THIS IS THE BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE

Since its founding in 1983, the Big South Conference has matured into a competitive leader in college athletics, actively pursuing excellence on the field of play and in the classroom. The League's growing presence as an NCAA Division I athletic conference is evident by athletic accomplishments on the national stage, innovative marketing and media partnerships, increased television packages, and quality athletic competition while intentionally fostering the academic, personal, social, athletic and leadership development of each student-athlete. This has evolved into the Conference's mission of "Developing Leaders Through Athletics."

The Big South Conference was formed on August 21, 1983, when Charleston Southern (then Baptist College) Athletic Director HOWARD BAGWELL and Augusta President GEORGE CHRISTENBERRY began recruiting members into the Big South, receiving initial commitments from Augusta, Charleston Southern, Campbell, Coastal Carolina and Winthrop. One month later,

Dr. EDWARD M. SINGLETON was selected as the League's first Commissioner and continued to solicit new members. His efforts led to the additions of Armstrong State, Radford and UNC Asheville, giving the Big South more than the required six members to constitute an official conference. The Big South's first year of competition was in the Fall of 1984, and in September 1986, the Big South Conference was granted full-fledged NCAA Division I status.

During its infancy and prior to securing automatic bids to NCAA Championships, the Big South made early strides in earning at-large berths in several national postseason events, including volleyball, women's basketball and women's golf. In 1989, GEORGE F. "BUDDY" SASSER replaced the retiring Dr. Singleton as Commissioner, and in 1990, the League received its first automatic bid -- receiving an automatic qualifier to the NCAA Baseball Championship. Under Sasser's seven years of leadership, the Conference implemented its public relations and compliance programs, and introduced its first-ever men's basketball television package, featuring the Big South competing among some of the finest teams in the nation.

In August 1996, KYLE B. KALLANDER replaced Sasser as the League's third Commissioner, and in his 14 years at the helm of the Big South, Kallander has been instrumental in aggressively promoting the Conference to new heights. The Conference has enjoyed record levels in marketing revenue during the past several years, he has brought television coverage to Big South women's basketball, baseball and softball for the first time in Conference history, as well as increased national television exposure to the League as a whole through aggressive and unique television packages.

Under Kallander's leadership, the Big South developed and initiated its first long-range strategic plan, re-affirming the League's vision as a distinctive athletic Conference committed to the quality of institutional life through athletic competition. He also spearheaded the efforts to add football as a championship sport, which came to fruition in 2002, and has solidified Conference membership with the additions of High Point, Gardner-Webb and Presbyterian College, and in 2011-12, the return of charter member Campbell University. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the Conference introduced its first live event video streaming in 2005 and has since expanded its video offerings to more than 700 events annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms.

In the last 15 years alone, the Big South Conference has experienced monumental growth and success in nearly every sport. During this time, the Conference has had four individual National Champions, more than 220 All-Americans, has reached the "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball and baseball, has received national Top 25 rankings in football, men's soccer, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's outdoor track & field, and men's golf, had an individual selected to play in the NCAA Singles Championship five times in addition to the first men's tennis doubles at-large selection, had the No. 1-ranked men's golfer in the country, has had the nation's top scoring men's basketball team four consecutive years as well as the national men's basketball scoring leader twice, received an at-large playoff berth in the Football Championship Subdivision in 2006, has had four NFL Draft picks, has had seven Olympians, had its first NBA player since the mid-90s, and had an institution finish fifth in the NCAA Men's Golf Championships -- the Conference's highest-ever team finish in an NCAA event.

In 2006-07, the Big South was the only Conference nationwide to have an at-large participant in the football playoffs (Coastal Carolina), a team in the Second Round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (Winthrop) and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Baseball Regionals (Coastal Carolina). In fact, Coastal Carolina's baseball program has been a No. 1 seed four out of the last six years -- including a national seed for the first time in 2010, while the Chanticleers' FCS playoff berth in 2006 came in just the fifth-year of the Big South's football existence. The 2009-10 season saw Liberty's SAM

CHELANGA win two NCAA National Championships (Cross Country, Outdoor Track 10,000-meter run), Coastal Carolina's baseball team reached the Super Regionals for the second time in three years as well as being ranked No. 1 in the national RPI and as high as No. 3 in the national polls; and three women's basketball teams reach the postseason for the first time in Conference history. Two former Big South student-athletes also reached national prominence last year. VMI's REGGIE WILLIAMS reached the NBA with the Golden State Warriors, and Coastal Carolina's DUSTIN JOHNSON captured his third PGA Tour win during his third year on the tour.

