Florida State Captures 2013 National Championship, downs Auburn 34-31 in Final BCS Title Game
Clemson captures Discover Orange Bowl with 40-35 Triumph over No. 7 Ohio State
No. 1 Florida State, No. 8 Clemson and No. 23 Duke in Final AP Poll

Florida State captured its third National Football Championship with the win over No. 2 Auburn in BCS title game and the sixth national title for the ACC. Current ACC schools have captured 14 BCS, AP or Coaches poll National Championships.

ACC became the second conference to win the National Championship and win a second BCS game (Clemson over #7 Ohio State) in the same year (fifth time overall).

ACC became the first conference to have 11 teams with winning records since 1932, when the old Southern Conference was a 24-team league.

The ACC sent an NCAA-record 11 teams to bowl games this year, breaking a record of 10 it had previously set in 2008 and had been matched by both the SEC and Big Ten.

This marks the third time the ACC has set an NCAA bowl participation mark, sending seven of its nine teams to bowl games in 2002 (.778). At the time, that was an NCAA standard for percentage bowl participation.

The ACC became the first conference in history to have a player win the Heisman Trophy (Jameis Winston, FSU), the Doak Walker Award (Andre Williams, BC), and the Outland Trophy (Aaron Donald, Pitt), the Nagurski Trophy (Donald), the Lombardi Award (Donald) and the Bednarik Award (Donald) in the same year.

ACC tied its record with three unanimous--Andre Williams of BC, Aaron Donald of Pitt, Lamarcus Joyner of FSU--and six consensus first-team All-Americas--Jameis Winston of FSU, Bryan Stork of FSU and Vic Beasley of Clemson.

A total of 32 ACC players earned All-America recognition, including 16 who earned first-team honors.

In No. 1 Florida State and No. 8 Clemson, the ACC had two teams in the top eight of the final Associated Press poll for the first time since 1997 (FSU #3, UNC #6).

Three ACC teams were ranked in the final BCS Standings, led by No. 1 Florida State, and including 12th-ranked Clemson and No. 24 Duke.

Noting The ACC

Three ACC teams were ranked in both the final polls for AP (#1 FSU, #8 Clemson, #23 Duke) and the USA Today Coaches poll (#1 FSU, #7 Clemson and #22 Duke).

Four ACC teams were ranked in the final Harris Poll. They were listed in the same order as the Coaches poll with Florida State (1), Clemson (11), Duke (24) and Miami (25).

This marks the first time in the league's 61-year history that three ACC teams have ended the regular season with at least 10 wins (Florida State, Duke and Clemson).

ACC teams played in the most-watched game of the season and the most-watched non-BCS bowl game in ESPN history.

Four of ABC's nine highest-rated and most-viewed national telecasts this season featured ACC teams, including three conference matchups.

Florida State QB Jameis Winston became the youngest player in history to win the Heisman Trophy. He was also the first freshman to win the award and lead his team to the national championship in the same year. Winston is the second freshman to win the award, the third ACC player and the eighth player from a current ACC school.

For the first time, the ACC boasted two of the top five vote recipients for the Heisman Trophy in Florida State QB Jameis Winston and Boston College RB Andre Williams.

Pitt senior DT Aaron Donald became only the second player in history to win the Outlland Trophy, the Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the Bednarik Award.

Pitt's Aaron Donald is the third ACC player in the last four years to win the Nagurski Trophy, given annually by the Football Writers Association of America to the nation's top defensive player. Donald follows in the footsteps of former ACC standouts Luke Kuechly of Boston College, the 2011 Nagurski winner, and Clemson's Da'Quan Bowers, who captured the 2010 Trophy.

Duke head coach David Cutcliffe, named the ACC Coach of the Year by both the media (ACSMA) and ACC Coaches, has since been named the National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Bobby Dodd Award, the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and was named co-National Coach of the Year by the Sporting News.

