3%, due to an increase in retail unit sales of 3.3%, partially offset by a decrease in average gross profit per retail unit of 0.7%. On a same store basis, used vehicle gross profit decreased 1.1%, due to a decrease in average gross profit per retail unit of 3.1%, partially offset by an increase in retail unit sales of 3.6%.

The same store gross profit decrease was primarily driven by a decrease in core, wholesale, and certified vehicle categories, partially offset by an increase in our value auto category of 28.3% The increase in our value auto category includes an increase in unit sales of 29.2%, partially offset by a decrease in average gross profit per vehicle of 0.7%.

2024 vs. 2023
Used vehicle revenues increased 15.9%, resulting from an increase in retail unit sales of 26.4%, offset by a decrease in average selling price per retail unit of 6.9%. On a same store basis, used vehicle revenues decreased 9.0%, due to a decrease in retail unit sales of 4.1% and a decrease in average selling price per retail unit of 4.1%.

Used vehicle gross profits increased 2.7%, due to an increase in retail unit sales of 26.4%, offset by a decrease in average gross profit per retail unit of 20.1%. On a same store basis, used vehicle gross profit decreased 10.0%, led by a decrease in average gross profit per retail unit of 6.2%.

Third-Party Finance and Insurance
We believe that arranging timely vehicle financing is an important part of providing personal transportation solutions, and we attempt to arrange financing for every vehicle we sell. We also offer related products such as extended warranties, insurance contracts, and vehicle and theft protection. Third-party extended warranty and insurance contracts yield higher profit margins than vehicle sales and contribute significantly to our profitability.

2025 vs. 2024
F&I revenue increased 3.9%, primarily due to increased unit sales related to acquisitions. On a same store basis, F&I revenue increased 3.1%, to $1,863 per unit. This increase was driven by higher finance reserve paid per unit from third-party lenders.

2024 vs. 2023
F&I revenue increased 6.0%, primarily due to increased unit sales related to acquisitions. On a same store basis, F&I revenue decreased 4.6%, to $2,017 per unit.

Aftersales
We provide automotive repair and maintenance services for customers for the new vehicle brands sold by our stores, as well as service and repairs for most other makes and models. Our aftersales operations are an integral part of our customer retention and the largest contributor to our overall profitability. Earnings from aftersales have historically been more resilient during economic downturns, when owners have tended to repair their existing vehicles rather than buy new vehicles. With more late-model units in operation, continued increase of vehicles in operation, and a plateauing new vehicle market, we believe the increased number of units in operation will continue to benefit our aftersales revenue in the coming years as more late-model vehicles age, necessitating repairs and maintenance. We focus on retaining customers by offering competitively-priced routine maintenance and through our marketing efforts.

Aftersales revenue increased 7.0%, primarily driven by increases in customer pay and warranty service work. On a same store basis, aftersales revenue increased 6.3%, primarily driven by an increase in warranty revenue of 13.9% and customer pay of 7.1%.

Aftersales gross profit increased 10.4%, primarily driven by increases in customer pay and warranty service work volume as well as increased gross margins. Same store aftersales gross profit increased 9.4%, driven by an increase in customer pay margins of 120 basis points and an increase in warranty margins of 110 basis points.

2024 vs. 2023
Aftersales revenue increased 19.1%, experiencing growth in all areas, primarily due to acquisition growth. On a same store basis, aftersales revenue and gross profit increased 2.7% and 4.5%, respectively.

Financing Operations

In the United States, Financing Operations is a captive lender, originating loans only from our stores and Driveway. In Canada, Financing Operations originates loans and leases from both our Canadian stores and third-party dealerships. In the United Kingdom, Financing Operations is related to our fleet funding and management division. These product offerings add diversity to the business model and provide an opportunity to capture additional profits, cash flows, and sales while managing our reliance on third-party finance sources.

Management regularly analyzes Financing Operations' results by assessing profitability, the performance of the finance receivables, including trends in credit losses and delinquencies, and expenses directly related to Financing Operations. This information is used to assess Financing Operations performance and make operating decisions, including resource allocation.

Our proprietary credit model performs a return on investment (ROI) calculation for each application, ensuring that the return obtained is appropriately balanced with the consumer's credit risk. On a fully discounted basis, we target earnings at least three times the net finance income earned from third party lenders (finance reserve less commissions paid) over the life of the finance receivable. Actual return of the finance receivables may differ based on the changing risk profile of originations, economic conditions, and rates of recovery for charged off vehicles. Actions taken during 2022 to adjust ROI targets in the context of the uncertain macroeconomic environment, along with the acquisition of dealerships whose brands attract relatively more credit-worthy consumers, resulted in finance receivables originated subsequently having higher weighted average credit scores and lower weighted average contract rate and front-end loan-to-values (FE LTV) than prior periods.

We typically use securitizations, warehouse facilities, third-party asset funding, and internal capital to fund finance receivables originated by our Financing Operations. Financing Operations income reflects the interest, fee, and lease income generated by the portfolio of finance receivables less the interest expense associated with the debt utilized to fund the lending, including internal capital, a provision for estimated losses, depreciation on vehicles leased via operating leases, and directly-related expenses.

Total interest margin reflects the spread between interest and fee charges to consumers and our funding costs. Changes in consumer rates on new originations affect Financing Operations income over time. Increases or decreases in interest rates, which affect Financing Operations' funding costs, or other competitive pressures on consumer rates, could result in compression or expansion in the interest margin. Changes in the provision for losses as a percentage of ending managed receivables reflect the effect of changes in loss experience, economic factors, and asset-specific risks on our outlook for net losses expected to occur over the remaining contractual life of the finance receivables.

Financing Operations income does not include any allocation of corporate overhead costs. Although Financing Operations benefits from certain overhead expenditures, we have not allocated corporate overhead costs to Financing Operations to avoid making subjective allocation decisions. Examples of corporate overhead costs not allocated to Financing Operations include general corporate and data processing expenses.

See Note 19 – Segments of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information on Financing Operations income and Note 5 – Finance Receivables of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for information on finance receivables, including credit quality.

(3) The credit scores represent FICO scores and reflect only receivables with obligors that have a FICO score at the time of application. For receivables with co-borrowers, the FICO score is the primary borrower's. FICO scores are not a significant factor in our proprietary credit model, which relies on information from credit bureaus and other application information as discussed in Note 5 – Finance Receivables of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.
(4) Front-end loan-to-value represents the ratio of the amount financed to the total collateral value, which is measured as the vehicle selling price plus applicable taxes, title and fees.
(5) Past due is defined as loans that have been on the books greater than or equal to 3 months and are 30 or more days delinquent.
(6) The average recovery rate represents the average percentage of the outstanding principal balance we receive when a vehicle is repossessed and liquidated, generally at wholesale auctions.

Financing operations recorded higher income in 2025 compared to 2024, primarily due to increased interest income resulting from the growth of the portfolio and a decreased cost of funds, resulting in an increased interest margin from 4.0% in 2024 to 4.6% in 2025.

The weighted average contract rate on loans originated in 2025 decreased to 8.6%, compared with 9.8% in 2024 as we decreased rates to maintain competitiveness following Federal Reserve rate cuts. Cost of funds decreased due to Federal Reserve rate cuts along with improved execution on ABS transactions and amendments to warehouse facilities. The decrease in provision expense as a percentage of receivables compared to the prior year reflected the increased credit quality of the portfolio as well as a decrease in the percentage of ending managed receivables constituted by the allowance for loan losses. Other financing operations expenses as a percentage of average managed receivables decreased from 2024 despite significant portfolio growth, reflecting improved operational performance and economies of scale.

The decrease in net credit losses reflects the increasing impact of originations under our tightened credit policy, which are becoming a larger portion of the managed portfolio.

Operating Expenses

Selling, General, and Administrative

2025 vs. 2024

SG&A increased 5.0%, or $189.5 million, primarily due to increased personnel and other costs resulting from our growth through acquisitions. Other expenses in 2025 included acquisition expenses of $17.0 million and $6.7 million of storm related insurance charges. We also recognized a net gain on the disposal of stores of $20.3 million.

On a same store basis and excluding non-core charges, adjusted SG&A as a percentage of gross profit increased across all categories to 68.1% from 66.3% in the prior year.

2024 vs. 2023

SG&A increased 14.0%, or $460.4 million, primarily due to increased personnel costs and other costs which resulted from our growth through acquisitions. Other expenses in 2024 included acquisition expenses of $10.0 million, and $6.1 million of storm related insurance charges, offset by a net gain on the disposal of stores of $8.2 million.

On a same store basis and excluding non-core charges, adjusted SG&A as a percentage of gross profit increased across all categories to 66.1% from 62.3% in the prior year.

Floor Plan Interest Expense and Floor Plan Assistance

We have floor plan agreements with both manufacturer-affiliated finance companies and as part of our syndicated credit facilities for certain new and used vehicles. The interest rates on these floor plan notes payable commitments vary by lender and are variable rates.

2025 vs. 2024

Floor plan interest expense decreased $50.6 million, primarily due to lower interest rates and decreases in average vehicle inventory levels throughout the year. Floor plan interest expense decreased 16.8% due to lower interest rates and 1.3% due to decreases in inventory at our stores.

2024 vs. 2023

Floor plan interest expense increased $127.9 million, primarily due to higher interest rates and increases in vehicle inventory levels from acquisitions as well as at existing locations.

Floor plan assistance is provided by manufacturers to support store financing of vehicle inventory. Under accounting standards, floor plan assistance is recorded as a component of vehicle gross profit when the specific vehicle is sold. However, because manufacturers provide this assistance to offset inventory carrying costs, we believe a comparison of floor plan interest expense to floor plan assistance is a useful measure of the efficiency of our vehicle sales relative to stocking levels.

The following table details the carrying costs for vehicle inventory and include vehicle floor plan interest net of floor plan assistance earned:

($ in millions)	Year Ended December 31, 2025	2024	2025 vs. 2024 Change	%	2023	2024 vs. 2023 Change	%
Floor plan interest expense	$ 228.2	$ 278.8	$ (50.6)	(18.1)%	$ 150.9	$ 127.9	84.8 %

Net vehicle carrying costs (benefit)	$ 59.7	$ 108.5	$ (48.8)	(45.0)%	$ (9.9)	$ 118.4	1,196.0 %

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization is comprised of depreciation expense related to buildings, significant remodels or improvements, furniture, tools, equipment and signage and amortization related to non-compete agreements.

($ in millions)	Year Ended December 31, 2025	2024	2025 vs. 2024 Change	%	2023	2024 vs. 2023 Change	%
Depreciation and amortization	$ 262.4	$ 245.6	$ 16.8	6.8 %	$ 195.8	$ 49.8	25.4 %

Acquisition activity contributed to the increases in depreciation and amortization in 2025 compared to 2024 and in 2024 compared to 2023. We acquired approximately $121.8 million and $409.5 million of depreciable property as part of our 2025 and 2024 acquisitions, respectively. Capital expenditures totaled $350.9 million and $351.4 million, respectively, in 2025 and 2024. These investments increased the amount of depreciable assets. See the discussion under "Liquidity and Capital Resources" for additional information.

Operating Income

Operating income as a percentage of revenue, or operating margin, was as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Operating margin	4.2 %	4.3 %	5.5 %
Operating margin adjusted for non-core charges [1]	4.3	4.4	5.5

(1) See "Non-GAAP Reconciliations" for additional information

2025 vs. 2024

Our operating margin decreased 10 basis points compared to the prior year, driven by a decline in gross profit per new and used unit sold. Adjusting for non-core charges, including acquisition expenses and storm related insurance charges, offset by a net disposal gain on disposal of stores, our operating margin decreased 10 basis points.

2024 vs. 2023

Our operating margin decreased 120 basis points compared to the prior year, driven by an increase in SG&A as a percentage of gross profit. Adjusting for non-core charges, including acquisition expenses, one-time contract buyouts, and storm insurance charges, offset by a net disposal gain on disposal of stores, our operating margin decreased 110 basis points.

Non-Operating Expenses

Asset Impairments

Asset impairments recorded as a component of operations consist of the following:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions)	2025	2024	2023
Franchise value	$ 5.8	$ —	$ —
Goodwill	—	—	—
Long-lived assets	—	—	—
Total asset impairments	$ 5.8	**$ —	**$ —

Goodwill and franchise value are tested for impairment annually as of October 1 or more frequently when events or changes in circumstances indicate that impairment may have occurred. We elected to perform qualitative franchise value and goodwill impairment tests as of October 1 each year. These non-cash impairment charges are included in the "Corporate and Other" category of our segment information.

In 2025, we recorded asset impairments of $5.8 million related to franchise value (See Note 6 – Goodwill and Franchise Value). No impairment charges were recorded in 2024 or 2023.

See Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Note 4 – Property and Equipment, Note 6 – Goodwill and Franchise Value, and Note 15 – Fair Value Measurements of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included in Part II, Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Financial Data of this Annual Report.

Other Interest Expense

Other interest expense includes interest on debt incurred related to issued senior notes, real estate mortgages, our used and service loaner vehicle inventory financing commitments, and our revolving lines of credit.

	Year Ended December 31,

2025 vs. 2024

The increase in other interest expense was due to the issuance of $600 million in aggregate principal amount of 5.500% senior notes due 2030 issued in September 2025, as well as new mortgages on owned real estate. See also Note 10 – Credit Facilities and Long-Term Debt of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

2024 vs. 2023
The increase in other interest expense was due to higher interest rates and increased borrowings on our credit facilities.

Other Income, Net
Other income, net primarily includes other income associated with investment income and other non-recurring transactions.

2025 vs. 2024
Other income, net decreased $21.9 million in 2025 compared to 2024, primarily as a result of a decrease in equity method investment income, partially offset by foreign currency translation gains.

2024 vs. 2023
Other income, net increased $17.3 million in 2024 compared to 2023, primarily as a result of an increase in equity method investment income, offset by foreign currency translation losses.

Income Tax Provision
Our effective income tax rate was as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Effective income tax rate	25.5 %	23.8 %	25.7 %
Effective income tax rate excluding non-core items [1]	25.1	24.6	25.5

(1) See "Non-GAAP Reconciliations" for more details

Our effective income tax rate was 25.5% for 2025 compared to 23.8% for 2024. Our effective income tax rate was negatively affected by a decrease in general business credits and tax basis differences on divested assets, offset by a reduction in valuation allowance.

Adjusting for non-deductible acquisition costs, tax basis differences on divested assets, and the benefit of transferable federal tax credits during 2025, our effective income tax rate excluding non-core items was 25.1%, an increase of 50 basis points compared to the effective income tax rate excluding non-core items for 2024.

