2011-12 Preseason Notebook

POSTSEASON PLURALITY

America East will look to keep up its recent track record of sending multiple teams to the postseason in 2011-12. Last year, the conference had multiple teams playing into the middle of March (Boston U. - NCAA, Vermont - NIT) for the third straight year and seventh in the last nine. In total, 17 teams have reached the postseason since 2003, including three in both 2005 (Boston U., Northeastern, Vermont) and 2010 (Boston U., Stony Brook, Vermont).

FIVE OF A KIND

Dynasties have been an important part of the history of America East basketball. Eight teams, including six different schools, have won consecutive league titles and of those, three (Drexel, Northeastern and Vermont) have won three in a row. However, parity has hit the league of late as five different teams have won the last five America East titles, the only such stretch in the league's 32 year history.

Year	School
2011	Boston U.
2010	Vermont
2009	Binghamton

ALL-CONFERENCE RETURNEES

Eight of the 15 players who earned all-conference recognition last season return for 2011-12, including four of the league's top 10 scorers. Additionally, two others who earned second-team recognition in 2009-10, New Hampshire's Alvin Abreu and Stony Brook's Tommy Brenton return after missing last season with injuries. Senior Darryl Partin, who helped Boston U. win its first conference title since 2002 last year, is the lone first-team all-league returnee. He ranked seventh among league leaders averaging 14.6 points per game last season. UMBC's Chris De La Rosa is the conference's top returning scorer. He averaged 15.5 points per game last season and also handed out a league-best 6.0 assists per game.

MAKING A MARK ON DEFENSE

Several America East teams hope to pick up where they left off last year on the defensive end of the court. Six teams held opponents under 65 points per game last season and ranked in the top-70 nationally in scoring defense. Stony Brook led the charge, ranking 15th by holding foes to just 60.4 points per game, while New Hampshire followed closely behind in 18th (60.9 papg). The Seawolves were even better in field goal percentage defense, holding opponents to 39 percent shooting, which ranked ninth nationally. Four other schools ranked in the top-65, including Vermont (10th - 39.2 percent) and Boston U. (23rd 0 39.9 percent), which both held foes under 40 percent.

BACK FROM INJURY

A trio of players who played important roles on their teams in 2009-10 return this season after missing all or most of last season. Stony Brook's Tommy Brenton, a second-team all-conference performer and all-defensive choice two years ago, is back after missing all of last year with a knee injury. Brenton, the league's active leading rebounder (577) despite having played just two seasons, led America East with 9.7 boards per game to go with 7.6 points, 2.7 assists and 1.8 steals two years ago. New Hampshire's Alvin Abreu is back for a fifth season. The former second-team all-league choice (2009-10) played in just four games last season before going down with a knee injury. He ranked eighth among scoring leaders as junior, averaging 14.4 points per game. Abreu's teammate Ferg Myrick averaged 12.1 points and 4.1 rebounds per game, before missing the last 16 games of the year with a knee injury. Hartford will get senior point guard Andres Torres back. Torres, who redshirted last season with an injury, averaged 6.7 points and 4.4 assists in 2009-10.

The season officially gets underway November 12 with all nine teams opening their seasons that weekend, while league play will begin just after the new year on Jan. 2 and the conference tournament will return to the University of Hartford on March 1-4 with the league title game taking place on March 10 at 11 a.m. on ESPN 2.

> Albany is the only America East team to return multiple 2010-11 all-conference honorees. Juniors Logan Aronhalt (14.6 ppg) and Mike Black (12.3 ppg), both third-team choices, are the league's top returning scoring tandem after averaging a combined 26.9 points per game last season and ranking fifth and 14th among league leaders, respectively.

> Albany went 4-1 on its preseason trip to Canada August 19-25 despite playing without Luke Devlin, an America East all-rookie choice last year, and John Puk, who started 27 games last year. Aronhalt led the way averaging 23.0 points in the five games while junior college transfer Gerardo Suero put in 18.4 points per game.

SEASON OUTLOOK

> Binghamton brings back seven letterwinners and three starters from last year's team, including senior center Kyrie Sutton, who is just one of three returnees that ranked in the league's top-20 in rebounding (20th - 4.1 rpg) and top-10 in blocked shots (6th - 0.9 bpg) last season.

> Jimmy Gray, a Binghamton native, is the team's top returning scorer. He averaged 6.5 points and 1.8 assists last season and upped those averages to 8.1 points and 2.3 assists in conference play.

> Head coach Mark Macon begins his third season at the helm of the Bearcats. In February, he signed a two-year extension and had the interim tagged removed.

> Binghamton is 23-11 at its Events Center over the last three seasons and led the league in attendance for the eighth straight year, averaging 3,478 fans per game in 2010-11.

SEASON OUTLOOK

> The Hawks will need to replace 81.8 percent of their scoring output from a year ago after losing four of their top five scorers from a team that reached the semifinals of the America East Championship.

> Senior guard Andres Torres will provide a much needed veteran presence to a team that will have seven newcomers. Torres, who redshirted last season with an injury, averaged 6.7 points and 4.4 assists in 2009-10.

> Senior forward Genesis Maciel will be looked to fill the offensive void. The team's top returning scorer (8.0 ppg), Maciel averaged 16.0 points in two America East tournament games to earn All-Championship honors.

> Hartford's pressure defense caused havoc for its opponents last season. The Hawks led America East and ranked 11th nationally with a 3.8 turnover margin and also were 46th nationally with 7.9 steals per game.

SEASON OUTLOOK

> After winning just nine games over the last two seasons, UMBC will lean on its six returning letterwinners to turn things around.

> Leading the Retrievers will be the league's top returning scorer, senior point guard Chris De La Rosa, a second-team all-conference selection who averaged 15.5 points per game last season.

> De La Rosa also led America East in assists for the second straight year, dishing out 6.0 dimes per game. It's the fifth straight year a Retriever has led the conference in assists, the first time in league history a player from the same team has led the conference in that category.

> Sophomore Chase Plummer provided a spark off the bench during his rookie season, averaging 6.7 points, 3.7 rebounds and 1.0 steals, and will likely step into the starting lineup this year.
