OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER

America East touts three of the top scorers in the nation. In fact, the conference is the only league with multiple players ranked among the nations top 10 scoring leaders and the only one with three players in the top 20 (as of 12/12/11). Boston University's Darryl Partin leads America East and ranks fifth nationally averaging 22.7 points per game. Maine's Gerald McLemore ranks eighth nationally as he's scoring 22.0 points per game. Albany's Gerardo Suero comes in at 17th in the nation, scoring 20.9 points per game.

The junior transfer earned America East Player of the Week honors for the second time Monday. Three-time America East Rookie of the Week Justin Edwards has scored 20-plus points in five of his seven games and ranks fourth among America East leaders averaging 17.9 points per game. He's also 10th in rebounding (5.9 rpg), leads the conference in steals (3.1 spg) and is tied for third in blocks (1.1 bpg). Binghamton's Ben Dickinson is one of just three players to rank in the conference's top 10 in both scoring (5th - 15.0 ppg) and rebounding (17th - 6.6 rpg). Vermont's Four McGlynn ranks 16th averaging 10.6 points per game.

Ryan Cook scored a team-high 17 points and nailed a pair of free throws with 1:41 left to give his team the lead for good. The win was UMBC's first of the season and snapped a 13-game losing skid that dated back to last year.

TERRIERS PLAY ON ESPN2 TUESDAY

Boston University will play at Villanova on Tuesday night and the game will be nationally televised on ESPN2. ESPN's top NBA team of Mike Breen (play-by-play) and Stan Van Gundy (analyst) will have the call. It will be the first time an America East team has played on the network during the regular season since Binghamton took on Pittsburgh on Nov. 17, 2009. Albany also faced Duke on ESPN2 on Dec. 17, 2007. Of course, the America East championship game has appeared on ESPN2 for the last several seasons.

COACHES' CONFERENCE

Boston U. will be a familiar foe for Villanova's Jay Wright, who coached against Boston U. in America East as Hofstra's coach from 1994-2001. Wright is part of a fraternity of former America East coaches who have excelled at other institutions. Mike Brey (Notre Dame), Jim Calhoun (UConn), Mike Jarvis (Florida Atlantic), Rick Pitino (Louisville) and Jay Wright (Villanova) have combined to win 2,500 games, make 10 Final Four appearances and win four national championships. First-year head coaches Pat Chambers (Penn State) and Mike Lonergan (George Washington) who won the last two America East titles at Boston U. and Vermont, respectively, recently joined the group.

CONFERENCE NOTEBOOK

AMERICA EAST, ESPN DO DEAL

The America East Conference and ESPN announced a new five-year broadcast deal that will significantly increase the league's number of national appearances on the ESPN family of networks on Nov. 28. The agreement will run through the 2015-16 season. The 2011-12 package will include a minimum of 48 national appearances on ESPN platforms, the most in league history. The deal also includes flexibility that could increase that total in future years. As part of the agreement, the conference's men's basketball championship game will air on ESPN2, the 25th straight year the America East title game will air on ESPN or ESPN2. The women's championship game will be distributed to regional sports networks via ESPN Regional Television and also be broadcast on ESPN3, ESPN's multi-screen broadcast channel available through an affiliated internet or video provider online via WatchESPN.com. For the fifth straight year, ESPNU will broadcast a men's regular-season conference game when Stony Brook hosts Boston U. on Jan. 27 in a rematch of last year's America East Championship game. Additionally 11 regular-season basketball games, four postseason contests and the men's lacrosse championship game will be broadcast exclusively on ESPN3, which also includes availability on smartphones and tablets via the WatchESPN app and on ESPN on Xbox LIVE.

CBS SPORTS NETWORK TO AIR FIVE GAMES

The America East Conference and CBS Sports Network announced today a national television package including both men's and women's basketball games, the first such deal in league history. It will be the first time that multiple conference regular-season games will be televised nationally in one season. CBS Sports Network will broadcast five league contests featuring eight America East schools starting in January. America East previously partnered with the Network to televise two men's lacrosse games in 2010, including the conference championship game. The package kicks off with a Martin Luther King, Jr. Day men's matchup between defending league champion Boston University and University at Albany on Jan. 14 at 7 p.m. The two teams were picked first and fourth, respectively, in the conference's preseason poll. Old rivals University of New Hampshire and University of Vermont will meet for the 132nd time in men's action on Jan. 29 at 12 p.m. The Catamounts will then face Stony Brook University in a get together of the league's last two men's regular-season champions on February 12. The preseason favorite on the women's side, UMBC, and 2011 league champion, Hartford, will square off on Feb. 19 at Chase Arena in the first-ever nationally televised conference women's game. The final game of the package will feature University of Maine at Stony Brook in men's action on the final day of the regular season, February 26.

The event, which will feature 13 televised contests on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or ESPN3, will take place Feb. 17-19 with the matchups being announced Jan. 30. For the third straight season, University of Hartford will be the host of the America East Men's and Women's Basketball Championships. The tournament, which will be combined for the third straight season, will be held on March 1-4, 2012 at Chase Arena at the Reich Family Pavilion on University of Hartford's campus. The first, quarterfinal and semifinal rounds for both the men and women will be held at the combined tournament, while the title games will again both be held the following weekend at the site of the highest seeds remaining.

TOURNEY TITLE SPONSOR

At the America East Basketball Tip-Off Luncheon on Oct. 13, Newman's Own, Inc. announced its commitment to the America East Conference as title sponsor of the men's and women's basketball championship, March 1-4, 2012, at the University of Hartford. For the third consecutive year, the Westport, Conn.-based company will promote the popular Newman's Own Thin & Crispy frozen pizza in the Chase Arena at the Reich Family Pavilion. Newman's Own participation in the title sponsorship will include arena signage for Newman's Own Thin & Crispy frozen pizzas; product awareness and trial; AEC website presence; social media engagement; and a continued growth in the awareness of the company's philanthropic mission.

Amy Huchthausen was named the conference's fourth commissioner on September 29. A former assistant commissioner at America East, Huchthausen returns after spending four years as Director of Academic and Membership Services at the NCAA working primarily with Division III's strategic branding team. She's also worked in three other Division I conference offices, including the Big East, Ivy League and Missouri Valley Conference.

TERRIERS AGAIN THE TOP CHOICE

FIVE OF A KIND

Dynasties have been an important part of the history of America East basketball. Eight teams, including six different schools, have won consecutive league titles and of those, three (Drexel, Northeastern and Vermont) have won three in a row. However, parity has hit the league of late as five different teams have won the last five America East titles, the only such stretch in the league's 32 year history. The last five league champions are Albany (2007), UMBC (2008), Binghamton (2009), Vermont (2010) and Boston U. (2011).
