For the 278th and 279th times in series history, rivals Boston College and Boston University will square off in a home-and-home Hockey East series this weekend, beginning Friday night at Agganis Arena on NESN.

The Eagles have played just a single game each of the last two weekends, while the Terriers return to the U.S. after last weekend’s annual Friendship Four in Belfast, Northern Ireland.

At 3-1-1 in conference play, BC has at least one game in hand on every squad in Hockey East, including two on UMass Lowell and Merrimack, three on BU, and four on UConn, whom the Eagles face twice next week.

Boston College saw its four-game unbeaten streak (3-0-1) come to an end last Friday against Bentley, a streak which was the sixth-longest nationally and the second-longest in Hockey East.

LAST YEAR’S SERIES

BC and BU split the regular season series 1-1-0 last season, but the eventual league champion Terriers edged the Eagles 4-3 in overtime in the 2018 Hockey East Semifinal at TD Garden.

Boston College scored the first two goals in all three matchups, taking a 2-0 lead in the first period of both regular season meetings, and out-scored BU 5-0 overall in the opening frame.

In the schools’ first meeting of the season, Aapeli Räsänen scored just 92 seconds into the game at Kelley Rink before BU netted six of the contest’s next seven goals in a 7-4 victory.

The Eagles never trailed in the road matchup at Agganis, collecting first period goals from Connor Moore and David Cotton, as Joseph Woll made 36 saves including 29 in the final 40 minutes for a 4-1 win.

Christopher Brown gave BC a 3-2 lead in the Hockey East Semifinal with 5:19 left in the third period, but Drew Melanson answered less than a minute later and Patrick Curry ended the Eagles’ season at 15:40 of OT.

WE’RE THE THREE BEST FRIENDS

The Eagles’ red-hot top line of Cotton, Mattila and Hutsko has combined for 10 goals and 14 assists for 24 points and 57 shots on goal in the last five games, during which BC is 3-1-1.

All three forwards have registered a plus-5 rating during the five-game stretch.

Hutsko is riding a career-best six-game point streak (1-8-9) and has factored into nine of the last 16 goals.

Cotton is on a career-high five-game goal streak (7-3-10), two of which were game-winners.

The trio has accounted for 10 of the team’s 15 goals over the last five contests and 55% of the total offense.

BOLD STRATEGY COTTON

With 10 goals in 10 games this season, David Cotton is the national leader in goals per game.

He has already matched his career-high in goals, set as a rookie, and eclipsed his goal total (9) from last season.

The junior’s team-high 14 points this season have come in bunches in just six contests.

The Texan has seven goals and 10 points in his last five games during a career-high goal scoring streak.

He and Cal Burke of Notre Dame are the only two players in the nation with a pair of four-point games.

Cotton has done some heavy damage in the middle frame, ranking second in the country in second period goals (5) and eighth in total points (7).

His first career multi-goal game was a hat trick on Oct. 13 at Wisconsin, one of his three multi-goal games this year.

Oliver Wahlstrom | 11th Overall Pick, New York Islanders
Coaches that are Boston College hockey alums - Jerry York, Brendan Buckley, and Marty McInnis. York and McInnis have been inducted into the Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame.

Since Jerry York led his first Boston College team to the 1998 Frozen Four, the Eagles are one of three teams with at least 500 victories since that point. Boston College is second with 564 victories, while North Dakota (572) leads the pack. Michigan (555) is the other program to have also eclipsed the 500 mark over the past 20 seasons.

Upon completion of the 2017-18 season, Boston College maintained its best overall winning percentage in Hockey East history for the fifth consecutive season. Over the course of 34 seasons in league play, the Eagles’ winning percentage of .633 reigns supreme in one of college hockey’s top conferences.

Entering the season, Jerry York’s overall record was 1,053-628-117 (.618) in 46 seasons as a head coach at Clarkson, Bowling Green and Boston College; he owns the most victories of any Division I coach in the history of college hockey. York is 36-13 in NCAA Tournament games as the head coach at Boston College; his 41 wins overall in the NCAA Tournament is also the highest total in Division I history.

Boston College has competed in five of the last 13 national championship games - 2006 (Wisconsin, 1-2), 2007 (Michigan State, 1-3), 2008 (Notre Dame, 4-1), 2010 (Wisconsin, 5-0) and 2012 (Ferris State, 4-1).

Upon completion of the 2017-18 season, Boston College maintained its best overall winning percentage in Hockey East history for the fifth consecutive season. Over the course of 34 seasons in league play, the Eagles’ winning percentage of .633 reigns supreme in one of college hockey’s top conferences.

Rookie forward Oliver Wahlstrom was selected 11th overall by the New York Islanders in the 2018 NHL Entry Draft, becoming the 18th Eagle in the last 30 years to have been drafted in the first round of the NHL. He joins Brian Leetch (ninth, 1986), Craig Janney (13th, 1986), Bill Guerin (fifth, 1989), Marty Reasoner (14th, 1996), Brooks Orpik (18th, 2000), Krys Kolanos (19th, 2000), Chuck Kobasew (14th, 2001), Brian Boyle (26th, 2003), Patrick Eaves (26th, 2003), Cory Schneider (26th, 2004), Nick Petrecki (29th, 2003), Chris Kreider (18th, 2010), Kevin Hayes (24th, 2010), Michael Matheson (23rd, 2012), Alex Tuch (18th, 2014), Noah Hanifin (21st, 2015) as Boston College first-round draftees.

Frozen Four appearances in the last 20 years; the highest total amongst all teams in college hockey. Only Boston College (12), North Dakota (10), Michigan (7), Minnesota (5), Denver (4), and Michigan State (3) have advanced to more than two Frozen Fours during that time period.

Former Eagles earned a spot on NHL training camp rosters, the second-most in college hockey behind Minnesota; 17 former BC players made opening night rosters.