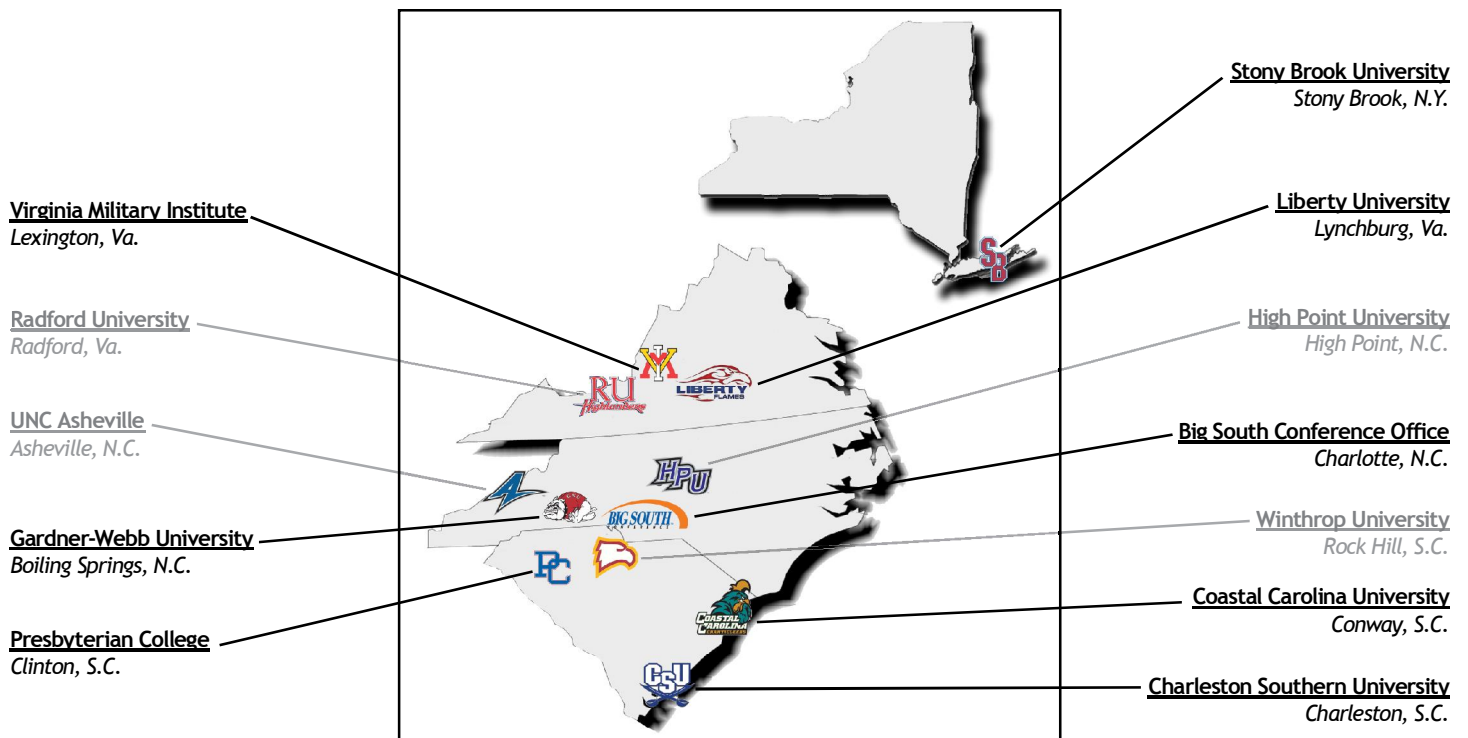

The Conference's tagline, "Developing Leaders Through Athletics" was unveiled in 2008-09 in conjunction with the Conference's 25th Anniversary. The League also honored its heritage by unveiling the Top 25 "Best of the Best" moments in League history from 1983-2008, with Liberty University's 10-year women's basketball championship run from 1996-2007 being crowned the No. 1 moment in the Big South's first 25 years. The Conference's on-field accomplishments have been duplicated in the classroom.

Annually, more than 40 percent of Conference student-athletes are named to the Big South's Presidential Honor Roll for maintaining a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average, and the League has had more than 95 Academic All-Americans in its 26 years of existence.

THE BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE FOOTPRINT

Institutions listed in grey do not play football. Gardner-Webb University joined the Big South Conference full-time on July 1, 2008. Presbyterian College is transitioning to Division I and will become a full-fledged member in 2011-12. Stony Brook University joined the Big South as an associate football member in 2008. Charter member Campbell University will re-join the Big South Conference in 2011-12, pushing the membership to 11, an all-time high in League history. The Big South Conference office is headquartered on the south side of Charlotte, N.C. Originally located in Myrtle Beach, S.C., the office moved to Winthrop University in 1996 on an interim basis until the Charlotte location was ready in late 1997.

BIG SOUTH COMMISSIONER KYLE B. KALLANDER

Kyle B. Kallander is in his 15th year as Big South Conference Commissioner in 2010-11, a tenure that has seen year-to-year growth in marketing and television, an enhanced Internet presence as well as unparalleled success on the field and in the classroom.

