THIS IS THE BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE

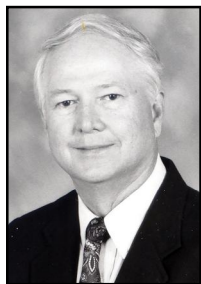

Since its founding in 1983, the Big South Conference has matured into a competitive leader in college athletics, actively pursuing excellence on the field of play and in the classroom. The League's growing presence as an NCAA Division I athletic conference is evident by athletic accomplishments on the national stage, innovative marketing and media partnerships, increased television packages, and quality athletic competition while intentionally fostering the academic, personal, social, athletic and leadership development of each student-athlete. This has evolved into the Conference's mission of "Developing Leaders Through Athletics." The 2012-13 academic year features the Big South's largest membership (12) and sponsored sports (19) in its 29 years of existence.

The Big South Conference was formed on August 21, 1983, when Charleston Southern (then Baptist College) Athletic Director HOWARD BAGWELL and Augusta President GEORGE CHRISTENBERRY began recruiting members into the Big South, receiving initial commitments from Augusta, Charleston Southern, Campbell, Coastal Carolina and Winthrop. One month later, DR. EDWARD M. SINGLETON was selected as the League's first Commissioner and continued to solicit new members. His efforts led to the additions of Armstrong State, Radford and UNC Asheville, giving the Big South more than the required six members to constitute an official conference. The Big South's first year of competition was in the Fall of 1984, and in September 1986, the Big South Conference was granted full-fledged NCAA Division I status.

During its infancy and prior to securing automatic bids to NCAA Championships, the Big South made early strides in earning at-large berths in several national postseason events, including volleyball, women's basketball and women's golf. In 1989, GEORGE F. "BUDDY" SASSER replaced the retiring Dr. Singleton as Commissioner, and in 1990, the League received its first automatic bid -- receiving an automatic qualifier to the NCAA Baseball Championship. Under Sasser's seven years of leadership, the Conference implemented its public relations and compliance programs, and introduced its first-ever men's basketball television package, featuring the Big South competing among some of the finest teams in the nation.

In August 1996, KYLE B. KALLANDER replaced Sasser as the League's third Commissioner, and in his 16 years at the helm of the Big South, Kallander has been instrumental in aggressively promoting the Conference to new heights. The Conference has enjoyed record levels in marketing revenue during his tenure, he has brought television coverage to Big South women's basketball, baseball, softball and men's soccer for the first time in Conference history, as well as increased national television exposure to the League as a whole through aggressive and unique television packages.

Under Kallander's leadership, the Big South developed and initiated its first long-range strategic plan, re-affirming the League's vision as a distinctive athletic Conference committed to the quality of institutional life through athletic competition. He also spearheaded the efforts to add football as a championship sport, which came to fruition in 2002, and oversaw the additions of men's and women's indoor track & field in 1997. The Conference's 19th championship sport -- women's lacrosse, begins play this season with eight members. At the same time, Kallander has solidified Conference membership, as an all-time high 12 member institutions comprise the 29-year old League. Recent additions include High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College and Longwood, plus the return of charter member Campbell University. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the Conference introduced its first live video streaming event in 2005 and has since expanded its video offerings to more than 700 events annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms.

In the last 15 years alone, the Big South Conference has experienced monumental growth and success in nearly every sport. During this time, the Conference has had an individual National Champion six times, has had more than 280 All-Americans, has reached the "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball and baseball, has received national Top 25 rankings in football, men's soccer, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's outdoor track & field, and men's golf, has had an individual selected to play in the NCAA Singles Championship seven times in addition to the first men's tennis doubles at-large selection, had the first women's golf program advance to the national finals, had the No. 1 ranked men's golfer in the country, had the nation's top scoring men's basketball team five consecutive years as well as the national men's basketball scoring leader twice, received an at-large playoff berth in the Football Championship Subdivision in 2006, has had six NFL Draft picks, and has had two institutions finish in the top 10 in the NCAA Men's Golf Championships -- including the Conference's highest-ever team finish in an NCAA event (fifth in 2007).

In 2006-07, the Big South was the only Conference nationwide to have an at-large participant in the football playoffs (Coastal Carolina), a team in the Second Round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (Winthrop) and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Baseball Regionals (Coastal Carolina). In fact, Coastal Carolina's baseball program has been a No. 1 seed four out of the last eight years -- including a national seed for the first time in 2010, while the Chanticleers' FCS playoff berth in 2006 came in just the fifth-year of the Big South's football existence.