Miami head coach Al Golden was also presented with the Lombardi Award for coaching excellence after leading the Hurricanes to a 9-4 overall record

ACC players also captured the Rimington Award (Bryan Stork, FSU), given annually to the nation's best center, and the Lou Groza Award (Roberto Aguayo, FSU), presented to the nation's top placekicker.

Florida State set an ACC and NCAA single-season scoring record with 723 points in 14 games, breaking the old mark of 550 points set by the Seminoles last year in 14 games.

Florida State participated in its 32nd consecutive bowl game, the longest such streak in the NCAA's FBS. Virginia Tech now has the 2nd-longest streak (21), with Georgia Tech (17) tied for third.

Seven ACC players led the NCAA's FBS in nine final statistical rankings: Boston College RB Andre Williams in rushing yards (2,177) and yards per game (167.5); Pitt DT Aaron Donald in tackles for loss per game (2.19); Florida State QB Jameis Winston in pass efficiency (184.8); Florida State RB Kermit Whitfield in kickoff return average (36.4); North Carolina WR Ryan Switzer in punt returns (20.9) and punt return TDs (5); Boston College PK Nate Freese in field goal percentage (20 of 20, 1.000) and Virginia S Anthony Harris in interceptions (0.7).

Duke has won 10 games for the first time in school history. The Blue Devils previous high for victories was nine originally set in 1933 and matched in 1936, 1938 and 1941.

Florida State finished 14-0 for the first time in school history, bettering the previous mark of 12-0 set by the 1999 National Champions.

Florida State enters the 2014 season with the nation's longest current winning streak. The Seminoles have won 16 straight games dating back to the 2012 Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship.

With Florida State (14-0), Clemson (11-2) and Duke (10-4), the ACC has three schools with 10 or more wins in a season for only the 2nd time in league history (2006).

With FSU's win over #2 Auburn and Clemson's win over #7 Ohio State, the ACC led all conferences with three wins over Top 10 teams in 2013. The ACC was the only conference with multiple wins over Top 10 non-conference foes.The ACC also had five victories of five non-conference opponents which were ranked in the nation's top 25, tied for most of any league.

Duke senior T Perry Simmons, the ACC's Jim Tatum Aard winner as the league's top Scholar-Athlete, started 50 games. He was one of the 16 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame 2013 Scholar-Athletes. Simmons is majoring in Civil Engineering and has a 3.8 GPA as the lynchpin of Duke's offensive line which has allowed only 14 QB sacks this year.

Florida State outscored its opponents 362 to 83 in the first half of its games this year. A total of 58 teams in the NCAA's FBS did not score 362 points this season.

Florida State set an NCAA record by scoring 723 points in 2013, the most in NCAA FBS history (Okalhoma, 716, 2008).

The ACC had 21 players selected for this year's NFL Pro Bowl and 13 players in the Super Bowl, including nine starters for the Seattle Seahawks (5) and Denver Broncos (4), led by Seattle QB Russell Wilson (NC State).

Winston threw two touchdown passes to 6-foot-5, 234-pound receiver Kelvin Benjamin and ran for a 17-yard score to overcome two interceptions.

Florida State's first scoring opportunity ended when Devonta Freeman coughed up the ball at the Duke 3 following a 22-yard run.

But it wouldn't matter.

Florida State slowly took charge in the second quarter and built a 17-0 halftime lead behind a stifling defense.

Winston got the Seminoles on the board early in the second quarter when he found Benjamin for a 14-yard touchdown pass in the left corner of the end zone. Karlos Williams bowled over two defenders on a 12-yard touchdown inside run to make it 14-0 after Lamarcus Joyner intercepted Duke quarterback Anthony Boone's pass.

The Blue Devils simply couldn't move the ball in the first half and were held to 94 total yards.

The onslaught continued in the second half with Winston hooking up on a 54-yard touchdown reception with Benjamin, who showed he's not only big but can move too after blowing by defenders. He finished with 119 yards receiving.

