UConn Takes Top Spot In BIG EAST Women's Basketball Preseason Poll

The 2024 BIG EAST Women's Basketball Preseason Coaches' Poll was announced Wednesday with UConn as the unanimous preseason favorite. The Huskies collected 100 points and 10 first-place votes in the poll for the second straight year. The Huskies have won the conference regular season 23 times, along with 22 BIG EAST Tournament titles, sweeping both in 2023-24.

Creighton finished second in the Preseason Poll with 91 points and the remaining first-place vote. Providence earned third with 71 points, followed by St. John's (67) and Georgetown (66) to round out the top five. Villanova (56) was picked sixth, Seton Hall earned seventh (51) and Butler took eighth (46). DePaul heads into the season ranked ninth in the preseason poll with 24 points, closely followed by Marquette (23). Xavier rounded out the 11-team poll with 10 points.

In 2023-24 UConn went 33-6, including a perfect 18-0 record in BIG EAST play, capturing both the regular season and tournament titles. The team advanced to the Final Four of the 2024 NCAA Tournament on a miracle run with just six players in the regular rotation. No. 2 UConn's top returners include two-time BIG EAST Player of the Year, redshirt senior Paige Bueckers, redshirt junior Azzi Fudd, sophomore KK Arnold, and reigning freshman of the year, Ashlynn Shade. Fudd is back after suffering an ACL injury last season. UConn welcomes the No. 1-ranked recruit in the Class of 2024, freshman Sarah Strong who recently led the United States U18 3x3 team to gold at the FIBA 3x3 U18 World Cup 2024 for her third-straight gold medal. Morgan Cheli and Allie Ziebell, the No. 7 and No. 11 ranked recruits by ESPN, respectively, begin their collegiate career with the Huskies. Princeton transfer graduate student guard Kaitlyn Chen will finish her career at UConn after being named the 2023 Ivy League Player of the Year. Head Coach Geno Auriemma is just four wins away from becoming the winningest coach in Division I college basketball history. He is behind recently retired Stanford head coach Tara VanDerveer (1,216). non-conference schedule, including notable matchups against North Carolina, Louisville, Notre Dame, USC, Tennessee, South Carolina, and others.

Coming off a third straight NCAA Tournament berth, Creighton returns seven players from last year, including Lauren Jensen, Morgan Maly, and Molly Mogensen. The Bluejays were ranked No. 21 in the Associated Press Preseason Top-25 Poll. Head Coach Jim Flanery begins his 22nd year as Creighton's all-time victory leader with a record of 401-262 (.605). Creighton went 26-6 overall and 15-3 in BIG EAST play a season ago, finishing in second place in the standings and advancing to the BIG EAST Tournament Semifinals. The Bluejays have earned five NCAA Tournament berths since joining the BIG EAST before the 2013-14 season. They most recently made it through to the second round where they fell to No. 6 UCLA (67-63).

Providence returns an experienced squad, including six upperclassmen. Two notable returners include Olivia Olsen, Grace Efosa, and Brynn Farrell. Olsen, a 2023-24 All-BIG EAST Second Team honoree, finished the season with 12 double-doubles. Efosa averaged 12.7 ppg, 5.5 rpg, and was named to the BIG EAST All-Tournament Team. Farrell enters the year with a .816 free-throw percentage and 10.2 points per game. The Friars went 13-21 overall and 6-12 in BIG EAST play in 2023-24 and reached the quarterfinals of the conference tournament. Providence advanced to the WNIT's Second Round under the leadership of head coach Erin Batth.

St. John's (18-15, 11-8 BIG EAST) looks to replace leading scorers Unique Drake and Jillian Archer. Ber'Nyah Mayo returns after finishing last season averaging 10.9 points, 3.1 rebounds and 3.5 assists in 33 games. The Red Storm welcomes four transfers, including Miami transfer Lashae Dwyer who played 35 games for the Hurricanes. St. John's earned one of the BIG EAST's four bids to the inaugural Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament (WBIT) where they made it to the second round last season.

