

Hon. Cathy Bissoon

U.S. District Court, Western District of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, PA

Judge Bissoon was sworn in as a U.S. district court judge in October 2011, after having served as a U.S. magistrate judge in the Western District of Pennsylvania starting in August 2008. With her appointment, Judge Bissoon became the first Hispanic female Article III judge in Pennsylvania, the first Asian American Article III judge in Pennsylvania, and the first South Asian American female Article III judge in the United States. Prior to her appointment, Judge Bissoon clerked for the Honorable Gary L. Lancaster of the Western District of Pennsylvania. She was also a partner at Reed Smith and then a director at Cohen & Grigsby. Judge Bissoon is a founding member of the Q. Todd Dickinson Intellectual Property American Inn of Court, and was elected as its first president in 2012. Judge Bissoon graduated summa cum laude from Alfred University in 1990 and received her law degree from Harvard Law School in 1993. She is one of her Court's designated patent judges and chairs the Court's patent committee and Local Patent Rules Advisory Committee. Judge Bissoon serves as a Judicial Advisor for The Sedona Conference's Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) Steering Committee.

Ellen Blanchard

T-Mobile US, Mercer Island, WA

As Director of Discovery and Information Governance at T-Mobile, Ellen uses her knowledge of litigation, technology, discovery, and data to work with numerous business segments to develop information governance best practices and respond to government inquiries and complex litigations. She successfully managed the team responding to the regulatory requests stemming from the T-Mobile Sprint merger approval. Prior to T-Mobile, Ellen was a litigator at Boies, Schiller & Flexner, providing complex litigation advice to Fortune 50 companies on all aspects of the case lifecycle, including ECA, preservation, depositions, and trial preparation. She was also the Associate GC and Director, eDiscovery Consulting at Evolver Legal Services, counseling core clients in connection with ongoing litigation and cybersecurity protections that included negotiating the scope of discovery, conducting early case assessment, and technology-assisted review. As a frequent speaker at conferences and podcasts, she enjoys sharing war stories of life in the discovery trenches.

Kevin F. Brady

Volkswagen Group of America, Herndon, VA

Kevin has extensive experience providing advice and counsel on electronic discovery, electronic information management, data privacy, and data security issues. He also advised companies on records retention and information governance programs, compliance with eDiscovery demands, and the development and implementation of policies and procedures related to the deployment of technology solutions. In addition to having served as an expert witness and Special Discovery Master on issues related to electronic discovery, Kevin lectures and publishes extensively in the areas of eDiscovery, records management, data privacy, data security, attorney competence, and legal ethics. Kevin received a J.D. from Widener University School of Law (magna cum laude), an M.B.A. from Widener University, and a B.A. from the University of Delaware. He serves as the Chair of the Steering Committee of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1). Kevin is also Co-Chair Emeritus of the Georgetown University

DIALOGUE LEADERS

Law Center's Advisory Board for the Advanced E-Discovery Institute and former Co-Chair of the Delaware Supreme Court's Commission on Law and Technology. He is a founding member and Past President of the Richard K. Herrmann Technology Inn of Court in Wilmington, Delaware.

Travis Brown

Tennessee Attorney General's Office, Nashville, TN

Travis is an Assistant Attorney General in the Consumer Protection Division of the Tennessee Attorney General's Office, where he is involved with civil law enforcement investigations and enforcement actions involving consumer protection, antitrust, and unauthorized legal practice matters. He leads many consumer protection investigations and serves as lead counsel on several civil enforcement actions. He also leads multistate investigations on behalf of groups of states. Travis focuses his practice on financial services, deceptive advertising, and issues involving the unauthorized practice of law. He is also a member of the Sedona Conference Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production and is experienced in complex eDiscovery issues, especially those surrounding consumer protection investigations. He recently presented a 3-part series to staff at the Attorney General's Office on gathering electronic evidence in investigations. Travis graduated cum laude from Belmont University College of Law. While in law school, he served as the ABA's Janet Steiger Fellow for Consumer Protection in the Tennessee Attorney General's Office and as a research assistant to former U.S. Attorney General Alberto Gonzales. Travis lives with his family in Nashville.

