ATLANTIC HOCKEY AND COLLEGE HOCKEY AMERICA MERGER

The Atlantic Hockey Association and College Hockey America merged operations beginning with the 2024-25 college hockey season.

“Merging our two leagues gives us the opportunity to streamline our operations and build an enhanced brand in men’s and women’s ice hockey as a unified conference,” Atlantic Hockey America commissioner Michelle Morgan said. “Joining forces under one name provides a strong foundation for both leagues as we build a new experience for our current and future men’s and women’s student-athletes, coaches and fans.”

Atlantic Hockey and College Hockey America shared a Commissioner and conference staff since 2010, but prior to the 2024-25 season, have operated as separate entities with their own boards of directors and by-laws.

The conferences operated separately and officially merged operations on July 1, 2024.

FLOHOCKEY.TV

Prior to the start of the 2024-25 regular season, Atlantic Hockey America inked a three-year deal with FloSports. For the upcoming 2025-26 regular season, every home game from AHA women’s member institutions will be streamed on FloHockey.tv.

The innovator in live digital sports and original content, FloHockey.tv is the official online streaming platform of Atlantic Hockey America. Live and archived broadcasts of AHA games are provided to fans via iOS, Roku, Fire TV or Apple TV 4.

Atlantic Hockey America embarks on its second season in 2025-26 after the merger between the Atlantic Hockey Association and College Hockey America. Third-year commissioner Michelle Morgan continues to lead the conference into a new era, as Morgan spearheaded the merger between the two leagues in her first year.

For the 2025-26 season, AHA men's league features 10 teams: Air Force, Army, Bentley, Canisius, Holy Cross, Mercyhurst, Niagara, RIT, Robert Morris and Sacred Heart

Membership History

Since its inception prior to the 2003-04 season, Atlantic Hockey has established itself as one of the most balanced conferences in college hockey.

Six original members remain in the conference today - Army, Bentley, Canisius, Holy Cross, Mercyhurst, and Sacred Heart. These schools, as well as AIC, Connecticut, and Quinnipiac conceived the concept of a standalone ice hockey conference when it became apparent they needed an organization that represented specific hockey needs.

Together, the teams broke away from the Metro Atlantic Athletic Association (MAAC) and started anew, creating the Atlantic Hockey Association on June 30, 2003. They installed Robert M. DeGregorio, Jr., former commissioner of Hockey East and Director of Athletics at Merrimack College, as commissioner of the new league.

In August of 2004, Quinnipiac announced that the 2004-05 season would be their last in Atlantic Hockey as they were leaving to join ECAC Hockey. Four months later, Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT) announced that their men's hockey program would be elevating to Division I status from Division III and would be joining Atlantic Hockey in 2006-07. Air Force also accepted an invitation to join Atlantic Hockey in 2006-07, bringing membership up to 10 institutions.

Membership again grew in 2010-11 to 12 schools, with Robert Morris and Niagara joining Atlantic Hockey. The Atlantic Hockey remained a 12-team league until the end of the 2013-14 season when UConn left for Hockey East, bringing Atlantic Hockey to 11 teams.

The league would stay at 11 teams until Robert Morris University announced it was eliminating its program following the 2020-21 to set the Atlantic Hockey membership at 10 programs for the 2022-21 campaign. The stay at 10 was short-lived however as RMU reinstated its program and was readmitted to the Atlantic Hockey on April 15, 2022. The Colonials are returning to play in the league this season. The league went back to 10 teams after AIC moved to the Division II level at the conclusion of the 2024-25 season.

National Stage

Holy Cross earned the conference's first NCAA bid in 2004 and two years later scored Atlantic Hockey's first tournament win, taking down No. 2 overall seed Minnesota in the West Region Semifinals in Grand Forks, N.D.

In 2009, Air Force played the role of giant-killer, scoring a 2-0 win over No. 4 overall seed Michigan at the East Regional in Bridgeport, Conn. In 2010, RIT became the first Atlantic Hockey team to skate into the Frozen Four, scoring wins over Denver and New Hampshire at the East Regional in Albany, N.Y., to send the Tigers to that season's event at Ford Field.

In recent seasons, RIT (2015), Air force (2017, 2018), and IAC (2019) have advanced to regional finals in search of another Frozen Four appearance for the conference.