The 2009-10 season saw Liberty's SAM CHELANGA win two NCAA National Championships (cross country, 10,000-meter run); Coastal Carolina's baseball team reach the Super Regionals for the second time in three years as well as being ranked No. 1 in the national RPI and as high as No. 3 in the national polls; and three women's basketball teams reach the postseason for the first time in Conference history. In 2010-11, Chelanga won two more NCAA National Championships (cross country, outdoor 5,000-meter run), the Big South had its first automatic bid recipient in football (Coastal Carolina), UNC Asheville reached the Second Round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, Coastal Carolina's women's golf team was the first in Conference history to advance to the NCAA Championship out of Regional play, and a League-record 18 baseball players were drafted in the 2011 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

This past season, the Big South had a record 41 student-athletes earn All-America distinction, while another 10 were named Academic All-Americans. The Conference also won its first football playoff game (Stony Brook), had the national women's basketball Rookie Coach of the Year (High Point), had two men's soccer teams reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in a decade (Coastal Carolina, Liberty), and had a record five individuals selected for the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals -- the most of any Division I conference in 2011-12. In addition, Liberty was the first men's golf team in Conference history to win an NCAA Regional, and the Flames went on to finish 10th at the national event.

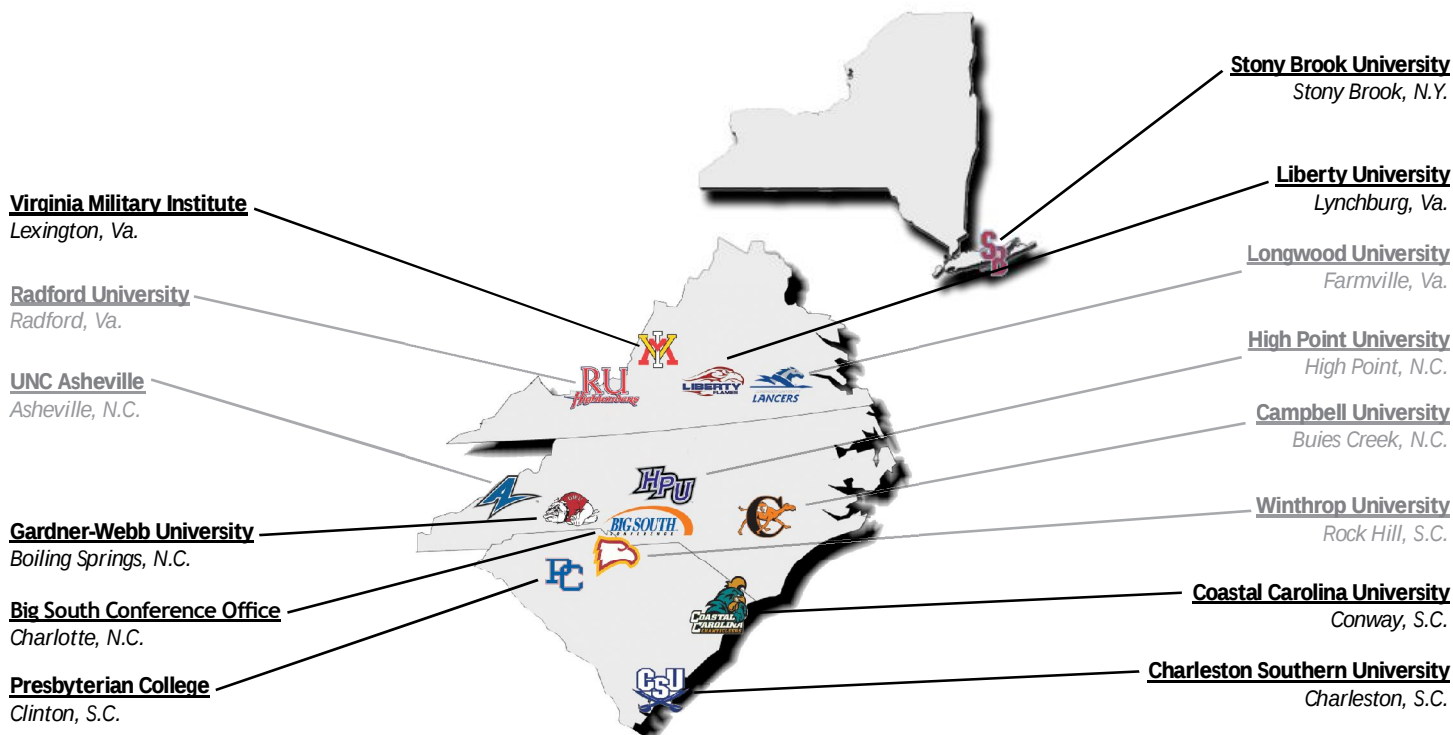

Several former Big South student-athletes have also reached national prominence in recent years. Coastal Carolina's AMBER CAMPBELL made the U.S. Olympic Team in 2008 and 2012, and was one of five former Big South athletes to compete in the 2008 Games; High Point's TAMAS KOVACS qualified for the 2012 London Games; VMI's REGGIE WILLIAMS reached the NBA with the Golden State Warriors in 2010, UNC Asheville's TY WIGGINTON was named an American League All-Star in 2010, and Coastal Carolina's DUSTIN JOHNSON has won six PGA Tour events since departing the Big South Conference in 2007. Four former Big South baseball players made their major league debuts in 2012, while AVERY WARLEY became the third Big South women's basketball player to play in the WNBA.

