The Big South Conference's television slate features at least 25 games that will air 11 of the 12 weeks of the 2015 campaign, with 10 total games exclusively on ESPN3 and the American Sports Network (ASN) -- and for the first time, a Big South contest will air on one of ESPN's linear networks, as ESPNEWS will televise the Coastal Carolina at Liberty season-finale on Thursday night, Nov. 19, which is also the first conference game to be played on a Thursday.

ESPN3, ESPN's live multi-screen sports network, will exclusively deliver seven games this year, including one out-of-conference match-up for the third consecutive season. For the first time, the package features a "Wildcard" selection the week of Nov. 14. Coverage of that game will be determined 21 days in advance. ASN will televise the three remaining exclusive contests.

Big South members will also appear on WUPA-CW 69 in Atlanta, WMYA-TV 40 in Greenville/Spartanburg and Root Sports Pittsburgh, while the Liberty Flames Sports Network (LFSN) will broadcast at least two games involving the Flames. Additional broadcasts may be added at a later date.

In addition to the ESPN3 and ASN schedules, all home football games will be live-streamed for free on the Big South Network for the third consecutive year.

The Big South has expanded its use of instant replay to now include all home games. The conference has again partnered with DVSport to outfit all home stadiums with the necessary equipment.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE MULTIMEDIA PLATFORMS

The Big South Conference officially re-launched www.BigSouthSports.com on August 5, 2013, which fully integrated the conference website and the Big South Network (BSN) as part of a joint venture between the Conference office and Webstream Sports. In addition, the BSN -- the conference's online video channel, became a free service for the first time.

While viewership for the Big South Network modestly increased annually under the previous subscription model, the free access for all video products spurred a 300% growth in viewership in 2013-14, and another 170% increase in 2014-15. Unique viewers went from 180,000 in year one of the free model to more than 300,000 this past year, and 181 countries/recognized territories accessed the Big South Network in 2014-15. Big South corporate partner Hardee's is a contributing partner to the BSN's free viewing format.

The dynamic redesign of the site and video service offers all visitors a "one size fits all" experience, one that can be seen through the web browsers of phones, tablets, laptops or desktops that adapt to best fit the desired display -- all major platforms are supported. In addition to the new look, the site features simpler navigation as well as an instant click to launch the Big South Network's free live and on-demand offerings the Big South Conference and its member institutions have produced annually.

Webstream Sports, in conjunction with Indianapolis-based TGFI, hosts the fully integrated website and digital network. In addition, Webstream Sports produces nearly 60 Big South events exclusively for ESPN3 in high-definition, covering every conference team sport -- football, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, softball, baseball and women's lacrosse.

The site, developed by TGFI, continues to deliver the high level of information fans have come to expect, including news releases, statistics, schedules, standings, and Championship details, as well as the Big South Online Merchandise Store. New social media integration -- featuring quick access points to the Big South's Twitter, Facebook and Instagram feeds -- are emphasized as well. Another component allows tailored Twitter feeds running alongside Big South Network video and buttons allowing fans to share site content directly into their own Facebook or Twitter accounts.

THIS IS THE BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE

For more than 30 years, the Big South Conference has matured into a competitive leader in college athletics, actively pursuing excellence on the field of play and in the classroom. The league's growing presence as an NCAA Division I athletic conference is evident by notable accomplishments on the national stage, innovative marketing and media partnerships, increased television packages, and quality athletic competition while intentionally fostering the academic, personal, social, athletic and leadership development of each student-athlete. This has evolved into the Conference's mission of "Developing Leaders Through Athletics" as part of a new strategic emphasis on becoming the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast.

On April 24, 1983, Charleston Southern (then Baptist College) Athletic Director HOWARD BAGWELL and Augusta President GEORGE CRISTENBERRY began recruiting members into the Big South and less than four months later on August 21, the Big South Conference was formed when Augusta, Charleston Southern, Campbell, Coastal Carolina and Winthrop committed to the new league. One month later, Dr. Edward M. Singleton was selected as the league's first Commissioner and continued to solicit new members.

