NATIONAL INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

In 1987 the Walter Payton Award was established by The Sports Network to honor the most outstanding football player at the FCS level. The award is chosen annually by a nationwide panel of media and college sports information directors. Since its inception, seven Big Sky players have won the award, including EWU QB Bo Levi Mitchell in 2011. The seven individual winners is more than any other FCS conference.

The Sports Network also awards the Buck Buchanan Award, given each season to the top defensive player in FCS. In 2003 Idaho State defensive end Jared Allen became the first Big Sky player to win the Buchanan Award, which was established in 1995. Allen led the nation in sacks and forced fumbles and was third in tackles for a loss. His 17.5 sacks set an ISU school record and he also scored a pair of touchdowns during the year.

Montana's Kroy Biermann became the second winner in 2007. Biermann tallied 15 sacks, second-most in the nation, had 18 tackles for loss, five forced fumbles and 72 total tackles.

Eastern Washington's Greg Peach made it two straight Buchanan winners for the Big Sky in 2008. Peach led the nation with 18 tackles and 22 tackles for loss.

Eastern Washington's J.C. Sherritt captured the honor in 2010. Sherritt, who a night later led his team to the national championship, recorded 176 tackles with 14 for loss.

Montana State's Caleb Schreibeis made it five Buchanans in 10 years in 2012. Teammate Brad Daly gave Montana State back-to-back Buchanan winners in 2013.

In 2013, Eastern Washington's Cooper Kupp became the first Big Sky player to win the Jerry Rice Award as the nation's top freshman. The Sports Network began awarding the Jerry Rice Award in 2011. Kupp set national freshman records for catches, yards and touchdowns.

At the end of each season The Sports Network also awards the Eddie Robinson Award to the nation's top FCS head coach. The Robinson Award was established in 1987 and two Big Sky head coaches have won the award - Montana head coach Joe Glenn in 2000 and Nevada head coach Chris Ault in 1991.

Around the Big Sky

Idaho State's Kramer Named Coach of the Year

Idaho State's Mike Kramer joined an elite and exclusive club in 2014, as he was selected by his league peers as the Big Sky Conference Football Coach of the Year.

Kramer became just the second coach in Division I history to earn Coach of the Year honors at three different schools in the same conference. Dennis Erickson was the first to accomplish the feat, claiming Coach of the Year honors at Washington State, Oregon State and Arizona State in the Pac-12. Kramer previously won the Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year honors at Eastern Washington in 1997, and at Montana State in 2002 and 2005. Kramer is just the third coach in league history to capture the honor four times. Boise State's Tony Knap won it in 1971, and from 1973-75. Nevada's Chris Ault won the award in 1983, 1986, 1990 and 1991. "I have the staff of the year, the President of the Year, the trainer of the Year, the equipment manager of the year and administration of the year," Kramer said. "This is a full-team award. I am humbled by the honor and extremely grateful for the great support we have at Idaho State. Kramer guided the Bengals to their best season in more than a decade, compiling an 8-4 campaign. The eight victories marked a five-win improvement from the 2013 season. The eight wins matched the combined win total of the program from the previous five seasons. Idaho State finished with a winning season for the first time since 2003. The Bengals snapped a 48-game road losing streak on Oct. 25 with a 46-12 win at Northern Colorado. The Bengals won on the road the next week, beating Portland State 31-13. It marked the first time since 1983 the Bengals won road games on consecutive weekends. Idaho State enjoyed its first first-game winning streak since 1995.

Three Sky Players In the Top 10 in Buchanan Voting

The three Big Sky Conference candidates for the Buch Buchanan Award all finished in the top 10 in voting, Montana senior defensive end Zack Wagenmann, the Big Sky Defensive MVP, finished third with 203 total points. Wagenmann tallied 12 first-place votes, 17 second-place votes and 203 total points. North Dakota State defensive end Kyle Emanuel won the honor in a landslide. He earned 70 first-place votes and 495 total points. Including two playoff games, Wagenmann tallied 17.5 sacks and 23 tackles for loss. He led the Big Sky in sacks and forced fumbles (six). Cal Poly linebacker Nick Dzubnar finished sixth with 171 points. Dzubnar, a senior, earned 10 first-place votes. He led the Big Sky with 167 total tackles. His average of 13.9 per game was second in the FCS. Southern Utah junior defensive end James Cowser finished 10th with 93 points. He earned two first-place votes. Cowser led the nation with 28.5 tackles for loss - a Big Sky single-season record. He also had 11.5 sacks.

Adams Second, Arias Third in Payton Race

For the second consecutive season, Eastern Washington quarterback Vernon Adams Jr. finished second in voting for the Walter Payton Award, which was presented on Dec. 15 in Philadelphia. Adams Jr. finished second to Villanova quarterback John Robertson. Idaho State senior quarterback Justin Arias was third. Adams Jr. was the heavy favorite to win the Payton before suffering a broken foot in early October. Adams Jr. missed four games, but was still selected as the Big Sky Offensive MVP for the second straight season. Arias was not a candidate until midway through his senior campaign when he helped the Bengals to their first winning season in more than a decade. Robertson, a 6-foot-1, 221-pound junior from Paramus, N.J., earned 66 of the 160 first-place votes and 467 total points. Adams received 29 first-place votes and 383 total points. Arias garnered 22 first-place votes and 220 total points.

