Atlantic Hockey and College Hockey America Merger

The Atlantic Hockey Association and College Hockey America merged operations beginning with the 2024-25 college hockey season.

"Merging our two leagues gives us the opportunity to streamline our operations and build an enhanced brand in men's and women's ice hockey as a unified conference," Atlantic Hockey America commissioner Michelle Morgan said. "Joining forces under one name provides a strong foundation for both leagues as we build a new experience for our current and future men's and women's student-athletes, coaches and fans."

Atlantic Hockey and College Hockey America shared a commissioner and conference staff since 2010, but prior to the 2024-25 season, have operated as separate entities with their own boards of directors and by-laws.

The conferences operated separately for the 2023-24 season and officially merged operations on July 1, 2024.

FloHockey.tv

Prior to the start of the 2024-25 regular season, Atlantic Hockey America inked a three-year deal with FloSports. For the upcoming 2025-26 regular season, every home game from AHA women's member institutions will be streamed on FloHockey.tv.

The innovator in live digital sports and original content, FloHockey.tv is the official online streaming platform of Atlantic Hockey America. Live and archived broadcasts of AHA games are provided to fans via iOS, Roku, Fire TV or Apple TV 4.

Atlantic Hockey America embarks on its second season in 2025-26 after the merger between the Atlantic Hockey Association and College Hockey America in 2024. Third-year commissioner Michelle Morgan continues to lead the conference into a new era, as Morgan spearheaded the merger between the AHA and CHA in her first year with Atlantic Hockey.

For the 2025-26 season, the AHA women's league features seven teams: Delaware, Lindenwood, Mercyhurst, Penn State, RIT, Robert Morris and Syracuse. Delaware is the newest addition to the league, as the 2025-26 season will be the first at the Division I level for the Blue Hens.

Membership History

College Hockey America (CHA formed in the fall of 2002 with four teams – Findlay (Ohio, Mercyhurst and Wayne State (MI from the Great Lakes Women's Hockey Association and Niagara from the ECAC.

In the league's first year of competition, 2002-03, each member played two games against each of the other conference schools. Mercyhurst won the regular-season title with a 6-0 record. The Lakers continued on to win the first-ever CHA postseason tournament, held at the City Sports Center Arena in Detroit, with victories over Wayne State and Findlay.

The CHA saw several changes in membership over the years. Mercyhurst is the lone remaining original CHA member now in the AHA. Findlay dropped women's ice hockey after the 2003-04 season and was replaced in the CHA by Quinnipiac, which played the previous season as a Division I independent. The Bobcats played one year in CHA before joining their men's team in the ECAC. Robert Morris replaced Quinnipiac prior to the 2005-06 season to keep membership at four.

Syracuse was added as a fifth member for the 2008-09 season, and the league schedule increased to 16 games, four head-to-head games against each of the other members. In that season, the conference tournament also expanded to a three-day event for the first time in league history. The league dropped back to four members when Wayne State dropped women's hockey prior to the 2010-11 season.

Another period of transition ushered in three new members, Lindenwood, Penn State and RIT, for the start of the 2012-13 season. Niagara dropped women's ice hockey during the same offseason, leaving the league with six members.

Robert Morris, winners of three CHA regular season crowns, saw its program eliminated by the university following the 2020-21 campaign, dropping league membership to five institutions for the 2021-22. RMU reinstated its program on Dec. 2021 and was readmitted to the CHA on March 3, 2022. The Colonials returned to competition in the CHA in 2023-24.

The addition of Delaware for the 2025-26 season brings the AHA's active membership to seven teams.

Regular Season and Postseason Titles

Mercyhurst was the CHA's top regular season program, winning 13 regular season outright titles and one shared regular season crown (Wayne State, 2007-08) from 2002-03 through 2015-16 and adding a 15th crown in 2019-20. Robert Morris won three-consecutive titles from 2016-17 through 2018-19. Robert Morris claimed the regular season title in 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-19, while Syracuse won it in 2021-22). Penn State won the regular season title in each of the last two years of the CHA, as well as the first Atlantic Hockey America womens' regular season crown in 2024-25. The Nittany Lions have also claimed three consecutive conference postseason titles.