Our effective income tax rate in 2024 was positively affected by an increase in general business credits and a reduction in valuation allowance.

Canada and the U.K. have enacted legislation implementing the OECD's Pillar Two global minimum tax framework, effective beginning January 1, 2024. Based on the Company's analysis of Pillar Two provisions, these tax law changes did not have a material effect on our overall effective tax rate.

Non-GAAP Reconciliations

Non-GAAP measures do not have definitions under GAAP and may be defined differently by and not comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies. As a result, we review any non-GAAP financial measures in connection with a review of the most directly comparable measures calculated in accordance with GAAP. We caution you not to place undue reliance on such non-GAAP measures, but also to consider them with the most directly comparable GAAP measures. We believe each of the non-GAAP financial measures below improves the transparency of our disclosures, provides a meaningful presentation of our results from the core business operations because they exclude items not related to our ongoing core business operations and other non-cash items, and improves the period-to-period comparability of our results from the core business operations. We use these measures in conjunction with GAAP financial measures to assess our business, including our compliance with covenants in our credit facilities and in communications with our Board concerning financial performance. These measures should not be considered an alternative to GAAP measures.

The following tables reconcile certain reported non-GAAP measures to the most comparable GAAP measure from our Consolidated Statements of Operations:

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We manage our liquidity and capital resources in the context of our overall business strategy, continually forecasting and managing our cash, working capital balances, and capital structure to meet the short-term and long-term obligations of our business while maintaining liquidity and financial flexibility. Our free cash flow deployment strategy targets an allocation of 25% to 35% investment in acquisitions, 25% investment in capital expenditures, innovation, and diversification, and 40% to 50% in shareholder return in the form of dividends and share repurchases based on current valuation trends in acquisitions relative to stock price performance.

We believe we have sufficient sources of funding to meet our business requirements for the next 12 months and in the longer term. Cash flows from operations and borrowings under our credit facilities are our main sources for liquidity. In addition to the above sources of liquidity, potential sources to fund our business strategy include financing of real estate and proceeds from debt or equity offerings. We evaluate all of these options and may select one or more of them depending on overall capital needs and the availability and cost of capital, although no assurances can be provided that these capital sources will be available in sufficient amounts or with terms acceptable to us.

Available Sources

Information about our cash flows, by category, is presented in our Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. The following table summarizes our cash flows:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions)	2025	2024	2023
Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities	$ 356.7	$ 425.1	$ (472.4)
Net cash used in investing activities	(1,027.9)	(1,854.4)	(1,270.3)
Net cash provided by financing activities	612.1	907.6	2,409.8

Operating Activities

Cash provided by operating activities decreased $68.4 million in 2025 compared to 2024, primarily as a result of changes in floor plan notes payable, finance receivables, and other assets, partially offset by changes in inventories, trade receivables, and other long-term liabilities and deferred revenue.

Borrowings from and repayments to our syndicated credit facilities related to our new vehicle inventory floor plan financing are presented as financing activities. To better understand the impact of changes in inventory, other assets, and the associated financing, we also consider our adjusted net cash provided by operating activities to include borrowings or repayments associated with our new vehicle floor plan commitment and exclude the impact of our financing receivables activity.

To better understand the impact of these items, adjusted net cash provided by operating activities, a non-GAAP measure, is presented below:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions)	2025	2024	2025 vs. 2024 Change	2023	2024 vs. 2023 Change

Less: Borrowings on floor plan notes payable: non-trade associated with acquired new vehicle inventory	(135.4)	(105.5)	(29.9)	(109.2)	3.7
Adjust: Financing receivables activity	878.3	622.4	255.9	1,052.0	(429.6)
Net cash provided by operating activities – adjusted	$ 1,291.3	$ 1,246.8	$ 44.5	$ 1,349.1	$ (102.3)

Inventories are one of the most significant components of our cash flow from operations. As of December 31, 2025, our new vehicle days' supply was 54 days, or five days lower than our days' supply as of December 31, 2024. Our days' supply of used vehicles was 48 days, which was five days lower than our days' supply as of December 31, 2024. We calculate days' supply of inventory on-ground inventory unit levels and a 30-day total units sales volume, both at the end of each reporting period. We have continued to focus on managing our unit mix and maintaining an appropriate level of new and used vehicle inventory.

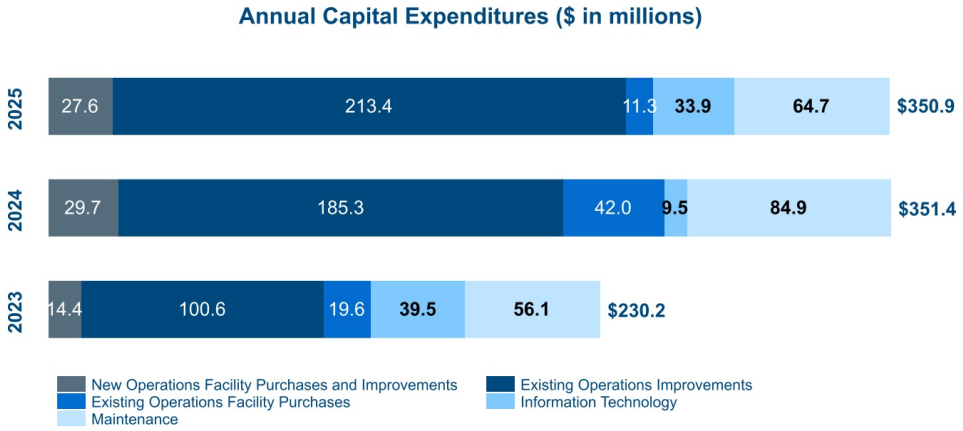
Investing Activities
Net cash used in investing activities totaled $1.0 billion and $1.9 billion, respectively, for 2025 and 2024. Cash flows from investing activities relate primarily to capital expenditures, acquisition and divestiture activity and sales of property and equipment.

Below are highlights of significant activity related to our cash flows from investing activities:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions)	2025	2024	2025 vs. 2024 Change	2023	2024 vs. 2023 Change
Capital expenditures	$ (350.9)	$ (351.4)	$ 0.5	$ (230.2)	$ (121.2)
Cash paid for acquisitions, net of cash acquired	(886.4)	(1,248.5)	362.1	(1,185.1)	(63.4)
Cash paid for other investments	(15.3)	(354.7)	339.4	(11.1)	(343.6)
Proceeds from sales of stores	194.0	85.7	108.3	142.9	(57.2)

Capital Expenditures
Below is a summary of our capital expenditure activities:



Many manufacturers provide assistance in the form of additional incentives or assistance if facilities meet manufacturer image standards and requirements. We expect that certain facility upgrades and remodels will generate additional manufacturer incentive payments. Also, tax laws allowing accelerated deductions for capital expenditures reduce the overall investment needed and encourage accelerated project timelines.

We expect to use a portion of our future capital expenditures to upgrade facilities that we recently acquired. This additional capital investment is contemplated in our initial evaluation of the investment return metrics applied to each acquisition and is usually associated with manufacturer image standards and requirements.

If we undertake a significant capital commitment in the future, we expect to pay for the commitment out of existing cash balances, construction financing and borrowings on our credit facilities. Upon completion of the projects, we believe we would have the ability to secure long-term financing and general borrowings from third party lenders for 70% to 90% of the amounts expended, although no assurances can be provided that these financings will be available to us in sufficient amounts or on terms acceptable to us.

Acquisitions
Growth through acquisitions is a key component of our long-term strategy that enables us to increase our network of locations, support maintaining a diverse franchise and geographic mix and improve our ability to serve customers through wider selection and improved proximity. Our disciplined approach focuses on acquiring new vehicle franchises that are accretive and cash flow positive at reasonable valuations.

We are able to subsequently floor new vehicle inventory acquired as part of an acquisition; however, the cash generated by these transactions are recorded as borrowings on floor plan notes payable, non-trade. Adjusted net cash paid for acquisitions, a non-GAAP measure, as well as certain other acquisition-related information is presented below:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions)	2025	2024	2023
Number of stores acquired	17	146	56
Number of stores opened	7	1	—
Cash paid for acquisitions, net of cash acquired	$ (886.4)	$ (1,248.5)	$ (1,185.1)
Add: Borrowings on floor plan notes payable: non-trade associated with acquired new vehicle inventory	135.4	105.5	109.2
Cash paid for acquisitions, net of cash acquired – adjusted	$ (751.0)	$ (1,143.0)	$ (1,075.9)

We evaluate potential capital investments primarily based on targeted rates of return on assets and return on our net equity investment.

Financing Activities

Adjusted net cash provided by financing activities, a non-GAAP measure, which is adjusted for borrowings and repayments on floor plan facilities: non-trade and borrowings and repayments associated with our Financing Operations segment was as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions)	2025	2024	2023
Cash provided by financing activities, as reported	$ 612.1	907.6	$ 2,409.8
Less: Net borrowings on floor plan notes payable: non-trade	(191.7)	(304.8)	(878.7)

Cash provided by financing activities, as adjusted	$ 55.9	$ 199.1	$ 247.7

Below are highlights of significant activity related to our cash flows from financing activities, excluding borrowings and repayments on floor plan notes payable: non-trade and non-recourse notes payable, which are discussed above:

	Year Ended December 31,
			2025 vs. 2024		2024 vs. 2023

Repurchases of common stock	(960.9)	(365.9)	(595.0)	(48.9)	(317.0)

Borrowing and Repayment Activity

During 2025, we raised net proceeds of $786.8 million through the issuance of debt, and had net borrowings of $408.6 million on our lines of credit. These funds were primarily used for acquisitions, share repurchases and capital expenditures.

Our debt to total capital ratio, excluding floor plan notes payable and non-recourse notes payable, was 52.5% at December 31, 2025 compared to 48.4% at December 31, 2024.

Equity Transactions
During 2025, we repurchased 3,019,951 shares at a weighted average price of $313.73 under our current share repurchase authorization, with $621.6 million remaining for future repurchases.

During 2025, we paid dividends on our common stock as follows:

Dividend paid:	Dividend amount per share	Total amount of dividends paid ($ in millions)
March 2025	$ 0.53	$ 13.9
May 2025	0.55	14.3
August 2025	0.55	13.9
November 2025	0.55	13.2

We evaluate performance and make a recommendation to the Board on dividend payments on a quarterly basis.

(1) As of December 31, 2025, we had a $3.0 billion new vehicle floor plan commitment as part of our USB credit facility, and a $1.1 billion CAD wholesale floorplan commitment as part of our BNS credit facility.
(2) The amounts available on the credit facilities are limited based on borrowing base calculations and fluctuate monthly.
(3) Available credit is based on the borrowing base amount effective as of November 30, 2025. This amount is reduced by $6.4 million for outstanding letters of credit.
(4) Debt issuance costs are presented on the balance sheet as a reduction from the carrying amount of the related debt liability. See Note 10 – Credit Facilities and Long-Term Debt of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included in Part II, Item 8 of this Annual Report.
(5) Non-GAAP financial measure.

Contractual Obligations
Our cash requirements greater than twelve months from contractual obligations and commitments include:

Debt Obligations and Interest Payments
Refer to Note 10 – Credit Facilities and Long-Term Debt of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements for further information of our obligations and the timing of expected payments.

Contract Obligations
Refer to Note 9 – Commitments and Contingencies of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements for further information of our obligations and the timing of expected payments.

Operating and Finance Leases
Refer to Note 9 – Commitments and Contingencies of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements for further information of our obligations and the timing of expected payments.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires us to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities and reported amounts of revenues and expenses at the date of the financial statements. Certain accounting policies require us to make difficult and subjective judgments on matters that are inherently uncertain. The following accounting policies involve critical accounting estimates because they are particularly dependent on assumptions made by management. While we have made our best estimates based on facts and circumstances available to us at the time, different estimates could have been used in the current period. Changes in the accounting estimates we used are reasonably likely to occur from period to period, which may have a material impact on the presentation of our financial condition and results of operations.

Our most critical accounting estimates include those related to goodwill and franchise value, and acquisitions. We also have other key accounting policies for valuation of finance receivables and expense accruals. However, these policies either do not meet the definition of critical accounting estimates described above or the policies are not currently material items in our financial statements. We review our estimates, judgments, and assumptions periodically and reflect the effects of revisions in the period that they are deemed to be necessary. We believe that these estimates are reasonable. However, actual results could differ materially from these estimates.

Goodwill and Franchise Value
We are required to test our goodwill and franchise value for impairment at least annually on October 1, or more frequently if conditions indicate that an impairment may have occurred. Our reporting units for goodwill impairment testing are North America Vehicle Operations, U.K. Vehicle Operations, and U.S. and Canada Financing Operations. We have the option to qualitatively or quantitatively assess goodwill for impairment and, in 2025, we evaluated our goodwill using a qualitative assessment process. If the qualitative factors determine that it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit exceeds the carrying amount, goodwill is not impaired. If the qualitative assessment determines it is more likely than not the fair value is less than the carrying amount, we would further evaluate for potential impairment.

As of December 31, 2025, we had $2.5 billion of goodwill on our balance sheet associated with our reporting units. The annual goodwill impairment analysis resulted in no indications of impairment in 2025, 2024, or 2023.

We have determined the appropriate unit of accounting for testing franchise rights for impairment is on an individual legal entity basis. We have the option to qualitatively or quantitatively assess indefinite-lived intangible assets for impairment. In 2025, we evaluated our indefinite-lived intangible assets using a qualitative assessment process. If the qualitative factors determine that it is more likely than not that the fair value of the individual entity's franchise value exceeds the carrying amount, the franchise value is not impaired, and the second step is not necessary. If the qualitative assessment determines it is more likely than not that the fair value is less than the carrying amount, then a quantitative valuation of our franchise value is performed. An impairment charge is recorded to the extent the fair value is less than the carrying value.

As of December 31, 2025, we had $2.8 billion of franchise value on our balance sheet. No individual entity accounted for more than 2% of our total franchise value as of December 31, 2025. The annual franchise value impairment analysis, which we perform as of October 1 each year, resulted in indications of impairment at an individual entity. We tested the franchise value for this location, which resulted in an impairment charge of $5.8 million. There were no indications of impairment in 2024 or 2023.