2014 SEASON REVIEW

ISU's Jenkins Fourth in Rice

Idaho State linebacker Mario Jenkins finished fourth in voting for the Jerry Rice Award, which is presented by The Sports Network to the nation's top freshman. Jenkins, a 6-foot-1, 225-pounder from Nampa, Idaho, led all freshman in the nation with an average of 10 tackles per game. Jenkins finished fifth in the Big Sky in average tackles per game. Jenkins tallied 120 total tackles en route to earning Second Team All-Conference honors. Jenkins earned five first-place votes, 18 second-place votes, and 221 total points. Eastern Washington wide receiver Cooper Kupp won the Rice last season. Fordham running back Chase Edmonds captured the 2014 Jerry Rice Award.

Baldwin Honored by AFCA

A proven winner year-in and year-out for the Eastern Washington University football team, head football coach Beau Baldwin was named the American Football Coaches Association Region 5 Coach of the Year for the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision on Monday (Dec. 8). This is the first time Baldwin has been honored by the AFCA, and comes on the heels of Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year honors in 2012 and 2013. All three seasons Baldwin's teams have won the Big Sky Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision Playoffs. This season, Baldwin's team is 11-2 and finished 7-1 in the Big Sky Conference to win the outright league title for a second-straight season. Interestingly, former Eastern player and assistant coach Jim McElwain was the District 5 Coach of the Year in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision. McElwain recently was named head coach at Florida after previously serving at Colorado State.

EWU's Kupp Catches 104

Eastern Washington sophomore wide receiver Cooper Kupp caught 10 passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns in Eastern Washington's playoff loss to Illinois State. Kupp became the second player in Big Sky history to cach 100 passes in a season with 104. Kupp finished the year with 1,431 receiving yards and 16 touchdowns. In 28 career games, he has 197 catches for 3,112 yards and 37 receiving touchdowns. The Big Sky record for career touchdown catches is 46 by Eastern Washington's Eric Kimble (2002-05). Kimble ranks second in Big Sky history and holds the Eagle school record for catches in a career with 253. The league record for career catches is 268 by Idaho's Kasey Dunn. Kimble holds the record for receiving yards with 4,140.

Adams 10th All-Time in FCS

Eastern Washington junior quarterback Vernon Adams Jr. finished his FCS career ranked 10th in FCS history with 110 career touchdown passes. Adams threw three in the Eagles' quarterfinal loss to Illinois State. Adams set a Big Sky single-season record with 55 touchdown passes in 2013. Adams, who missed four games in 2014, finished with 35 for the season. Adams has 11 career rushing touchdowns. He's accounted for 121 touchdowns in his career. Adams will transfer to Oregon for the 2015 season if he graduates from EWU.

Four Earn Academic All-America Honors

Four Big Sky Conference football players have been named to the Division I Capital One All-America Football Team. Northern Arizona senior linebacker Austin Hasquet was tabbed to the prestigious First Team for the second consecutive season. Hasquet, from Peoria, Ariz., maintains a 3.97 grade point average in biomedical science. Hasquet has also been selected as a 2014 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete. He will be honored as a banquet in New York City on Dec. 9. Hasquet tallied 87 total tackles in 2014, along with one interception. Eastern Washington sophomore wide receiver Cooper Kupp, Idaho State senior defensive lineman Austin Graves, and Montana junior defensive lineman Derek Crittenden were selected to the Second Team. Kupp, from Yakima, Wash., maintains a 3.48 GPA in economics. Graves, from Kennewick, Wash., holds a 3.95 GPA in philosophy. Crittenden, from Whitefish, Mont., has a 4.0 GPA in Chemistry.

Hamlin Tops in Tackles

Eastern Washington senior linebacker Ronnie Hamlin tallied 16 tacckles in Eastern Washington's loss to Illinois State in the semifinals. It was just enough to become the Big Sky's all-time career leader. Hamlin finished his career with 473 career tackles. Tackles became an official NCAA statistic in 2000. Montana State's Kane Ioane set the previous mark of 471 from 2000-03. Hamlin tallied 85 tackles in 2011, 136 in 2012 and 140 in 2013, and 112 in 2014.

NOTES

▷ Cal Poly is slated to return nine starters on offense and seven on defense from a team that finished 7-5 in 2014. The Mustangs were 6-3 through nine games in 2014 and in position to secure a playoff bid for the second time in three years. Back-to-back losses to Idaho State and UC Davis dashed the Mustangs' postseason hopes.

▷ Cal Poly will face a difficult non-conference schedule, playing a non-conference game at Montana, playing host to Northern Iowa, an FCS playoff team last season, as well as traveling to Arizona State of the Pac-12.

▷ Senior quarterback Chris Brown returns to lead the Mustangs' triple-option offense. Brown rushed for 1,265 yards and 17 touchdowns as a junior. He also threw 12 TD passes and just three interceptions.

