

To All Sharewell Customers:

As we have continued to grow and introduce new products like the Gemini line of premium hole openers and our new pipe lifting system - PipeVac, it has become apparent that we need more customer coverage. Therefore, I am pleased to announce that Sharewell HDD has partnered with Right Turn Supply to be our exclusive authorized sales agent. Right Turn Supply is comprised of industry veterans:

Jon Heinen	(641) 230-0787	jheinen@rightturnsupply.com
Tim Hutton	(832) 798-5497	thutton@rightturnsupply.com
Patrick Robinson	(641) 629-1528	probinson@rightturnsupply.com

Their extensive experience and contacts in the HDD Industry will provide us with more customer contact. They will be reaching out to you soon to discuss your future projects and answer any questions you might have about Sharewell and Right Turn Supply.

If you have been working with a Sharewell representative in the past you may continue to do so, or if you prefer you may contact a Right Turn Supply representative. We are all on the same team and here to serve our customers. This is just one way of improving our coverage and services to insure your success.

Should you have any questions or concerns please contact your Sharewell representative or the Right Turn Supply guys.

Best Regards,

Mark West
