Wofford beat Chattanooga 77-66 on Saturday afternoon at the Pete Hanna Center.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Senior Spencer Collins became one of the men’s basketball program’s top 10 all-time scorers with an 18-point effort that led the Terriers to victory, 78-75, over Samford on Thursday evening in Wofford’s first road conference matchup. With the Terriers clinging to a four-point lead and less than five minutes to play, senior C.J. Neumann fought his way for an offensive rebound and kicked it out to a wide open Gabe Mascoll who buried a 3-pointer from the top of the arc. On Wofford’s next possession, Miller had his fourth triple of the afternoon and put the game out of reach.

"It was a close game, but we were able to hold them off in the end," said Wofford head coach Mike Young. "I thought we were prepared and ready to go, but looking back I’m not sure we were quite ready to get them at home in January. They’re the class of our league, but I thought we did some good things and I hope we will have a better look at them at our place in the month. I thought our team fought and had some great offensive possessions and were cohesive defensively but their size, strength and experience won out."

Samford led by as many as 11 points in the first half, but Wofford finished the half on a 25-5 run and led 36-27 at the half. By halftime, the Mocs led 54-46.

HIGHEST FREE THROW PERCENTAGE - NCAA FRESHMEN

1. Blake Ahearn, Missouri State 2003-04 117-12097.5%
2. Jim Burton, Dartmouth College 1986-87 108-11394.2%
3. Fletcher Magee, Wofford 2015-16 236-230 92.2%
4. J.J. Redick, Duke 2002-03 237-258 92.1%
5. T.J. Taha, BYU 2009-10 110-120 91.7%
HOW WOFFORD COMPARES
• Wofford ranks in the top 50 in six statistical categories nationally.
• The Terriers are shooting 41.8% from three point range, sixth best in the NCAA.
• Wofford’s 17.5 assists per game is 23rd in the country.
• 1.35 assist to turnover ratio is 32nd among NCAA teams.
• Wofford is shooting 47.8% from the field, 45th best in the country.
• Wofford’s free throw percentage of 77.2% is 13th nationally.
• The Terriers’ 9.4 three’s made per game is 33rd best in the country.

SLOW START TO JANUARY
• The last time the Wofford men’s basketball team started off January 0-2 was the 2012-13 season when the Terriers started off the month with a 62-48 loss at Tulane and a 50-49 loss to Appalachian State in the Benjamin Johnson Arena. Wofford went 2-7 in January games that season.

MAGEE BEING MAGEE
• Fletcher Magee finished in double digits in all 16 games this season. Magee averages a team high 15.6 points per game. His season high (27) came in Wofford’s game at Coastal Carolina. He nearly missed double digit figures in the Terriers last game but hit a three with less than two minutes to go to get to 10 points and keep the streak alive.

PARTIAL TO BENJAMIN JOHNSON ARENA
• The Terriers lost their first game in Benjamin Johnson Arena in almost a year when Wofford fell to The Citadel on Jan. 2. That was Wofford’s first loss in the BenJo since January 11, 2016 when Wofford fell 77-68 to Chattanooga. Wofford is averaging 99.8 points in games played in Benjamin Johnson Arena, while holding opponents to 76.8 points in home contests. However, the Terriers are averaging only 67.5 points per game in the six road matchups at LSU, Colorado, TCU, Coastal Carolina, Georgia Tech and Chattanooga. The 75 points Wofford scored in the win at Coastal Carolina was the most points scored away from the BenJo this season. The Terriers haven’t scored below 76 points at home and have scored over 100 (117 vs. Allen, 116 vs. UVA Wise, 103 vs. The Citadel) three times.

GARCIA GETTING HOT
• Senior point guard Eric Garcia has five 20+ point games in his career, with four coming in the last four contests. Garcia set a career high in scoring with 23 points against Coastal Carolina on Dec. 19 and followed that performance up with another 23 point game at Georgia Tech three days later before breaking his record yet again with 31 points against Mercer in the team’s SoCon opener. In the previous four contests before Chatt, the senior was averaging 26.0 PPG, with two being on the road against stuff competition and the other two being in conference play. However, he has six consecutive games in double digits and hasn’t scored below 10 since 12/10/16 when he scored eight at TCU. Garcia set a career record against Georgia Tech in both three pointers made and three point attempts with six and nine, respectively. The only other time the senior has scored more than 20 points was at Mercer in Jan. of 2016 when he scored 21 points. Therefore, three of his five 20+ point games have come on the road.
• Eric Garcia was the first Terrier to score 30+ points since Fletcher Magee scored his career high 34 against VMI on Feb. 8, 2016.

HOOVER CONTRIBUTING OFF THE BENCH
• Freshman guard Nathan Hoover is averaging 7.1 points per game, fifth among Wofford players. The four Terriers in front of him, all starters, are averaging 10 or more (Magee, Garcia, Sawvell, Jackson). Hoover scored 17 against Georgia Tech as he went 4-12 from the field and 3-8 from beyond the arc. Hoover also set a career high with six made field goals as he went a perfect 6-6 from the line. He was the Terriers leading scorer in the season opener at LSU, scoring 18 in his first game as a Terrier.

