MESSAGE FROM THE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

In October, the College launched The Campaign for a Greater Lycoming and I am excited about the goals for the Warrior Club and the athletic initiatives that have been outlined as a part of this $65 million comprehensive fundraising initiative. The Warrior Club plays a significant role in the campaign and it continues to gain momentum with its increasing number of members and events. This fall we saw a record number of alumni out for our softball and lacrosse alumni games and we had great pre-game events in Wilkes-Barre and Camp Hill.

I would like to recognize the Warrior Club Advisory Council for their leadership and efforts in engaging our support base throughout the year. At our fall meeting, the Council discussed one of our athletic priorities which is to enhance the soccer/lacrosse complex. This includes an overhaul of our existing playing surface and the creation of a permanent seating area. As the excitement builds around our athletes and athletic programs, I encourage you to continue in your support and affinity for the Warriors.

Go Warriors!

WARRIOR CLUB ADVISORY COUNCIL
KEN HOLDREN ’79, CHAIR

Today, the strongest collegiate athletic programs (at any level) are accompanied by a fan base that is motivated to be financially and enthusiastically supportive. As a Warrior Club member, you are joining in our collective effort to see Lycoming, the athletics department, and our student-athletes be successful. Regardless of what sport you have supported, your membership level gift is critical to that programs success and together we are elevating what is possible for Lycoming athletics. Join us in reaching out to those in your circle to encourage their support of any one of Lycoming’s 17 varsity athletic programs and help us reach our goal of 750 Warrior Club members by June 30!

INVESTING IN DIVISION III STUDENT ATHLETES

2 National Finals Appearances | 9 National Champions
24 Academic All-Americans | 41 Conference Titles
208 All-Americans

Lycoming’s legendary head football coach, Frank Girardi, being inducted to the National Football Foundation’s College Football Hall of Fame.
Lycoming was well represented when the Middle Atlantic Conference announced its all-conference teams for the fall sports. (W. Soc) Jordan Lazarich set several records on her way to being named second-team all-conference. (Ftbll) Blake Bowman led the league in rushing and earned first-team honors along with second-team selections Bailey Hughes and Brad Stubbs and honorable mention picks Austin Mital and Mike Ward. (CC) Freshman Quincy Amabile broke Lycoming’s 8K record and was named second-team all-conference, while (Vball) senior Kristine Jahn’s play on the court earned her honorable mention recognition. (M. Soc) Jordan Logan earned his second straight first-team recognition. He was joined by Abdullahi Abdi and Kyle Thomas on the second-team and Sainclair Tueno with honorable mention honors.

The Campaign for
A GREATER
LYCOMING
Dare to Dream. Dare to Do.

At Homecoming, Lycoming publicly launched The Campaign for A Greater Lycoming, the most ambitious fundraising initiative in the history of the College. With a goal of $65 million, the campaign has four main priorities: 1) Create the Coveted Degree of the Future by enhancing the student experience within the Lycoming education 2) Fuel a New Generation of Warriors by creating endowed scholarships 3) Transform Our Campus to position us for success for decades to come and 4) Leverage Our Collective Strength by pooling gifts of every size to power the very best of Lycoming.

As a component of Leveraging Our Collective Strength, the College outlined a goal of raising $1.1 million in annual support for athletic programs. To date, the Warrior Club has raised over $552,000 toward that goal.

Athletics initiatives throughout this campaign focus on building outstanding facilities, recruiting the best student-athletes, and creating an environment that attracts excellence within our coaching ranks. At Lycoming, we are not just dreamers. We are doers. Together we will make Lycoming Greater.

In February 2016, a conversation began between Coach Baer and tennis alum, Bill Levegood ’76. Bill’s interest in Lycoming’s tennis program has existed since his time as a student-athlete and this year he made a gift that completely changed the look of the program. Thanks to Bill’s generosity, the entire men’s tennis team has new uniforms and apparel to wear throughout the season. Outfitting the Warriors is just one way that a Warrior Club gift can impact a program!

The Warrior Club newsletter is a benefit of your 2016-2017 Warrior Club membership and your financial support of Lycoming athletics. THANK YOU for investing in Lycoming’s student-athletes and athletic programs. Go WARRIORS!
