The NCAA Tournament
- Wofford makes its return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2015. The Terriers are 0-4 all-time in the big dance, falling to fifth-seeded Arkansas 56-53 in their most recent appearance. Redshirt senior Cameron Jackson is the lone Terrier with NCAA Tournament experience (Wofford, 2015).

Third Time’s the Charm
- Wofford will play its opening game of the tournament in Jacksonville for the third time, being placed there in 2010 and 2015. In 2010, the Terriers were tied with Wisconsin with 1:17 to play, but the Badgers ended up prevailing by four (53-49). Against Arkansas, Wofford led for over 20 minutes, but a late charge from the Razorbacks did in the Terriers, rattling out two 3-pointers in the final possession.

One for the History Books
- The 2018-19 campaign has been a record one for Wofford, setting new program marks in wins (29), wins in a regular season (26), wins in a row (20) and wins in the Southern Conference, going 18-0 in the regular season and 21-0 against SoCon foes on the season (tournament included). The perfect conference season was the SoCon’s first since Stephen Curry’s Davidson squad ran the table in 2007-08, and the No. 7 seed is the conference’s highest since 1979. Wofford also claimed its first AP Top 25 ranking in program history, being ranked No. 24 on February 25, and have been boosted to No. 20 since. Senior guard Fletcher Magee sits just three 3-pointers shy of breaking Travis Bader’s (Oakland) all-time record for made 3-pointers, draining 502 thus far in his four seasons as a Terrier.

In his 17th season as head coach and 30th season on the Wofford men's basketball staff, Mike Young has built the Wofford College men's basketball program into a Southern Conference powerhouse and NCAA Tournament fixture.

Young boasts a record of 298-243 (.551), including 175-24 (.581) in Southern Conference play. Young’s 293 wins rank second in Southern Conference history and first in school history after passing Richard Johnson in the 2016-17 season. Young, current Director of Athletics Richard Johnson (236), and the late Gene Alexander (283) are the only coaches in Wofford history to record over 200 wins.

Young guided the 2018-19 Terriers to a program-record 29 wins (29-4) and was named SoCon Coach of the Year for the fourth time after Wofford completed the first undefeated season (18-0) in conference play since 2007-08 (Davidson). Young, who is a semifinalist for the 2019 Werner Ladder Naimsh Men’s College Coach of the Year award, was named the 2019 Sporting News Coach of the Year. On February 25, Young garnered Wofford’s first ever Associated Press Top 25 ranking (24), having since moved up to No. 20. Wofford, whose only four losses were to teams that were all ranked in the AP Top 25 this season (North Carolina, Oklahoma, Kansas, Mississippi State), has not dropped a game since December 19, winning its last 20 contests and capping off the regular season with the program’s fifth SoCon title, earning its fifth automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament in the last 10 seasons.

A four-time SoCon Coach of the Year (2010, 2014, 2015), Young has also received national recognition as the Hugh Durham National Mid-Major Coach of the Year by Collegelinsider.com (2009-10) and is a finalist for this year’s award. Additionally, Young is a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award and is also a finalist for the U.S. Basketball Writers Association Henry Iba Award for National Coach of the Year. During his distinguished tenure, Young has seen many Terriers go on to play professionally. He has coached Olympian Mike Lenzly, All-American Noah Dahlman, Academic All-American Brad Loesing and 20 All-SoCon selections.

Under Young’s leadership, the Terriers’ resume includes impressive non-conference wins over the likes of Auburn, Cincinnati, Clemson, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Purdue, South Carolina, Virginia Tech, Xavier and Wake Forest. Young believes in playing the best competition. A recent Wofford non-conference schedule was ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

The success Young has achieved on the court has complemented his emphasis on academics. Young’s program has a 100-percent graduation rate for student-athletes who have completed their eligibility at Wofford.

One of the defining characteristics of Young’s program is the family atmosphere, evidenced by current assistant coach Kevin Giltnner. Former Director of Basketball Operations, Drew Gibson, and former assistant coach, Tim Johnson, were also former Wofford student-athletes who spent time on Young’s staff before going on to coach at other institutions. Young has seen a total of six players remain in the program, after their playing days, as members of his staff.

The 2017-18 season was one for the books. Wofford picked up its first signature win in new Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium with a 63-60 victory over Georgia Tech on a buzzer beater from Fletcher Magee. It was the Terriers’ first win over an ACC school since Wofford downed N.C. State on the road on Dec. 14, 2014. The win is also the first at home in program history over one of the ACC’s current 15 teams.