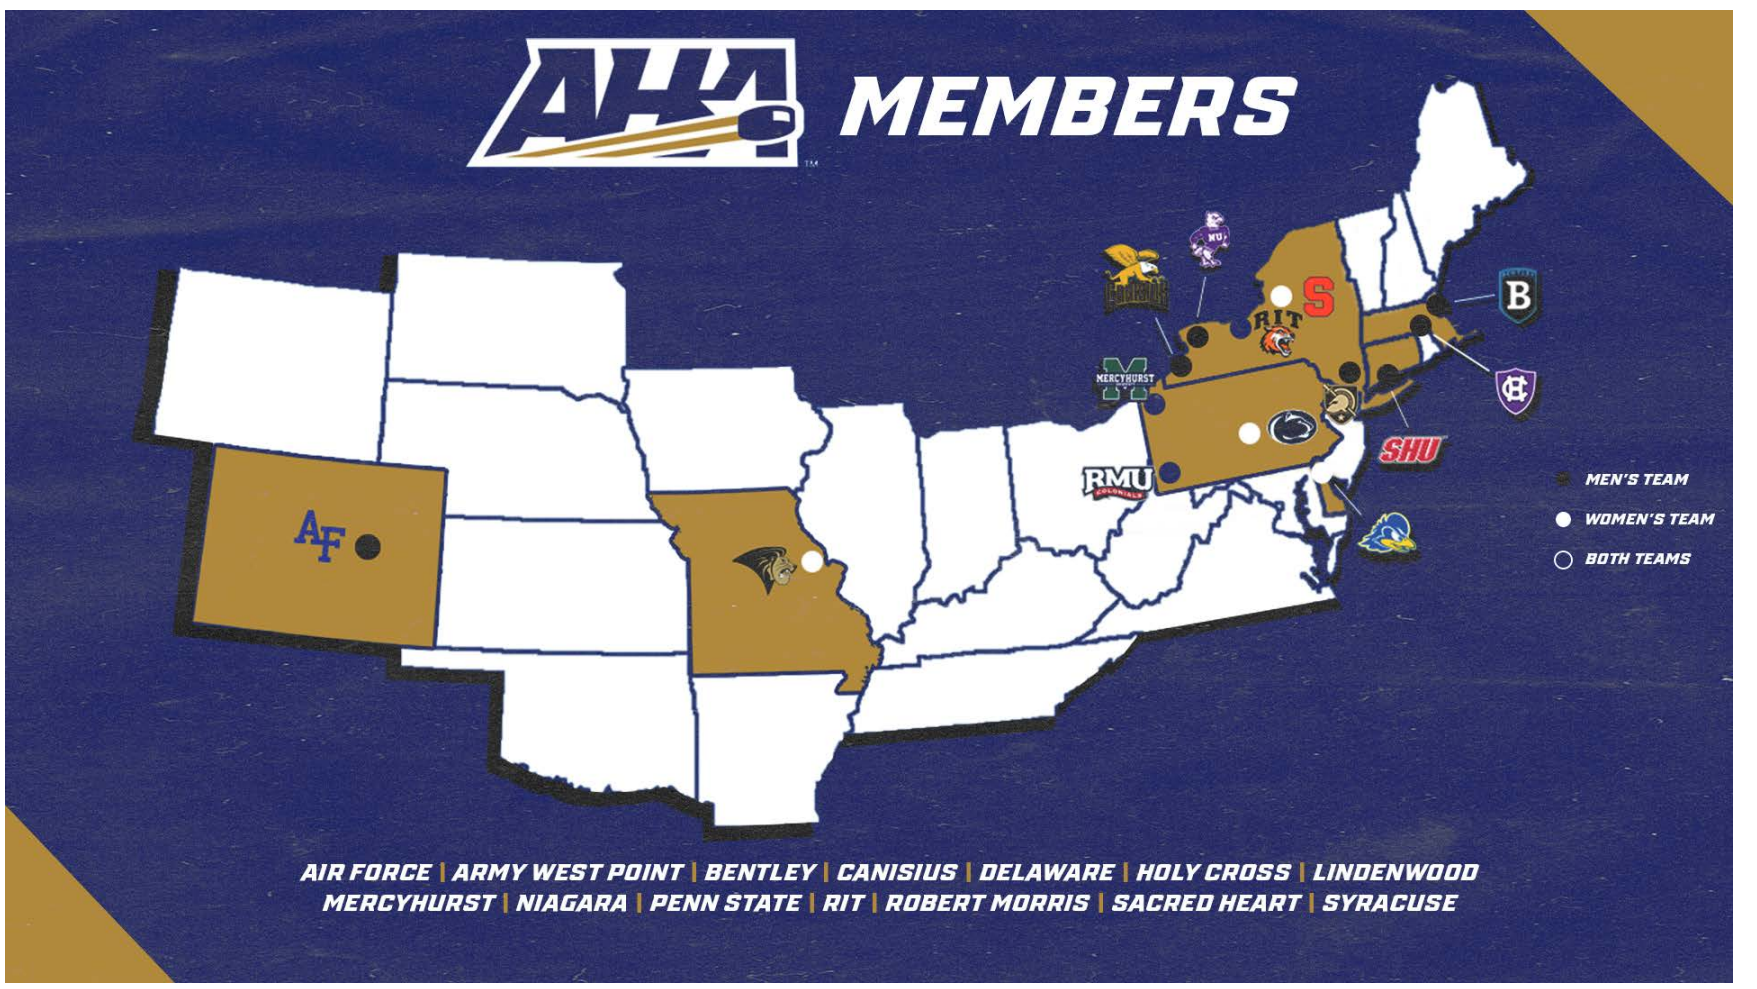

Mercyhurst won a league-leading 13 CHA postseason tournaments (2003-2011, 2016, 2018, 2020). Robert Morris captured three CHA tournament titles (2012, 2017, 2021), while RIT (2014, 2015), and Syracuse (2019, 2021) won two apiece.

