The Opponent: Albany used the last minute heroics of Amanda Ward's three pointer with 32 seconds to play and a turnover on the Wildcats to advance to the quarterfinals of the America East Championship on Thursday night. The Great Danes were led by Ward's game high 17 points on 5-of-12 shooting (3-of-7 from long range) and a 4-of-4 effort at the free throw line. As a team the Great Danes missed just two free throws in 18 attempts for 88.9 percent. Albany shot 44 percent for the game and Gia Sanders joined ward as the only other player in double figures with 10 points on 4-of-6 shooting and a pair of free throws. Sanders picked up the only post season honor for the Great Danes, named as one of five members of the All-Defensive team. Freshmand Chairty Iromuanya is the reigning Rookie of the Week, earning the final weekly honor of the regular season. Iromuanya finished last night's game with seven points. For the season Kristin Higy leads the team in scoring (10.5 points-per-game) with Ward just behind her at 10.4 ppg.

The Coaches: Hawks Head Coach Jennifer Rizzotti is in her eighth season at the helm of the Hartford women's basketball team and is credited with leading the Hawks to three America East Championships (2002, 2005 & 2006), two-straight regular season conference championships and the programs first ever win in the NCAA Tournament. She is the winningest coach in school history with a 141-96 overall record (.595). The New Fairfield, CT native was an All-American point guard at the University of Connecticut under Hall of Fame head coach Geno Auriemma. Trina Patterson is in her fifth season at the helm of the Great Danes. She holds an overall record of 152-237 (.391) in her 14th year as a head coach. At Albany she has a record of 51-90 (.362). Previous to Albany she was a head coach at William & Mary College where she also began her coaching career in 1988 as an assistant. She has also assisted with the USA Women's Basketball team where she won the gold medal at the R. Williams Jones Cup in 1998. Patterson is 1-3 in America East Tournament play.

Last Time Out: (Baltimore, MD) The Hartford women's basketball team went into the game with one goal on their mind, an out-right regular season championship for the second-straight season and they accomplished that by defeating the UMBC Retrievers 60-56 at the RAC Arena on the UMBC Campus. The Hawks finish the regular season 22-7 overall and 15-1 in conference play, matching the program best for conference wins.

The RAC Arena is always a tough place to play for any opponent and tonight was no different. The Retrievers took a two-point advantage into the halftime break but Hartford battled in the final minutes to guarantee the victory and the regular season championship. The second half featured eight lead changes in the first 10 minutes and six ties in the final 10 minutes, but it was only the final 1:17 that mattered in the end.

With the teams tied at 55 and three minutes to play, neither team could score until a pair of free throws from Diana Delva broke the stale mate with 1:17 to play. The Retrievers would only score a single free throw in the final three minutes with the Hawks connecting on a layup from Ikea Witt (Vineland, N.J.) and three free throws from Delva.

The Hawks were led by Danielle Hood who finished with a team best 15 points on 6-of-13 shooting. She was joined in double figures by MaryLynne Schaefer who finished with 10, including a pair of three pointers. The game is the third-straight for Schaefer in double figures. Hartford finished the game shooting 38.5 percent from the field (20-of-52) and won the battle of the boards, 38-26, with Witt leading the team, matching her career best of nine rebounds.

UMBC took a slim two-point advantage into the break, only the third time in conference play the Hawks have trailed at the half. The Retrievers had a double digit lead in the first half but Hartford wasn't going to let that lead stand. A pair of runs sparked by two three pointers from Courtney Gomez pulled the Hawks within single digits to go into the locker room.

The Hawks Against the America East: All-time against current America East schools, the Hawks hold an overall record of 104-133 (.439) including post season play. That includes the past two season's 15-1 regular season record, which is a school record for regular season conference wins. Four of the current conference schools joined the league in 2001-02 or later and the Hawks hold a record of 33-16 (.673) against those schools (Albany, Binghamton, Stony Brook, and UMBC). Against the remaining four teams (Maine, Boston Univ., New Hampshire, Vermont) the Hawks hold an overall record that is sub-.500, 71-117 (.378). In the DI history of Hawks women's hoops, the team is 154-186 (.453) playing in the America East or under one of its previously known names (North Atlantic or Seaboard Conference).