Bethany Caracuzzo

Pritzker Levine LLP, Oakland, CA

Bethany is a partner of Pritzker Levine LLP, where she focuses on plaintiffs-side litigation involving antitrust violations, defective products and services, and personal injury law. She is currently active in the firm's leadership and prosecution of several antitrust class actions. Bethany has served as a member of several trial teams in litigating cases to verdict, including those involving breach of contract, wrongful death, traumatic birth injuries, and injuries from defective products.

Hon. J. Michelle Childs

U.S. District Court, District of South Carolina, Columbia, SC

Judge Childs is a U.S. District Judge for the District of South Carolina, sitting in Columbia, SC. Nominated by President Barack Obama, she was confirmed by the U.S. Senate on August 5, 2010 and received her commission on August 20, 2010. Prior to her elevation to the federal bench, Judge Childs served on the South Carolina Circuit Court as the Chief Administrative Judge for General Sessions (the state's Criminal Court) and a Chief Administrative Judge for the state's Business Court. Judge Childs has also served as an Acting Justice for the South Carolina Supreme Court. Prior to taking the bench in 2006, she was a Commissioner with the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission from 2002 to 2006, and was Deputy Director, Division of Labor of the South Carolina Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation from 2000 to 2002. Judge Childs is a member of the House of Delegates for the American Bar Association and served on the Standing Committee on Constitution and By-Laws.

DIALOGUE LEADERS

Brian D. Clark

Lockridge Grindal Nauren PLLP, Minneapolis, MN

Brian is a partner at Lockridge Grindal Nauren. His practice focuses on plaintiffs'-side antitrust class actions and e-discovery advice for businesses of all sizes. Brian frequently presents at CLEs regarding eDiscovery, served on the Minnesota State Bar Association E-Discovery Working Group, is a Member of the Sedona Conference WG1, and is a Board Member for the Twin Cities Chapter of the Association of Certified E-Discovery Specialists (ACEDS). Brian has also taught an eDiscovery seminar at the University of Minnesota Law School for five years.

Sean Cotulla

California Department of Justice, Sacramento, CA

Sean has 25 years of experience in the legal and technology industry. She began her career as a paralegal and systems administrator in the U.S. Trustee's Office in Sacramento. She then served in a variety of roles in state government, serving as a Senior Legal Analyst for the Office of the State Public Defender, the Correctional Law Section at the California Department of Justice, and the California Governor's Office restructuring the clemency and commutations section. Sean then returned to the California Department of Justice, Litigation Support Section as a Program Analyst, Regional Manager, and is currently the Program Manager of eDiscovery and Litigation Services Section. Sean is a graduate of UC Davis, receiving her degrees in Political Science and Sociology.

Andrea L. D'Ambra

Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP, New York, NY

Andrea is a partner in the New York office of Norton Rose Fulbright, where she heads the EDiscovery and Information Governance Group for the United States. Her practice focuses on eDiscovery, information management, data privacy, and cross-border discovery. Andrea counsels clients on preservation and data management issues, and has drafted information governance and records management policies for a number of multinational companies. In addition to counseling, she has assisted clients in navigating foreign data privacy laws while complying with U.S. discovery obligations. Andrea served for over seven years as an officer in the United States Navy. Her diverse Naval experience includes serving as an action officer for high-profile investigations within the Bureau of Naval Personnel and managing the administrative and legal issues of the Navy's computer network defense command. Andrea also is an adjunct professor of law at Temple Law School and William and Mary School of Law, where she teaches classes on Electronic Discovery. She received her B.S. in Political Science from the United States Naval Academy and her J.D. from William and Mary School of Law.

