STORIED PROGRAMS MEETS IN FIRST ROUND

Maine has certainly developed a dominant reputation in America East women's basketball having won a league-best seven titles and advance to the finals a record 15 times. Vermont follows closely behind with four titles and nine title game appearances. However, one of these two teams will have an early exit when No. 3 Vermont matches up against No. 6 Maine in the quarterfinals.

A LONG WAIT

New Hampshire, a charter member of America East (1984-85), is looking for its first NCAA Women's Basketball Championship appearance. The Wildcats are in their 31st year of women's basketball. New Hampshire have been to the semifinal nine teams, the fourth-most among active teams, but have never advanced to the title game.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Prior to Hartford repeating as champion in 2005 and 2006, a different team had won the America East Championship in each of the previous seven seasons. Maine (2004), Boston University (2003), Hartford (2002), Delaware (2001), Vermont (2000) and Northeastern (1999) were the champions in those seven years. In the prior 14 championships, there were only four different champions, with Maine winning six, Vermont and Northeastern each winning three, and Boston University winning two.

THREE-PEAT??

The Hawks are trying to become just the third program in conference history to capture three-straight title. The Black Bears hold the record for consecutive titles with four in a row from 1992-96, while Northeastern and Vermont each won three in a row.

CROWNED AT THE TOP

Traditionally, gaining a top seed in the America East Championship has proven important, as 21 of the 22 championships have been won by one of the top-three seeds, with the No. 1 seed winning 14. The No. 1 seed has posted a 48-6 (.888) record in championship play, advancing to the championship game 18 of 21 times (note: there was no No. 1 seed in 1994). The No. 2 seed has won three championships while the No. 3 seed has won three titles. The No. 4 seed, and the Nos. 6-10 seeds have never won a championship. Hartford in 2002 is the only No. 5 seed to ever win the championship.

TOP TWO TO TANGO

The America East Championship game has featured the top two seeds 10 times in the 21 previous championships. The No. 1 seed has posted an 8-2 record in those games, winning the championship in 1988, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, and 2000. The No. 2 seed upset the No. 1 seed in 1998 (No. 2 Maine 81, No. 1 Vermont 80) and 1999 (No. 2 Northeastern 57, No. 1 Maine 55).

CINDERELLA GETS HER SLIPPER

On only two occasions has the America East Championship game NOT featured either of the top two seeds. It first occurred in 1989, when No.

3 Boston University defeated No. 4 Northeastern, 60-54. That was the last year that only the top four regular season finishers competed in the conference tournament. The second time neither of the top two seeds played for the championship was the 2002 final, which was played right here at The Chase Family Arena. In that game, No. 5 Hartford defeated No. 7 Stony Brook, 50-47, to win the Hawks' first ever conference championship. Hartford, as the No. 5 seed, represents the lowest seed to win the championship.

CINDERELLA GETS HER SLIPPER-PART II

The higher seeded team has won 120 of the 152 total games (78.9 percent) played in America East Championship competition. Only 32 times has there been an upset. The largest upset, in terms of seeding, occurred 2005. When No. 8 Boston U. defeated top-seeded Maine. The Terriers became the lowest seed ever to advance to an America East tournament final.

BINGHAMTON LOOKING FOR HOME COOKING

The America East Championship has been a single-site championship 16 times (including the 1991-93 championships, which played the quarterfinal round on campus sites and the semifinals and final at a single site). Ten times the host school has gone on to win the championship, with Vermont (1992, 1993, 2000) and Hartford (2002, 2005, 2006) winning three and Maine (1991, 1998) and Northeastern (1985, 1986) each taking two. The five times that the host school did not win the championship were 1987 (Northeastern won at Case Gym, Boston, Mass.), 1990 (Maine won at Walter Brown Arena, Boston, Mass.), 1999 (Northeastern won at Patrick Gym, Burlington, Vt.), 2001 (Delaware won at Patrick Gym, Burlington, Vt.), 2003 (Boston University won at The Chase Family Arena, West Hartford, Conn.) and 2004 (Maine won at The Chase Family Arena, West Hartford, Conn.). The Bearcats hope to use the home-court advantage for their first-ever America East Championship

NOT IN A SHARING MOOD

Maine, Northeastern, Vermont, Boston U. and Hartford have combined to win 21 of the 22 America East championships. Maine tops the list with seven championships, with Northeastern and Vermont each winning four, while Boston U. and Hartford have each won three. Former member Delaware is the only other team to win the title.

