THIS IS THE BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE

Since its founding in 1983, the Big South Conference has matured into a competitive leader in college athletics, actively pursuing excellence on the field of play and in the classroom. The League's growing presence as an NCAA Division I athletic conference is evident by athletic accomplishments on the national stage, innovative marketing and media partnerships, increased television packages, and quality athletic competition while intentionally fostering the academic, personal, social, athletic and leadership development of each student-athlete. This has evolved into the Conference's mission of "Developing Leaders Through Athletics."

The Big South Conference was formed on August 21, 1983, when Charleston Southern (then Baptist College) Athletic Director HOWARD BAGWELL and Augusta President GEORGE CRISTENBERRY began recruiting members into the Big South, receiving initial commitments from Augusta, Charleston Southern, Campbell, Coastal Carolina and Winthrop. One month later, DR. EDWARD M. SINGLETON was selected as the League's first Commissioner and continued to solicit new members. His efforts led to the additions of Armstrong State, Radford and UNC Asheville, giving the Big South more than the required six members to constitute an official conference. The Big South's first year of competition was in the Fall of 1984, and in September 1986, the Big South Conference was granted full-fledged NCAA Division I status.

During its infancy and prior to securing automatic bids to NCAA Championships, the Big South made early strides in earning at-large berths in several national postseason events, including volleyball, women's basketball and women's golf. In 1989, GEORGE F. "BUDDY" SASSER replaced the retiring Dr. Singleton as Commissioner, and in 1990, the League received its first automatic bid - receiving an automatic qualifier to the NCAA Baseball Championship. Under Sasser's seven years of leadership, the Conference implemented its public relations and compliance programs, and introduced its first-ever men's basketball television package, featuring the Big South competing among some of the finest teams in the nation.

In August 1996, KYLE B. KALLANDER replaced Sasser as the League's third Commissioner, and in his 15 years at the helm of the Big South, Kallander has been instrumental in aggressively promoting the Conference to new heights. The Conference has enjoyed record levels in marketing revenue during the past several years, he has brought television coverage to Big South women's basketball, baseball and softball for the first time in Conference history, as well as increased national television exposure to the League as a whole through aggressive and unique television packages.

Under Kallander's leadership, the Big South developed and initiated its first long-range strategic plan, re-affirming the League's vision as a distinctive athletic conference committed to the quality of institutional life through athletic competition. He also spearheaded the efforts to add football as a championship sport, which came to fruition in 2002, and oversaw the additions of men's and women's indoor track & field in 1997. The Conference's 19th championship sport -- women's lacrosse, will begin play in 2012-13 with seven members. At the same time, Kallander has solidified Conference membership, as an all-time high 11 member institutions comprise the 28-year League in 2011-12. Recent additions include High Point, Gardner-Webb and Presbyterian College, plus the return of charter member Campbell University this year. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the Conference introduced its first live event video streaming in 2005 and has since expanded its video offerings to more than 700 events annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms.

In the last 15 years alone, the Big South Conference has experienced monumental growth and success in nearly every sport. During this time, the Conference has had an individual National Champion six times, more than 240 All-Americans, has reached the "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball and baseball, has received national Top 25 rankings in football, men's soccer, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's outdoor track & field, and men's golf, had an individual selected to play in the NCAA Singles Championship six times in addition to the first men's tennis doubles at-large selection, had the first women's golf program advance to the national finals, had the No. 1 ranked men's golfer in the country, has had the nation's top scoring men's basketball team five consecutive years as well as the national men's basketball scoring leader twice, received an at-large playoff berth in the Football Championship Subdivision in 2006, has had four NFL Draft picks, and had an institution finish fifth in the NCAA Men's Golf Championships -- the Conference's highest-ever team finish in an NCAA event.

In 2006-07, the Big South was the only Conference nationwide to have an at-large participant in the football playoffs (Coastal Carolina), a team in the Second Round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (Winthrop) and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Baseball Regionals (Coastal Carolina).

In fact, Coastal Carolina's baseball program has been a No. 1 seed four out of the last seven years -- including a national seed for the first time in 2010, while the Chanticleers' FCS playoff berth in 2006 came in just the fifth-year of the Big South's football existence.