Justice Timothy S. Driscoll

Supreme Court of the State of New York, Nassau County Supreme Court, Mineola, NY

Timothy is a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York and serves in the Nassau County Commercial Division. He is the co-chairman of the Chief Administrative Judge's working group on electronic discovery, and is also a member of the Chief Judge's Advisory Council on Commercial Litigation in New York State where he serves as co-chair of the Subcommittee on Alternative Dispute Resolution. In addition to his judicial responsibilities, Judge Driscoll is an adjunct professor at Brooklyn Law School and Nassau Community College, and a teaching team member at the Harvard Law School's Trial Advocacy Workshop. Prior to beginning his term on January 1, 2008, Judge Driscoll served as Deputy Nassau County Executive for Law Enforcement and Public Safety (2004-2007), Assistant United States Attorney in the Eastern District of New York from (2000-2004), and Assistant District Attorney in Nassau County (1996-2000). Prior to entering public service, Judge Driscoll was associated with Williams & Connolly in Washington D.C. from 1992 through 1996. Before joining the law firm, Judge Driscoll served as a law clerk to the Honorable Joseph M. McLaughlin, United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. Judge Driscoll is a graduate of Harvard Law School (cum laude 1991) and Hofstra University (summa cum laude 1988).

DIALOGUE LEADERS

Hon. Anthony D. Edwards

Colorado State Court Judge, Sixth Judicial District, Silverton, CO

Judge Edwards has served as a Colorado State Court Judge in the Sixth Judicial District since 2014. He holds Master of Water Resources and Juris Doctorate from the University of New Mexico. Prior to taking the bench, he served as counsel in both criminal and civil cases in Colorado State Courts and in multi-jurisdictional litigation in federal court. He presents to rural bar associations on electronic discovery matters and is admitted to practice in the U.S. District Courts of Colorado and New Mexico and the U.S. Court of Appeals (Washington, D.C.).

Hon. Allison Goddard

U.S. District Court, Southern District of California, San Diego, CA

Judge Goddard was sworn in as a U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Southern District of California in August 2019. She graduated from Boston College in 1993 and received her J.D. from the University of San Diego School of Law in 2000. Judge Goddard spent the first half of her legal career representing corporate defendants in litigation at Cooley LLP and her own law firm, Jaczko Goddard LLP. In 2011, she shifted her practice to representing plaintiffs in complex and intellectual property litigation. She has tried several cases, including class actions and patent infringement disputes. Judge Goddard speaks regularly on eDiscovery and other litigation issues. She is a member of the Advisory Board of the San Diego Chapter of the Federal Bar Association and the Louis M. Welsh Inn of Court.

Andrew D. Goldsmith

U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC

Andrew was appointed in January 2010 as the Justice Department's first National Criminal Discovery Coordinator. In this role and as Associate Deputy Attorney General, his duties include providing federal prosecutors and other law enforcement officials with training, resources, and guidance relating to criminal discovery, including electronic discovery. Andrew successfully prosecuted the Atlantic States case in New Jersey during 2005-06, an eight-month trial that is the longest environmental-crimes-related prosecution in U.S. history. His articles on criminal eDiscovery have appeared in the United States Attorneys' Bulletin. In 2016, he earned his fourth Attorney General's Award in recognition of his efforts in the area of professional responsibility. He previously served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey. Andrew started out his legal career as an Assistant District Attorney in the Manhattan D.A.'s Office. He graduated cum laude in 1983 from Albany Law School and received his B.S. degree in 1979 from Cornell University, which selected him in 2014 for inclusion on its list of Distinguished Classmates.

