

ROBERT (BOB) CONNORS (President)

Bob is a Massachusetts native who has lived in Baltimore since 1998 and Roland Park since 2002. He practiced internal medicine at Johns Hopkins for 17 years, including outpatient practice administration. Bob holds an MBA with concentration in health management. He is currently Medical Director of Pinnacle Care, a health advisory company headquartered in Baltimore. A Civic League Board member since 2015, Bob took on his first term as President in 2018. Bob has two children and is an avid skier.

ANNE STUZIN (1st VP)

A 20-year resident of Roland Park, Anne Stuzin is originally from Fairfield County, CT and Rumson, NJ. She moved to Baltimore in 1998 by way of New York City, LA and San Francisco during her career in the advertising business. Anne joined the Civic League Board since 2016, was a Roland Park Community Foundation Board member from 2002-2012 and a founder and co-Editor of Roland Park News. Anne is also Board President of Baltimore's Young Victorian Theatre Company. She has two daughters in college and a son who is a high school senior. Her hobbies include her two Airedale Terriers, running, skiing, photography and hiking in the Adirondacks.

ASHLEY HANDWERK (2nd VP)

Ashley Handwerk has lived in Roland Park since 2013 and is originally from Allentown, PA. She joined the Civic League Board in 2018. Ashley is a labor & employment lawyer by training, currently working in human resources at a local hospital system. Ashley and her husband Chris have two teenage children and a big cat. She enjoys running, baking and cheering on her family in all their sports endeavors. Ashley is also proud to live on a great street with lots of fabulous neighbors who stop by often to jump on her family's trampoline.

BLAIR STORZER (Secretary)

Blair Storzer moved to Roland Park in January 2015 from Washington, D.C. She works as an attorney, primarily focused on civil rights litigation. Blair is married to Roman, also an attorney, and together they share daughters Sophia, Christina, Simone and Maxine. The Storzers are members of Beth Am Synagogue in Baltimore and Blair is also active in the Women's Club of Roland Park. Blair's favorite thing about Baltimore is the vibrant arts scene and opportunities to engage with creative, exciting, theater. She has been Civic League Secretary since 2017.

JEN VIGLUCCI (Treasurer)

Raised in Oyster Bay, Long Island, Jen Viglucci has been a Baltimore City resident for 19 years, living first in Canton, and on Longwood Road in Roland Park since 2011. She and her husband Tony have a daughter who attends the Cathedral School. Jen is a Senior Business Manager at William Blair. She volunteers at various animal-related and children's advocacy non-profits, and was previously President of Recycled Love Rescue, a Baltimore City animal rescue. She joined the Civic League in 2018. In her free time Jen enjoys pilates, hiking and attending her daughter's sports and activities.

MARY KAY BATTAFARANO (At-Large A)

A Pennsylvania native, Mary Kay Battafarano moved to Roland Park in 2007. She previously spent time in NYC, Minneapolis and St. Louis. A former risk manager and paralegal, Mary Kay also holds an MBA. A member of The Woman's Club of Roland Park since 2009, she now serves as President (2018-20). She and her husband are recent empty nesters on Roland Avenue, as their three children are fully launched. Her hobbies include gardening, reading, skiing, tennis and traveling. Mary Kay joined the Civic League Board in 2016.

RICHARD BRUNO (At-Large D)

Dr. Richard Bruno is a primary care physician, board certified in family and preventive medicine. He works at an uninsured clinic in Baltimore. A Civic League Board Member since 2018, Richard has also served on the boards of the American Academy of Family Physicians, National Physicians Alliance, and Physicians for a National Health Program, American Association of Public Health Physicians, MedChi the Maryland state medical society, Sugar Free Kids Maryland, and Friends of Hampden School #55. He and his wife of thirteen years have two children and love hiking, biking, and cooking together.

TOM CARLSON, (President, Roads & Maintenance)

Tom Carlson is originally from Greenwich, CT, moved to Baltimore in 1975 then to Roland Park in 1983. A licensed architect since 1977, and retired since 2015, Tom worked at Ayers/Saint, Meyers & D'Aleo and D'Aleo & Associates. He was a Roads & Maintenance Director from 2016-2017 and is R&M President and RPCL member since 2017. Tom is on the Board of Directors of the National Regiment, an umbrella organization of Civil War reenactment units. He's been a Civil War re-enactor since 1989 and is Captain of the 1st Maryland US. His hobbies include squash, golf, softball, cycling and photography.