Georgetown finished sixth in the standings last season at 9-9, going 23-12 overall last year. Darnell Haney was named head coach of the Hoyas in March of 2024 after leading the team to 22 wins as interim head coach. The team's nine wins marked the most conference victories since the 2018-19 season. Haney led his squad to an incredible run in the BIG EAST Tournament as the sixth-seeded Hoyas won three straight games to advance to the BIG EAST championship game for the first time in program history. The road to the title game also included a victory over then-No. 21 Creighton in Georgetown's first win over a team ranked in the AP poll since 2016. The Hoyas were selected to participate in the WBIT for their first postseason run since 2019. The reigning BIG EAST Co-Defensive Player of the Year and First Team All-BIG EAST honoree Kelsey Ransom is back after leading the Hoyas with 14.1 points per game.

Villanova recorded its third consecutive 20-win season with a 22-13 overall record and an 11-7 conference mark. The Wildcats earned a bid to the first-ever WBIT where they registered wins over VCU, Virginia, Saint Joseph's, and Penn State before losing to Illinois in the title game. The Wildcats look to replace Lucy Olsen, Christina Dalce, Bella Runyan, and Zanai Jones. Villanova welcomes Holy Cross transfer Bronagh Power-Cassidy to the 2024-25 squad. The two-time Patriot League Championship MVP averaged 16.8 points and 4.9 rebounds in her final season as a Crusader. Villanova opens its season against ACC opponent Wake Forest on Sunday, November 10.

Savannah Catalon and Amari Wright are back and will look to lead Seton Hall in 2024-25. Catalon heads into her sophomore season after averaging 7.4 points, 2.2 rebounds and 2.1 assists in 31 games. Wright finished last season second in the conference in assists per game (5.3). The Pirates lost their top two scorers – Azana Baines (14.7 ppg) and Micah Gray (11.9 ppg) but bring in an experienced group of transfers, including Faith Masonius from Maryland, Nicole Melious from La Salle, Kayden Lawson from Virginia, and Messiah Huner from West Virginia.

Butler's second-year head coach Austin Parkinson returns eight players, including top point producer Caroline Strande (15.1 ppg). The Bulldogs added a veteran wing in Kilyn McGuff from Belmont who started 33 games for the Bruins. Butler went 15-17 overall and 6-12 in BIG EAST play to tie for ninth in the standings.

DePaul return its No. 2 and No. 3 scorers in Jorie Allen and Kate Clarke, respectively. The Blue Demons added six freshmen to their young roster. DePaul fell to Seton Hall in the BIG EAST First Round, finishing the year 12-20 overall and 4-14 in conference play. Jill M. Pizzotti has assumed the role of interim head coach as Doug Bruno experienced a medical incident in September.

Cara Consuegra will coach her first year at the helm at Marquette after spending 13 seasons at Charlotte. The Golden Eagles went 23-9 overall and tied for third in BIG EAST play with an 11-7 league mark. They made their third NCAA Tournament appearance in the last four years but fell in the first round to Ole Miss. Marquette looks to fill the roles of its leading scorers, Liza Karlen, Jordan King, and Mackenzie Hare, from last year.

Billi Chambers enters her second year at Xavier after a 1-27 overall record in 2023-24. The Musketeers return Aizhanique Mayo, Daniela Lopez, and Tae'lor Purvis, and welcome Loren Christie and four others.

UConn's Bueckers, Strong Voted BIG EAST Preseason Player and Fresh-

Standout UConn redshirt senior guard Paige Bueckers was voted BIG EAST Women's Basketball Preseason Player of the Year for the second-straight year; the league announced Wednesday. Fellow Husky Sarah Strong was selected BIG EAST Preseason Freshman of the Year.

In addition to the major awards, a 10-member Preseason All-BIG EAST Team was named, along with three Honorable Mention selections. Preseason major awards and all-league honors are chosen by the BIG EAST's head coaches, who are not permitted to vote for their players.

Bueckers enters her senior year as one of the top players in the country with a decorated career so far at UConn. Last season, Bueckers was named the BIG EAST Player of the Year, Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. She received a spot on the NCAA Tournament's Final Four All-Tournament team and was selected as the Portland 3 Region's Most Outstanding Player. The guard also earned 2024 WBCA, AP, USBWA, and Wooden Award First Team All-American laurels. Bueckers led the Huskies with 21.9 points per game and finished second in rebounds (5.2 rpg). Bueckers was one of the most efficient guards in the nation - with a .530/.416/.834 shooting split. She scored double figures in 38 games with 27 being 20+ point performances. Bueckers scored her 1,000th-career point in her 55th career game to tie alumna Maya Moore as the fastest Husky to reach the milestone. Her 1,593 points rank second all-time in the BIG EAST record book, behind Villanova alum Maddy Siegrist (1,693).