We are subject to financial statement risk to the extent that our goodwill or franchise rights become impaired due to decreases in the fair value. A future decline in performance, decreases in projected growth rates or margin assumptions or changes in discount rates could result in a potential impairment, which could have a material adverse impact on our financial position and results of operations. Furthermore, if a manufacturer becomes insolvent, we may be required to record a partial or total impairment on the franchise value and/or goodwill related to that manufacturer. No individual manufacturer accounted for more than 17% of our total franchise value as of December 31, 2025.

See Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Note 6 – Goodwill and Franchise Value of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included in Part II, Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Financial Data of this Annual Report.

Acquisitions
We account for business combinations using the acquisition method of accounting which requires recognition of assets acquired and liabilities assumed at fair value as of the date of the acquisition. Determination of the estimated fair value assigned to each asset acquired or liability assumed can materially impact the net income in subsequent periods through depreciation and amortization and potential impairment charges.

The most significant items we generally acquire in a transaction are inventory, long-lived assets, intangible franchise rights and goodwill. The fair value of acquired inventory is based on manufacturer invoice cost and market data. We estimate the fair value of property and equipment based on a market valuation approach. Additionally, we may use a cost valuation approach to value long-lived assets when a market valuation approach is unavailable. We apply an income approach for the fair value of intangible franchise rights which discounts the projected future net cash flow using an appropriate discount rate that reflects the risks associated with such projected future cash flow.

See Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Note 17 – Acquisitions of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included in Part II, Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Financial Data of this Annual Report.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We are exposed to market risks relating to market fluctuations in interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, and equity values. We do not acquire our market risk sensitive instruments for trading purposes.

Variable Rate Debt
Our credit facilities, other floor plan notes payable, and certain real estate mortgages are structured as variable rate debt. The interest rates on our variable rate debt are tied to either the one-day Secured Overnight Financing Rate (SOFR), the Daily Simple SOFR, the Canadian Overnight Repo Rate Average (CORRA), the Sterling Overnight Index Average (SONIA), or the prime rate. These debt obligations, therefore, expose us to variability in interest payments due to changes in these rates. Certain floor plan debt is based on open-ended lines of credit tied to each individual store from the various manufacturer finance companies.

Our variable-rate floor plan notes payable, variable rate mortgage notes payable, and other credit line borrowings subject us to market risk exposure. As of December 31, 2025, we had $9.3 billion outstanding under such agreements at a weighted average interest rate of 5.6% per annum. A 10% increase in interest rates, or 55.8 basis points, would increase annual interest expense by approximately $38.8 million, net of tax, based on amounts outstanding as of December 31, 2025.

As of December 31, 2024, we had $8.7 billion outstanding under such agreements at a weighted average interest rate of 5.8% per annum. A 10% increase in interest rates, or 57.7 basis points, would increase annual interest expense by approximately $38.0 million, net of tax, based on amounts outstanding as of December 31, 2024.

Fixed Rate Debt
The fair value of our long-term fixed interest rate debt is subject to interest rate risk. Generally, the fair value of fixed interest rate debt will increase as interest rates fall because we would expect to be able to refinance for a lower rate. Conversely, the fair value of fixed interest rate debt will decrease as interest rates rise. The interest rate changes affect the fair value but do not impact earnings or cash flows.

As of December 31, 2025, we had $5.6 billion of long-term fixed interest rate debt outstanding and recorded on the balance sheet, with maturity dates between April 1, 2026 and July 1, 2038. Based on discounted cash flows using current interest rates for comparable debt, we have determined that the fair value of this long-term fixed interest rate debt was approximately $5.5 billion as of December 31, 2025.

As of December 31, 2024, we had $4.6 billion of long-term fixed interest rate debt outstanding and recorded on the balance sheet, with maturity dates between May 1, 2025 and July 1, 2038. Based on discounted cash flows using then current interest rates for comparable debt, we determined that the fair value of this long-term fixed interest rate debt was approximately $4.4 billion as of December 31, 2024.

Foreign Currency Exchange Risk

We have foreign currency risks related to our foreign subsidiaries' operating activities denominated in currencies other than the USD, including the CAD and the GBP. Our exposure to fluctuating exchange rates relates to the effects of translating financial statements of those subsidiaries into our reporting currency, which we do not hedge against based on our investment strategy in these foreign operations. A 10% devaluation in average exchange rates would have resulted in an $806.8 million and a $794.1 million decrease to our revenues for the years ended December 31, 2025, and 2024, respectively.

Risk Management Policies

Our risk management policies are designed to identify, monitor, and manage exposure to market risks, including interest rate risk and foreign currency exchange rate risk, that may impact future cash flows. We manage interest rate risk by monitoring the mix of fixed-rate and variable-rate debt within our capital structure. We manage foreign currency exchange rate risk by monitoring exposures arising from foreign currency–denominated transactions and obligations and by evaluating available hedging strategies.

We finance our operations and growth through a combination of bank debt, mortgage financing, high-yield debt, and internally generated cash flows. In managing market risk, we monitor our credit ratings and evaluate the cost and availability of financing alternatives and risk management strategies.

We maintain risk management controls to monitor interest rate and foreign exchange exposures associated with our outstanding and forecasted debt obligations and operating cash flows, as well as any related hedging activities. These policies do not permit the use of derivative instruments for speculative purposes.

Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Financial Data

The financial statements and notes thereto required by this item begin on page F-1 as listed in Item 15. Exhibits and Financial Statement Schedules of Part IV of this document.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management evaluated, with the participation and under the supervision of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Based on this evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information we are required to disclose in reports that we file or submit under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure and that such information is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in SEC rules and forms.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during our last fiscal quarter that has materially affected or is reasonably likely to materially affect our internal control over financial reporting.

Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. Our internal control over financial reporting is designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

Our management assessed the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025. In making this assessment, we used the criteria set forth in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission.

In accordance with guidance issued by the SEC, companies are permitted to exclude acquisitions from their final assessment of internal controls over financial reporting during the year of the acquisition while integrating the acquired operations. Management's evaluation of internal control over financial reporting excludes the operations of the 17 stores acquired in 2025, which represented 2% of consolidated total assets as of December 31, 2025 and 1% of consolidated revenues for the year ended December 31, 2025.

Based on our assessment, our management concluded that, as of December 31, 2025, our internal control over financial reporting was effective.

KPMG LLP, our Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm, has issued an attestation report on our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, which is included in Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Financial Data of this Form 10-K.

Item 9B. Other Information

During the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2025, none of our directors or officers (as defined in Rule 16a-1 under the Exchange Act) adopted, modified or terminated any Rule 10b5-1 plan or any non-Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Stockholders and Board of Directors
Lithia Motors, Inc.:

Opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements
We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Lithia Motors, Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the related consolidated statements of operations, comprehensive income, equity and redeemable non-controlling interest, and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes (collectively, the consolidated financial statements). In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2025, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB), the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission, and our report dated February 25, 2026 expressed an unqualified opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Basis for Opinion
These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical Audit Matter
The critical audit matter communicated below is a matter arising from the current period audit of the consolidated financial statements that was communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that: (1) relates to accounts or disclosures that are material to the consolidated financial statements and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. The communication of a critical audit matter does not alter in any way our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the critical audit matter below, providing a separate opinion on the critical audit matter or on the accounts or disclosures to which it relates.

Assessment of the Company's impairment tests over franchise value intangible assets
As disclosed in Note 1 and Note 6 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company had indefinite-lived franchise value intangible assets with a book value of $2,777.4 million as of December 31, 2025. The Company tested its franchise value intangible assets for impairment using a qualitative assessment performed at each individual legal entity level as of October 1, 2025. The Company determined that a $5.8 million impairment existed in 2025.

We identified the assessment of the Company's qualitative impairment test over franchise value intangible assets for legal entities whose current operating results indicate a higher risk of potential impairment as a critical audit matter. The tests included the qualitative evaluation of factors such as future profitability and comparable dealership divestitures for entities with recent losses, which required especially subjective auditor judgment.

The following are the primary procedures we performed to address this critical audit matter. We evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of certain internal controls over the Company's franchise value impairment assessment process, including controls related to the identification and development of relevant qualitative factors. We evaluated future profitability assumptions by comparing key financial metrics across entities with similar demographics, including historical legal entity level profitability, and evaluated differences for potential indicators of impairments. We evaluated the Company's intent and ability to carry out a particular course of action by evaluating the Company's history of carrying out its stated intentions. Additionally, we evaluated information about recent comparable dealership divestitures to identify potential indicators of impairment.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Stockholders and Board of Directors
Lithia Motors, Inc.:

Opinion on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting
We have audited Lithia Motors, Inc. and subsidiaries' (the Company) internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. In our opinion, the Company maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB), the consolidated balance sheets of the Company as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the related consolidated statements of operations, comprehensive income, equity and redeemable non-controlling interest, and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes (collectively, the consolidated financial statements), and our report dated February 25, 2026 expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements.

The Company acquired 17 stores during 2025, and management excluded from its assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, these acquired stores' internal control over financial reporting which represented 2% of assets and 1% of revenues included in the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended December 31, 2025. Our audit of internal control over financial reporting of the Company also excluded an evaluation of the internal control over financial reporting of these 17 stores.

Basis for Opinion
The Company's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit of internal control over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. Our audit also included performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Definition and Limitations of Internal Control Over Financial Reporting
A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Business

We are the world's largest global automotive retailer, operating a unique omnichannel ecosystem of comprehensive sales, financing, leasing, and aftersales. In 2025, we were ranked 124 on the Fortune 500. As of December 31, 2025, we operated 455 locations across the United States, the United Kingdom, and Canada representing 54 brands. We connect customers to their mobility needs through seamlessly integrated physical locations, e-commerce platforms, and tailored solutions including captive finance and fleet management. We focus on creating customer loyalty to maximize the potential of each store. This approach enables us to unlock sustained growth by delivering personalized experiences wherever, whenever, and however customers desire.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements reflect the results of operations, the financial position, and the cash flows for Lithia Motors, Inc. and its directly and indirectly wholly-owned subsidiaries. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Cash, Restricted Cash, and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are defined as cash on hand, cash in bank accounts without restrictions, and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. Restricted cash consisted of collections of principal, interest and fee payments on finance receivables that are restricted for repayment on borrowings on our securitization facilities before being unrestricted.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable classifications include the following:

- Contracts in transit are receivables from various lenders for the financing of vehicles that we have arranged on behalf of the customer and are typically received within five to ten days of selling a vehicle.
- Trade receivables are comprised of amounts due from customers, lenders for the commissions earned on financing and others for commissions earned on service contracts and insurance products.
- Vehicle receivables represent receivables for the portion of the vehicle sales price paid directly by the customer.
- Manufacturer receivables represent amounts due from manufacturers, including holdbacks, rebates, incentives, and warranty claims.

Receivables are recorded at invoice and do not bear interest until they are 60 days past due. The historical losses related to these balances are immaterial. The long-term portion of accounts receivable was included as a component of other non-current assets in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. See Note 2 – Accounts Receivable.

Finance Receivables

Finance receivables consist of auto loan and lease contracts originated through our Financing Operations, which are secured by the vehicles we sell. Finance receivables are presented net of an allowance for credit losses. The allowance for credit losses represents the net credit losses expected over the remaining contractual life of our finance receivables. See Note 5 – Finance Receivables for additional information on our significant accounting policies related to finance receivables and the allowance for credit losses.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of net realizable value or cost, using the specific identification method for new and used vehicles, and the lower of cost (first-in, first-out) or market method for parts. The cost of new and used vehicle inventories includes the cost of any equipment added, reconditioning, and transportation.

Manufacturers reimburse us for holdbacks, floor plan interest assistance, and advertising assistance, which are reflected as a reduction in the carrying value of each vehicle purchased. We recognize advertising assistance, floor plan interest assistance, holdbacks, cash incentives, and other rebates received from manufacturers that are tied to specific vehicles as a reduction to cost of sales as the related vehicles are sold.

Parts purchase discounts that we receive from the manufacturer are reflected as a reduction in the carrying value of the parts purchased from the manufacturer and are recognized as a reduction to cost of goods sold as the related inventory is sold. See Note 3 – Inventories and Floor Plan Notes Payable.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives on the straight-line basis. Leasehold improvements made at the inception of the lease or during the term of the lease are amortized on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the life of the improvement or the remaining term of the lease.

The range of estimated useful lives is as follows:

Buildings and improvements	5	to	40 years
Service equipment	5	to	15 years
Furniture, office equipment, signs, and fixtures	3	to	10 years

The cost for maintenance, repairs and minor renewals is expensed as incurred, while significant remodels and betterments are capitalized. In addition, interest on borrowings for major capital projects, significant remodels, and betterments is capitalized. Capitalized interest becomes a part of the cost of the depreciable asset and is depreciated according to the estimated useful lives as previously stated. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, we recorded capitalized interest of $8.5 million, $5.4 million and $2.6 million, respectively.

When an asset is retired, or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is credited or charged to income from operations, as a component of SG&A.

Leased property meeting certain criteria are recorded as finance leases. We have finance leases for certain locations, expiring at various dates through August 31, 2037. Our finance lease right-of-use assets are included in property and equipment on our Consolidated Balance Sheets. Amortization of finance lease right-of-use assets is computed on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease, unless the lease transfers title or it contains a bargain purchase option, in which case, it is amortized over the asset's useful life and is included in depreciation expense. Finance lease liabilities are recorded as the lesser of the estimated fair market value of the leased property or the net present value of the aggregated future minimum payments and are included in current maturities of long-term debt and long-term debt on our Consolidated Balance Sheets. Interest associated with these obligations is included in other interest expense in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. See Note 9 – Commitments and Contingencies.

Long-lived assets held and used by us are reviewed for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of assets may not be recoverable. We consider several factors when evaluating whether there are indications of potential impairment related to our long-lived assets, including store profitability, overall macroeconomic factors and the impact of our strategic management decisions. If recoverability testing is performed, we evaluate assets to be held and used by comparing the carrying amount of an asset to future net undiscounted cash flows associated with the asset, including its disposition. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets is recognized as a charge to income from operations. See Note 4 – Property and Equipment.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired which is not allocable to separately identifiable intangible assets. Other identifiable intangible assets, such as franchise rights, are separately recognized if the intangible asset is obtained through contractual or other legal right or if the intangible asset can be sold, transferred, licensed or exchanged.