The 2009-10 season saw Liberty's SAM CHELANGA win two NCAA National Championships (cross country, 10,000-meter run), Coastal Carolina's baseball team reach the Super Regionals for the second time in three years as well as being ranked No. 1 in the national RPI and as high as No. 3 in the national polls; and three women's basketball teams reach the postseason for the first time in Conference history. Last season, Chelanga won two more NCAA National Championships (cross country, outdoor 5,000-meter run), the Big South had its first automatic bid recipient in football (Coastal Carolina), UNC Asheville reached the Second Round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, Coastal Carolina's women's golf team was the first in Conference history to advance to the NCAA Championship out of Regional play, and a League-record 18 baseball players were drafted in the 2011 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

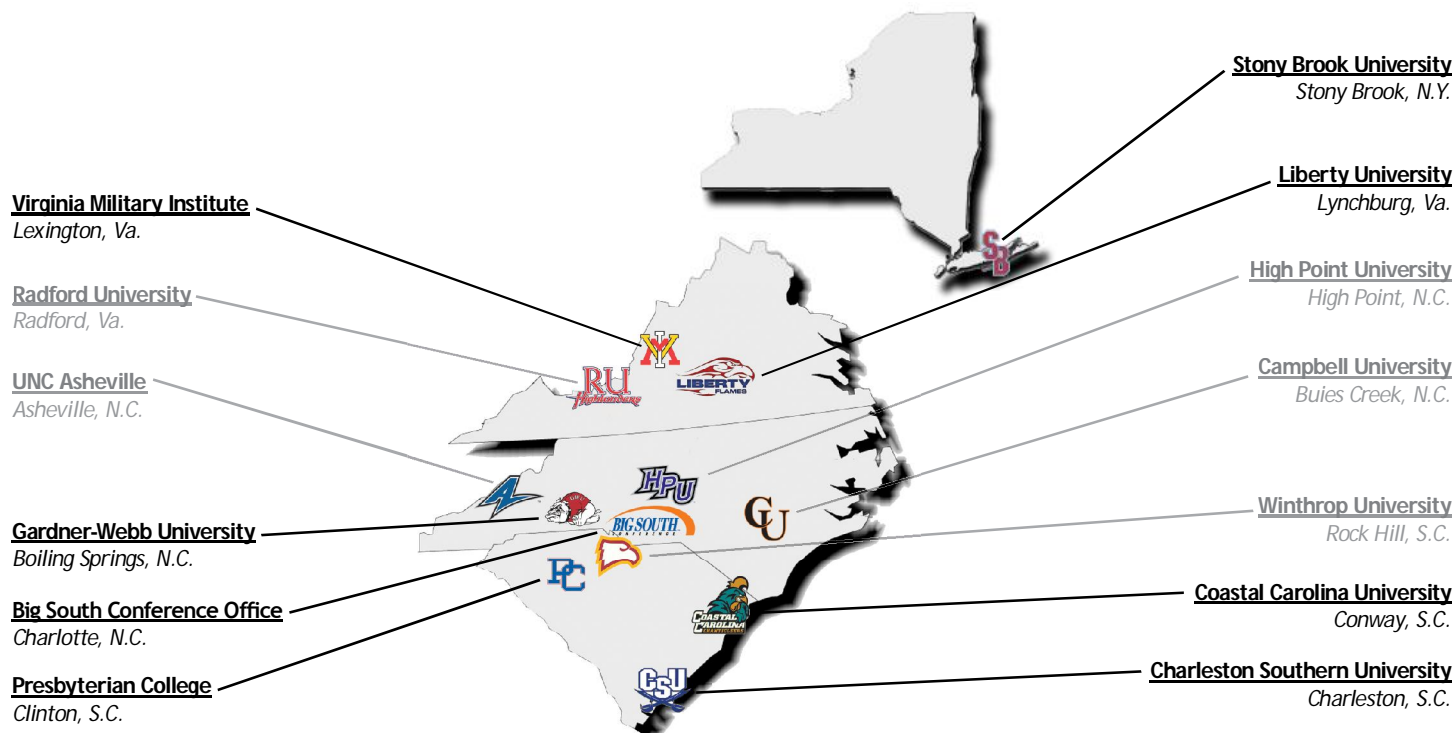

Several former Big South student-athletes have also reached national prominence in recent years. Coastal Carolina's AMBER CAMPBELL made the 2008 U.S. Olympic Team - one of five former Big South athletes to compete in the Games; VMI's REGGIE WILLIAMS reached the NBA with the Golden State Warriors in 2010, UNC Asheville's TY WIGGINTON was named an American League All-Star in 2010, and Coastal Carolina's DUSTIN JOHNSON has won four PGA Tour events since departing the Big South Conference in 2007 and tied for runner-up at the 2011 Open Championship.

The Conference's tagline, "Developing Leaders Through Athletics" was unveiled in 2008-09 in conjunction with the Conference's 25th Anniversary. The League also honored its heritage with the Top 25 "Best of the Best" moments in League history from 1983-2008, with Liberty University's 10-year women's basketball championship run from 1996-2007 being crowned the No. 1 moment in the Big South's first 25 years. The Conference's on-field accomplishments have been duplicated in the classroom. Annually, more than 40 percent of Conference student-athletes are named to the Big South's Presidential Honor Roll for maintaining a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average, and the League has had more than 95 Academic All-Americans in its 27 years of existence. Furthermore, the Big South has a record number of NCAA Public Recognition Awards for APR progress the last two years.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE FOOTBALL HISTORY

The Big South Conference took a big step in its young history in the Fall of 2002 when, for the first time in its 19-year history, the League crowned a football champion.