461 STRAIGHT THREEES
• Wofford has made a 3-point field goal in 461 consecutive games. The Terriers made it 400 straight at home over ETSU (Jan. 24, 2015). Wofford was last shutout Feb. 2, 2002 against VMI (0-4).

MOVING ON UP
• With Wofford’s win over Coastal Carolina on Dec. 19, head coach Mike Young recorded his 238th win at Wofford. The win moved him ahead of current Wofford athletic director and former head coach Richard Johnson for second most wins in program history. Gene Alexander has the most all-time with 283 wins.
• Young also currently sits in fourth place in wins by a coach in the Southern Conference with 238 wins. He is five wins from tying Mack McCarthy (Chattanooga) and Burton Shipley (Maryland) who are tied for the second most wins.

SEASON OF FIRSTS
• Wofford opened the season at LSU in the first meeting between the two programs. The Terriers matched up with Vermont in the Gulf Coast Showcase, another first time meeting. TCU was the third first time meeting for Wofford when the two met in Fort Worth on Dec. 10. Wofford fell in all three contests, losing at LSU 91-69, against Vermont 60-59 and at TCU 72-63.
• Wofford played six teams for the first time in program history last season, which included Maryland Eastern Shore (Nov. 21), Columbia (Nov. 24), Kentucky Christian (Dec. 3), Coastal Carolina (Dec. 14), Austin Peay (Dec. 22) and Harvard (Dec. 31). The Terriers went 2-4 in those games, defeating Maryland Eastern Shore and Kentucky Christian, while falling to Columbia, Coastal Carolina, Austin Peay and Harvard.

MAGEE NAMED FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR 2015-16
• Freshman Fletcher Magee was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year when the league office announced its postseason awards on Tuesday ... Magee led the country in free throw percentage (92.2%) and was fourth in the country in 3-point field goal percentage (47.5%). He led all SoCon freshmen through the regular season in scoring (13.5 ppg), 3-point percentage (47.5%), free throw percentage (92.2%), 3-pointers made (85) and 3-pointers made per game (2.7) ... In Southern Conference games, Magee topped the league in 3-point shooting (51.9%) and free throw shooting (93.2%) ... He also led all freshmen in league games in 3-pointers made per game (3.1) and scoring (15.1 ppg) ... Magee reached double figures 21 times.

IN RARE COMPANY
• Freshman Fletcher Magee etched his name in the NCAA record books last season ... Magee was 92.5 percent (86-93) from the free throw line, making him the sixth freshman in NCAA history to average above 90 percent.

JERRY RICHARDSON INDOOR STADIUM
• Wofford College announced in fall of 2014 its plans to build the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium to house a new basketball/volleyball arena, locker rooms and other facilities ... The facility will replace Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate facility for intramural and campus recreational activities ... During his junior season, Murphy, a team captain, led his team to the region finals, averaging 18.4 points per game and 4.5 assists per game. Mike Young enters his 15th season as head coach and 28th season on the Wofford men’s basketball staff in 2016-17. He has built the Wofford College men’s basketball program into a Southern Conference powerhouse and NCAA Tournament fixture.

With Southern Conference Tournament championships in 2010, 2011, 2014 and 2015, Wofford is one of 43 programs nationally to have reached the NCAA Tournament at least four times in the six-year span from 2010-15. The Terriers are also one of just four programs to win their conference tournament in four of those six seasons. Young’s teams have totaled five postseason appearances and four 20-win campaigns in that span.

In his 14-year head coaching career at Wofford, Young boasts a record of 232-209 (.526), including 136-109 (.555) in Southern Conference play. Young’s 232 wins rank among the Top 10 in program history. Young is the only coach in Wofford history to record over 200 wins.

A three-time SoCon Coach of the Year (2010, 2014, 2015), Young has also received national recognition as the Hugh Durham Mid-Major Coach of the Year by Collegesidier.com. During his distinguished career, Young has coached many Terriers on to go to play professionally. He has coached Olympian Mike Lundy, All-American Noah Dahlman, and Academic All-American Brad Loesing. Through Young’s head-coaching tenure, Wofford has accumulated all Southern Conference selections by the coaches and as many as 25 from the media.

Under Young’s leadership, the Terriers’ resume includes impressive non-conference wins over the likes of Auburn, Cincinnati, Clemson, Georgia, North Carolina State, Purdue, South Carolina, Virginia Tech, Xavier and Wake Forest. Young believes in playing the best competition. A recent Wofford non-conference schedule was ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

The success Young has achieved on the court has complemented his emphasis on academics. Young’s program has a 100 percent graduation rate for student-athletes who have completed their eligibility at Wofford.

One of the defining characteristics of Young’s program is the family atmosphere, evidenced by current assistant coaches Tim Johnson and Kevin Giltner, former Wofford student-athlete. Young has seen a total of six players remain in the program, after their playing days, as members of his staff.