Strong, a 6-2 freshman forward from North Carolina, enters her rookie season as the No. 1 ranked recruit in ESPNW's Class of 2024. Strong, the 2024 Naismith High School Player of the Year, led Grace Christian to three NCISAA state titles. She was named a 2024 McDonald's, Naismith, SLAM, and Jordan

In 2021, Paige Bueckers captured the Naismith Trophy, the Wooden Award, AP Player of the Year, BIG EAST Player and Freshman of the Year, and WBCA Player and Freshman of the Year.

Brand All-American. She also earned 2023 and '24 North Carolina Miss Basketball and Gatorade North Carolina Player of the Year honors. Strong collected her third consecutive gold medal at the 2024 FIBA 3x3 U18 World Cup as she was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Strong is UConn's fifth straight BIG EAST Preseason Freshman of the Year following KK Arnold (2023), Ayanna Patterson (2022), Azzi Fudd (2021), and Bueckers (2020).

The Huskies led the conference with three Preseason All-BIG EAST Team selections – sophomore KK Arnold, redshirt junior Azzi Fudd, and sophomore Ashlynn Shade. Arnold, a 2023-24 BIG EAST All-Freshman team honoree, played in all 39 games averaging 8.9 points, 3.1 rebounds, 3.2 assists, and 2.3 steals. She was a six-time BIG EAST Freshman of the Week as she led the team in steals (90) and scored double digits in 19 games. Fudd returns to UConn after suffering an ACL injury last season. She averaged 11.0 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists in two games. Shade, the reigning BIG EAST Freshman of the Year, averaged 11.0 points over 38 games last season. The sophomore earned freshman of the week five times as she reached double figures in 21 games.

Creighton placed two players on the Preseason All-BIG EAST Team in seniors Lauren Jensen and Morgan Maly. Jensen and Maly each earned an All-BIG EAST First Team nod in 2023-24 and 2022-23. Jensen led the team with a 17.4 scoring average, to go with 98 assists and 27 steals. Maly posted a team-leading 209 rebounds and ranked third with 486 points. Providence also had two players on the Preseason All-BIG EAST Team with senior Olivia Olsen and graduate student Grace Efosa earning preseason recognition. Olsen recorded double digits in scoring a team-leading 27 times, including 15 of 18 conference games. The senior led the Friars in scoring (13.7 ppg), rebounding (8.5 rpg), blocked shots (1.7 bpg), and field-goal percentage (.526). Efosa missed 11 games last season due to an injury but returned in January. She ended last season ranked second on the team in scoring (12.7 ppg) and rebounding (5.5 rpg), and added 1.4 steals and 1.4 assists per game. Efosa averaged 12.6 points, 5.3 rebounds, 1.6 assists, and 1.2 steals during BIG EAST regular season play.

Butler, Georgetown, and St. John's each had one designee on the Preseason All-BIG EAST Team. Graduate student guard Caroline Strande is the top returning scorer for the Bulldogs, averaging 15.1 points, good for 10th in the BIG EAST in 2023-24. Strande ranked second in the conference in 3-point field goal percentage (.447) and seventh in free-throw percentage (.818). Graduate student guard Kelsey Ransom was named the 2023-24 BIG EAST Co-Defensive Player of the Year as she also led the Hoyas in scoring (14.1 ppg). She finished the year with 4.6 rebounds and 4.3 assists in 35 appearances. Ransom earned First Team All-BIG EAST honors and a spot on the league's All-Tournament team. St. John's graduate student guard Ber'Nyah Mayo became the first player since the program's all-time leading scorer Aliyyah Handford (2015-16) to record at least 300 points, 100 assists, 100 rebounds, and 50 steals in a single season in 2023-24. Mayo finished in the conference's top 10 last year in assists per game (3.5) and steals per game (1.7).

Three players received Preseason All-BIG EAST Honorable Mentions— UConn graduate student Kaitlyn Chen, DePaul graduate student Jorie Allen and Seton Hall sophomore Savannah Catalon. Chen joins the Huskies after four years at Princeton where she compiled 1,276 points, 313 rebounds and 359 assists. Allen finished last year with a career-best 11.1 points and 6.5 rebounds per game – good for second on the team. Catalon made 31 appearances in her rookie season and finished third in the BIG EAST with a .866 free-throw percentage.

