The 29 points were one off a career-high, while the five steals were a new personal best ... Blakely went 12-for-16 from the floor, including seven dunks ... Freshman Joey Accaoui (Lincoln, R.I./St. Andrew's) went for a career-high 10 points on 4-for-6 shooting from the floor ... The Catamounts shot 63.3 percent (19-30) from the floor in the second half ... UVM used its seventh different starting line-up this season ... Sophomore Nick Vier (Franklin Lakes, N.J./Bergen Catholic) matched a career-high with seven assists ... Winners of two straight, the Cats have two league games this week starting with a home contest against Stony Brook on Monday (7 p.m.) and then travel to face Boston University on Friday at 9 p.m. in a game that will be televised on ESPNU.

LEAGUE HISTORY

To see how far America East has progressed, consider the conference was established in 1979 as the ECAC North. The conference at that time consisted of 10 institutions and sponsored league competition only in men's basketball, with the champion receiving an automatic bid to the NCAA Championship.

Men's basketball remained the lone league sport until the 1988-89 academic year. At that time, the conference's Board of Directors made a new commitment to an all-sports association, creating the North Atlantic Conference by establishing an office, hiring a full-time commissioner, and embarking on a building program.

The North Atlantic Conference merged with the Seaboard Conference (the league in which Boston University, Hartford, Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont, among others, competed in women's basketball) in 1989 and the NAC looked to establish conference championships in several men's and women's sports.

The conference changed its name to America East prior to the 1996-97 academic year and moved the conference headquarters to downtown Boston in 1997.

In 2005, America East hired Patrick Nero, most recently the Director of Athletics at Maine, as the conference's third commissioner.

In July of 2007, the conference office relocated to Cambridge, Mass. near Kendall Square.