DIALOGUE LEADERS

Jeannine Kenney

Hausfeld LLP, Philadelphia, PA

Jeannine is a partner in Hausfeld's Philadelphia office. Her practice focuses primarily on private enforcement of federal and state antitrust laws. Jeannine's practice also includes mass torts and other non-antitrust matters. Jeannine is adept and experienced in managing all aspects and phases of e-discovery, the complex process of discovering and producing electronically stored information (ESI). She routinely navigates detailed, complex and contentious ESI issues from dispute to resolution, including briefing and arguing e-discovery motions when necessary. A member of The Sedona Conference Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1), Jeannine counsels Hausfeld's litigation teams in negotiations relating to preservation, search, and production of ESI in cases often involving dozens of defendants, negotiates ESI search terms, technology assisted review (predictive coding) methodologies, and database disclosures and productions, and manages complex document reviews using advanced review analytics to speed discovery. Jeannine joined the firm in 2009. From 2010 to 2011, she clerked for the Honorable Cynthia M. Rufe, United States District Court Judge, Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Jeannine graduated magna cum laude from the Georgetown University Law Center.

Greg M. Kohn

Nagel Rice, LLP, Roseland, NJ

Greg is a partner at Nagel Rice, LLP. He specializes in commercial litigation, class actions, personal injury, and medical malpractice. He represents clients in both state and federal courts. Greg's clients range from individuals who were hurt in an accident, to small businesses, to large companies. Greg is also responsible for eDiscovery at his firm. Greg has litigated and successfully resolved all types of personal injury matters, including medical malpractice, product liability, wrongful death, and automobile accidents, obtaining over $53 million in verdicts and settlements. Greg has been recognized on the Super Lawyer's Rising Stars list each year since 2012.

Del Kolde

City of Federal Way Law Department, Federal Way, WA

Del has been an in-house government attorney in Washington State for over 20 years. Early in his career, he became a deputy prosecutor at the county level, handling state-law criminal cases. He has first-chaired over 60 jury trials, including serious violent felonies and domestic violence cases. For the past decade and a half, he has mostly handled civil cases for government clients, including employment defense, road design, First Amendment, jail conditions, and police misconduct cases. He has had interesting ESI issues come up both in discovery and the courtroom. He currently works for a large suburban city near Seattle, handling a mix of advising and litigation work. Del is a graduate of the University of Washington and the University of Chicago Law School.

DIALOGUE LEADERS

Warren G. Kruse II

Consilio, Delray Beach, FL

Warren is Vice President, cyber investigations at Consilio, a global leader in legal consulting and services. He has spent the last 25 years between law enforcement and as a consultant supporting various agencies with incident response, computer forensics and eDiscovery. Warren is the coauthor of "Computer Forensics: Incident Response Essentials" and is the past International President of the High Tech Crime Investigative Association and the Past President of the Digital Forensics Certification Board. He has supported projects across a wide range of major U.S. corporations and agencies. In addition, he led a team of computer forensic experts in a three-year engagement in support of a fraud investigation task force at the world's largest international cooperative organization. A recipient of the HTCIA "High Tech Case of the Year" award, Warren was recognized for his forensic analysis conducted on a case surrounding allegations of theft of intellectual property and trade secrets on the billion dollar "Comtraid" matter; was a court appointed expert; and testified as a computer forensic expert for the US Securities and Exchange Commission. He is certified CISSP, ENCE, DFCP, CASA, and is a former police officer in New Jersey.

Hon. Barbara M.G. Lynn

U.S. District Court, Northern District of Texas, Dallas, TX

Prior to assuming the federal bench in 2000, Judge Lynn was a partner with Carrington, Coleman in Dallas. She was designated by the National Law Journal in 1998 as one of the 50 most influential women attorneys in the country. She served as chair of the ABA's Section of Litigation and Judicial Division and received SMU's Distinguished Alumni Award for private practice in 1999. Judge Lynn was the first recipient of the Louise Raggio award, given by the Dallas Women Lawyers Association for her contributions to the profession. In 2010, she was recognized by the International Women's Forum with the Women Who Make A Difference Award. In 2011, an intellectual property American Inn of Court chapter was designated The Honorable Barbara M. G. Lynn American Inn of Court. Judge Lynn graduated first in her law school class at SMU. She is serving as a Judicial Advisor for The Sedona Conference's Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) Steering Committee. She received the State Bar's Samuel Pessarra Outstanding Jurist Award in 2019. Judge Lynn is vice president of the American Inns of Court.

