NOTING ACC MEN'S SOCCER

- Four ACC teams open their 2020 seasons this week: Louisville, NC State, Pitt and Wake Forest.
- Conference play starts Saturday as Duke welcomes NC State for a 7 p.m. match.
- Each of the three matches this weekend feature only ACC teams. The Wake Forest-Louisville and Pitt-Notre Dame games are non-conference matches and will not count toward the ACC standings.
- ACC teams hold all five spots in the first United Soccer Coaches national rankings this week: Wake Forest (1), Clemson (2), Virginia (3), Pitt (4) and Notre Dame (5).
- Notre Dame freshman forward Daniel Russo and ND senior goalkeeper Keagan McLaughlin were named the first ACC Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week, respectively.
- ACC teams will play in two regions in an altered league schedule this fall, with six conference games against regional opponents over a nine-week period.
  - North Region: Louisville, Notre Dame, Pitt, Syracuse Virginia, Virginia Tech (play each division opponent once, plus one region home-and-home)
  - South Region: Clemson, Duke, North Carolina, NC State, Wake Forest (play each division opponent once, plus two region home-and-homes)
- The top four teams in each region will advance to play in the 2020 ACC Men's Soccer Championship.
- Due to a combination of injuries and not all of its members returning for the semester, Boston College will not compete in ACC play this fall.
- Clemson has been tabbed as the coaches' pre-season favorite to win the 2020 ACC Men's Soccer Championship, edging out Wake Forest by one vote as the overall conference favorite and by one point as the South Region favorite.
- Receiving first-place votes from nine of 11 coaches, Virginia was picked as the favorite in the North Region ahead of Pitt.
- Sixteen members of the 2019 All-ACC Team return this season, including four first-teamers: 2019 ACC Freshman of the Year Philip Mayaka of Clemson, senior forward Kimarni Smith (Clemson), senior forward Edward Kizza (Pitt) and senior goalkeeper Colin Shutler (Virginia).

- All 11 members of the 2019 All-Freshman Team returned to school this season.
- Six ACC head coaches rank among the top 35 in NCAA Division I in winning percentage by active head coaches: UNC's Carlos Somoano (2nd, .738), Virginia's George Gelnovatch (ninth, .696), Wake Forest's Bobby Muuss (16th, .669), Pitt's Jay Vidovich (26th, .633), Notre Dame's Chad Riley (31st, .618) and NC State's George Kiefer (32nd, .617).
- ACC teams have captured 17 NCAA men's soccer titles, including seven of the last 15. The ACC's streak of 17 straight years with at least one team in the NCAA Men's College Cup was snapped in 2018.

COMMITTEE FOR RACIAL & SOCIAL JUSTICE

The ACC's Committee for Racial and Social Justice (CORE - Champions of Racial Equity) announced three initiatives in conjunction with its member institutions on Sept. 3.

- Mandatory diversity and inclusion training for student-athletes, athletic department and conference staff
- Creation of ACC Unity Symbol as a visual representation of solidarity among the ACC's 15 institutions
- ACC Unity Statement to be read prior to every league contest

Student-athletes, athletic department and conference office staff will be required to attend annual diversity and inclusion training. The initiative was unanimously approved by the conference athletic directors. The focus of this year's training will be anti-racism.

The ACC's unity symbol – "UNITE" – will be displayed in venues and on video boards throughout the league, as well as at ACC Championship events and on social media.

CORE also has introduced a Unity Statement, which will be read at all ACC events: "We, the ACC, are committed to seeing each other as equals, supporting each other, and treating each other with respect and dignity at all times, recognizing that our differences don't divide us, but they make us stronger."

CORE's work is ongoing and guided by its mission statement, which is "to promote and encourage racial equity and social justice through education, partnerships, engagement and advocacy."

Among CORE's actions to date: the ACC Office's recognition of Juneteenth as a holiday; working with its institutions to increase voter education and vote, with some ACC schools serving as polling places; engaging in conversations and education throughout the conference with staff and student-athletes and initiating partnerships with local organizations and community groups; empowering students and student-athletes to engage with fans around the topic of social justice to minimize misunderstandings.

CORE's central values and goals:

- Create meaningful, lasting change by improving systems, organizational structures, policies, practices and attitudes
- Have representation at all levels that is reflective of the make-up of the student-athlete population
- Inclusion and empowerment of diverse individuals
- Accountability for hiring practices
- Integrity
- Fairness
