ANOTHER SEASON TIPS OFF

The 2011-12 basketball season, America East's 33rd, got underway on Friday. Eight of the league's nine teams tipped off with New Hampshire and Stony Brook earning wins. The Wildcats, who have won four straight season openers, and the Seawolves were joined by Binghamton, Boston U. and UMBC as teams with home openers last week. UMaine, the lone team that did not begin play over the weekend, starts its season tonight against Maine-Machias.

BOSTON U. RAISES BANNER

Before kicking off its 2011-12 season, Boston University raised its 2010-11 banner to the rafters of Case Gym prior to its opener on Friday against Northeastern. The Terriers won their sixth America East Championship, the second-most in league history, and first since 2002 last season.

IMPRESSIVE DEBUTS ALL AROUND

A handful of new players had impressive debuts for their teams, none more than Binghamton's Ben Dickinson. Tabbed the America East Rookie of the Week, Dickinson set a program record for points in a debut by a freshman, scoring 27 to with seven rebounds in the Bearcats' opener Saturday. Another freshman, Vermont's Four McGlynn, nearly led the Catamounts to a win at South Florida Saturday. He contributed 17 points on 6-of-9 shooting off the bench in the 61-59 defeat. Albany's Gerardo Suero, a junior transfer, picked up where he left off on the team's summer Canadian trip on which he averaged 18.5 points over five games. He had 17 points and six rebounds in the Great Danes' opener at #10/11 Pittsburgh on Friday.

FANS COME OUT FOR OPENERS

Five America East teams had their home openers over the weekend, which drew an average of 2,238. Two schools, Binghamton and Boston U., set attendance records. The 4,780 fans to enter the Events Center set a new standard for a season opener while the 1,875 fans at Case Gym set a new facility record.

STREAKING TO START SEASON

A pair of teams have made a habit of winning on opening day. New Hampshire extended its streak to four years with a win over Suffolk on Friday. The Wildcats also grew its streak of winning its home opener to six. Maine is going for its fourth straight win to start a season when Maine Presque Isle visits Orono on Monday.

BACK AND BETTER THAN EVER

Two former America East all-conference players returned to the court after missing significant time last season. New Hampshire's Alvin Abreu, a second-team all-league choice in 2009-10, played in just four games last year before tearing his ACL. He returned to the lineup on Friday and didn't miss a beat, scoring 19 points on 8-of-14 shooting. Abreu, a senior guard, also contributed four steals, three rebounds and two assists. Also back in action was Stony Brook's Tommy Brenton, also a second-team all-leaguer in 2009-10, who missed all of last season with an injury. The league's leading rebounder as a sophomore, the junior forward nearly had a triple double in the Seawolves' win over Mount Ida Sunday as he contributed 11 points, 13 rebounds and eight assists.

ALPHABET SOUP: AE AND THE BCS

America East has had eight wins over a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) conference school since 2008. Maine beat Penn State last season, which was the league's second against a Big Ten program in as many seasons. Boston U. downed Indiana in 2009 and also knocked off Oregon St. of the Pac 10 in the College Basketball Invitational that season.

IT'S TOURNAMENT TIME

Three America East teams, Albany, Boston U. and Vermont, are participating in early season tournaments. The Great Danes are playing four games as part of the Dick's Sporting Goods NIT Season Tip-Off and open with Brown in the Syracuse Regional on Monday. The winner of that game will play either Syracuse or Manhattan on Tuesday on ESPN3. Albany will play two more games as part of the tournament next week. Boston U. is playing the Legends Classic and opened with a loss at Texas Sunday. The Terriers play three more games as part of the Classic Nov. 25-27 and will face Cleveland State, Hofstra and Rhode Island in Kingston, R.I. Vermont is playing two games as part of the Hall of Fame Tip-Off at Mohegan Sun and will face Marist in their opener Saturday.

NEW FACES ON THE BENCH

America East welcomes two new head coaches to the fold in 2011-12. Former Columbia head coach Joe Jones was named Pat Chambers' successor after he went to Penn State and John Becker was promoted at Vermont after Mike Lonergan took the George Washington position. Jones, who got his coaching start in America East as an assistant at Hofstra was most recently Associate head coach at Boston College, while Becker has spent the last five years as an assistant for the Catamounts.

ALL-CONFERENCE RETURNERS

Seven of the 15 players who earned all-conference recognition last season return for 2011-12, including four of the league's top 10 scorers. Additionally, two others who earned second-team recognition in 2009-10, New Hampshire's Alvin Abreu and Stony Brook's Tommy Brenton return after missing last season with injuries. Senior Darryl Partin, who helped Boston U. win its first conference title since 2002 last year, is the lone first-team all-league returnee. He ranked seventh among league leaders averaging 14.6 points per game last season. UMBC's Chris De La Rosa is the conference's top returning scorer. He averaged 15.5 points per game last season and also handed out a league-best 6.0 assists per game.