Kallander's development of a long-term strategic plan, which allows the Big South to position itself as unique amongst its peers, has brought football to the Big South as the 18th Conference sport, solidified membership with the recent additions of High Point, VMI, Gardner-Webb and Presbyterian College -- as well as the return of charter member Campbell University in 2011, increased the League's television exposure for several sports through strong partnerships with regional and national outlets, and spearheaded video streaming of Big South games and events on the League's website, which began in 2005-06 and now features more than 700 events annually.

Kallander has presided over some of the most pivotal events in the League's entire history both athletically and academically. During his tenure, the Big South has reached the NCAA "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball and baseball; has had four individual National Champions; had its first All-Americans in men's and women's cross country; has had an individual reach the round of 32 in the NCAA Men's Singles Championship (Radford's Martin Sayer), has started football and reached the FCS playoffs in five years; had its first-ever national finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year (Winthrop's Janiva Willis); had members defeat the No. 1-ranked football and baseball team in the nation (Coastal Carolina football vs. James Madison, Winthrop and Coastal Carolina baseball vs. North Carolina, and VMI baseball vs. Virginia); had its first-ever NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament first round win (Winthrop); had its first-ever berth in the NCAA Baseball Super Regionals (Coastal Carolina); has placed two teams in the NCAA Baseball Regionals five times; has had a baseball team earn a No. 1 seed and host an NCAA Regional and Super Regional (Coastal Carolina); had its highest-ever team finish in an NCAA event (Coastal Carolina men's golf, fifth in 2007); has had women's basketball, men's soccer, softball and baseball televised for the first time; has had a softball team reach the NCAA Regional Championship game twice (Winthrop and Radford); has participated and been successful in the ESPN BracketBusters men's basketball event, and has utilized live video streaming of Conference events to elevate the League's exposure to new audiences.

The Conference has produced more All-Americans since Kallander took office, while increasing its share of Academic All-Americans and All-District selections. More than 40 percent of the League's student-athletes have achieved at least a 3.0 grade point average the last six years, while several student-athletes have been recipients of NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships during his timeframe. Kallander has also successfully integrated the Conference's profile with the member institutions' general student body, notably through the development of the Big South Academic Consortium, which sponsors the annual Academic College Bowl among League members and the Big South Undergraduate Research Symposium. Furthermore, the Big South began offering one male and one female graduating student-athlete a Graduate Fellowship for postgraduate studies in 2006.

Named the Big South's third commissioner on June 24, 1996, Kallander formed the Big South Marketing Group (BSMG) upon his arrival in August 1996, a partnership with member institutions that enables the Conference to develop an integrated marketing strategy and offer comprehensive corporate partnership packages. More recently, the Big South Business Group (BSBG) was created, involving the Chief Financial Officers from each member institution. The BSBG explores ways that members can benefit through working together and with Conference corporate partners. Kallander has overseen a revision of the League's governance structure and has been instrumental in securing record sponsorship revenues in the past decade, and has been innovative in developing and executing a public relations plan for the Big South, which has resulted in increased exposure, both on a regional and national level.

Nationally, Kallander has been heavily involved in several organizations and committees. He served on the NCAA/USOC Task Force, examining the decline of Olympic sports programs at the nation's college and universities, chaired the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee, and served on the NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics. He currently serves on the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee.

As a testament to his leadership, Kallander continues to secure aggressive television packages through relationships with the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN), SportSouth and ESPN/ESPNU, as well as partnerships with FSN, Fox College Sports and CBS College Sports. Furthermore, the Big South Television Network (BSTN) was created by Kallander in 2001 to serve as a syndicate of Conference events to a regional group of TV stations and cable networks. The partnerships have brought the Big South new and enhanced television exposure for its member institutions and student-athletes. The Conference's online broadband channel, the Big South Network, serves a world-wide audience.

Kallander came to the Big South after serving as Southwest Conference Commissioner during the 1995-96 season. Under his guidance, the Southwest generated more than $22 million in revenue, an all-time record. Kallander was also directly responsible for negotiating and implementing television agreements with CBS, Raycom and Prime Sports Southwest for the 1995-96 football and basketball seasons. He successfully administered the league's postseason basketball tournaments, which attracted its largest attendance since 1990, and also served as Tournament Director for the 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Region First and Second Round Games in Dallas.

Kallander began his collegiate athletics career at his alma mater, the University of Washington, in 1985, where he spent seven years in the athletic department, serving as director of Advertising & Promotions, as well as the Director of Compliance. He joined the Southwest Conference in 1992 as Assistant Commissioner.

Kallander received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Physical Education in 1980, and a Master of Science Degree in Kinesiology in 1982, from Washington. He is married to the former Lisa Dallosto and has two children, Stefan, 20, and Tristan, 17.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE FOOTBALL HISTORY

The Big South Conference took a giant step in its young history in the Fall of 2002 when, for the first time in its 19-year history, the League crowned a football champion.