Hon. William Matthewman

U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida, West Palm Beach, FL

U.S. Magistrate Judge Matthewman was appointed to the federal bench in 2012. He sits in the West Palm Beach division of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida. As a U.S. Magistrate Judge, he handles both civil and criminal cases, and has presided over numerous discovery disputes including ESI discovery disputes. He has spoken on discovery issues at the University of Florida e-discovery conference and before various bar associations and conferences. Prior to joining the bench, Judge Matthewman was a very active trial attorney who handled both criminal and civil cases. He is AV rated by Martindale Hubbell and has been a member of The Florida Bar and a trial lawyer since 1983. As a trial attorney, he handled numerous federal capital cases in various jurisdictions and tried many high profile, lengthy state and federal cases. Prior to being appointed to the bench, he was an associate and partner in litigation firms, and he was also a sole practitioner during his career. Before becoming an attorney, he was a police officer in Miami, Florida.

DIALOGUE LEADERS

Paul H. McVoy

Meta-e Discovery, Milford, CT

Paul is the co-founder and CEO of Meta-e Discovery LLC, a company that is driven to leverage technology on behalf of its clients. Paul has been at the forefront of discovery for 24 years, working on matters for both individuals in small cases as well as large, complex litigations. He was an early adopter of technology-assisted review and has been a vocal advocate in support of its use ever since. Paul is an active member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1) and the editor of The Sedona Conference Glossary, 5th edition. He has also been recognized by Chambers as a Trusted Advisor for Ediscovery in both 2018 and 2019.

Karen Mitchell

U.S. District Court, Northern District of Texas, Dallas, TX

Karen has served as U.S. District Clerk for the Northern District of Texas since June 2000. Prior to joining the federal judiciary, Karen managed insurance and risk management programs for the University of Texas System and the Texas A&M University System and was a hearing examiner for the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission. Karen is on the Executive Policy Committee of the DFW Federal Executive Board and is former Chair of the Board. She has served on several judiciary working groups, including the Electronic Public Access Working Group and the Work Measurement Subcommittee, and as faculty for Federal Judicial Center programs. She is currently a member of the federal judiciary's District Clerks Advisory Group, Financial Managers Working Group, and Judiciary Design Guide Working Group. She is also President of the national Federal Court Clerks Association. Ms. Mitchell received the ACU Young Alumnus of the Year award in 2003, the Federal Employee of the Year award from the DFW Federal Executive Board in 2011, and the Federal Court Clerks Association's Angie Award in 2015.

Hon. Kristen L. Mix.

U.S. District Court, District of Colorado, Denver, CO

Judge Mix was appointed to the federal bench in 2007. In addition to serving as a full-time Magistrate Judge on the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, she has served on the Judicial Conference of the United States' Committee on the Administration of the Magistrate Judge System, the Court's Local Rules Committee, as Chair of the Colorado Judicial Coordinating Council and on the Executive Committee of the Federal Magistrate Judges' Association. Judge Mix is the judicial co-founder of the Colorado Intellectual Property American Inn of Court and was the founder of the Federal Pro Se Clinic in the District of Colorado. She is an adjunct faculty member at the University of Colorado School of Law and the University of Denver Sturm

DIALOGUE LEADERS

College of Law, a frequent writer and speaker on the law, and a member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1).

Michael Oppenheimer

Defender Services Office—Training Division, Washington, DC

Mike is an Attorney Advisor in the Defender Services Office at the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts. He was the Training Director at the Federal Public Defender (FPD) for the District of Maryland from 2016-20. Prior to joining the FPD, Mike was a Team Leader and Supervising Attorney in the Criminal Defense Practice at The Bronx Defenders (Bronx, NY) where he practiced and supervised attorneys engaged in serious felony litigation. From 2006-08, Mike was an E. Barrett Prettyman Fellow in the Georgetown University Law Center (GULC) Criminal Justice Clinic. He holds an LL.M degree in Trial Advocacy from GULC. Mike has also taught Criminal Procedure as an adjunct law professor at the CUNY School of Law. He received his J.D. from the CUNY School of Law in 2006.