The Conference's tagline, "Developing Leaders Through Athletics" was unveiled in 2008-09 in conjunction with the Conference's 25th Anniversary. The League also honored its heritage with the Top 25 "Best of the Best" moments in League history from 1983-2008, with Liberty University's 10-year women's basketball championship run from 1996-2007 being crowned the No. 1 moment in the Big South's first 25 years. The Conference's on-field accomplishments have been duplicated in the classroom. Annually, more than 40 percent of Conference student-athletes are named to the Big South's Presidential Honor Roll for maintaining a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average, and the League has had more than 100 Academic All-Americans in its 28 years of existence. Furthermore, the Big South has recorded double figure totals in NCAA Public Recognition Awards for APR progress the last three years.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE FOOTBALL HISTORY

The Big South Conference took a big step in its young history in the Fall of 2002 when, for the first time in its 19-year history, the League crowned a football champion.

Football had always been a long range goal of the Conference. In the early 1990s, football seemed on the horizon in the Big South, as Charleston Southern fielded its first team in 1991 and the Conference added Liberty as a new member, which was already playing on the gridiron. However, football never got off the ground in the early part of the decade as other issues came to the forefront, including the Big South's emergence as a basketball conference. The League was awarded its first automatic bid to the NCAA men's basketball championship in 1992 and football was put on the back burner while basketball began to flourish.

The idea was revived in 1997 when Elon joined the Big South. That gave the Conference three full-time members with football programs -- half the number needed to be recognized as a Conference by the NCAA. Two years later on Nov. 10, 1999, Coastal Carolina University announced it would add football by the Fall of 2003. The wheels were set in motion to establish a Conference home for the League's football-playing members.

After attempts to form a joint football conference with the Atlantic Sun Conference failed, the Big South began recruiting more members to join its fledgling football league. On May 23, 2001, the dream became a reality when the Big South's Council of Chief Executive Officers voted unanimously to add football as the Conference's 18th championship sport. It became the first sport added since 1997 when men's and women's indoor track were incorporated as championship sports.

Shortly after the approval of football, the Big South's recruiting efforts paid off, as the addition of Gardner-Webb University as an associate football member was announced on June 20, 2001. There were hopes that with the addition of the Runnin' Bulldogs, a four-team League could begin play later that Fall, with Coastal Carolina coming into the fold in the 2003 season. However, scheduling conflicts could not be worked out, so the Fall of 2002 was designated as the kick-off to Big South Football. The Big South continued to look for additional members, with a goal of eventually having seven or eight playing members. On Dec. 10, 2001, one of the oldest programs in the state of Virginia -- Virginia Military Institute, announced it would join the Big South in all sports in 2003 and maintain the Conference's football membership at five following Elon's departure.

In 2006, the League moved one step closer to etching its status as a viable football Conference. First, Coastal Carolina Athletic Director Warren Koegel was appointed to the FCS Football Selection Committee, the Big South's first-ever representative on a national football committee. On April 6, the Big South added Presbyterian College as its sixth football member. Presbyterian, now in its first full-fledged year of Division I, officially joined the Big South in all sports in 2008. On May 26, 2006, the Big South announced that associate football member Gardner-Webb would join the Conference as full members on July 1, 2008, solidifying the Big South's football make-up for years to come.

With membership coming together, the Big South received a huge boost at the conclusion of the 2006 campaign. League champion Coastal Carolina became the first football member to advance to the postseason when the Chanticleers received an at-large berth in the NCAA Division I Football Championship. The Big South took another step closer to becoming eligible for an automatic berth when on March 20, 2007, the Conference announced the addition of Stony Brook University as an associate football member beginning in 2008. All the efforts came to fruition in the spring of 2008 when the NCAA announced the expansion of the FCS Playoffs from 16 to 20 teams beginning in 2010 and granting the Big South an automatic bid starting that year.

The growth of Big South football has been exceptional since its inception just a decade ago. The Big South experienced its most successful campaign in 2006 with Coastal Carolina's FCS playoff berth; two teams (Coastal Carolina and Charleston Southern) were ranked in the national Top 25 in the same week for the first time; four appearances on the ESPN family of networks; and the first-ever NFL Draft pick and first finalist for the Walter Payton Award in Coastal Carolina's Tyler Thigpen.

In 2007, Liberty won the first of its four consecutive Big South football championships in record-breaking fashion just two years after finishing 1-10 overall; Coastal's Jerome Simpson (second round) and Gardner-Webb's Brian Johnston (seventh round) were selected in the NFL Draft, and the League's five football members combined to average a Big South-record 7,488 fans per game. The Big South produced another nationally-ranked program in 2008 in Liberty, as well as its fourth NFL draft pick in three years -- Liberty's Rashad Jennings (seventh round).

The 2010 season saw the Big South make noise around the country early in the season with two wins over FBS opponents on the same day, when Gardner-Webb won in overtime at Akron and Liberty defeated Ball State on the road on Sept. 11. Individually, Liberty's Mike Brown led the nation in total offense while Stony Brook was the only FCS team to have two 1,000-yard rushers in Miguel Maysonet and Brock Jackolski. Coastal Carolina emerged from a three-way tie for first-place with the Big South's first-ever automatic bid to the FCS Playoffs. The Chanticleers also became the first Conference member to host a football playoff game as Coastal faced Western Illinois in the first round at Brooks Stadium.