MINUS PLAYER AND ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

The Hawks graduated last year's America East Player of the Year Erika Messum and saw America East Rookie of the Year Erica Beverly sidelined with an injury, yet Hartford remains the team to beat throughout the conference.

WAITING ROOM

While charter member New Hampshire has had the longest wait for an America East Championship, several other teams are trying to win the crown and go dancin' for the first time. Albany, Binghamton and Stony Brook joined America East prior to the 2001-02 season, although Binghamton is eligible for the America East Championship for the only the fourth time this season after completing its transition to NCAA Division I. University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC) is in its fourth season in America East after leaving the Northeast Conference. The Retrievers are looking for their first trip to the NCAA Division I Championship, since moving up from Division II in 1989-90.

STORIED HISTORY

Several former America East Champions are still coaching at the collegiate level. Michigan State head coach Joanne Palombo-McCallie won four titles (1995, 1996, 1997, 1998) while at Maine; Sharon Versyp, won the league title in 2004 at Maine before moving to Purdue. Cathy Inglese won back-to-back titles in 1992 and 1993 before heading to Boston College and passing the baton to Minnesota's Pam Borton, who won a title with Vermont in 1994.

MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER AWARD

The Most Outstanding Player Award is given each year to the most outstanding player in the America East Women's Basketball Championship. Past winners include four-time honoree and the conference's all-time leading scorer Maine's Cindy Blodgett (1995, 1996, 1997, 1998), Maine's Rachel Bouchard, who won the award the first two years it was given (1990, 1991), and Sharon Bay, who led Vermont to back-to-back championships (1992-1993).

REPEAT AFTER ME

2006 America East Player of the Year Erika Messum earned her second-straight championship Most Outstanding Player award, while leading Hartford to its second America East Women's Basketball Championship in a row. The championship game drew 2,634 to Chase Arena at Reich Family Pavilion and was shown to four million homes on Fox Sports New England and nationally on CSTV.

GIANT "OWL" KILLERS

Hartford earned a No. 11 seed in the NCAA Championship, America East's highest seed since 1999, and promptly upset Temple, 64-58, in the First Round. The Hawks' bid for a Sweet 16 appearance came up short in a 73-54 loss to Georgia. Both of Hartford's NCAA games were televised by ESPN.

NIT

Stony Brook received its first postseason berth with an appearance in the Women's National Invitation Tournament.

MS. MIKUS

Albany's Sherri Mikus (Harrisburg, Pa./Susquehanna) netted 11 points and handed out three assists in last year's America East Championship opening-round game against Maine. The 5-11 guard presents a number of matchup troubles with her versatility. One of the league's top juniors, she ranks among the conference leaders in scoring, rebounding and steals.

LAURA'S BACK: FINLAND'S FINEST

Binghamton's Laura Sario (Espoo, Finland/Etela-Tapiolanlukio) netted 11 points against Hartford last year in the America East semifinals fueled by a perfect 4-of-4 from the charity stripe. Earlier this season, the 6-1 guard had an impressive return from injury, leading the team in scoring in five-straight games from Jan. 4-17. Widely-considered to be among the league's elite juniors, she is among the conference leaders in scoring and assists.

POSTSEASON::MEINHARDT TIME

Boston U.'s Katie Meinhardt (San Francisco, Calif./St. Ignatius Prep) has helped lead the Terriers to four-straight America East title games, including winning the title in 2003. She put together one of the best performances in America East Championship history as she scored a program-high 43 points in a first-round win over Stony Brook in the 2005 tournament. Back on Dec. 29, 2006, Meinhardt became the 15th Boston U. women's basketball player to score 1,000 points in her career.

