Wofford 116, UVA-Wise 56

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Wofford men’s basketball team rolled to a 116-56 victory over UVA-Wise on Tuesday night at Benjamin Johnson Arena.

The 60-point margin of victory is the second largest for the Terriers in the SoCon era (1997-98), behind only a 61-point win over Tennessee Wesleyan on Nov. 22, 1997.

"We played the right way and our movement was better," head coach Mike Young said. "We did a good job of reversing the ball and I thought we played inside-out a lot better."

Six Wofford players scored in double figures, led by Fletcher Magee with 24 and Ryan Sawvell with 23. The Terriers had not had six players score in double figures since March 1, 2008 against The Citadel.

For Magee, his 24 points were a season high. The sophomore guard also set season highs in field goals made (nine) and three pointers made (five).

"I thought we moved the ball a lot better tonight," Magee said. "It was good to be able to get some open looks."

Ryan Sawvell added 23 points, just one shy of the career high that he set last week against Mars Hill (Nov. 29). Sawvell finished 10 of 12 from the field and a perfect three of three from behind the arc.

Joining them in double figures were Eric Garcia, Nathan Hoover, Justin Tucker, and Cameron Jackson. Garcia delivered 14 points on a perfect seven of seven from the foul line. He also added seven assists compared to zero turnovers. Hoover scored 12 points, reaching double figures for the first time since the first game of his college career at LSU (11/12). The freshman guard knocked down two three pointers. Tucker set a career high with 12 points on a perfect six of six from the floor, while Jackson returned to the starting lineup and scored 10 points with four assists.

"As you play more games, everything starts to slow down and the game begins to come more naturally to you," Hoover said. "It’s fun to see us start to figure out how to play with each other on offense and defense."

After falling behind 3-2 in the game’s opening minute, the Terriers quickly took the lead and never looked back. Due to a 65% shooting first half, Wofford took a comfortable 60-32 lead into halftime. In the second half, they shot the ball even better, converting nine out of 10 three point attempts and 22 of 29 field goals (75.9%).

For the game, the Terriers field goal percentage stood at 70.3% (45-64), which is the second best field goal percentage in program history, which dates back to 1885. The only better shooting night they had was in the 1978-79 season, when they shot 70.8% in a win against Limestone.

The team also had an outstanding night sharing the ball, as their 34 assists is fourth most in SoCon history. In addition, they enjoyed a 45-20 rebounding advantage and received 45 bench points.

Up next, the Terriers will head to Fort Worth, Texas to take on TCU this Saturday, Dec. 10 at 5 p.m.

Mike Young enters his 15th season as head coach and 28th season on the Wofford men's basketball staff in 2016-17. He has built the Wofford College men's basketball program into a Southern Conference powerhouse and NCAA Tournament fixture.

With Southern Conference Tournament championships in 2010, 2011, 2014 and 2015, Wofford is one of four programs nationally to have reached the NCAA Tournament at least four times in the six-year span from 2010-15. The Terriers are also one of just four programs to win their conference tournament in four of those six seasons. Young's teams have totaled five postseason appearances and four 20-win campaigns in that span.

In his 14-year head coaching career at Wofford, Young boasts a record of 232-209 (.526), including 136-109 (.551) in Southern Conference play. Young’s 232 wins rank fourth in Southern Conference history, as well as at school history. Young, current Director of Athletics Richard Johnson (236) and the late Gene Alexander (283) are the only coaches in Wofford history to record over 200 wins.

A three-time SoCon Coach of the Year (2010, 2014, 2015), Young has also received national recognition as the Hugh Durham Mid-Major Coach of the Year by CollegeSports.com. During his distinguished career, Young has coached many Terriers on to go play professionally. He has coached Olympic Mike Lundy, American-Indian Noah Dahlman, and Academic All-American Brad Loesing. Through Young’s head-coaching tutelage, Wofford has accumulated the most Southern Conference selections by the coaches and another 25 from the media.

Under Young’s leadership, the Terriers’ resume includes impressive non-conference wins over the likes of Auburn, Cincinnati, Clemson, Georgia, North Carolina State, Purdue, South Carolina, Virginia Tech, Xavier and Wake Forest. Young believes in playing the best competition. A recent Wofford non-conference schedule was ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

The success Young has achieved on the court has complemented his emphasis on academics. Young’s program has a 100 percent graduation rate for student-athletes who have completed their eligibility at Wofford.

One of the defining characteristics of Young’s program is the family atmosphere, evidenced by current assistant coaches Tim Johnson and Kevin GIlbert (who have been the Terrier uniform. Director of Basketball Operations, Drew Gibson, is also a former Wofford student-athlete. Young has seen a total of six players remain in the program, after their playing days, as members of his staff.