Football had always been a long range goal of the Conference. In the early 1990s, football seemed on the horizon in the Big South, as Charleston Southern fielded its first team in 1991 and the Conference added Liberty as a new member, which was already playing on the gridiron. However, football never got off the ground in the early part of the decade as other issues came to the forefront, including the Big South's emergence as a basketball conference. The League was awarded its first automatic bid to the NCAA men's basketball championship in 1992 and football was put on the back burner while basketball began to flourish.

The idea was revived in 1997 when Elon joined the Big South. That gave the Conference three full-time members with football programs -- half the number needed to be recognized as a Conference by the NCAA. Two years later on Nov. 10, 1999, Coastal Carolina University announced it would add football by the Fall of 2003. The wheels were set in motion to establish a Conference home for the League's football-playing members.

After attempts to form a joint football conference with the Atlantic Sun Conference failed, the Big South began recruiting more members to join its fledgling football league. On May 23, 2001, the dream became a reality when the Big South's Council of Chief Executive Officers voted unanimously to add football as the Conference's 18th championship sport. It became the first sport added since 1997 when men's and women's indoor track were incorporated as championship sports.

Shortly after the approval of football, the Big South's recruiting efforts paid off, as the addition of Gardner-Webb University as an associate football member was announced on June 20, 2001. There were hopes that with the addition of the Runnin' Bulldogs, a four-team League could begin play later that Fall, with Coastal Carolina coming into the fold in the 2003 season. However, scheduling conflicts could not be worked out, so the Fall of 2002 was designated as the kick-off to Big South Football. The Big South continued to look for additional members, with a goal of eventually having seven or eight playing members. On Dec. 10, 2001, one of the oldest programs in the state of Virginia -- Virginia Military Institute, announced it would join the Big South in all sports in 2003 and maintain the Conference's football membership at five following Elon's departure.

In 2006, the League moved one step closer to etching its status as a viable football Conference. First, Coastal Carolina Athletic Director Warren Koegel was appointed to the FCS Football Selection Committee, the Big South's first-ever representative on a national football committee. On April 6, the Big South added Presbyterian College as its sixth football member. Presbyterian, now in the final year of its transition to Division I, officially joined the Big South in all sports in 2008. On May 26, 2006, the Big South announced that associate football member Gardner-Webb would join the Conference as full members on July 1, 2008, solidifying the Big South's football make-up for years to come.

With membership coming together, the Big South received a huge boost at the conclusion of the 2006 campaign. League champion Coastal Carolina became the first football member to advance to the postseason when the Chanticleers received an at-large berth in the NCAA Division I Football Championship. The Big South took another step closer to becoming eligible for an automatic berth when on March 20, 2007, the Conference announced the addition of Stony Brook University as an associate football member beginning in 2008. All the efforts came to fruition in the spring of 2008 when the NCAA announced the expansion of the FCS Playoffs from 16 to 20 teams beginning in 2010 and granting the Big South an automatic bid starting that year.

The growth of Big South football has been exceptional since its inception just nine years ago. The Big South experienced its most successful campaign in 2006 with Coastal Carolina's FCS playoff berth; two teams (Coastal Carolina and Charleston Southern) ranked in the national Top 25 in the same week for the first time; four appearances on the ESPN family of networks; and the first-ever NFL Draft pick and first finalist for the Walter Payton Award in Coastal Carolina's Tyler Thigpen.

In 2007, Liberty won the first of its four consecutive Big South football championships in record-breaking fashion just two years after finishing 1-10 overall; Coastal's Jerome Simpson (second round) and Gardner-Webb's Brian Johnston (seventh round) were selected in the NFL Draft, and the League's five football members combined to average a Big South-record 7,488 fans per game. The Big South produced another nationally-ranked program in 2008 in Liberty, as well as its fourth NFL draft pick in three years -- Liberty's Rashad Jennings (seventh round).

The 2010 season saw the Big South make noise around the country early in the season with two wins over FBS opponents on the same day, when Gardner-Webb won in overtime at Akron and Liberty defeated Ball State on the road on Sept. 11. Prior to the start of the season, Stony Brook extended its football membership through the 2015 campaign. Individually, Liberty's Mike Brown led the nation in total offense while Stony Brook was the only FCS team to have two 1,000-yard rushers in Miguel Maysonet and Brock Jackolski. Coastal Carolina emerged from a three-way tie for first-place with the Big South's first-ever automatic bid to the FCS Playoffs. The Chanticleers also became the first Conference member to host a football playoff game as Coastal faced Western Illinois in the first round at Brooks Stadium. The Conference also had its largest television package to date, as a record eight League games were broadcast while Big South football members appeared on TV 12 of the 13 weeks of the season.