Rizzotti Against the America East: Since becoming a head coach at the University of Hartford, Rizzotti holds an 91-58 (.611) overall record in America East regular season action. In conference tournament play, Rizzotti holds an overall record of 10-4 (.714), which is tied for the third-best championship coaching record in the history of the America East. Against current America East members (Northeastern moved to the Colonial Athletic league this year), Rizzotti holds an overall record of 79-42 (.653). In her seven seasons at Hartford she has finished .500 or above in regular season conference play in all but one season

Twenty-Twenty Vision: For the third-straight season the Hawks women's basketball team has posted a 20 or more win season, this year guaranteed with the Hawks win at Binghamton. Last year the Hawks set a new program record with 27 wins, breaking the previous record of 22 wins set in 2004-05.

Delva Breaks In: Freshman forward, Diana Delva, has made her appearance onto the conference statistics. She is currently shooting 60.3 percent from the field (70-of-116), and currently holds the number one spot in field goal percentage for conference games at 64.0 percent from the field (55-of-86). She is also the second leading rebounder in conference games, where she is averaging 7.9 rebounds-per-game (6.6 for the season).

Moving on UP: The Hawks continue to climb up the RPI index, which is released weekly by the NCAA. The RPI is used by the NCAA women's basketball committee to help in the selection of the at-large teams as well as for seeding purposes for the NCAA Tournament. Currently the Hawks are 40th in the RPI, as of March 5. This most recent RPI rating is a four position jump for the Hawks who were 44th as of Feb. 18. As a conference, the America East is locked into the 16th overall spot in the conference RPI standing. Four conference teams say a small jump in their RPI ratio over the last week, Vermont (+5), Hartford (+4), Stony Brook (+4) and Boston University (+3).

TV Exposure: The last home game against Maine was the final of three-straight that the Hawks were live on TV. Two of the three were part of the America East TV package. Despite the addition of a coach's show to help promote the excellence of Hartford women's basketball, nothing tells the story better than a live game on TV. By the end of the regular season, the Hawks will have had 13 games on television over the past two seasons. Last year the Hawks were on TV seven times, with a 5-2 record. One of those seven games was the Hawks historic win over Temple which saw the final 30 minutes of the game seen throughout the nation on ESPN. This year the Hawks have six regular season games scheduled for TV. This season, Hartford is 5-1 in TV games (UConn (L), Maine (W), Stony Brook (W), Boston Univ. (W), Binghamton (W) and Maine (W)).

Delva Honored Again: Delva picked up her third conference honor in four weeks when she was named the America East Rookie of the week on Monday, February 19. She finished with 16 points off the bench for the Hawks as they earned their ninth-straight victory with a 60-54 win over Albany. She was a perfect 5-of-5 from the field and 6-of-7 at the charity stripe, while grabbing eight boards. Widely considered one of the league's top sixth-men, she is averaging 10.4 ppg in conference play, is second in conference play in rebounding (7.9 rpg) and is first in the conference in shooting (64.0 percent) during conference games.

Twenty Something's: Even with the Hawks boasting the second best shooting percentage in the conference, only seven times has a player scored 20 or more points in a game, Ikea Witt (twice) against St. John's and Maine, Danielle Hood (four times) at Vermont, against Binghamton, at New Hampshire and against BU, and Diana Delva against Stony Brook. Last season the Hawks had nine 20+ games, eight from Hood and one from Witt. The season best a year ago was a 30 point effort from Hood, the first for a Hartford player to score 30 or more since 2000-01. The season best is Delva's 24 point effort against the Seawolves.