Football had always been a long range goal of the Conference. In the early 1990s, football seemed on the horizon in the Big South, as Charleston Southern fielded its first team in 1991 and the Conference added Liberty as a new member, which was already playing on the gridiron. However, football never got off the ground in the early part of the decade as other issues came to the forefront, including the Big South's emergence as a basketball conference. The League was awarded its first automatic bid to the NCAA men's basketball championship in 1992 and football was put on the back burner while basketball began to flourish.

The idea was revived in 1997 when Elon joined the Big South. That gave the Conference three full-time members with football programs -- half the number needed to be recognized as a Conference by the NCAA. Two years later on November 10, 1999, Coastal Carolina announced it would add football by the Fall of 2003. The wheels were set in motion to establish a Conference home for the League's football-playing members.

After attempts to form a joint football league with the Atlantic Sun Conference failed, the Big South began recruiting more members to join its fledgling football league. On May 23, 2001, the dream became a reality when the Big South's Council of Chief Executive Officers voted unanimously to add football as the Conference's 18th championship sport. It became the first sport added since 1997 when men's and women's indoor track were incorporated as championship sports.

Shortly after the approval of football, the Big

South's recruiting efforts paid off, as the addition of Gardner-Webb University as an associate football member was announced on June 20, 2001. There were hopes that with the addition of the Bulldogs, a four-team League could begin play later that Fall, with Coastal Carolina coming into the fold in the 2003 season. However, scheduling conflicts could not be worked out, so the Fall of 2002 was designated as the kick-off to Big South Football. The Big South continued to look for additional members, with a goal of eventually having seven or eight playing members. In December of 2001, one of the oldest programs in the state of Virginia, Virginia Military Institute, announced it would join the Big South in all sports in 2003 and maintain the Conference's football membership at five following Elon's departure.

In 2006, the League moved one step closer to solidifying its status as a viable football Conference. First, Coastal Carolina Athletic Director Warren Koegel was appointed to the FCS Football Selection Committee, the Big South's first-ever representative on a national football committee. On April 6, the Big South added Presbyterian College as its sixth football member. PC, now in the final year of its transition to Division I, officially joined the Big South in all sports in 2008. On May 26, 2006, the Big South announced that associate football member Gardner-Webb would join the Conference as full members on July 1, 2008, solidifying the Big South's football make-up for years to come.

With membership coming together, the Big South received a huge boost at the conclusion of the 2006 campaign. League champion Coastal Carolina became the first football member to advance to the postseason when the Chanticleers received an at-large berth in the NCAA Division I Football Championship. The Big South took another step closer to becoming eligible for an automatic berth when on March 20, 2007, the Conference announced the addition of Stony Brook University as an associate football member beginning in 2008. All the building efforts came to fruition in the spring of 2008 when the NCAA announced the expansion of the FCS Playoffs from 16 to 20 teams beginning in 2010 and granting the Big South an automatic bid starting that year.

The growth of Big South football has been exceptional since its inception just eight years ago. The Big South experienced its most successful campaign in 2006 with Coastal Carolina's FCS playoff berth; two teams (Coastal Carolina and Charleston Southern) ranked in the national Top 25 in the same week for the first time; four appearances on the ESPN family of networks; and the first-ever NFL Draft pick and first finalist for the Walter Payton Award in Coastal Carolina's Tyler Thigpen. In 2007, Liberty won its first-ever Big South football championship in record-breaking fashion two years after finishing 1-10 overall; Coastal's Jerome Simpson (second round) and Gardner-Webb's Brian Johnston (seventh round) were selected in the NFL Draft, and the League's five football members combined to average a Big South-record 7,488 fans per game. The Big South produced another nationally-ranked program in 2008 in Liberty, as well as its fourth NFL draft pick in three years -- Liberty's Rashad Jennings (seventh round). And last season, four players were named First-Team All-Americans, led by Flames' kicker Matt Bevins being a consensus selection.

With an automatic playoff berth officially awarded to its annual champion, the Big South is entering a new era in 2010 while continuing its ascension as a national competitor in FCS football.

The Big South Conference Hall of Fame was formed as part of the League's 20th anniversary celebration in 2003-04. Each year the Conference will induct up to five (5) individuals into the Hall of Fame.

The Conference Hall of Fame is housed at the League Office in Charlotte, N.C., and features historical timelines, images and artwork of the League's accomplishments and achievements over the years, including All-Americans, Annual Champions and NCAA Tournament successes, as well as each enshrinee's plaque.

The inaugural class was inducted in May 2003 and consisted of 11 former student-athletes, coaches and administrators who were integral in the creation, development and early success of the Big South Conference. Inductees are enshrined as part of the League's annual Spring Meetings in late May.