Freeman ran for 91 yards and a touchdown and Williams had 59 yards on the ground.

Winston, a redshirt freshman was the game's MVP.

Duke Experiencing Success Under National and ACC Coach of the Year David Cutcliffe

With a 10-4 record this year, David Cutcliffe, the ACC's 2012 and 2013 Coach of the Year, has led the Blue Devils to 31 victories since coming to Durham in 2008. That may not sound like a great record, except when you consider that it is more wins than the Blue Devils totalled in the 14 seasons before Cutcliffe came to Durham. Cutcliffe led the Blue Devils to a 6-7 mark in 2012, their first appearance in a bowl game since 1994 and came within a few yards of claiming the Blue Devils' first winning season in 18 years and their first bowl triumph since 1961.

- The 10 wins are the most in school history. Duke will play in Chick-fil-A Bowl and are Coastal Division champions for the first time since the ACC went to Divisional play in 2005.
- Duke made its first appearance in the BCS Standings on Nov. 25, getting ranked 24th.
- Duke's appearance in the Chick-fil-A Bowl will be its second straight bowl trip. The Blue Devils have never been to back-to-back bowl games.
- In the five-plus years that Cutcliffe has been in Durham, he has already mentored a pair of quarterbacks who finished their careers ranked in the ACC's top seven of career passing yardage. Thaddeus Lewis (2006-09) threw for 10,065 yards, the second-highest total in league history and Sean Renfree (2009-12), threw for 9,465 career yards, the 7th-best total by an ACC player.
- Also, under his guidance, Duke WR Conner Vernon became the all-time leading pass receiver in ACC history setting conference career marks for pass receptions (283) and pass reception yardage (3,749).

Boston College's Addazio Has The Eagles Headed in the Right Direction

First-year head coach Steve Addazio has made quite an impression in a short period of time in Chestnut Hill. Inheriting a program which had posted a 6-18 record over the past two seasons, Addazio has the Eagles 7-6 and in a bowl game in his first season. His physical style of football and a veteran offensive line has allowed TB Andre Williams, who has set ACC single-game, multi game and single-season rushing records, to blossom. Williams smashed ACC individual rushing records for a game and season this year, becoming the first player in league history to run for 2,000 or more yards in a season.

Wake Forest's Jim Grobe Completes 13-Year Run at Wake Forest

Wake Forest head coach Jim Grobe who just completed his13th season as head coach of the Demon Deacons, the most of any current coach in Atlantic Coast Conference play, resigned on Dec. 2. This year Grobe tied D.C. "Peahead" Walker as the school's all-time winningest football coach with 77 victories. Grobe was the 7th-longest tenured head coach in the NCAA's FBS. Grobe, in 19 seasons as a head coach, has posted 110 career victories and was one of four ACC current coaches--joined by Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer, Clemson's Dabo Swinney and Florida State's Jimbo Fisher--to have won an ACC Football Championship. Grobe led his 2006 Wake Forest squad to the ACC Championship.

Wake Hires Clawson; ACC Has 21 in Pro Bowl

Wake Forest Hires Bowling Green's Dave Clawson To Lead Deacons

Dave Clawson was named as the 32nd head football coach in Wake Forest University history on Dec. 10, 2013. Known as a program builder, Clawson has delivered a league championship and at least one 10-win season at each of his three previous head coaching stops.

Clawson joined the Demon Deacons after five seasons as the head coach at Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio. He built the Falcons to be explosive both offensively and defensively. The 2013 Bowling Green team ranked 29th in the nation in total offense and tenth in total defense. In 2012, BGSU was ranked sixth in the nation in total defense in and 10th nationally in scoring defense, yielding just 16.8 points per game.

Bowling Green's 2013 team went 10-3 overall and won the Mid-American Conference East title with a 7-1 record. The Falcons then defeated No. 14 Northern Illinois 47-27 in the MAC to earn an invitation to the Little Caesar's Bowl. It marked the third bowl appearance in Clawson's five seasons with the Falcons.