It can be a Numbers Game: If Hartford's defense continues to be strong and the Hawks offense can keep a cushion between 16 and 20 more points than their opponents then, if the numbers have anything to do with it, the Hawks will come out victorious. This season the Hawks are 8-0 when outscoring their opponents by as much as 16 but no more than 20.

Double Trouble: The career of a point guard doesn't always revolve around scoring baskets or grabbing rebounds, but it is always a plus when they can. Hartford's starting point guard, Lisa Etienne, recorded her first career double double at Maine. She finished with 10 points and 10 rebounds while also dishing out six assists and grabbing three steals. Her double double is only the third all season for Hartford with the first two coming from Erica Beverly before her injury. Overall this season the Hawks are 4-0 when at least one player has recorded a double double.

Why Offense Matters: A team's offensive output can make or break a game. Each individual Hartford player can begin to search in those final minutes for the basket or two that puts them over the double figure mark in the scoring column. It matters because this season the Hawks are 14-1 overall when at least three players have double digits in the scoring column.

Stifling Defense: The Hawks can credit a few of their wins this season to their defensive efforts. Hartford is holding their opponents to just 35.2 percent from the field and in conference play that percentage drops to just 33.6. Hartford is ranked as the FOURTH best defense in the country (as of 3/5/07). The most impressive number that relates to the Hawks defense is their record when holding their opponents to 50 points or less and that is an unblemished 15-0. That record includes a game where they held the Columbia lions to just 37 points. The Hawks have forced their opponents into 448 turnovers, an average of 15.4 per-game and have stolen the ball on 184 occasions.

The Magic Numbers - 60 & 50: To date in this young season 60 has been the number to reach for the Hawks. The Hawks are 15-1 when they score 60 or more points and on the flip side are 15-0 when holding their opponents to 50 or less points. The lone loss when the Hawks have reached 60 or more came in the overtime loss at Vermont.

Conference Home Win Streak: The Hawks picked up their 24th-straight win at home over a conference opponent with the most recent home game against Maine. The Hawks have not lost a home conference game since February 19, 2005 when they lost to Maine. The Hawks have also posted an impressive 6-0 record in the conference championship since that loss (the women's championship was held at Hartford for the past five years).

Missing in Action: Tonight's game will be the 22nd without America East Rookie of the Year Erica Beverly who suffered a season ending knee injury in the Hawks 17-point rout of Brigham Young on December 2.

The Ranks Don't Matter: Ranked or not, Coach Rizzotti and the Hartford Hawks play every game as if the opponent is a top-25 team. That strategy paid off in the Hawks December 2nd game, when they recorded a 17 point win over BYU (then ranked 23 in the AP Poll and 22 in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll). The win is only the second over a ranked team in school history and was the first over a ranked opponent at Chase Arena at the Reich Family Pavilion. In fact, BYU was the first ever ranked team to play at Chase Arena. Unfortunately for the Cougars, their rankings for the season came to an end with the loss with the team receiving votes in both polls, but falling out of the top-25.

Turnover Troubles: The Hawks struggled in their first seven games of the season with no less than 16 turnovers a game, averaging just under 18 turnovers in that span. Those struggles were noticed and a correction was put in place as the Hawks averaged just over 12.5 over the next three games. The Hawks averaged 14.1 turnovers in conference play, with a season low of seven against Binghamton.

SOS: One of coach Rizzotti's goals for the 2006-07 season is to improve the quality of opponents the Hawks play, that in turn would improve the Hawks strength of schedule. Last year the Hawks SOS was 113 in the final released poll. The latest look at this seasons' SOS, the Hawks are currently 89th overall as of March 5th on CollegeRPI.com. The Hawks highest showing on the SOS listing was 17th, that came after the Hawks played Connecticut at the end of December. Playing four ranked opponents this season with a win over one is the largest reason behind the Hawks jump in SOS from last season to this year.