Mayo became the first player since the program's all-time leading scorer Aliyyah Handford (2015-16) to record at least 300 points, 100 assists, 100 rebounds, and 50 steals in a single season in 2023-24.

ABOUT AMALIE ARENA

With a wide array of venues spread throughout the United States, it can be difficult to find one that distinguishes itself from the others. That is not the case with the renovated AMALIE Arena, Florida's premier entertainment venue and home of the three-time Stanley Cup champions, Tampa Bay Lightning.

The arena has hosted numerous high-profile events including the 1999 NHL All-Star Game, the 2007 ACC Men's Basketball Tournament, the 2008 NCAA Women's Final Four, the 2009 SEC Men's Basketball Tournament, the 2012 Republican National Convention, the 2012 NCAA Men's Frozen Four and more.

Boasting unique features like lightning-throwing Tesla coils, the 11,000 square-foot Budweiser Biergarten with incredible views of the city and a massive five-manual, 105-rank digital pipe organ, AMALIE Arena consistently ranks among the very best venues in the United States. The best part? This is only the beginning.

A new era in Tampa Bay has arrived and it's time you be a part of it. Our owners are committed to providing fans with a world-class experience at every game, concert and event.

BIG EAST Inks Extension With Mohegan Sun Arena

The BIG EAST Conference announced a three-year extension with Mohegan Sun Arena, which serves as host of the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament presented by JEEP, in the fall of 2022. The extension guarantees the event will remain in Uncasville, Conn., through 2026.

"Over the last two years, Mohegan Sun Arena has proven to be a tremendous home for the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament," said BIG EAST Commissioner Val Ackerman. "The facility and amenities are world class, and the unmatched support for women's basketball in Connecticut has created an exciting atmosphere for our coaches, student-athletes and fans. We look forward to returning to Uncasville this March and for many years to come."

2025 BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament coverage will begin with a first-round tripleheader on Friday, March 7. Quarterfinal doubleheaders will be played Saturday afternoon and evening, March 8. The semifinal doubleheader will be held Sunday, March 9 followed by the title game on Monday evening, March 10.

"We are incredibly excited to announce the extension of our partnership with the BIG EAST Conference," remarked Connecticut Sun President, Jen Rizzotti. "Hosting one of the best women's basketball conference tournaments in the country here at Mohegan Sun Arena is a terrific opportunity to celebrate the talented young women that compete in the BIG EAST conference and showcase high level basketball in an electric environment. The fans in Connecticut have shown decades-long commitment to women's basketball with their support of both the UConn Huskies and the Connecticut Sun. We look forward to welcoming them and all fans of the BIG EAST back to Mohegan Sun to enjoy all that we have to offer."

Mohegan Sun Arena is a 10,000-seat venue located in southeastern Connecticut which features year-round entertainment, hosting the likes of Billy Joel, Fleetwood Mac, The Eagles, Taylor Swift, Jennifer Lopez, Jay Z, Keith Urban, Bon Jovi and Kenny Chesney in addition to championship boxing and MMA, top-touring stand-up comedy, WWE, NCAA Division I and professional basketball. Mohegan Sun has been the home of the WNBA's Connecticut Sun since 2003.

Val Ackerman | BIG EAST Commissioner

Val Ackerman was named the fifth Commissioner of the Big East Conference on June 26, 2013. She was the founding President of the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and is a past President of USA Basketball, which oversees the U.S. men's and women's Olympic basketball program. She has had a long and accomplished career in the sports industry and is one of the few executives in sports who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international levels. She is an inductee of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame (2021), the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame (2011) and the New Jersey Hall of Fame (2021). In 2016, Val received the Women's Sports Foundation's Billie Jean King Contribution Award for significant contributions to the development and advancement of women's sports.

While at the helm of the BIG EAST, Val has presided over the rebirth of the conference following the decision in 2012 of seven then-current BIG EAST schools (DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova) to separate from the original BIG EAST Conference and align with Butler, Creighton and Xavier to form the present configuration. She led the relocation of the conference office to its current site in New York City and has managed the BIG EAST's fruitful partnerships with Fox Sports, which provides wall-to-wall coverage annually of BIG EAST men's basketball on FOX, FS1 and FS2, and with Madison Square Garden, which has hosted the conference's men's basketball tournament since 1983. In 2018, the BIG EAST and MSG entered into a venue agreement extension that will keep the Garden as the home of the BIG EAST tournament through 2028. In 2019, Val also led the negotiations which resulted in the return to the BIG EAST of the University of Connecticut, one of the conference's charter members, effective July 1, 2020.