On Dec. 20, Wofford went into the Dean E. Smith Center and upset No. 5 North Carolina, the defending national champions. It was Wofford’s first win over a team in the AP Top 25 in program history. The Terriers finished the season with a 21-13 record, surpassing the 20-win mark for the first time under Young. Fletcher Magee was named the Malcolm U. Pitt Player of the Year (Media) and was a First Team All-SoCon selection, while Cameron Jackson earned Second Team honors and Storm Murphy was placed on the All-Freshman team, Wofford’s sixth All-Freshman team member in the last seven seasons.

Magee was a finalist for the Lou Henson Award (presented to the nation’s top mid-major player) and the Jerry West Award (presented to the nation’s best shooting guard) and was on the mid-season watch list for The Lute Olson Award (presented to the nation’s top player). He was tabbed as the SoCon Player of the Week four times and the Player of the Month three times. Magee was an AP All-America Honorable Men... led 28-27 at the half, outrebounded Arkansas 37-35 and led for over half the game before the Razorbacks edged out the Terriers, 56-53.

Prior to assuming the head coaching reins at Wofford, Young was an assistant coach to current athletics director Richard Johnson. His impact as a head coach was seen immediately. In his first season in charge, Young led the Terriers to their best record in eight seasons on the Division I level and a third-place finish in the SoCon South Division after Wofford was predicted to finish sixth.

In 2013-14, the team was 20-13 overall and 11-5 in the Southern Conference to finish third overall. Following a non-conference slate, the Terriers won nine straight games in January and February. A key road win at Elon in the final week of the regular season secured a bye for the SoCon Tournament. The team secured victories over The Citadel, Georgia Southern, and Western Carolina to take the title and earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. In Milwaukee, the No. 15 seed Terriers lost 57-40 to No. 2 seed Michigan.

Following the campaign, Young was named SoCon Coach of the Year for the second time. Karl Cochran and Lee Skinner earned All-Southern Conference honors, while Cochran was named Most Outstanding Performer at the SoCon Tournament. Eric Garcia was named to the All-Freshman squad.

The Terriers opened the 2010-11 campaign with a challenging slate of non-conference opponents and were 5-8 at the end of December. Once into conference play, the team quickly won five-of-six games to get over .500. To end the regular season, Wofford won five straight games to earn a share of the Southern Conference South Division title with the College of Charleston.

In the SoCon Tournament, the Terriers defeated Appalachian State and Western Carolina for a second-straight appearance in the finals. In the title game, Wofford faced College of Charleston, who had won both regular season meetings over the Terriers. The third time was all Wofford in a 77-67 win to cut down the nets in Chattanooga. Noah Dahlman earned Most Outstanding Player honors for the second straight season.

Wofford, seeded 14, faced No. 3 seed BYU in the second round of the NCAA Tournament in Denver. The Terriers kept the game close, but were unable to stop NCAA Player of the Year Jimmer Fredette. Following the season, Noah Dahlman, Tim Johnson and Cameron Rundles earned All-Conference honors.

In 2009-10, the Terriers began the season 4-6, but then proceeded to finish by winning 22 of 24, including a 13-game winning streak which matched the longest in school history. Also included were wins over SEC foes South Carolina and Georgia. After securing the South Division Championship with a 15-3 conference mark, Wofford entered the SoCon Tournament as the top seed for the first time. After defeating UNC Greensboro and Western Carolina, the team earned a spot in the finals. In a game dominated by the Terrier defense, Wofford won 56-51 over Appalachian State to take the first Southern Conference Championship and the league's bid to the NCAA Tournament.

In the Jacksonville Regional, Wofford was a 13 seed and faced four-seed Wisconsin. The Terriers kept it a one possession game until the final seconds in a 53-49 loss.

Young's time at Wofford has spanned four decades and covered the Terriers moving from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent in 1995-96 and to the Southern Conference in 1997-98. He was promoted to associate head coach in August 1998. Young has been on the Wofford bench for 832 contests over the past 29 seasons.

A native of Radford, Va., Young came to Wofford after serving as a graduate assistant for one year under Oliver Purnell at Radford University. A 1986 graduate of Emory & Henry College, he was a four-year letterman in basketball for coach Bob Johnson and the team captain his junior and senior seasons. He credits Johnson for having a major influence on his playing and coaching careers.

Upon his graduation, Young became a full-time assistant coach for two years at Emory & Henry before moving on to Radford. Another mentor in his coaching philosophies is Fletcher Arritt, longtime coach of Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy. Young played one season for him before attending Emory and Henry. In the summer of 2015, Young was inducted into the Emory & Henry College Sports Hall of Fame, as well as the Radford High School Hall of Fame. Young and his wife, Margaret, were married on Aug. 13, 1994 in her hometown of Camden, S.C. She is a 1992 Wofford graduate and a partner with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. The couple has a daughter, Cooper, and a son, Davis.
