SUMMER TRAINING CAMP

The Pointers Wrestling Summer Camp is an opportunity for wrestlers, grades 6-12, to learn technique and training practices that have produced 22 Individual WIAC Conference titles and 26 All-Americans since 2000.

During the week, which will be run like a training camp, wrestlers will experience college level practices from Pointers wrestling head coach Johnny Johnson and assistant coaches Jake Wozniak and Jake Calhoun, along with 2018 NCAA All-American Dylan Diebitz, as well as current Pointers wrestlers.

Wrestling workouts will include technique from all three positions as well as live wrestling. The athletes will also be put through strength and conditioning workouts daily.

Each night on campus there will be recreational activities that all campers will get to participate in together.

GENERAL INFO

Dylan Diebitz is coaching his first season this year for the Pointers as an assistant coach. Dylan exemplifies what being a Pointers wrestler is all about. Hailing from West Allis, WI he came to UWSP with a hard work ethic aimed towards consistently improving on the mat while having fun! He improved each season at Stevens Point finishing his senior season by qualifying a second time to the NCAA Championships and achieving All-American status by placing 7th in the nation in 2018.