With an automatic playoff berth officially awarded to its annual champion, the Big South is poised to continue its ascension as a national competitor in FCS football with an eye on advancing in the postseason and capturing the ultimate goal -- a national championship.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE COMMISSIONER KYLE B. KALLANDER

Kyle B. Kallander is in his 16th year as Big South Conference Commissioner in 2011-12, a tenure that has seen year-to-year growth in marketing and television, an enhanced Internet presence as well as unparalleled success on the field and in the classroom.

Kallander's development of a long-term strategic plan, which allows the Big South to position itself as unique amongst its peers, brought football to the Big South as the 18th Conference sport in 2002, and solidified membership with the recent additions of High Point, VMI, Gardner-Webb and Presbyterian College -- as well as the return of charter member Campbell University this year. Kallander's vision includes increases in the League's television exposure for several sports through strong partnerships with regional and national outlets, and the spearheading of video streaming of Big South games and events on the League's website, which began in 2005-06 and now features more than 700 events annually. This aggressive commitment to digital technology will include HD content in the near future.

Kallander has presided over some of the most pivotal events in the League's entire history both athletically and academically. During his tenure, the Big South:

- Has reached the NCAA "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball and baseball;
- Has had six individual National Champions;
- Had its first All-Americans in men's and women's cross country;
- Had an individual reach the round of 32 in the NCAA Men's Singles Championship;
- Has started football and reached the FCS playoffs in five years and eventually gaining an automatic bid to the football postseason;
- Had its first-ever national finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year;
- Had members defeat the No. 1-ranked football and baseball team in the nation;
- Had its first-ever NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament first round win;
- Had its first-ever berth in the NCAA Baseball Super Regionals;
- Has placed two teams in the NCAA Baseball Regionals five times;
- Has had a baseball team earn a No. 1 seed and host an NCAA Regional and Super Regional;
- Had its highest-ever team finish in an NCAA event (Coastal Carolina men's golf, fifth in 2007);
- Has had women's basketball, men's soccer, softball and baseball televised for the first time;
- Has had a softball team reach the Regional Championship game twice;
- Had its first women's golf team advance to the NCAA Championship

The Conference has produced more All-Americans since Kallander took office, while increasing its share of Academic All-Americans and All-District selections. More than 40 percent of the League's student-athletes have achieved at least a 3.0 grade point average the last seven years, while several student-athletes have been recipients of various Postgraduate Scholarships during his timeframe. Kallander has also successfully integrated the Conference's profile with the member institutions' general student body, notably through the development of the Big South Academic Consortium, which sponsors the annual Academic College Bowl among League members and the Big South Undergraduate Research Symposium. Furthermore, the Big South began offering one male and one female graduating student-athlete a Graduate Fellowship for postgraduate studies in 2006.

Named the Big South's third commissioner on June 24, 1996, Kallander formed the Big South Marketing Group (BSMG) upon his arrival, a partnership with member institutions that enables the Conference to develop an integrated marketing strategy and offer comprehensive corporate partnership packages. More recently, the Big South Business Group (BSBG) was created, involving the Chief Financial Officers from each member institution. The BSBG explores ways that members can benefit through working together and with Conference corporate partners. Kallander has overseen a revision of the League's governance structure and has been instrumental in securing record sponsorship revenues in the past decade, and has been innovative in developing and executing a public relations plan for the Big South, which has resulted in increased exposure, both on a regional and national level. On the field, the Conference has added four Championship sports under Kallander -- men's and women's indoor track & field, football and women's lacrosse, which will debut in 2012-13.

Nationally, Kallander has been heavily involved in several organizations and committees. He currently serves on the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee and was elected Chair for the 2011-12 season. He also previously served on the NCAA/USOC Task Force, which examined the decline of Olympic sports programs at the nation's college and universities, chaired the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee, and served on the NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics.

As a testament to his leadership, Kallander continues to secure aggressive television packages through relationships with MASN, SportSouth and ESPN/ESPNU, as well as partnerships with FSN, Fox College Sports and CBS College Sports. Furthermore, the Big South Television Network (BSTN) was created by Kallander in 2001 to serve as a syndicate of Conference events to a regional group of TV stations and cable networks. The partnerships have brought the Big South new and enhanced television exposure for its member institutions and student-athletes. The Conference's online broadband channel, the Big South Network, has elevated the League's exposure by serving a world-wide audience.

Kallander came to the Big South after serving as Southwest Conference Commissioner during the 1995-96 season. Under his guidance, the Southwest generated more than $22 million in revenue, an all-time record. Kallander was also directly responsible for negotiating and implementing television agreements with CBS, Raycom and Prime Sports Southwest. He successfully administered the league's postseason basketball tournaments, which attracted its largest attendance since 1990, and also served as Tournament Director for the 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Region First and Second Round Games in Dallas.

Kallander began his collegiate athletics career at his alma mater, the University of Washington, in 1985, where he served as Director of Advertising & Promotions, as well as the Director of Compliance before joining the Southwest Conference in 1992 as Assistant Commissioner.