1,000 Point Watch: The Hawks are now off of the 1,000 point watch with both players in the hunt surpassing that elite number, the most recent was Danielle Hood against Vermont. The first player this season to surpass 1000 career points was senior Ikea Witt. Both will continue to move up the career scoring lists in a hurry. Witt currently stands fourth overall and Hood with the remainder of this season and all of next season should end her career as the second leading scorer in school history. Witt needs 27 more points to move into a tie for the third position and Hood, currently 10th overall, needs 13 points to tie for ninth overall.

Home Court Advantage (40-2 dating back to 2004-05): With the University completing a major renovation of its athletic fields last spring, the women's basketball team has shown that a home court (or field) is a very loving place. Though the Hawks 20-game home win streak was snapped with the six-point loss to Seton Hall earlier this season, the Hawks are still very comfortable playing at home with a record of 40 wins and only two losses, dating back to the start of the 2004-05 season. Last season the Hawks never fell victim on their home court with a 14-0 final record in Chase Arena. This season the Hawks outscored their opponents by 11 points at home.

The Race to 500: With Witt and Hood surpassing the 1,000 career point mark, both can start looking closely at the race to 500 rebounds. Only 11 players in school history have recorded at least 500 rebounds in their four-year career and of those 11 only five have surpassed both the 1,000 point and 500 rebound level. Witt currently needs 24 rebounds and Hood needs 101 boards to reach the 500 rebound level.

Shooting Gallery: Hartford has had just 11 games this season where they have shot lower than 40 percent as a team. The Hawks are averaging 41.3 percent with a season high of 54.2 (26-of-48) percent against Binghamton (Feb. 71-64). That was one of four games at 50 percent or better with a 30-of-60 effort at Columbia, 25-of-29 against UMass, 22-of-42 at Stony Brook.

Since starting conference play, the Hawks are averaging 41.9 percent. The biggest impact of the Hawks hot shooting is their 4-0 record when shooting 50 percent or better in a game and take that a step lower and Hartford is 15-2 when shooting 40 percent or better.

Individual Shooting Gallery: With the Hawks as a team averaging 41.3 percent shooting, individually three active players are averaging 45 percent or better from the field with Diana Delva leading the way at 60.3 percent (70-of-116). Danielle Hood is second on the team at 49.8 percent (164-329) with Witt in third (128-of-263 for 48.7 percent). Prior to her injury Erica Beverly was among the 50 percent shooters with a season average of 57.8 percent (26-of-45).

Splash: Sophomore guard MaryLynne Schaefer didn't need much time to adjust to collegiate basketball last season, breaking the single season record for three-pointers with 56. This season has been a bit more difficult. After opening the season with four three's against Dartmouth in the Preseason WNIT (using the extended three point line) she went 2-of-17 over the next four outings. She had a break out game at home against UMass with a perfect 4-of-4 effort from beyond the arc and then went 3-of-25 over the next three games. In conference play she is 25-of-81 for an average of 30.9 percent. No matter what her percentage is, she still has the green light to fire up a three pointer any time she has the open shot.

Don't Even Think About it Cowboy!!: Freshman forward/center Diana Delva and junior forward/center Danielle Hood will be tough to score against this season. In the Hawks preseason exhibition Delva put on a blocking clinic with four against a group of former collegiate players, including a surprise smack down of UConn standout Maria Conlon from behind. So far this season, Delva leads the team with 27 blocks, while Hood has added 21. Katie Kelley has joined the blocking ranks as a third player with double digits blocks (14). As a team the Hawks have had eight games with four or more blocks including seven smack downs on two occasions, against Manhattan and UMass.

How the Starters Fare: Head coach Jen Rizzotti made only two adjustments to the starting five last season. But based on an injury to forward Erica Beverly against BYU she was forced to change her starting lineup for the first time this season. Beverly went down with an injury to her left knee and will miss the remainder of the season. With that in mind, Rizzotti will look for sophomore Katie Kelley to step up with a starting position. The second change in the starting line-up came as Katie Kelley received some much needed rest from a stress injury in her ankle.