FOUR ALL-LEAGUERS ON PRESEASON TEAM

Four returning All-America East selections from last season and the league's reigning Rookie of the Year highlight the 2011-12 America East Preseason All-Conference Team. Boston University's Darryl Partin (Seattle, Wash.), a first-team all-conference selection last year, headlines the group. He is joined by a trio of 2010-11 second-team all-league honorees in University of Maine's Gerald McLemore (San Diego, Calif.), UMBC's Chris De La Rosa (Washington Heights, N.Y.) and Stony Brook University's Bryan Dougher (Scotch Plains, N.J.). University of Vermont's Brian Voelkel (Pleasantville, N.Y.), last year's America East Rookie of the Year, rounds out the five-man squad.

POSTSEASON PLURALITY

America East will look to keep up its recent track record of sending multiple teams to the postseason in 2011-12. Last year, the conference had multiple teams playing into the middle of March (Boston U. - NCAA, Vermont - NIT) for the third straight year and seventh in the last nine. In total, 17 teams have reached the postseason since 2003, including three in both 2005 (Boston U., Northeastern, Vermont) and 2010 (Boston U., Stony Brook, Vermont).

FIVE OF A KIND

Dynasties have been an important part of the history of America East basketball. Eight teams, including six different schools, have won consecutive league titles and of those, three (Drexel, Northeastern and Vermont) have won three in a row. However, parity has hit the league of late as five different teams have won the last five America East titles, the only such stretch in the league's 32 year history.

MAKING A MARK ON DEFENSE

Several America East teams hope to pick up where they left off last year on the defensive end of the court. Six teams held opponents under 65 points per game last season and ranked in the top-70 nationally in scoring defense. Stony Brook led the charge, ranking 15th by holding foes to just 60.4 points per game, while New Hampshire followed closely behind in 18th (60.9 ppg). The Seawolves were even better in field goal percentage defense, holding opponents to 39 percent shooting, which ranked ninth nationally. Four other schools ranked in the top-65, including Vermont (10th - 39.2 percent) and Boston U. (23rd 0.39.9 percent), which both held foes under 40 percent.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

The season officially gets underway November 11 with eight of the nine teams opening their seasons this weekend, including Boston University which will raise its 2010-11 America East championship banner prior to its game against Northeastern. Conference play will begin just after the new year on January 2 and the conference tournament will return to the University of Hartford on March 1-4 with the league title game taking place on March 10 at 11 a.m. on ESPN 2.

BACK FROM INJURY

A trio of players who played important roles on their teams in 2009-10 return this season after missing all or most of last season. Stony Brook's Tommy Brenton, a second-team all-conference performer and all-defensive choice two years ago, is back after missing all of last year with a knee injury. Brenton, the league's active leading rebounder (577) despite having played just two seasons, led America East with 9.7 boards per game to go with 7.6 points, 2.7 assists and 1.8 steals two years ago. New Hampshire's Alvin Abreu is back for a fifth season. The former second-team all-league choice (2009-10) played in just four games last season before going down with a knee injury. He ranked eighth among scoring leaders as junior, averaging 14.4 points per game. Abreu's teammate Ferg Myrick averaged 12.1 points and 4.1 rebounds per game, before missing the last 16 games of the year with a knee injury. Hartford will get senior point guard Andres Torres back. Torres, who redshirted last season with an injury, averaged 6.7 points and 4.4 assists in 2009-10.

ALL NINE IN BRACKETBUSTERS

For the first time in league history, all nine teams will participate in Sears BracketBusters, ESPN's three-day men's college basketball event pitting potential NCAA Championship hopefuls against each other. The event, which will feature 13 televised contests on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or ESPN3, will take place Feb. 17-19 with the matchups being announced Jan. 30. Albany, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont will serve as home teams for the event, while Binghamton, Boston University, Hartford, UMBC and Stony Brook will be on the road. America East teams have appeared on national television as part of the event in five of the last seven years, including Vermont last year.

BACK TO HARTFORD

For the third straight season, University of Hartford will be the host of the America East Men's and Women's Basketball Championships. The tournament, which will be combined for the third straight season, will be held on March 1-4, 2012 at Chase Arena at the Reich Family Pavilion on University of Hartford's campus. The first, quarterfinal and semifinal rounds for both the men and women will be held at the combined tournament, while the title games will again both be held the following weekend at the site of the highest seeds remaining.

NEW COMMISSIONER ON BOARD

Amy Huchthausen was named the conference's fourth commissioner on September 29. A former assistant commissioner at America East, Huchthausen returns after spending four years as Director of Academic and Membership Services at the NCAA working primarily with Division III's strategic branding team. She's also worked in three other Division I conference offices, including the Big East, Ivy League and Missouri Valley Conference.