Goodwill is not amortized but tested for impairment at least annually, and more frequently if events or circumstances indicate the carrying amount of the reporting unit more likely than not exceeds fair value. We have the option to qualitatively or quantitatively assess goodwill for impairment. We test our goodwill for impairment on October 1 of each year. In 2025, we evaluated our goodwill using a qualitative assessment process. If the qualitative factors determine that it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit exceeds the carrying amount, goodwill is not impaired. If the qualitative assessment determines it is more likely than not the fair value is less than the carrying amount, we would further evaluate for potential impairment. We have determined the appropriate unit of accounting for testing goodwill for impairment is at our reporting unit level: North America Vehicle Operations, U.K.

Vehicle Operations, and U.S. and Canada Financing Operations. See Note 6 – Goodwill and Franchise Value and Note 15 – Fair Value Measurements.

Franchise Value

We enter into agreements (franchise agreements) with our manufacturers. Franchise value represents a right received under franchise agreements with manufacturers and is identified on a legal entity basis.

We evaluated the useful lives of our franchise agreements based on the following factors:

- certain of our franchise agreements continue indefinitely by their terms;
- certain of our franchise agreements have limited terms, but are routinely renewed without substantial cost to us;
- other than franchise terminations related to the unprecedented reorganizations of Chrysler and GM, and allowed by bankruptcy law, we are not aware of manufacturers terminating franchise agreements against the wishes of the franchise owners in the ordinary course of business. A manufacturer may pressure a franchise owner to sell a franchise when the owner is in breach of the franchise agreement over an extended period of time;
- state dealership franchise laws typically limit the rights of the manufacturer to terminate or not renew a franchise;
- we are not aware of any legislation or other factors that would materially change the retail automotive franchise system; and
- as evidenced by our acquisition and disposition history, there is an active market for most automotive dealership franchises. We attribute value to the franchise agreements acquired with the dealerships we purchase based on the understanding and industry practice that the franchise agreements will be renewed indefinitely by the manufacturer.

Accordingly, we have determined that our franchise agreements will continue to contribute to our cash flows indefinitely and, therefore, have indefinite lives.

As an indefinite-lived intangible asset, franchise value is tested for impairment at least annually, and more frequently if events or circumstances indicate the carrying value may exceed fair value. The impairment test for indefinite-lived intangible assets requires the comparison of estimated fair value to carrying value. An impairment charge is recorded to the extent the fair value is less than the carrying value. We have the option to qualitatively or quantitatively assess indefinite-lived intangible assets for impairment. We evaluated our indefinite-lived intangible assets using a qualitative assessment process. We have determined the appropriate unit of accounting for testing franchise value for impairment is each legal entity assigned franchise value.

We test our franchise value for impairment on October 1 of each year. In 2025, we evaluated our franchise value using a qualitative assessment process. If the qualitative factors discussed above determine that it is more likely than not that the fair value of the legal entity's franchise value exceeds the carrying amount, the franchise value is not impaired and the second step is not necessary. If the qualitative assessment determines it is more likely than not the fair value is less than the carrying value, then a quantitative valuation of our franchise value is performed and an impairment would be recorded. See Note 6 – Goodwill and Franchise Value and Note 15 – Fair Value Measurements.

Variable Interest Entities and Securitization Transactions

We maintain a revolving funding program composed of warehouse facilities that we use to fund finance receivables originated by our Financing Operations.

We use term securitizations to provide long-term funding for most of the finance receivables initially funded through the warehouse facilities. In these transactions, a pool of finance receivables is sold to a bankruptcy-remote, special purpose entity that, in turn, transfers the finance receivables to a special purpose securitization trust. The securitization trust issues asset-backed securities, secured or otherwise supported by the transferred finance receivables, and the proceeds from the sale of the asset-backed securities are used to finance the securitized finance receivables.

The securitization trusts established in connection with asset-backed securitization transactions are variable interest entities (VIE). We are required to evaluate term securitization trusts for consolidation. In our capacity as servicer, we have the power to direct the activities of the trusts that most significantly impact the economic performance of the trusts. In addition, we have the obligation to absorb losses (subject to limitations) and the rights to receive any returns of the trusts, which could be significant. Accordingly, we are the primary beneficiary of the trusts and are required to consolidate them.

We recognize these term securitizations as secured borrowings, which result in recording the finance receivables and the related non-recourse notes payable on our Consolidated Balance Sheets.

These finance receivables can only be used as collateral to settle obligations of the related non-recourse funding vehicles. The non-recourse funding vehicles and investors have no recourse to our assets beyond the related finance receivables, the amounts on deposit in reserve accounts and the restricted cash from collections on finance receivables. We have not provided financial or other support to the non-recourse funding vehicles that was not previously contractually required, and there are no additional arrangements, guarantees, or other commitments that could require us to provide financial support to the non-recourse funding vehicles.

See Note 5 – Finance Receivables and Note 10 – Credit Facilities and Long-Term Debt for additional information on finance receivables and non-recourse notes payable.

Restricted Cash on Deposit in Reserve Accounts

The restricted cash on deposit in reserve accounts is for the benefit of holders of non-recourse notes payable, and these funds are not expected to be available to the company or its creditors. In the event that the cash generated by the related receivables in a given period was insufficient to pay the interest, principal, and other required payments, the balances on deposit in the reserve accounts would be used to pay those amounts. Restricted cash on deposit in reserve accounts is invested in both FDIC insured bank savings accounts as well as money market securities and is included in "Other non-current assets" on our Consolidated Balance Sheets. Restricted cash on deposit in reserve accounts totaled $49.5 million and $43.6 million at December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Advertising

We expense production and other costs of advertising as incurred as a component of SG&A expense. Additionally, manufacturer cooperative advertising credits for qualifying, specifically-identified advertising expenditures are recognized as a reduction of advertising expense. Advertising expense and manufacturer cooperative advertising credits were as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions)	2025	2024	2023
Advertising expense, gross	$ 319.5	$ 306.9	$ 302.4
Manufacturer cooperative advertising credits	(62.5)	(56.2)	(54.2)
Advertising expense, net	$ 257.0	$ 250.7	$ 248.2

Contract Origination Costs

Contract origination commissions paid to our team members directly related to the sale of our self-insured lifetime lube, oil, and filter service contracts and finance receivables originations are deferred and charged to expense in proportion to the associated revenue to be recognized.

Legal Costs

We are a party to numerous legal proceedings arising in the normal course of business. We accrue for certain legal costs, including attorney fees and potential settlement claims related to various legal proceedings that are estimable and probable. See Note 9 – Commitments and Contingencies.

Share-Based Compensation

Compensation costs associated with equity instruments exchanged for team member and director services are measured at the grant date, based on the fair value of the award. If there is a performance-based element to the award, the expense is recognized based on the estimated attainment level, estimated time to achieve the attainment level and/or the vesting period. Estimates of fair value are not intended to predict actual future events or the value ultimately realized by persons who receive equity awards. The fair value of non-vested share-based awards is based on the closing price of our common stock on the date of grant. We account for forfeitures of share-based awards as they occur. See Note 14 – Share-Based Compensation Plans.

Income and Other Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities, their respective tax bases, operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. A valuation allowance, if needed, reduces deferred tax assets when it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

When there are situations with uncertainty as to the timing of the deduction, the amount of the deduction, or the validity of the deduction, we adjust our financial statements to reflect only those tax positions that are more-likely-than-not to be sustained. Positions that meet this criterion are measured using the largest benefit that is more than 50% likely to be realized. Interest and penalties are recorded as income tax provision in the period incurred or accrued when related to an uncertain tax position. See Note 16 – Income Taxes.

We account for all taxes assessed by a governmental authority that are directly imposed on a revenue-producing transaction (i.e., sales, use, value-added) on a net (excluded from revenues) basis.

Concentration of Risk and Uncertainties

We purchase substantially all of our new vehicles and inventory from various manufacturers at the prevailing prices charged by auto manufacturers to all franchised dealers. Our overall sales could be impacted by the auto manufacturers' inability or unwillingness to supply dealerships with an adequate supply of popular models.

We depend on our manufacturers to provide a supply of vehicles which supports expected sales levels. In the event that manufacturers are unable to supply the needed level of vehicles, our financial performance may be adversely impacted.

We depend on our manufacturers to deliver high-quality, defect-free vehicles. In the event that manufacturers experience future quality issues, our financial performance may be adversely impacted.

We are subject to a concentration of risk in the event of financial distress, including potential reorganization or bankruptcy, of a major vehicle manufacturer. Our sales volume could be materially adversely impacted by the manufacturers' or distributors' inability to supply the stores with an adequate supply of vehicles. We also receive incentives and rebates from our manufacturers, including cash allowances, financing programs, discounts, holdbacks and other incentives. These incentives are recorded as accounts receivable in our Consolidated Balance Sheets until payment is received. Our financial condition could be materially adversely impacted by the manufacturers' or distributors' inability to continue to offer these incentives and rebates at substantially similar terms, or to pay our outstanding receivables.

We enter into franchise agreements with the manufacturers. The franchise agreements generally limit the location of the dealership and provide the auto manufacturer approval rights over changes in dealership management and ownership. The auto manufacturers are also entitled to terminate the franchise agreement if the dealership is in material breach of the terms. Our ability to expand operations depends, in part, on obtaining consents of the manufacturers for the acquisition of additional dealerships. See also "Goodwill" and "Franchise Value" above.

We have a variety of syndicated credit facilities with several of the included financial institutions also providing vehicle financing for certain new vehicles, vehicles that are designated for use as service loaners and mortgage financing. These credit facilities are the primary source of floor plan financing for our new vehicle inventory and also provides used vehicle financing and a revolving line of credit. The terms of the facilities extends through various dates through February 23, 2029. At maturity, our financial condition could be materially adversely impacted if lenders are unable to provide credit that has typically been extended to us or with terms unacceptable to us. Our financial condition could be materially adversely impacted if these providers incur losses in the future or undergo funding limitations. See Note 10 – Credit Facilities and Long-Term Debt.

We anticipate continued organic growth and growth through acquisitions. This growth will require additional credit which may be unavailable or with terms unacceptable to us. If these events were to occur, we may not be able to borrow sufficient funds to facilitate our growth.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the Consolidated Financial Statements and related Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements. Changes in such estimates may affect amounts reported in future periods.

Estimates are used in the calculation of certain reserves maintained for charge-backs on estimated cancellations of service contracts; life, accident, and disability insurance policies; finance fees from customer financing contracts and uncollectible accounts receivable.

Estimates are also used in our allowance for credit losses, which represents the net credit losses expected over the remaining contractual life of our finance receivables. Because net loss performance can vary substantially over time, estimating net losses requires assumptions about matters that are uncertain. The allowance for credit losses is determined using a net loss timing curve, primarily based on the composition of the portfolio of managed finance receivables and historical gross loss and recovery trends. Determining the appropriateness of the allowance for credit losses requires management to exercise judgment about matters that are inherently uncertain, including the timing and distribution of net losses that could materially affect the allowance for credit losses and, therefore, net earnings.

We also use estimates in the calculation of various expenses, accruals and reserves, including anticipated losses related to workers' compensation insurance; anticipated losses related to self-insurance components of our property and casualty and medical insurance; self-insured lifetime lube, oil, and filter service contracts; discretionary team member bonuses, the Transition Agreement with Sidney B. DeBoer, our Chairman of the Board; warranties provided on certain products and services; legal reserves and share-based compensation. We also make certain estimates regarding the assessment of the recoverability of long-lived assets, indefinite-lived intangible assets and deferred tax assets.

We offer a limited warranty on the sale of most retail used vehicles. This warranty is based on mileage and time. We also offer a mileage and time based warranty on parts used in our service repair work and on tire purchases. The cost that may be incurred for these warranties is estimated at the time the related revenue is recorded. A reserve for these warranty liabilities is estimated based on current sales levels, warranty experience rates and estimated costs per claim. The annual activity for reserve increases and claims is immaterial.

Fair Value of Assets Acquired and Liabilities Assumed

We estimate the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination using various assumptions. The most significant assumptions used relate to determining the fair value of property and equipment and intangible franchise rights.

We estimate the fair value of property and equipment based on a market valuation approach. We use prices and other relevant information generated primarily by recent market transactions involving similar or comparable assets, as well as our historical experience in divestitures, acquisitions and real estate transactions. Additionally, we may use a cost valuation approach to value long-lived assets when a market valuation approach is unavailable. Under this approach, we determine the cost to replace the service capacity of an asset, adjusted for physical and economic obsolescence. When available, we use valuation inputs from independent valuation experts, such as real estate appraisers and brokers, to corroborate our estimates of fair value.

We estimate the fair value of our franchise rights primarily using the Multi-Period Excess Earnings (MPEE) model. The forecasted cash flows used in the MPEE model contain inherent uncertainties, including significant estimates and assumptions related to growth rates, margins, general operating expenses, and cost of capital. We use primarily internally-developed forecasts and business plans to estimate the future cash flows that each franchise will generate. We have determined that only certain cash flows of the store are directly attributable to the franchise rights. We estimate the appropriate interest rate to discount future cash flows to their present value equivalent taking into consideration factors such as a risk-free rate, a peer group average beta, an equity risk premium and a small stock risk premium. Additionally, we also may use a market approach to determine the fair value of our franchise rights. These market data points include our acquisition and divestiture experience and third-party broker estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The following describes our major product lines, which represent the disaggregation of our revenues to transactions that are similar in nature, amount, timing, uncertainties, and economic factors.

New Vehicle and Used Vehicle Sales

Revenue from the sale of a vehicle is recognized at a point in time, as all performance obligations are satisfied when a contract is signed by the customer, financing has been arranged or collectibility is probable, and the control of the vehicle is transferred to the customer. The transaction price for a vehicle sale is specified in the contract with the customer and includes all cash and non-cash consideration. In a vehicle sale, customers often trade in their current vehicle. The trade-in is measured at its stand-alone selling price in the contract, utilizing various third-party pricing sources. There are no other non-cash forms of consideration related to vehicle sales. All vehicle rebates are applied to the vehicle purchase price at the time of the sale and are therefore incorporated into the price of the contract at the time of the exchange. We do not allow the return of new or used vehicles, except where mandated by law.

Finance and Insurance Sales

Revenue from F&I sales is recognized, net of estimated charge-backs, at the time of the sale of the related vehicle. As a part of the vehicle sale, we seek to arrange financing for customers and sell a variety of add-ons, such as extended warranty service contracts. These products are inherently attached to the governing vehicle and performance of the obligation cannot be performed without the underlying sale of the vehicle. We act as an agent in the sale of these contracts as the pricing is set by the third-party provider, and our commission is preset.

Aftersales

Revenue from aftersales is recognized upon the transfer of control of the parts or service to the customer. We allow for customer returns on sales of our parts inventory up to 30 days after the sale. Most parts returns generally occur within one to two weeks from the time of sale and are not significant.

