NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP REVIEW

Eight Big Sky Conference Track and Field schools concluded their season at the NCAA Championships this past week.

Northern Arizona's Diego Estrada, Sacramento State's Jesse Elvrom and Weber State's Amber Henry all finished top six.

Estrada finished third in the 5,000 meters with a time of 13:42.27. His teammate Futsum Zienasellassie finished 13th with a time of 14:07.72. Estrada's finish is the best men's finish since 2010, when NAU's David McNeill won the 5,000 meters.

Henry finished third in the steeplechase with a time of 9:43.39. Henry's finish is the best women's finish since 2008, when WSU's Lindsey Anderson finished 2nd in the steeplechase. Anderson is now an assistant coach for Weber State.

Elvrom finished sixth in the javelin with a toss of 233-9. Elvrom's finish is the best throwing finish since 2000, when NAU's Nick Petrucci finished sixth in the discus. In 1999, Petrucci finished third in the discus.

For team scores for the women, Weber State finished tied for 39th with six points. That is the best women's team finish since 2007, when WSU finish tied for 27th.

On the men's side, Northern Arizona finished tied for 38th with six points, and Sacramento State was tied for 58th with three points. That is the best men's team finish since 2010, when NAU finished tied for 27th.

BIG SKY CONFERENCE ATHLETES OF THE MEET

Women's Outstanding Performer

Lindsey Hall, Montana
Junior - Missoula, Mont.

Hall was named Co-Outstanding Performer for a throw of 168-2 in the javelin. She won the gold in that event and the second place throw was 160-3.

Joenisha Vinson, Portland State

Senior - Phoenix, Ariz.

Vinson was named Co-Outstanding Performer for winning the heptathlon. She finished with 5,488 points to be named and beat the second-place finisher by 279 points.

Men's Outstanding Performer

Jesse Elvrom, Sacramento State
Junior - Roy, Wash.

Elvrom was named Men's Outstanding Performer after winning the javelin. He had a throw of 239-6 to break the conference record. The old record of 232-1 was set in 1988 by Erik Humble of Eastern Washington.

Women's Most Valuable Athlete

Amber Henry, Weber State
Junior - Mountain View, Wyo.

Henry took gold in three events this past weekend. She won the 1,500 meters, 5,000 meters and 3,000m Steeplechase. She broke the Big Sky Conference record in the 5,000 meters with a time of 16:35.19. She broke the time of 16:35.86 set in 1992 by Northern Arizona alum Tracy Jarman.

Men's Most Valuable Athlete

Diego Estrada, Northern Arizona
Senior - Salinas, Calif.

Estrada was named Most Valuable Athlete after finishing the meet with 20 points. Estrada won the 1,500 meters and the 5,000 meters. Estrada just barely defeated his teammate Futsum Zienasellassie in the 5,000 meters.

Paul Lyons, Sacramento State
Sophomore - Manteca, Calif.

Lyons won both the 110-meter hurdles and 400-meter hurdles at the Conference Championships. He was named Co-MVP after the meet. This is the first time in conference history that an athlete won both hurdles at the championships.

BIG SKY CONFERENCE WOMEN'S OUTDOOR TRACK AND FIELD BESTS -- (Through June 10, 2013)

The information below was compiled by the Big Sky Conference from information received from Direct Athletics. All times listed in hundredths of seconds indicate electronic timing. The numbers in parenthesis following the event name indicate the Big Sky Conference qualifying standard. Names in bold indicate Big Sky qualifying standard has been met. HT - indicates a converted hand time to electronic timing (+.24). @ - indicates Altitude Adjusted Time. (Parenthesis) indicates the actual time before altitude adjustment in distance events. In sprints, parenthesis indicates the altitude adjusted time.

BIG SKY CONFERENCE MEN'S INDOOR TRACK AND FIELD BESTS -- (Through June 10, 2013)

The information below was compiled by the Big Sky Conference from information received from Direct Athletics. All times listed in hundredths of seconds indicate electronic timing. The numbers in parenthesis following the event name indicate the Big Sky Conference qualifying standards. Names in bold indicate Big Sky qualifying standard has been met. HT - indicates a converted hand time to electronic timing (+.24). @ - indicates Altitude Adjusted Time. (Parenthesis) indicates the actual time before altitude adjustment in distance events. In sprints, parenthesis indicates the altitude adjusted time. Additions and/or corrections are welcome.