The Big South Hall of Fame now boasts 41 members. The Hall of Fame did not induct a class in 2009 due to the League's 25th Anniversary celebration during the 2008-09 campaign.

2010 BIG SOUTH FOOTBALL NOTES & INFORMATION

THIS YEAR IS OUR YEAR -- BIG SOUTH TO ADVANCE TO FCS PLAYOFFS IN 2010

Beginning this season, the Big South Conference will receive an automatic bid to the FCS Playoffs for the first time in League history. The automatic playoff berth coincides with the NCAA's expansion of the FCS Playoffs to 20 teams.

LIBERTY PICKED TO WIN IT ALL IN 2010

For the fourth consecutive season, Liberty University has been tabbed as the favorite in the Big South Conference's annual preseason football poll for the 2010 campaign, as voted by the League's head coaches and media panel. The Flames, which have won or shared the Big South title each of the past three seasons, is the first team in League history to be chosen as the preseason favorite four-straight seasons.

CLOSE ENCOUNTERS

Eleven of the 21 League games played last season were decided by seven points or less (5.5 point average) -- setting a Conference record. The old record was seven such games in 2005 and 2008, with the average margin of victory being 4.0 points in 2005 and 3.7 in 2008.

LIBERTY'S BROWN TABBED PRESEASON OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Liberty redshirt-junior quarterback MIKE BROWN has been voted the Big South's 2010 Preseason Offensive Player of the Year. Brown was the 2009 Big South Offensive Player of the Year -- becoming the first sophomore in Big South history to win the postseason award. He was named to College Sporting News' Fabulous 50 All-America team, and started all 11 games a year ago with 10 at wide receiver and one at quarterback. Brown was second in the Big South with 11 touchdowns scored last season (nine rushing and two receiving), as well as second in the League with 60 receptions and third with 698 receiving yards. He also was third in the Conference in all-purpose yards per game (128.8) and second in all-purpose yards per game in Big South contests (119.7). He also rushed for 442 yards on 77 carries (5.7 average) and notched three multi-touchdown games in 2009. Brown is the third Liberty player to be voted Big South Preseason Offensive Player of the Year, joining DRE BARNES (2003, 2004) and RASHAD JENNINGS (2008).

GARDNER-WEBB'S PATTERSON PICKED AS PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Gardner-Webb senior linebacker MARTY PATTERSON, who has already been named a 2010 preseason All-American by Phil Steele's College Football Preview and The Sports Network, has been voted the 2010 Big South Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. Tabbed the 2010 Big South Defensive Player of the Year by Lindy's College Football Magazine, Patterson stepped in during an injury-plagued 2009 season for the GWU linebacker corps and posted career-best totals with 110 tackles and 14.0 tackles-for-loss to lead the Big South. He had 60 percent of his tackles in Big South Conference games, including a season-high 15 stops vs. Liberty on Nov. 14. A two-time All-Big South selection, Patterson helped the Gardner-Webb defense hold four opponents to less than 100 yards rushing in 2009 en route to the League's top rushing defense. Patterson is the fifth Gardner-Webb player to earn the preseason defensive honor, joining MARIO WILLIAMS (2003, 2004), BRIAN JOHNSTON (2007), MARIO BROWN (2008) and JEFFERY WILLIAMS (2009).

POINT OF ORDER

VMI has scored a point in its last 60 games -- the longest run in the history of the program and the second-longest scoring streak in Big South history. The Big South record for most consecutive games scoring a point is 67, set by Coastal Carolina from Sept. 6, 2003 - Nov. 15, 2008. Liberty follows VMI, as the Flames' current streak stands at 52 games, while Presbyterian College has not been shutout in its last 41 games. Gardner-Webb has not been blanked in 22 consecutive contests, followed by Stony Brook (16), Coastal Carolina (10) and Charleston Southern (8).

FOUR PLAYERS RECEIVE PRESEASON HONORS FROM THE SPORTS NETWORK

The Big South placed four players on The Sports Network's preseason All-America team. Liberty junior kicker MATT BEVINS earned a spot on the First-Team, with Gardner-Webb senior offensive lineman COREY O'DANIEL garnering Second-Team honors. Gardner-Webb senior linebacker MARTY PATTERSON and Coastal Carolina junior defensive back JOSH NORMAN were named to the Third-Team.

FB-YES

The Big South will play a League-record 10 games against FBS opponents in 2010. The previous high was eight, just last year. Charleston Southern, Presbyterian College and VMI each will play two FBS foes this season. The Big South has come close to knocking off one of the big boys in recent seasons -- VMI lost to Army by five points last year (22-17), while Gardner-Webb fell to Georgia Tech by three points in 2008 (10-7) and Liberty was edged by Toledo by one point in 2007 (35-34).