2006-07 Starting Line ups:

|  |      |
|--|------|
| Hood, Beverly, Witt, Schaefer, Etienne | 5-3  |
| Hood, Kelley, Witt, Schaefer, Etienne  | 14-4 |
| Hood, Matulis, Witt, Schaefer, Etienne | 2-0  |
| Hood, Matulis, Witt, DiDonato, Etienne | 1-0  |

Rizzotti Inks Four to NLI's: Only two weeks into the new season, Head Coach Jennifer Rizzotti has already finished recruiting for next year. The eighth year coach signed four players to join Hartford as the class of 2011; a 5-11 forward Jonyce Hollins (East Orange, N.J.), a 5-11 guard Mary Silva (Reading, Mass.), a 5-9 point guard Jackie Smith (Westfield, Mass.) and a 6-1 guard Amanda Weaver (York, Pa.). "We're very excited to bring these four players into our program. They compliment each other well and they will add to our depth on the perimeter." said Rizzotti.

Jennifer Rizzotti

Head Coach Connecticut '96 Eighth Season

Head Coach Jennifer Rizzotti has built the women's basketball program into an America East power in just seven years, winning three conference championships over the past five years and making three trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Most recently she led the Hawks to the program's first-ever victory in the NCAA Tournament. Hartford defeated 19th-ranked Temple in the opening round and advanced to face Georgia in the round of 32. The win over Temple was the first in school history against a nationally ranked opponent.

Hartford finished the season with a 27-4 record, setting a school record for overall wins and conference victories (15). The team also reeled off a school-best 15-game winning streak during the regular season. After earning the school's first ever regular season title, the Hawks captured their second-straight America East Championship in front of a home crowd in West Hartford, CT.

Rizzotti was named America East Coach of the Year in a vote of her peers, only the second time the honor has been given to a Hartford women's basketball coach. Also receiving top honors after the regular season was senior Erika Messam and freshman Erica Beverly. Messam became the first player in school history to be tabbed America East Player of the Year, while Beverly earned Rookie of the Year honors, also a first in school history.

Rizzotti, who is the winningest coach in school history, earned her 100th career victory in a December match-up with Seton Hall. She is only the fourth Hartford coach – men's or women's – to reach that milestone.

Under her watch, the team also earned its first-ever votes in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll during the 2003-04 season and the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll during the 2005-06 season. Hartford received 10 votes, the most ever, in the final poll last season after winning its second-straight America East title and first ever NCAA Tournament game.

Rizzotti's coaching excellence has not gone unnoticed at the national level. During this past summer, Rizzotti joined fellow Division I coaches Doug Bruno (DePaul) and Carroll Owens (Northern Illinois) to coach the USA U-18 National Team. With the USA team, Rizzotti won a gold medal at the 2006 FIBA World Championships held in Colorado Springs at the US Olympic Training Facility.

She was named the seventh coach in University of Hartford women's basketball history on Sept. 17, 1999. Just 12 days earlier, Rizzotti had celebrated with her Houston Comets teammates after defeating the New York Liberty for the WNBA championship. At the time of her appointment, she was the youngest Division I women's basketball coach in the country.

Rizzotti played eight seasons of professional basketball following her graduation from the University of Connecticut in 1996. In addition to five seasons in the WNBA - two with the Houston Comets and three with the Cleveland Rockers - she competed for three seasons with the New England Blizzard in the American Basketball League. In the ABL she was a two-time All-Star. While proving to be a star at the professional level, the Hawks coach truly made her mark on the basketball world during her memorable career at the University of Connecticut.

During her collegiate career, Rizzotti averaged 11.4 points and totaled 637 assists and 349 steals. She set the UConn season and career records in both of those categories.

In September 2003, Rizzotti was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame based on her outstanding accolades as both a collegiate and professional athlete.