His efforts led to the additions of Armstrong State, Radford and UNC Asheville, giving the Big South more than the required six members to constitute an official conference. The Big South's first year of competition was in the Fall of 1984, and in September 1986, the Big South Conference was granted full-fledged NCAA Division I status.

During its infancy and prior to securing automatic bids to NCAA Championships, the Big South made early strides in earning at-large berths in several national postseason events, including volleyball, women's basketball and women's golf. In 1989, GEORGE F. "BUDDY" SASSER replaced the retiring Dr. Singleton as Commissioner, and in 1990, the league received its first automatic bid -- an automatic qualifier to the NCAA Baseball Championship. Under Sasser's seven years of leadership, the conference implemented its public relations and compliance programs, and introduced its first-ever men's basketball television package, featuring the Big South competing against some of the finest teams in the nation.

In August 1996, KYLE B. KALLANDER replaced Sasser as the league's third Commissioner, and in his 19 years at the helm of the Big South, Kallander has been instrumental in aggressively promoting the conference to unprecedented new heights. During his tenure, men's and women's indoor track & field (1997), football (2002) and women's lacrosse (2013) were added as sponsored sports. The conference has also enjoyed record levels in marketing revenue, in addition to extensive television coverage for women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer, volleyball and women's lacrosse for the first time. The league as a whole has enjoyed increased national television exposure through aggressive and unique television packages.

Kallander has solidified Conference membership with double-digit member institutions for seven consecutive years. Additions include High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College and Longwood, plus the return of charter member Campbell University. Kallander's long range vision has also included technological advancements, as the conference introduced its first live video streaming event in 2005 and has since expanded its video offerings to more than 900 annually through a partnership with the member institutions, as well as the creation of several online and social media platforms.

Under Kallander's leadership, the Big South developed and initiated its first long-range strategic plan, re-affirming the League's vision as a distinctive athletic conference committed to the quality of institutional life through athletic competition. An updated strategic plan was launched in 2015 with the objective to transform the Big South Conference into the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast. The primary areas of focus are basketball success, media exposure, academic centrality, student-athlete experience and messaging/branding.

Since 2000, the Big South has experienced monumental growth and success in nearly every sport. During this time, the conference has had an individual National Champion six times, has had more than 350 All-Americans, has reached the quarterfinals in the FCS Playoffs as well as the "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball and baseball; has received national Top 25 rankings in football, men's soccer, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's outdoor track & field, and men's golf -- including the nation's No. 1 team in football in 2014; had an individual selected to play in the NCAA Singles Championship eight times in addition to the first men's tennis doubles at-large selection; has had women's golf program advance to the national finals three times in five years; had the No. 1 ranked men's golfer in the country; had the nation's top scoring men's basketball team five consecutive years as well as the national men's basketball scoring leader twice; has received three at-large FCS playoff berths since 2006; has had 10 NFL Draft picks; and has had two institutions finish in the top 10 in the NCAA Men's Golf Championships -- including the conference's highest-ever team finish in an NCAA event (fifth in 2007).

In 2006-07, the Big South was the only conference nationwide to have an at-large participant in the football playoffs (Coastal Carolina), a team in the Second Round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (Winthrop) and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Baseball Regionals (Coastal Carolina). In fact, Coastal Carolina's baseball program has been a No.

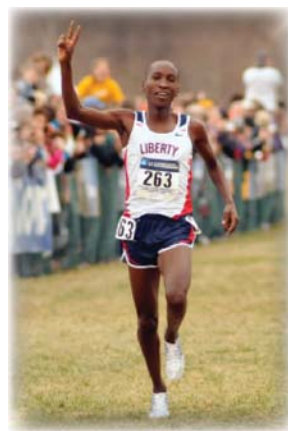

1 seed four times -- including a national seed for the first time in 2010, while the Chanticleers' FCS playoff berth in 2006 came in just the fifth year of the Big South's football existence.