Following its return to its basketball-centric heritage, the BIG EAST has continued its national excellence in the sport over the past ten years, with 10 of the league's 11 men's basketball programs receiving NCAA tournament bids since 2013-14. BIG EAST schools have won three men's basketball national titles since 2013: Villanova in 2016 and 2018 and UConn in 2023. Other notable BIG EAST team athletics accomplishments since reconfiguration include national titles for Providence in women's cross country in 2013, the University of Denver (an affiliate member) in men's lacrosse in 2015, and Georgetown in men's soccer in 2019.

Conference initiatives launched under Val's leadership include the BIG EAST Digital Network, which now carries more than 700 live sports contests annually; BIG EAST Serves, the conference's student-athlete development and community service platform; non-conference men's basketball scheduling challenges with the Big Ten Conference and the Big 12 Conference; an officiating alliance with the Atlantic Coast Conference and nine other Division I conferences; the annual BIG EAST Student-Athlete Well-Being Forum, which provides guidance on a wide range of student-athlete wellness matters; a conference-wide e-sports initiative; BE the Change, a diversity, equity and inclusion platform; Freshmen Fundamentals and Transition Game, league-wide programs designed to assist men's and women's basketball student-athletes, respectively, in their endeavors off the court; and BIG EAST University, a virtual career and professional development module.

Val attended the University of Virginia as one of the school's first female student-athlete scholarship recipients. She was a four-year starter, three-time captain and two-time Academic All-American for the Cavaliers' women's basketball team and the first 1,000-point scorer in the program's history. She graduated with high distinction with a degree in political and social thought in 1981 and played one year of professional basketball in France before earning a law degree from UCLA in 1985. She received an honorary doctor of laws degree from Providence College in 2021.

Val started her legal career as a corporate and banking associate at the New York law firm of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett and joined the National Basketball Association as a staff attorney in 1988. She was an executive at the NBA for eight years, serving as Special Assistant to NBA Commissioner David Stern and Director (and later) Vice President of Business Affairs before being named the WNBA's first President in 1996. She guided the league to a much-heralded launch in 1997 and headed its day-to-day operations for its first eight seasons.

In 2005, Val was elected President of USA Basketball for the 2005-08 term, leading the organization to an overall competitive record of 222-23 and gold medal performances by the U.S. men's and women's basketball teams at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing. She was one of the NBA's original appointees to the USA Basketball Board of Directors in 1989 and served as an organizational liaison with USAB during the early years of NBA participation in national team competitions, including the 1992 and 1996 Olympics and 1994 World Championships. A USA Basketball Board member for 23 years, Val played a key role in the long-standing success of the U.S. women's national basketball team program, which during her term won gold medals at the 1998, 2002 and 2010 FIBA World Championships and the 1996, 2000, 2004, 2008 and 2012 Olympic Games. In 2013, Val was named the recipient of USA

Basketball's Edward S. Steitz Award, which recognizes outstanding contributions in international basketball.

Val also served two terms (2006-10 and 2010-2014) as the U.S. representative for men's and women's basketball on the Central Board of the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), the sport's world governing body. She was a member of FIBA's Competition Commission and served on the Central Board of FIBA Americas, FIBA's zone authority for North, Central and South America. She also served from 2017-19 as an at-large member of the U.S. Soccer Federation Board of Directors.

Val served on the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics from 2005-2017 and the NCAA Men's Basketball Oversight Committee from 2014-2019. In 2019, she was appointed co-chair of the NCAA Federal and State Legislation Working Group, which was tasked with examining the NCAA's rules relating to student-athlete name, image and likeness. The Working Group's efforts led to a comprehensive report in 2020 recommending ground-breaking new NIL opportunities. Val continues to serve on the association's current NIL Working Group. Val also serves as a mentor in the U.S. State Department's Global Sports Mentoring Program, which supports the professional development of international women's sports executives, and is an advisor to the Vatican's Sport at the Service of Humanity initiative, which aims to use sports to build bridges and promote positive social change.