YOU CAN FEEL GOOD ABOUT HOOD

Hartford's Danielle Hood (Cortlandt Manor, N.Y./Walter Panas), an America East preseason all-conference selection, led the Hawks averaging 14.4 ppg in 2005-06. The junior forward averaged 13.0 ppg in last year's America East Championship, including netting a game-high 17 points in a quarterfinal win over Maine. Hood scored a game-high 20 points to lift the 11th-seeded Hawks to a 64-58 upset win over sixth-seeded Temple in the first round NCAA Tournament.

UNDERWOOD FOR MAINE'S FIRE

Maine's Ashley Underwood (Augusta, Maine/Cony) has averaged 13.0 ppg in four America East tournament games played, including a game-high 24 points in the Black Bears' 73-56 opening round win over Albany in 2005-06. On Jan. 24, she became the 15th player in Maine's history to top 1,000 points scored for a career. The 6-2 forward averaged 13.3 ppg in 2005-06, which was seventh best in America East.

ROHDE IS PAVED IN BLACK AND GOLD

Sharri Rohde (Indianapolis, Ind./Franklin Central) has averaged 10 ppg in three America East Championship games including pouring in a team-high 14 points in last year's quarterfinal game against Binghamton. The 5-11 senior was a second-team all-conference selection in 2006-07 and ranked in the top 15 in scoring, rebounding, assists, and blocked shots. On Jan. 7, Rohde became the 15th player in UMBC women's basketball history to score 1,000 points.

LIKE CLARKWORK

Danielle Clark (Corinna, Maine/Nokomis Regional) enters the 2007 championship averaging 11.0 ppg in five America East tournament games, including scoring 14, 17 and 14 points, respectively, over the last three postseason games for the Wildcats.

The 6-0 forward was a second-team all-conference selection in 2005-06 and ranked among the league leaders in scoring (15.1 ppg - 3rd) and rebounding (6.1 rpg - 12th). The senior ranks among the league leaders in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and free-throw percentage.

A FAMILIAR PLACE FOR SMITH

Jessica Smith (Bloomington, N.J./Butler) has had quality performances in the America East Championship averaging 16.5 ppg and 10.0 rpg in four tournament games, including team-highs of 24, 19 and 15 points in three of those four games. The senior preseason all-conference selection had 24 points and 15 rebounds in Stony Brook's loss to Boston University in the first round of the 2005 America East Championship. The senior ranks among the league leaders in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and free throw percentage.

CROSS YOUR W'S

Vermont's Brittney Cross (Durham, N.H./Oyster River) enters the 2007 championship averaging 6.3 ppg and 4.6 rpg in three America East Championship games, including eight points and four assists in a win over Binghamton at the 2005 championship. The 5-9 guard led America East and was 27th in the nation in free-throw percentage converting on 85.9 percent a season ago. The senior guard was among the league leaders in scoring, rebounding, and assists last season and was the Catamounts top returner in each category.

WELCOME BACK, TRINA

Fresh off a maternity leave, fifth-year head coach Trina Patterson tries to lead Albany to its first-ever America East title. The Great Danes posted their highest number of victories at the Division I level with 14 during the 2004-05 season. Patterson was appointed to serve as an NCAA representative on the USA Basketball Women's Collegiate Committee for the 2005-08 term. Patterson enters the 2007 America East Women's Basketball Championship with the hopes of leading Albany to its first-ever conference title.

THE RICH GET RICHER

The 2004 America East Coach of the Year, Rich Conover is in his fourth full season at the helm of the Bearcats. In his first three campaigns he led Binghamton to two top-half finishes. Conover and Binghamton have the home-court advantage as the Events Center play host to the 2007 America East Women's Basketball Championship for the first-time in program history. Conover took over as interim head coach during the 2002-03 season, while then-head coach Laurie Kelly was on maternity leave.

