JAN 12 | GAME 22 | CHESTNUT HILL, MASS. | KELLEY RINK

Graham McPhee

Three points in front of the hometown crowd
HIGH-FLYIN’ FIN
Sophomore forward Julius Mattila continued his high-scoring pace in Las Vegas by extending his point streak to nine three points in the Ice Vegas Invitational. He is one of three Eagles tied for the team lead with six goals and leads the Eagles with 18 points (6-12-18). During his hot streak, Mattila has accrued 14 points (5-9-14) amidst his nine-game tear and notched at least one point in 10 of his last 12 games.

CAN’T KEEP UP WITH COTTON
Sophomore forward David Cotton has meshed together a five-game point streak of his own and stayed hot the latter part of the first half of the season. The Parker, Texas native tallied his fifth goal of the season on Jan. 6 to account for at least one point in eight of his last nine outings, including four multi-point performances in that run. The second-year winger is now second on the team in scoring with 16 points (5-11-16) through 21 outings.

ALL IN
Sophomore forward Graham McPhee returned to familiar territory this past weekend at the IceVegas Invitational at T-Mobile Arena. His father, George, who played for Jerry York at Bowling Green, is the general manager of the Vegas Golden Knights. On Jan. 5, McPhee scored his third power play goal of the season and his team-leading sixth goal of the year. The following night, accounted for a pair of assists against Northern Michigan on Jan. 6, marking his third multi-point performance of the season.

DOWN A MAN ... DON’T MATTER
Junior captain Christopher Brown scored Boston College’s third short-handed goal of the season on Jan. 6 against Northern Michigan. It marked his first short-handed goal of the season and second of his career. The Bloomfield Hills, Mich. native is now tied for the team lead in goals scored with six. Christopher Grando and Julius Mattila have also scored short-handed tallies this season.
Sophomore goaltender Ryan Edquist secured his first-career shutout on Dec. 30 via 23 saves against UConn in his fourth start of the season, tenth of his career. The Lakeville, Minn. native’s shutout marks BC’s first shutout of the season and first shutout for the Eagles since Joseph Woll blanked Vermont on March 10, 2017. Edquist also stopped a career-best 42 shots at St. Cloud on Oct. 20. The Lakeville, Minn. native came in with 1.6 seconds left at Merrimack and made a game-tying save to preserve an Eagle victory. Edquist is 3-2-1 on the season with a .927 save percentage and a 2.11 goals against average.

DEFENDING THE NEST
Boston College’s defense continues to limit the opposing lamp being lit as BC is now limiting its opponents to 2.81 goals per game. That number is tied for 23rd, nationally, and fifth overall in the conference. Over the course of the last 13 games, BC has given up four or more goals on only four occasions.

CASE’N THE JOINT
Captain Casey Fitzgerald is BC’s leading scoring defenseman (4-8-12), which is tied for 50th, nationally, an 12th in the conference. The junior leads the Eagles in shots on goal (66), tied for the lead in blocked shots (24) and scored his first power play goal of the season on Jan. 6 vs. NMU.

THE BRICK WOLL
Sophomore backstopper Joseph Woll has stopped 369-of-411 shots faced in his first 15 outings for a .898 save percentage which is currently 60th in all of college hockey while his 2.90 goals against average ranks 40th in the game. Woll has stopped 1,281 -of- 1,410 shots faced (.909 save percentage) with a career mark of 2.72 goals against average. Woll was also one of 20 goalies named to the watch list for the 2018 Mike Richter Award, which annually honors the most outstanding goaltender in NCAA Division I men’s hockey and is currently on his second run with Team USA at the 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship in Buffalo looking to capture gold once again.
with a Three Rivers Tournament title in Pittsburgh and triumphs over Brown and Merrimack last week. Junior forward Erik Foley has been dominating, scoring at a clip of 1.30 points per game.

Providence skates into Friday’s series finale on a four-game winning streak, and in dominating fashion. The Friars have thrashed their last four opponents by a combined goal total of 18-3.

FRIAR FOCUS

Hockey East play. Since Nate Leaman arrived in Providence, Jerry York has had his number, owning a 10-4-1 mark over the Friar skipper.

Before beating BC in 2013, Providence had not won in Chestnut Hill since Oct. 31, 2006. BOSTON COLLEGE vs. PROVIDENCE

Boston College and Providence close out the three-game regular season series on Friday, Jan. 12 at Kelley Rink. This marks the first closure of BC’s four three-game Hockey East series. With the departure of Notre Dame, Hockey East has had each team play four other programs three times. For the Eagles, those four teams are Providence, UConn, Lowell and Maine. In the last 29 games overall, dating back to 2008, Boston College has dominated Providence, owning a 22-3-4 mark. BC posted a 15-0-2 mark from March 14, 2008 to March 1, 2013 against the Friars.

