Wofford 104- The Citadel 103

Spartanburg, S.C. — Despite Eric Garcia and Ryan Sawvell recording double-double performances, the Wofford men’s basketball team fell 104-103 against The Citadel on Monday night in Benjamin Johnson Arena. The loss was the first for Wofford since 10/28/14 vs. Citadel at 15, 1/19/16. Despite the loss, Wofford falls to 6-9 on the season and 1-1 in Southern Conference play while The Citadel improves to 8-8 overall and 1-2 in conference action with the win.

Bullard led out of the locker room and was able to match the lead back to nine, but Wofford went on a 10-0 run right after to take a 79-76 lead. Wofford led by three with just under two minutes to go in the clock, but Preston Parks sunk a free point shot with 1:14 to go and the 91-91 score would hold through the buzzer.

Johnson hit one of his four of the night, with eight seconds to go but the lone point difference was enough for the Citadel to win.

Lucky Number 70?
• When Wofford scores 70-79 points the team is 2-1 and when the team scores 90+ the Terriers are 3-0. However, when Wofford scores 60-69 the team is 0-4 and when the Terriers score less than 59 points Wofford is 0-3. Wofford’s loss at GT was the first time the Terriers have scored 70+ and lost since Dec. 22, 2015, exactly a year from when they fell at Austin Peay. If Wofford can get to 70 points chances are high for a win.

MONEY FROM THE LINE
- Wofford’s free throw percentage of 76.7% is 17th best nationally.
- The Terriers free throw percentage (76.7%) is second in the conference behind The Citadel (77.4%).
- The Terriers shot 91.7% (11-12) from the free throw line against Georgia Tech. That was the first time Wofford shot 90% or better in a contest in almost two years. Wofford followed that performance up two games later as the Terriers shot 91.4% (32-35) against The Citadel.
- Eric Garcia is first in the SoCon with a free throw percentage of 96.1%.
- Garcia’s 96.1% from the line (49-51) is second in the country behind Phil Forte of Oklahoma State (97.8%) and Otis Livingston (97.6%).
- In Wofford’s win over Mercer, Garcia went 16-16 from the line. The last time a Wofford player had made 10+ free throws was Justin Gordon last season against Western Carolina when the senior made 10.
- Entering the game against Mercer, the most free throws made by a Wofford player was eight, which Garcia doubled. The highest individual free throw attempts was just nine.
- Wofford made 32 free throws in the loss to The Citadel, the most by a Wofford team since March 7, 2010 when the Terriers made 30 against Western Carolina.

GETTING TO THE LINE MORE
- Entering the game against Mercer, Wofford’s most free throws made was 18 against Bradley on Nov. 22. Against Mercer, Wofford made 26 free throws.
- The Terriers previous high for attempts was 25, also against Bradley, but Wofford had 30 attempts against Mercer. Wofford broke both of those in the next game against The Citadel as the Terriers sunk 32-35.

GARCIA GETTING HOT
- Senior point guard Eric Garcia has five 20+ point games in his career, with four coming in the last four contests. Garcia set a career high scoring 23 points against Coastal Carolina on Dec. 19 and followed that performance up with another 23 point game at Georgia Tech three days later before breaking his record yet again with 31 points against Mercer in the team’s last outing.
- In the last game against The Citadel, the senior scored 27 points. He is averaging 26.0 PPG in the last four contest, with two being on the road against stuff competition and the other two being in conference play.
- Garcia set a career record against Georgia Tech in both three pointers made and three point attempts with six and nine, respectively. Mike Young enters his 15th season as head coach and 28th season on the Wofford men’s basketball staff in 2016-17. He has built the Wofford College men’s basketball program into a Southern Conference powerhouse and NCAA Tournament fixture.

With Southern Conference Tournament Championships in 2010, 2011, 2014 and 2015, Wofford is one of 43 programs nationally to have reached the NCAA Tournament at least four times in the six-year span from 2010-15. The Terriers are also one of just four programs to win their conference tournament in four of their six seasons. Young’s teams have totaled five postseason appearances and four 20-win campaigns in that span.