Val is on the Board of Directors of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame and is a Lifetime Trustee of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, which presented her with the John Bunn Lifetime Achievement Award in 2008. She has done consulting work for the National Hockey League, which she assisted in 2011 in formulating a long-term plan to support women's ice hockey, and the NCAA, for which she prepared a comprehensive white paper in 2013 on growth strategies for women's college basketball. She also worked as a free-lance columnist for ESPNW, where she authored a series of articles on the subject of women and sports and participated as a member of the inaugural ESPNW Advisory Board.

Val's accomplishments in the sports business have earned her numerous awards, including the University of Virginia's Distinguished Alumna Award; the March of Dimes Sports Achievement Award; induction into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame; the Girls Scouts of America National Women of Distinction Juliette Award; the NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund Equal Opportunity Award; inclusion on the Atlantic Coast Conference's 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball team; induction into the International Scholar-Athlete Hall of Fame; the Women's Basketball Coaches Association President's Citation; the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award; the International Olympic Committee Women and Sport Achievement Diploma; the Sports Business Journal Champions in Sports Business Award; inclusion as a Women's Sports Foundation/ESPNW 40 for 40 Honoree; induction into the National Consortium for Academics and Sports Hall of Fame; the Women in Sports and Events (WISE) 20th Anniversary Women of Distinction Award; the Arthur Ashe Institute for Urban Health Sports Ball Award; the Marquette School of Law Master of the Game Award; the Emily Couric Leadership Award; the Women Leaders in College Sports Conference Administrator of the Year Award; Coaches for Cancer Annual Benefit Honoree; the Robert K. Greenleaf Center for Servant Leadership Servant-Leader Exemplar Award; and the Omicron Delta Kappa Pillars of Leadership Award.

Val is married to Charlie Rappaport, a retired tax partner of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett. They have two adult daughters, Emily and Sally.

BIG EAST Announces 2024-25 Women's Basketball TV Schedule

The BIG EAST Conference announced its 2024-25 women's basketball schedule on Wednesday. Dates and matchups have been released, while game times and television information will be announced at a later date.

For the second consecutive season, the BIG EAST will play an 18-game conference schedule. Schools will play eight opponents twice and two opponents once. The adjustment to an unbalanced schedule provides greater flexibility in scheduling non-conference opponents.

Conference play will begin on Dec. 4 with Creighton at Xavier. Eleven days later, UConn hosts Georgetown in a rematch of the 2024 BIG EAST Championship Game. The Huskies enter the season with four consecutive BIG EAST Tournament titles.

Eight teams ring in the New Year with four games on January 1; UConn at Marquette, Butler at Creighton, St. John's at Providence, and Seton Hall at Villanova. The regular season ends on March 2 with four games.

The 2025 BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament Presented by JEEP returns to Mohegan Sun Arena for a fifth straight year. FS1 and FS2 will air the tournament's quarterfinal, semifinal and championship games. Quarterfinal coverage on March 8 begins on FS1 at noon ET, before FS2 takes over for the 2:30 p.m., 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. games. FS1 picks up the remainder of the tournament, with the semifinals on March 9 slated for 2:30 and 5 p.m. The championship game is set to tip off at 7 p.m. on March 10. FloSports will televise the trio of first-round games on March 7

FOX Sports will air a total of 22 games, including the quarterfinal, semifinal and championship games of the 2025 BIG EAST Tournament presented by JEEP at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. Of those 22 games, four will air on FOX. This marks the fourth straight year BIG EAST women's basketball will be featured on the broadcast network. Additionally, CBS Sports Network will air two matchups, while SNY will cover 18 regular-season games, including 14 during conference play.

For the 10th straight year, the BIG EAST Digital Network presented by Invesco QQQ will stream every conference game not designated for television. FloSports, the home of BEDN, will also house all school-produced games as more than 120 total women's basketball contests will stream on the platform. FloSports offers both monthly and annual subscriptions, and as part of the expanded agreement, BIG EAST member institution student and faculty discounts will be made available. Additional content on BEDN on YouTube includes "In The Bonus," the Conference's weekly women's basketball feature series.

BIG EAST Announces New Media Right Agreement

The BIG EAST Conference announced a three-year extension to its agreement with leading sports streaming service FloSports, the home of the BIG EAST Digital Network (BEDN), during the summer of 2022. BEDN on FloSports featured more than 600 BIG EAST events during the 2021-22 season, which included Olympic sports and women's basketball game coverage, while also showcasing original content such as "Shootaround" and "Fast Break," the Conference's weekly men's and women's basketball feature shows. The multi-year agreement also provides access to discounted subscriptions for BIG EAST member institution students and faculty.