ANN-BARON CARNEAL (Plat 1)

Having called the DC area home for many years, Ann-Barron Carneal and her family moved to Roland Park in 2014 and live on Keswick Road. She became a Civic League Board member in 2018.

TRISH CARROLL BIO (Plat 6)

Trish Carroll has lived in Roland Park since 1999, and has been a Civic League Board member since 2014, serving both as a plat rep and Treasurer. She works in finance at Brown Advisory, and is involved in volunteer roles at Cross Roads School and Junior Achievement. Trish was also a trustee at St. Paul's School for Girls from 2009-2018. She enjoys cooking, gardening, playing golf and spending time in Rehoboth Beach.

CHRISTOPHER CORTRIGHT (Plat 4)

Originally from the Washington DC area, Chris Cortright has been a Baltimore resident since 1998 and a Civic League Board member since 2014. He works as systems engineer with Booz Allen Hamilton. Chris and his wife Andrea De Leon have two teenage sons who attend Baltimore City College and Friends School. He is trustee and Potomac Chapter President of the Holland Society of New York and has strong interests in Early American History and foreign language.

ED GOODLANDER (Plat 2)

A Civic League Board member since 2018, Ed Goodlander has lived in Roland Park on Oakdale Road for 38 years, where he and his wife raised 3 children. He is also a grandfather of four. Ed is a retired attorney whose community involvement includes several years on the boards of Roads & Maintenance, and the Roland Park

Civic League (including President), and manager of a Roland Park Baseball League team. His community projects included negotiations for the design of the Falls Road/Northern Parkway Exxon Station, design of the nursing home on Falls Road, the Cold Spring business area and the transfer of the control of Roland Park's storm water drainage system to the City.

STEVE GRANTZ (Plat 5 City)

Steve Grantz has lived in Roland Park since arriving to the city in 2001. Prior to that Steve and his wife Nina lived in Boston, Delft, and Minneapolis. His two children have attended Roland Park Elementary and Middle School. Steve has served on the Civic League board since 2014 and he will happily talk Baltimore bars and restaurants to the point of needing to visit one.

VACANCY as of August, 2019 (Plat 1)*MARTHA HOLLEMAN (At Large C)

New to the Civic League Board in 2019, Martha Holleman is a social policy analyst and consultant who holds a Masters of Arts in Policy Studies from Johns Hopkins. She was a Distinguished Fellow of the WT Grant Foundation at NYU's Wagner School of Public Service, and served as the Senior Policy Advisor for Baltimore's Safe and Sound Campaign. She and her husband Jim French and their two sons have lived in Roland Park since 2003. Both boys attended Roland Park Elementary Middle School (K - 8) and were proud players in the Roland Park Baseball League. Martha is a former commissioner of the Charles Village Recreation League and active in preservation and restoration efforts along the Stony Run.

DAN MCINTYRE (Plat 3)

Dan McIntyre has lived in Baltimore and Roland Park since 1989, minus a 5-year stint in London. He moved to his current home on St. John's Road in 1991. Dan has been a Civic League Board member since 2018, was previously a Board member from 1997-2000, and has been on the Board of the Roland Park Community Foundation since 2010. He is still a practicing lawyer, and also serves on the Board of Directors of the St. Frances Academy and is Chair of the Maryland Commission on Disabilities.

DAN MOTZ (Plat 5 County)

A Baltimore native, Dan Motz has lived in Roland Park for almost ten years with his wife and two sons. He is a local real estate agent and has a real love for the city. While much of his time is spent working and spending time with family, Dan is also involved with the Roland Park Baseball League. He has been a Civic League Board member since 2015.

ANDY NIAZY (At Large B)

New to the Civic League Board in 2019, Andy Niazy and his wife moved to Baltimore in 2009 and instantly fell in love with the city. They moved to Beech Ave in Roland Park in 2013. He started his own firm, Andy Niazy Architecture, in 2018. Prior to that, he worked at Melville Thomas Architects in Roland Park for 9 years. Andy was the Plat 5 City representative on the Roads and Maintenance review committee for five years. He has two sons who are 2 and 4. Outside of work and family, he squeezes in Crossfit and live music when he can.