2019 LAKE ST LOUIS FARMERS AND ARTISTS MARKET RULES & REGULATIONS

SECTION 1 What Can Be Sold:

- A. Raw Agricultural Products. Include fruits, vegetables, grains, herbs, flowers, bedding plants and potted plants. Bedding plants and potted plants must be grown by the vendor from seeds, cuttings, bulbs or bare root and be well established in the container. No resale of any plants, fruits or vegetables not specifically grown by the vendor or the vendor's family is allowed.
- B. Non-Agricultural Products. Includes value-added products made with or without raw agricultural products grown by the vendor (i.e. baked goods, jams, soup & dip mixes, made in accordance with health department regulations), jewelry, art, pottery, soap, candles, clothing, wood crafts and other crafts. To qualify as a handcrafted product, the item must have acquired a substantial part of its value from the crafting of the vendor. All craft items will be juried by the Board of Directors and their decision will be final.
- C. Meat and Other Animal Products. Meats, poultry, cheese, eggs, farm raised fish, honey, leather and other products derived from animals. All slaughter animals shall have been in the vendor's immediate custody, care and control a minimum of 50% of the animal's life at the time of slaughter. Vendors must abide by all Federal and State and local regulations and inspection regimes. In addition, vendors must adhere to Federal and/or State guidelines on all labels. No resale of trader or sale barn livestock or any livestock condemned or sold for slaughter shall be sold in any form. No live animals shall be sold at the Market and no live animals may be displayed without prior permission of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2 Vendor Guidelines:

- A. Vendor Application. 2018 Full Season Vendors as defined on the application will have the right of first refusal of assigned booth areas. Legacy Full Season vendors have a consistent yearly booth location. All vendors must complete and sign a Lake St Louis Farmers and Artists Market Vendor Application Form and pay the appropriate fees prior to selling. The Lake St. Louis Farmers & Artists Market reserves the right to prohibit anyone from selling at the Market and/or cancel the privileges of any member who, at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, has violated any rule governing the Market or acted in any manner that is contrary to the best interests of the Market. Fees will not be refunded.
- B. Self-Produced Products. Vendors may only sell products grown or produced by the vendor or the vendor's family. All products must be grown/produced or crafted within 100 miles of the City of Lake St. Louis, Missouri. Exceptions may be made at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors in the case of specialty items and vendor staffing. The resale of any products not grown or produced by the vendor is strictly forbidden. Violators of this rule can be immediately expelled from the Market without any refund of fees. Vendors wishing to return to the Market following expulsion must apply to the Board of Directors for re-admittance.
- C. On-Site Visits. A member or members of the Lake St. Louis Farmers and Artists Market Board of Directors or their delegate may visit all of vendor's farm/production sites by appointment. Upon request for appointment, the vendor must make all production areas available within 3 days. Refusal to allow visit is grounds for indefinite suspension and vendor fees will not be refunded.
- D. Vendor Pricing/Sales Taxes. Each vendor shall set his/her own prices. All prices must be clearly posted. Vendors are responsible for paying all State and Local sales taxes.
- E. Scales. All scales must meet Missouri regulations and display the Missouri Seal of Weights and Measures.

2019 LAKE ST LOUIS FARMERS AND ARTISTS MARKET

- F. Product Safety/Liability. All vendors selling edible goods are responsible for obtaining the necessary certifications and licenses required by federal, state and/or local authorities and posting them if applicable. Vendors are responsible for the safety of the products being sold and shall hold the Lake St. Louis Farmers and Artists Market, The Meadows at Lake Saint Louis harmless from any and all liability whatsoever resulting from their activities at the Market.
- G. Grievances. The Market Manager will be the final authority on the day of the Market. All decisions may be appealed to the Board of Directors for later consideration. Any complaints by a vendor alleging reselling by another vendor shall be submitted to the Market manager in writing and signed by the complainant. The name of the complainant shall be kept confidential. The Market manager may, at their discretion, require a good-faith deposit with the complaint, which shall be refunded if the complaint proves to be valid.
- H. Booth Requirements. Tents and canopies must be no larger than 10' x 10'. All canopies must be safely secured by the vendor. 40lb weights for each leg of a Vendors canopy are required by the City of Lake St Louis. Vendors must maintain a clean and healthful condition within their assigned area, provide a covered trash receptacle, if needed, and leave the area free of any debris at the conclusion of the Market. All products should be displayed in an attractive manner, tables must be covered, and displays must be clean, freshly painted and/or stained. No table or display may be placed outside of the 10x10 area, unless approved by market manager. Use of electricity must be pre-approved by the Market manager.
- I. Setup and Tear Down. All vendors must arrive at the Market by 7:30 am and be ready to sell by 7:55 am. Daily Vendors with multiple "No Call No Shows" will forfeit ability to vend. Only vendor to vendor sales are allowed before 8:00 am. Vendors must remain set up until 12:00 noon closing time and vacate the Market area within 3 hours.
- J. Miscellaneous. Vendors must at all times conduct themselves in a pleasant and courteous manner. All children in care of the vendor must be supervised by an adult at the vendor's stall. No smoking is allowed in the Market area at any time. The Lake St. Louis Farmer's and Artist's Market will not discriminate against anyone because of race, color, creed, national origin, sex, age, disability or sexual orientation.
- K. All ACCEPTED Full Season Vendor payments will be deposited on March 1, 2019.
- L. Full Season Vendorships are limited. This has been done to preserve the parking spots currently available for customers in close proximity to the Market.