SHORT-CUT TO THE TITLE GAME

Third-year head coach Kelly Greenberg led Boston U. to a 18-12 overall record a season ago. During Greenberg's first two seasons at the helm, the Terriers have made memorable postseason runs, advancing to the conference finals as an eight-seed in 2004-05 and knocking off second-seeded Stony Brook in overtime to advance to the program's fourth-straight America East title game last season. Before coming to Boston, Greenberg posted an 84-54 overall record at Penn and a 51-19 mark in Ivy League play.

A CHAMPION AT EVERY LEVEL

Hartford's eighth-year head coach Jen Rizzotti is no stranger to success, having won championships at every level she has competed at. Most notably, Rizzotti was a member of University of Connecticut's 1994-95 35-0 National Championship team, where she earned first-team all-America honors. But her championships did not end there, as she was a member of the WNBA champion Houston Comets in 1999. As she has moved on to the coaching ranks, her knack for winning championships led her to Hartford, where she coached the team to the University's first ever women's basketball conference title in 2002 and back-to-back titles in 2005 and 2006. Rizzotti's championship pedigree did not begin in college, however, as she won two state championships while at New Fairfield (Conn.) High School. This season Rizzotti has guided the Hawks to their third straight 20-win season and second-consecutive regular-season crown.

SECOND TIME AROUND

Ann McInerney became the ninth head coach in Maine women's basketball history on May 6, 2005. Last year, she became just the third head coach in program history to win their first two games on the Black Bear bench. McInerney won her first America East Championship game with a 73-56 victory over Albany in the opening round of last year's tournament.

UMBC'S TOP DOG

Fifth-year head coach Phil Stern led the Retrievers to a 15-13 mark in 2005-06, the program's best record since joining America East. After a slow start in conference play to open last season, UMBC rattled off six-straight wins over America East foes in early February and earned a fifth-place finish in the regular season. In search of their first tournament win, UMBC made an upset bid coming up just short losing to fourth-seeded Binghamton 72-66 in overtime last season.

TOURNAMENT TESTED

The longest tenured coach in America East, head coach Sue Johnson is in her 10th season at the helm of the Wildcats. Johnson enters the 2007 America East Women's Basketball Championship with the hopes of leading New Hampshire to its first-ever America East title. Johnson's 2006-07 squad includes a group of five seniors that have participated in four-straight America East Championships and have posted a pair of wins over the last three years.

BUILDING A TRADITION

After a season as interim head coach, Maura McHugh was given the reigns for the 2005-06 campaign. McHugh came to Stony Brook from the WNBA's Sacramento Monarchs (2001-03). Last season the Seawolves posted a 20-10 record, the program's best since joining Division I and second best overall record in school history. McHugh led Stony Brook to its first-ever trip to the Division I postseason as they participate in the WNIT.

MOVIN' ON UP

Head Coach Sharon Dawley is in her fourth year at the helm of the Catamounts. Led by one of the best freshmen classes in the conference, the Catamounts appear to be ready to make a postseason run this season. Vermont made an impressive run winning 12-of-14 games from Nov. 17-Jan. 14, helping them to a league-best 10-3 mark in non-conference play.

DID YOU KNOW?

Albany is the last team to defeat two-time defending champion Hartford in the America East Championship. The Great Danes captured a 52-50 win over the Hawks in the 2004 quarterfinals.

The Bearcats are hosting their first-ever America East Women's Basketball Championship. The Events Center was home to the men's basketball championship the last two seasons.

The Terriers have reached the America East Championship title game in each of the past four seasons, earning the title in 2003. Head Coach Kelly Greenberg has led Boston U. to the title game in her first two seasons at the helm.

The Hawks have won the last two America East Championships under head coach Jennifer Rizzotti. She has won six-straight in the America East Championship and is 10-4 (.714) all-time, which is third best in league history.

The Black Bears have won more conference championships (seven) in America East history than any two other teams combined and more regular-season league titles (12) than all other conference squads combined.

In 2005-06 Head Coach Phil Stern led the Retrievers to their best record since joining America East at 15-13 overall, 7-9 in conference play.

Head Coach Sue Johnson has made nine appearances in the America East Championship, which is the most among active coaches in America East.