In recent seasons, RIT (2015), Air Force (2017 & 2018), and AIC (2019) have advanced to regional finals in search of another Frozen Four appearance for the conference.

Off-Ice Excellence

Since its inception, Atlantic Hockey has placed as much emphasis on off-ice achievements as they have on-ice accolades. A record number 209 student-athletes were named to the Atlantic Hockey All-Academic Team in 2015-16, with 2016-17 nearly matching that with 207. In addition, Atlantic Hockey's student-athletes have put in countless hours in their respective communities, leaving lasting legacies that far exceed their abilities on the ice.

Air Force's Sam Brennan garnered Atlantic Hockey's 10th College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-America honor in 2022-23, joining Air Force's Mike Phillipich (2009), Adam McKenzie (2013), Kyle Haak (2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-19) and Dylan Abood (2017-18); Max French from Bentley (2016-17) and RIT's Adam Brubacher (2018-19, 2019-20).

In 2023-24, Air Force's Luke Robinson became the seventh Atlantic Hockey recipient of the Derek Hines Unsung Hero Award. Wilson joins Army's Chase Podsiad (2007-08) and Noah Wilson (2022-23), Air Force's Michael Phillipich (2008-09), and Dylan Abood (2017-18), Holy Cross' Matt Vidal and AIC's Jared Pike (2019-20) in that distinguished group.

Sacred Heart University opened the Martire Family Arena on Jan. 14, 2023. The 4,000 seat facility is the first on-campus home for the Pioneer program.

The Hines Award is presented annually to the NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey Player judged to best exemplify the qualities of sportsmanship, intelligence and work ethic.

Two Atlantic Hockey student-athletes have won the Hockey Humanitarian Award – Jeffrey Reppucci of Holy Cross (2014) and Chris Dylewski of Air Force (2016).

All-America Honors

On the ice, Atlantic Hockey has seen 19 players earn 21 American Hockey Coaches Association All-America honors. Eric Ehn of Air Force was the league's first All-American, being named a Second Team All-American in 2006-07. He was then followed by fellow Falcons Jacques Lamoureux (2008-09) and Tim Kirby (2011-12), Army goaltenders Josh Kassal (2009-10) and Trevin Kozlowski (2020-21) and forward Colin Bilek (2020-21, 2021-22), Sacred Heart forward Nick Johnson (2009-10), forward Jason Cotton (2019-20) and defenseman Mike Lee (2019-20), Niagara forward Paul Zanette (2010-11), RIT forwards Matt Garbowski (2014-15) and Will Calverley (2020-21), Canisius goaltender Charles Williams (2016-17), American International forward Blake Christensen (2018-19) and defenseman Brennan Kapcheck (2020-21), and Mercyhurst defenseman Joseph Duszak (2018-19). Most recently, Holy Cross forward Liam McLinskey was a two-time All-American (2023-24, 2024-25), and Army defenseman Mac Gadowsky was honored this past season (2024-25).

Canisius' Charles Williams and AIC's Brennan Kapcheck are Atlantic Hockey's first two First-Team All-Americans. In 2021-22 Army's Colin Bilek became the AHA's first two-time All-American when he was recognized by the AHCA for the second consecutive season.

Long-Tenured AHA Head Coaches

The 2025-26 season will be the final season for Mercyhurst head coach Rick Gotkin. Gotkin is the longest-tenured coach in college hockey, and has racked up 611 career wins. This upcoming seasons will be his 38th and final season behind the bench in Erie.

Army's Brian Riley retired following the 2024-25 season after taking the reins of the Army hockey program in 2004. Between Brian, his father Jack and brother Rob, the Riley family led the hockey program at the United States Military Academy for 75 years.

Wayne Wilson also retired following the 2024-25 season, and is the winningest coach in RIT program history. He took over as head coach in 1999, and guided the Tigers to four Atlantic Hockey Championships and four NCAA Tournament appearances. Most notably, Wilson led RIT on a historic run to the Frozen Four in RIT's fifth year at the Division I level in 2010. Under Wilson's watch, RIT totaled more conference (273) and overall (349) wins than any other current Atlantic Hockey team.

Frank Serratore enters his 29th season as the head coach at the United States Air Force Academy in 2025-26. Robert Morris' Derek Schooley enters his 20th season at RMU in 2025-26. Sacred Heart's C.J. Marottolo enters his 17th season at SHU in 2025-26.

