The BIG EAST Conference

Building on its storied history, the BIG EAST Conference continues to position itself to perform at the highest national level.

The 2024-25 academic year will mark the 12th since the BIG EAST Conference returned to its basketball-centric heritage in institutional membership. The academic and athletic accomplishments over the previous 11 years have shown that the BIG EAST continues to be a national leader in collegiate athletics.

Since the league's reconfiguration in 2013, the BIG EAST has established itself as one of the nation's elite conferences. It has developed a strong, clear identity rooted in authenticity and reflective of its member schools and their shared values. This is embodied by a league-wide commitment to sustained DE&I efforts, mental health programming and career development, among many other deep-rooted initiatives.

Conference Leadership

Dynamic leadership has been a staple of the BIG EAST throughout its history.

Val Ackerman, who previously served as founding President of the WNBA, President of USA Basketball and U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), was named the BIG EAST's fifth Commissioner in 2013. Under her leadership, the BIG EAST has maintained its reputation for achievement at the highest levels and has continued its influence on the national collegiate landscape, with numerous conference and campus administrators currently serving on important NCAA committees.

Ackerman is one of the few sports executives who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international level. In 2021, she was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

The BIG EAST grew to 11 members in 2020. The University of Connecticut, a member of the conference from 1979 to 2013, was readmitted. UConn has brought a rich history of academic and athletic excellence, especially in the sport of basketball. Since rejoining, the Huskies' men's program won its fifth and sixth national championships, capturing the NCAA crown in both 2023 and 2024. The UConn women's program, which had won eight of its 11 national championships as a BIG EAST member, has continued its unparalleled national success. The Huskies have advanced to the Final Four in 15 of the last 16 years and have appeared in 24 Final Fours overall.

The BIG EAST has produced 15 national champions over the past 11 academic years. Nine BIG EAST teams have captured national titles, including four in men's basketball. BIG EAST student-athletes have won national championships in six individual events.

History

Founded in 1979 by Dave Gavitt, the former Providence men's basketball coach and athletic director, the BIG EAST Conference became a reality in May of 1979. Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance, and the conference became an immediate national power in men's basketball. While the composition of the BIG EAST has evolved, the focus of its schools has not changed, reflecting a tradition of emphasizing academic strength and fair play.

In December of 2012, DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova announced their intention to separate from the conference's FBS football-playing schools and form an independent association. The seven schools reached an agreement to retain the BIG EAST name and assume the conference's long-term pact with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions — Butler, Creighton and Xavier — and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports. The new era officially began on July 1, 2013.

Academic Excellence, Community Service

Outside of the arenas and playing fields, the BIG EAST has always adhered to an unwavering commitment to academic integrity, athletic excellence and community service while offering opportunities to help student-athletes to reach their potential as students, athletes and leaders.

In the summer of 2020, the conference launched "BE the Change," a conference-wide advocacy platform that enables BIG EAST stakeholders to engage on a range of contemporary racial and social justice issues. The "BE the Change" initiative continues in 2024-25.

Also in 2020, the BIG EAST created a partnership with RISE, a leading provider of educational programming that equips sports leaders to create positive change on racism, social justice and equality issues.

The conference has also launched BIG EAST University, a virtual educational service which enhances the student-athlete experience with career professional development programming primarily through webinars.

In 2014 the conference established BIG EAST Serves to align with the service missions of the member institutions. Initiatives housed under the BIG EAST Serves umbrella, the BIG EAST Career Consortium and the national partnership with the It's On Us campaign against campus sexual assaults, reflect the conference's commitment to developing the complete BIG EAST student-athlete and making a positive contribution to campus communities. The BIG EAST regularly hosts a Well Being Forum to help provide institutional personnel with information, insights and basic training so they can better support the mental and physical health of their student-athletes.

Commissioner Ackerman and the BIG EAST have taken a leadership role in Sport at the Service of Humanity, an initiative created by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Culture to focus on how sport and faith can drive positive social change. Ackerman was a delegate at the inaugural Vatican conference and has served on an advisory committee to develop the framework and content for the initiative.

The BIG EAST Scholar-Athlete of the Year

BIG EAST in the Media

The BIG EAST has been lauded as a longstanding leader in innovative concepts, particularly television, and that reputation continues as evidenced by the conference's relationship with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST has enjoyed a successful multi-year partnership with FOX Sports and its national cable network FS1.

Over the summer of 2024, the BIG EAST finalized a new six-year media rights agreement that will ensure that the league maintains its position as one of the most televised conferences in all of college athletics. FOX Sports, the BIG EAST's television partner for the last 11 years, will continue as the conference's lead network provider, with NBC Sports and TNT Sports also providing comprehensive BIG EAST basketball coverage per the new agreement.