Kallander received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Physical Education in 1980, and a Master of Science Degree in Kinesiology in 1982, from Washington. He is married to the former Lisa Dallosto and has two children, Stefan, 21, and Tristan, 18.

2011 BIG SOUTH PRESEASON FOOTBALL NOTES & INFORMATION

LIBERTY PICKED TO WIN IT ALL IN 2011

For the fifth consecutive season, Liberty University has been tabbed as the favorite in the Big South Conference's annual preseason football poll for the 2011 campaign, as voted by the League's head coaches and media panel. The Flames, which have won or shared the Big South title each of the past four years, is the first team in League history to be chosen as the preseason favorite five-straight seasons. See page 74 for the Big South's preseason poll history.

BIG SOUTH HAS TWO WALTER PAYTON CANDIDATES

For the first time in Big South history, the Conference has two candidates on the Walter Payton Award Watch List in the same season. Liberty QB MIKE BROWN, who was a finalist last year and finished 11th in the voting, made the 2011 list, as did teammate WR CHRIS SUMMERS. This marks the fifth time since 2006 that the Big South has had official candidates for the top offensive individual honor in FCS.

"I'LL TAKE FOOTBALL GAMES FOR 100 PLEASE, ALEX"

Coastal Carolina and head coach DAVID BENNETT will play the 100th game in program history this year when the Chanticleers host Presbyterian College in the ninth game of the season on Nov. 5. In addition, Charleston Southern head coach JAY MILLS will coach his 100th game at the helm of the Buccaneers when CSU faces PC in the season finale on Nov. 19. Meanwhile, VMI will play its 100th game as Big South members this year when the Keydets face Gardner-Webb on Nov. 19.

LIBERTY'S BROWN TABBED PRESEASON OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Liberty redshirt-senior quarterback MIKE BROWN has been voted the Big South's 2011 Preseason Offensive Player of the Year. Brown was the 2010 Big South Offensive Player of the Year -- the second back-to-back winner following a record-setting season in his first year as the Flames' starting quarterback. Brown led the nation in total offense in 2010 with a Big South single-season record 346.4 yards per game, finishing the season with 3,810. He amassed 300 yards of offense in a game seven times last season, including three games over 400 -- a Conference record for a season and a career. Brown was the first quarterback in League history to pass for at least 200 yards in every game during the season and reached 300 yards passing in three contests in 2010. A finalist for the Walter Payton Award, the 2011 preseason All-American surpassed 100 yards rushing and 200 yards passing in a game twice last year, as well as becoming the first Big South quarterback to gain 150 yards on the ground (160) and 300 yards in the air (334) in the same game. He finished the year 223-of-351 passing for 2,956 yards (second-most in a season in League history) and 23 touchdowns (tied for second). He threw at least three touchdowns in a game four times -- including in a record three consecutive games.

COASTAL'S JACOBS PICKED AS PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Coastal Carolina junior linebacker ANDRAE JACOBS, who has already been named a 2011 preseason All-American by Phil Steele's College Football Preview and Lindy's, has been voted the 2011 Big South Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. Tabbed the 2010 Big South Defensive Player of the Year -- the first Coastal Carolina player to be voted as the Conference's postseason honoree, Jacobs finished the season second in the Big South with a career-high 104 tackles (8.7 per game), having ranked first (eight weeks) and second (three weeks) in the Conference in tackles all season. He also recorded 12.0 tackles-for-loss (tied for third in the Big South) and two sacks on the year. Jacobs posted five double-digit tackle games last season and had a tackle-for-loss in 10 of 12 games played in 2010, including a string of seven consecutive games with a stop behind the line.

THREE'S COMPANY

Last season, three teams finished as the Big South's football champion for the first time. It was the second consecutive season that co-champions were crowned and the third time overall. Both Liberty and Coastal Carolina claimed their fourth Big South football title, with the Flames winning theirs in succession -- the first program to do so. Meanwhile, it was Stony Brook's second consecutive co-championship.

CHANTICLEERS MAKE SECOND PLAYOFF APPEARANCE IN 2010 AND BECOMES FIRST TO HOST

Coastal Carolina made the second playoff appearance in both school and Big South history in 2010, as the Chanticleers received an at-large berth in 2006. After picking up the Conference's first-ever automatic bid last season, the Chants hosted No. 21/24 Western Illinois of the Missouri Valley Football Conference in the first round -- becoming the first Big South team to host a postseason game. The Chanticleers fell short against the Leathernecks, 17-10, and held WIU to 385 yards of offense -- 99 yards below Western's season average of 484.4, which ranked second in the nation entering the playoffs.

WILL THIS INTERESTING TREND CONTINUE IN 2011?