November 2011 was a special month for the Big South. The Conference had two players (Josh Norman and Justin Bethel) named official candidates for the Buchanan Award for the first time; two Big South teams (Liberty and Stony Brook) were nationally-ranked in the same week for just the second time in League history; and Conference champion Stony Brook rallied from 18 points to defeat Albany for a first round victory in the FCS playoffs -- the Big South's first post-season football win. Individually, the Big South had two football student-athletes (Pat Kelly and Marcus Lott) receive CoSIDA Academic All-America honors for the first time, and Norman and Bethel were selected in the NFL Draft.

The start of the 2012 season features the Big South's largest television package to date -- including a TV appearance every week of the season.

With its seismic growth and playoff-caliber programs, the Big South is poised to continue its ascension as a national competitor in FCS football with the annual goal of advancing in the postseason and capturing the ultimate prize -- a national championship.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE COMMISSIONER KYLE B. KALLANDER

Kyle B. Kallander is in his 17th year as Big South Conference Commissioner in 2012-13, a tenure that has seen year-to-year growth in marketing and television, an enhanced Internet presence as well as unparalleled success on the field and in the classroom.

Kallander's development of a long-term strategic plan, which allows the Big South to position itself as unique amongst its peers, brought football to the Big South as the 18th Conference sport in 2002 as well as women's lacrosse this season. He has solidified membership to an all-time high 12 institutions with the recent additions of High Point, VMI, Presbyterian College, Gardner-Webb and Longwood -- as well as the return of charter member Campbell University last year. Kallander's vision includes increases in the League's television exposure for several sports through strong partnerships with regional and national outlets, and the spearheading of video streaming of Big South games and events on the League's website, which began in 2005-06 and now features more than 700 events annually. This aggressive commitment to digital technology will include HD content in the near future.

Kallander has presided over some of the most pivotal events in the League's entire history both athletically and academically. During his tenure, the Big South:

- Has reached the NCAA "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball and baseball;
- Has had six individual National Champions;
- Had its first All-Americans in men's and women's cross country;
- Had an individual reach the round of 32 in the NCAA Men's Singles Championship;
- Has started football and reached the FCS playoffs in five years and eventually gaining an automatic bid to the football postseason;
- Had its first-ever national finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year;
- Had members defeat the No. 1-ranked football and baseball team in the nation;
- Had its first-ever NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament first round win;
- Had its first-ever berth in the NCAA Baseball Super Regionals;
- Has placed two teams in the NCAA Baseball Regionals five times;
- Has had a baseball team earn a No. 1 seed and host an NCAA Regional and Super Regional;
- Had its highest-ever team finish in an NCAA event (Coastal Carolina men's golf, fifth in 2007);
- Has had women's basketball, men's soccer, softball and baseball televised for the first time;
- Has had a softball team reach the Regional Championship game twice;
- Had its first women's golf team advance to the NCAA Championship;
- Has had two top 10 finishes in the NCAA Men's Golf Championship;
- Had a League-record 41 All-Americans in 2011-12;
- Had its first FCS Playoff victory in 2011

The Conference has produced more All-Americans since Kallander took office, while increasing its share of Academic All-Americans and All-District selections. More than 40 percent of the League's student-athletes have achieved at least a 3.0 grade point average the last eight years -- including three-straight years over 45 percent -- while several student-athletes have been recipients of various Postgraduate Scholarships during his timeframe. Kallander has also successfully integrated the Conference's profile with the member institutions' general student body, notably through the development of the Big South Academic Consortium, which sponsors the annual Academic College Bowl among League members and the Big South Undergraduate Research Symposium. Furthermore, the Big South began offering one male and one female graduating student-athlete a Graduate Fellowship for postgraduate studies in 2006.

Named the Big South's third commissioner on June 24, 1996, Kallander formed the Big South Marketing Group (BSMG) upon his arrival, a partnership with member institutions that enables the Conference to develop an integrated marketing strategy and offer comprehensive corporate partnership packages. More recently, the Big South Business

Group (BSBG) was created, involving the Chief Financial Officers from each member institution. The BSBG explores ways that members can benefit through working together and with Conference corporate partners. Kallander has overseen a revision of the League's governance structure and has been instrumental in securing record sponsorship revenues in the past decade, and has been innovative in developing and executing a public relations plan for the Big South, which has resulted in increased exposure, both on a regional and national level. On the field, the Conference has added four Championship sports under Kallander -- men's and women's indoor track & field, football and women's lacrosse.

Nationally, Kallander has been heavily involved in several organizations and committees. He served four years on the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee and was elected Chair for the 2011-12 season. He also previously served on the NCAA/USOC Task Force, which examined the decline of Olympic sports programs at the nation's college and universities, chaired the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee, and served on the NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics.

As a testament to his leadership, Kallander continues to secure aggressive television packages through relationships with MASN, SportSouth and ESPN/ESPN2/ESPN3, as well as partnerships with FSN and Fox College Sports. Furthermore, the Big South Television Network (BSTN) was created by Kallander in 2001 to serve as a syndicate of Conference events to a regional group of TV stations and cable networks. The partnerships have brought the Big South new and enhanced television exposure for its member institutions and student-athletes. The Conference's online broadband channel, the Big South Network, has elevated the League's exposure by serving a world-wide audience.