BIG EAST institutions are located in eight of the nation's 38 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Hartford/New Haven, Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

FOX Sports will feature at least 80 BIG EAST men's and women's basketball contests across the regular season and postseason beginning in 2025-26. In addition, the FOX broadcast network will remain the home of the BIG EAST Men's Tournament through 2031.

NBC Sports/Peacock will launch its coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball in 2024-25 with a package of regular season games and five early round and quarterfinal conference tournament games. Beginning with the 2025-26 season, NBC Sports/Peacock will present more than 60 men's and women's regular season and BIG EAST Tournament games.

TNT Sports will feature more than 65 regular season BIG EAST basketball games airing on TNT – as its primary network – along with TBS, truTV and Max, beginning with the 2025-26 season.

Prior to the start of the 2022-23 academic year, the BIG EAST signed a multi-year agreement with FloSports, a leading sports streaming service, to remain the home of the BIG EAST Digital Network Presented by Invesco QQQ. The pact with FloSports includes coverage of women's basketball, Olympic sports events and men's and women's basketball shoulder programming with a total of more than 600 events.

Conference and National Championships

The conference crowns champions in 22 sports. Men's basketball teams have earned 45 NCAA invitations in nine tournaments since 2014, averaging more than five per season.

BIG EAST men's basketball programs have enjoyed extraordinary success. UConn has captured NCAA Championship crowns in 2024, 2023, 2014, 2011, 2004 and 1999. Villanova has won national titles in 2018, 2016 and 1985. Georgetown and Marquette also have won the national championship. Butler, DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all reached the Final Four. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the 1985 Final Four — Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova — still the only occurrence in NCAA history.

The BIG EAST has achieved recent success in other sports as well. The Georgetown men's soccer team won the 2019 NCAA title. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship in four of the last 13 years. Georgetown's women's soccer team reached the College Cup in 2018 and 2016. In men's soccer, Creighton (2022) and Georgetown (2021) have played in the College Cup recently. UConn has won three national field hockey championships in nine years. Liberty, an affiliate member in field hockey, was the national runner-up in 2021. Denver, an affiliate member in men's lacrosse, won the NCAA crown in 2015, and reached the final four in 2024.

In the 45 years since the original league opened its doors, BIG EAST teams have won 44 national championships in eight different sports with 146 student-athletes winning individual national titles.

BASKETBALL SCHOLAR-ATHLETES OF THE YEAR

The BIG EAST Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year award is presented by the BIG EAST Conference during the academic year. The conference names a winner in men's and women's basketball each year. The winners are chosen by the BIG EAST Academic Affairs Committee.

BIG EAST CONFERENCE COMMISSIONER

Val Ackerman

Val Ackerman was named the fifth Commissioner of the Big East Conference on June 26, 2013. She was the founding President of the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and is a past President of USA Basketball, which oversees the U.S. men's and women's Olympic basketball program. She has had a long and accomplished career in the sports industry and is one of the few executives in sports who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international levels. She is an inductee of the Naismith Memorial Basketball of Fame (2021), the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame (2011), the New Jersey Hall of Fame (2021) and the Sports Broadcasting Hall of Fame (2023). In 2016, Val received the Women's Sports Foundation's Billie Jean King Contribution Award for significant contributions to the development and advancement of women's sports.

While at the helm of the BIG EAST, Val has presided over the rebirth of the conference following the decision in 2012 of seven then-current BIG EAST schools (DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova) to separate from the original BIG EAST Conference and align with Butler, Creighton and Xavier to form the present configuration. In 2019, Val led the negotiations which resulted in the return to the BIG EAST of the University of Connecticut, one of the conference's charter members, effective July 1, 2020.

In 2014, Val led the relocation of the conference office from Providence, RI to its current site in New York City and has managed the BIG EAST's fruitful partnerships with Fox Sports, which provides wall-to-wall coverage annually of BIG EAST men's basketball on FOX, FS1 and FS2, and Madison Square Garden, which has hosted the conference's men's basketball tournament since 1983. In 2024, the BIG EAST entered into a successor media rights agreement that will provide broad national television coverage for BIG EAST basketball through 2031 on multiple Fox Sports, NBC/Peacock and TNT Sports platforms. The conference and MSG also entered into a venue agreement extension in 2024 that will keep the Garden as the home of the BIG EAST tournament through 2032.

Following its return to its basketball-centric heritage, the BIG EAST has continued its national excellence in the sport over the past ten years, with 10 of the league's 11 men's basketball programs receiving NCAA tournament bids since 2013-14. BIG EAST schools have won four men's basketball national titles since 2013: Villanova in 2016 and 2018 and UConn in 2023 and 2024. Other notable BIG EAST team athletics accomplishments since reconfiguration include national titles for Providence in women's cross country in 2013, the University of Denver (an affiliate member) in men's lacrosse in 2015, and Georgetown in men's soccer in 2019.