In 2005-06, the Seawolves enjoyed its best season since joining America East posting a 20-10 overall mark and qualifying for the WNIT for the first time in program history.

Head Coach Sharon Dawley and the Catamounts are back on track after a sub-par season in 2005-06. On Jan. 1, Vermont earned its 10th win of the season, surpassing its win-total for the entire 2005-06 season.

THE SEEDS

NO. 1 HARTFORD HAWKS

For the second time in as many years, the Hawks won the regular-season title and earned the top seed in the America East Championship. Hartford is 3-0 all-time when slotted into the tournament's top slot, including taking home the title last season. The No. 1 seed boasts a 46-6 (.885) all-time record in the conference tournament, winning 14 of the previous 18 championships.

NO. 2 STONY BROOK SEAWOLVES

For the second-straight season, the Seawolves finished as the second-seed heading into the conference championship. Stony Brook is 1-1 all-time as the No. 2 seed with last year being its lone appearance as the second seed. Throughout tourney history, No. 2 seeds have combined to go 27-19 (.587), collecting three league crowns and advancing to the title game 13 times.

NO. 3 VERMONT CATAMOUNTS

After being picked eighth in the preseason poll and finishing seventh last season, the Catamounts enter as the surprise team of the tournament as the three seed. Vermont owns a fantastic track record as the three seed posting a 5-1 record all-time. Vermont capture the crown from the three seed in 1994 and advanced to the finals in 2001 from that slot. All and all, three seeds are 20-19 overall (.513) with a pair of titles.

NO. 4 BINGHAMTON BEARCATS

The Bearcats locked up the fourth-seed for the second-straight season. They are 1-1 all-time in that slot defeating UMBC in the quarterfinals before falling to eventual champion Hartford last season. The No. 4 seed is just 13-22 (.371) life-time in tournament play.

NO. 5 BOSTON UNIVERSITY TERRIERS

In 2005, the Terriers proved that nothing is impossible advancing to the title game as the eight seed. While the fifth seed has advance to the finals once, they are just 7-16 overall (.304) in championship history.

NO. 6 MAINE BLACK BEARS

The most storied program in America East history, the Black Bears have won seven titles. They are making their first-ever appearance as a sixth-seed. Overall, six seeds are 6-17 (.261) in America East Championship play.

NO. 7 UMBC RETRIEVERS

The seventh seed has been the biggest spoiler in the tournament winning 12 times and advancing to a pair of America East finals. UMBC is making its first-ever appearance in the seven spot. The Retrievers are still in search of their first tournament win as they are 0-3 since joining the conference.

NO. 8 ALBANY GREAT DANES

Albany is the eighth seed for first time ever in the conference championship. After taking the league by storming and earning a win in their first-ever conference championship game, the Great Danes have dropped three straight for a 1-3 (.250) overall record. Eighth seeds are 11-15 all-time and advance to the finals once. Back in 2004, Kelly Greenberg, in her first season at Boston U., led the Terriers to the title game from the lowly eighth seed. Boston U. became the lowest seed to ever advance to the conference finals.

NO. 9 NEW HAMPSHIRE WILDCATS

The Wildcats are penciled into the ninth seed for the first time in league history. New Hampshire is a charter member of America East and is trying to make it to the finals for the first time in program history. They will have their work cut out for them as nine seeds are just 1-10 all-time with the lone win coming when No. 9 Hofstra defeated No. 10 Boston U. in a first-round game back in 1999.

THE MATCH-UPS

GREAT DANES VS. WILDCATS

Eighth-seeded Albany and No. 9 New Hampshire will meet for the second time in championship history when the two get the 2007 America East Women's Basketball Championship underway with a first-round affair on Thursday, March 8. New Hampshire won the first-ever meeting as the third-seeded Wildcats defeated No. 6 Albany 52-50 in 2004. In that outing, Danielle Clark (Corinna, Maine/Nokomis Regional) led the Wildcats to victory with 17 points. Albany has never played the nine seed in tournament action, while New Hampshire has never play against an eight seed.