Beyond Atlantic Hockey

Several Atlantic Hockey alums have reached the NHL. Former RIT defenseman and 2009-10 Atlantic Hockey Rookie of the Year, Calgary's Chris Tanev is the longest-tenured alumnus, having completed his 13th season in the league in 2022-23 while Sacred Heart's Justin Danforth skated in his second campaign with the Columbus Blue Jackets a season ago.

In 2021-22, Tanev and Danforth were recognized as nominees from the NHL's Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy, which is presented annually to the National Hockey League player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship, and dedication to ice hockey.

Mercyhurst's Jamie Hunt became the first Atlantic Hockey player to skate in the NHL when he took the ice with the Washington Capitals during the 2006-07 season. Canisius forward Cory Conacher skated in nearly 200 career NHL games with Tampa Bay, Ottawa, Buffalo and the New York Islanders from 2012-20.

Atlantic Hockey alumni continue to thrive in the AHL, ECHL, and internationally, including on the Olympic stage. Former Mercyhurst goalie Ryan Zapolski was the starting goaltender for Team USA during the 2018 Winter Olympics while former AIC defenseman Janis Janks made his Olympic debut with Latvia at the 2022 Beijing Games.

COMMISSIONER MICHELLE MORGAN

Michelle Morgan enters her third year as commissioner for Atlantic Hockey America (AHA) in 2025-26. After a thorough national search, Morgan was named AHA commissioner on Feb. 2, 2023, with her duties beginning on April 17, 2023. She is the second commissioner in Atlantic Hockey history, as she follows Robert DeGregorio, who retired after 20 years with Atlantic Hockey.

During Morgan's first year as commissioner, she led Atlantic Hockey and College Hockey America through a merger of the two conferences.

She also streamlined operational efficiencies, helping to bring a new era to AHA that features 17 programs across 14 member institutions.

Before the start of the 2024-25 season, Morgan led AHA into a three-year streaming partnership with FloSports. She worked to modernize and streamline conference operations.

In addition, Morgan expanded conference membership from six to seven teams on the women's side, as AHA welcomes Delaware for its inaugural season of play in 2025-26.

In addition, Morgan expanded conference membership for the AHA women's league from six to seven teams, as the AHA welcomes Delaware women's hockey for the 2025-26 season.

Morgan leads league efforts to further AHA involvement on the national and international stages. In 2025-26, two AHA programs (RIT and Sacred Heart) will participate in the Friendship Four Tournament in Belfast for the first time.

Prior to leading AHA, Morgan served as the Senior Director of Athletics at John Carroll University from 2018-23. Morgan oversaw a period of tremendous growth and success for John Carroll athletics during her tenure in University Heights, Ohio. The Blue Streaks won 43 Ohio Athletic Conference championships and made 42 NCAA postseason appearances.

Under her leadership, John Carroll won the OAC All-Sports Men's Trophy in 2018-19, 2020-21 and 2021-22, and came within a point of the program's first-ever OAC All-Sports Women's Trophy in 2020-21.

During the celebration of 100 years of Athletics at John Carroll, Morgan helped to establish a $500,000 fund for the creation of the Champions Endowment, which helped to sustain success at a national level for all Blue Streak athletic programs. Her tenure also saw the addition of women's wrestling as John Carroll's 24th varsity sport and $4 million in athletic facility improvements that greatly enhanced training, competition and the quality of experience for the more than 700 student-athletes under her oversight. She was a part of the design process and planning for a new athletic, wellness and event space that is slated to open in Fall 2024.

In recognition of her efforts on behalf of John Carroll athletics, Morgan was presented with an Honorary ESPY as the Administrator of the Year in July 2022 and was recognized as a NACDA Athletic Director of the Year in 2023.

An active member on the national intercollegiate athletics scene, Morgan was appointed to a four-year term on the NCAA Division III Management Council in 2019. She served as Chair of the council from January 2022 – January 2023. During that year, she held a seat on the prestigious association-wide NCAA Board of Governors and was a part of the hiring process for NCAA President, Charlie Baker.