Conference initiatives launched under Val's leadership include the BIG EAST Digital Network, which now carries more than 700 live sports contests annually; BIG EAST Serves, the conference's student-athlete development and community service platform; an officiating alliance with the Atlantic Coast Conference and nine other Division I conferences; the annual BIG EAST Student-Athlete Well-Being Forum, which provides guidance on a wide range of student-athlete wellness matters; a conference-wide e-sports initiative; BE the Change, a diversity, equity and inclusion platform; Freshmen Fundamentals and Transition Game, league-wide programs designed to assist men's and women's basketball student-athletes, respectively, in their endeavors off the court; and BIG EAST University, a virtual career and professional development module.

Val attended the University of Virginia as one of the school's first female student-athlete scholarship recipients. She was a four-year starter, three-time captain and two-time Academic All-American for the Cavaliers' women's basketball team and the first 1,000-point scorer in the program's history. She graduated with high distinction with a degree in political and social thought in 1981 and played one year of professional basketball in France before earning a law degree from UCLA in 1985. She received an honorary doctor of laws degree from Providence College in 2021.

Val started her legal career as a corporate and banking associate at the New York law firm of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett and joined the National Basketball Association as a staff attorney in 1988. She was as an executive at the NBA for eight years, serving as Special Assistant to NBA Commissioner David Stern and Director (and later) Vice President of Business Affairs before being named the WNBA's first President in 1996. She guided the league to a much-heralded launch in 1997 and headed its day-to-day operations for its first eight seasons.

In 2005, Val was elected President of USA Basketball for the 2005-08 term, leading the organization to an overall competitive record of 222-23 and gold medal performances by the U.S. men's and women's basketball teams at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing. She was one of the NBA's original appointees to the USA Basketball Board of Directors in 1989 and served as an organizational liaison with USAB during the early years of NBA participation in national team competitions, including the 1992 and 1996 Olympics and 1994 World Championships. A USA Basketball Board member for 23 years, Val played a key role in the long-standing success of the U.S. women's national basketball team program, which during her term won gold medals at the 1998, 2002 and 2010 FIBA World Championships and the 1996, 2000, 2004, 2008 and 2012 Olympic Games. In 2013, Val was named the recipient of USA Basketball's Edward S. Steitz Award, which recognizes outstanding contributions in international basketball.

Val also served two terms (2006-10 and 2010-2014) as the U.S. representative for men's and women's basketball on the Central Board of the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), the sport's world governing body. She was a member of FIBA's Competition Commission and served on the Central Board of FIBA Americas, FIBA's zone authority for North, Central and South America. She also served from 2017-19 as an at-large member of the U.S. Soccer Federation Board of Directors.

Val is currently a member of the NCAA Women's Basketball Oversight Committee. She served on the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics from 2005-2017 and the NCAA Men's Basketball Oversight Committee from 2014-2019. In 2019, she was appointed co-chair of the NCAA Federal and State Legislation Working Group, which was tasked with examining the NCAA's rules relating to student-athlete name, image and likeness. The Working Group's efforts led to a comprehensive report in 2020 recommending ground-breaking new NIL opportunities. Val also serves as a mentor in the U.S. State Department's Global Sports Mentoring Program, which supports the professional development of international women's sports executives, and is an advisor to the Vatican's Sport at the Service of Humanity initiative, which aims to use sports to build bridges and promote positive social change.

Val is on the Board of Directors of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame and is a Lifetime Trustee of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, which presented her with the John Bunn Lifetime Achievement Award in 2008. She has done consulting work for the National Hockey League, which she assisted in 2011 in formulating a long-term plan to support women's ice hockey, and the NCAA, for which she prepared a comprehensive white paper in 2013 on growth strategies for women's college basketball. She also worked as a free-lance columnist for ESPNW, where she authored a series of articles on the subject of women and sports and participated as a member of the inaugural ESPNW Advisory Board.