SEAWOLVES VS. RETRIEVERS

UMBC and Stony Brook will meet for the first time in America East tournament history when the No. 2 Seawolves take on the No. 7 Retrievers in quarterfinal action on Friday, March 9. Stony Brook is trying to advance to its first-ever title game, while UMBC looks to win its first game of the league tourney for the third-straight season. The Seawolves are 1-0 versus the seventh seed, while UMBC has never faced the second-seeded squad in tournament play.

CATAMOUNTS VS. BLACK BEARS

This matchup features two of the most storied programs in the history of the conference. Vermont and Maine have met nine teams including seven title games. The Black Bears are 6-3 in the all-time series, but all three of the Catamount wins came in the America East Championship title game. The two have combined to appear in 31 title games and have won 11 titles combined. The two last met in the postseason in the 2000 title game, when Vermont earned the crown with a 77-50 win at Patrick Gym in Burlington. Vermont is 2-0 all-time against six seeds, while Maine is an impressive 5-1 against the third seeds. However, none of those wins came when Maine was a sixth seed. In fact, the Black Bears are the sixth seed for the first time in conference history.

HAWKS VS. WILDCATS

This potential quarterfinal matchup features No. 9 New Hampshire versus the top-seeded Hawks. This is the first time in a long-time Hartford is playing away from the friendly confines of Chase Arena, where they have won six-straight America East Championship games. The Hawks hold a 2-0 advantage all-time in the tournament history against New Hampshire. Last season, Hartford won its first-ever regular-season league title and earned the top seed in the tournament going 3-0 and taking home the title. If this game happens, New Hampshire would be 1-0 all-time as a nine-seed.

HAWKS VS. GREAT DANES

This potential quarterfinal matchup features No. 8 Albany versus the top-seeded Hawks. Albany is the last team to defeat two-time defending champion Hartford in the America East Championship. The Great Danes captured a 52-50 win over the Hawks in the 2004 quarterfinals. This is the first time in a long-time Hartford is playing away from the friendly confines of Chase Arena, where they have won six-straight America East Championship games. Last season, Hartford won its first-ever regular-season league title and earned the top seed in the tournament going 3-0 and taking home the title.

BEARCATS VS. TERRIERS

In the final quarterfinal matchup of the day, the fourth-seeded Bearcats play host to Boston U. The fifth seeded Terriers have advanced to four straight title games, including winning it all in 2003. However, this is the first time Binghamton will have the home-court advantage as the Events Center plays host to the championship. This is the first ever meeting between Boston and Binghamton in the postseason. Binghamton is 1-0 against five seeds with an overtime win over UMBC last year, while the Terriers are 4-1 against No. 4 seeds.

REGULAR-SEASON NOTEBOOK

TWICE AS NICE FOR HAWKS

Hartford claimed its second-straight regular season title as they closed with a 60-56 win over UMBC. The Hawks matched their 2005-06 record finishing 15-1, a game ahead of second-place Stony Brook, who they beat twice in the regular season.

STREAKING CATS' STRUT TO THIRD SEED

Just a week ago, Vermont had dropped to fourth place after holding the league's top spot early in conference play. The Catamounts had dropped three in a row and five of their last season. However, just won week later Vermont finished the regular season with two wins and surged into third-place for the tournament. The Catamounts, who were picked eighth in the preseason coaches' poll, finished the regular season with 18 wins and clinched third place in the America East standings, both the best marks under head coach Sharon Dawley.

BEARCATS FIT TO BE TIED, CLAIM FOURTH SEED

Binghamton not only caught a huge break by being the host and playing on its home court for the upcoming America East Championship, but its season sweep of Vermont helped them come out on top of a three-way fourth-place tie breaker.

PRESEASON POLL: WHERE ARE THEY NOW

With one week left in the regular season, here is where they were picked in the preseason poll compared to where they are now.

