BIG SKY MEN'S BASKETBALL - NOV. 6, 2012

MONTANA TOPS PRESEASON POLLS

OGDEN, UTAH (Oct. 18, 2012) - Defending Big Sky Conference champion Montana has been selected first in the 2012-13 preseason men's basketball polls.

Wayne Tinkle's Grizzlies received eight first-place votes and 98 total points in the coaches' poll, and 24 first-place votes and 344 points in the media poll.

"We do have a few key pieces back," Tinkle said. "It's nice to see us recognized, but coaches don't put a lot of credence in the polls. We have an awfully long ways to go to compete for the championship. We're facing some adversity right now with some injuries."

Weber State, which lost to Montana in the Big Sky Championship game, was selected second in both polls. Randy Rahe's Wildcats earned three first-place votes from the coaches and 92 total points. Eight media members selected Weber State first. The Wildcats earned 318 points from the media.

Montana is slated to return a pair of All-Conference performers in senior guard Will Cherry and junior Kareem Jamar. Cherry, from West Oakland, Calif., was named the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year in 2011-12, and has twice been named First Team All-Conference. He averaged 15.8 points per game, 3.3 assists, and a league-high 2.6 steals per game as a junior. Cherry is currently sidelined with a foot injury, but should return by the start of conference play. Jamar, a 6-foot-5 guard/forward from Venice, Calif., emerged as one of the top all-around players in the Big Sky last season, earning First Team All-League honors. He averaged 13.6 points, 5.6 rebounds, 3.7 assists, and 1.1 steals per game. Senior forward Mathias Ward, who averaged 10.9 points and 3.9 rebounds per game, also returns to the starting lineup.

Montana finished 15-1 in conference in 2011-12, and went 25-7 overall. The Grizzlies lost to Wisconsin in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Grizzlies have played for the Big Sky Championship three straight seasons, winning twice.

Weber State lost NBA Lottery Pick and two-time league MVP Damian Lillard, but the Wildcats are once again expected to contend. Two starters return from last year's 25-7 squad, which went 14-2 in conference and won a game in the in the CollegelInsider.com postseason tournament.

Senior guard Scott Bamforth, a First Team All-Conference pick as a sophomore and Second Team pick last season, returns along with junior center Kyle Tresnak. Big things are also expected from sophomore guard Gelaun Wheelright and junior Davion Berry, who sat out last season as a transfer. Berry averaged 23.7 points per game as a sophomore at Division II Cal State Monterrey Bay.

Northern Colorado was selected third by the coaches and fourth by the media. B.J. Hill's squad is slated to return leading scorers Tate Unruh (11.3 ppg and Tevin Svihovec (10.8 ppg). The Bears, who won the 2010-11 Big Sky Championship, led the nation in 3-point field-goal shooting a season ago.

Eastern Washington, under second-year coach Jim Hayford, returns senior Collin Chiverton, the Big Sky's Top Newcomer last season. Chiverton averaged 13.9 points per game. The Eagles were tabbed third by the media and sixth by the coaches.

League newcomer North Dakota could make a splash. The coaches selected Brian Jones' club fourth, while the media picked it sixth. North Dakota played in the Great West Conference last season and finished 17-15. North Dakota returns four starters, including junior guard Troy Huff who led the team in scoring and rebounding.

Portland State was picked to finish fifth in both polls. The Vikings lost All-Conference performers Charles Odum and Chehales Tapscott from last year's team that finished third in the Big Sky.

Sacramento State was picked to finish seventh in the coaches' poll and eighth in the media poll. Montana State was picked seventh in the media poll and eighth in the coaches' poll. Sacramento State returns four starters, including 2011-12 Freshman of the Year Dylan Garrity. Montana State's top returner is senior guard Xavier Blount.

BIG SKY MEN'S BASKETBALL - NOV. 6, 2012

AROUND THE BIG SKY

NEW SEASON BRINGS CHANGE: The Big Sky Conference opens the 2012-13 basketball season on Friday with a different look. North Dakota and Southern Utah have joined the league as full members. North Dakota previously played in the Great West Conference. North Dakota finished 17-15 last season, losing to Drake in the CollegenInsider.com postseason tournament. North Dakota won the Great West Conference tournament. Southern Utah comes to the Big Sky Conference from the Summit League. The Thunderbirds, who've long been a regular non-conference foe for many Big Sky teams, went 14-17 last season. The Big Sky Conference will continue to play a double-round robin format, meaning each team will play 20 conference games. The Big Sky Championship will be a seven-team tournament. It will be played March 14-16 at the site of the regular-season champion. The No. 1 seed will earn a bye to the semifinals. There will be three first-round games on Thursday, March 14. The championship game will be televised on ESPNU at 7 p.m. Mountain.

NEW ON THE BENCH: Three Big Sky Conference schools are under the direction of new coaches. Idaho State hired veteran coach Bill Evans. Evans, who spent 15 seasons as the head coach at Southern Utah, was most previously an assistant under Wayne Tinkle at Montana. Northern Arizona hired first-year head coach Jack Murphy to begin a new era in Flagstaff. Murphy was an assistant at Memphis for the past three seasons. Southern Utah tabbed Nick Robinson to take over as the Thunderbirds transitioned into the Big Sky. Robinson, a graduate of Stanford, was on LSU's staff last season. North Dakota's Brian Jones isn't new to his program, but is new to the Big Sky. Jones is entering his seventh season in Grand Forks.

RECORD IN SIGHT: Montana senior Will Cherry, the Big Sky defensive player of the year in 2011-12 and a two-time All-Conference pick, will begin the season on the bench recovering from a foot injury. Cherry begins the season needing 61 steals to become the Big Sky's all-time leader. Cherry has 223 career steals, good enough for fifth in conference history. Sacramento State's DeShawn Freeman (2002-06) currently holds the record with 283 steals. Nevada's Kevin Soares (1998-92) is second with 255, followed by Northern Arizona's Tom DeBerry (1974-76) with 247, and Eastern Washington's Ronn McMahon (1987-90) with 225. Cherry had 61 steals as a freshman, 79 as a sophomore and 83 as a junior.

IN THE MID-MAJOR POLL: No Big Sky Conference team will begin the 2012-13 season ranked in the top 25 of the CollegenInsider.com Mid-Major Poll. Defending Big Sky Conference champion Montana earned 76 points in the preseason poll, putting them in 29th place. Weber State earned 20 points, and North Dakota received one. Creighton of the Missouri Valley Conference is the preseason Mid-Major No. 1, followed by Gonzaga, Murray State, Drexel and Ohio. Montana finished last season ranked 16th. Weber State was 21st.

BIG SKY TV ON MOBILE DEVICES: Big Sky TV, the conference's internet streaming service, is now available on Apple and Droid mobile devices. Fans can view most games held in Big Sky venues for free at www.bigskytv.org. The Big Sky Conference has once again teamed with America One Sports to provide this service. Big Sky TV men's basketball action starts on Friday night.

STATS & STREAKS: Weber State opens the season riding a 17-game home-court winning streak. The Wildcats will try to make it 18 straight on Friday night against Arizona Christian. Weber State went 16-0 at the Dee Events Center last season....Northern Arizona enters the season looking to end a 16-game losing streak. NAU's last victory game on Dec. 29, 2011 when the Lumberjacks beat Sacramento State 73-64...UM's Will Cherry is the only active player with 1,000 career points. Cherry has 1,191. Sacramento State's John Dickson enters his senior season with 942...NAU senior Stallon Saldivar needs 27 more assists to reach 400 for his career. Only 16 players have amassed 400 career assists in the Big Sky.