Val's accomplishments in the sports business have earned her numerous awards, including the University of Virginia's Distinguished Alumna Award; the March of Dimes Sports Achievement Award; induction into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame; the Girls Scouts of America National Women of Distinction Juliette Award; the NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund Equal Opportunity Award; inclusion on the Atlantic Coast Conference's 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball team; induction into the International Scholar-Athlete Hall of Fame; the Women's Basketball Coaches Association President's Citation; the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award; the International Olympic Committee Women and Sport Achievement Diploma; the Sports Business Journal Champions in Sports Business Award; inclusion as a Women's Sports Foundation/ESPNW 40 for 40 Honoree; induction into the National Consortium for Academics and Sports Hall of Fame; the Women in Sports and Events (WISE) 20th Anniversary Women of Distinction Award; the Arthur Ashe Institute for Urban Health Sports Ball Award; the Marquette School of Law Master of the Game Award; the Emily Couric Leadership Award; the Women Leaders in College Sports Conference Administrator of the Year Award; Coaches for Cancer Annual Benefit Honoree; the Robert K. Greenleaf Center for Servant Leadership Servant-Leader Exemplar Award; the Omicron Delta Kappa Pillars of Leadership Award; and the Sports Lawyers Association Michael Weiner Award of Excellence.

Val is married to Charlie Rappaport, a retired tax partner of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett. They have two adult daughters, Emily and Sally.

All-time BIG EAST Champions

A year-by-year and sport-by-sport list of BIG EAST champions since the conference's inception in the 1979-80 academic year. Teams listed are those that won the respective BIG EAST postseason tournament or event with the following exceptions: men's lacrosse champions are based on regular-season standings in 2010 and 2011; women's lacrosse champions are based on regular-season standings from 2001-06. In 2020, all spring sport championships as well as the men's basketball tournament were cancelled.

CHRIS HOLTMANN RETURNS TO BIG EAST

The BIG EAST has one new coach for 2024-25. Chris Holtmann returns to the BIG EAST, taking over at DePaul. He had previously coached in the league at Butler and was named the 2017 BIG EAST Coach of the Year.

UCONN CAPTURED ITS SIXTH NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

The Connecticut Huskies have now won six national championships, with five coming as a member of the BIG EAST (1999, 2004, 2011, 2023, 2024). The Huskies are the first program to win back-to-back titles since the University of Florida in 2006 and 2007. It is also just the eighth time in men's college basketball history a team has won consecutive championships.

PIRATES CAPTURE NIT CHAMPIONSHIP

Seton Hall ended on a late 9-0 run to take down Indiana State in the NIT championship game, 79-77, at Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis on April 4. The title marked the second in program history and first since 1953. The Pirates are the fifth BIG EAST program to be crowned NIT Champions, and the second in three seasons. Xavier won the title in 2022.

MAKING A STATEMENT ON THE NATIONAL STAGE

Over the past two seasons, the BIG EAST Conference has ranked supreme with a 22-6 overall record in the NCAA Tournament. The .786-win percentage and 22 wins are both the highest marks in the country. After going 12-4 overall in 2023, with Xavier, Creighton and UConn each reaching the Sweet 16 and the Huskies securing their fifth national championship in program history, the conference capped the 2024 with a 10-2 mark and a sixth national championship won by UConn.

BIG EAST ENTERED THE SWEET 16 PERFECT

UConn, Marquette and Creighton took care of business through the opening two rounds of the 2024 NCAA Tournament, collectively going a perfect 6-0 with a combined margin of victory of 18.0 points per game. It marked the seventh time in NCAA history a conference with three or more teams had reached the second weekend with an unblemished mark, most recently accomplished in 2014 by the SEC at 7-0. Meanwhile, the 18.0 margin of victory set a new mark, surpassing the margin set in 1995 by the ACC at 17.1 points per game through eight games.

BIG EAST CONTINUES DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION EFFORTS; TEAMS TO WEAR 'BE THE CHANGE' PATCHES FOR 2024-25

As part of the BIG EAST Conference's continued efforts to promote diversity, equity and inclusion, student-athletes across all BIG EAST sports will wear a "BE the Change" uniform patch during the 2024-25 athletic year. The patch is intended to be a visual reminder of the BIG EAST's collective commitment to champion equity and racial and social justice.

In July 2020, the BIG EAST launched "BE the Change," a social and racial justice advocacy and communications program designed to serve as the conference's primary DE&I platform. The platform is an outgrowth of the work of the BIG EAST Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Working Group, which was formed in 2019 to promote diversity, gender equity and inclusive practices within the BIG EAST community and to create a strategic roadmap for member schools as they build on DE&I efforts already underway on their campuses.

VILLANOVA HAS THE TOP 11-YEAR LEAGUE RECORD

In the 11 seasons since conference realignment, Villanova owns the best record in conference play with a 140-41 (.774) mark. The Wildcats have won or shared seven of the 10 regular-season titles. Marquette won outright this past season. Providence won outright two years ago and Xavier won in 2017-18.

BIG EAST TEAMS HAVE WON 11 NCAA TITLES

The BIG EAST owns an 11-5 record in national championship games. In addition to back-to-back triumphs by UConn and the two recent Villanova victories in 2018 and 2016, the other winners are: Georgetown (1984); Villanova (1985); Connecticut (1999, 2004, 2011); Syracuse (2003); Louisville (2013).