The BIG EAST-FloSports partnership began with coverage of the 2020-21 women's basketball season before the addition of Olympic Sports and original content in 2021-22. The streaming platform complements the BIG EAST's robust national television deal with FOX Sports, which offers comprehensive annual coverage of regular season men's and women's basketball games, including the BIG EAST Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments presented by JEEP, as well as BIG EAST Olympic sport championships. CBS Sports Network also annually airs select BIG EAST men's and women's basketball games along with several Olympic sport contests. Additionally, SNY annually airs upwards of 18 UConn women's basketball games.

"We're excited to extend our partnership with FloSports, which has been a great home for the BIG EAST Digital Network," said Vince Nicastro, BIG EAST Deputy Commissioner. "FloSports has been a fantastic platform to showcase our women's basketball and Olympic Sports programs, as well as the original content our outstanding in-house digital team creates throughout the year. We are committed to further enhancing the quality of the over 600 events the Conference office and institutions produce every year, with Scott Hecht, our new Senior Associate Commissioner of Broadcasting, spearheading that initiative in collaboration with FloSports. We are eager to deliver top-notch programming to our fans which will highlight the incredible student-athletes, coaches and programs of the BIG EAST."

"With a shared belief in delivering outstanding college sports to a wider audience through digital platforms, FloSports is proud to continue our successful partnership with the BIG EAST," said Michael Levy, Vice President, Global Rights Acquisition, FloSports. "Since the onset of this partnership, we've seen steady, consistent growth both in viewership and engagement for BIG EAST athletics. We look forward to another three years of collaboration with Scott and the BIG EAST team that will put a spotlight on the talented athletes and coaches that are the definition of excellence in college sports."

FloSports will house all school-produced games as more than 120 total women's basketball contests will stream on the platform in 2024-25.

Building on its storied history, the BIG EAST Conference continues to position itself to perform at the highest national level.

The 2024-25 academic year will mark the 12th since the BIG EAST Conference returned to its basketball-centric heritage in institutional membership. The academic and athletic accomplishments over the previous 11 years have shown that the BIG EAST continues to be a national leader in collegiate athletics.

Since the league's reconfiguration in 2013, the BIG EAST has established itself as one of the nation's elite conferences. It has developed a strong, clear identity rooted in authenticity and reflective of its member schools and their shared values. This is embodied by a league-wide commitment to sustained DE&I efforts, mental health programming and career development, among many other deep-rooted initiatives.

Dynamic leadership has been a staple of the BIG EAST throughout its history.

Val Ackerman, who previously served as founding President of the WNBA, President of USA Basketball and U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), was named the BIG EAST's fifth Commissioner in 2013. Under her leadership, the BIG EAST has maintained its reputation for achievement at the highest levels and has continued its influence on the national collegiate landscape, with numerous conference and campus administrators currently serving on important NCAA committees.

Ackerman is one of the few sports executives who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international level. In 2021, she was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

The BIG EAST grew to 11 members in 2020. The University of Connecticut, a member of the conference from 1979 to 2013, was readmitted. UConn has brought a rich history of academic and athletic excellence, especially in the sport of basketball. Since rejoining, the Huskies' men's program won its fifth and sixth national championships, capturing the NCAA crown in both 2023 and 2024. The UConn women's program, which had won eight of its 11 national championships as a BIG EAST member, has continued its unparalleled national success. The Huskies have advanced to the Final Four in 15 of the last 16 years and have appeared in 24 Final Fours overall.

The BIG EAST has produced 15 national champions over the past 11 academic years. Nine BIG EAST teams have captured national titles, including four in men's basketball. BIG EAST student-athletes have won national championships in six individual events.

Founded in 1979 by Dave Gavitt, the former Providence men's basketball coach and athletic director, the BIG EAST Conference became a reality in May of 1979. Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance, and the conference became an immediate national power in men's basketball. While the composition of the BIG EAST has evolved, the focus of its schools has not changed, reflecting a tradition of emphasizing academic strength and fair play.

In December of 2012, DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova announced their intention to separate from the conference's FBS football-playing schools and form an independent association. The seven schools reached an agreement to retain the BIG EAST name and assume the conference's long-term pact with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions — Butler, Creighton and Xavier — and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports. The new era officially began on July 1, 2013.