National Stage

Mercyhurst earned the CHA's first NCAA tournament bid in 2005, the first of 10-consecutive bids for the Lakers (2005-2014). MU reached four Frozen Fours in that span (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014) and played for the national championship in 2009. The 10-straight appearances marked the first time a team reached the women's tournament in 10 consecutive seasons.

Mercyhurst also appeared in the 2016 and 2018 NCAA Tournaments and earned the league's automatic birth in 2020 before the tournament was cancelled due to the COVID-19 shutdown.

Penn State has qualified for the NCAA Tournament over the last three seasons. Robert Morris (2017, 2021) and Syracuse (2019, 2022) also made the NCAA Tournament in recent years.

ATLANTIC HOCKEY AMERICA HISTORY

Atlantic Hockey America was known as College Hockey America until the 2024-25 season. In its entirety, the conference has seen plenty of players receive national recognition and compete on the international stage.

In 2005, Mercyhurst goaltender Desi Clark became the first player in conference history to earn Patty Kazmaier Award Top-10 finalist status after backstopping the Lakers to their first NCAATournament appearance.

Two years later, in 2007, Mercyhurst's Meghan Agosta became the first player in league history to be named a Top-3 finalist for the Patty Kaz. Agosta go on to finish in the top three in voting in all four of her collegiate seasons. The four-straight top-three finishes put Agosta in an exclusive club with Minnesota's Hannah Brandt, Minnesota Duluth's Maria Rooth and Harvard's Angela Ruggiero as the only four-time Top-10 finalists in Patty Kaz histor .

In 2008, Wayne State's Melissa Boal was also a Top-10 finalist for the Patty Kaz along with Agosta. The same season, the conference claimed the top four scorers in the nation in terms of points per game in Boal (2.16), Agosta (1.97), and Wayne State's Sam Poyton (1.94) and Lindsay DiPietro (1.88). Agosta led the nation with 40 goals and seven shorthanded markers, while DiPietro had an NCAA-best 48 assists.

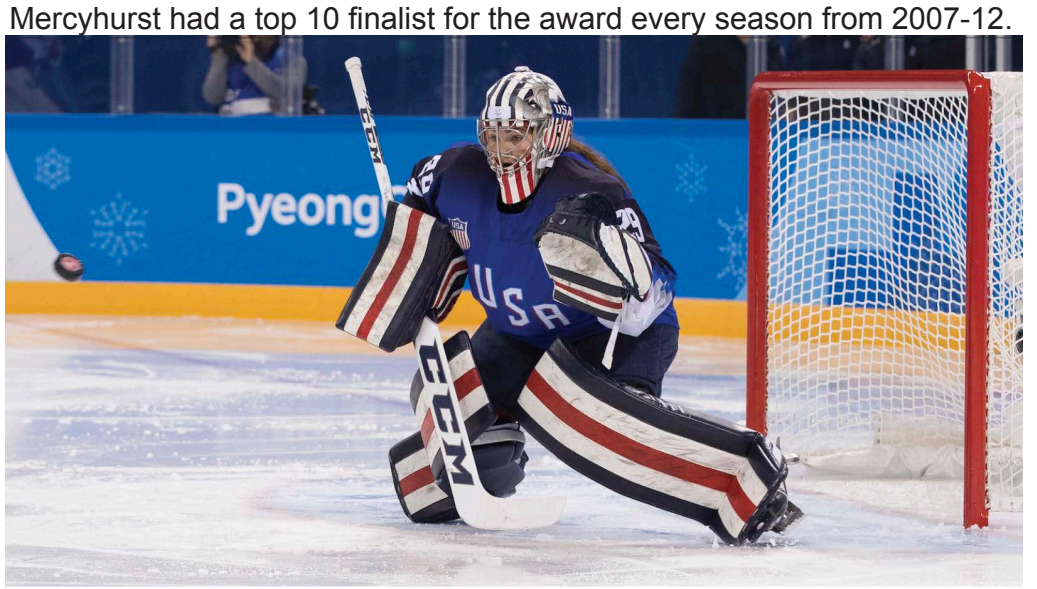

In 2009, Agosta led the NCAA in points per game (2.44/78 in 32 games), goals per game (1.28/41 in 32 games), assists per game (1.16/37 in 32 games) and game-winning goals (10), while finishing second nationally with 14 power-play goals.