Deferred Revenue

We have contract liabilities related to various products and services sold to our customers. Revenue is allocated to these performance obligations and is recognized over time as services are provided to the customer.

The amount of revenue recognized related to aftersales contract liabilities is calculated, net of cancellations, using an input method, which most closely depicts performance of the contracts. Our contract liability balances associated with aftersales were $501.5 million and $452.2 million as of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, respectively; and we recognized $102.7 million and $95.2 million of revenue in the years ended December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, respectively, related to our opening contract liability balances associated with aftersales.

The amount of revenue recognized related to operating lease vehicle contract liabilities is recognized evenly over the life of the related lease contracts. Our contract liability balances associated with operating lease vehicles were $136.4 million and $111.4 million as of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, respectively; and we recognized $50.7 million and $48.4 million of revenue in the years ended December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively, related to our opening contract liability balances associated with operating lease vehicles.

Our contract liability balances are included in accrued liabilities and deferred revenue.

Reclassifications

Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. In connection with the preparation of these annual consolidated financial statements, we combined used wholesale revenue with used retail revenue and now present these revenues collectively as Used vehicle revenue. In addition, we combined fleet revenue with new retail revenue and now present these revenues collectively as New vehicle revenue.

These changes were made to better reflect how management evaluates our revenue performance and to improve comparability with industry practice. The reclassifications had no impact on total revenue, gross profit, operating income, net income, or cash flows for any period presented.

Correction of an Error

We identified an immaterial error related to interest and fee income recognition in our previously issued financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2024. In accordance with FASB ASC 250, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections, we corrected this error by retrospectively revising the affected prior period in these annual consolidated financial statements. The following tables summarize the impact of the correction on our Consolidated Balance Sheet and Consolidated Statement of Operations.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09 related to improvements to income tax disclosures. The amendments in this update require enhanced jurisdictional and other disaggregated disclosures for the effective tax rate reconciliation and income taxes paid. The amendments in this update are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024. We adopted this pronouncement and made the necessary updates to our disclosures for the year ending December 31, 2025, and, aside from these disclosure changes, the amendments did not have a material effect on our financial statements.

In November 2024, the FASB issued ASU 2024-03 related to the disaggregation of certain income statement expenses. The amendments in this update require public entities to disclose incremental information related to purchases of inventory, team member compensation, and depreciation, which will provide investors the ability to better understand entity expenses and make their own judgments about entity performance. The amendments in this update are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2026. We plan to adopt this pronouncement and make the necessary updates to our disclosures for the year ending December 31, 2027, and, aside from these disclosure changes, we do not expect the amendments to have a material effect on our financial statements.

NOTE 2. ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Accounts receivable consisted of the following:

($ in millions)	December 31, 2025	2024
Contracts in transit	$ 468.6	$ 497.4
Trade receivables	148.6	166.5

Long-Lived Asset Impairment Charges

We determined no triggering events had occurred for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023.

NOTE 5. FINANCE RECEIVABLES

Our finance receivables are comprised of auto loan and lease receivables. Our auto loan receivables include amounts due from customers related to vehicle sales financed through U.S. and Canada Financing Operations, secured by the related vehicles. Lease receivables include amounts related to vehicles leased through Canadian Financing Operations, also secured by the related vehicles. These amounts are presented net of an allowance for credit losses.

Interest income on finance receivables is recognized based on the contractual terms of each loan and is accrued until repayment, reaching non-accrual status, charge-off, or repossession. Direct costs associated with finance receivable originations are capitalized and expensed as an offset to interest income when recognized on the finance receivables.

More than 99% of the portfolio is aged less than 60 days past due with less than 1% on non-accrual status. As of December 31, 2025, the allowance for credit losses related to finance receivables was $143.7 million and was included in finance receivables, net. In accordance with ASC Topic 326, the allowance for credit losses is estimated based on our historical write-off experience, current conditions and reasonable and supportable forecasts as well as the value of any underlying assets securing these receivables and is reviewed monthly. Consideration is given to recent delinquency trends and recovery rates. Account balances are charged against the allowance for credit losses upon the earlier of reaching 120 days past due status, the repossession of the vehicle, or the determination that the account is uncollectible.

(1) Our purchase price allocations (PPA) for the 2023 acquisitions were finalized in 2024. As a result, we added $146.6 million of goodwill. Preliminary PPA for a portion of our 2024 acquisitions resulted in adding $20.4 million of goodwill.

(2) Our PPA for a portion of the 2023 acquisitions recognized in 2023 was adjusted and finalized in 2024 upon the completion of our fair value adjustments for assumed contract liabilities, acquired loan portfolio, and contingent consideration, adding $47.7 million of goodwill.

(3) Our PPA for the 2024 acquisitions were finalized in 2025. As a result, we added $348.2 million of goodwill. Preliminary PPA for a portion of our 2025 acquisitions resulted in adding $34.9 million of goodwill. Our PPA for the remaining 2025 acquisitions is preliminary and goodwill is not yet allocated to our segments. These amounts are included as a component other non-current assets until we finalize our purchase accounting. See Note 17 – Acquisitions.

Balance as of December 31, 2025	$ 2,777.4

(1) Our PPA for the 2023 acquisitions were finalized in 2024. As a result, we added $172.5 million of franchise value.

(2) Our PPA for the 2024 acquisitions were finalized in 2025. As a result, we added $218.0 million of franchise value. Preliminary PPA for a portion of our 2025 acquisitions resulted in adding $13.1 million of franchise value. Our PPA for the remaining 2025 acquisitions is preliminary and franchise value is not yet recorded. These amounts are included as a component of other non-current assets until we finalize our purchase accounting. See Note 17 – Acquisitions.

(3) In our annual impairment testing (See Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies), we determined the franchise value of one underperforming store was not recoverable resulting in an impairment of franchise value of $5.8 million being recorded in the Consolidated Statements of Operations as Asset impairments. Balance as of December 31, 2025 is net of accumulated impairments of this amount only.

NOTE 7. INVESTMENTS

Marketable Securities

Our captive insurance subsidiary invests cash in excess of current needs in marketable securities. The marketable securities are recorded within other current assets in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and consist of debt securities accounted for as available-for-sale (AFS) and equity securities measured at fair value. Changes in the fair value of equity securities are recognized as a component of other income (expense), net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and unrealized gains (losses) on AFS debt securities are recorded as a component of other comprehensive income (loss), net of tax until the security is sold. See Note 15 – Fair Value Measurements.

Our equity securities recorded within other current assets in the Consolidated Balance Sheets were $2.4 million as of December 31, 2025 and $2.2 million as of December 31, 2024. Net unrealized gains recognized during the twelve months ended December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024 on equity securities held at the reporting date were $0.2 million and $0.3 million, respectively.

Marketable debt securities accounted for as AFS were as follows:

(1) Represents total unrealized losses for securities with net losses in accumulated other comprehensive income as of December 31, 2024.

There were sales of $9.2 million of AFS securities during the twelve months ended December 31, 2025 and no sales in the twelve months ended December 31, 2024.

Equity Method Investments

In 2025, our common stock voting interests in Pinewood Technologies, PLC (PINE.L), a U.K.-based automotive dealership management system provider, increased from 25.50% to 31.95%. The investment is accounted for as an equity method investment, included as a component of "Other non-current assets" on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The investment is measured at fair value based on quoted market prices, and all fair market value changes in the investment are recorded as unrealized gains or losses as a component of Other (expense) income, net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The fair value of our investment was $177.2 million and $100.0 million as of December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively. See Note 15 – Fair Value Measurements.

Our investment in Wheels, Inc., an automotive fleet management provider, through LMMH consists of 26.5% of the common stock voting interests accounted for as an equity method investment. The investment is measured at cost plus or minus our share of equity method investee income or loss as a component of "Other non-current assets" in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The book value of our investment was $222.0 million and $208.2 million as of December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

We recorded unrealized losses on equity method investments of $15.1 million for the twelve months ended December 31, 2025. Comparatively, we recorded gains on equity method investments of $32.8 million in the same period of 2024 and losses of $1.7 million in the same period 2023.

NOTE 8. NET INVESTMENT IN OPERATING LEASES

Net investment in operating leases consists primarily of lease contracts for vehicles with individuals and business entities. Assets subject to operating leases are depreciated using the straight-line method over the term of the lease to reduce the asset to its estimated residual value. Estimated residual values are based on assumptions for used vehicle prices at lease termination and the number of vehicles that are expected to be returned.

Net investment in operating leases was as follows:

($ in millions)	December 31, 2025	2024
Vehicles, at cost [1]	$ 447.0	$ 334.4
Accumulated depreciation [1]	(88.9)	(46.4)
Net investment in operating leases	$ 358.1	$ 288.0

(1) Vehicles, at cost and accumulated depreciation are recorded in "Other non-current assets" on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

NOTE 9. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Leases

We lease certain dealerships, office space, land, and equipment. Leases with an initial term of 12 months or less are not recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheets; we recognize lease expense for these leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term. We have elected not to bifurcate lease and non-lease components related to leases of real property.

Most leases include one or more options to renew, with renewal terms that can extend the lease term from one to 25 or more years. The exercise of lease renewal options is at our sole discretion. Certain leases also include options to purchase the leased property. The depreciable life of assets and leasehold improvements are limited by the expected lease term, unless there is a transfer of title or purchase option reasonably certain of exercise.

Certain of our lease agreements include rental payments based on a percentage of retail sales over contractual levels and others include rental payments adjusted periodically for inflation. Our lease agreements do not contain any material residual value guarantees or material restrictive covenants.

We rent or sublease certain real estate to third parties.

The table below presents the lease-related liabilities and finance lease right-of-use assets recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheets:

($ in millions)	December 31, 2025	2024

Total lease costs		$ 142.2	$ 139.4	$ 102.9

(1) Includes short-term and month-to-month lease costs, which are immaterial.
(2) Variable lease cost generally includes reimbursement for actual costs incurred by our lessors for common area maintenance, property taxes and insurance on leased real estate.

As of December 31, 2025, the maturities of our operating and finance lease liabilities were as follows:

($ in millions)	Operating Lease Liabilities	Finance Lease Liabilities
Year Ending December 31,
2026	$ 132.1	$ 8.5
2027	119.8	47.6

Less: present value adjustment	(296.5)	(34.8)
Total lease liabilities	$ 765.3	$ 112.4

Charge-Backs for Various Contracts

We have recorded a liability of $202.5 million as of December 31, 2025 for our estimated contractual obligations related to potential charge-backs for vehicle service contracts and other various insurance contracts that are terminated early by the customer. We estimate that the charge-backs will be paid out as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	($ in millions)
2026	$ 112.8
2027	55.3
2028	24.2
2029	8.3
2030	1.8
Thereafter	0.1
Total	$ 202.5

Contract Liabilities

We retain the obligation for various contracts sold to our customers and assumed in acquisitions. These amounts are recorded as a contract liability. At the time of sale, we defer the full sale price and recognize the revenue based on the rate we expect future costs to be incurred. As of December 31, 2025, we had a contract liability balance of $638.0 million associated with these contracts and estimate the contract liability will be recognized as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	($ in millions)
2026	$ 176.1
2027	132.8
2028	90.2
2029	62.4
2030	46.8
Thereafter	129.7
Total	$ 638.0

The contract liability balance is recorded as components of deferred revenue and accrued liabilities in our Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Self-insurance Programs

We self-insure a portion of our property and casualty insurance, vehicle open lot coverage, medical insurance, and workers' compensation insurance. Third parties are engaged to assist in estimating the loss exposure related to the self-retained portion of the risk associated with these insurances. Additionally, we analyze our historical loss and claims experience to estimate the loss exposure associated with these programs. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, we had liabilities associated with these programs of $113.0 million and $95.6 million, respectively, recorded as a component of accrued liabilities and other long-term liabilities in our Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Litigation

We are party to numerous legal proceedings arising in the normal course of our business. Although we do not anticipate that the resolution of legal proceedings arising in the normal course of business will have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, or cash flows, we cannot predict this with certainty.

Credit Facilities

US Bank Syndicated Credit Facility

On August 6, 2025 we amended our existing syndicated credit facility (USB credit facility), comprised of 20 financial institutions, including seven manufacturer-affiliated finance companies, maturing February 23, 2029. The amendment increased the total financing commitment and the amount to which the commitment could be further expanded.

This USB credit facility provides for a total financing commitment of $6.5 billion, which may be further expanded, subject to lender approval and the satisfaction of other conditions, up to a total of $7.0 billion. The allocation of the financing commitment is for up to $3.0 billion in new vehicle inventory floorplan financing, up to $900 million in used vehicle inventory floorplan financing, up to $100 million in service loaner vehicle floorplan financing, and up to $2.5 billion in revolving financing for general corporate purposes, including acquisitions and working capital. We have the option to reallocate the commitments under this USB credit facility, provided that the aggregate revolving loan commitment may not be more than 50% of the amount of the aggregate commitment, and the aggregate service loaner vehicle floorplan commitment may not be more than the 3% of the amount of the aggregate commitment. All borrowings from, and repayments to, our lending group are presented in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows as financing activities.

Our obligations under our USB credit facility are secured by a substantial amount of our assets, including our inventory (including new and used vehicles, parts and accessories), equipment, accounts receivable (and other rights to payment), and our equity interests in certain of our subsidiaries.

The interest rate on the USB credit facility varies based on the type of debt, with the rate of one-day SOFR plus a credit spread adjustment of 0.10% plus a margin of 1.10% for new vehicle floor plan financing, 1.40% for used vehicle floor plan financing, 1.20% for service loaner floor plan financing, and a variable interest rate on the revolving financing ranging from 1.00% to 2.00% depending on our leverage ratio. The annual interest rates associated with our commitments are as follows:

Commitment	Annual Interest Rate at December 31, 2025
New vehicle floor plan	5.07%
Used vehicle floor plan	5.37%
Service loaner floor plan	5.17%
Revolving line of credit	5.22%

Under the terms of our USB credit facility, we are subject to financial covenants and restrictive covenants that limit or restrict our incurring additional indebtedness, making investments, selling or acquiring assets and granting security interests in our assets.

Bank of Nova Scotia Syndicated Credit Facility
Our syndicated credit agreement with the Bank of Nova Scotia as agent (BNS credit facility) is comprised of six financing institutions, including two manufacturer-affiliated finance companies.