The 2009-10 season saw Liberty's SAM CHELANGA win two NCAA National Championships (cross country, 10,000-meter run); Coastal Carolina's baseball team reach the Super Regionals for the second time in three years as well as being ranked No. 1 in the national RPI and as high as No. 3 in the national polls; and three women's basketball teams reached the post-season for the first time in conference history. In 2010-11, Chelanga won two more NCAA National Championships (cross country, outdoor 5,000-meter run), the Big South had its first automatic bid recipient in football (Coastal Carolina), UNC Asheville reached the Second Round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, Coastal Carolina's women's golf team was the first in conference history to advance to the NCAA Championship out of Regional play, and a league-record 18 baseball players were drafted in the 2011 MLB First-Year Player Draft. In 2011-12, the Big South had a record five individuals selected for the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals -- the most of any Division I conference, as well as a record 42 All-Americans.

In 2012-13, the Big South had two football playoff teams -- and two playoff wins -- for the first time, had a women's basketball team win a postseason game for the first time since 2005, had a league-record four men's basketball teams selected for postseason play, had two men's soccer teams reach the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season, and had two men's and women's golf programs selected for NCAA Regional play. The 2013-14 season produced the league's first FCS playoff quarter-finalist, four postseason wins in men's basketball, the second women's golf team to qualify for nationals, and a conference-record-tying 13 Academic All-Americans. This past season, three football teams were nationally ranked in the same week while another two made the playoffs; a record five men's basketball teams participated in the postseason, two baseball teams competed in the NCAs, and women's golf advanced to nationals.

