PLAYER OF THE WEEK

University of New Hampshire junior Morgan Frame (Waterville, Maine/Waterville) paced the Wildcats to two wins last week which inched them closer to the top of the America East standings. Frame averaged 17 points, nine rebounds and 3.5 assists per game against Maine and UMBC, while going 12-of-24 from the field and 10-of-15 from the charity stripe. She was the driving force behind UNH's win over UMBC, avenging a loss to the Retrievers in the conference opener, recording a game-high 27 points and 10 rebounds. In her fourth double-double performance of the season, Frame went 11-of-17 from the floor and added three assists. She scored 14 second-half points, including a tough layup with 44 seconds left to stretch the lead to four and seal the 75-68 win. Midweek in Orono, Frame collected eight rebounds and a season-high four assists while scoring seven points. She finished 5-of-6 from the free-throw line against the Black Bears. Frame is averaging 14.6 ppg in league play, third-best in America East, and tearing down 6.7 rpg. She leads the team with 16.7 ppg overall.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

University of Vermont freshman forward Kayla Burchill (Portland, Maine/Deering) captures Rookie of the Week honors for the second time this season. It is also the fifth time this season a Catamount freshman has picked up the award. Burchill registered her first career double-double in Vermont's only outing of the week, a 63-36 win over Stony Brook which avenged a loss to the Seawolves earlier this month. The freshman scored 14 points and collected 10 rebounds while also adding one assist and one steal. She drilled three treys and finished 5-of-13 from the field. Burchill also made her only free-throw attempt of the day. Burchill is the top-scoring rookie in America East with 8.4 ppg on the season. She ranks second in three-pointers made (2.3 pg) and third in three-point field-goal percentage (36.9 percent).

PROGRESS REPORT

The conference finished off the non-conference schedule with a 53-64 (.453) mark. The latest RPI Report from RPIratings.com ranks America East 14th out of 33 conferences. The top two America East teams both moved up eight spots this week. Boston U. improved to 78, while Hartford re-entered the top-100 at 100. New Hampshire made the biggest move up, climbing 10 spots to 193.

The second half of the America East schedule began last week and the races are already getting interesting. All four home-and-home series of the double round-robin conference slate that were completed over the weekend split. The four teams which lost previous matchups -- Hartford, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont -- avenged those defeats on Saturday.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

The America East women's basketball television slate continues this Wednesday from Boston U.'s Agganis Arena where the Terriers host Vermont live on ESPN3. The game, a 5 p.m. first tip, is part of a doubleheader with the men's teams. The Catamounts seek revenge for an earlier season loss for the second time in as many games, while the Terriers are looking to remain undefeated in league play. In the teams' first meeting on January 4 in Burlington, Vermont trailed by as many as 19 points but rallied in the second half before Boston U. hung on for a 61-60 victory. Dave Popkin will have the play-by-play from Wednesday's contest, while Leah Secondo will provide color analysis.

STREAKING

Boston U. is atop the standings thanks to an eight-game win streak which began on the first day of the conference season, Jan. 2. Not dropping a contest since a New Year's Eve matchup at St. John's, the Terriers own the longest win streak by an America East team this year and are tied for the 18th-longest active winning streak in Division I going into the week.

OVERACHIEVERS

With seven games left in the regular season, three America East teams have already surpassed last year's win totals. New Hampshire under second-year head coach Maureen Magarity is 12-9 after finishing the 2010-11 season with nine wins. Vermont, also under a second-year head coach in Lori Gear McBride, surpassed last year's five-win total in just the first seven games of the season and is now 9-13. Led by first-year head coach Richard Barron, Maine picked up its fifth and sixth wins of the season over the last 10 days to guarantee a better finish than last year's 4-25 mark.

TOP OF THEIR C.L.A.S.S.

On Jan. 25, New Hampshire senior Denise Beliveau (3.51 GPA in Exercise Science) and UMBC senior Michelle Kurowski (3.82 in Psychology) were selected as top-10 finalists for the 2012 Lowe's Senior C.L.A.S.S. Award for women's basketball from a group of 30 candidates. America East and the Pac-12 are the only conferences with multiple finalists on the ballot. Fan voting, conducted on Facebook and at <http://www.seniorclassaward.com/vote/> through March 18, counts towards one-third of the selection process. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence – community, classroom, character and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. Lowe's, an official Corporate Partner of the NCAA, will announce the women's Senior CLASS Award® winner during the NCAA Women's Final Four®, which will be held April 1 and 3 in Denver.