The winner of the previous seven Coastal Carolina-Liberty match-ups has won or shared the Big South football Championship. The Chanticleers won three-straight over Liberty from 2004-06 en route to three consecutive titles (two outright, one shared). The Flames were victorious from 2007-09 while winning three-straight Big South crowns (two outright, one shared). Coastal won last season's meeting and both teams shared the 2010 title. This year's meeting is scheduled for the second week of the Conference season -- Oct. 15.

PICK SIX RECORD

Coastal Carolina returned four interceptions for touchdowns in 2010, a Big South single-season record. The previous record was three, which was achieved by Gardner-Webb in 2004, Liberty in 2007 and Charleston Southern in 2009. The Chanticleers returned INTs for scores in four of the last five week of the season -- against Gardner-Webb, VMI, Charleston Southern and Western Illinois.

BECOMING AN INFERNO

Liberty carries its Big South-record 12-game home Conference win streak into the season. During this stretch, the Flames have scored 554 points (46.2 points per game), has scored more than 30 points in each contest and has held its League brethren to 196 points (16.3 average). Liberty's first home League game of 2011 is Oct. 15 against Coastal Carolina.

TOTAL RECALL

Liberty QB MIKE BROWN finished 2010 as the nation's leader in total offense with a Big South single-season record of 346.4 yards per game -- becoming the first player in Big South history to lead the country in total offense. Brown cemented his position with a Big South single-game record 494 yards of total offense in the season finale against Stony Brook. It was Brown's third game over 400 yards -- a League record for a single-season and career. Brown's 3,810 total offensive yards last season as well as his seven total 300-yard total offense games were second-most in a campaign in League history.

A BIG PUP

Gardner-Webb sophomore DE PRESTON PEMASA finished the 2010 season as the Big South's sack leader with 7.0, becoming the first freshman in League history to lead the Conference in sacks. Pemasa also broke the freshman sack record of 6.5 that was set by Coastal Carolina's ADRIN GRADY in 2003.

A LOT TO A LITTLE

Of the 21 Big South Conference games played last season, 17 were decided by at least 10 points -- a League record for most Big South games decided by double figures in a season. The previous record was 10, which was established in 2009 during a 21-game League slate. Ten of last year's Conference games were decided by at least 20 points, and the average winning margin for the Big South season was 20.8 points -- the highest in League history.

HOME ON THE RANGE

Liberty was the only Big South team to go undefeated in home games last season, as the Flames finished 5-0. The Conference has had at least one team finish with a perfect home record every season of Big South football.

DOUBLED UP

Liberty owns the Conference record for most consecutive League games scoring in double figures at 28. The Flames broke the record of 26 games that was established by VMI from Oct. 4, 2003 - Oct. 10, 2009. Meanwhile, Liberty and VMI have not been shutout in Big South play. The Flames have scored in all 40 of their Big South games since 2002, while the Keydets have tallied points in all 37 of their Big South contests since joining in 2003.

POINT OF ORDER

Liberty also owns the Conference's active scoring streak at 63 games, which is the second-longest in League history. The record is 67 games by Coastal Carolina from 2003-08. Meanwhile, Presbyterian College has not been shutout in its last 52 games (34 as official Big South members), followed by Gardner-Webb (33), Stony Brook (27) and Charleston Southern (19).

DOUBLE DOWN

Stony Brook is the Big South's active leader for most consecutive games scoring in double figures at 27, the fourth-longest streak in Big South history. The Seawolves took over the top spot after Liberty's Big South-record of 45 consecutive games scoring double figures was snapped Sept. 25 at James Madison, as the Flames managed just a field goal against the Dukes.

PERRY III WILL LIKELY BECOME PERRY I

Gardner-Webb redshirt-senior WR JAMES PERRY III enters the season with 181 career catches, third all-time in Big South history. He needs just 22 receptions to break the Conference record of 202, which is held by former Charleston Southern WR MAURICE PRICE. Perry owns a career average of 5.66 receptions per game, and based on that output, he would break Price's record in GWU's fourth game of 2011, which is Oct. 1 at Samford.

THE IGNITOR

Liberty QB MIKE BROWN is the only player in Big South history with 1,000 career rushing, passing and receiving yards. He enters his final season in 2011 with 1,438 career rushing yards, 3,408 career passing yards and 1,049 career receiving yards.

DID YOU KNOW...

... that Coastal Carolina TE DAVID DURAN is seven receptions away from becoming the first tight end in Big South history with 60 career receptions? Duran has 53 career catches, just six shy of former Gardner-Webb TE JOSH MILLER's Conference record of 59 from 2007-10.