The BNS credit facility provides for a total financing commitment of approximately $1.1 billion CAD, including a working capital revolving credit facility of up to $125 million CAD, a wholesale flooring facility for new vehicles up to $500 million CAD, used vehicle flooring facility of up to $75 million CAD, wholesale leasing facility of up to $400 million CAD, and daily rental vehicle facility up to $25 million CAD.

The interest rate on the BNS credit facility varies based on the type of debt, with the daily compound rate of the Canadian Overnight Repo Rate Average (CORRA) plus a credit spread adjustment of 0.30% plus a margin of 1.00% for the wholesale flooring facility, 1.25% for the used vehicle flooring facility, 1.20% for the daily rental facility, 1.30% for the wholesale leasing facility, and a variable interest rate on the working capital revolving facility ranging from 1.25% to 2.25% depending on our leverage ratio. The annual interest rates associated with our commitments are as follows:

Commitment	Annual Interest Rate at December 31, 2025
Wholesale flooring facility	3.60%
Used vehicle flooring facility	3.85%
Daily rental facility	3.80%
Wholesale leasing facility	3.90%
Working capital revolving facility	3.85%

All BNS facilities other than the wholesale flooring facility, which is a demand facility, mature on March 18, 2027. Under the terms of our BNS credit facility, we are subject to compliance with various financial covenants.

Bank of America Revolving Credit Facility
On April 1, 2025, we amended our revolving credit facility agreement with Bank of America. The amendment increased the commitment to £150.0 million GBP. The maturity date is February 22, 2029 and the interest rate on the working capital line of credit is based on the Sterling Overnight Index Average (SONIA) plus 1.45%. The annual interest rate at December 31, 2025 was 5.18%.

JPM Warehouse facility
On December 9, 2025, we amended our securitization facility for our finance receivable portfolio (JPM warehouse facility) with JPMorgan Chase Bank, as administrative agent and account bank, providing initial commitments for borrowings of up to $1.0 billion and extending the maturity to December 9, 2027. The amendment adjusted the interest rate on the JPM warehouse facility varies based on the Daily Simple SOFR rate plus 0.85% to 1.80% and added Wells Fargo Bank as an additional lender.

Mizuho Warehouse facility
On August 1, 2025, we amended our securitization facility for our finance receivable portfolio (Mizuho warehouse facility), with Mizuho Bank Ltd., as administrative agent and account bank, providing initial commitments for borrowings of up to $1 billion and extending the maturity to July 30, 2027. The amendment adjusted the interest rate on the Mizuho warehouse facility to the Daily Simple SOFR rate plus 0.85% to 0.95% and added Bank of America as an additional lender.

Floor Plan Notes Payable

We have floor plan agreements with manufacturer-affiliated finance companies and other lenders with direct manufacturer and vendor partnerships for certain new and used vehicles that have not been financed through our new vehicle credit facilities or third-party finance companies. The interest rates on these floor plan notes payable commitments vary by manufacturer and are variable rates ranging from 5.37% to 6.75% as of December 31, 2025. Borrowings from and repayments to manufacturer-affiliated finance companies are classified as operating activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

Floor Plan Notes Payable: Non-Trade

We have floor plan agreements with third-party finance companies for certain new and used vehicles that have not been financed through our new vehicle credit facilities or manufacturer finance companies. The interest rates on these floor plan notes payable non-trade commitments vary by lender and are variable rates ranging from 3.60% to 8.50% as of December 31, 2025. Borrowing from and repayments to third-party finance companies are classified as financing activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

See Note 3 – Inventories and Floor Plan Notes Payable for more information on our floor plan commitments outstanding as of December 31, 2025.

Non-Recourse Notes Payable

DFC finance receivables are temporarily funded through our warehouse facilities until they can be funded through non-recourse asset-backed term transactions. These non-recourse funding vehicles are structured to legally isolate the finance receivables, and we would not expect to be able to access the assets of our non-recourse funding vehicles, even in insolvency, receivership or conservatorship proceedings. Similarly, the investors in the non-recourse notes payable have no recourse to our assets beyond the related receivables, the amounts on deposit in reserve accounts and the restricted cash from collections on finance receivables. We do, however, continue to have the rights associated with the interest we retain in these non-recourse funding vehicles.

In 2025, we issued $1.7 billion in non-recourse notes payable related to quarterly asset-backed term funding transactions. Below is a summary of outstanding non-recourse notes payable issued:

Real Estate Mortgages, Finance Lease Obligations, and Other Debt

We have mortgages associated with our owned real estate. Interest rates related to this debt ranged from 3.0% to 7.6% at December 31, 2025. We have $1,039.5 million in mortgages outstanding as of December 31, 2025, which are payable in various installments through October 1, 2045. As of December 31, 2025, we had fixed interest rates on 59.4% of our outstanding mortgage debt.

We have $112.4 million of finance lease obligations with some of our leased real estate as of December 31, 2025. Interest rates related to this debt ranged from 2.5% to 8.5% at December 31, 2025. The leases have terms extending through August 2037.

Our other debt includes a variety of miscellaneous notes payable and bank overdrafts. The interest rates associated with our other debt ranged from 5.0% to 8.0% at December 31, 2025. This debt, which totaled $0.4 million at December 31, 2025, is due in various installments through April 1, 2027. Bank overdraft activity is included as a component of "Other financing activities" within the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

Future Principal Payments

The schedule of future principal payments associated with real estate mortgages, finance lease liabilities, our senior notes, and other debt as of December 31, 2025 was as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	($ in millions)
2026	$ 71.6
2027	536.5
2028	124.0
2029	889.4
2030	738.9
Thereafter	1,141.7
Total principal payments	$ 3,502.1

This table does not include future payments related to revolving lines of credit or non-recourse notes payable.

NOTE 11. RETIREMENT PLANS AND POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS

Company-Sponsored Defined Contribution 401(k) Plan

We have a defined contribution 401(k) plan and trust covering substantially all full-time team members. Contributions of $46.8 million, $46.1 million, and $44.0 million were recognized for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively. Team members may contribute to the plan if they meet certain eligibility requirements.

Executive Management Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation and Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

We offer a non-qualified deferred compensation and supplemental executive retirement plan (SERP) to provide certain team members the ability to accumulate assets for retirement on a tax deferred basis. We may, depending on position, also make discretionary contributions to the SERP. These discretionary contributions could vest immediately or over a period of up to five years based on the team member's age. Additionally, a participant may defer a portion of his or her compensation and receive the deferred amount upon certain events, including termination or retirement.

The following is a summary related to our SERP:

($ in millions)	Year Ended December 31, 2025	2024	2023
Compensation expense	$ 1.1	$ 1.2	$ 1.3
Total discretionary contribution	$ 1.2	$ 1.4	$ 1.7
Guaranteed annual return	5.50 %	5.15 %	5.00 %

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the balance due to participants was $84.5 million and $77.7 million, respectively, and was included as a component of other long-term liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Company-Sponsored Defined Benefit Pension Plan

In January 2024, we acquired the Pendragon Group Pension Scheme, a company-sponsored defined benefit pension of U.K.-based Pendragon PLC, applicable to a portion of the salaried present and past team members. This plan is in addition to the Jardine Motors Group UK Pension Scheme acquired in 2023. Both pension plans are closed to future accrual.

The following table shows the changes in the benefit obligation, plan assets, and funded status for the pension benefit plans:

($ in millions)	Year Ended December 31, 2025	2024
Change in projected benefit obligation:
Benefit obligation at beginning of year	$ 621.9	$ 170.0
Interest cost	33.2	29.3
Benefit payments	(39.5)	(31.8)
Net transfer in (including the effect of any business combinations/divestitures)	—	465.7
Actuarial loss (gain)	5.5	(44.5)
Exchange rate changes	3.2	33.2
Benefit obligation at end of year	$ 624.3	$ 621.9
Change in plan assets:
Fair value of plan assets at beginning of year	$ 662.8	$ 185.3
Actual return on plan assets	16.0	(10.3)
Employer contributions	11.8	18.9
Benefit payments	(39.5)	(31.8)
Net transfer in (including effect of any business combinations/divestitures)	—	466.4
Exchange rate changes	3.3	34.3
Fair value of plan assets at end of year	654.4	662.8
Funded status at end of year	$ 30.1	$ 40.9
Amounts recognized in Consolidated Balance Sheets:
Other non-current assets	$ 30.1	$ 40.9
Net amount recognized	$ 30.1	$ 40.9
Amounts recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) (pre-tax):
Net actuarial loss	$ (38.3)	$ (5.7)

The benefit obligation for our pension benefit is the projected benefit obligation based upon credited service as of the measurement date.

The December 31, 2025 pension funded status declined primarily due to increased benefit payments and fewer employer contributions.

Net Periodic (Benefit) Cost

Interest cost represents the increase in the projected benefit obligation, which is a discounted amount, due to the passage of time. The expected return on plan assets reflects the computed amount of current-year earnings from the investment of plan assets using an estimated long-term rate of return.

($ in millions)	Year Ended December 31, 2025	2024	2023
Interest cost	$ 33.3	$ 29.3	$ 6.2
Expected return on plan assets	(42.7)	(31.9)	(8.8)
Net periodic (benefit) cost	$ (9.4)	$ (2.6)	$ (2.6)

The components of net periodic pension (benefits) cost are included in other income (expense) in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Actuarial Assumptions

The weighted-average assumptions used to determine the benefit obligation and net periodic pension cost of our pension plan were as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2025	2024	2023
Actuarial assumption used to determine benefit obligation:
Discount rate	5.55 %	5.50 %	4.78 %
Actuarial assumption used to determine net periodic pension cost:
Jardine Motors Group UK Pension Scheme
Discount rate	5.50 %	4.78 %	4.86 %
Expected return on plan assets	5.42 %	5.42 %	6.79 %
Pendragon Group Pension Scheme
Discount rate	5.50 %	4.85 %
Expected return on plan assets	4.85 %	4.85 %

The discount rates used in the determination of pension benefit obligation and pension expense we determined based on a review of long-term high-grade bonds of appropriate duration.

The expected return on plan assets assumption is based upon an analysis of historical long-term returns for various investment categories, as measured by appropriate indices and forward looking expectations of returns. These indices are weighted based upon the extent to which plan assets are invested in the particular categories in arriving at our determination of a composite expected return. The expected rate of return on assets has been set in line with the Trustee's target return.

Plan Assets

There have been no changes in the methodologies used since the assumption of our pension plans. Factors used in determining the fair value of our plan assets are summarized into three broad categories:

- Level 1 - the unadjusted quoted price in an active market for identical assets or liabilities which the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 - inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 which are observable (i.e. developed using market data) for the asset or liability; and
- Level 3 - inputs which are unobservable (i.e. for which market data is unavailable) for the asset or liability.

The following tables set forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the investments at fair value for our company-sponsored defined benefit pension plans:

	As of December 31,

The Company maintains formal investment policy guidelines for our company-sponsored pension plans. These guidelines are established by the plans' Trustees, who are responsible for oversight of the investment program, periodic review of investment performance, and compliance with the stated policies and objectives.

The Trustees have appointed external investment managers (Fiduciary Managers) with discretionary authority to manage plan assets and to provide investment advisory services. Asset allocations within and among investment categories are determined from time-to-time by the Fiduciary Managers in accordance with the investment strategy established by the Trustees. The strategy is designed to maximize the probability of meeting the plans' long-term funding and benefit payment obligations, while maintaining risk within parameters approved by the Trustees.

The Trustees periodically review the investment policy guidelines and target asset allocations and make adjustments as appropriate in response to changes in market conditions, funded status, and liquidity requirements.

The primary investment objectives of the pension plans are:

- to generate returns to meet benefit obligations as they become due;
- to maintain appropriate liquidity to fund benefit payments and plan expenses;
- to manage the risk of asset values diverging from the measurement of plan liabilities, both over the long term and shorter-term periods; and
- to seek to minimize the long-term cost of the plans by achieving appropriate risk-adjusted returns.

To achieve these objectives, the plans' investment strategy utilizes a diversified portfolio of assets, which may include:

- liability-matching assets, consisting primarily of high-quality corporate bonds and other low-risk fixed income instruments intended to broadly align with changes in the value of plan liabilities;
- secure income assets;
- return-seeking assets, including equities, listed real assets, diversifying strategies, hedge funds, private markets, alternative credit and downside protection strategies;
- a buy-in insurance contract; and
- cash and other money market instruments.

The plans may hold cash and money market instruments from time to time to meet near-term liquidity needs or for risk management purposes.

The long-term target asset allocations established by the Fiduciary Managers are presented below:

	Pendragon Group Pension Scheme	Jardine Motors Group UK Pension Scheme
Credit	19 %	— %
Diversified	5 %	— %
Equities	5 %	— %
Illiquids	10 %	— %
Liability matching	57 %	— %
Special purpose investment vehicle	5 %	— %
Buy-in insurance contract	— %	100 %

In 2025, the Company secured the liabilities of the Jardine Motor Group UK Pension Scheme through the purchase of a buy-in insurance contract. Under the arrangement, the insurer is obligated to make payments to the Scheme that match specified benefit obligations covered by the contract. The Scheme retains certain residual uninsured assets, which are intended to meet any remaining benefit payments or associated obligations. These assets are held in cash in the Trustee bank account or in liquid cash and money market instruments.

We anticipate making pension plan cash contributions of $8.2 million in 2026.

Estimated future benefit payments are as follows for the years indicated:

($ in millions)	Pension Benefit Plans
2026	$ 38.9
2027	40.1
2028	41.2
2029	41.6
2030	42.5
2031 - 2035	218.0
Total estimated future benefit payments	$ 422.3

NOTE 12. DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

We account for derivative financial instruments by recording the fair value as either an asset or liability in our Consolidated Balance Sheets and recognize the resulting gains or losses as adjustments to accumulated other comprehensive income (loss). We do not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes.

We have entered into four offsetting derivative arrangements that do not qualify for hedge accounting. These are related to a securitization facility, effective October 2, 2020 and June 15, 2021. We purchased and sold offsetting interest rate caps, all of which are 5-years long with notional amounts totaling $298 million. As of December 31, 2025, the balance in all four agreements were offsetting amounts of $0.7 million and were located in other current assets and accrued liabilities, respectively.

See Note 15 – Fair Value Measurements for information on the fair value of the derivative contracts.

NOTE 13. EQUITY

Common Stock

The shares of common stock are not convertible into any other series or class of our securities. Holders of common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record.

Repurchases of Common Stock

Repurchases of our common stock occurred under repurchase authorizations granted by our Board and related to shares withheld as part of the vesting of RSUs.