School	Preseason	Seed
Hartford	1	1
Stony Brook	2	2
Boston U.	3	5
Binghamton	4	4
New Hampshire	5	9
UMBC	6	7
Maine	7	6
Vermont	8	3
Albany	9	8

HAWKS/SEAWOLVES CONTINUE TO ROLL

Hartford and Stony Brook have broken from the pack and have rolled into the tournament with a lot of momentum. The Hawks extended their league-best 13-game winning streak with wins over Maine and UMBC. All and all, Hartford has won 15-of-16 with its lone defeat coming in a 66-64 overtime loss to Vermont. On the other hand, the Seawolves are 14-2 earning their best-ever mark in conference play with their lone loss coming at the hands of top-seeded Hartford. These two teams are operating on all cylinders, but anything can happen come tournament time.

FORD SECOND-LONGEST STREAK IN NATION

Stony Brook's Mykeema Ford (Trenton, N.J./Cheshire Academy) owns a league-best 38-game double-digit scoring streak, dating back to the February 9, 2006 America East game at Vermont. Ford owns the second-longest streak in the nation behind Courtney Paris of Oklahoma.

BARKER NATION'S BEST FROM THE LINE

Maine's Bracey Barker (Bar Harbor, Maine/Mount Desert Island) leads the nation in free throw percentage. She is shooting 92.7 percent (89-for-96) overall.

RPI UPDATE: FOUR TEAMS ON THE RISE

America East remains locked into the #16 slot in the March 5 version of the Collegiate Basketball News (CBN) women's college basketball ratings percentage index (RPI). Four of the league's nine teams improved its standings from week 10. Hartford continues to rise in the rankings jumping four spots to 40, while Stony Brook is now 77. BVermont rebounded improving by five spots. All and all, five of the nine teams ranked in the top 200.

School	2/26	3/5	Diff.
Vermont	156	151	+5
Hartford	44	40	+4
Stony Brook	81	77	+4
Boston U.	150	147	+3

20/20/20

For the third-straight year, Hartford has won 20 games. Last season, the Hawks posted a program-best 27 wins in the regular season, while they won 22 games in 2004-05.

BARKER CONTINUES STREAK

While Mykeema Ford's streak is very impressive, Maine's Bracey Barker (Bar Harbor, Maine/Mount Desert Island) has quietly scored in double digits in 16 straight games and 23-of-24 games this season. The lone exception was a zero-point performance against Holy Cross, a game she played just three minutes before leaving with a wrist injury. If you eliminate the Holy Cross game, Barker has scored in double figures in 25 straight.

WE'RE STREAKING

While Ford and Barker's streaks are among the best in the nation here is a breakdown of the league's top current double-figure scoring streaks.

G	Player, Team
38	Mykeema Ford, Stony Brook
16	Bracey Barker, Maine
11	Laine Kurpniece, Binghamton
10	Jessica Smith, Stony Brook
6	Sharri Rohde, UMBC

HARTFORD DEFENSE FOURTH NATIONALLY

Hartford continues to rise to the top behind the strength of its defense. The Hawks rank fourth nationally as they are allowing just 52.8 ppg. The Hawks have allowed under 50 points on 13 different occasions this season, including seven times during Hartford's current 13-game win streak.

FORD CRACKS TOP 25 IN SCORING

Stony Brook's Mykeema Ford (Trenton, N.J./Cheshire Academy) recently moved into the top 25 nationally in scoring. The senior guard leads America East and ranks 25th nationally averaging 19.2 ppg.

PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE EARN BILLING

While not much stock usually goes into the preseason all-conference team, this season these players could be among the league's all-conference honorees. With the exception of Erica Beverly (Bridgeport, Conn./Kolbe Cathedral), who missed most of 2006-07 with a season-ending knee injury, the all-conference honorees rank among the league leaders in several categories. These four below have a good shot at collecting some hardware at the end-of-the-year banquet.

Stony Brook's Mykeema Ford (Trenton, N.J./Cheshire Academy) ranks first in scoring (19.2 ppg), fifth in assists (3.93 apg) and is a four-time America East Player of the Week.

Jessica Smith (Bloomington, N.J./Butler) of Stony Brook ranks second in scoring (16.5 ppg), first in rebounding (7.6 rpg) and is also a four-time player of the week honoree.