RECOGNIZING GOOD WORK

Charleston Southern senior offensive lineman JORDAN LANCASTER is among the 112 nominees for the annual Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. Lancaster has a number of honors on and off the field, earning the team's most improved lineman award after 2009 spring drills. In three seasons with the Bucs, he has played in 29 games and started 26 of them, helping the offensive line finish last year tied for sixth in the nation in sacks allowed. Off the field, Lancaster leads a male athlete Bible study group, tutors elementary school children, and has volunteered four years at the "Closing the Gap in Healthcare" seminar on campus. He is a volunteer youth softball coach and works as a youth pastor intern, helping in the media department and in children's church. Lancaster is a six-time CSU scholar-athlete and the winner of the CSU Football Total Athlete Award. The Allstate AFCA Good Works Team is widely recognized as the most prestigious community service award in college football. Lancaster is the second Big South football student-athlete to be nominated, as Coastal Carolina redshirt-senior DOMINIQUE DAVENPORT was the first to be nominated in 2008.

HEIR APPARENT

Stony Brook junior EDWIN GOWINS is the Big South's active leading rusher with exactly 2,200 rushing yards. He is currently eighth in League history, and enters this season 1,433 yards away from the Big South career record of 3,633, which is held by former Liberty All-American and current Jacksonville Jaguar RASHAD JENNINGS. Gowins, whose nine career 100-yard rushing games is tied for fifth-most in Big South history, has gained his 2,200 rushing yards in 21 career games to rank second among active FCS players with 104.76 rushing yards per game.

PICK SIX

For the third time in Big South history, four teams won at least six games in the same season last year. Liberty led the 2009 campaign with eight wins, followed by six victories for Stony Brook, Charleston Southern and Gardner-Webb. The feat was first accomplished in 2003 (GWU, LU, VMI, CCU) and matched in 2006 (CCU, CSU, GWU, LU).

SEVEN UP

Liberty is 16-3 in Big South games since DANNY ROCCO became head coach in 2006, with the three losses by a combined eight points (2.7 average). The Flames' last seven Big South losses (LU went 0-4 in 2005) have been by a combined 23 points total (3.3 per game average).

TOUGH GO OF IT

Presbyterian College played a full Division I FCS schedule in 2009, including a full Conference slate. PC's five non-Conference opponents finished with a combined record of 34-21 last season (=61.8 winning percentage), including two nine-win teams in Elon and Old Dominion -- giving PC arguably the toughest non-Conference schedule among the Big South members last year.

BOTH ENDS OF THE SPECTRUM

Liberty was the first Big South team to lead the Conference in scoring offense and scoring defense in the same season twice. The Flames paced the Big South members in 2009 with a national-best 36.4 points on offense, and 19.1 points allowed on defense -- their fourth consecutive League scoring defense title. Liberty first led the Big South in scoring offense and scoring defense in 2007.

SEAWOLVES DOUSE THE FIRE

Stony Brook ended Liberty's Big South-record 16-game Conference win streak with its 36-33 victory over the Flames in the 2009 season finale to claim a share of the Big South football championship. The Seawolves are 8-3 in the Big South in their two seasons of associate membership. Stony Brook finished as the League runner-up in 2008 and were co-champions in 2009.

HIGH RATE OF RETURN

Charleston Southern senior GERALD STEVENSON looks to reclaim his Big South Conference career record for most combined kickoff/punt return yards before the 2010 season is complete. Stevenson ranks second all-time in League history in the category with 1,944 yards, trailing career leader TIM MAYPRAY's total of 2,492. Stevenson first set the record in Week 2 of the 2009 season before Maypray emerged with the all-time mark. In addition, Stevenson is poised to surpass Maypray in several other categories this season, including kickoff returns, kickoff return yards and combined kickoff/punt returns.

HIDE TIDE

Charleston Southern carries a League-best four-game Conference win streak into this season, and scored 30 points in each of the four games -- a first in school history. The win streak is just one away from matching the school record of five-straight Big South wins.

RANKED AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

Liberty kicker MATT BEVINS and Coastal Carolina defensive back JOSH NORMAN are among The Sports Network's Top 10 FCS positional rankings. Bevins is ranked among the top 10 specialists, while Norman is rated one of the Top 10 defensive backs in the nation.

BIG SOUTH CONTINUES NFL PRESENCE

Buoyed by four NFL draft picks in a three-year span from 2007-09, the Big South Conference continues to produce and develop quality players for the next level. Nine former Big South players were on NFL Training Camp rosters at some point this summer, including rookies TREY JACOBS and CHRIS RICHARDS. Both were signed as undrafted free agents this past spring -- Jacobs (Liberty) by the Washington Redskins and Richards (Stony Brook) by the Seattle Seahawks. They join seven other Big South football players still active in the NFL (see page 13).