In 2009-10, Mercyhurst's Vicki Bendus became the first player in league history to win the Patty Kazmaier Award, tallying 65 points on 28 goals and 37 assists in 36 games as the Lakers reached their second-consecutive Frozen Four. Teammate Jesse Scanzano was also a Top-10 finalist that season. College Hockey America again claimed two of the top-10 finalists for the 2011 Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award in Bendus and Agosta, who became a top-three finalist for the fourth time in her collegiate career.

Agosta had returned to Mercyhurst for her senior campaign that season after taking a year off to train and compete for Canada in the 2010 Vancouver Olympics, where she won her second gold medal. Agosta led the nation in points per game (2.53) and total assists (48) and was third in total goals (38) in 34 games for the Lakers.

That same season, Robert Morris senior Whitney Pappas was a finalist for the Hockey Humanitarian Award. The Hockey Humanitarian Award is awarded annually to college hockey's finest citizen and seeks to recognize college hockey players at all levels who give back to their communities in the true humanitarian spirit.

Mercyhurst forward Bailey Bram was a top-10 finalist for the 2012 Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award. Bram finished second in the nation in points per game (2.12) and first in power play goals with 12 in 32 games. Mercyhurst had a top 10 finalist for the award every season from 2007-12.

Former Lindenwood goaltender Nicole Hensley has appeared in the last two Winter Olympics with the United States. Hensley has also been a member of the U.S. IIHF World Championship Teams.

Mercyhurst's Christine Bestland was named a finalist for the 2014 Patty Kazmaier Award. The Lakers' senior captain recorded 20 goals and 30 assists in the regular season, leading the Lakers to the regular season title.

Robert Morris forward Brittany Howard became RMU's first Patty Kazmaier Award Top-10 finalist in 2018 as she led the Colonials to the second of three-consecutive conference regular season titles.

Penn State forward Kiara Zanon earned Patty Kaz recognition when she was tabbed a Top-10 finalist in 2021 as the Nittany Lions went on to capture their first conference regular season crown.

Zanon also earned the CHA's 12th All-America honor in 2020-21. She joins Mercyhurst's Desi Clark (2004-05), Meghan Agosta (2006-07, 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10), Vicki Bendus (2009-10), Jesse Scanzano (2009-10) and Christine Bestland (2013-14), Niagara's Allison Rutledge (2006-07), Robert Morris' Brittany Howard (2017-18) and Wayne State's Melissa Boal (2007-08).

Tessa Janecke earned top-10 Patty Kaz recognition in both 2024 and 2025, seasons in which the Nittany Lions captured AHA regular season and postseason titles. She was also named a Second-Team All-American.

Conference Alumni in the Olympics and International Competition
Ten former CHA/AHA players have appeared in the Winter Olympics since the league's founding.

Four-time CHA Player of the Year Meghan Agosta earned her third Olympic gold medal for Canada at the 2014 Sochi Olympics. Agosta also competed in the 2006, 2010 and 2018 Games for Team Canada.

Former Robert Morris player and assistant coach Brianne McLaughlin earned a pair of silver medal with Team USA in 2010 and 2014 while former Lindenwood netminder Nicole Hensley brought home gold and silver medals with Team USA in 2018 and 2022.

Other league alumni who have skated for their home countries in the Olympics include Penn State's Jessica Adolfsson (Sweden- 2022), Mercyhurst's Bailey Bram (Canada- 2018), Robert Morris' Anna Fairman (China- 2022), Aneta Ledlova (Czech Republic- 2022) and Meeri Räisänen (Finland- 2014, 2018, 2022) and Syracuse's Akane Hosoyamada (Japan- 2018, 2022) and Stefanie Marty (Switzerland- 2006, 2010, 2014).

Numerous current and former CHA/AHA players have also competed in IIHF World Championships and U18 World Championships over the years.

Penn State's Tessa Janecke added her name to that list as she competed in the 2022 U18 Women's World Championship with the United States in Madison, Wisc. prior to her freshman year before winning gold with the U.S. at the 2023 IIHF Women's World Championship in Brampton, Ont.

Several conference alumni have also been drafted and played in the PWHL. Lindenwood goaltender Nicole Hensley has been with the Minnesota Frost since 2022. Penn State's Jessica Adolfsson appeared with the Ottawa Charge in the 2024-25 season.

In the 2025 PWHL Draft, three AHA players were selected: Penn State's Brianna Brooks (PWHL Vancouver, Pick 32nd overall), Mercyhurst's Vanessa Upson (Minnesota Frost, 38th overall), and Penn State's Lyndie Lobdell (PWHL Seattle, 40th overall).

COMMISSIONER MICHELLE MORGAN

Michelle Morgan

Michelle Morgan enters her third season as commissioner for Atlantic Hockey America (AHA) in 2025-26. After a thorough national search, Morgan was named AHA commissioner on Feb. 2, 2023, with her duties beginning on April 17, 2023.

During Morgan's first year as commissioner, she led Atlantic Hockey and College Hockey America through a merger of the two conferences.