In his 14 years as a head coach, Clawson has delivered a conference championship at every stop. Prior to the 2013 Mid-American Conference title at Bowling Green, Clawson helped Richmond to a pair of Colonial Athletic Association titles in 2005 and 2007. His first championship as a head coach came in 2002 when he led Fordham to the Patriot League title.

He has also earned numerous Coach of the Year Awards. He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2002 and was awarded the 2005 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year award in just his second year in the league. It marked his third conference Coach of the Year honor in his first seven years as a head coach.

In 2002, Clawson was the Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award. In 2005, Clawson earned National Coach of the Year from I-AA.org and was again a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award.

A 1989 graduate of Williams College in Massachusetts, Clawson earned a degree in political economy. The Youngstown, NY, native was a defensive back at Williams. Clawson has compiled a 90-80 record in 14 career seasons including a 58-47 mark in conference games. He was 29-29 in five seasons at Fordham, 29-20 in four seasons at Richmond and 32-31 in five seasons with Bowling Green. Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

ACC Schools Send 21 Former Players to NFL Pro Bowl

When quarterback Philip Rivers dropped back to pass in this year's NFL Pro Bowl, he was looking to avoid making frequent reacquaintance with a former college teammate.

That would be fellow NC State alumnus Mario Williams, who lined up at defensive end on the opposing side for the game at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu. Rivers and Williams are two of 21 players who starred at current ACC schools that earned Pro Bowl recognition following the 2013 season.

As standouts for AFC teams, Rivers (San Diego Chargers) and Williams (Buffalo Bills) would have been Pro Bowl teammates in years past. But a format change this season saw former NFL greats Jerry Rice and Deion Sanders draft opposing teams. Rivers took snaps for Team Rice, while Williams lined up for Team Sanders.

Rice showed the utmost respect for ACC alum Jimmy Graham (Miami) by making the New Orleans Saints tight end his number one overall pick. Graham,who played both basketball and football at Miami, has blossomed into the NFL tight end most observers regard as the best at his position. Graham finished this season with 86 catches for 1,215 yards and 16 touchdowns.

The AFC-NFC Pro Bowl played from 1971 through 2013 saw seven players from schools currently in the ACC earn MVP honors – DeAngelo Hall (Virginia Tech) in 2011, Matt Schaub (Virginia) in 2010, Fitzgerald (Pitt) in 2009, Derrick Brooks (Florida State) in 2006, Michael Irvin (Miami) in 1992, Jim Kelly (Miami) in 1991 and Bruce Smith (Virginia Tech) in 1988.

The ACC In The Super Bowl

ACC Schools Had A Prominent Presence With Nine Starters in Super Bowl XLVIII

Super Bowl XLVIII developed into a showcase for former ACC athletes as a total of 13 represented the Conference; eight on the Denver Broncos roster and five for the Seattle Seahawks. But of those, nine were starters for their respective teams, including QB Russell Wilson, the former NC State standout, who led the Seahawks to the 43-8 victory over the Broncos.

Wilson completed 18 of 25 passes for 206 yards, two touchdowns and, more importantly, no interceptions. He also ran for 26 more yards, several times scrambling in key situations.

On the Denver side, wide receiver Demaryius Thomas, the former Georgia Tech standout, came into the game with a reputation for making game-breaking plays in the postseason. He had 92 receptions for 1,430 yards and 14 touchdowns heading into the Super Bowl, and he added to it. Thomas had a Super Bowl record 13 catches for 116 yards, and the Broncos' only touchdown.

Seattle placekicker Steven Hauschka, another former Wolfpacker, made both of his field goal attempts and all five of his extra point tries as he gave the Seahawks an early lead with his steady and accurate foot.

Defensively, on the Seattle side, strong safety Kam Chancellor (Virginia Tech) had a big impact, making 5 tackles, including four solo hits and a key interception. Fellow Seahawk, cornerback Byron Maxwell (Clemson), also contributed, making four tackles and forcing an important fumble.

