

So We Would Know

John 16:5-7

"Trust Me!"

John 16:5 "But now I am going away to the One who sent Me, and none of you has asked Me where I am going. ⁶ Instead, you are very sad. ⁷ But it is actually best for you that I go away, because if I don't, the Counselor won't come. If I do go away, He will come because I will send Him to you. NLT

1. The act of trusting is based on:
 - a. _____ we are being asked to trust
 - b. Our _____ with what we are being asked to trust
 - c. Our history with _____
2. Trust is a choice ... and we each _____ what it is we trust.
3. Life presents two basic kinds of trust crossroads.
 - a. Choosing to trust in your daily life decisions when you don't think _____ to.
 - b. When desperation or circumstances _____ you into a situation where you have to trust something or someone.
4. We tend to trust in our own _____ answers, the way we think things should go, rather than trust in God and get our puny plans and desires out of the way.
5. Trusting God means I get out of the way and trust God with His plans for me...
 - a. Even when my life doesn't _____ at the moment
 - b. Even when I don't _____ what's going on at the moment
 - c. Even when it's been a long time since life has been _____.
6. Trusting God is like getting on a ship and setting sail. You can't have a foot on shore and a foot on the ship. Trust means you are _____ on _____ or you're not.
7. What you really choose to trust (not what you say you trust) _____ everything you do and feel today.

MARCH 15th - Register today

sheridanhouse.org

So We Would Know

John 16:5-7

“Trust Me!”

John 16:5 "But now I am going away to the One who sent Me, and none of you has asked Me where I am going. ⁶ Instead, you are very sad. ⁷ But it is actually best for you that I go away, because if I don't, the Counselor won't come. If I do go away, He will come because I will send Him to you. NLT

1. The act of trusting is based on:
 - a. _____ we are being asked to trust
 - b. Our _____ with what we are being asked to trust
 - c. Our history with _____
2. Trust is a choice ... and we each _____ what it is we trust.
3. Life presents two basic kinds of trust crossroads.
 - a. Choosing to trust in your daily life decisions when you don't think _____ to.
 - b. When desperation or circumstances _____ you into a situation where you have to trust something or someone.
4. We tend to trust in our own _____ answers, the way we think things should go, rather than trust in God and get our puny plans and desires out of the way.
5. Trusting God means I get out of the way and trust God with His plans for me...
 - a. Even when my life doesn't _____ at the moment
 - b. Even when I don't _____ what's going on at the moment
 - c. Even when it's been a long time since life has been _____.
6. Trusting God is like getting on a ship and setting sail. You can't have a foot on shore and a foot on the ship. Trust means you are _____ on _____ or you're not.
7. What you really choose to trust (not what you say you trust) _____ everything you do and feel today.

MARCH 15th - Register today

sheridanhouse.org