HOME RUN

Coastal Carolina concluded its 2009 home schedule with a perfect 5-0 record, its first undefeated home slate since 2005 and third overall (7-0 in 2004 and 5-0 in 2005). The Chanticleers are the first Big South team to post a perfect record at home three times since Big South football began in 2002. Meanwhile, Stony Brook went a perfect 4-0 at home last year, marking the first time in Big South history that two teams were undefeated at home in the same season.

GO-GO-GOWINS

Stony Brook junior RB EDWIN GOWINS' nine rushing TDs in 2009 went for an average of 30.9 yards (39-27-44-32-14-17-52-11-42), and in his career, Gowins is averaging 33.6 yards per rushing touchdown (breakdown: 22 - 20 - 72 - 49 - 3 - 3 - 29 - 62 - 36 - 65 - 32 - 39 - 27 - 44 - 32 - 14 - 17 - 52 - 11 - 42). All but five of his 20 career scores have gone for at least 20 yards, with a career long of 72. Gowins rushed for 12 touchdowns in a nine-game stretch from Nov. 1, 2008 - Oct. 10, 2009, and ended the 2009 season with five TDs in his last two games.

RUNNING IN THE HALL

Gardner-Webb junior running back PATRICK HALL led the Big South last season with 12 touchdowns, becoming just the second Gardner-Webb player to lead the League in trips to the end zone. In 2005, DUVAUGHN FLAGLER was the Big South's TD leader with 13. Hall has scored a touchdown in 13 of his 31 career games, with eight being multi-TD performances -- including five last season. His 22 career rushing touchdowns are tied for fourth-most in League history.

EVEN STEVEN

Charleston Southern senior WR GERALD STEVENSON ranks fourth all-time in Big South history with 3,984 career all-purpose yards. He enters the 2010 season needing 16 yards to become the fourth player in League history with 4,000 in a career, and 637 yards to move into second-place all-time. Stevenson is 2,145 yards away from TIM MAYPRAY's Big South Conference record of 6,129 career all-purpose yards. Meanwhile, Stevenson, who had career-highs of 364 rushing yards, 55 receptions and 724 receiving yards in 2009, needs just 323 rushing yards to become the second player in League history with 1,000 career rushing and 1,000 career receiving yards. Stevenson is averaging 7.1 yards per rushing attempt in his career.

THE LAST ONE STANDING

Gardner-Webb is the only Big South member to have not allowed a kickoff return for a touchdown in a Big South Conference game, a span of 34 contests. Meanwhile, Coastal Carolina holds the Big South's longest streak of not allowing a punt return touchdown in a Conference game at 31 games. The last time the Chanticleers allowed a punt return touchdown in a League game was in their first-ever Big South contest, Oct. 4, 2003 against Gardner-Webb.

CROWD PLEASERS

Liberty set the Big South single-season record for average attendance in 2009, as the Flames averaged 14,931 fans in six home games. The old record average was 14,190, set by Liberty in 2007. Last season, the Flames drew the largest home crowd in program and Big South Conference history in Week 2, as 16,112 fans witnessed the Flames' 35-10 victory over North Carolina Central. In addition, the home finale crowd of 15,208 for the VMI game was the largest crowd for a Big South contest.

BUCKING THE TREND

Charleston Southern averaged 163.5 rushing yards per game in 2009, its highest since averaging 179.8 yards in 2000. The Bucs rushed for 239 yards in the season finale win over Coastal Carolina, their most rushing yards ever in a Big South game.

RUSHING UPDATE

Below is a look at the Big South Conference's active career 1,000-yard rushers and where they rank in League history.

9.	2,200	Edwin Gowins, Stony Brook (2008-)
23.	1,218	Patrick Hall, Gardner-Webb (2007-)
27.	1,107	Eric O'Neal, Coastal Carolina (2007-)

The following players are likely to join the club this season: Charleston Southern's DeMARCUS MOON (907) and GERALD STEVENSON (677), Liberty's MIKE BROWN (584), and Presbyterian College's LANCE BYRD (700) and TRANDON DENDY (554).

HIGH OCTANE

Liberty scored a Big South-record 271 points during the 2009 Conference season, besting the previous mark of 191 points, which Liberty established in 2007 during a four-game Big South season. The 2009 Flames averaged 45.2 points in six League games, just below the Conference-game record scoring average of 47.8 set by the 2007 Flames. Liberty scored in 23 of 24 quarters against Big South opponents, including the last 17 in a row (LU failed to score in the third quarter at Charleston Southern). Meanwhile, Liberty shares the Big South record for most consecutive games scoring in double figures at 42, matching Coastal Carolina's streak from Sept. 24, 2005 - Nov. 15, 2008.

NOVEMBER SWEEPS

Charleston Southern has won its last seven games played in the month of November, going 3-0 in 2009 and 4-0 in 2008. The Bucs are 13-3 (=81.3 percent) in the month of November since 2005. Coastal Carolina is 16-6 (=72.7) in its history during the final month of the season, while Liberty is 18-7 (=72.0) since 2002. Stony Brook is 3-2 in November since joining the Big South in 2008. Coastal Carolina is the only Big South member to win a game in November every season since 2003.