Kallander came to the Big South after serving as Southwest Conference Commissioner during the 1995-96 season. Under his guidance, the Southwest generated more than $22 million in revenue, an all-time record. Kallander was also directly responsible for negotiating and implementing television agreements with CBS, Raycom and Prime Sports Southwest for the 1995-96 football and basketball seasons. He successfully administered the league's postseason basketball tournaments, which attracted its largest attendance since 1990, and also served as Tournament Director for the 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Region First and Second Round Games in Dallas.

Kallander began his collegiate athletics career at his alma mater, the University of Washington, in 1985, where he served as Director of Advertising & Promotions, as well as the Director of Compliance before joining the Southwest Conference in 1992 as Assistant Commissioner.

Kallander received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Physical Education in 1980, and a Master of Science Degree in Kinesiology in 1982, from Washington. He is married to the former Lisa Dallosto and has two children, Stefan, 22, and Tristan, 19.

The Conference Hall of Fame is housed at the League Office in Charlotte, N.C., and features historical timelines, images and artwork of the League's accomplishments and achievements over the years, including All-Americans, Annual Champions and NCAA Championship successes, as well as each enshrinee's plaque.

The inaugural class was inducted in May 2003 and consisted of 11 former student-athletes, coaches and administrators who were integral in the creation, development and early success of the Big South Conference. Inductees are enshrined as part of the League's annual Spring Meetings.

The Big South Hall of Fame now boasts 49 members. The Hall of Fame did not induct a class in 2009 due to the League's 25th Anniversary celebration during the 2008-09 campaign.

2012 BIG SOUTH PRESEASON FOOTBALL NOTES & INFORMATION

STONY BROOK PICKED TO WIN IT ALL IN 2012

For the first time since joining the Big South as associate football members in 2008, defending Conference champion Stony Brook University has been tabbed as the favorite in the Big South Conference's annual preseason football poll for the 2012 campaign, as voted by the League's head coaches and media panel. The Seawolves have won or shared the Big South title each of the past three years. See page 78 for the Big South's preseason poll history.

STONY BROOK TO MAKE 2012 ITS FINAL SEASON IN BIG SOUTH

The 2012 season will be the final year of associate membership for Stony Brook, as SBU announced on August 7 that it will join the CAA for football beginning in 2013. Big South Commissioner KYLE B. KALLANDER:

"When the Big South brought in Stony Brook as an associate member in football, it was understood that it was not a permanent relationship. It makes sense that they are interested in a better geographic conference fit. Stony Brook has been a terrific football member and we valued their competitive contributions and the friendships that have developed. We also believe the Big South has been very good for Stony Brook.

"The Big South is confident about its football future and will continue to actively work to enhance our current programs and expand our membership."

SBU'S MAYSONET TABBED PRESEASON OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Stony Brook senior running back MIGUEL MAYSONET has been voted the Big South's 2012 Preseason Offensive Player of the Year. A unanimous selection for the preseason honor, Maysonet was the 2011 Big South Offensive Player of the Year -- Stony Brook's first-ever Big South Offensive Player of the Year honoree. Maysonet rushed for a Big South single-season record 1,633 yards last season with 15 touchdowns, and he was eighth in the nation with 125.6 rushing yards per game. He finished with 16 total touchdowns and rushed for 100 yards in a game eight times last season. Maysonet scored four rushing touchdowns in a game twice last year, becoming the first player in Big South history to accomplish this feat. Maysonet rushed for a career-best 194 yards against Lafayette before gaining 863 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns in six Big South games last season. He closed out the regular-season with five consecutive 100-yard rushing games.

CSU'S JAMES PICKED AS PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Charleston Southern redshirt-senior defensive back CHARLES JAMES, who has already been named a 2012 preseason All-American by The Sports Network, has been voted the 2012 Big South Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. Tabbed one of the 10 national defensive backs to watch by The Sports Network, James is also among College Football Performance Awards Watch List for Defensive Backs. His 10 career interceptions are tied for fifth in League history while his 143 career interception return yards rank fifth as well. Last season, James earned First-Team All-Conference honors after recording 66 tackles, including 40 solo stops, as well as two interceptions and seven pass break-ups.

STONY BROOK'S MIGUEL MAYSONET ON PAYTON AWARD WATCH LIST

For the sixth time since 2006, the Big South Conference has an official candidate for the top offensive individual honor in FCS. Stony Brook RB and reigning Big South Offensive Player of the Year MIGUEL MAYSONET is among the 20 initial candidates for the 2012 Walter Payton Award. Maysonet is just the second Big South running back to make the list, joining former Liberty rusher and current Jacksonville Jaguar RASHAD JENNINGS, who finished 8th in the voting in 2008.

SEAWOLVES RANKED IN PRESEASON NATIONAL POLLS

Defending Big South champion Stony Brook has received some attention this pre-season, as the Seawolves enter the regular season ranked No. 17 by both The Sports Network and the FCS Coaches. SBU finished the 2011 season ranked No. 16 by the FCS Coaches and No. 18 in The Sports Network Top 25 poll.