ANYONE'S GAME

Home courts tend to lend an advantage to teams, but America East road teams have really bucked the trend. Visitors have gone 21-19 (.525) during conference play thus far, eliminating that home court advantage. Each of the nine teams have at least one win on the road.

IT TAKES TWO

Look around the league and you'll find a lot of veteran duos, upperclassmen who carry a lot of the load for their teams. The highest-scoring tandem belongs to New Hampshire as senior Denise Beliveau and junior Morgan Frame together average 30.7 points per game, more than half of the team's average output. UMBC seniors Erin Brown and Michelle Kurowski also combine to score the majority of the Retrievers' points, checking in at 28.3 ppg. Check out some of the other prominent upperclassmen pairs around America East.

Denise Beliveau/Morgan Frame, UNH	30.7 ppg
Erin Brown/Michelle Kurowski, UMBC	28.3 ppg
Andrea Holmes/Orla O'Reilly, Binghamton	26.1 ppg
Chantell Alford/Alex Young, BU	23.6 ppg
Ebone Henry/Julie Forster, Albany	23.3 ppg
Ruthanne Doherty/Daphne Elliott, UH	23.1 ppg

TV GUIDE

In addition to Wednesday's ESPN3 broadcast, there are three other televised games this week. Wednesday night also features UNH at Hartford at 7 p.m. on CPTV Sports, as well as Stony Brook at Binghamton at 7 p.m. on Time Warner Cable Sports (TWCS). Another SUNY rivalry, Stony Brook at Albany, will air on TWCS on Saturday at 4:30 p.m. Albany will be celebrating its Big Purple Growl, and will have a doubleheader with the men's team.

GOING NATIONAL

The America East announced a national broadcast package earlier this season that made league history. First, a five-year deal with ESPN includes a minimum of 47 national appearances for the league's men's and women's basketball programs on ESPN platforms, the most in conference history. The package includes seven women's hoops games on ESPN3, including the America East Championship semifinals and final. The league also signed a contract with CBS Sports Network, putting five America East basketball games on national television. A February 19 matchup between UMBC and Hartford at Chase Family Arena will mark the first-ever nationally televised conference women's basketball game.

D-D-DEFENSE!

Through all games of Jan. 29, five America East teams rank among the top 60 teams in Division I for scoring defense. Albany's league-leading 52.8 points allowed per game ranks 19th and Boston U.'s 54.2 sits 29th. Stony Brook (56.1; 50th), Hartford (56.3; 54th) and Binghamton (56.5; 60th) also rank in that group.

BOARD GAMES

Seven America East players are averaging at least 8.0 rebounds per game led by Albany junior Julie Forster with 9.5 rpg which ranks 47th in the country. The conference hasn't had six players finish with season averages of 8.0 rpg or higher since the 1999-2000 season.

ON TOP AT THE END

The America East Women's Basketball Champion has been either the one or two seed in the conference tournament 20 times in 27 years. Additionally, in 24 out of the 27 years of the tournament, the champion has been one of the top three seeds, making regular-season play crucial for championship hopes. Providing even further motivation, the highest seeded team remaining will host the America East Championship final in 2012 for the third straight year.

YOU'VE BEEN 'FRAME'D

One of America East's highest scorers and rebounders won't show up in the league's overall stats since she hasn't played in 75 percent of her team's games yet, but she is somebody that other teams will need to plan for. New Hampshire junior Morgan Frame, a 6-foot-1 forward, was a mid-season transfer last winter from St. Anselm College and was not eligible for the Wildcats until their Dec. 18 game against Rhode Island. She recorded double-doubles in each of her first two games in uniform, and scored 35 points in a win over Wagner on Dec. 21. In her 13 games with the Wildcats, Frame has become UNH's leading scorer with 16.7 ppg and second-leading rebounder with 7.6 rpg. The Wildcats are 8-5 since Frame has become eligible after going 4-4 in the first eight games without Frame.

