Lucas scored 24 points but it wasn't enough as the New Hampshire Wildcats hit 15 three-pointers on its way to a 74-67 victory over the Seawolves on Wednesday night at Lundholm Gymnasium ... Lucas was terrific for Stony Brook, knocking down five triples in 10 attempts in addition to grabbing five rebounds. Beauford added 14 points for the Seawolves while Emanuel Neto (Luanda, Angola/Colegio Henriques/San Jacinto College) tallied nine points and eight rebounds.

VERMONT CATAMOUNTS

Vermont (14-13, America East 8-6) went 2-0 on the week with a home victory over Hartford on Wednesday (94-82) and a road win in non-conference action on Saturday at UNC-Wilmington (84-73) ... Sophomore Marqus Blakely (Metuchen, N.J./Metuchen) tied a career high with 30 points and set a new personal best with 20 rebounds to lead the Catamounts over Hartford ... Blakely became only the second player in the nation this season to record at least 30 points and 20 rebounds in the same game this year (Michael Beasley - Kansas State) ... Four Cats reached double figures as they snapped a three-game losing streak ... Freshman Joey Accaoui (Lincoln, R.I./St. Andrews) went for career highs of 14 points and five rebounds ... The 94 points for Vermont are the most since it scored 101 at Quinipiac on December 23 of last season ... On Saturday Blakely was at it again with a 19 points and 19 rebounds to lead five Cats in double figures against the Seahawks ... Vermont has now won five of its last six road games ... UNCW had won four straight before Saturday and was 11-2 at home this year ... The Cats had to bus to Wilmington after inclement weather in the region cancelled their scheduled flight, leading them on a 19 hour bus trip ... Vermont returns to America East action on Thursday when the Cats travel to face New Hampshire (7 p.m.) and then hosts Maine on Sunday (1 p.m.) in the regular-season finale.

FAN CENTRAL DEBUTS

Make the most of your 2008 America East Men's Basketball Championship experience with AmericaEast.com's Fan Central. A subsidiary site of the conference's official site, Fan Central is dedicated to teaching fans the ins-and-outs of traveling to Binghamton, the site of 2008 Men's Championship. Fan Central will be your source for the most recent information regarding the championship and much more.

LEAGUE HISTORY

To see how far America East has progressed, consider the conference was established in 1979 as the ECAC North. The conference at that time consisted of 10 institutions and sponsored league competition only in men's basketball, with the champion receiving an automatic bid to the NCAA Championship.

Men's basketball remained the lone league sport until the 1988-89 academic year. At that time, the conference's Board of Directors made a new commitment to an all-sports association, creating the North Atlantic Conference by establishing an office, hiring a full-time commissioner, and embarking on a building program.

The North Atlantic Conference merged with the Seaboard Conference (the league in which Boston University, Hartford, Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont, among others, competed in women's basketball) in 1989 and the NAC looked to establish conference championships in several men's and women's sports.

The conference changed its name to America East prior to the 1996-97 academic year and moved the conference headquarters to downtown Boston in 1997.

In 2005, America East hired Patrick Nero, most recently the Director of Athletics at Maine, as the conference's third commissioner.

In July of 2007, the conference office relocated to Cambridge, Mass. near Kendall Square.
