AMERICA EAST NEED TO KNOW

- Protecting home court has been important early on in conference play. The top five teams in the league standings: Stony Brook (6-1), Boston U. (6-1), Vermont (6-2), Albany (4-3) and Hartford (4-3) are a combined 15-2 at home during conference play.
- America East has two of the nation's top scorers in Albany's Gerardo Suero and Boston University's Darryl Partin. Suero (21.3 ppg) is fourth in the country while Boston University's Darryl Partin is 16th (20.0 ppg).
- There is a youth movement in America East. No teams regularly start more than two seniors while Albany and Binghamton are two of nine Division I programs without a senior on its roster and Hartford gets over 60 percent of its scoring from freshmen. Additionally, eight of the league's top 20 scorers are freshmen or sophomores, led by Maine's Justin Edwards, who ranks fifth (15.2 ppg), and who is also sixth in rebounding (6.2 rpg).

Additionally, eight of the league's top 20 scorers are freshmen or sophomores, led by Maine's Justin Edwards, who ranks fifth (15.2 ppg), and who is also sixth in rebounding (6.2 rpg).

CONFERENCE NOTEBOOK

BEATING THE BIG BOYS

Boston University's win over ACC member Boston College on Dec. 3 was America East's eighth over a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) conference school since 2008. Maine beat Penn State out of the Big Ten last season and also knocked off BC in 2010. Boston U. downed Indiana in 2009 and also knocked off Oregon St. of the Pac 12 in the College Basketball Invitational that season. Vermont beat both Colorado, which was then in the Big XII, and Rutgers of the Big East during the 2008-09 campaign while UMBC beat Nebraska (Big XII) that season.

COACHES' CONFERENCE

America East has been the starting point for several of the game's top coaches. Mike Brey (Notre Dame), Jim Calhoun (UConn), Mike Jarvis (Florida Atlantic), Rick Pitino (Louisville) and Jay Wright (Villanova) are part of a fraternity of former America East coaches who have excelled at other institutions. The group has combined to win 2,500 games, make 10 Final Four appearances and win four national championships. First-year head coaches Pat Chambers (Penn State) and Mike Lonergan (George Washington) who won the last two America East titles at Boston U. and Vermont, respectively, recently joined the group.

ALL NINE IN BRACKETBUSTERS

For the first time in league history, all nine teams will participate in Sears BracketBusters, ESPN's three-day men's college basketball event pitting potential NCAA Championship hopefuls against each other. The event, which will feature 13 televised contests on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or ESPN3, will take place Feb. 17-19 with the matchups being announced Jan. 30. Albany, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont will serve as home teams for the event, while Binghamton, Boston University, Hartford, UMBC and Stony Brook will be on the road. America East teams have appeared on national television as part of the event in five of the last seven years, including Vermont last year.

CONFERENCE POSITION CRUCIAL

Finishing among the league's top two is paramount for teams with championship aspirations. Only twice in America East's 32 year history has a team finished outside the top two and gone on to win the league title. Delaware captured the crown as the No. 3 seed in 1999 while Holy Cross finished third in the league's inaugural year (1979-80) and went on to win the championship. MORE.

AMERICA EAST, ESPN DO DEAL

The America East Conference and ESPN announced a new five-year broadcast deal that will significantly increase the league's number of national appearances on the ESPN family of networks on Nov. 28. The agreement will run through the 2015-16 season. The 2011-12 package will include a minimum of 48 national appearances on ESPN platforms, the most in league history. The deal also includes flexibility that could increase that total in future years. As part of the agreement, the conference's men's basketball championship game will air on ESPN2, the 25th straight year the America East title game will air on ESPN or ESPN2. The women's championship game will be distributed to regional sports networks via ESPN Regional Television and also be broadcast on ESPN3, ESPN's multi-screen broadcast channel available through an affiliated internet or video provider online via WatchESPN.com. For the fifth straight year, ESPNU will broadcast a men's regular-season conference game when Stony Brook hosts Boston U. on Jan. 27 in a rematch of last year's America East Championship game. Additionally 11 regular-season basketball games, four postseason contests and the men's lacrosse championship game will be broadcast exclusively on ESPN3, which also includes availability on smartphones and tablets via the WatchESPN app and on ESPN on Xbox LIVE.