REED'S HOT HAND

University of New Hampshire junior Cari Reed found her shooter's touch Dec. 6 against Harvard. The guard exploded for a then-league-high 32 points including a school-record eight three-pointers. The eight treys marks the highest number of made shots from downtown by an America East player since Binghamton's Erica Carter's conference-record nine on Dec. 7, 2009. Reed tied three others for the second-highest single-game three-point field goals made in America East history.

AGAINST THE BEST

Among the league's 117 non-conference games, 41 were against teams that advanced to a 2011 postseason tournament. America East was 17-24 against those teams with most of the wins coming against WNIT participants (10-7). America East was 4-16 against NCAA teams, with victories coming at Central Florida (Hartford), against Marist (Boston U.) and Navy (UMBC, Boston U.). The league was also 3-1 against the WBI field.

PLAYING WITH THE BIG BOYS

Hartford and Boston U. each upended Boston College during a three-day span, Dec. 10 and Dec. 13. It was the Hawks' first win over the Eagles in program history, and the Terriers' first over their crosstown rivals since 1990. The wins marked the league's first over an ACC team this season, and the first since Vermont's two wins against the ACC (vs. Boston College, NC State) in 2009-10. The vic-stories were also the second and third win for an America East team over a 'Big 6' Conference team this season. Boston U. defeated Providence out of the Big East on Nov. 11.

JOIN THE CLUB

Six players have reached the 1,000 career point milestone this season and the league now has eight active 1,000-point scorers. Albany junior Eb-one Henry hit the mark on Jan. 11 against New Hampshire, and Binghamton senior Viive Rebane reached the mark Dec. 29 at St. Peter's College. New Hampshire senior Denise Beliveau, UMBC senior Erin Brown and Boston U. junior Chantell Alford all tallied their 1,000th career points within hours of each other on Sat. Dec. 3. Boston U. senior Alex Young accomplished the milestone in November and UMBC's Michelle Kurowski and Binghamton's Andrea Holmes each scored their 1,000th points last January. The league currently has the highest number of active 1,000-point club members since there were 10 during the 2009-10 season.

INSTANT CLASSIC

The Catamounts made an instant turnaround this season opening with a 6-2 start after beginning 2010-11 with 15 straight losses. Vermont surpassed last season's win total in just the first seven games of the season and captured two in-season tournaments. Vermont won its own annual TD Bank Classic, winning the tournament for the seventh time overall and first time since 2007. Also making a great first impression in 2011-12 are six newcomers who have all made an appearance this season, and several who have made impacts in the starting lineup.

RAINING THREE'S

Boston University put up a three-point show on Tues., Nov. 22 against Northeastern, netting 15 three-point field goals. The 15 treys is the third-highest all-time single-game total for an America East team, and the most since the Terriers hit a school-record 16 during the 2008 America East tournament. Six different Terriers hit three-point shots against the Huskies, including Chantell Alford's five and Alex Young's four, while the team went 15-for-31.

BUZZER BEATERS

There were several clutch game-winning and game-tying buckets during the week of Nov. 21. New Hampshire sophomore Kelsey Hogan tipped in a missed three-pointer with one-tenth of a second left on the clock to give the Wildcats a 63-62 win at Cornell on Tues., Nov. 22... Stony Brook junior Dani Klupenger nailed the game-winning three-pointer with 14 seconds left on the clock on Wed., Nov. 23 against Robert Morris. It gave the Seawolves their first win of the season and handed the Colonials their first loss... With 19 seconds left in regulation, Black Bear sophomore Ashleigh Roberts tied the Dead River Company Classic championship game against Brown on Nov. 26 at 56-56 with a layup and forced overtime.

20-20 VISION

Albany junior forward Julie Forster's 26-point, 20-rebound performance against La Salle on Nov. 13 wasn't only a career game, but it was one of the conference's top individual efforts of the decade. It was the first 20+ point, 20+ rebound game since two-time America East Player of the Year Heather Ernest (Maine '04) recorded 21 points and 21 rebounds at New Hampshire on Jan. 14, 2001.