Morgan also served on various NCAA committees, including: the Football Concussion Task Force (association-wide), Committee for Sportsmanship and Ethical Conduct (association-wide), Olympic Sports Liaison Committee (association-wide), Women's Ice Hockey Committee (DIII), Championships Committee (DIII), Presidents Council (DIII), Advisory Council (DIII), Administrative Committee (DIII), Strategic Planning and Finance Committee (DIII), Interpretations and Legislative Relief (DIII), Joint Legislative Steering Committee (DIII), Subcommittee for Legislative Relief (DIII), NCAA Convention Planning subcommittee and the Strategic Positioning Platform Working Group (DIII). She holds memberships in NACDA, Women Leaders in Sports and Women in Sports and Entertainment (WiSE).

Morgan is also an engaged associate member of the Chicago Blackhawk Alumni Association. She spearheaded efforts for a pair of alumni games ahead of the National Hockey League Outdoor Stadium Series game in 2016 in Minneapolis and the 2017 NHL Winter Classic in St. Louis. In this role, she served as the liaison to the NHL, Minnesota Wild, St. Louis Blues, and the Chicago Blackhawks organizations for the alumni weekends at both events. The two games, held at TCF Bank Stadium and Busch Stadium, respectively, hosted nearly 40,000 fans for contests featuring the Blackhawk alumni.

Additionally, Morgan spent eight years at her alma mater, the University of St. Thomas, where she held the position of Senior Women's Administrator and Associate Athletic Director. In that role, she served as the athletic department's liaison to the university's Marketing, Insights, and Communications team, leading external relations, branding, and marketing initiatives. She led negotiations for the first department-wide athletic apparel contract at St. Thomas in 2014, which outfitted all athletes in Nike apparel and accessories.

One of Morgan's most significant achievements occurred in 2017 when she played a key role in the Tommie-Johnnie Football game. She negotiated an agreement with the Minnesota Twins organization for the game to be played at Target Field, securing Oppidan Investing Company as the game's presenting sponsor. She guided the planning and execution of all game operations, fan experience, ticket sales, merchandise, and marketing for the largest football game in Division III history at that time. The record crowd of 37,355 outdrew 28 FBS games and 56 of 57 FCS games that took place the same weekend.

Before St. Thomas, Morgan worked for the NHL's Minnesota Wild as an Account Executive for Corporate Sponsorships. During her five years with the organization, Morgan's responsibilities included corporate sponsorships sales for the Minnesota Wild, Minnesota Swarm of the National Lacrosse League, the Western Collegiate Hockey Association Final Five, and Minnesota State High School League boys and girls state hockey tournaments, as well as negotiating annual suite leases. She also held positions in corporate partnerships with the Minnesota Vikings and marketing with the Chicago Blackhawks.

Morgan has served as an adjunct professor at St. Thomas and currently at John Carroll, teaching graduate-level coursework in Sports Studies. She previously served as a Board Member of Women in Sports and Entertainment (WiSE), Cleveland and the Positive Coaching Alliance in Cleveland and Minneapolis.

The Brookfield, Ill., native holds degrees in Business Administration, Marketing Management and a Master of Business Administration from St. Thomas.

An accomplished student-athlete, Morgan was a four-year member of the St. Thomas women's ice hockey team.

ATLANTIC HOCKEY AMERICA STAFF

COLE MCKENNEY ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER FOR OPERATIONS

Cole McKenney enters his second season as Assistant Commissioner for Operations for Atlantic Hockey America in 2025-26. He is responsible for the daily operations of the conference, as well as business operations and travel logistics for officials.

McKenney joined Atlantic Hockey America after three years with Northeastern University Athletics, where he worked full-time as the Business Operations Coordinator after one year as a Graduate Assistant. He was responsible for managing the department's daily business operations, which included invoice payments, team travel logistics and contract submissions. Furthermore, he served as the liaison between the university's main office and the athletics office.

Additionally, McKenney officiates basketball at the high school level for IAABO Board 27 and NCAA Division III. McKenney is also a member of the Executive Board for Board 27, serving as their Assistant Secretary Treasurer.

McKenney earned his Bachelor of Science in December 2020 from Northeastern University in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing. He later earned his Master's degree in Sports Leadership from Northeastern in July of 2022.

McKenney originally hails from Braintree, Mass.

EUGENE BINDA JR. SUPERVISOR OF OFFICIALS

Long-time NCAA and professional official Eugene Binda Jr. enters his third season as Atlantic Hockey America's Supervisor of Officials in 2025-26. Binda, who retired from officiating following the 2021-22 season, served as an official observer for Atlantic Hockey during the 2022-23 campaign.