Morgan was responsible for launching a new brand identity for the recently merged conference (AHA). She also streamlined operational efficiencies, helping to bring a new era to AHA that features 17 programs across 14 member institutions.

Before the start of the 2024-25 season, Morgan led AHA into a three-year streaming partnership with FloSports. She worked to modernize and streamline conference operations.

In addition, Morgan expanded conference membership from six to seven teams on the women's side, as AHA welcomes Delaware for its inaugural season of play in 2025-26.

Morgan leads league efforts to further AHA involvement on the national and international stages. In 2025-26, two AHA programs (RIT and Sacred Heart) will participate in the Friendship Four Tournament in Belfast for the first time.

Prior to leading AHA, Morgan served as the Senior Director of Athletics at John Carroll University from 2018-23. Morgan oversaw a period of tremendous growth and success for John Carroll athletics during her tenure in University Heights, Ohio. The Blue Streaks won 43 Ohio Athletic Conference championships and made 42 NCAA postseason appearances.

Under her leadership, John Carroll won the OAC All-Sports Men's Trophy in 2018-19, 2020-21 and 2021-22, and came within a point of the program's first-ever OAC All-Sports Women's Trophy in 2020-21.

During the celebration of 100 years of Athletics at John Carroll, Morgan helped to establish a $500,000 fund for the creation of the Champions Endowment, which helped to sustain success at a national level for all Blue Streak athletic programs. Her tenure also saw the addition of women's wrestling as John Carroll's 24th varsity sport and $4 million in athletic facility improvements that greatly enhanced training, competition and the quality of experience for the more than 700 student-athletes under her oversight. She was a part of the design process and planning for a new athletic, wellness and event space that is slated to open in Fall 2024.

In recognition of her efforts on behalf of John Carroll athletics, Morgan was presented with an Honorary ESPY as the Administrator of the Year in July 2022 and was recognized as a NACDA Athletic Director of the Year in 2023.

An active member on the national intercollegiate athletics scene, Morgan was appointed to a four-year term on the NCAA Division III Management Council in 2019. She served as Chair of the council from January 2022 – January 2023. During that year, she held a seat on the prestigious association-wide NCAA Board of Governors and was a part of the hiring process for NCAA President, Charlie Baker.

Morgan is also an engaged associate member of the Chicago Blackhawk Alumni Association. She spearheaded efforts for a pair of alumni games prior to the National Hockey League Outdoor Stadium Series game in 2016 in Minneapolis and the 2017 NHL Winter Classic in St. Louis. In this role, she served as the liaison to the NHL, Minnesota Wild, St. Louis Blues, and the Chicago Blackhawks organizations for the alumni weekends at both events. The two games, held at TCF Bank Stadium and Busch Stadium, respectively, hosted nearly 40,000 fans for contests featuring the Blackhawk alumni.

The two games, held at TCF Bank Stadium and Busch Stadium, respectively, hosted nearly 40,000 fans for contests featuring the Blackhawk alumni.

Additionally, Morgan spent eight years at her alma mater, the University of St. Thomas, where she held the position of Senior Women's Administrator and Associate Athletic Director. In that role, she served as the athletic department's liaison to the university's marketing, insights and communications team, leading external relations, branding and marketing initiatives. She led negotiations for the first department-wide athletic apparel contract at St. Thomas in 2014, which outfitted all athletes in Nike apparel and accessories.

One of Morgan's most significant achievements occurred in 2017 when she played a key role in the Tommie-Johnnie Football game. She negotiated an agreement with the Minnesota Twins organization for the game to be played at Target Field, securing Oppidan Investing Company as the game's presenting sponsor. She guided the planning and execution of all game operations, fan experience, ticket sales, merchandise, and marketing for the largest football game in Division III history at that time. The record crowd of 37,355 outdrew 28 FBS games and 56 of 57 FCS games that took place the same weekend.

Before St. Thomas, Morgan worked for the NHL's Minnesota Wild as an Account Executive for Corporate Sponsorships. During her five years with the organization, Morgan's responsibilities included corporate sponsorships sales for the Minnesota Wild, Minnesota Swarm of the National Lacrosse League, the Western Collegiate Hockey Association Final Five and Minnesota State High School League boys and girls state hockey tournaments, as well as negotiating annual suite leases. She also held positions in corporate partnerships with the Minnesota Vikings and marketing with the Chicago Blackhawks.

Morgan has served as an adjunct professor at St. Thomas and currently at John Carroll, teaching graduate-level coursework in Sports Studies. She previously served as a Board Member of Women in Sports and Entertainment (WiSE), Cleveland and the Positive Coaching Alliance in Cleveland and Minneapolis.

The Brookfield, Ill., native holds degrees in Business Administration, Marketing Management and a Master of Business Administration from St. Thomas.

An accomplished student-athlete, Morgan was a four-year member of the St. Thomas women's ice hockey team.