The last seven seasons have seen Wofford emerge as a dominant program in the Southern Conference. The 2014-15 campaign was the best yet. The Terriers went 28-7 overall, 16-2 SoCon, on a roll to an outright Southern Conference Regular Season Championship, fourth SoCon Tournament Championship and fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. A recent Wofford program record for wins and conference wins were set, with a schedule that ranked 26th in the country in non-conference strength. The non-conference slate the Terriers make to start, as well as their own 2015 NCAA Sweet 16 on West Virginia, Duke and NC State. Wofford took a 55-54 win over the Wolfpack on December 14, 2014, which was NC State’s first loss in NCAA Tournament play. The Terriers won six straight games in the SoCon Tournament title, including victories in each of their last 15 games. Young was named SoCon Coach of the Year for a third time and saw senior Karl Cochran named SoCon Player of the Year. Senior Lee Skinner was also an all-conference selection and named SoCon Tournament Most Outstanding Player. Wofford earned its highest seed in school history in the 2015 NCAA Tournament, going to Jacksonville, Florida as the No. 12 seed in the West Region to take on No. 5 seeded Arkansas. The Terriers led 28-27 at the half, outrebounded Arkansas 37-35 and led for over half the game before the Razorbacks edged out the Terriers, 56-53. In the season’s final RPI posted by the NCAA, the Terriers checked in at No. 4.

Young’s first postseason team, in 2009-10, tied a school record with a 13-game winning streak. It was a part of that stretch the Terriers won 22 of 24 games en route to what then was a school-record 26 victories, including a 15-3 mark in league play. The Terriers won the SoCon South Division title and the tournament championship for the first time. Wofford came back the next season with a share of the SoCon South Division title and another conference tournament championship.

Young’s time at Wofford has spanned four decades and covered the Terriers moving from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent in 1995-96 and to the Southern Conference in 1997-98. He was promoted to associate head coach in August 1998. Young has been on the Wofford bench for 798 contests over the past 27 seasons.

Prior to assuming the head coaching reins at Wofford, Young was an assistant coach to current athletics director Richard Johnson. His impact as a head coach was seen immediately. In his first season in charge, Young led the Terriers to their best record (28-7) in eight seasons at the Division I level and a third-place finish in the SoCon South Division in Wofford coached to finish sixth.

It’s all about the student-athlete experience for Young. Every player means the world to him, and it’s not just those 16 SoCon selections (Mike Lynch, Noah Dahlman, Tim Johnson, Brad Loesing, Kevin Gilbert, Tyler Berg, Lee Skinner, Chadwick, Jason Degg, Karl Cochran, Lee Skinner and Spencer Collins). Chadwick (2000-01) Dahlman (2010-11), and Cochran (2014-15) have been SoCon Players of the Year, while Dahlman was the SoCon Tournament’s Most Outstanding Performer in back-to-back seasons (2010, 2011).

Young’s influence on incoming players has been seen with eight Terriers appearing on the All-SoCon Freshman Team (San Cochran, Tyler Berg, Brad Loesing, Karl Cochran, Justin Stephens, Spencer Collins, Eric Garcia and Fletcher Mager). Chadwick (1997-98), Cochran (2011-12) and Magner (2015-16) were named SoCon Freshmen of the Year. Magner led the nation in free throw percentage (92.5 pct.) as a freshman, setting the program’s new single-season record and becoming just the sixth freshman to shoot 90 percent or better in NCAA men’s Div. I history (min. 2.5 makes per game). Magner’s freshman season also saw him rank third nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (47.9 pct.).

In 2012, each of our players five graduates (Drew Crowell, Kevin Gilbert, Brad Loesing, Joseph Tackenberg and Matt Steenman) were named to the Southern Conference All-Academic Team.

A native of Radford, Va., Young came to Wofford after serving as a graduate assistant for one year under Oliver Putzel at Radford University. A 1996 graduate of Emory & Henry College, he was a four-year letterman in basketball for coach Bob Johnson and the team captain his junior and senior seasons. He credits Johnson for having a major influence on his playing and coaching careers.

Upon his graduation, Young became a full-time assistant coach for two years at Emory & Henry before moving on to Radford. Another mentor in his coaching philosophy is Hatchett Arritt, longtime coach of Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy. Young played one season for him before attending Emory and Henry.

Young and his wife, Margaret, were married on Aug. 13, 1994 in her hometown of Camden, S.C. She is a 1992 Wofford graduate and a partner with PricewaterhouseCopers LLP. The couple has a daughter, Cooper, and a son, Davis.

The Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium

Wofford College announced on Nov. 17, 2014, its plans to build the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium to house a new basketball/volleyball arena, locker rooms and other facilities. The facility will be adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football. Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson ’59 provided the gift to fund the 92,000-square-foot facility that will include a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 500-seat volleyball competition venue. The facility will replace Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate facility for intramural and campus recreational activities. Construction on the new facility begins in the fall of 2015 with the opening date slated for September 2017. A groundbreaking ceremony was held Tuesday, October 20, 2015.

Mr. Richardson leads in the official groundbreaking, which took place October 20.