SEAWOLVES FIRST BIG SOUTH TEAM TO WIN PLAYOFF GAME IN 2011

Stony Brook became the first Big South football program to win a playoff game when the Seawolves rallied from a 28-10 deficit to defeat Albany, 31-28, in the first round of the 2011 FCS Playoffs. SBU advanced to play No. 1 overall seed Sam Houston State, and lost to the eventual national runner-up by seven points (34-27).

ALONE AT THE TOP

Last season, Stony Brook won its first outright Big South Championship and third consecutive Conference title with its 41-31 victory over Liberty in the season finale. SBU became the first team in Big South history to go 6-0 in League play, and was the Conference's first undefeated outright champion since 2008.

SEVENTH HEAVEN

For the first time in the Big South's 10-year football history, three teams won at least seven games in the same season last year. Stony Brook won nine games in 2011, followed by Liberty and Coastal Carolina with seven victories each.

NEW YORK STATE OF MIND

Stony Brook was the first team in Big South history to score 40 points in every Conference game last season, and the Seawolves' average of 48.8 points in its six League contests in 2011 is the highest scoring average against Big South competition in the record books. SBU's 293 points in Big South games last season was also an all-time high, and the Seawolves' final average winning margin in Big South games last year was 27.5 points.

BURNING UP THE HOUSE

Liberty owns a Big South-record 15-game home Conference win streak, and swept its home Big South schedule for the fifth consecutive season in 2011. During this stretch, the Flames have scored 681 points (45.4 points per game), scored more than 30 points in 14 contests, and has held its League brethren to 274 points (18.2). The last Big South team to defeat Liberty inside Williams Stadium was Gardner-Webb on Oct. 21, 2006 (27-24).

WOLF TRAP

Stony Brook has won 10 consecutive home Big South games -- the second-longest streak in Conference history and trailing Liberty's current 15-game span. The Seawolves have scored 392 points during their string (39.2 points per game), have scored more than 30 points in eight contests -- including the last five over 40, and have held the Conference membership to 171 points (17.1 average). The last Big South team to defeat Stony Brook inside LaValle Stadium was Gardner-Webb on Nov. 1, 2008 (34-33).

FLIP THIS HOUSE

For the first time in the Big South's 10-year football history, the Conference did not have a member finish undefeated in home games in 2011. Stony Brook went 6-1 in home games last year, followed by Liberty at 5-1 and Coastal Carolina and Presbyterian College at 4-1 each.

MYSTERY SCIENCE THEATER 3000

Stony Brook RB MIGUEL MAYSONET is 239 rushing yards away from becoming the fourth player in Big South history with 3,000. The senior is fifth all-time in League annals with 2,761, and needs 873 yards to break the Conference record of 3,633 career rushing yards set by Liberty's RASHAD JENNINGS from 2006-08.

BIG SOUTH WELCOMES TWO NEW COACHES IN 2012

Two of the Big South's winningest football programs have new coaches in 2012. JOE MOGLIA takes over at Coastal Carolina, while TURNER GILL is now in charge of the Liberty Flames. Moglia is in his first year as a collegiate head coach, while Gill is in his first season as a head coach at the FCS level.

MIGUEL'S MAYSONRY

Stony Brook RB MIGUEL MAYSONET set the Big South single-season rushing record in 2011, as his 1,633 rushing yards broke the previous mark of 1,500 that was set by former Liberty RB RASHAD JENNINGS in 2008. Maysonet, who is just the third player in Conference history with consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons, captured back-to-back Big South rushing titles for the first time in the Conference since Liberty's DRE BARNES in 2002 and 2003.

GROUND CHUCK

Last season, Stony Brook RB duo MIGUEL MAYSONET (1,633) and BROCK JACK-OLSKI (1,418) were the first set of teammates in Big South history to rush for 1,200 yards in the same year. It was the second-straight campaign the duo rushed for 1,000 each, as Maysonet had 1,128 rushing yards in 2010 and Jackolski gained 1,029. The tandem's combined rushing total of 3,051 last season is the most in League annals. Despite the departure of Jackolski, the Seawolves have Maysonet and Iowa transfer MARCUS COKER slated to continue SBU's "Dash and Mash" running game.

POINT OF ORDER

Liberty enters the 2012 season with the Big South record for most consecutive games with a point scored at 74, having broken the old mark of 67 last season. Meanwhile, Presbyterian College has not been shutout in its last 63 games (45 as official Big South members), followed by Gardner-Webb (44), Stony Brook (39) and VMI (19).

2012 BIG SOUTH PRESEASON FOOTBALL NOTES & INFORMATION

POLL POSITION

Last season, the Big South had two teams nationally-ranked in the same week for just the second time in League history. The week of Nov. 21, Stony Brook was ranked No. 22 in the Sports Network poll and No. 24 in the FCS Coaches ranking. At the same time, Liberty was ranked No. 24 in the Sports Network poll and No. 23 in the Coaches poll. Both squads also finished as Top 25 programs in the final polls (Stony Brook - 16/18, Liberty - 25/25). Coupled with Coastal Carolina's Top 25 ranking in the FCS Coaches poll the weeks of Oct. 3 and 10, last year was the first time in Big South history that three members were ranked in the Top 25 in the same season.