Timothy M. Opsitnick

Technology Concepts & Design—TCDI

Tim is Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Technology Concepts & Design, Inc. (TCDI). His consulting practice focuses on electronic discovery, cybersecurity, data privacy, and computer forensics. Tim has conducted numerous continuing legal education seminars, written articles, and contributed to publications regarding electronic discovery, cybersecurity, and other technology issues. In addition, he has served as a court-appointed Special Master and as an expert witness. Tim serves on the Steering Committee for The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production, and he is also a member of Sedona Working Groups 6 and 11. Tim was an editor of The Sedona Guidelines: Best Practice Guidelines & Commentary for Managing Information & Records in the Electronic Age (Second Edition 2007), a contributor to The Sedona Principles: Best Practice Recommendations and Principles Addressing Electronic Document Production (2004 and Second Edition 2007), a member of the drafting team for The Sedona Principles, Third Edition: Best Practices, Recommendations & Principles for Addressing Electronic Document Production (2017), and one of the WG1 Steering Committee Liaisons and Editors-in-Chief, The Sedona Conference Commentary on Legal Holds, Second Edition: The Trigger & The Process (2019). Tim is also a member and serves as the WG1 Steering Committee Liaison to The Sedona Conference Technology Resource Panel. Tim is a member of the Advisory Board for Georgetown University Law Center's Continuing Legal Education for the development of programs for its E-Discovery Institute, and a Member of the Advisory Council for EDRM, Duke Law Center, Bolch Judicial Institute.

Hon. Katharine H. Parker

U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York, New York, NY

Magistrate Judge Parker was sworn into office in November 2016. After graduating from Duke University and Fordham University School of Law, she served as law clerk to Judge Warren W. Eginton in the U.S. District Court for the District of Connecticut. From 1993 to 2016, Judge Parker was an associate and later an equity partner with Proskauer Rose LLP where she practiced labor and employment law and chaired several practice groups including Employment Law Counseling and Training, and Government Regulatory Relations and Affirmative Action. Judge Parker has been actively involved with the NYC Bar Association during her career and has chaired both the Disability Law and Employment Committees. Judge Parker is also involved in pro bono and charitable causes, including the Michael J. Fox Foundation and Girl Be Heard. She was a recipient of the Fairy Godmother Award from Girl Be Heard and the Jeremy Epstein Award for Pro Bono Service from the NYC Bar Association.

DIALOGUE LEADERS

Hon. Andrew J. Peck (ret.)

DLA Piper, New York, NY

Judge Peck served for 23 years as a U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Southern District of New York, including a term as Chief Magistrate Judge from 2004 to 2005. Before his appointment to the bench, he was in private practice for 17 years, focusing on commercial and entertainment litigation, including copyright and trademark matters, with extensive trial experience. As Senior Counsel at DLA Piper, Judge Peck advises on innovative and efficient solutions to the challenges of information management, both within and outside the litigation context. He frequently speaks at conferences concerning eDiscovery issues. Judge Peck is also available to serve as an arbitrator, mediator and Special Master. Judge Peck is recognized internationally for bringing electronic discovery competency to the attention of both the judiciary and bar. He is widely described as the first judge to tackle the subject of eDiscovery head on, most notably in the influential 1995 decision Anti-Monopoly v. Hasbro, in which Judge Peck found that “it is black letter law that computerized data is discoverable if relevant.” Also among his legacy rulings is the 2011 employment class action Monique Da Silva Moore, et. al. v. Publicis Groupe & MSL Group, the first judicial decision approving the use of technology-assisted review. In March 2018, the New York Law Journal called Judge Peck “one of e-discovery’s most influential figures.” Among the honors he has received, American Lawyer named him to its list of the Top 50 Innovators of the Last 50 Years as its Judicial E-Discovery Innovator. He is ranked in eDiscovery in both Chambers and Legal500.