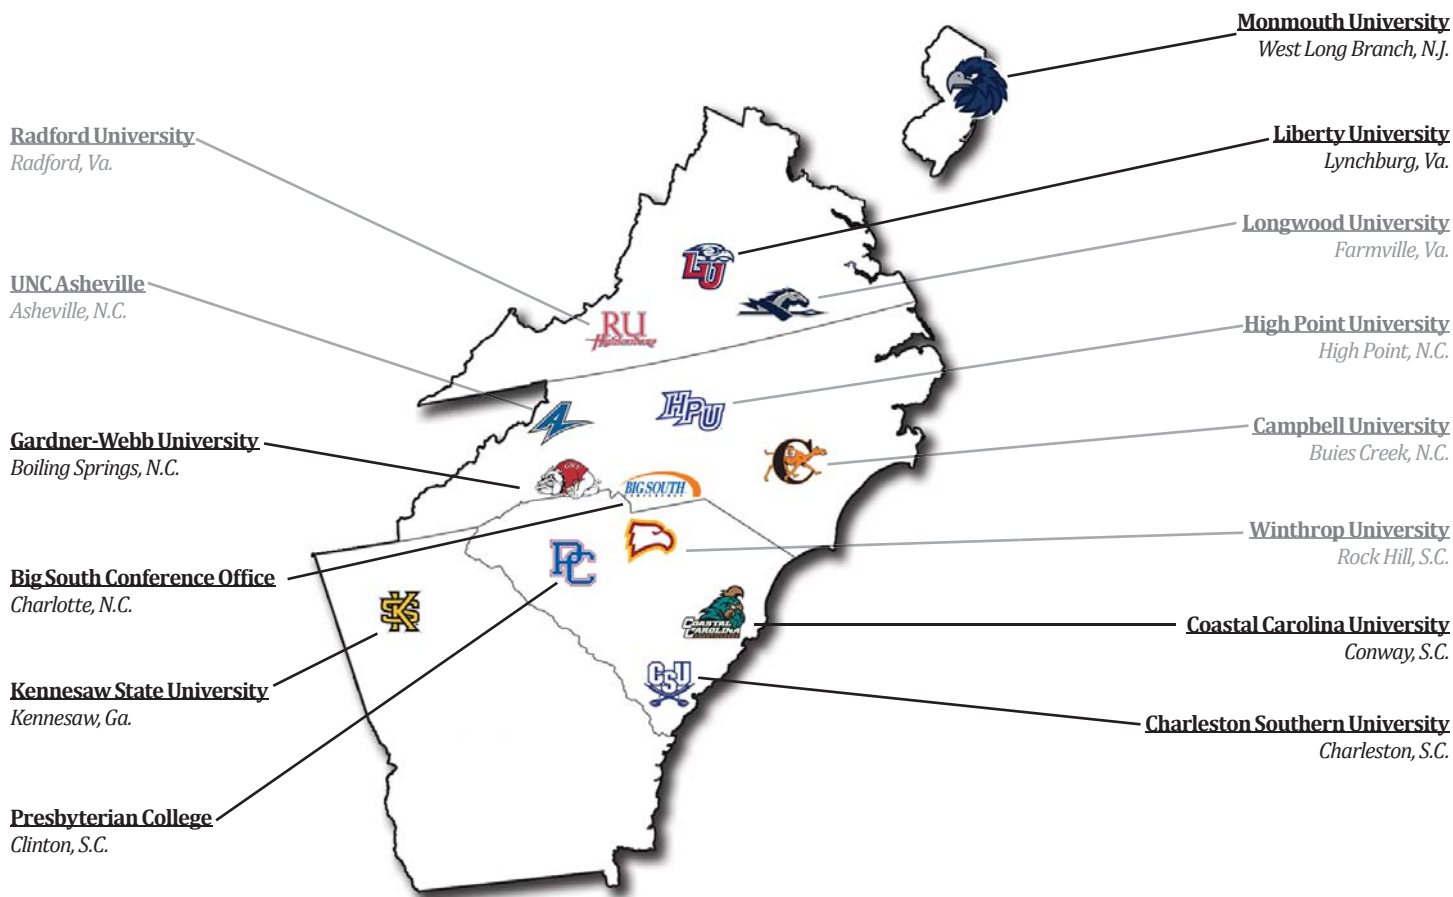

Several former Big South student-athletes have also reached national prominence in recent years. Coastal Carolina's AMBER CAMPBELL made the U.S. Olympic Team in 2008 and 2012, and was one of five former Big South athletes to compete in the 2008 Games; High Point's TAMASKOVACS qualified for the 2012 London Games; all-time men's basketball leading scorer REGGIE WILLIAMS played in the NBA from 2010-14, UNC Asheville's TY WIGGINTON was named an American League All-Star in 2010, and Coastal Carolina's DUSTIN JOHNSON has won nine PGA Tour events since departing the Big South Conference in 2007. Two former Big South baseball players made their major league debuts in 2015 (MATT MARKSBERRY and KEITH HESSLER), while AVERY WARLEY became the third Big South women's basketball player to play in the WNBA four years ago.

The conference's tagline, "Developing Leaders Through Athletics" was unveiled in 2008-09 in conjunction with the conference's 25th Anniversary. The league also honored its heritage with the Top 25 "Best of the Best" moments in its history from 1983-2008, with Liberty's 10-year women's basketball championship run from 1996-2007 being crowned the No. 1 moment. As part of the league's 30th anniversary celebration in 2013-14, All-Decade Teams were recognized for the first time in each sport. The conference's on-field accomplishments have been duplicated in the classroom. For the past six years, nearly 50 percent of conference's student-athletes have been named to the Big South's Presidential Honor Roll for maintaining a 3.0 grade-point average for the academic year, and the league has had more than 130 Academic All-Americans in its history. Furthermore, the Big South has recorded double figure totals in NCAA Public Recognition Awards for APR progress the last six years.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE FOOTBALL HISTORY

The Big South Conference took a big step in its young history in the Fall of 2002 when, for the first time in its 19-year existence, the League crowned a football champion.