The last seven seasons have seen Wofford emerge as a dominant program in the Southern Conference. This 2014-15 campaign was the best yet. The Terriers were 28-7 overall, 16-2 SoCon, on route to an outright Southern Conference Regular Season Championship, fourth SoCon Tournament Championship and fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. Young’s resume numbers for wins and conference wins were set, with a schedule that ranked 26th in the country in non-conference strength. The non-conference slate saw the Terriers make trips to Stanford, as well as three trips to NCAA Sweet 16 teams in West Virginia, Duke and North Carolina State. Wofford took a 55-54 win over the Wolfpack on December 14, 2014, which was NC State’s first loss in their historic home of Reynolds Coliseum since the 1999 NIT. The Terriers had eight straight conference wins in SoCon play, including victories in 14 of their last 15 games. Young was named SoCon Coach of the Year for a third time and saw senior Karl Cochran named SoCon Player of the Year. Senior Lee Skinner was also an all-conference selection and named SoCon Tournament Most Outstanding Player.

Wofford earned its highest seed in school history in the 2015 NCAA Tournament, going to Jacksonville, Florida as the No. 12 seed in the West Region to take on No. 5 seeded Arkansas. The Terriers led 28-27 at the half, outrebounded Arkansas 37-35 and led for over half the game before the Razorbacks edged out the Terriers, 56-55. In the season’s final RPI posted by the NCAA, the Terriers checked in at No. 49.

Young’s first postseason team, in 2009-10, tied a school record with a 13-game winning streak. It was part of a stretch that saw the Terriers win 22 of 24 games en route to what was then a school-record 26 victories, including a 15-3 mark in league play. The Terriers won the SoCon South Division title and the tournament championship for the first time. Wofford came back the next season with a share of the SoCon South Division title and another conference tournament championship.

Young’s time at Wofford has spanned four decades and covered the Terriers moving from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent in 1995-96 and to the Southern Conference in 1997-98. He was promoted to associate head coach in August 1998. Young has been on the Wofford bench for 798 contests over the past 27 seasons.

Prior to assuming the head coaching reins at Wofford, Young was an assistant coach to current athletics directorRichard Johnson. His impact as a head coach was seen immediately. In his first season in charge, Young led the Terriers to their best record in 10 seasons at the Division I level and a third-place finish in the SoCon Championship. Wofford’s third place finish in 2009-10 saw them win a berth in NAIA’s national semifinals.

It’s all about the student-athlete experience for Young. Every player means the world to him, and it’s not just those 16 SoCon selections (Mike Lynch, Noah Dahlman, Tim Johnson, Brad Loesing, Kevin Giltner, Tyler Berg, Chad Luckow, Heath Nunn, Lee Skinner, Cameron Rundles, Jamar Diggs, Karl Cochran, Lee Skinner and Spencer Collins). Chadwick (2000-01) Dahlman (2010-11), and Cochran (2014-15) have been SoCon Players of the Year, while Dahlman was the SoCon Tournament’s Most Outstanding Player in back-to-back seasons (2010, 2011).

Young’s influence on incoming players has been seen with eight Terriers appearing on the All-SoCon Freshman Team (Ian Chadwick, Tyler Berg, Brad Loesing, Karl Cochran, Justin Stephens, Spencer Collins, Eric Garcia and Fletcher Magee). Chadwick (1997-98), Cochran (2011-12) andMagee (2015-16) were named SoCon Freshmen of the Year. Magee led the nation in free throw percentage (92.5 percent) as a freshman, setting the program’s new single-season record and becoming just the sixth freshman to shoot 90 percent or better in NCAA men’s Div I history (min. 2.5 makes per game). Magee’s freshman season also saw him rank third nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (47.9 percent).

In 2012, each of our program’s five graduates (Drew Crowell, Kevin Giltnert, Brad Loesing, Joseph Tecklenburg and Matt Stelman) were named to the Southern Conference All-Academic Team.

A native of Randolph, Va., Young came to Wofford after serving as a graduate assistant for one year under Oliver Purnell at Radford University. A 1996 graduate of Emory & Henry College, he was a four-year letterman in basketball for coach Bob Bobbitt and the team captain his junior and senior seasons. He credits Bobbitt for having a major influence on his playing and coaching career.

Upon his graduation, Young became a full-time assistant coach for one year at Emory & Henry before moving on to Radford. Another mentor in his coaching philosophy is Hatchett Amrein, longtime coach of Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy. Young played one season for him before entering Emory and Henry.

Young and his wife, Margaret, were married on Aug. 13, 1994 in her hometown of Camden, S.C. She is a 1992 Wofford graduate and a partner with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. The couple has a daughter, Cooper, and a son, Davis.

Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium

- Wofford College announced on Nov. 17, 2014, its plans to build the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium to house a new basketball/volleyball arena, locker rooms and other facilities. The facility will be adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football. Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson ’59 provided the gift to fund the 92,000-square-foot facility that will include a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 500-seat volleyball competition venue. The facility will replace Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate facility for intramural and campus recreational activities. Construction on the new facility begins in the fall of 2015 with the opening date slated for September 2017. A groundbreaking ceremony was held Tuesday, October 20, 2015.

Mr. Richardson leads in the official groundbreaking, which took place October 20.