Tony Petruzzi

Tucker Ellis, LLP, Cleveland, OH

Tony is the Chair of the E-Discovery Group at Tucker Ellis LLP. He is also a member of the Business Litigation Group focusing his practice in the areas of white collar criminal defense, corporate investigations, and business litigation. The nature of Tony’s practice requires extensive experience and knowledge related to eDiscovery. He frequently advises and works with clients on e-discovery issues when responding to subpoenas and discovery requests and in conducting internal investigations. Tony provides services and counsels clients in all areas of eDiscovery, including preservation of ESI, drafting ESI Protocols, and conducting custodial interviews. He also manages the collection, review, and production of ESI for small litigations, complex litigations, and white-collar cases.

Niloy Ray

Littler Mendelson P.C., Minneapolis, MN

Niloy litigates and counsels on a broad array of preservation, collection, review, production and admissibility issues. A member of Sedona Working Group 1 and EDRM, and faculty member/participant at such conferences as Arizona State University's eDiscovery and Digital Evidence Conference, Georgetown University Law Center's Advanced E-Discovery Institute, Today's General Counsel's "The Exchange" national seminar series and The Masters Conference circuit, Niloy speaks, writes and presents regularly on all topics ESI, from both litigation and information governance perspectives. He relies on his years as a database and software engineer when devising strategies for efficient and effective records management, defensible preservation, data harvesting, culling, and focused review. Niloy has litigated complex tort, antitrust, contract and employment class-action matters, represented energy utilities in regulatory proceedings and related litigation, and conducted internal investigations for Fortune 500 and academic clients. He is a native of India, a graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law, and a proud son of Macalester College, where he teaches trial advocacy and serves on the Alumni Board. When not staring at a screen and keyboard, Niloy enjoys spinning tales for his wife and children.

Jodi Munn Schebel

Bowman and Brooke, LLP, Bloomfield Hills, MI

Jodi, Co-Managing Partner, Bowman and Brooke, Detroit, MI, regularly manages large-scale discovery coordination and eDiscovery programs in product liability and other complex litigation, as well as class action matters. Jodi develops and implements protocols for handling all aspects of case discovery, including case strategy, case management conferences, clawback agreements, deposition protocols, ESI agreements, protective orders, privilege logs, and document collection and review. She is responsible for all areas of the discovery process, including drafting case management orders, initial disclosures, discovery requests and responses, and overseeing the entirety of the document collection and review process. In 2019, Jodi testified before the House Judiciary Sub-Committee on Courts, Intellectual Property and the Internet about sealing the record and preserving litigants' rights to protect their privacy interests. She currently serves as National Discovery Counsel for a major automotive manufacturer on class action and other product liability matters in both state and federal courts throughout the United States.

Lauren Schwartzreich

Littler Mendelson P.C., New York, NY

Lauren, Shareholder and eDiscovery Counsel at Littler Mendelson P.C., assists clients with all aspects of electronic discovery, including initial preservation obligations; developing strategies for efficient and effective data harvesting, review and production; implementing cost-shifting/cost-reduction strategies; leveraging structured data to resolve cases; and the admissibility of electronic evidence at trial. Lauren was also involved in the development of Littler CaseSmart® for class and collective actions. She regularly speaks and publishes on eDiscovery, social media, privacy, and litigation technology issues. Lauren serves as Chair of the ABA's Annual National Institute on E-Discovery, as a Member of the Steering Committee for The Sedona Conference Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG-1), and is recognized by Who's Who

DIALOGUE LEADERS

Legal for Litigation: eDiscovery. She also serves as Co-Chair for her firm's LGBT Pride affinity group and is recent Fellow for the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD).

