The victory was also the just the second for the Seawolves in 15 meetings with UVM ... Trailing by two with eight seconds remaining, Michael Tyree's three-pointer was just off the mark as the Stony Brook men's basketball team rallied from a 10-point second-half deficit but fell short, losing to the Hartford Hawks 53-51 on Thursday night at Stony Brook Arena. Tyree, the America East Co-Player of the Game, led the Seawolves with 13 points while Emanuel Neto added 12 points and seven rebounds.

LEAGUE HISTORY

To see how far America East has progressed, consider the conference was established in 1979 as the ECAC North. The conference at that time consisted of 10 institutions and sponsored league competition only in men's basketball, with the champion receiving an automatic bid to the NCAA Championship.

Men's basketball remained the lone league sport until the 1988-89 academic year. At that time, the conference's Board of Directors made a new commitment to an all-sports association, creating the North Atlantic Conference by establishing an office, hiring a full-time commissioner, and embarking on a building program.

The North Atlantic Conference merged with the Seaboard Conference (the league in which Boston University, Hartford, Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont, among others, competed in women's basketball) in 1989 and the NAC looked to establish conference championships in several men's and women's sports.

The conference changed its name to America East prior to the 1996-97 academic year and moved the conference headquarters to downtown Boston in 1997.

In 2005, America East hired Patrick Nero, most recently the Director of Athletics at Maine, as the conference's third commissioner.

In July of 2007, the conference office relocated to Cambridge, Mass. near Kendall Square.