On Thursday, the Eagles posted a 5-1 win over the Friars at Schneider Arena. Casey Fitzgerald netted the overtime winner 69 seconds into the extra session to give the Eagles their first win of the season. AMERICAN EAGLE
Former Boston College men's hockey captain and 2001 national champion Brian Gionta has been selected as the captain of the 2018 United States Men's Hockey Olympic Team. Gionta skated in 164 career games on The Heights and is Boston College's career leader in goals scored with 123 tallies and second in overall points scored with 232 (123-109-232) from 1997-2001. Gionta is one of 25 Eagles to have played for the U.S Men's Olympic Team and the second to ever be named captain (Brian Leetch - 1988). He is also one of six former members of the Boston College hockey program to be named to the team more than once.

REMEMBERING COACH CEGLARSKI
 Legendary Boston College head hockey coach and athlete Len Ceglarski, winner of 419 games as head coach on The Heights and member of the 1949 national championship team, passed away on December 16, 2017. He was 91 years old. Ceglarski is the ninth-winningest coach in NCAA college hockey history, having amassed a career record of 673-339-38 (.659). Boston College's former skipper claimed the Eagles' head coaching position at the start of the 1972-73 season, taking over for John "Snooks" Kelley. Ceglarski went on to post an overall record of 419-272-27 (.602) in 20 seasons as head coach at Boston College. In his time behind BC's bench, Ceglarski led his teams to eight NCAA Frozen Fours, four NCAA title games, six Hockey East regular season championships (in eight years) and two Hockey East Tournament titles.

CAMPOLI LEAVES PROGRAM
Defensive man Michael Campoli has left the men’s ice hockey program for other opportunities on Dec. 19, 2017. The Pointe-Claire, Quebec native was a sophomore this season and played in 12 career games for the maroon and gold, finishing with a +7 rating along with an assist.

ALL WE DO IS WIN WIN WIN (...WIN WIN WIN WIN AND TIE...)
Boston College had its eight-game unbeaten streak disrupted at the hands of Boston University on Friday, Dec. 1 at Kelley Rink. Heading into the Battle of Comm Ave. on Dec. 1, it was tied for the second-longest unbeaten streak in the nation. The Eagles went 7-0-1, winning their first seven games in the stretch, marking BC's seven-game winning streak since rattling off 11 in a row from October 16 to November 28, 2015. It marks the longest unbeaten spell since BC went 9-0-1 from October 16 to November 13, 2016.

ROAD BIRDS
From Nov. 10-18, Boston College won four true road games in a row (UVM, UVM, UNH, NU). It marks the first time the Eagles have won four-straight road games since the 2009-10 season when BC defeated UMass (3-1 – Dec. 4, 2009), BU (4-1 – Dec. 5, 2009), Harvard (3-2 – Dec. 9, 2009) and Providence (3-1, Dec. 12, 2008).

LOOSE CHANGE
Graham McPhee accounted for a pair of assists against Northern Michigan on Jan. 6, marking his third multi-point performance of the season. On Jan. 5 against Michigan Tech, Casey Fitzgerald and Graham McPhee both scored power play goals, the first time this season Boston College scored a pair of extra-man goals in a game. Michael Kim also scored the Eagles’ first extra attacker goal of the season against Michigan Tech on Jan. 5. Sophomore goaltender Ryan Edquist secured his first-career shutout on Saturday afternoon via 23 saves against UConn in his fourth start of the season, tenth of his career. The Lakeville, Minn. native’s shutout marks Boston College’s first shutout of the season and first shutout for the Eagles since Joseph Woll blanked Vermont on March 10, 2017.
GAME NOTES

ATOP THE LEADERBOARD

Boston College might have had a slow start in the non-conference slate, but the Eagles have responded rather thunderously in conference play. Winning nine of their first 12 games in the first half of Hockey East play, the Eagles are all alone in first place in the Hockey East standings by three points over Northeastern, having accrued 20 points with a 10-3 record to the early goings of the conference slate.

TWO FOR DU

Junior JD Dudek skated in his 86th game as an Eagle on Nov. 11 at UVM and had previously recorded an assist in 14 separate outings. That game marked his first-career multi-assist showing as he helped out on a pair of BC goals. Dudek also assisted at New Hampshire on Nov. 17, marking the first time the hometown product of Auburn, N.H. has registered assists in back-to-back outings.