▷ Cal Poly once again set a Big Sky single-season record for rushing yards in 2014. The Mustangs amassed 4,221 yards on the ground for an average of 351.8 yards per game. The Mustangs also set a Big Sky single-season record with 44 rushing touchdowns. Cal Poly has led the nation in rushing each of the past two seasons.

NOTES

▷ Montana is under the direction of first-year coach Bob Stitt, who came to the Grizzlies after 15 successful seasons at Division II Colorado School of Mines. Stitt, who took over for the retired Mick Delaney, is known for a fast-paced, fly-sweep offense

▷ Stitt and the Grizzlies will be tested in their opener. Montana opens against four-time defending FCS national champion North Dakota State in Missoula on Aug. 29. The game will air live on ESPN in the second annual "FCS Kickoff."

▷ Defense was the strength of the Grizzlies last season as it advanced to the playoffs for the second straight season. Ty Gregorak remained on staff as the defensive coordinator.

▷ UM finished third in the nation in 2014 in turnover margin, and was seventh in the nation in sacks per game. The Grizzlies led the Big Sky and finished 19th in the nation in scoring defense.

Returning All-Conf. Performers: 9

NOTES

▷ The Bobcats returned to the playoffs in 2014 after missing out in 2013. Junior quarterback Dakota Prukop emerged as one of the premier offensive players in FCS football last season. Prukop averaged 320.5 yards of total offense per game, and led the league in pass efficiency. Prukop is one of nine starters returning to the offense.

▷ The Bobcats welcome East Tennessee State to Bozeman on Oct. 24. East Tennessee State is playing football for the first time since the 2003 season. The Buccaneers will play in the Southern Conference. The Bobcats also face Eastern Washington in a non-conference game for the second straight year.

▷ Former Bobcat great Kane Ioane was elevated to co-defensive coordinator during the offseason and will continue to coach linebackers. Jamie Marshall will also serve as co-defensive coordinator and coach safeties.

▷ The Vikings will face two FBS teams in 2015. Portland State opens its season on Sept. 5 at Washington State of the Pac-12. Portland State will travel to Denton, Texas, to face North Texas on Oct. 10. North Texas competes in Conference USA. This is the sixth time that Portland State has played at least two FBS level programs in the same season (the Vikings played three in 2006).

▷ Portland State returns a veteran squad in 2015 with 59 letterwinners back. The Vikings have 16 returning starters; six on offense, eight on defense and two on special team. The Vikings also have 21 redshirts returning as well, giving PSU 80 players on the roster who were in the program in 2014.

▷ The Viking offensive line protected the quarterback as well as ever in 2014. PSU led the Big Sky Conference with the fewest sacks allowed on the season (10) despite throwing 423 passes. PSU has allowed only 35 sacks over 46 games the last four seasons while throwing 1,410 passes.

NOTES

▷ The Thunderbirds are hoping to rebound from last year's 3-9 campaign. Southern Utah advanced to the FCS playoffs in 2013 with an 8-5 record.

▷ Southern Utah's defense will be led by FCS Defensive Player of the Year candidate James Cowser. The senior defensive end led the nation and set a Big Sky single-season record with 28.5 tackles for loss as a junior. Cowser also tallied 11.5 sacks and four quarterback hurries.

▷ BYU transfer Ammon Olsen emerged as the Thunderbirds' quarterback last season after a slow start. He finished the season with 3,049 passing yards with 21 touchdowns and a 63.4 completion percentage. The senior will be tested early as the Thunderbirds open at Utah State and at South Dakota State.

▷ The Thunderbirds enter their fourth season in the Big Sky Conference. In their first three seasons, SUU has compiled a 16-20 record.

NOTES

▷ UC Davis enters its fourth season in the Big Sky Conference as a football affiliate member, and the third under Ron Gould.

▷ Quarterback Ben Scott and wide receiver Ramon Vargas are two reasons the Aggies are excited for the upcoming season. The duo were among the best in the Big Sky late in the 2014 season. Vargas caught 41 passes for 665 yards and eight touchdowns in the final seven games of the season. Scott threw for 1,734 yards and 19 touchdowns over the same span.

▷ The Aggies will play two FBS teams from the Mountain West Conference in 2015. UC Davis will open at Nevada on Sept. 3 and then travel to Hawai'i on Sept. 19.

▷ The Aggies allowed just 14 sacks last season, the second-fewest in the Big Sky Conference.

BIG SKY KICKOFF

Each July, the Big Sky Conference hosts the "Summer Kickoff" in Park City, Utah. A student-athlete from each team, as well as head coaches, school administrators, TV partners, sponsors, and league media gather for the event. In 2014, the Big Sky Conference presented its first "Distingiushed Service Award." The league honored former Big Sky assistant commissioner Arnie Sgalio, who worked at the conference office from 1979-1995 before a long career with ESPN Regional Television in Charlotte, N.C. Below are some photos taken by Mackenzie Kasper from the 2014 Summer Kickoff:
