BEATING THE BIG BOYS

Boston University's win over ACC member Boston College on Dec. 3 was America East's eighth over a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) conference school since 2008. Maine beat Penn State out of the Big Ten last season and also knocked off BC in 2010. Boston U. downed Indiana in 2009 and also knocked off Oregon St. of the Pac 12 in the College Basketball Invitational that season. Vermont beat both Colorado, which was then in the Big XII, and Rutgers of the Big East during the 2008-09 campaign while UMBC beat Nebraska (Big XII) that season.

Dec 23: UMBC at #17/18 Indiana, 6p (ESPN3)

UNH GETS DEFENSIVE

As has been a trademark of Bill Herrion's teams since he arrived at UNH in 2005, the Wildcats are one of the top defensive teams in America East. The Wildcats lead the league and rank 43rd nationally holding opponents to 59.9 points per game. Furthermore, UNH has held four of its last five opponents under 60 points and is holding foes to 56.4 games during that stretch.

VERMONT RECOGNIZES GAINES

Vermont retired the jersey number of the late Trevor Gaines prior to its game against Iona Saturday. The all-time great, who wore No. 45, tragically passed away in 2010 at the age of 29 due to a heart condition. He ranks 12th on America East's all-time rebound list with 880 career rebounds and also tallied 1,255 career points.

CONFERENCE PLAY AROUND THE CORNER

League play commences just two weeks from today. The 16-game round-robin schedule kicks off on Jan. 2 with four conference contests. Finishing among the league's top two is crucial for teams with championship aspirations. Only twice in America East's 32 year history has a team finished outside the top two and gone on to win the league title. Delaware captured the crown as the America East Championship's No. 3 seed in 1999 while Holy Cross finished third in the league's inaugural year (1979-80) and went on to win the championship.

COACHES' CONFERENCE

America East has been the starting point for several of the game's top coaches. Mike Brey (Notre Dame), Jim Calhoun (UConn), Mike Jarvis (Florida Atlantic), Rick Pitino (Louisville) and Jay Wright (Villanova) are part of a fraternity of former America East coaches who have excelled at other institutions. The group has combined to win 2,500 games, make 10 Final Four appearances and win four national championships. First-year head coaches Pat Chambers (Penn State) and Mike Lonergan (George Washington) who won the last two America East titles at Boston U. and Vermont, respectively, recently joined the group.

AMERICA EAST, ESPN DO DEAL

The America East Conference and ESPN announced a new five-year broadcast deal that will significantly increase the league's number of national appearances on the ESPN family of networks on Nov. 28. The agreement will run through the 2015-16 season. The 2011-12 package will include a minimum of 48 national appearances on ESPN platforms, the most in league history. The deal also includes flexibility that could increase that total in future years. As part of the agreement, the conference's men's basketball championship game will air on ESPN2, the 25th straight year the America East title game will air on ESPN or ESPN2. The women's championship game will be distributed to regional sports networks via ESPN Regional Television and also be broadcast on ESPN3, ESPN's multi-screen broadcast channel available through an affiliated internet or video provider online via WatchESPN.com. For the fifth straight year, ESPNU will broadcast a men's regular-season conference game when Stony Brook hosts Boston U. on Jan. 27 in a rematch of last year's America East Championship game. Additionally 11 regular-season basketball games, four postseason contests and the men's lacrosse championship game will be broadcast exclusively on ESPN3, which also includes availability on smartphones and tablets via the WatchESPN app and on ESPN on Xbox LIVE.

CBS SPORTS NETWORK TO AIR FIVE GAMES

The America East Conference and CBS Sports Network announced today a national television package including both men's and women's basketball games, the first such deal in league history. It will be the first time that multiple conference regular-season games will be televised nationally in one season. CBS Sports Network will broadcast five league contests featuring eight America East schools starting in January. America East previously partnered with the Network to televise two men's lacrosse games in 2010, including the conference championship game. The package kicks off with a Martin Luther King, Jr. Day men's matchup between defending league champion Boston University and University at Albany on Jan. 14 at 7 p.m. The two teams were picked first and fourth, respectively, in the conference's preseason poll. Old rivals University of New Hampshire and University of Vermont will meet for the 132nd time in men's action on Jan. 29 at 12 p.m. The Catamounts will then face Stony Brook University in a get together of the league's last two men's regular-season champions on February 12. The preseason favorite on the women's side, UMBC, and 2011 league champion, Hartford, will square off on Feb. 19 at Chase Arena in the first-ever nationally televised conference women's game. The final game of the package will feature University of Maine at Stony Brook in men's action on the final day of the regular season, February 26.

The event, which will feature 13 televised contests on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or ESPN3, will take place Feb. 17-19 with the matchups being announced Jan. 30. BACK TO HARTFORD

For the third straight season, University of Hartford will be the host of the America East Men's and Women's Basketball Championships. The tournament, which will be combined for the third straight season, will be held on March 1-4, 2012 at Chase Arena at the Reich Family Pavilion on University of Hartford's campus. The first, quarterfinal and semifinal rounds for both the men and women will be held at the combined tournament, while the title games will again both be held the following weekend at the site of the highest seeds remaining.

TOURNEY TITLE SPONSOR

At the America East Basketball Tip-Off Luncheon on Oct. 13, Newman's Own, Inc. announced its commitment to the America East Conference as title sponsor of the men's and women's basketball championship, March 1-4, 2012, at the University of Hartford. For the third consecutive year, the Westport, Conn.-based company will promote the popular Newman's Own Thin & Crispy frozen pizza in the Chase Arena at the Reich Family Pavilion. Newman's Own participation in the title sponsorship will include arena signage for Newman's Own Thin & Crispy frozen pizzas; product awareness and trial; AEC website presence; social media engagement; and a continued growth in the awareness of the company's philanthropic mission.

NEW COMMISSIONER ON BOARD

Amy Huchthausen was named the conference's fourth commissioner on September 29. A former assistant commissioner at America East, Huchthausen returns after spending four years as Director of Academic and Membership Services at the NCAA working primarily with Division III's strategic branding team. She's also worked in three other Division I conference offices, including the Big East, Ivy League and Missouri Valley Conference.

TERRIERS AGAIN THE TOP CHOICE

For the fifth straight year, Boston University, the reigning America East champion, is the coaches' preseason choice to repeat as champion in 2011-12. The Terriers, who return four starters from last season, including first-team All-America East guard Darryl Partin, garnered six of eight possible first-place votes (coaches were not allowed to vote for their team) and 62 points, followed by last year's runner-up Stony Brook University, which received three first-place votes and 56 points. Dynasties have been an important part of the history of America East basketball. Eight teams, including six different schools, have won consecutive league titles and of those, three (Drexel, Northeastern and Vermont) have won three in a row. However, parity has hit the league of late as five different teams have won the last five America East titles, the only such stretch in the league's 32 year history. The last five league champions are Albany (2007), UMBC (2008), Binghamton (2009), Vermont (2010) and Boston U. (2011).
