DC MARSHALL MULLENBACH

- 15th year at Macalester
- 11th season as defensive coordinator
- 2003 graduate played football and baseball at Macalester
- Defensive philosophy - Pursuit and Pressure
  - Pursuit - We pride ourselves on having 11 guys on the field who can give maximum effort in getting to the football, work well as a unit in taking good angles in order to swarm the football, and hopefully have a bit of a mean mentality when they get there.
  - Pressure - We believe that pressure on the QB includes disguising coverages, making the QB step up in the pocket, making him move out of the pocket, affecting his throwing motion and anything that puts pressure on the QB both mentally and physically after the ball is snapped.

OC KIJUAN WARE

- Second year at Macalester
- Over 20 years of coaching experience at the Division I, II and III levels
- Offensive philosophy:
  - Play fast - Attack success, don’t fear failure!
  - Be physical - Hit or be hit!
  - Trust your teammates - Do your job!

SPECIAL TEAMS MATTHEW REED

- Second year at Macalester
- Also the Scots’ recruiting coordinator
- Nine years of college coaching experience
- Special teams’ philosophy - Attack teams: We always want to be on the attack during this phase of the game
- This is an energetic and dynamic unit, which incorporates our entire roster. We seek creativity, passion, and physicality in order to find ways to generate extra possessions for our offense and help our defense control the field.

GRAD ASST. DAVID HOUT

- Second year at Macalester
- Coaches outside linebackers
- Handles the Scots’ social media accounts
- Played linebacker and safety at Briar Cliff University