Football had always been a long range goal of the Conference. In the early 1990s, football seemed on the horizon in the Big South, as Charleston Southern fielded its first team in 1991 and the Conference added Liberty, which was already playing on the gridiron, as a new member. However, football never got off the ground in the early part of the decade as other issues came to the forefront, including the Big South's emergence as a basketball conference. The League was awarded its first automatic bid to the NCAA men's basketball championship in 1992 and football was put on the back burner while basketball began to flourish.

The idea was revived in 1997 when Elon joined the Big South. That gave the Conference three full-time members with football programs -- half the number needed to be recognized as a Conference by the NCAA. Two years later on Nov. 10, 1999, Coastal Carolina announced it would add football by the Fall of 2003. The wheels were set in motion to establish a Conference home for the League's football-playing members.

After attempts to form a joint football conference with the Atlantic Sun Conference failed, the Big South began recruiting more members to join its fledgling football league. On May 23, 2001, the dream became a reality when the Big South's Council of Chief Executive Officers voted unanimously to add football as the Conference's 18th championship sport. It became the first sport added since 1997 when men's and women's indoor track were incorporated as championship sports.

Shortly after the approval of football, the Big South's recruiting efforts paid off, as the addition of Gardner-Webb University as an associate football member was announced on June 20, 2001. There were hopes that with the addition of the Runnin' Bulldogs, a four-team League could begin play later that Fall, with Coastal Carolina coming into the fold in the 2003 season. However, scheduling conflicts could not be worked out, so the Fall of 2002 was designated as the kickoff to Big South Football. The Big South continued to look for additional members, with a goal of eventually having seven or eight playing members. On Dec. 10, 2001, one of the oldest programs in the state of Virginia -- Virginia Military Institute, announced it would join the Big South in all sports in 2003 and maintain the Conference's football membership at five following Elon's departure.

The growth of Big South football has been exceptional since its inception 14 seasons ago. The formidable years of 2002-05 included great feats -- including the league's first win over the nation's No. 1 team in 2005 -- that set the tone for the future. The Big South's first true breakthrough onto the national landscape occurred in 2006 when league champion Coastal Carolina became the first football member to advance to the postseason when the Chanticleers received an at-large berth in the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

Prior to the 2006 campaign, the League moved one step closer to etching its status as a viable football Conference. First, Coastal Carolina Athletic Director Warren Koegel was appointed to the FCS Football Selection Committee, the Big South's first-ever representative on a national football committee. On April 6, the Big South added Presbyterian College as its sixth football member effective in 2008. On May 26, 2006, the Big South announced that associate football member Gardner-Webb would join the Conference as full members on July 1, 2008, solidifying the Big South's football make-up for years to come. With membership coming together, the Big South took another step closer to becoming eligible for an automatic bid when on March 20, 2007, the Conference announced the addition of Stony Brook University as an associate football member beginning in 2008. All the efforts came to fruition in the spring of 2008 when the NCAA announced the expansion of the FCS Playoffs from 16 to 20 teams beginning in 2010 and granting the Big South an automatic bid starting that year.

That 2006 season also featured two teams (Coastal Carolina and Charleston Southern) ranked in the national Top 25 in the same week for the first time; four appearances on the ESPN family of networks; and the first-ever NFL Draft pick and first finalist for the Walter Payton Award in Coastal Carolina's Tyler Thigpen. Three combined NFL Drafts in 2007 and 2008, plus another nationally-ranked program in 2008 (Liberty) kept the Big South in the national headlines leading up to the anticipated 2010 campaign.

Big South football entered a new stratosphere in 2010 when Coastal Carolina emerged from a three-way tie for first-place to claim the Big South's first-ever automatic bid. Since 2010, the conference's football programs have experienced remarkable and historic achievements, among them:

- The Big South made noise around the country early in 2010 with two wins over FBS opponents ON THE SAME DAY, when Gardner-Webb won in overtime at Akron and Liberty defeated Ball State on the road on Sept. 11.

- Stony Brook was the only FCS team in 2010 to have two 1,000-yard rushers.

