FULL Bio (278 words)

As an author coach, business strategist, and Christian entrepreneur; Shelley Hitz is on a mission to help you reach more people with your message. She believes every person has God-given gifts and abilities to impact the world. Therefore, she encourages you to let your light SHINE!

Shelley was first paid for her writing in fifth grade after winning a nonfiction writing contest. Little did she know she would resign from her 12-year career as a Physical Therapist over 20 years later to write and coach authors full time. She is the owner of Author Audience Academy and TrainingAuthors.com with a passion to help authors succeed in writing, publishing, and marketing their books.

Thousands of authors have been coached through her books, training programs, online events, seminars, and more. She has over a decade of experience speaking to groups of all sizes; from small workshops to keynote presentations in front of thousands. And she teaches from personal experience, not theory. She has been writing and publishing books since 2008 and has personally authored over 35 books including print, eBook and audio book formats.