Hartford's Danielle Hood (Cortlandt Manor, N.Y./Walter Panas) ranks seventh in the conference in scoring (13.3 ppg), fourth in field goal percentage (.498) and recently became the third junior to pass 1,000 points in her career at Hartford.

Binghamton's Laine Kurpniece (Coopersburg Pa./Southern Lehigh) missed five games this season, but has really emerged of late. She's scored in double figures in 11-straight games and ranks 12th in the conference in scoring (11.0 ppg). In addition, she ranks seventh in field goal percentage (.487) and fourth in offensive rebounds (2.50 orgp).

RETRIEVERS SCORING WELL-BALANCED

UMBC is the only team in the America East with four players ranking in the conference's top-20 scoring leaders.

Player	PPG	Rank
Sharri Rohde	13.7	6th
Brittanie Hughes	11.3	11th
Kristin Drabyn	10.4	17th
Amanda Robinson	9.8	18th

SIGNS OF IMPROVEMENT

Maine, Vermont and Albany finished as the bottom three teams last year and struggled to find wins throughout the season. This season all three have matched or surpassed their win totals from the previous season.

Win Totals
School	05-06	06-07	Diff.
Vermont	9	18	+9
Maine	10	13	+3
Albany	7	8	+1

UMBC NOT IN THE GIVING MOOD

The Retrievers have been very protective of the ball this season. They lead America East and rank 17th in the nation in turnovers at 14.4 per game. In addition, they boast a league-best 1.01 assist/turnover ratio.

MAINE SCORING IN THREE'S

Maine leads the league and ranks 13th in the nation in three-point field-goal percentage. The Black Bears are shooting 37.1 percent from downtown anchored by senior Ashley Underwood.

UNDERWOOD FOR THREE, GOOD

Maine's Ashley Underwood (Augusta, Maine/Cony) ranks 12th in the nation in three-point percentage. She is converting on 42.1 percent from downtown. She is more than nine percentage points in front of her closest competition in America East.

2007 FORD SCORER

Stony Brook's Mykeema Ford (Trenton, N.J./Cheshire Academy) has kicked her scoring up a notch since the new year. The senior guard is averaging 22.5 ppg in 2007, which is six points more than her closest competition. In addition, she has led the Seawolves to a 14-2 mark in conference play and is averaging 3.69 apg, which is fifth since the new year.

STONY BROOK'S ONE-TWO SCORING DUO

Stony Brook's Mykeema Ford (Trenton, N.J./Cheshire Academy) and Jessica Smith (Bloomingtondale, N.J./Butler) rank first and second in the league in scoring-respectively. ## HARTFORD EXTENDS HOME STREAK

The Hawks extended their conference home win-streak to 24 games with a win over Maine in the regular season finale. This streak includes Hartford's impressive 6-0 record in the America East Championship over the past two seasons and an 8-0 mark this season.

DEFENSE: A LEAGUE TREND

America East schools have been turning up the heat defensively this season. Three of nine teams are holding opponents under 61.0 points per game-while all nine are under 67.8 ppg allowed. In addition, all nine schools are holding its opponents under 44.4 percent shooting from the floor.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

America East teams have combined for a 55-58 (.491) non-conference record in 2006-07 season. As a whole, conference teams are 9-2 against the Ivy League and have tallied seven wins over the MAAC and six over the Patriot League and Northeast Conference.

TOURNAMENT FRENZY

Earlier this season-Vermont won the URI Invitational and TD Banknorth Classic, Maine captured the Dead River Classic title, UMBC went a perfect 2-0 at the Battle at the Border Tournament-and Boston U. lost to No. 3 Duke in the finals of the Blue Sky Classic.

PLAYING THE FIELD (NCAA STYLE)

America East schools are slated to play 24 of the 64 teams in last year's NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship. Among these teams are Connecticut, Purdue, Duke, Temple, Arizona State and Boston College. Several other teams earned automatic bids by winning their conference championship.