COLE MCKENNEY

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER FOR OPERATIONS

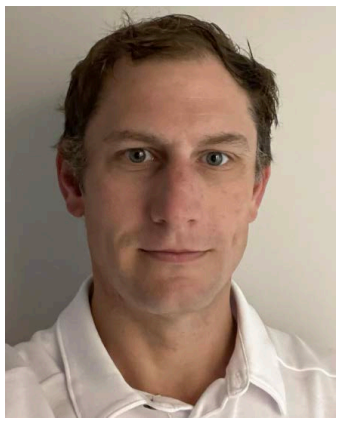

Cole McKenney enters his second season as Assistant Commissioner for Operations for Atlantic Hockey America in 2025-26. He is responsible for the daily operations of the conference, as well as business operations and travel logistics for officials.

McKenney joined Atlantic Hockey America after three years with Northeastern University Athletics, where he worked full-time as the Business Operations Coordinator after one year as a Graduate Assistant. He was responsible for managing the department's daily business operations, which included invoice payments, team travel logistics and contract submissions. Furthermore, he served as the liaison between the university's main office and the athletics office.

Additionally, McKenney officiates basketball at the high school level for IAABO Board 27 and NCAA Division III. McKenney is also a member of the Executive Board for Board 27, serving as their Assistant Secretary Treasurer.

McKenney earned his Bachelor of Science in December 2020 from Northeastern University in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing. He later earned his Master's degree in Sports Leadership from Northeastern in July of 2022.

McKenney originally hails from Braintree, Mass.

EUGENE BINDA JR.

SUPERVISOR OF OFFICIALS

Long-time NCAA and professional official Eugene Binda Jr. enters his third season as Atlantic Hockey America's Supervisor of Officials in 2025-26.

Binda, who retired from officiating following the 2021-22 season, served as an official observer for Atlantic Hockey during the 2022-23 campaign.

Long-time NCAA and professional official Eugene Binda Jr. enters his second season as Atlantic Hockey America's Supervisor of Officials in 2024-25.

Binda, who retired from officiating following the 2021-22 season, served as an officials observer for Atlantic Hockey during the 2022-23 campaign.

A native of the South Boston neighborhood, Binda officiated games at the NCAA Division I level for Atlantic Hockey, Hockey East, ECAC Hockey and the NCHC. Additionally, Binda served as an official in the USHL, AHL, ECHL, SPHL, as well as high school and amateur hockey contests over a 30-year career that began in 1992.

Nationally, Binda officiated three NCAA Frozen Fours (2016, 2018, 2022) and eight NCAA regionals from 2015-22, along with conference tournaments for Atlantic Hockey, the NCHC and Hockey East. He capped his career in 2022 with men's championship game assignments at the Beanpot, Hockey East and Frozen Four.

At the professional level, Binda refereed playoffs for the AHL, ECHL and SPHL from 2009-18, including ECHL finals assignments in 2009 and 2010 and the AHL conference finals in 2013 and 2014.

GABE HERMAN

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Gabe Herman enters his first season with AHA in 2025-26. Herman's duties include serving as AHA's media liaison and overseeing all aspects of conference-related communications and announcements, as well as maintaining statistics and archival records of the league.

The Minnetonka, Minn. native comes to AHA after one season as assistant director of athletic communications at the University of Nebraska at Omaha, where he acted as the media contact for Maverick hockey. Herman worked the 2023-24 campaign as the Pittsburgh Penguins' communications graduate assistant.

A 2023 graduate of Penn State University, Herman began his career in the athletic department's strategic communications unit as a student assistant with the men's hockey program.

EVAN MALDONADO

DIGITAL MEDIA MANAGER

Evan Maldonado enters his second season as Digital Media Manager for Atlantic Hockey America in 2025-26. His duties include social media management, graphic design, videography, content creation and other communications tasks.

Maldonado joined Atlantic Hockey America after serving as the Assistant Director of Graphic Design for the athletic department at UT Arlington.

Before his time at UT Arlington, Maldonado spent two seasons at the University of South Dakota as an Assistant Sports Information Director. He was the main point of contact for various programs, including men’s basketball, and traveled with and documented the men’s basketball seasons. Other duties included writing press releases, post-game recaps, updating media guides and game notes and developing relationships with media members.

While obtaining his master’s degree, Maldonado served as the Sports Information Graduate Assistant for the Fort Hays State athletic department for two years.

A native of Hutchinson, Kansas, Maldonado graduated from Central Christian College of Kansas with a bachelor’s degree in Sports Management in 2019 and went on to earn his master’s degree from Fort Hays State University in Sports Administration in 2021. He currently resides in Salina, Kansas, with his wife, Marleigh and daughter, Baker.

MEGHAN AGOSTA PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Tessa Janecke, F, Jr., Penn State (Orangeville, Ill.)