Outside of the arenas and playing fields, the BIG EAST has always adhered to an unwavering commitment to academic integrity, athletic excellence and community service while offering opportunities to help student-athletes to reach their potential as students, athletes and leaders.

In the summer of 2020, the conference launched "BE the Change," a conference-wide advocacy platform that enables BIG EAST stakeholders to engage on a range of contemporary racial and social justice issues. The "BE the Change" initiative continues in 2024-25.

Also in 2020, the BIG EAST created a partnership with RISE, a leading provider of educational programming that equips sports leaders to create positive change on racism, social justice and equality issues.

The conference has also launched BIG EAST University, a virtual educational service which enhances the student-athlete experience with career professional development programming primarily through webinars.

In 2014 the conference established BIG EAST Serves to align with the service missions of the member institutions. Initiatives housed under the BIG EAST Serves umbrella, the BIG EAST Career Consortium and the national partnership with the It's On Us campaign against campus sexual assaults, reflect the conference's commitment to developing the complete BIG EAST student-athlete and making a positive contribution to campus communities. The BIG EAST regularly hosts a Well Being Forum to help provide institutional personnel with information, insights and basic training so they can better support the mental and physical health of their student-athletes.

Commissioner Ackerman and the BIG EAST have taken a leadership role in Sport at the Service of Humanity, an initiative created by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Culture to focus on how sport and faith can drive positive social change. Ackerman was a delegate at the inaugural Vatican conference and has served on an advisory committee to develop the framework and content for the initiative.

The BIG EAST has been lauded as a longstanding leader in innovative concepts, particularly television, and that reputation continues as evidenced by the conference's relationship with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST has enjoyed a successful multi-year partnership with FOX Sports and its national cable network FS1.

Over the summer of 2024, the BIG EAST finalized a new six-year media rights agreement that will ensure that the league maintains its position as one of the most televised conferences in all of college athletics. FOX Sports, the BIG EAST's television partner for the last 11 years, will continue as the conference's lead network provider, with NBC Sports and TNT Sports also providing comprehensive BIG EAST basketball coverage per the new agreement.

BIG EAST institutions are located in eight of the nation's 38 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Hartford/New Haven, Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

FOX Sports will feature at least 80 BIG EAST men's and women's basketball contests across the regular season and postseason beginning in 2025-26. In addition, the FOX broadcast network will remain the home of the BIG EAST Men's Tournament through 2031.

NBC Sports/Peacock will launch its coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball in 2024-25 with a package of regular season games and five early round and quarterfinal conference tournament games. Beginning with the 2025-26 season, NBC Sports/Peacock will present more than 60 men's and women's regular season and BIG EAST Tournament games.

TNT Sports will feature more than 65 regular season BIG EAST basketball games airing on TNT – as its primary network – along with TBS, truTV and Max, beginning with the 2025-26 season.

Prior to the start of the 2022-23 academic year, the BIG EAST signed a multi-year agreement with FloSports, a leading sports streaming service, to remain the home of the BIG EAST Digital Network Presented by Invesco QQQ. The pact with FloSports includes coverage of women's basketball, Olympic sports events and men's and women's basketball shoulder programming with a total of more than 600 events.

The conference crowns champions in 22 sports. Men's basketball teams have earned 45 NCAA invitations in nine tournaments since 2014, averaging more than five per season.

BIG EAST men's basketball programs have enjoyed extraordinary success. UConn has captured NCAA Championship crowns in 2024, 2023, 2014, 2011, 2004 and 1999. Villanova has won national titles in 2018, 2016 and 1985. Georgetown and Marquette also have won the national championship. Butler, DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all reached the Final Four. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the 1985 Final Four — Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova — still the only occurrence in NCAA history.

The BIG EAST has achieved recent success in other sports as well. The Georgetown men's soccer team won the 2019 NCAA title. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship in four of the last 13 years. Georgetown's women's soccer team reached the College Cup in 2018 and 2016. In men's soccer, Creighton (2022) and Georgetown (2021) have played in the College Cup recently. UConn has won three national field hockey championships in nine years. Liberty, an affiliate member in field hockey, was the national runner-up in 2021. Denver, an affiliate member in men's lacrosse, won the NCAA crown in 2015, and reached the final four in 2024.

In the 45 years since the original league opened its doors, BIG EAST teams have won 44 national championships in eight different sports with 146 student-athletes winning individual national titles.