Martin T. Tully

Actuate Law LLC, Chicago, IL

Before launching his innovation-forward boutique law firm, Actuate Law, LLC, Martin was a litigation partner with several AmLaw 100 firms, where he also chaired the eDiscovery and Data Law practices. He is a veteran trial lawyer with over 25 years of national experience representing companies and individuals in complex commercial litigation concerning a broad array of fields and industries. Empowered by his commercial litigation practice, Martin is nationally recognized for his knowledge and experience in the fields of electronic discovery, information governance, and data security/data privacy. Martin advances thought-leadership in data law as the Vice Chair of the Steering Committee of the Sedona Conference Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1), as an active member of the Sedona Conference Working Group on Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG11), the 7th Circuit Council on eDiscovery and Digital Information, the ABA Section of Litigation, Privacy and Data Security Committee, and the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP), as well as a director at-large of the Chicago Chapter of the Association of Certified E-Discovery Professionals (ACEDS). In addition, Martin has published and presented extensively on the topics of eDiscovery, information governance, cybersecurity, data privacy, and legal technology; is among a select group of lawyers in the world ranked for Litigation: E-Discovery & Information Governance by Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers and Chambers & Partners Global; and he has been acknowledged by Who's Who Legal as being "steps ahead of his competitors" and "widely regarded for his 'superior knowledge' of electronic discovery and information governance."

Craig W. Weinlein

The Sedona Conference, Phoenix, AZ

Craig is the Executive Director of The Sedona Conference. He has been a member of the Board of Directors of The Sedona Conference since 2009 and currently serves as the Chairman. Craig has worked with The Sedona Conference since 2000, when he served on the faculty of the first Conference on Patent Litigation. He was a member of The Sedona Conference Advisory Board from 2004 to 2013. Before joining The Sedona Conference full time in 2014, Craig was a partner with Carrington, Coleman, Sloman & Blumenthal, LLP in Dallas, Texas, for 25 years. He served as Chair of his firm's Intellectual Property Practice Group for his last ten years with the firm. His primary area of practice was complex litigation with a concentration in intellectual property cases. During the course of his career, Craig has tried dozens of cases and argued numerous appeals in federal and state courts. Craig was selected by American Lawyer Media and Martindale-Hubbell as a 2013 Top-Rated Lawyer in Intellectual Property. He is also listed as one of the best trademark practitioners in Texas in Who's Who Legal: Texas for 2007 and 2008 and in the 2012 through 2014 editions of World Trademark Review 1000—The World's Leading Trademark Professionals where he is described as "a remarkable litigator whose wide-ranging trial experience earns him a distinguished market standing." Craig's book, The Art of Witness Preparation, is a unique contribution to the literature on complex litigation because it focuses on the witness's testimony and presentation, instead of the lawyer's examination and performance. Craig's publication credits also include articles in The American Journalism Review, The Journal of Arts Management and Law, and The American Symphony Orchestra League's Principles of Orchestra Management.

DIALOGUE LEADERS

Kenneth J. Withers

The Sedona Conference, Phoenix, AZ

Ken is the Deputy Executive Director of The Sedona Conference. Since 1989, he has published several widely-distributed papers on electronic discovery, hosted a popular website on electronic discovery and electronic records management issues, and given presentations at more than 300 conferences and workshops for legal, records management, and industry audiences. His most recent publications are Ephemeral Data and the Duty to Preserve Discoverable Electronically Stored Information in the University of Baltimore Law Review (2008); Living Daily with Weekley Homes in the Texas State Bar Advocate (Summer 2010); and Risk Aversion, Risk Management, and the Overpreservation Problem in Electronic Discovery in the South Carolina Law Review (2013). From 1999 through 2005, he was a Senior Education Attorney at the Federal Judicial Center in Washington D.C., where he developed Internet-based distance learning programs for the federal judiciary concentrating on issues of technology and the administration of justice. Ken also contributed to several well-known FJC publications, including the Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth Edition (2004), Effective Use of Courtroom Technology (2001), and the Civil Litigation Management Manual (2001).