

So We Would Know

John 13:34—35

The New Commandment

John 13:34 So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. ³⁵ Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are My disciples." NLT

1. It is amazing that we can look back at all the obvious signs around the disciples, depicting the love and sacrifice of God for them and us. It should have been obvious but they were looking at the actual events rather than the _____ behind the events.
2. This visual we call "the Lord's Supper" is one of the most illuminating yet difficult of all our _____ experiences.
3. You have to fight to take this from a religious exercise to a personal relationship experience. You have to battle to do this in remembrance of what Christ has done for you _____.
4. The fact that we celebrate this very personal worship experience in a public setting makes it more difficult to _____.
5. I'm beginning to understand what _____ from Jesus.

Lesson #51

6. The very fact that you are so unworthy is why He had to do what He did for you. You don't deserve to receive the benefit of His innocent death. But He loves you without taking your _____ into account.

Romans 5:8 But God showed His great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners. NLT

7. We cannot, in good conscience, insult our Lord, by taking part in the Lord's Supper in a way that is not done "in _____ of" Him.

8. Out of that New Covenant with God we now have a new _____ concerning the people around us.

John 13:35 Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are My disciples."

9. The world is _____ us. Does our love for the people God permits to be around us show them that we are His disciples?