CBS SPORTS NETWORK TO AIR FIVE GAMES

America East's CBS Sports Network package kicks off Monday, Jan. 16 when Albany visits Boston U. It will be the first time that multiple conference regular-season games will be televised nationally in one season. CBS Sports Network will broadcast five league contests featuring eight America East schools starting in January. America East previously partnered with the Network to televise two men's lacrosse games in 2010, including the conference championship game. The package kicks off with a Martin Luther King, Jr. Day men's matchup between defending league champion Boston University and University at Albany on Jan. 14 at 7 p.m. The two teams were picked first and fourth, respectively, in the conference's preseason poll. Old rivals University of New Hampshire and University of Vermont will meet for the 132nd time in men's action on Jan. 29 at 12 p.m. The Catamounts will then face Stony Brook University in a get together of the league's last two men's regular-season champions on February 12. The preseason favorite on the women's side, UMBC, and 2011 league champion, Hartford, will square off on Feb. 19 at Chase Arena in the first-ever nationally televised conference women's game. The final game of the package will feature University of Maine at Stony Brook in men's action on the final day of the regular season, February 26.

POSTSEASON PLURALITY

America East will look to keep up its recent track record of sending multiple teams to the postseason in 2011-12. Last year, the conference had multiple teams playing into the middle of March (Boston U. - NCAA, Vermont - NIT) for the third straight year and seventh in the last nine. In total, 17 teams have reached the postseason since 2003, including three in both 2005 (Boston U., Northeastern, Vermont) and 2010 (Boston U., Stony Brook, Vermont).

BACK TO HARTFORD

For the third straight season, University of Hartford will be the host of the America East Men's and Women's Basketball Championships. The tournament, which will be combined for the third straight season, will be held on March 1-4, 2012 at Chase Arena at the Reich Family Pavilion on University of Hartford's campus. The first, quarterfinal and semifinal rounds for both the men and women will be held at the combined tournament, while the title games will again both be held the following weekend at the site of the highest seeds remaining.

WILL SOMEONE BE THE SIXTH?

Dynasties have been an important part of the history of America East basketball, just not lately. Parity has hit the league as five different teams have won the last five America East titles, the only such stretch in the league's 32 year history. The last five league champions are Albany (2007), UMBC (2008), Binghamton (2009), Vermont (2010) and Boston U. (2011). Eight teams, including six different schools, have won consecutive league titles and of those, three (Drexel, Northeastern and Vermont) have won three in a row.

TOURNEY TITLE SPONSOR

At the America East Basketball Tip-Off Luncheon on Oct. 13, Newman's Own, Inc. announced its commitment to the America East Conference as title sponsor of the men's and women's basketball championship, March 1-4, 2012, at the University of Hartford. For the third consecutive year, the Westport, Conn.-based company will promote the popular Newman's Own Thin & Crispy frozen pizza in the Chase Arena at the Reich Family Pavilion. Newman's Own participation in the title sponsorship will include arena signage for Newman's Own Thin & Crispy frozen pizzas; product awareness and trial; AEC website presence; social media engagement; and a continued growth in the awareness of the company's philanthropic mission.

NEW COMMISSIONER ON BOARD

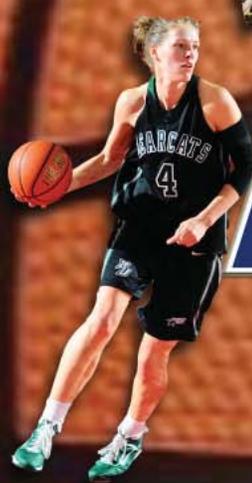

Amy Huchthausen was named the league's fourth commissioner on September 29. A former assistant commissioner at America East, Huchthausen returns after spending four years as Director of Academic and Membership Services at the NCAA working primarily with Division III's strategic branding team. She's also worked in three other Division I conference offices, including the Big East, Ivy League and Missouri Valley Conference.