UCONN TOPPED MARQUETTE FOR EIGHTH BIG EAST TOURNAMENT TITLE

UConn put together a strong second half to pull away from Marquette in a 73-57 victory in Saturday's final. The tournament crown was the first for UConn since 2011 and a BIG EAST-tying eighth overall. Center Donovan Clingan led the way for the Huskies with a 22-point, 16-rebound performance. The only other BIG EAST player to achieve a 20-point, 15-rebound title game showing was Georgetown legend Patrick Ewing (27 points, 16 rebounds in 1984). Guard Tristen Newton averaged 17.0 points and 8.0 assists in the Huskies three tournament games' and was named the winner of the Dave Gavitt Trophy as the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. The Huskies advanced to the final with a 27-point win in the quarterfinals over Xavier, 87-60 and a five-point victory in the semifinals against St. John's, 95-90.

BIG EAST TOURNAMENT WAS A COMPLETE SELLOUT AT MSG

The 2024 BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden was a complete sellout. Each of the five sessions was filled with 19,812 fans.

UCONN NEARLY PERFECT AGAINST NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

Over the past two seasons, UConn has dominated non-conference opponents winning 33 out of 34 games by double-digit figures. Overall, the Huskies are 33-1 (.971) entering the offseason, going 17-0 a season ago including a combined 12-0 in the 2023 and 2024 NCAA Tournaments. The lone setback came on Dec. 1, 2023 at Kansas, 69-65. Against BIG EAST opponents, including the BIG EAST tournament, UConn is 35-10 (0.778) over the past two campaigns.

THREE BIG EAST TEAMS EARNED TOP-10 OVERALL SEEDS

Connecticut, Marquette and Creighton all received NCAA Tournament invitations and top-10 overall seeds. UConn, the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament champion, was awarded the No. 1 overall seed of the tournament and are competing in the East Region. Marquette, the tourney runner-up, received a No. 2 seed in the South Region. Creighton, a regular-season runner-up is the No. 3 seed in the Midwest Region. Butler, Providence, Seton Hall, Villanova and Xavier accepted invitations to the NIT.

SHOOTAROUND: THE BIG EAST'S LIVE HOOPS ONLINE SHOW

Shootaround, the BIG EAST's live weekly men's basketball online show that captures interviews and highlights of league actions, will begin its eighth season in 2024-25. John Fanta is the host. the award-winning program will air on the league's social media platforms ahead of the biggeast games. Be sure to follow @BIGEASTMBB and @BIGEAST on X and follow the league on Instagram, Facebook and YouTube @BIGEAST.

Preseason Honors

CREIGHTON'S KALKBRENNER NAMED PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR; UCONN'S MCNEELEY CHOSEN PRESEASON FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

NEW YORK (October 23, 2024) – Creighton center Ryan Kalkbrenner has been named 2024-25 BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year by a vote of the league's head coaches. Connecticut forward Liam McNeeley has been selected BIG EAST Preseason Freshman of the Year. The coaches, who were not permitted to choose their own players, also chose an All-BIG EAST First Team, All-BIG EAST Second Team and All-BIG EAST Third Team.

Kalkbrenner, a 7-1 senior, was an All-BIG EAST Second Team selection last year and has been the BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year in each of the last three seasons. He is only the third BIG EAST player to earn Defensive Player of the Year honors three times. The others are Georgetown's Patrick Ewing (four times) and Alonzo Mourning (three times).

Last year, Kalkbrenner averaged 17.3 points, 7.6 rebounds and a league-leading 3.1 blocks. A native of Florissant, Mo., he also topped the league in field goal percentage, making 64.6 percent.

McNeeley, a 6-7 forward from Richardson, Texas, is a consensus top-20 prep prospect who was also a McDonald's All-America selection. In 2023-24, he led Montverde Academy (Fla.) to a first-place finish at the 2024 Chipotle Nationals and an undefeated season. He was named MVP at the Jordan Brand Classic. McNeeley also has national team experience, playing for the U16 U.S. National Team and winning a gold medal at the 2021 FIBA Americas Championship.

The Preseason All-BIG EAST First Team is a veteran group. Each honoree has at least two years of collegiate experience. The only player to earn All-BIG EAST First Team honors last season is St. John's guard Kadary Richmond, who transferred from Seton Hall. Last season, Richmond averaged 15.7 points, 7.0 rebounds, 5.1 assists and 2.2 steals.

UConn is represented by forward Alex Karaban who compiled averages of 13.3 points and 5.1 rebounds for the national champion Huskies. He shot 37.9 percent from 3-point range and 88.5 percent from the foul line.