For Denver, two former ACC products made big plays on defense as LB Nate Irving (NC State) had 3 tackles including a TD-saving play early in the game to keep the Broncos close, while NT Sylvester Williams (North Carolina) had two tackles.

In addition to the aforementioned players, offensive tackle Orlando Franklin (Miami) started for Denver, while offensive guard J.R. Sweezy (NC State) started up front for Seattle. Sweezy's presence gave NC State four representatives in the game, the second-most of any school.

Also among the ACC contingent were Denver cornerback Tony Carter (Florida State), offensive tackle Vinston Painter (Virginia Tech) and center Steve Vallos (Wake Forest). Center Dan Koppen (Boston College) was among the Broncos on the injured reserve list

Both head coaches spent time with current ACC programs. Denver's John Fox worked three seasons at Pitt as defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1986 through 1988, and Seattle's Pete Carroll was the defensive coordinator at NC State for three seasons in the early 1980s. During part of his stint the Wolfpack, Carroll worked alongside quarterbacks coach Carl Smith, who now holds that same position with the Seahawks.

Denver's staff also includes offensive line coach Dave Magazu, who held the same position at Boston College from 1999 through 2002; and running backs coach Eric Studesville, who worked as North Carolina's video assistant in 1992 and 1993.

Seattle's staff includes assistant offensive line coach Pat Ruel, a Miami graduate who spent four years as a Hurricanes' assistant coach following graduation.

National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame;

NC State's Ted Brown, Miami's Vinny Testaverde:

Standout Players from ACC Schools Named to Prestigious College Hall of Fame

A pair of standout players from Atlantic Coast Conference schools—NC State's Ted Brown and Miami's Vinny Testaverde were inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame at its annual awards banquet on Tuesday, Dec. 10 at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York City.

Since 2006, ACC schools have had 18 former players and coaches inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and now total 95 inductees.

Brown and Testaverde will be inducted as part of a the 2013 College Football Hall of Fame Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Class at the 56th NFF Annual Awards Dinner on December 10, 2013, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. They will be honored guests at the National Hall of Fame Salute at the Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans on January 2, 2014 and officially enshrined in the summer of 2014.

Brown, a native of High Point, N.C., is one of the great running backs in Atlantic Coast Conference history. He is still the ACC's all-time record holder for career rushing yardage, having totaled 4,602 yards in a spectacular four-year (1975-78) career for the Wolfpack. Brown played in an era where bowl game statistics were not included among career totals, which would have added an additional 399 yards, giving him 5,001 yards for his career. A consensus All-American as a senior, Brown is the only football player in ACC history to be named first-team All-ACC four times. He still holds ACC career marks for most 100-yard games (27) and most rushing touchdowns (49) and he topped 1,000 rushing yards in three of his four seasons with the Wolfpack. He went on to an eight-year career in the National Football League with the Minnesota Vikings, rushing for over 4,500 yards and 53 touchdowns.

Brown becomes seventh former NC State player or coach to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame joining Dennis Byrd (2010), Lou Holtz (2009), Jim Ritcher (1998), Roman Gabriel (1989), Jack McDowall (1975) and Buck Shaw (1972).

One of the most celebrated players in a Miami program stocked with mythical talent, Vinny Testaverde claimed virtually every major award during his senior season in 1986. He becomes the ninth Hurricane to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame joining Jimmy Johnson (2012), Russell Maryland (2011), Gino Torretta (2009), Bennie Blades (2006), Don Bosseler (1990), Ted Hendricks (1987), Andy Gustafson (1985) and Jack Harding (1980).