STRONG FINISHES

Coastal Carolina closed out the 2010 regular-season with four consecutive wins, continuing a streak in the Big South that has occurred every year since the League's first season in 2002. In 2009, Charleston Southern rolled off four-straight wins to end the season, a streak the Bucs also pulled off to close out 2008. In 2007, Liberty ended the year with five consecutive wins, while in 2006 it was Coastal Carolina winning eight consecutive games en route to an at-large playoff berth. The 2005 season saw Charleston Southern end the year with five-straight wins. The year prior had Coastal Carolina (eight) and Liberty (four) end the 2004 campaign with at least a four-game win streak. In 2003, the Flames were victorious in their final four games of the season, and Gardner-Webb started it all as winners of its last eight games in 2002.

CHAMPIONSHIPS ARE WON IN NOVEMBER

Coastal Carolina is 19-6 (=76.0) in its history during the final month of the regular-season, while Liberty is 20-8 (=71.4) since 2002. Stony Brook is 5-3 in November since joining the Big South in 2008. Coastal Carolina is the only Big South member to win a game in November every season since 2003.

ANOTHER FIRST FOR LIBERTY'S MIKE BROWN

Liberty QB MIKE BROWN was the first quarterback in Big South football history to pass for at least 200 yards in every game during a season when he accomplished the feat in 2010. Brown's 11 games (all consecutive) broke the old record of 10 that was set by Coastal Carolina's TYLER THIGPEN in 2006.

AN ENCORE FOR THIS JACK-OF-ALL-TRADES PLAYER?

Stony Brook's BROCK JACKOLSKI just missed the Big South single-season record for all-purpose yards last year, as he finished the 2010 season with 1,966 -- falling nine yards shy of the mark of 1,975 that was established by VMI's TIM MAYPRAY in 2007. Jackolski became the first player in Big South history to score a rushing touchdown, receiving touchdown and a kickoff return touchdown in the same game Nov. 13 against Gardner-Webb. He accomplished the feat all in succession and all in the third quarter. Jackolski returned the opening kickoff of the second half 94 yards for a score, and followed with a 6-yard TD catch and a 19-yard scoring run.

SUPER SIZED COMBO

Already the second pair of teammates in Big South history to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season, Stony Brook running backs MIGUEL MAYSONET (1,128) and BROCK JACKOLSKI (1,029) were the first pair of teammates to finish 1-2 in the Big South in season rushing yards in 2010. The duo also combined for 10 100-yard rushing games last season (Jackolski - 6, Maysonet - 4) and surpassed 100 yards in the same game three times.

CATCHING UP

Liberty redshirt-senior CHRIS SUMMERS enters the 2011 season with 124 career receptions for 1,698 yards and 19 touchdowns, and is one TD grab away from becoming the fourth Big South player with 20 career touchdown catches. Summers also is three catches away from cracking the League's top 10.

FUN FACT

Coastal Carolina holds the Big South's longest streak of not allowing a punt return touchdown in a Conference game at 36 games.

BIG BROWN

In just 12 career starts at quarterback, Liberty QB MIKE BROWN is 252-of-387 passing (=65.1 percent) for 3,198 yards and 24 touchdowns, in addition to being 9-3. He also has rushed 180 times for 942 yards (5.2 average) and 10 scores starting under center.

THANK HEAVENS FOR BEVINS

Liberty senior MATT BEVINS is the Conference's all-time leader with 54 career field goals (54-of-69, =78.3 percent) and ranks second in Big South history with 268 career points kicking as well as fourth in overall scoring. He enters the 2011 season needing 30 points to break the Big South career kick scoring record of 297 points, which is held by Coastal Carolina's JOSH HOKE (2003-06). Bevins' 11 career 10-point kicking games is most in League history.

30-SOMETHING

Last season was the first time in the Conference's football history that three teams averaged 30.0 points per game. Liberty led the way with a 36.5 scoring clip -- the third-highest single-season average in Big South annals, while Stony Brook was next at 31.2 points per contest. Coastal Carolina rounded out the top three with its 31.1 scoring average in 2010.

FB-YES

For the second consecutive year, the Big South will play a League-record 10 games against FBS opponents this season. In 2010, the Conference picked up its first-ever wins against FBS members, and did so on the same day when Gardner-Webb and Liberty defeated MAC teams on Sept. 11. The Runnin' Bulldogs were the first to claim victory with its 38-37 overtime triumph at Akron at 3:15pm. Less than seven hours later, Liberty emerged with a 27-23 win at Ball State at 9:55pm. The Big South was the only FCS AQ Conference with two FBS wins in 2010.

300-TACKLE CLUB

Three Big South players enter the 2011 campaign with a chance to enter the Conference's 300-career tackle club, which currently has eight members. VMI line-backer A.J. GROSS is the League's active leader entering the season with 263 career stops, ahead of teammate BYRON ALLEN (233). Gardner-Webb's MARTY PATTERSON (221) returns after missing all of last year with an injury and is looking to become the fourth Runnin' Bulldog on the Big South's 300-tackle list.

SOLO ARTIST

Presbyterian College DB JUSTIN BETHEL, who is the Big South's all-time leader with six blocked kicks, is 10th in League history with 139 career solo tackles. He needs 17 to crack the top five and 29 for second-place. Former Charleston Southern LB JADA ROSS holds the career record for most solo tackles with 195.