Long-time NCAA and professional official Eugene Binda Jr. enters his second season as Atlantic Hockey America's Supervisor of Officials in 2024-25.

Binda, who retired from officiating following the 2021-22 season, served as an officials observer for Atlantic Hockey during the 2022-23 campaign.

A native of the South Boston neighborhood, Binda officiated games at the NCAA Division I level for Atlantic Hockey, Hockey East, ECAC Hockey and the NCHC. Additionally, Binda served as an official in the USHL, AHL, ECHL, SPHL, as well as high school and amateur hockey contests over a 30-year career that began in 1992.

Nationally, Binda officiated three NCAA Frozen Fours (2016, 2018, 2022) and eight NCAA regionals from 2015-22, along with conference tournaments for Atlantic Hockey, the NCHC and Hockey East. He capped his career in 2022 with men's championship game assignments at the Beanpot, Hockey East and Frozen Four.

At the professional level, Binda refereed playoffs for the AHL, ECHL and SPHL from 2009-18, including ECHL finals assignments in 2009 and 2010 and the AHL conference finals in 2013 and 2014.

GABE HERMAN DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Gabe Herman enters his first season with AHA in 2025-26. Herman's duties include serving as AHA's media liaison and overseeing all aspects of conference-related communications and announcements, as well as maintaining statistics and archival records of the league.

The Minnetonka, Minn. native comes to AHA after one season as assistant director of athletic communications at the University of Nebraska at Omaha, where he acted as the media contact for Maverick hockey. Herman worked the 2023-24 campaign as the Pittsburgh Penguins' communications graduate assistant.

A 2023 graduate of Penn State University, Herman began his career in the athletic department's strategic communications unit as a student assistant with the men's hockey program.

EVAN MALDONADO DIGITAL MEDIA MANAGER

Evan Maldonado enters his second season as Digital Media Manager for Atlantic Hockey America in 2025-26. His duties include social media management, graphic design, videography, content creation and other communications tasks.

Maldonado joined Atlantic Hockey America after serving as the Assistant Director of Graphic Design for the athletic department at UT Arlington.

Before his time at UT Arlington, Maldonado spent two seasons at the University of South Dakota as an Assistant Sports Information Director. He was the main point of contact for various programs, including men's basketball, and traveled with and documented the men's basketball seasons. Other duties included writing press releases, post-game recaps, updating media guides and game notes and developing relationships with media members.

While obtaining his master's degree, Maldonado served as the Sports Information Graduate Assistant for the Fort Hays State athletic department for two years.

A native of Hutchinson, Kansas, Maldonado graduated from Central Christian College of Kansas with a bachelor's degree in Sports Management in 2019 and went on to earn his master's degree from Fort Hays State University in Sports Administration in 2021. He currently resides in Salina, Kansas, with his wife, Marleigh and daughter, Baker.

ATLANTIC HOCKEY AMERICA PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Liam McLinskey, Sr., F, Holy Cross (Pearl River, N.Y.)

Holy Cross senior Liam McLinskey is the dual winner of the Forward of the Year Award and the AHA Player of the Year Award. McLinskey led Atlantic Hockey with 43 points on 20 goals and 23 assists during the regular season, and ended the 2024-25 season with 54 points on 24 goals and 30 assists.

The senior forward orchestrated a seven-game goal streak from Nov. 7 - Nov. 30, and totaled 13 multi-point games in the regular season. The Pearl River, NY native tallied 39 points on 19 goals and 20 assists in 26 league games. His rating of +20 in conference play also led all skaters in the league. McLinskey is the first AHA skater to earn back-to-back Player of the Year honors and conference scoring titles in league history.

ATLANTIC HOCKEY ALL-AMERICANS

19 Atlantic Hockey players have been honored as All-Americans a total of 21 times since the league's founding season of 2003-04. Army West Point's Colin Bilek became the first two-time All-American in AHA history when he earned Second Team honors in 2020-21 and 2021-22.

The selection of All-Americans has been administered by the American Hockey Coaches' Association (AHCA) and voted on by members (Division I coaches) of the organization. The annual announcement of All-Americans includes both East and West Teams.

Character Builds Excellence

The Atlantic Hockey Association celebrated two decades of history during the 2022-23 season.

The celebration included recognition of the top 20 players in the AHA's first 20 seasons. The honorees were announced individually each week throughout the 2022-23 regular season.

