NAU's Bedortha Named COY

OGDEN, Utah (April 30, 2013) - Northern Arizona's Brad Bedortha has been selected by his peers as the 2012-13 Big Sky Conference Golf Coach of the Year.

Bedortha guided Northern Arizona to the program's seventh Big Sky Championship at the Ocotillo Golf Resort in Chandler, Ariz., last week. Bedortha has won two Big Sky Championships and been named the Big Sky Coach of the Year twice in his five full seasons with the Lumberjacks.

Northern Arizona shot rounds of 299, 293 and 290 for a 54-hole total of 882 to win the championship by four shots over Portland State.

"I am honored to be named the Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year," said Bedortha, who also won the award in 2009. "It is a testament to our team for how well we have done all season, capped off by winning the conference championship. I couldn't be prouder of them, and I'm excited that we get to compete at the NCAA West Regional."

The Lumberjacks played in nine regular-season tournaments, winning the Rio Verde Invitational hosted by Western Michigan. Northern Arizona averaged a league-best 305.19 strokes per round. NAU is ranked 98th in the nation in this week's Golfweek rankings.

Northern Arizona fired three of five lowest rounds in school history this spring. NAU shot a 286 - one shy of the school record - during the second round of the Mountain View Collegiate. The Lumberjacks also shot a 288 at the Rio Verde Invitational, and a 289 in the first round of the Mountain View Collegiate.

BIG SKY CONFERENCE GOLF - MAY 6, 2013

PSU's Choi Leads All-Conference Team

OGDEN, Utah (April 29, 2013) - Portland State's A Ram Choi has earned the Big Sky Conference Golfer of the Year honor, while Northern Arizona's Savana Bezdicek has been named the Freshman of the Year.

The individual award winners and 2012-13 All-Conference Team were announced by the league office Monday. Ratings provided by Golfstat were used to determine the All-Conference Team, as well as individual honorees.

Choi, a sophomore from Surrey, B.C., finished with a Golfstat ranking of 112. The University of Washington transfer averaged a league-low and single-season school record 74.73 strokes per round. She shot in the 60s or 70s in 28 of the 30 rebounds she played, including a 67 in her very first round as a Viking.

Choi claimed medalist honors last fall at the Rose City Collegiate. She finished second in two tournaments, and placed fourth at the Big Sky Championship last week at the Ocotillo Golf Resort in Chandler, Ariz.

Since the Big Sky Conference began using a computer ranking to determine the All-Conference team, Choi's ranking of 112 is the lowest by a Big Sky golfer. From 2005-07, the Big Sky used Golfweek rankings. Since 2008, the league has used Golfstat.

Bezdicek, from Colbert, Wash., finished with a ranking of 254, good enough to earn First Team All-Conference Honors as well as Freshman of the Year. She averaged 76.15 strokes per round. She claimed medalist honors at two tournaments, winning the Cal Poly Invitational last fall, and the Rio Verde Invitational this spring. Bezdicek placed 22nd at the Big Sky Championship, helping Northern Arizona to the team championship.

Bezdicek is the fourth Lumberjack in nine years to win Freshman of the Year, joining Sophia Choi (2005), Ali Carter (2006), and Stephanie Kim (2010).

Kim, a senior from Tempe, Ariz., earned First Team All-Conference honors for the third time. Kim, who won the 2010 Big Sky Championship as a freshman, finished with a ranking of 147, averaged 75.37 strokes per round, and placed in the top 10 at five tournaments. Kim finished 11th at the Big Sky Championship. Kim earned First-Team honors in 2010 and 2011. She was Second Team All-Conference in 2012.

Weber State senior Kelsey Chugg earned First Team honors for the first time. The Phoenix, Ariz., native had a ranking of 155. She won three tournaments, and finished 12th at the Big Sky Championship.

Northern Colorado senior Carleigh Silvers (Martinsville, Ind.) earned First Team Honors for the second straight season. The 2012 Big Sky Conference Championship had a ranking of 209. She averaged 75.62 strokes per round. Silvers tied for fifth at the Big Sky Championship.

Sadie Palmer of league newcomer Southern Utah finished with a ranking of 254. The senior from Toole, Utah, averaged 75.89 strokes per round, and finished in the top 10 at six tournaments.

Montana State junior Paige Crawford earned an automatic spot on the All-Conference First Team by virtue of her individual Big Sky Championship. Crawford cruised to medalist honors last week at Ocotillo, firing a tournament-record eight-under-par 208. Crawford shot a 68 in the second round, and tied the single-round tournament record with a 67 in the final round. The Colorado Springs, Colo., product has a ranking of 462. She averaged 77.14 strokes per round.