DOUBLED UP

Liberty owns the Conference record for most consecutive Big South games scoring in double figures at 34. Stony Brook has the next-longest active streak at 22 games. Meanwhile, the Flames have scored in all 46 of their Conference games since 2002, while VMI has tallied points in all 43 of its League contests since joining the Big South in 2003. Presbyterian College is the final Conference member to have not been shut out in a League contest (18 games).

LITTLE BIG MAN

Gardner-Webb RB KENNY LITTLE finished the 2011 season with 1,042 rushing yards, becoming the first GWU back to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since JUSTIN RICHARDSON gained 1,110 yards in 2000. Little completed his campaign with three-straight 100-yard rushing efforts and six overall.

MASTRO OF THE UNIVERSE

Coastal Carolina junior NICCOLO MASTROMATTEO is already the Big South's career leader for punt returns with 47. The previous career mark was 43, set by Liberty's WYNTON JACKSON (2003-07). Mastromatteo is third in League annals with 379 career punt return yards, 146 yards away from Jackson's Big South mark of 525. Meanwhile, Mastromatteo is tied for third in Big South history with 94 combined kick returns in his career (47 KR, 47 PR).

PRESTO

After two seasons, Gardner-Webb junior DE PRESTON PEMASA is tied for 11th in Big South history with 11.0 quarterback sacks. He is also 16th in the Conference record books with 28.0 tackles-for-loss. Pemasa needs two TFL to become the 10th Big South player with 30 career stops behind the line.

RUNNING IN THE QUAD

Stony Brook RB MIGUEL MAYSONET owns a League-record three 4-TD games in his career. Maysonet's five career games with at least three touchdowns in a game is second-most in Conference annals and two away from tying the mark of seven.

CHAMPIONSHIPS ARE WON IN NOVEMBER

Three-time Big South football champion Stony Brook is 8-3 (=72.7 percent) in November regular-season games since joining the Big South in 2008. Four-time champ Liberty is 21-9 (=70.0 percent) since 2002 during the month of November, while two-time champion Coastal Carolina is 22-6 (=78.6) in its history in regular-season games in November. In fact, the Chanticleers are the only Big South member to win a game in November every season since 2003.

STRONG FINISHES

Stony Brook closed out the 2011 regular-season with eight consecutive wins, continuing a streak in the Big South that has occurred every year since the League's first year in 2002. In 2010, Coastal Carolina rolled off four-straight wins to end the regular-season. Prior to that, it was Charleston Southern in 2008 and 2009 (four consecutive wins); Liberty in 2007 (five); Coastal Carolina in 2006 (eight); Charleston Southern in 2005 (five); Coastal Carolina (eight) and Liberty (four) in 2004; Liberty in 2003 (four); and Gardner-Webb in 2002 (eight).

KING JAMES

Charleston Southern DB CHARLES JAMES is tied for fifth in League history with 10 career interceptions, while his 143 INT return yards are fifth-most in the Big South record books. James also has 19 pass break-ups (ninth all-time) and is tied for seventh in Conference annals with 29 passes defended.

DID YOU KNOW...

... that Coastal Carolina TE DAVID DURAN is two receptions away from becoming the first tight end in Big South history with 60 career receptions? Duran has 58 career catches, just one shy of former Gardner-Webb TE JOSH MILLER's Conference record of 59 from 2007-10.

SKIFF AND WESSON

Stony Brook K WESLEY SKIFFINGTON enters his senior season with a chance to finish high among the Big South's all-time placekickers. His 130 PATs are third-most and he needs six to move into second. The career record is 177. Skiffington's 33 career field goals are sixth in League history, and he is seven away from becoming the fourth kicker with 40. His 75.0 career field goal percentage is second-highest among kickers with 30 career FG made.

FOGG ALERT

Liberty kick returner KEVIN FOGG tied a Big South single-season record with three kickoff return touchdowns in 2011, matching the mark set by Charleston Southern's GERALD STEVENSON in 2010. Fogg also finished as the nation's leading kickoff returner with a 33.5 return average, which broke the Big South single-season record of 32.0 that was set by Liberty's DOMINIC BOLDEN in 2007.

FLOCK OF SEAWOLVES

Stony Brook held eight opponents under 100 yards rushing last season, establishing a Big South single-season record. The Seawolves rushing defense average of 101.0 ranked 11th in the nation and also broke the Big South single-season record of 108.8, set by Charleston Southern in 2006.

SCORE-FOR-MORE PROMOTION

Stony Brook RB MIGUEL MAYSONET is 20 points away from 200 in his career with the Seawolves, which would make him the fifth non-kicker in Big South history to reach the milestone. Meanwhile, teammate kicker WESLEY SKIFFINGTON is seventh all-time in Big South history with 229 career points -- fourth-highest among kickers.