Marquette senior guard Kam Jones ranked fourth in the BIG EAST in scoring with a 17.2 average. He also connected on 40.6 percent from 3-point range, which was second best in the league. Jones also made the BIG EAST All-Tournament Team.

Providence forward-guard Bryce Hopkins was likely on his way to conference honors before an injury derailed his season after 14 games. He was a unanimous All-BIG EAST First Team selection two years ago.

Villanova forward Eric Dixon has been an All-BIG EAST Second Team pick in each of the past two seasons. Last year, the sturdy forward averaged 16.6 points and 6.5 rebounds.

The Preseason All-BIG EAST Second Team includes two players each from Butler and Xavier and one from St. John's. Butler forwards Pierre Brooks and Jahmyl Telfort were the team's top two scorers last season. Xavier forward Zach Freemantle is back after missing a season and a half with a leg injury. Guard Dayvion McKnight was an All-BIG EAST Second Team selection last year. St. John's guard Deivon Smith is a transfer from Utah.

The Preseason All-BIG EAST Third Team is guard heavy. All five are backcourt standouts. The returnees are Creighton's Steven Ashworth and Georgetown's Jayden Epps along with transfers Aidan Mahaney of UConn, Wooga Poplar of Villanova and Ryan Conwell of Xavier.

UCONN SELECTED FOR FIRST PLACE IN PRESEASON COACHES' POLL

Connecticut, the defending BIG EAST regular season and tournament champion and the reigning national champion, has been chosen to finish first in the 2024-25 BIG EAST Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Huskies received all possible 10 first-place votes and 100 points from the league's head coaches who were not permitted to vote for their own teams.

Last season, UConn claimed first place in the regular season with an 18-2 mark and captured its eighth BIG EAST Tournament championship at Madison Square Garden. Three weeks later, the Huskies won their second straight NCAA title and finished with a 37-3 record.

This season, UConn can build around forward Alex Karaban, the team's only returning starter. He averaged 13.3 points, 5.1 rebounds and shot 37.9 percent from 3-point range last season. Guard Hassan Diarra, who won the BIG EAST Sixth Man Award, is back with senior center Samson Johnson. Guard Aidan Mahaney, a transfer from Saint Mary's, is expected to play a prominent role. Forward Liam McNeeley, a highly-touted freshman, is expected to make immediate contributions.

Creighton is picked second in the poll with 84 points. The Bluejays, who have reached the NCAA Sweet 16 in three of the last four years, again will be buoyed by senior center Ryan Kalkbrenner, who has been the BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year for the past three seasons. Starting guards Steven Ashworth and Mason Miller are back. Transfer guard Pop Isaacs from Texas Tech figures to help right away.

Xavier is the choice for third place, just two points behind Creighton in the poll. The Musketeers will be bolstered by the return of forwards Zach Freemantle and Jeremy Hunter. Both missed all of last season. Grad student guard Dayvion McKnight excelled by averaging 12.4 points, 4.8 assists and finishing second in the BIG EAST in assist/turnover ratio at 3.06. Shooting guard Ryan Conwell, a transfer from Indiana State, is expected to fortify the offense.

Marquette is slotted for fourth place. Last year, the Golden Eagles tied Creighton for second with a 14-6 league record and, like the Bluejays, advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16. Marquette lost BIG EAST Player of the Year Tyler Kolek and NBA draft pick Oso Ighodaro, but has standout guard Kam Jones, who ranked fourth in the BIG EAST in scoring with a 17.2 average. Guard Stevie Mitchell and forward David Joplin are quality returning starters.

St. John's is the coaches' choice for fifth. The Red Storm backcourt will get a boost from Kadary Richmond, a transfer from Seton Hall. Last season, the all-around performer ranked 11th in the BIG EAST in scoring with a 15.7 average. He was in the top-10 in rebounding (7.0-8th), assists (5.1-4th) and steals (2.2-2nd). Grad student transfer Deivon Smith was a double-figure scorer at Utah. Sophomore guard Simeon Wilcher showed promise as a freshman.

Providence was selected sixth. The Friars finished 21-14 overall and 10-10 in the league. Standout Bryce Hopkins, who was an All-BIG EAST First Team pick two seasons ago, suffered a season-ending injury after 17 games last year. Hopkins is back and will team with junior Jayden Pierre, who enjoyed a strong season at point guard.

Vilanova is the choice for seventh. The Wildcats were 18-16 overall and 10-10 in league play. Their anchor is graduate forward Eric Dixon, who has been an All-BIG EAST Second Team selection in each of the last two seasons. The veteran frontcourt standout averaged 16.6 points and 6.0 rebounds. Transfer guard Wooga Poplar from Miami may offer some immediate contributions.