Share repurchases under our authorization were as follows:

	Repurchases Occurring in 2025		Cumulative Repurchases as of December 31, 2025
	Shares	Average Price	Shares	Average Price
Share repurchase authorization	3,019,951	$ 313.73	11,296,964	$ 223.82

As of December 31, 2025, we had $621.6 million available for repurchases pursuant to our share repurchase authorization.

In addition, during 2025, we repurchased 36,822 shares at an average price of $356.74 per share, for a total of $13.1 million, related to tax withholdings associated with the vesting of RSUs. The repurchase of shares related to tax withholdings associated with share-based awards does not reduce the number of shares available for repurchase as approved by our Board.

The following is a summary of our repurchases:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Shares repurchased pursuant to repurchase authorizations	3,019,951	1,229,503	142,729

NOTE 14. SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION PLANS

Employee Stock Purchase Plan

The 2009 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP) allows for the issuance of 3.0 million shares of our common stock. The ESPP is intended to qualify as an "Employee Stock Purchase Plan" under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board. As of December 31, 2025, 817,691 shares were available for purchase pursuant to the ESPP.

Eligible team members are entitled to allocate up to 10% of their base pay for the purchase of stock, up to $25,000 of fair market value of our common stock annually. The purchase price is equal to 85% of the fair market value at the end of the purchase period. Compensation expense related to our ESPP is calculated based on the 15% discount from the per share market price on the date of grant.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, 103,075 shares were purchased pursuant to the ESPP at a weighted average price per share of $270.18, with weighted average per share discount from market value of $47.69.

Following is information regarding our ESPP:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Cash received related to ESPP purchases ($ in millions)	$ 27.9	$ 27.1	$ 29.3
Tax deductions associated with ESPP disqualifying dispositions ($ in millions)	$ 2.9	$ 3.5	$ 3.9
Weighted average per share discount for compensation expense recognized	$ 47.69	$ 44.75	$ 41.58

Stock Incentive Plan

During 2025, we registered an additional 1.16 million shares to our 2013 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, (Stock Plan) now allowing for the grant of a total of 4.96 million shares in the form of stock appreciation rights, qualified stock options, non-qualified stock options, RSAs, and RSUs to our officers, key team members, directors, and consultants. The Stock Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board and permits accelerated vesting of outstanding awards upon the occurrence of certain changes in control. As of December 31, 2025, 1,530,834 shares of common stock were available for future grants. As of December 31, 2025, there were no stock appreciation rights, qualified stock options, non-qualified stock options or restricted share awards outstanding.

Restricted Stock Unit Awards

RSU grants vest over a period of time up to four years from the date of grant. RSU activity was as follows:

	RSUs	Weighted average per share grant date fair value
Balance, December 31, 2024	683,184	$ 317.66
Granted	237,514	356.91
Vested	(93,758)	289.47
Forfeited	(73,404)	325.47
Balance, December 31, 2025	753,536	335.04

We granted 30,355 time-vesting RSUs to members of our Board and team members in 2025. Each grant entitles the holder to receive shares of our common stock upon vesting. A portion of the RSUs vest over three years for team members and vest quarterly for our Board, over their service period.

We granted 207,159 performance and time-vesting RSUs to our team members in 2025. These shares will be earned either over one or three-year performance periods based on attaining various target levels of operational performance, as well as market-based returns. These RSUs will vest in three years or over four years from the grant date.

Time-vesting RSUs and performance and time-vesting RSUs that are based on our financial performance metrics or non-financial operating goals are valued using the market value of our common stock on the date of grant, discounted for the present value of expected dividends. On the date of grant, we estimated the fair value of the total shareholder return (TSR) component of the performance and time-vesting RSUs using a Monte Carlo simulation model. The performance and time-vesting RSUs granted during the years presented are contingent on the achievement of our financial performance metrics, our comparative market-based returns, or the achievement of financial and non-financial operating goals.

The assumptions for the valuation of time-vesting RSUs and performance and time-vesting RSUs granted are summarized as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Time-vesting RSUs
Number of shares granted	30,355	44,773	48,872
Grant date fair value per share	$ 340.35	$ 305.78	$ 268.60
Weighted-average assumptions/inputs:
Expected dividend yield	0.6 %	0.6 %	0.6 %
Range of risk-free interest rates	3.6% - 4.3%	3.8% - 4.8%	3.6% - 4.7%

Number of shares granted	207,159	268,764	279,083
Grant date fair value per share	$ 362.33	$ 350.38	$ 313.84
Weighted-average assumptions/inputs:
Expected dividend yield	0.6 %	0.6 %	0.6 %
Range of risk-free interest rates	3.8% - 4.3%	3.9% - 4.8%	3.6% -4.5%

Certain information regarding RSU grant vesting was as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions)	2025	2024	2023
Number of shares vested	93,758	113,077	182,056
Weighted average per share fair value of non-vested shares that vested during the period	$ 289.47	$ 234.48	$ 174.61
Tax deduction realized related to shares that vested during the period ($ in millions)	$ 21.3	$ 21.9	$ 25.8

Share-Based Compensation Expense

Share-based compensation is recognized as a component of SG&A in our Consolidated Statements of Operations. SG&A expense related to all share-based compensation is as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions)	2025	2024	2023
Restricted stock unit awards	$ 55.4	$ 53.6	$ 35.6
Employee stock purchase plan	4.9	4.8	5.2
Total share-based compensation	60.3	58.4	40.8
Tax benefit	(6.1)	(6.0)	(7.6)
Net expense recognized	$ 54.2	$ 52.4	$ 33.2

As of December 31, 2025, unrecognized share-based compensation related to outstanding, but unvested RSUs was $39.6 million , which will be recognized over the remaining weighted average vesting period of 2.1 years.

NOTE 15. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Factors used in determining the fair value of our financial assets and liabilities are summarized into three broad categories:

- Level 1 - quoted prices in active markets for identical securities;
- Level 2 - other significant observable inputs, including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment spreads, credit risk; and
- Level 3 - significant unobservable inputs, including our own assumptions in determining fair value.

We determined the carrying value of cash, restricted cash, cash equivalents, accounts receivable, trade payables, accrued liabilities, finance receivables, and short-term borrowings approximate their fair values because of the nature of their terms and current market rates of these instruments. We believe the carrying value of our variable rate debt approximates fair value.

We have money market securities, which include restricted cash from collections on finance receivables, recorded as a component of "Cash, restricted cash, and cash equivalents" in our Consolidated Balance Sheets, as well as restricted cash on deposit in reserve accounts, recorded as a component of "Other non-current assets" in our Consolidated Balance Sheets. These money market securities consist of highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less and are classified as Level 1.

We have investments consisting of equity securities, available for sale debt securities, and equity method investment with a fair value election. We calculated the estimated fair value of the equity securities, equity method investment with a fair value election, and U.S. Treasury debt securities using quoted market prices (Level 1). The fair value of corporate and municipal debt securities are measured using observable Level 2 market expectations at each measurement date. See Note 7 – Investments.

We have fixed rate debt primarily consisting of amounts outstanding under our senior notes, non-recourse notes payable, and real estate mortgages. We calculated the estimated fair value of the senior notes using quoted prices for the identical liability (Level 1). The fair value of non-recourse notes payable are measured using observable Level 2 market expectations at each measurement date. The calculated estimated fair values of the fixed rate real estate mortgages and finance lease liabilities use a discounted cash flow methodology with estimated current interest rates based on a similar risk profile and duration (Level 2). The fixed cash flows are discounted and summed to compute the fair value of the debt.

We have derivative instruments consisting of an offsetting set of interest rate caps. The fair value of derivative assets and liabilities are measured using observable Level 2 market expectations at each measurement date and is recorded as other current assets, current liabilities and other long-term liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. See Note 12 – Derivative Financial Instruments for more details regarding our derivative contracts.

Nonfinancial assets such as goodwill, franchise value, or other long-lived assets are measured and recorded at fair value during a business combination or when there is an indicator of impairment. We evaluate our goodwill and franchise value using a qualitative assessment process. If the qualitative factors determine that it is more likely than not that the carrying value exceeds the fair value, we would further evaluate for potential impairment using a quantitative assessment. The quantitative assessment estimates fair values using unobservable (Level 3) inputs by discounting expected future cash flows of the store. The forecasted cash flows contain inherent uncertainties, including significant estimates and assumptions related to growth rates, margins, working capital requirements, and cost of capital, for which we utilize certain market participant-based assumptions we believe to be reasonable. We estimate the value of other long-lived assets that are recorded at fair value on a non-recurring basis on a market valuation approach. We use prices and other relevant information generated primarily by recent market transactions involving similar or comparable assets, as well as our historical experience in divestitures, acquisitions, and real estate transactions. Additionally, we may use a cost valuation approach to value long-lived assets when a market valuation approach is unavailable. Under this approach, we determine the cost to replace the service capacity of an asset, adjusted for physical and economic obsolescence. When available, we use valuation inputs from independent valuation experts, such as real estate appraisers and brokers, to corroborate our estimates of fair value. Real estate appraisers' and brokers' valuations are typically developed using one or more valuation techniques including market, income and replacement cost approaches. Because these valuations contain unobservable inputs, we classified the measurement of fair value of long-lived assets as Level 3.

There were no changes to our valuation techniques during the year ended December 31, 2025.

Below are our assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Deferred Taxes

Individually significant components of the deferred tax assets and (liabilities) are presented below:

($ in millions)	December 31, 2025	2024
Deferred tax assets:
Deferred revenue and cancellation reserves	$ 152.4	$ 113.6
Allowances and accruals	91.4	81.8

Total deferred tax liabilities	(993.0)	(794.8)
Total	$ (516.3)	$ (397.1)

As of December 31, 2025, we had net operating loss (NOL) carryforwards and capital loss carryforwards totaling approximately $65.2 million. Of these carryforwards, approximately $43.3 million will expire, if not utilized, in various years through 2045. The remaining carryforwards have no expiration.

We consider whether our deferred tax assets are more likely than not to be realized. This evaluation considers all sources of future taxable income, including prior carryback capacity, the expected reversal of temporary differences, projected operating income, and available tax-planning strategies. If conditions change and recovery becomes more likely than not, we reverse the valuation allowance, with the impact recognized in the income statement.

As of December 31, 2025, we had a $59.2 million valuation allowance on deferred tax assets associated primarily with state net operating loss carryforwards and foreign capital loss carryforwards.

We have asserted that the earnings of our Canadian subsidiaries will be indefinitely reinvested to ensure there is sufficient working capital to expand our operations in Canada. The amount of unremitted earnings and the related deferred tax liability are not material. We do not intend to indefinitely reinvest the earnings of our U.K. subsidiaries, however, no deferred tax liability has been recorded for foreign withholding taxes due to a 0% treaty rate on dividends.

Other liabilities and deferred revenue	(18.2)	(314.2)
Total net assets acquired and liabilities assumed	$ 886.4	$ 1,248.5

The PPA for the 2025 acquisitions is preliminary as we have not obtained all of the detailed information to finalize the opening balance sheet related to real estate purchased, leases and contract liabilities assumed, deferred taxes, and the allocation of franchise value and goodwill to each reporting unit. Management has recorded the purchase price allocations based on the information that is currently available.

We expect all of the goodwill related to U.S. acquisitions completed in 2025 to be deductible for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Due to local country laws, we do not expect goodwill related to U.K. acquisitions completed in 2025 to be deductible for U.K. income tax purposes.

The PPA for the 2024 acquisitions was finalized in 2025, including amounts posted to real estate, franchise value, and goodwill, reducing the amounts posted to "Other assets" shown in the table above. We account for franchise value as an indefinite-lived intangible asset.

We recognized $17.0 million and $10.0 million, respectively, in acquisition related expenses as a component of SG&A in the Consolidated Statements of Operations in 2025 and 2024, respectively.

The following unaudited pro forma summary presents consolidated information as if the acquisitions had occurred on January 1 of the year:

($ in millions, except for per share amounts)	Year Ended December 31, 2025	2024
Revenue	$ 39,121.7	$ 38,240.8
Net income	840.3	839.7
Basic net income per share	33.20	31.10
Diluted net income per share	33.14	31.04

These amounts have been calculated by applying our accounting policies and estimates. The results of the acquired stores have been adjusted to reflect the following: depreciation on a straight-line basis over the expected lives for property, plant, and equipment; accounting for inventory on a specific identification method; and recognition of interest expense for real estate financing related to stores where we purchased the facility. No non-recurring pro forma adjustments directly attributable to the acquisitions are included in the reported pro forma revenues and earnings.

NOTE 18. EARNINGS PER SHARE

We calculate basic EPS by dividing net income attributable to Lithia Motors, Inc. by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period, including vested RSU awards. Diluted EPS is calculated by dividing net income attributable to Lithia Motors, Inc. by the weighted average number of shares outstanding, adjusted for the dilutive effect of unvested RSU awards and employee stock purchases.

The following is a reconciliation of net income attributable to Lithia Motors, Inc. and weighted average shares used for our basic EPS and diluted EPS:

	Year Ended December 31,
($ in millions, except for per share amounts)	2025	2024	2023
Net income attributable to Lithia Motors, Inc. and applicable to common stockholders	$ 819.6	$ 796.7	$ 1,000.8
Weighted average common shares outstanding – basic	25.3	27.0	27.5
Effect of employee stock purchases and restricted stock units on weighted average common shares	0.1	0.1	0.1
Weighted average common shares outstanding – diluted	25.4	27.1	27.6
Basic earnings per share attributable to Lithia Motors, Inc.	$ 32.38	$ 29.51	$ 36.36
Diluted earnings per share attributable to Lithia Motors, Inc.	$ 32.32	$ 29.45	$ 36.29

The effects of antidilutive securities on common stock was evaluated for the years ended 2025, 2024, and 2023 and determined to be immaterial.

NOTE 19. SEGMENTS

As of December 31, 2025, we had two reportable segments: Vehicle Operations and Financing Operations. Our Vehicle Operations consists of all aspects of our auto merchandising and service operations, including our retail automotive, recreational vehicles, and motorcycle franchises that sell new vehicles, used vehicles, parts, repair and maintenance services, and vehicle F&I products. Vehicle Operations excludes financing provided by our Financing Operations. Our Financing Operations segment provides financing to customers buying and leasing retail vehicles from our Vehicle Operations.