Penn State's Tessa Janecke put together an impressive junior campaign en route to earning her second consecutive AHA Player of the Year Award. Seeing action in all 38 games for the Nittany Lions, Jaencke scored 24 goals and dished out 29 assists for 53 points.

For her efforts, Janecke was named one of the top 10 finalists for the Patty Kazmaier award for the top player in Division I women's ice hockey.

Janecke received multiple AHA Weekly and Monthly Awards during the 2024-25 season, including AHA Forward of the Month two times and AHA Forward of the Week four times. She was named the Meghan Agosta Player of the Year and the Vicki Bendus Forward of the Year at the end of the season. She was also the AHA's scoring champion after collecting 28 points (13g, 15a) in 20 league games.

In her sophomore campaign in 2023-24, Janecke was named CHA Player of the Year after totaling 53 points on 17 goals and 36 assists in 38 games. She was named CHA Forward of the Month three times and CHA Forward of the Week four times.

In her freshman campaign in 2022-23, Janecke was named CHA Rookie of the Year after recording 22 goals and 25 assists for 48 points in 38 games. She captured CHA Rookie of the Month honors four times and CHA Rookie of the Week honors seven times.

CHA 20 IN 20

In honor of its 20th season, College Hockey America recognized the top 20 players from the conference's first 20 seasons during the 2021-22 campaign.
In November, the CHA began announcing two players during each week of competition, with the final two players being recognized during the fina week of the CHA regular season.
The 20 honorees include 10 All-Americans, 11 Patty Kazmaier Top-10 finalists, six Patty Kazmaier Top-3 finalists, one Patty Kazmaier winne , 59 All-CHA selections, 17 CHA All-Rookie selections, 11 CHA Players of the Year, eight CHA Rookies of the Year, nine CHA Best Defensemen, one CHA Best Defensive Forward, eight CHA Championship MVPs, 14 CHA Scoring Champions and six CHA Goaltending Champions.

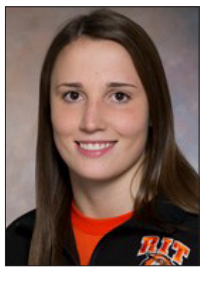

Megan Agosta, F, Mercyhurst: One of the greatest scorers in NCAA history, Agosta still holds the NCAA women's ice hockey career records for points (303), goals (157), power play goals (55), and shorthanded goals (20). She ended her stellar career as the first – and still only – four-time College Hockey America Player of the Year as well as a three-time CHA Tournament MVP. Agosta was also named a Patty Kazmaier top-three finalist in all four of her playing years while collecting AHCA First Team All-American honors on four separate occasions, making her the only four-time and multiple-time All-American in conference history.

Vicki Bendus, F, Mercyhurst: was the first CH player to be named the Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award winner. Additionally, Bendus was the CHA Player of the Year in 2009-10 and a two-time All-CHA honoree. A native of Wasaga Beach, Ont., Bendus burst onto the scene her freshman year in 2007-08 by scoring 32 points on 11 goals and 21 assists. She was a three-time CHA Rookie of the Week winner and was eventually selected as the CHA Rookie of the Year. As a junior, in addition to the Patty Kazmaier honor, Bendus also earned All-America CHA Player of the Year and NCAA Eilte 88 accolades.

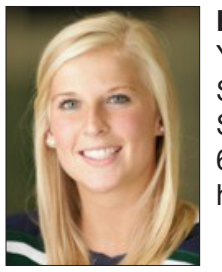

Christine Bestland, F, Mercyhurst: A two-time CHA Player of the Year as well as a three-time First Team All-CHA selection. Her 226 career points rank No. 3 in CHA history while her 92 goals is fourth in conference history and her 134 assists rank third all-time in the CHA.

Ali Binnington, G, RIT: Appeared in 92 games in three seasons, equaled the CHA saves percentage record with a mark of .937 and tied for third on the CHA career goals-against average list with a 1.73 GAA. Her 49 wins rank No. 5 all-time in the CHA and she ranks fifth in minutes played (5348:23) and ninth in games played in CHA history. She is the only goaltender to win back-to-back MVP awards in CHA Championship history.

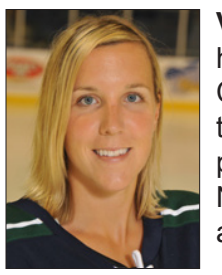

Melissa Boal; F, Wayne State: Was one of the dominant players in College Hockey America's first decade. Boal ended her career in 2009 with 219 points on 117 goals and 102 assists and still ranks in the CHA career top-10 in all three categories – No. 2 in goals, No. 4 in points and tied for ninth in assists. At the end of her career, she was one of just four players in NCAA women's hockey history to that point to compile more than 100 goals and 100 assists. She is also one of only three players to score more than 100 goals in CHA history. Boal was a four-time All-CHA selection, three-time CHA All-Academic Team honoree, a CHA All-Rookie pick, a two-time CHA Scoring Champion and a Patty Kazmaier Award Top-10 finalist during her caree .