Butler is slated for eighth place. Last year, the Bulldogs improved to 18-5 overall and 9-11 in the BIG EAST. A pair of forwards, Pierre Brooks and Jahmyl Telfort, impressed in their first seasons with the Bulldogs. Brooks led the team in scoring with a 14.8 average. Telfort was second at 13.9. The newcomer group includes Patrick McCaffery, who was a 1,000-point scorer at Iowa.

Georgetown was picked ninth. The top returnee is guard Jayden Epps, who is the BIG EAST's top returning scorer after averaging 18.5 points. That mark placed him third in the league. Epps also ranked eighth in assists with a 4.2 mark. The group of newcomers includes transfers Malik Mack and Micah Peavy along with freshmen Thomas Sorber and Julius Halaifonus.

Seton Hall was 10th, one point behind Georgetown in the poll. The Pirates won the NIT last year and welcome back two key performers, graduate guard Dylan Addae Wusu, a veteran of the BIG EAST battles who averaged 8.6 points and 5.3 rebounds. Sophomore guard Isaiah Coleman made the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team.

DePaul was picked 11th. New head coach Chris Holtmann has put together a completely new roster. Some of the expected contributors include transfer guards Conor Enright from Drake, Isaiah Rivera from UIC and forward David Skogman from Davidson.

The BIG EAST on Television

FOX SPORTS IS THE HOME FOR BIG EAST BASKETBALL

The BIG EAST Conference men's basketball television schedule will feature a record number of national broadcast network appearances for the 2024-25 season. Through its partnership with FOX Sports, the BIG EAST has maintained its position as one of the leaders in the number of games appearing on an over-the-air national network. Television network assignments and game times have been announced.

For the first time ever, the FOX broadcast network will air both BIG EAST Tournament semifinal games, in addition to the championship game from Madison Square Garden. The BIG EAST Tournament has been held at MSG since 1983. It is college basketball's longest running conference postseason tournament held at the same venue. FS1 will televise more than 80 games. FOX broadcast network's coverage includes at least 18 games during the regular season.

The FOX broadcast network coverage begins with a doubleheader on Saturday, Dec. 7, St. John's hosts Kansas State followed by Marquette hosting Wisconsin. The other non-league game is Gonzaga versus UConn at Madison Square Garden on Dec. 14.

CBS Sports will carry two conference contests which will be broadcast on CBS and stream live on Paramount+. The two games are a double-header on March 1. UConn plays at Providence followed by Seton Hall at St. John's. CBS Sports Network will carry 20 contests, 16 league and four non-league battles.

This season the BIG EAST begins a new relationship with NBC Sports/Peacock, which will carry two games on the NBC broadcast network and simulstreamed on Peacock. Peacock will exclusively stream 25 regular-season games in addition to the BIG EAST Tournament First Round games and the afternoon doubleheader of the quarterfinals. The two regular-season games on NBC and Peacock Sports are Notre Dame at Georgetown on Nov. 16 and Providence at UConn on Jan. 5.

A robust nine-game schedule on Fridays includes two games on FOX, St. John's at Providence on Dec. 20 and St. John's at UConn on Feb. 7.

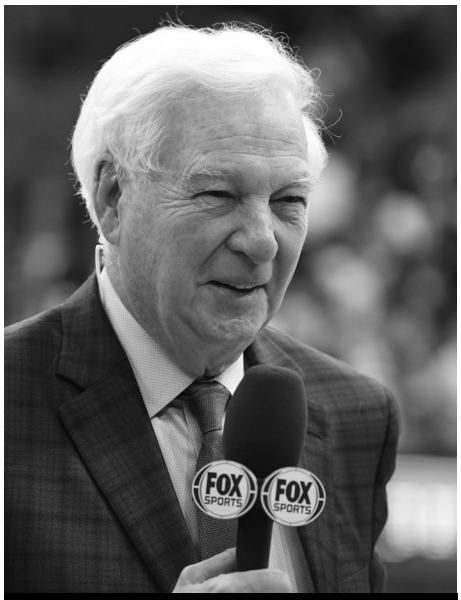

Five BIG EAST games will be played on January 11, March 1 and March 8, the final day of the regular season. FOX or FS1 will televise all five games on March 8.

Georgetown will play at Villanova on Martin Luther King Jr. Day on Jan. 20 on FS1.

For the fourth straight year, FOX Sports will provide blanket coverage of the action of the opening night of the season. On November 4, the BIG EAST Opening Night Tip-Off will include live look-ins on FS1 of eight non-conference contests. Full game coverage for all eight games will be available on the FOX Sports App.

BIG EAST basketball in 2024-25 will also be covered on the BIG EAST Digital Network Presented by Invesco QQQ. Shootaround, the BIG EAST's live online show that captures interviews and highlights of league action, is in its eighth year. The award-winning program will air on the league's social media platforms prior to some of the top games. Fans can follow @BIGEASTMBB on Twitter/X, @BIGEAST on Instagram, and BIGEASTConference on Facebook and YouTube.

