Wofford College named Jimmy Garrity head coach of the women's basketball program on April 25, 2016. Garrity comes to Wofford after spending the last three years as head coach at Anderson University.

In the past three seasons, Anderson reached the NCAA Division II Tournament twice as an at-large selection and in 2015 advanced to the Sweet Sixteen. Garrity has coached the last two South Atlantic Conference Players of the Year. Prior to Anderson, Garrity coached at Clemson and UNC Wilmington.

“We are excited to introduce Jimmy Garrity as head coach of our women’s basketball team,” said Richard Johnson, Director of Athletics. “During our search, it became clear that he had all of the characteristics that we were looking for in a leader for this program. I thank the search committee for their hard work and look forward to working with Coach Garrity.”

“It is hard for me to put into words how humbled and excited I am to be named the head women’s basketball coach at Wofford,” said Jimmy Garrity. “I want to thank Dr. Nayef Samhat and Richard Johnson for their confidence in me for the incredible opportunity that lies ahead in leading this program. It is a great fit for both my family and myself and I am excited to be here. This is a special place and I have been overwhelmed by the family atmosphere not only in the athletic department, but in the campus community.”

Last season the Trojans were 23-7 overall, including a 79-55 win over Clemson to open the year. They were the South Atlantic Conference regular season champions with an 18-4 record and were nationally ranked in the top 25. The squad was an at-large selection to the NCAA Tournament. As the #5 seed, they advanced to the second round after a win over #4 seed Clayton State. Senior forward Jennifer Monroe was named the SAC Player of the Year and first team All-Southeast Region. Junior guard Heather Jankowy earned SAC second team honors.

Stringing together one of the program’s best seasons in 2014-15, Garrity was tabbed South Atlantic Conference Coach of the Year. Garrity led the Trojans to a 27-5 overall record and a berth into the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Prior to the postseason run, Garrity became the first coach in conference history to win 20 league games, finishing the season with a 20-2 SAC record and a regular-season championship. Garrity also saw point guard Sierra Simpson earn SAC Player of the Year and SAC first team honors.

In his first season at Anderson in 2013-14, Garrity led the Trojans to a 16-14 overall record and an 11-11 mark in SAC play. Anderson placed three players on all-conference teams, including Simpson’s All-SAC second team honor and Alexis Dillard’s all-freshman team spot.

Garrity spent the 2012-13 season at Clemson University as the women’s basketball assistant coach. With the Tigers, Garrity was in charge of scouting, practice planning, game scheduling, coordinating of the guards, community service and alumni relations. Garrity also monitored the academic success of the student-athletes.

Before spending a season at Clemson, Garrity spent a decade in various capacities with the UNC Wilmington basketball program. He was hired as the Director of Basketball Operations in 2002 for both the men’s and women’s basketball teams. Once the position split into two different roles, Garrity took over just the women’s side while also becoming an assistant coach in 2007. Continuing his tenure with UNCW, Garrity was promoted to the associate head coach role in 2011 and coached his team to the second round of the WNIT.

Garrity graduated from Elon in 1989 with a degree in business administration and marketing and later earned a Master’s in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla. in 1990.

Garrity is married to Jenny Garrity, who served as UNCW’s women’s tennis coach for 13 seasons. The couple have two daughters Kacey and Carly, and a son Corey.

Terriers Fall to Jacksonville

December 31, 2016

JACKSONVILLE, FLA – The Wofford women's basketball team fell to Jacksonville, 66-60, on Saturday afternoon in the Best Western Osprey New Year Classic at UNF Arena.

The Terriers led for most of the second half, but Jacksonville scored the last nine points of the game to earn the victory and improve their record to 11-4. The Dolphins were led by Brandi Buie and Christin Mercer, who scored 19 and 18 points, respectively.

Despite the loss, Wofford gained experience playing a difficult opponent, as the Dolphins were picked to win the Atlantic Sun before the season and had three players selected to the preseason all-conference team, including Mercer. Jacksonville won the A-Sun last season, earning an automatic bid into the NCAA tournament.

Chloe Wanink and Kentra Washington were the only two Wofford players to reach double figures, with each scoring 19 points. Wanink also added 10 rebounds to earn her third double-double of the season. Washington scored her season high for the second consecutive game. She also made a season high eight free throws.

The Dolphins jumped out to the early lead and controlled the pace through most of the first quarter. The first period was well played offensively, with both teams shooting over 50% from the floor. Once again, Wanink led the Terriers early, scoring eight points in the first.

Wofford kept themselves within striking range in the second quarter, going to half with a 34-30 deficit. The Terriers shot the ball well in the first half, making 52% from the field. However, the team’s 10 turnovers contributed to their halftime deficit. Wanink added four more points to lead the team at half with 12 points on 5 of 6 from the floor. Buie led the Dolphins with 15 points in the first half.

Coming out of halftime, the Terriers went on a 9-0 run to build a lead that they held into the fourth quarter. Washington earned nine of her 11 free throw attempts in the quarter, knocking down six of them.

The Terriers held a 60-57 lead with just under five minutes to play, but they failed to score in the final minutes and the Dolphins shot 57% from the field to win the game.

The loss is the Terriers’ first of the season in a game decided by 10 points or less.

Up next, the Terriers will conclude their long road trip by taking on Kennesaw State on Monday, Jan. 2 at 2 p.m.