In his 14-year head coaching career at Wofford, Young boasts a record of 232-209 (.526), including 136-109 (.555) in Southern Conference play. Young’s 232 wins rank fourth in Southern Conference history, as well as in school history. Young, current Director of Athletics Richard Johnson (236) and the late Gene Alexander (283) are the only coaches in Wofford history to record over 200 wins.

A three-time SoCon Coach of the Year (2010, 2014, 2015), Young has also received national recognition as the Hugh Durham Mid-Major Coach of the Year by Collegesid- er.com. During his distinguished tenure, Young has coaxed many Terrier on to go to play professionally. He has coached Olympian Mike LCDry, Al-American Noah Dahlman, and Academic All-American Brad Lear. Through Young’s head-coaching tenure, Wofford has accumulated all Southern Conference selections by the coaches and another 25 from the media.

Under Young’s leadership, the Terriers’ resume includes impressive non-conference wins over the likes of Auburn, Cincinnati, Clemson, Georgia, North Carolina State, Purdue, South Carolina, Virginia Tech, Xavier and Wake Forest. Young believes in playing the best competition. A recent Wofford non-conference schedule was ranked as one of the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagari Ratings.

The success Young has achieved on the court has complemented his emphasis on academics. Young’s program has a 100 percent graduation rate for student-athletes who have completed their eligibility at Wofford.

One of the defining characteristics of Young’s program is the family atmosphere, evidenced by current assistant coaches Tim Johnson and Kevin Glittern and former student-athletes. Among the Terriers from Johnson’s era are most of the six All-SoCon selections (Mike LCDry, Noah Dahlman, Tim Johnson, Brad Lear, Kevin Glittern, Tyler Berg, Chad Clark, Noah Lee, Howard Johnson, Drew Gibson, Junior Sallat, Cameron Rundles, Jamar Degg, Karl Cochran, Lee Skinner and Spencer Collins). Chadwick (2000-01) Dahlman (2010-11), and Howard (2014-15) have been SoCon Players of the Year, while Dahlman was the SoCon Tournament Most Outstanding Player in back-to-back seasons (2010, 2011).

Young’s influence on incoming players has been seen with eight Terriers appearing on the All-SoCon Freshman Team (Ian Chadwick, Tyler Berg, Brad Lear, Omar Ing, Justin Speights, Spencer Collins, Eric Garcia and Fletcher Magee). Chadwick (1997-98), Cochran (2011-12) and Magee (2015-16) were named SoCon Freshmen of the Year. Magee led the nation in free throw percentage (92.5 percent) as a freshman, setting the program’s new single-season record and becoming just the sixth freshman to shoot 90 percent or better in NCAA men’s Division I history (min 5.5 makes per game). Magee’s freshman season also saw him rank third nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (47.9 percent).

In 2012, each of our five programs’ five graduates (Drew Crowell, Kevin Gillett, Brad Lear, Joseph Tecklenburg and Matt Steenham) were named to the Southern Conference All-Academic Team.

A native of Radford, Va., Young came to Wofford after serving as a graduate assistant for one year under Oliver Purnell at Radford University. A 1996 graduate of Emory & Henry College, he was a four-year lettermen in basketball for coach Bob Johnson and the team captain his junior and senior seasons, he credits Johnson for having a major influence on his playing and coaching careers.

Upon his graduation, Young became a full-time assistant coach for two years at Emory & Henry before moving on to Radford. Another mentor in his coaching philosophy is Fletcher Arritt, longtime coach of Fork Union (Va.), Military Academy. Young played one season for him before attending Emory and Henry.

Young and his wife, Margaret, were married on Aug. 13, 1994 in her hometown of Camden, S.C. She is a 1992 Wofford graduate and a partner with Pravcswaterhouse- cooper LLP. The couple has a daughter, Cooper, and a son, Davis.

Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium

• Wofford College announced on Nov. 17, 2014, its plans to build the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium to house a new basketball/volleyball arena, locker rooms and other facilities. The facility will be adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football. Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson ’59 provided the gift to fund the 92,000-square-foot facility that will include a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 500-seat volleyball competition venue. The facility will replace Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate facility for intramural and campus recreational activities. Construction on the new facility begins in the fall of 2015 with the opening date slated for September 2017. A groundbreaking ceremony was held Tuesday, October 20, 2015.