GIVING GOALS

In addition to sophomore Ryan Edquist’s second victory of the season, the Lakeville, Minn. native also recorded his first-career assist, making the save and swatting it out to Kevin Lohan in the slot. It marks the first assists for a Boston College goaltender since Thatcher Demko tallied one against UMass Lowell on Feb. 22, 2016.

SHORTY SZN

Christopher Grando, Christopher Brown and Julius Mattila both have tallied short-handed goals this season. They are three of 79 skaters in the NCAA with at least one short-handed goal in 2017-18.

DON’T FORGET ABOUT THAT GUY...

Boston College’s head coach Jerry York needs no introduction as the Eagle skipper skates into his 24th season at the helm on The Heights and 46th season in all. York’s 1,043 victories are the most of any Division I coach in the history of college hockey, more than 100 wins clear of the former leader, Ron Mason (Michigan State - 924). York is one of only three coaches in NCAA history to lead two different schools to national titles; led Bowling Green to the 1984 NCAA title, and Boston College to the 2001, 2008, 2010 and 2012 NCAA titles. He is the all-time leader in NCAA head coaching history with a .708 winning percentage.

DON’T FORGET ABOUT THAT GUY...

Boston College’s head coach Jerry York needs no introduction as the Eagle skipper skates into his 24th season at the helm on The Heights and 46th season in all. York’s 1,043 victories are the most of any Division I coach in the history of college hockey, more than 100 wins clear of the former leader, Ron Mason (Michigan State - 924). York is one of only three coaches in NCAA history to lead two different schools to national titles; led Bowling Green to the 1984 NCAA title, and Boston College to the 2001, 2008, 2010 and 2012 NCAA titles. He is the all-time leader in NCAA Tournament wins with 41 victories, as well, and has led 22 teams to 25 or more wins.

NOVEMBER NICE

In recent years, the month of November has been very kind to head coach Jerry York’s teams. Believe it or not, this is the second time in three seasons BC has won its first seven outings in the month of November as BC turned the trick in the 2016-17 season. If you include the 2013-14 season, where the Eagles went 6-0-1, Boston College is unbeaten in the first seven games of November in three of the last five seasons. In all under York, BC has gone unbeaten four times in the first seven games of November as the 2003-04 club went 5-0-2 to start the month. The Eagles finished the entire month of November unbeaten, going 7-0-1.

IN THE COLD OCTOBER RAIN

It’s no secret Boston College has skated off to a 1-5-1 start in November, but the Eagles, by far, had the toughest non-conference schedule in the country. In October, combined, BC’s opponents went 23-6-3 and are currently ranked No. 1 (Denver), No. 2 (St. Cloud State), No. 6 (Providence), No. 7 (Wisconsin) and No. 11 (Quinnipiac), respectively.

OPENING NIGHT EAGLES

Starting off the 2017-18 season, with 548 former NCAA players having reported to National Hockey League training camps for preseason preparation, the Boston College men’s hockey program led the way with 33 representatives spread out over 18 franchises. As has been the way in the past, the Eagles’ professional pedigree shined through as BC led all schools with 33 alumni earning training camp invitations, followed closely by Minnesota (29), Michigan (28), North Dakota (28) and Boston University (27). The top six programs are: Boston College (19), Michigan (17), North Dakota (16), Minnesota (15), Boston University (14) and Wisconsin (11).

DRAFTED

Boston College has the fifth-most draft picks on any 2017-18 roster this college hockey season with eight, including: Joseph Woll (Toronto), Graham McPhee (Edmonton), JD Dudek (New Jersey), Casey Fitzgerald (Buffalo), Christopher Brown (Buffalo), David Cotton (Carolina), Aapeli Räsänen (Edmonton) and Michael Karow. Minnesota leads the way with 13, Boston University has 12, Michigan and Providence each have nine.

SHOT CALLERS

Sophomore forward Graham McPhee’s father, George, played for Coach York at Bowling Green where he won the Hobey Baker Award in 1982 and is now the general manager of the new Las Vegas Golden Knights franchise. Junior captain Casey Fitzgerald’s father, Tom, is the assistant manager of the New Jersey Devils.

THE COOLEST PROGRAM OF ‘EM ALL

When the Eagles took on Quinnipiac in the 2016 national semifinal contest, it marked Boston College’s 25th Frozen Four appearance which is the most in college hockey history. BC looks to make it 26 this year in Minneapolis on April 5, 2017.