In addition to being recognized as the top players in the conference's first two decades, the group is the first induction class into the Atlantic Hockey Hall of Honor.

All current and former Atlantic Hockey member institutions were asked to nominate players for consideration. The nominees were reviewed and voted on for selection by a panel consisting of media members and Atlantic Hockey staff.

ATLANTIC HOCKEY HALL OF HONOR INDUCTEES

Colin Bilek, F, Army West Point: A two-time Hobey Baker Award nominee and Atlantic Hockey's first two-time All-American, Bilek was the Atlantic Hockey co-scoring champion as a senior in 2021-22. His 20 career power play goals were the most among active AHA players at the end of the 2021-22 campaign. Bilek's senior season saw him set career highs for assists (20) and points (31) along with potting 11 goals.

Cory Conacher, F, Canisius: The first Atlantic Hockey Player of the Year and Scoring Champion from Canisius College, Conacher starred for the Golden Griffins from 2007-11 and was the No. 5 scorer in Atlantic Hockey history at the end of his Canisius career. He is still tied for 10th on the Atlantic Hockey career points list today and set or tied 12 Canisius records during his time with the program.

Justin Danforth, F, Sacred Heart: A Two-time All-Atlantic Hockey selection, Danforth starred for three seasons with Sacred Heart, tallying 124 points on 42 goals and 82 assists from 2013-17 before embarking on a professional career that saw him make his National Hockey League debut with the Columbus Blue Jackets in 2021-22 when he was named a finalist for the NHL's Bill Masterton Trophy.

Jared DeMichiel, G, RIT: A former Atlantic Hockey Goaltending Champion, DeMichiel was an All-Atlantic Hockey honoree and AHA All-Tournament selection during his Tiger career and set an AHA single-season record for wins in conference play with 21 in the 2009-10 campaign as he backstopped the Tigers to their first Frozen Four appearance. Today he is in his first year as the associate head coach at Michigan State.

Joseph Duszak, D, Mercyhurst: Former All-American and Atlantic Hockey Player of the Year Joseph Duszak of Mercyhurst University was a two-time All-Atlantic Hockey honoree and the conference's Best Defenseman in 2018-19 during his Laker career and ranks No. 3 on Atlantic Hockey's career goals by a defenseman list despite playing only three seasons in the AHA. As a junior in 2018-19, Duszak set AHA single-season records for most goals (16) and points (47) and goals in AHA play (15) by defenseman.

Eric Ehn, F, Air Force: The Atlantic Hockey Association's first All-American and Hobey Baker Hat Trick Finalist, Eric Ehn of Air Force, holds Atlantic Hockey single-season records for assists (40), assists per game (1.00), points (64), points per game (1.60) and points in CHA play (45) and shares the AHA record for assists per game in AHA play (1.00). His 29 assists and 1.61 points per game in AHA play in 2006-07 both rank No. 2 in conference history, with the latter being a shared record.

Brady Ferguson, F, Robert Morris: Atlantic Hockey's co-career scoring leader, Robert Morris University's Brady Ferguson is one of only two players to top 160 career points in Atlantic Hockey history, Ferguson scored 167 points on 66 goals and 101 assists from 2014-18 to equal the AHA career record set by Bentley's Brett Gensler from 2010-14. Ferguson's 101 career assists rank No. 3 in Atlantic Hockey history.

Matt Garbowski, F, RIT: In 2014-15, Matt Garbowski became the first – and still only – player in Atlantic Hockey history to win the Atlantic Hockey Scoring Championship and Best Defensive Forward Award in the same season. Garbowski also earned AHA Player of the Year accolades and became RIT's first Hobey Baker finalist that season, his final campaign with the Tigers. He was also RIT's first Division I AHCA All-American.

Brett Gensler, F, Bentley: Brett Gensler, who starred for the Falcons from 2010-14, ended his career as Atlantic Hockey's scoring leader with 167 points on 73 goals and 94 assists. He remains the conference's career co-leader and one of only two AHA players to rank in the conference's top-10 for goals, assists and points. He is the only two-time scoring champion in AHA history and is Bentley's Division I leader in goals, assists and points.

Dan Ringwald, D, RIT: Dan Ringwald is Atlantic Hockey's career points (123) and assists (102) leader among defensemen and is the only blueliner in AHA history to record more than 120 career points and more than 100 career assists. The backbone of the defensive corps for three AHA regular season championship squads and RIT's 2010 Frozen Four team, Ringwald was a three-time All-Atlantic Hockey honoree.