BIG MEN ON CAMPUS

The Big South Conference football members have a total of 38 players on its collective rosters weighing at least 300 lbs., the most since having 40 in 2009. Stony Brook has the most with eight, followed by Coastal Carolina and Liberty with seven. Last season, the Big South had 30 players at the 300-pound threshold.

THE TALL AND SHORT OF IT

The tallest football player in the Big South is Stony Brook OL MICHAEL BAMIRO at 6-8. The heaviest player is Liberty nose guard ASA CHAPMAN at 380. On the lighter side, the shortest player stands at 5-5 -- Charleston Southern RB ANTHONY SIMMONS. Stony Brook CB JEVAHN CRUZ weighs the least at 150 pounds. Below is a team-by-team look at all four categories:

COASTAL CAROLINA - THE BIG SOUTH'S FIRST PLAYOFF TEAM

The 2006 season set another new standard for the Big South Conference and the Coastal Carolina football program. However by the end, the Chanticleers had made more than just history in just their fourth year of play and the Conference's fifth season of football.

Ranked in the top 25 of all three major national polls, Coastal Carolina opened the season against Southern Conference foe Elon for the second straight year, though this time at home. The Chanticleers carried a 12-game home win streak into the contest but a slow start to the year ensued, as Coastal Carolina dropped the opener, 23-20 to the Phoenix.

The second of three consecutive SoCon opponents was next, as Coastal Carolina made its first-ever trip to Spartanburg to take on Wofford. A big third quarter rally sparked the Chants and a touchdown in the final minute of play gave Coastal Carolina a dramatic 41-38 victory over the Terriers.

Back on the road for the second straight week, Coastal Carolina traveled to No. 24 Georgia Southern for a televised night contest. The Eagles came into the contest off a loss and inspired by the passing of their former legendary coach Erk Russell, and handed the visiting Chanticleers the 38-21 defeat.

The Chants rebounded with solid performances in wins over in-state rival South Carolina State and at Winston-Salem State. The wins got Coastal Carolina back above .500 at 3-2, setting up another classic at Brooks Stadium.

No. 3 Furman was next welcomed to Conway, and both teams arrived for a battle. The game went back and forth, with Furman taking the lead 27-21 on a fourth-quarter touchdown. However, the point after attempt was blocked and returned by the Chanticleers for two points to cut the margin to 27-23. Coastal Carolina then marched the football down the field for the game-winning score and held on for a 29-27 win.

Moving back into the top 25, the Chanticleers had a pair of challenges to open Big South Conference play. A last minute drive gave Coastal Carolina a 31-27 win at VMI, followed by another fourth-quarter comeback in a 28-26 victory over Liberty.

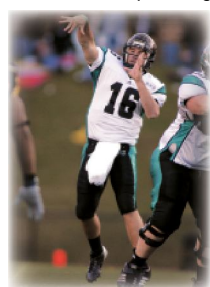

Coastal Carolina handled Savannah State for Homecoming to move to 7-2 on the year heading into the final two League contests. Gardner-Webb was next on the schedule, and the Chants were up to the task, handling the host Bulldogs for a 52-24 win on Big South TV.

The "Battle of the Beach" wrapped up the regular season, as Charleston Southern looked to play the spoiler again for Coastal Carolina's bid for the playoffs. However this time, the Chants made it count down the stretch, posting a 31-17 win to run their record to 9-2.

When the bids came out for the 16-team NCAA Division I Football Championship, Coastal Carolina and the Big South Conference heard their name called, making the Chanticleers the third-fastest team in FCS history to qualify for the playoffs. However, the challenge was daunting for the upstarts, as defending National Champion Appalachian State would play host to the No. 12-ranked Chants for the first round.

Similar to their meeting in 2005, the Mountaineers jumped on top early in the first half to a 31-0 halftime lead. Coastal Carolina battled back and eventually scored more points than any ASU opponent in 2006, but fell short in a 45-28 loss.

Coastal Carolina set 11 Big South Conference records during the 2006 season, and had 12 players earn All-Big South honors, including Offensive Player of the Year TYLER THIGPEN. The Chanticleers also had seven players honored on All-American squads, again led by Thigpen on the Associated Press' First Team.

Graduating 36 senior letterwinners, the final recognition came from the NFL, as Thigpen became the first player ever drafted from the Big South Conference. The 2006 Coastal Carolina Chanticleers produced three more NFL players in QUINTON TEAL (signed by Carolina in 2007), JEROME SIMPSON (drafted by Cincinnati in 2008) and MIKE TOLBERT (signed by San Diego in 2008).

In addition, Coastal Carolina's 2006 football season was voted one of the Big South Conference's 25 "Best of the Best Moments" as part of the League's 25th Anniversary celebration in 2008-09.
