The 2017 Big Sky Conference soccer media guide is published by the Big Sky Conference. The guide was written, edited, and designed by Jason Ashcraft. Cover design by Mackenzie Kasper. Special thanks to the 11 Big Sky institutional media relations staffs and photo departments for all their help in putting the guide together.

The Big Sky Conference enters its 54th year and 30th year of women's competition during the 2016-17 academic year. The venerable and stable Division I Big Sky Conference observed its 50th birthday on July 1, 2013.

Four of the current league members – Idaho State University, The University of Montana, Montana State and Weber State – have been with the league since its birth. Fellow charter member the University of Idaho returned most of its sports to the Big Sky on July 1, 2014. Northern Arizona University enters its 47th season in the league, giving the league five members with at least 40 years of continuous membership.

The Big Sky Conference welcomed North Dakota and Southern Utah on July 1, 2012 as full members. UC Davis and Cal Poly joined as football affiliate members. Eastern Washington University, the University of Northern Colorado, Portland State University and Sacramento State round out the current membership.

The league has become one of the strongest Division I conferences in the West and is a national leader in the Football Championship Subdivision. Six times, Big Sky teams have won the Division I National Championship, including Eastern Washington in 2010. The Big Sky is one of three conferences in the western United States playing Division I football.

The Big Sky Conference was established in 1963 by six charter members – Idaho, Idaho State, Gonzaga, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Those six schools formed the foundation of the Big Sky before the league expanded in 1970 by adding Boise State and Northern Arizona. Gonzaga left the Sky in 1979 and was replaced by Nevada, which gave the league eight members. The conference grew to nine schools in 1987 with the addition of Eastern Washington.

The 1990s saw change in the makeup of the league, beginning in 1992 when Nevada departed and put the Big Sky back at eight teams. In 1996 Boise State and Idaho left and at the same time the conference added Portland State, Sacramento State and Cal State Northridge. The Big Sky maintained nine teams for five years before Cal State Northridge departed in the spring of 2001.

The Big Sky's full members represent nine states spanning from the Pacific Ocean to the Red River Valley of North Dakota. The league is represented along the entire west coast with institutions in Washington, Oregon and California. League schools also range up and down the Rocky Mountains with institutions in Montana, Idaho, Utah, Arizona and Colorado. It is "The Heart of the American West."

The University of Idaho, which was a member from 1963-96, will once again compete in the Big Sky in the majority of its sports. Idaho's football program maintained its FBS affiliation, joining the Sun Belt Conference.

On Feb 25, 1963, the name Big Sky was adopted by the six presidents of the charter members as the name of the new conference. The name Big Sky originated in a novel written by the late A.B. (Bud) Guthrie of Great Falls, Mont., in 1947 entitled "The Big Sky." Jack Lowell, a former Montana advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme for the Treasure State. While on a track and field trip from Pocatello, Idaho, to Missoula, Mont., legendary Dubby Holt of Idaho State saw a "Welcome to Big Sky Country" sign as his team entered Montana. Holt, and his athletes thought "Big Sky" would be a perfect name for the new conference. Harry Missildine of the Spokane Spokesman-Review called for the newly formed league to be named the Big Sky Conference in his column dated Feb. 20, 1963.

The Big Sky sponsors championships in 16 sports, including men's and women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, basketball and tennis. In addition, there are also championships in football, and women's volleyball, golf and soccer. The Big Sky sponsored softball for the first time in 2013. Men's golf returned as a championship sport in 2014-15 for the first time since 2002. The University of Hartford and Binghamton University have joined the Big Sky as affiliate members in golf.

In 1988-89, the Big Sky Conference first began sponsoring women's sports. The former Mountain West Conference existed from 1982-88, sponsoring championships for women's sports at the same institutions the Big Sky had men's programs. The Big Sky merged with the Mountain West in 1988, forming one league for both men and women.

Andrea Williams, the sixth commissioner of the Big Sky Conference, is in her 1st year at the helm. Williams took over the Big Sky on July 1, 2016, replacing longtime commissioner Doug Fullerton. Fullerton served the league for 21 years. Ron Stephenson, who passed away in 2011, preceded Fullerton. Serving as commissioner from 1981 through June 1995. Steve Belko was the commissioner from 1977-81, while John Roning held the post from 1971-77. The first league commissioner was Jack Friel, who served from 1963-71.

EWU FAVORED IN BIG SKY PRESEASON SOCCER POLL

OGDEN, Utah (August 7, 2017) – Defending 2016 Big Sky Conference champion, Eastern Washington was the preseason pick as the league's top team by the league's coaches on Monday. EWU captured its first Big Sky championship last season with a penalty-kick victory over Northern Arizona in the conference tournament final.

Coaches could not vote for their own squad.

EWU was picked first in the preseason poll with eight first-place votes. The Eagles finished the 2016 campaign with a 13-5-4 mark overall and finished fifth in the league standings with a 5-3-2 record. The Eagles return last season's Big Sky offensive MVP and Golden Boot winner, Chloe Williams, who spent time this offseason at the United States Women's National Team Under-23 training camp. She will be joined by last season's assists leader, Aimie Inthoulay.

Northern Arizona was picked second by the league's coaches with 80 points and one first-place vote. Senior goalkeeper, Meghan Dickmann returns after posting 101 saves last season. 2016 first team All-Conference selection, Adrian Nixt will look to lead the Lumberjacks to another Big Sky tournament this season.

Montana earned third place in the preseason poll. Defender, Channele Pederson and midfielder, Hallie Widner earned second team All-Conference honors last season.

Idaho, two-time defending regular-season champion, picked up one first-place vote and earned fourth in the preseason poll. The Vandals return three second team All-Conference selections with Josilyn Daggs, Kelly Dopke and Emma Eddy all returning to Moscow this season.

The 2017 Big Sky Conference tournament will take place November 1, 3 and 5 at the home field of the regular-season champion. Selected Big Sky soccer matches will be seen on PlutoTV and Eleven Sports.