As a senior, Testaverde (1982, 1984-86) earned unanimous First-Team All-American honors, and he won the Heisman Trophy, the Walter Camp Player of the Year, Maxwell, Davey O'Brien and UPI Player of the Year awards. He led the Canes to three consecutive bowls, including the 1987 Fiesta Bowl National Championship game. He finished his collegiate career with more than 6,000 passing yards and 48 touchdown passes, and he still ranks in the top five in virtually every passing category in school history. Testaverde, who was a redshirt on Miami's 1983 National Championship team, went 23-3 as a starter playing for legendary coaches Howard Schnellenberger and Hall of Famer Jimmy Johnson.

Tampa Bay selected Testaverde as the No. 1 overall selection in the 1987 NFL Draft, and his pro career spanned 21 seasons with seven different teams. The 1998 All-Pro and two-time Pro Bowl selection finished his NFL career seventh all-time in passing yards (46,233) and eighth in touchdowns (275). The Elmont, N.Y., native currently resides in Florida where he plays an active role with the Children's Cancer Center of Tampa. Testaverde remains among only four Hurricanes to have their jerseys retired at Miami.

Duke's Perry Simmons Named National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete

The National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Football Hall of Fame has named Duke University redshirt senior offensive tackle Perry Simmons as one of 16 recipients of the 2013 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Award, presented by Fidelity Investments, a leading provider of not-for-profit workplace retirement savings plans in higher education.

The 16 honorees also comprise the list of finalists for the 2013 William V. Campbell Trophy, endowed by HealthSouth, which recognizes an individual as the absolute best scholar-athlete in the nation. Selected from a nationwide pool of 171 exceptional semifinalists from among all NCAA divisions and the NAIA, Simmons is joined in the class by Trevor Adams (Northwest Missouri State), John Arena (Johns Hopkins), Max Bullough (Michigan State), Derek Carr (Fresno State), Gabe Ikard (Oklahoma), Spencer Long (Nebraska), Niccolo Mastromatteo (Coastal Carolina), Jeff Mathews (Cornell), James Morris (Iowa), Aaron Murray (Georgia), Eric Soza (Texas-San Antonio), John Urschel (Penn State), Dustin Vaughan (West Texas A&M), Tony Washington (Appalachian State) and Eric Westerberg (Augustana).

Simmons owns a 3.83 grade point average as a civil engineering major. He was a 2012 Capital One Academic All-America second team selection, has earnedfour All-ACC Academic Football Team honors and four ACC Academic Honor Roll citations.

A native of Raleigh, N.C., Simmons started an ACC-leading 50 consecutive games at right tackle, played over 3,200 snaps in his career and has blocked for a Duke offense that ranks fifth in the ACC with 32.8 points per game, fourth with 426.1 yards per game and tied for third with just 14 sacks allowed. His performance has helped Duke record a 10-win season (10-4) for the first time in school history and capture the ACC's Coastal Division Championship and earn a berth in the 9th Annual ACC Football Championship Game.

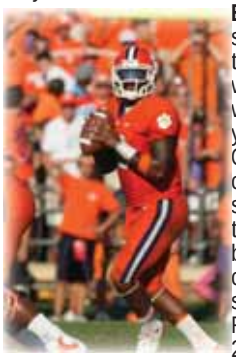

Simmons becomes the 51st player from an ACC school and the fourth Duke player to earn the honor, joining Mike Diminick (1988), Bill Obremskey (1983) and Sean Renfree (2012).

The NFF's National Scholar-Athlete program, launched in 1959, is the first initiative in history to award scholar-athletes postgraduate scholarships for their combined athletic, academic and leadership abilities. This year's class members finds themselves in good company, as past National Scholar-Athletes include former NFL standout Derrick Brooks (Florida State); Southern California Athletics Director Pat Haden (USC); actor Mark Harmon (UCLA); West Virginia Athletics Director Oliver Luck (West Virginia); NASA astronaut Leland Melvin (Richmond); former Dateline NBC anchor Stone Phillips (Yale); chairman of Augusta National Golf Club, home of the Masters Tournament, Billy Payne (Georgia); famed NFL quarterback Steve Young (BYU); and Heisman Trophy winners, Doug Flutie (Boston College) and Tim Tebow (Florida).

Clemson's Tajh Boyd Shatters ACC Career Records for TDR and TD Passes

Despite having been a starter at quarterback for only three seasons and 40 games, Clemson's Tajh Boyd (Hampton, Va.) shattered a pair of long-time ACC records. Boyd, who had 5 TD passes while throwing for 378 yards against 7th-ranked Ohio State in the Discover Orange Bowl, has shattered the ACC career touchdown responsibility mark (TDR) and career TD pass marks set by NC State's Philip Rivers during the 2000-2003 seasons. ACC Only Conference in History to Have Five Quarterbacks Playing at the Same Time Who Have Thrown for at Least 8,000 Yards

In 2013, Atlantic Coast Conference teams had five starting quarterbacks--Clemson's Tajh Boyd; Wake Forest's Tanner Price; North Carolina's Bryn Renner; Boston College's Chase Rettig and Virginia Tech's Logan Thomas--who threw for 8,000 or more yards in their careers, by far the most in ACC history and the most in NCAA FBS history. The previous best in the ACC was just two quarterbacks in Chris Rix of FSU and Darian Durant in 2004 and Riley Skinner of Wake Forest and Thad Lewis of Duke in 2009. Three other conferences have had four QBs with 8,000 career yards four times: SEC (2003), Big 12 (2008 & 2009) and the MAC (2012).

Ebron Breaks ACC Mark For Tight Ends

With 121 yards on 5 catches against Duke on Nov. 30, North Carolina junior TE Eric Ebron (Greensboro, N.C.) broke the ACC single-season record for pass receiving yards by a tight end. He finished the year with 973 yards, bettering the previous league standard set by Maryland's Vernon Davis (871) in 2005.

Earlier in 2013, he recorded the 2nd-highest receiving yard total by a tight end in ACC history with 199 yards on eight catches in UNC's loss to then 10th-ranked Miami. Ebron, who was a finalist for the John Mackey Award, had 62 catches, the second-highest single-season total by an ACC tight end. Only Heath Miller's 70-catch campaign for Virginia in 2003 bettered Ebron's 2013 reception total.

ACC Football Kickoff Media Selects Clemson as 2013 Favorite

GREENSBORO, N.C. -- Clemson, seeking its 15th Atlantic Coast Conference football title and its second in three years, is the preseason choice to win the Atlantic Division and defeat Miami in the 9th Annual Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game, according to a poll of media members attending this week's ACC Football Kickoff at the Grandover Resort.

Clemson, which leads all ACC teams with 14 conference championships, finished atop the media preseason poll for the second time since 1991. The Tigers have been picked to finish first seven times overall since the ACC preseason poll began in 1976.

Clemson senior quarterback Tajh Boyd was the overwhelming choice to repeat as ACC Player of the Year. The senior from Hampton, Va., was named on 105 of 120 ballots after a 2012 season in which he broke his own ACC single-season marks for touchdown passes (36) and touchdown responsibility (46). Boyd enters the 2013 season with 8,053 career passing yards and 73 touchdown passes.

Miami running back Duke Johnson, with four votes, placed second to Boyd in the 2013 ACC Preseason Player of the Year voting. Virginia Tech quarterback Logan Thomas and Clemson wide receiver Sammy Watkins received three votes apiece.

Florida State. Clemson, UNC Headline 2013 All-ACC Preseason Football Team, Each With Four Players Selected

GREENSBORO, N.C. – Reigning Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year Tajh Boyd of Clemson leads the 2013 Preseason All-ACC Football Team.

Boyd, who enters his senior season with 8,053 career passing yards and 73 career touchdown passes, was the overwhelming choice at quarterback in balloting by media in attendance at the 2013 ACC Football Kickoff.

Boyd is one of three players from ACC preseason favorite Clemson on the 25-member squad. Florida State led all schools with six players, and four from North Carolina were voted to the team.

Duke, Miami and Wake Forest followed with two selections apiece, while Boston College, Georgia Tech Maryland, Pittsburgh, Virginia and Virginia Tech each placed one player on the team.

Nine student-athletes named to the 2013 Preseason All-ACC Team were first- or second-team All-ACC offensive selections last season: Clemson's Boyd, Wake Forest wide receiver Michael Campanaro, North Carolina tight end Eric Ebron and tackle James Hurst, Florida State guard Tre' Jackson and center Bryan Stork, Miami running back Duke Johnson, Clemson placekicker Chandler Catanzaro and Maryland kick return specialist Stefon Diggs.

Seven members of the 2013 All-ACC Preseason defensive unit were first- or second-team All-ACC in 2012: Duke cornerback Ross Cockrell and punter Will Monday; Florida State cornerback Lamarcus Joyner and linebacker Christian Jones, North Carolina defensive end Kareem Martin, Wake Forest nose tackle Nikita Whitlock, and Virginia Tech linebacker Jack Tyler.

Boyd, who was named on 59 of the 65 ballots cast, joins his teammate, wide receiver Sammy Watkins and North Carolina's Hurst as repeat Preseason All-ACC selections from last season. Florida State's Joyner and Wake Forest's Whitlock are repeat Preseason All-ACC defensive selections from 2012.

Joyner, a former safety, was named to the 2013 Preseason All-ACC team at cornerback. Joyner received 43 total votes – 32 at the corner and 11 at his former position.

Boyd is joined in the backfield of the Preseason All-ACC team by running backs Duke Johnson of Miami and James Wilder Jr. of Florida State.

Johnson, the 2012 ACC Rookie of the Year, placed third in the conference in rushing last season with 947 yards and ranked ninth nationally in all-purpose yardage at 171.67 per game. Wilder rushed for 635 yards and averaged 5.8 yards per carry. The pair placed 1-2 in the voting ahead of Syracuse's Jerome Smith, whose 1,171 yards last season ranks first among all returning conference team rushers in 2013. Smith and the Orange join Pitt in making their ACC debuts this fall.

The receiving corps includes Watkins, the 2011 ACC Rookie of the Year, and Wake Forest's Michael Campanaro, who leads all active ACC players with 162 catches. North Carolina's Eric Ebron received the nod at right end after hauling in 40 catches for 625 yards and four touchdowns in 2012.

Florida State's Jackson and UNC's Hurst are joined on the offensive line by FSU center Bryan Stork, Virginia tackle Morgan Moses and Miami guard Brandon Linder.

Clemson's Catanzaro enters the 2013 season having made good on 26 of his last 27 field goal attempts (.963), including a school-record streak of 20 straight three-pointers.

The defensive front features ends Martin of UNC and Georgia Tech's Jeremiah Attaochu, while Whitlock and Florida State's Timmy Jernigan man the tackle positions. Whitlock and Jernigan prevailed in a tight vote that also included Pitt's Aaron Donald, also a candidate for a number of preseason national awards.

The linebacking corps features Virginia Tech's Jack Tyler in addition to Florida State's Jones and Boston College's Kevin Pierre-Louis. Duke's Cockrell and FSU's Joyner are joined in the secondary by North Carolina's Tre Boston and Pitt's Jason Hendricks.

BC's Pierre-Louis ranked third among ACC players in tackles per game last season (9.4), while Virginia Tech's Tyler ranked fifth (9.2). Attaochu's 13 quarterback sacks tied for second among conference defenders. UNC's Martin tied for second in tackles for loss per game (1.29).

Pitt's Hendricks earned All-Big East honors in 2012 after registering 90 tackles and six interceptions. Duke's Cockrell tied for first in the ACC with five interceptions and third in passes defended (18). UNC's Boston was among a group of players with four interceptions in 2012.

Maryland's Diggs made a huge impact as a freshman last season, returning kickoffs 99 and 100 yards for touchdowns and piled up 172.36