BENNETT TURNS 50

Since the Big South Conference began football in 2002, Coastal Carolina head coach DAVID BENNETT is the Big South's all-time leader in coaching victories with 50.

BIG MEN ON CAMPUS

The Big South Conference football members have a total of 30 players on its collective rosters weighing at least 300 lbs. Stony Brook has the most with nine, followed by Liberty with seven. Coastal Carolina has five players at or above 300, while Charleston Southern has four 300-pound-plus players. VMI has three players weighing at least 300, with Gardner-Webb at two. Last season, the Big South had 40 players at the 300-pound threshold, and 28 in 2008.

THE TALL AND SHORT OF IT

The tallest football player in the Big South stands at 6-8, with two players sharing this distinction. The heaviest player is Liberty nose guard ASA CHAPMAN at 380. On the lighter side, the shortest player stands at 5-4 -- Charleston Southern defensive back SAVON SEWARD. Four players weigh the least at 150 pounds each. # COASTAL CAROLINA - THE BIG SOUTH'S FIRST PLAYOFF TEAM

The 2006 season set another new standard for the Big South Conference and the Coastal Carolina football program. However by the end, the Chanticleers had made more than just history in just their fourth year of play and the Conference's fifth season of football.

Ranked in the top 25 of all three major national polls, Coastal Carolina opened the season against Southern Conference foe Elon for the second straight year, though this time at home. The Chanticleers carried a 12-game home win streak into the contest but a slow start to the year ensued, as Coastal Carolina dropped the opener, 23-20 to the Phoenix.

The second of three consecutive SoCon opponents was next, as Coastal Carolina made its first-ever trip to Spartanburg to take on Wofford. A big third quarter rally sparked the Chants and a touchdown in the final minute of play gave Coastal Carolina a dramatic 41-38 victory over the Terriers.

Back on the road for the second straight week, Coastal Carolina traveled to No. 24 Georgia Southern for a televised night contest. The Eagles came into the contest off a loss and inspired by the passing of their former legendary coach Erk Russell, and handed the visiting Chanticleers the 38-21 defeat.

The Chants rebounded with solid performances in wins over in-state rival South Carolina State and at Winston-Salem State. The wins got Coastal Carolina back above .500 at 3-2, setting up another classic at Brooks Stadium.

No. 3 Furman was next welcomed to Conway, and both teams arrived for a battle. The game went back and forth, with Furman taking the lead 27-21 on a fourth-quarter touchdown. However, the point after attempt was blocked and returned by the Chanticleers for two points to cut the margin to 27-23. Coastal Carolina then marched the football down the field for the game-winning score and held on for a 29-27 win.

Moving back into the top 25, the Chanticleers had a pair of challenges to open Big South Conference play. A last minute drive gave Coastal Carolina a 31-27 win at VMI, followed by another fourth-quarter comeback in a 28-26 victory over Liberty.

Coastal Carolina handled Savannah State for Homecoming to move to 7-2 on the year heading into the final two League contests. Gardner-Webb was next on the schedule, and the Chants were up to the task, handling the host Bulldogs for a 52-24 win on Big South TV.

The "Battle of the Beach" wrapped up the regular season, as Charleston Southern looked to play the spoiler again for Coastal Carolina's bid for the playoffs. However this time, the Chants made it count down the stretch, posting a 31-17 win to run their record to 9-2.

When the bids came out for the 16-team NCAA Division I Football Championship, Coastal Carolina and the Big South Conference heard their name called, making the Chanticleers the third-fastest team in FCS history to qualify for the playoffs. However, the challenge was daunting for the upstarts, as defending National Champion Appalachian State would play host to the No. 12-ranked Chants for the first round.

Similar to their meeting in 2005, the Mountaineers jumped on top early in the first half to a 31-0 halftime lead. Coastal Carolina battled back and eventually scored more points than any ASU opponent in 2006, but fell short in a 45-28 loss.

Coastal Carolina set 11 Big South Conference records during the 2006 season, and had 12 players earn All-Big South honors, including Offensive Player of the Year TYLER THIGPEN. The Chanticleers also had seven players honored on All-American squads, again led by Thigpen on the Associated Press' First Team.

Graduating 36 senior letterwinners, the final recognition came from the NFL, as Thigpen became the first player ever drafted from the Big South Conference. The 2006 Coastal Carolina Chanticleers produced three more NFL players in QUINTON TEAL (signed by Carolina in 2007), JEROME SIMPSON (drafted by Cincinnati in 2008) and MIKE TOLBERT (signed by San Diego in 2008).

In addition, Coastal Carolina's 2006 football season was voted one of the Big South Conference's 25 "Best of the Best Moments" as part of the League's 25th Anniversary celebration in 2008-09.
