The University of New England Nor’easters continue to storm through their competition and win championships, while making a positive impact in the local community and exhibiting academic excellence.

The Nor’easters are coming off a fall sports season that saw them win titles in women’s soccer, women’s cross country and men’s cross country, while the field hockey team reached the conference championship match for the sixth consecutive season. Over the past five years, UNE teams have combined for 17 conference championships – a remarkable demonstration of sustained excellence. The fall of 2018 also marked the arrival of varsity football at UNE, with the Nor’easters played in front of a crowd of more than 2,000 in their inaugural home game. Despite another cold Maine winter, things are red-hot at the Alfond Forum with the men’s ice hockey team earning a regular spot in the national ranking, the women chasing a school-record win total, and the women’s basketball squad seeking yet another CCC crown.

The academic excellence of UNE’s student-athletes continues to be a significant source of pride for those in Nor’easter Nation. Of the Nor’easters’ 460 varsity student-athletes, nearly half made the Dean’s List last semester and 28 achieved a perfect 4.00 grade point average.

Student-athletes and coaches have also been making an impact in the community. Two events – Lax4Life and Irish Eyes are Miling – raised nearly $6,000 for local organizations and nonprofits, while other events such as the Sweetheart Dance at Atria Kennebunk and a Nor’easter Food Drive show that UNE’s student-athletes truly are “Nor’easter Neighbors”.

UNE continues to be an institution of excellence, and the Athletics Department is certainly no exception. We are very proud of the accomplishments of our student-athletes academically, in competition and in the community.

VAUGHN TWADDEL
Vaughn spent his entire career as a professor at Westbrook College and was fondly referred to as “Mr. T.” by his students. A “legend” at the college, he was elected Honorary Alumnus and was the Commencement speaker at several graduations. Following retirement, he maintained his connection with the students and institution as head golf coach at Westbrook College and then UNE.

An avid golfer, he shot his age at 75, worked at the Nonesuch River Golf Club, and was a member of the Southern Maine Seniors Golf Association. He always had a smile on his face and was able to make anyone laugh with his quick wit and candor. Vaughn passed away in 2008, but his spirit lives on in many ways, including this classic, named in his honor.