Bailey Bram, F, Mercyhurst: Was the CHA Rookie of the Year in 2010 as well as a three-time All-CHA selection. She was also a two-time Patty Kazmaier Top-10 Finalist. She is sixth in CHA career scoring (200) and ranks No. 6 in goals (87) and No. 8 in assists (113) in conference history.

Molly Byrne: D, Mercyhurst: A four time-time All-CHA honoree as well as a three-time recipient of the College Hockey America Best Defenseman award during her career with the Lakers from 2011-2015.

Valerie Chouinard, F, Mercyhurst: A four-time All-CHA honoree and one of three players in CHA history to win CHA Player of the Year and CHA Rookie of the Year in the same season. She is fifth in CH history with 201 points on 91 goals and 109 assists. Her goal total ranks No. 5 while her assist total stands at No. 9 in conference annals.

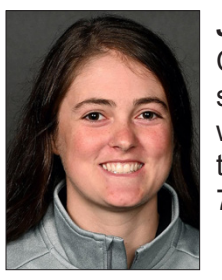

Desi Clark, G, Mercyhurst: In three seasons in the conference, Clark was a two-time CHA Goaltending Champion and All-CHA honoree. In 2004-05, she became the first All-American in conference history. She posted 16 shutouts in 73 career appearances, which ranks No. 5 in CHA history. Against CHA competition, she posted a conference record .935 winning percentage in with a 21-1-1 ledger. Her .937 save percentage against CHA opponents also remains a conference record today.

Jessica DiGirolamo, D, Syracuse: Has earned All-CHA (2020-21), CHA All-Rookie (2017-18) and CHA Best Defenseman (2020-21) honors along with three CHA All-Academic Team selections (2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21) during her career. Through Feb. 19, DiGirolamo ranks No. 2 in CHA defenseman goals (33), tied for second in CHA defenseman points (92) and No.4 in defenseman assists (59).

Lindsay Eastwood, D, Syracuse: A two-time All-CHA honoree, a CHA All-Rookie pick and the CHA Defenseman of the Year and earned CHA All-Tournament honors during her career with the Orange (2016-20). She ranks as the conference's No. 7 career scorer among defensemen with 75 points. Her 23 goals are the fourth-most by a blueliner in CHA history while her 52 assists rank No. 8 by a defender.

Jaycee Gebhard, F, Robert Morris: A three-time All-College Hockey America honoree and at two-time CHA scoring champion for the Colonials from 2016-20. She was also the first CH player to win national Rookie of the Year honors. She is tied for 10th in CHA history with 74 career goals.

Stephanie Grossi, F, Syracuse: A three-time All-CHA honoree and CHA All-Rookie selection for the Orange as well as the CHA Rookie of the Year in 2014-15. She also holds the distinction of being the only player in CHA history to win a CHA scoring championship (2015-16), a CHA Best Defensive award (2017-18) and a CHA Individual Sportsmanship Award (2017-18) during her career.

Natalie Heising, F, Penn State: Penn State's career scoring leader with 137 points through the end of the 2021-22 regular season. She has recorded 74 goals and 63 assists and is the only player in Penn State history with five seasons of 20 or more points. Her 137 points are good for 14th on the CHA career scoring list. While goal total ties her for 10th all-time in conference history.

Nicole Hensley, G, Lindenwood: ended her career as the CHA's career leader in save with a remarkable 4,094 stops from 2012-16. She is the only netminder in CHA history to surpass the 4,000-save mark. Her .921 career save percentage ranks No. 10 in conference history.

Brittany Howard, F. Robert Morris: A four-time All-CHA honoree, two-time CHA Scoring Champion and CHA Player of the Year in 2016-17 and 2017-18. She finished her career with 181 points on 79 goals and 102 assists to rank No. 8 on the CHA career goals list and tied for ninth on the CHA career assists chart.

Allie Munroe, D, Syracuse: A two-time CHA Defenseman of the Year in 2017 and 2019, as well as a three-time All-CHA selection and currently ranks eighth in the CHA and fourth in Syracuse history, in points by a blueliner.

Hillary Pattenden, G, Mercyhurst: The second three-time Goaltending Champion in CHA history. She is one of three goaltenders in NCAA history to record 100 career wins and finished her career with a record of 100-20-6 (.817) in 7403:08 minutes played. All three marks - wins, percentage and minutes played - are CHA career records.

Nicole Renault, D, Syracuse: The CHA Defenseman of the Year in 2016 as well as a three-time All-CHA selection and currently ranks sixth in the CHA and second in Syracuse history, in points by a blueliner.

Jesse Scanzano, F, Mercyhurst: A three-time All-College Hockey America selection (2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11) and a member of the CHA All-Rookie Team in 2007-08. She ranks No. 2 in career points (225) and assists (140) and seventh in goals (85) in CHA history.