FB-YES

The Big South will play nine games against FBS opponents this season. In 2010, the Conference picked up its first-ever wins against FBS members, and did so in the same week when Gardner-Webb and Liberty defeated MAC teams on Sept. 11. The Runnin' Bulldogs were the first to claim victory with its 38-37 overtime triumph at Akron at 3:15pm. Less than seven hours later, Liberty emerged with a 27-23 win at Ball State at 9:55pm. The Big South was the only FCS AQ Conference with two FBS wins in 2010.

BIG MEN ON CAMPUS

The Big South Conference football members have a total of 44 players on its collective rosters weighing at least 300 lbs. Liberty and Stony Brook have the most with nine, followed by Coastal Carolina with eight. Last season, the Big South had 38 players at the 300-pound threshold.

THE TALL AND SHORT OF IT

The Big South has six players this season who are the tallest in the Conference at 6-8 -- Charleston Southern TE NATHAN PRATER, Coastal Carolina OL JOE KALETA, Stony Brook OL MICHAEL BAMIRO and DL CONNOR DAVIS and VMI OL mates ANDY MARCOTTE and JOE KLUCKOWSKI. The heaviest player is Bamiro at 345.

COASTAL CAROLINA - THE BIG SOUTH'S FIRST PLAYOFF TEAM

The 2006 season set another new standard for the Big South Conference and the Coastal Carolina football program. However by the end, the Chanticleers had made more than just history in just their fourth year of play and the Conference's fifth season of football.

Ranked in the top 25 of all three major national polls, Coastal Carolina opened the season against Southern Conference foe Elon for the second straight year, though this time at home. The Chanticleers carried a 12-game home win streak into the contest but a slow start to the year ensued, as Coastal Carolina dropped the opener, 23-20 to the Phoenix.

The second of three consecutive SoCon opponents was next, as Coastal Carolina made its first-ever trip to Spartanburg to take on Wofford. A big third quarter rally sparked the Chants and a touchdown in the final minute of play gave Coastal Carolina a dramatic 41-38 victory over the Terriers.

Back on the road for the second straight week, Coastal Carolina traveled to No. 24 Georgia Southern for a televised night contest. The Eagles came into the contest off a loss and inspired by the passing of their former legendary coach Erk Russell, and handed the visiting Chanticleers the 38-21 defeat.

The Chants rebounded with solid performances in wins over in-state rival South Carolina State and at Winston-Salem State. The wins got Coastal Carolina back above .500 at 3-2, setting up another classic at Brooks Stadium.

No. 3 Furman was next welcomed to Conway, and both teams arrived for a battle. The game went back and forth, with Furman taking the lead 27-21 on a fourth-quarter touchdown. However, the point after attempt was blocked and returned by the Chanticleers for two points to cut the margin to 27-23. Coastal Carolina then marched the football down the field for the game-winning score and held on for a 29-27 win.

Moving back into the top 25, the Chanticleers had a pair of challenges to open Big South Conference play. A last minute drive gave Coastal Carolina a 31-27 win at VMI, followed by another fourth-quarter comeback in a 28-26 victory over Liberty.

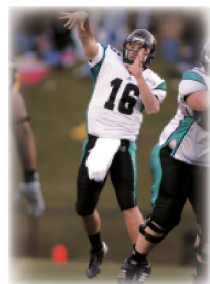

Coastal Carolina handled Savannah State for Homecoming to move to 7-2 on the year heading into the final two League contests. Gardner-Webb was next on the schedule, and the Chants were up to the task, handling the host Bulldogs for a 52-24 win on Big South TV.

The "Battle of the Beach" wrapped up the regular season, as Charleston Southern looked to play the spoiler again for Coastal Carolina's bid for the playoffs. However this time, the Chants made it count down the stretch, posting a 31-17 win to run their record to 9-2.

When the bids came out for the 16-team NCAA Division I Football Championship, Coastal Carolina and the Big South Conference heard their name called, making the Chanticleers the third-fastest team in FCS history to qualify for the playoffs. However, the challenge was daunting for the upstarts, as defending National Champion Appalachian State would play host to the No. 13-ranked Chants for the first round.

Similar to their meeting in 2005, the Mountaineers jumped on top early in the first half to a 31-0 halftime lead. Coastal Carolina battled back and eventually scored more points than any ASU opponent in 2006, but fell short in a 45-28 loss.

Coastal Carolina set 11 Big South Conference records during the 2006 season, and had 12 players earn All-Big South honors, including Offensive Player of the Year TYLER THIGPEN. The Chanticleers also had seven players honored on All-American squads, again led by Thigpen on the Associated Press' First Team.

Graduating 36 senior letterwinners, the final recognition came from the NFL, as Thigpen became the first player ever drafted from the Big South Conference. The 2006 Coastal Carolina Chanticleers produced three more NFL players in QUINTON TEAL (signed by Carolina in 2007), JEROME SIMPSON (drafted by Cincinnati in 2008) and MIKE TOLBERT (signed by San Diego in 2008).

In addition, Coastal Carolina's 2006 football season was voted one of the Big South Conference's 25 "Best of the Best Moments" as part of the League's 25th Anniversary celebration in 2008-09.