Jamie Hunt, D, Mercyhurst: Jamie Hunt starred for three seasons with Mercyhurst, finishing his career with 81 points on 20 goals and 61 assists from 2003-06 before embarking on a professional career that saw him become the first Mercyhurst player to earn a spot on a National Hockey League roster. Hunt set AHA defenseman records for assists (30) and points (37) in conference play that remain No. 1 in both categories.

James Sixsmith, F, Holy Cross: James Sixsmith established AHA records that still stand today for career assists (104), assists per game (0.73) and assists in a single game (five). The Holy Cross forward was an Atlantic Hockey All-Rookie and All-Atlantic Hockey honoree, AHA Tournament MOP and Individual Sportsmanship Award winner during his Crusader career.

Brennan Kapcheck, D, AIC: AIC's Brennan Kapcheck was an Atlantic Hockey All-Rookie selection, three-time All-AHA honoree and won the AHA's Player of the Year, Rookie of the Year and Best Defenseman awards during his four seasons with the Yellow Jackets from 2017-21. As a senior in 2020-21, he was named the second First Team-All-American in Atlantic Hockey history after leading AIC to the regular season and postseason titles.

Andrew Volkening, G, Air Force: The only goaltender in Atlantic Hockey history to record more than 60 career wins, Andrew Volkening won the AHA Goaltending Championship as a junior in 2008-09 with a 2.09 goals-against average in AHA play. He holds the AHA career overall (69) and conference-play (51) wins records along with the career overall shutouts record (15) and single-season victories (28) record.

Jacques Lamoureux, F, Air Force: Jacques Lamoureux ended his career as Atlantic Hockey's No. 2 career goal-scorer with 79 tallies despite only playing three seasons with the Falcons. He holds Atlantic Hockey career records for power-play goals (41), power-play goals in conference play (34), game-winning goals (18), goals per game (0.68) and goals per game in conference play (0.71).

Cody Wydo, F, Robert Morris: Wydo scored an Atlantic Hockey record 85 goals for the Colonials from 2011-15 and is one of just nine players to record 150 or more career points in AHA history. His 61 career goals in conference play is also an AHA record. He is the only player in conference history to surpass 80 goals overall and 60 goals in AHA play. As a junior in 2013-14, Wydo set the AHA Postseason scoring record with 12 points on seven goals and five assists.

Zac Lynch, F, Robert Morris: Zac Lynch is tied for fourth on the Atlantic Hockey career scoring chart with 156 points and hold the AHA career and season records for shorthanded goals – both full-season (14) and AHA play only (11). His senior season scoring line of 55 points on 25 goals and 30 assists ranks No. 3 on the Atlantic Hockey single-season scoring list and his eight shorthanded goals that season is also an AHA record.

Shane Madolora, G, RIT: Shane Madolora posted an Atlantic Hockey-record .932 save percentage for RIT from 2009-12 that ranks No. 9 in NCAA history. His 1.97 goals-against average is the second-best in AHA history and he is one of just two netminders in AHA history to post a career sub-2.00 GAA. He also ranks No. 2 on the AHA career shutouts list with 13 and is third in conference history in winning percentage at .677.

Zach McKelvie, D, Army West Point: Zach McKelvie blueliner was a two-time All-Atlantic Hockey honoree and became the first Army West Point defender to earn AHA Best Defenseman honors when he was chosen for the award following the 2007-08 campaign. Following his military service, McKelvie returned to West Point as an assistant coach for the Black Knights in 2014. He has served as the squad's associate head coach since 2016.

Pierre-Luc O'Brien, F, Sacred Heart: Pierre-Luc O'Brien was the first three-time first team All-Atlantic Hockey honoree in conference history and the AHA's first Rookie of the Year as a freshman in the league's 2003-04 debut season. He ended his career as Atlantic Hockey's overall and conference play career scoring leader and still stands as the top scorer in AHA games and ranks No. 3 on the overall list.

In celebration of first 10 seasons competition, the Atlantic Hockey Association selected a 10th Anniversary Team at the conclusion of the 2012-13 season. The honor roll consisted of 18 players split among first- second-and third-team squads. The honorees included Bentley's Brett Gensler who was the only player active at his time of selection that season.