Each of the BIG EAST's 11 schools will announce their full individual television schedules separately.

BIG EAST ANNOUNCES NEW MEDIA RIGHTS AGREEMENT

The BIG EAST Conference announced today a new six-year media rights agreement that will ensure that the league maintains its position as one of the most televised conferences in all of college athletics. FOX Sports, the BIG EAST's television partner for the last 11 years, will continue as the conference's lead network provider, with NBC Sports and TNT Sports also providing comprehensive BIG EAST basketball coverage for the first time. The agreement was unanimously approved by the Presidents of the BIG EAST's 11 member institutions.

The new agreement, which will span from 2025-26 through 2030-31, encompasses coverage on FOX Sports (FOX, FS1, FS2), NBC Sports (NBC, Peacock) and TNT Sports (TNT, TBS, truTV and Max). The agreement will provide major national broadcast, cable and direct-to-consumer streaming coverage of BIG EAST men's and women's basketball games and Olympic sport championship contests. The BIG EAST's current agreement with FOX Sports is scheduled to expire after the 2024-25 academic year.

FOX Sports will feature at least 80 BIG EAST men's and women's basketball contests across the regular season and postseason beginning in 2025-26. In addition, the FOX broadcast network will remain the home of the BIG EAST Men's Tournament Final through 2031.

Peacock will launch its coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball in 2024-25 with a package of 25 regular season games and five early round and quarterfinal conference tournament games. Beginning with the 2025-26 season, Peacock and NBC Sports will present more than 60 men's and women's regular season and BIG EAST Tournament games.

TNT Sports will feature more than 65 regular season BIG EAST basketball games airing on TNT – as its primary network – along with TBS, truTV and Max, beginning with the 2025-26 season.

"Our new agreement that provides coverage by FOX Sports, NBC Sports and TNT Sports will allow the BIG EAST to maintain our already high level of national broadcast and cable exposure while adding first-time streaming coverage for men's basketball games and expanded distribution of games on the women's basketball side," said Creighton University President and BIG EAST Conference Board of Directors Chair Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, SJ, PhD. "The arrangement will provide enhanced revenue and long-term stability for the conference, create benefits for our student-athletes, and allow us to remain nationally competitive in our marquee sport: basketball. We are especially excited to continue our one-of-a-kind relationship with FOX Sports and look forward to building on the exceptional foundation we have established together over the past 11 years."

"Everyone at FOX Sports is thrilled to continue our long-standing relationship with the BIG EAST, one of the nation's top basketball conferences and a pillar of our college hoops lineup," said Eric Shanks, CEO & Executive Producer, FOX Sports. "It's a privilege to showcase these spectacular student-athletes and institutions alongside our new partners, NBC Sports and TNT Sports, while also fortifying our role as a leader in college sports."

"BIG EAST Basketball is among the most prestigious in all of college sports, and we're proud to be able to feature the men's and women's teams across our NBCUniversal platforms," said Rick Cordella, President, NBC Sports. "The BIG EAST has a storied basketball history, and we look forward to showcasing these games as the conference creates more memorable moments."

"BIG EAST basketball has historically delivered some of the most thrilling teams and moments in college sports, including its most recent accomplishments, and we are excited to showcase the conference and its fantastic men's and women's college basketball programs on all of our TNT Sports platforms," said Luis Silberwasser, Chairman and CEO, TNT Sports. "This agreement further adds to TNT Sports' portfolio of premium live sports content, featuring championship-caliber college basketball programs and student athletes, and we will utilize all of our assets to elevate the fan experience."

For men's basketball, more than 150 regular season games will be distributed on the networks' various platforms, including all league contests and all BIG EAST Tournament games.

BIG EAST women's basketball coverage will be enhanced significantly under the new deal, with the networks at least tripling the current contractual commitment under the current agreement up to 65 regular season games and all BIG EAST Tournament games.

BIG EAST Olympic Sport team championship contests will be carried annually as part of the new package, including men's and women's soccer, men's and women's lacrosse, volleyball, baseball and softball.

The BIG EAST was advised by Allen & Company and Proskauer in its negotiations.

BIG EAST Conference member institutions are located in some of the country's top media markets and reach over 50 million people. The conference is celebrating its 45th year of academic and athletic excellence following its founding on May 31, 1979.

All-America Selections

Five organizations have been used during BIG EAST history to name All-America selections. They are the Associated Press, United Press International, The Sporting News, United States Basketball Writers Association and the National Association of Basketball Coaches. The Sporting News replaced UPI in 1997.