All other remaining activity is reported under "Corporate and Other," including corporate personnel costs, certain unallocated reserves, internal charges, and other unallocated corporate overhead expenses. Internal charges consist of corporate expense allocations which increase segment income for "Corporate and Other" while decreasing segment income for the other operating segments. These internal corporate expense allocations are used to increase comparability of our dealerships and reflect the capital burden a stand-alone dealership would experience. Examples of these internal allocations include internal rent expense, internal floor plan financing charges, and internal fees charged to offset team members within our corporate headquarters that perform certain dealership functions.

The reportable segments identified above represent our business activities for which discrete financial information is available and for which operating results are regularly provided and reviewed by our CODM to allocate resources and assess performance. Our CODM is our Chief Executive Officer. The CODM assesses segment performance using segment income, which is measured as net segment profit before taxes on a U.S. GAAP basis.

Total asset information by segment is not regularly provided to our CODM or utilized for purposes of assessing performance or allocating resources and, as a result, such information has not been presented below. Certain financing operations asset information including total managed receivables are used by the financing operations segment manager to manage operations and are included in various reports regularly provided to our CODM. See Note 5 – Finance Receivables.

Lithia Motors, Inc.

Corporate Policy Regarding Confidential Information and Insider Trading

Lithia Motors, Inc. and its directors and officers have a responsibility to protect nonpublic information relating to the Company and its subsidiaries, and to abide by federal and state securities laws governing the use of material non-public information as it relates to trading in the Company's securities. The Board of Directors has adopted this policy to address the use of material nonpublic information concerning the Company so that each director, officer, employee, consultant, contractor and certain family members of such persons are aware of his or her responsibilities.

Inside Information

It is not possible to define all categories of material non-public information. However, information should be regarded as material if there is a substantial likelihood that it would be considered important to a reasonable investor in making an investment decision regarding the purchase or sale of the Company's securities. It may be difficult under this standard to determine whether particular information is material, but there are categories of information that are particularly sensitive and, as a general rule, should always be considered material. Either positive or negative information may be material.

Examples of such information include:

- financial performance, including quarterly and year-end earnings and key financial metrics;
- projections of financial performance, including future earnings or losses or other earnings guidance;
- changes in sales levels;
- new significant contracts (such as with manufacturers and distributors), or the loss thereof;
- new material strategic relationships;
- pending or proposed changes in strategic plan;
- pending or proposed mergers, acquisitions or tender offers;
- new equity or debt offerings;
- pending or proposed disposition or acquisition of significant assets;
- changes in dividend policy;
- the declaration of a stock split or reverse stock split;
- establishment of a stock repurchase program;
- significant changes in senior management;
- significant litigation exposure due to actual or threatened litigation or the resolution of such litigation;
- a cybersecurity risk or incident involving the Company's business, including relating to customer, employee or Company data.

The fact that information has been disclosed to a few members of the public does not make it public for insider trading purposes. To be "public" the information must have been disseminated broadly to the marketplace in a manner designed to reach investors generally (such as by a press release or an SEC filing), and the investors must be given the opportunity to absorb the information. Even after public disclosure of information about the Company, you must wait until the close of business on the first trading day after the information was publicly disclosed before you can treat the information as public.

Any material non-public information that has not been formally released to the public through procedures set forth in the Company's Investor Disclosure Policy, or is not otherwise available to the general public, is referred to in this policy as "Inside Information."

Persons Covered By Policy

This policy applies to:

- all directors, officers and employees of the Company
- any person who enjoys a contractual relationship with the Company that may place that person in a position to gain knowledge of Inside Information
- any other person who is rendering services to the Company in any capacity pursuant to which such person has access to Inside Information
- any member of the immediate family or household of such persons
- any entity over which any of the above persons has influence or control

Confidentiality of Inside Information

Public dissemination of Inside Information shall be made only by authorized persons and in accordance with the Company's Investor Disclosure Policy. Except as specifically permitted under this policy, you have a duty to treat as confidential all Inside Information about the Company and confidential information regarding others with whom the Company does business. You may not discuss any Inside Information about the Company with anyone other than persons with whom you are expected to deal in the performance of your services for the Company, unless and until the Company has made a public announcement, issued a publication or filed a public document which includes the information or describes the development. Even then, the information may be proprietary, and discussion should be limited to the information which has been made public.

If any officer, director or employee of the Company receives any inquiry from outside the Company, such as a stock analyst, for information (particularly financial results and/or projections) that may be Inside Information, the inquiry should be referred to the Company's Chief Financial Officer or In-House Counsel (whom we refer to as Securities Compliance Officers) at the corporate offices at (541) 776-6401.

Restrictions on Trading on Inside Information

Federal and state securities laws prohibit the purchase or sale of a company's securities by persons who are aware of material information about that company that is not generally known or available to the public. These laws also prohibit persons who are aware of such material nonpublic information from disclosing this information to others who may trade. Companies and their controlling persons are also subject to liability if they fail to take reasonable steps to prevent insider trading by company personnel. The SEC and the New York Stock Exchange use sophisticated electronic surveillance techniques to uncover insider trading. Any person who, while aware of inside information, trades in the Company's securities or advises, encourages or recommends to others to trade, will be subject to significant civil or criminal liability including fines and penalties as well as imprisonment. Further, if you violate this policy, the Company may take disciplinary action, including dismissal for cause.

Statement of Policy

No Trading on Inside Information. You may not trade in the Company's securities, directly or through family members or other persons or entities, when you are aware of Inside Information, commencing with the date that you become aware of Inside Information and ending at the close of business on the first trading day after the information was publicly disclosed by authorized Company spokespersons. Similarly, you may not trade in the securities of any other company if you are aware of material nonpublic information about that company which you obtained in the course of your employment with the Company or provision of services to the Company. If you are unsure whether the information you possess is Inside Information, contact the Securities Compliance Officers.

No Tipping. You may not pass material nonpublic information on to others or recommend to anyone the purchase or sale of any securities when you are aware of Inside Information. This practice, known as "tipping," also violates the securities laws and can result in the same civil and criminal penalties that apply to insider trading, even though you did not trade and may not gain any benefit from another's trading.

Blackout and Pre-Clearance Procedures. No director, Vice President (or above) or other persons having access to consolidated financial data of the Company and designated by the CEO, CFO, CAO or COO (collectively, "Reporting Person and Insider"), may trade in the Company's securities or gift the Company's securities within the period beginning 15 days prior to the close of any fiscal quarter and ending at the close of business on the first business day after the earnings for such quarter have been announced to the public. This period is referred to as the quarterly "closed window" or "blackout" period. If you are unsure whether the Company is in a closed window period, contact the Securities Compliance Officers. The Company may impose additional event-specific blackouts that will be applicable only to designated persons who have knowledge of a specific material nonpublic event, and who may not communicate the event-specific blackout to other persons.

Trading in the Company's securities during an open window period should not be considered a "safe harbor." Any such trades are still subject to the restrictions set forth in the prior paragraphs.

In addition to this policy, the Company requires that all directors and executive officers subject to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 pre-clear all transactions in the Company's securities, including gifts, at least two business days in advance of the proposed transaction. The Company will notify you if you are subject to these preclearance procedures.

Transactions Covered

"Trading" includes purchases and sales of stock, derivative securities such as put and call options, warrants and convertible debentures or preferred stock, and debt securities (debentures, bonds and notes). "Trading" does not include bona fide gifts, unless the person making the gift has reason to believe that the recipient intends to sell the Company securities when the donor is aware of material non-public information, such as a donation of securities to a tax-exempt charitable organization. "Trading" also includes certain transactions under the Company's equity plans, as described below:

Company-Awarded Stock Option Exercises. This restriction on trading generally does not apply to the exercise and hold of a stock option or the Company's withholding of shares of stock to pay the exercise price or satisfy tax withholding obligations (assuming such withholding is permitted by the Company, in its discretion), though the exercise of a stock option by persons subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act is subject to pre-clearance.

The trading restrictions do apply, however, to any market sale of the underlying stock, including through a cashless exercise of the option through a broker, as this entails selling a portion of the underlying stock to cover the costs of exercise.

Restricted Stock Units, Restricted Units and Restricted Stock Awards. This restriction on trading does not apply to the vesting of restricted stock units, restricted units or restricted stock or the Company's withholding of shares of stock to satisfy tax withholding obligations upon the vesting of such equity awards (assuming such withholding is permitted by the Company, in its discretion). The trading restrictions do apply, however, to any market sale of the underlying stock following the vesting of such awards.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan. This restriction on trading does not apply to purchases of Company securities under such a plan resulting from your periodic payroll contributions to the plan pursuant to the election you made at the time of your enrollment in the plan. However, the trading restrictions do apply (a) to your election to participate in the plan and (b) to your sales of Company securities purchased under the plan.

401(k) Plan. This restriction on trading does not apply to purchases of Company securities under the 401(k) plan resulting from your periodic payroll contributions to the plan pursuant to your payroll deduction election. However, the trading restrictions do apply - 5 - to elections you may make under the 401(k) plan to (a) increase or decrease the percentage of your periodic contributions that will be allocated to the Company stock fund, (b) make an intra-plan transfer of an existing account balance into or out of the Company stock fund, (c) borrow money against your 401(k) plan account if the loan will result in a liquidation of some or all of your Company stock fund balance, and (d) pre-pay a plan loan if the pre-payment will result in allocation of loan proceeds to the Company stock fund.

This restriction on trading does not apply to transactions made under a trading plan adopted pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 10b5-1(c), which is in accordance with the Company's "Guidelines for Rule 10b5-1 Plans" and is pre-cleared in writing by the Company after consultation with legal counsel ("Pre-Cleared 10b5-1 Plan"). Rule 10b5-1 provides an affirmative defense from insider trading liability under the federal securities laws for trading plans that meet certain requirements. A 10b5-1 plan must be entered into during an open trading window and, even during an otherwise open trading window, when you are unaware of material non-public information. Transactions under a plan may not be made prior to the expiration of the applicable cooling-off period set forth in Rule 10b5-1.[1] Once the plan is adopted, you must not exercise any influence over the amount of securities to be traded, the prices at which they are to be traded or the dates of the trades. Subject to limited exceptions, an individual may only have one Rule 10b5-1 plan in place at a time and may enter into only one "single-trade" plan in any 12-month period. The Company requires that any proposed 10b5-1 plan be submitted to the Securities Compliance Officers for review and preclearance at least 10 business days before you intend to adopt the plan. The Company is required to report in each periodic repowrt it files with the Securities and Exchange Commission certain details regarding the adoption, termination or modification of plans by directors and executive officers during the last quarter.

Additional exceptions to these blanket may be granted in writing under appropriate circumstances by a Securities Compliance Officer after consultation with the Company's securities counsel.

[1]. Directors and executive officers are subject to a cooling off period of at least 90 days following entry into the 10b5-1 plan (or if later, until two business days after the Company files its Form 10-Q or Form 10-K for the quarter in which the 10b5-1 plan was adopted, not to exceed a 120 day cooling off period in this case). Other individuals are subject to a cooling off period of 30 days.

Additional Guidance

The Company considers it improper and inappropriate for those employed by or associated with the Company to engage in short-term or speculative transactions in the Company's securities or in other transactions in the Company's securities that may lead to inadvertent violations of the insider trading laws. Accordingly, your trading in Company securities is subject to the following additional restrictions.

- No person subject to this policy may engage in puts, calls, short sales (sales of securities that are not then owned), sales against the box (a sale with delayed delivery) or any other derivative transaction involving the Company securities.
- No transactions in Company securities, including derivative transactions, may be made in fully managed accounts (accounts over which the account holder has no trading discretion), except dispositions of shares permissibly transferred to the account. Any transfer of securities into a managed account is subject to any restrictions applicable to a sale of such securities.
- Standing orders and limit orders (excluding standing and limit orders under PreCleared Rule 10b5-1 trading plans) should be used only for a very brief period of time. A standing order placed with a broker to sell or purchase stock at a specified price leaves you with no control over the timing of the transaction. As a result, a standing order transaction executed by the broker when you are aware of material nonpublic information may result in unlawful insider trading. The Company discourages such standing order transactions on Company securities.
- The Company may halt trading by all employees or certain groups of employees at any time the Company finds it necessary or advisable to do so.
- Hedging or monetization transactions, which can be accomplished through a number of possible mechanisms, including through the use of financial instruments such as prepaid variable forwards, equity swaps, collars and exchange funds, are prohibited for directors and employees.
- Holding Company securities in a margin account or otherwise pledging Company securities as collateral for a loan is prohibited, except that the Board of Directors may grant exceptions to this prohibition when a person wishes to pledge company securities as collateral for a loan (not including margin debt) and demonstrates the financial capacity to repay the loan without resorting to the pledged securities, or in circumstances our Board of Directors determines to be in the best interest of, or not detrimental to, the Company.

Communication of this Policy

The Company will post this policy on the Company intranet accessible by Company employees and will summarize the policy in the acknowledgment made by all Company employees of their annual review of the employee handbook. Reference to the policy will also be included in the Company's training regarding Company confidential information. The Company will also send a timely email to each Reporting Person and Insider advising them of their status and the commencement date and expiration date of the "closed window" period.

Individual Responsibility and Disciplinary Actions

Every officer, director and other employee, consultant and contractor have the individual responsibility to comply with this policy against insider trading. You may, from time to time, have to forego a proposed transaction in the Company's securities even if you planned to make the transaction before learning of Inside Information and even though you believe you may suffer an economic loss or forego anticipated profit by waiting.

Directors and officers and other persons identified by the Company must also comply with the reporting obligations and limitations on short-swing transactions set forth in Section 16 of the Exchange Act. The Company has provided, or will provide, separate memoranda and other appropriate materials to its executive officers and directors and other employees regarding compliance with Section 16 and its related rules.

Directors and employees who violate this policy shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include ineligibility for future participation in the Company's equity incentive plans or immediate termination of employment for cause.

EXHIBIT 31.1

CERTIFICATION OF CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
PURSUANT TO RULE 13a-14(a) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

I, Bryan B. DeBoer, certify that:

1. I have reviewed this annual report on Form 10-K of Lithia Motors, Inc.;

2. Based on my knowledge, this report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading with respect to the period covered by this report;

3. Based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included in this report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the registrant as of, and for, the periods presented in this report;

4. The registrant's other certifying officer and I are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) and internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) for the registrant and have:

   (a) Designed such disclosure controls and procedures, or caused such disclosure controls and procedures to be designed under our supervision, to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this report is being prepared;

   (b) Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;

   (c) Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and

   (d) Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an annual report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and

5. The registrant's other certifying officer and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of the registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):

   (a) All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and

   (b) Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.