- Big South champion Stony Brook rallied from 18 points to defeat Albany for a first round victory in the 2011 FCS playoffs -- the Big South's first postseason football win.

- Stony Brook defeated Army for the League's third FBS win in three years in 2012.

- The Big South had two playoff teams (Coastal Carolina and Stony Brook) -- and two first round playoff wins -- for the first time in history in 2012.

- Stony Brook's Miguel Maysonet was the runner-up for the 2012 Walter Payton National Player of the Year award.

- Coastal Carolina became the first Big South member to advance to the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs in 2013.

- Gardner-Webb became the first team to defeat nationally-ranked non-conference opponents in back-to-back weeks during the 2013 season, while the Big South posted five wins over ranked programs.

- During the 2013 regular-season, three teams cracked the Top 25 polls, with Coastal Carolina and Charleston Southern in the final national rankings.

- A record three players were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft.

- The Big South had three teams ranked in the Top 25 poll IN THE SAME WEEK for the first time in league history on Sept. 22, 2014 (Coastal Carolina, Liberty, Charleston Southern).

- Coastal Carolina became the first team in league history to be ranked No. 1 in the nation in 2014.

- The Big South had two playoff teams (Coastal Carolina and Liberty) -- and two playoff wins -- plus another appearance in the FCS quarterfinals in 2014.

While the trickle-down impact of conference realignment reached the Big South with the departures of Stony Brook (2012) and VMI (2014), the league welcomed Monmouth University as an associate member last season, and returns to seven members this fall with the addition of start-up program Kennesaw State as an associate member.

With its seismic growth and playoff-caliber programs, the Big South is continuing its ascent as a major national competitor in FCS football with a continual eye on capturing the ultimate prize -- a National Championship.

DEC. 23, 2014 – Former Presbyterian College football player Justin Bethel is named to his second consecutive NFL Pro Bowl.

JAN. 12, 2015 – Coastal Carolina football is ranked No. 5 in the final national polls, the highest end-of-year ranking by a Big South football member.

Coupled with Liberty's final No. 17 ranking in both polls, it is the fourth consecutive year two Big South programs appear in the final rankings, and it is the highest final rankings for the Big South in seasons with two teams ranked.

MAY 2, 2015 – Monmouth wide receiver Neal Sterling is drafted in the seventh round (220th overall) of the NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars, becoming the sixth Big South football player drafted in the last three years and 10th overall. Following the draft, a record 10 Big South players were either signed to undrafted free agent deals or invited to rookie mini-camps.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE COMMISSIONER KYLE B. KALLANDER

Kyle B. Kallander is in his 20th year as Big South Conference Commissioner in 2015-16, a tenure that has seen year-to-year growth in marketing and television, an enhanced digital presence as well as unparalleled success on the field and in the classroom.

Kallander's development of a long-term strategic plan, which allows the Big South to position itself as unique amongst its peers, brought football to the Big South as the 18th conference sport in 2002 as well as women's lacrosse in 2012-13. He has embarked on an updated strategy to transform the Big South into the premiere non-FBS conference in the Southeast.

He has solidified membership to double-digit totals for seven consecutive years with the additions of High Point, Gardner-Webb, Presbyterian College and Longwood -- as well as the return of charter member Campbell University in 2011. Kallander's vision includes increases in the League's television exposure for several sports through strong partnerships with regional and national outlets, and the spearheading of video streaming of Big South games and events on the League's website, which began in 2005-06 and continually features more than 900 events annually. This aggressive commitment to digital technology includes HD content and a free-viewing model on the Big South Network.

Kallander has presided over some of the most pivotal events in the League's history both athletically and academically. During his tenure, the Big South:

- Had a Big South member ranked No. 1 in the national polls in 2014 (football);
- Has reached the NCAA "Sweet 16" in men's soccer, women's basketball and baseball;
- Has had six individual National Champions;
- Had its first All-Americans in men's and women's cross country;
- Had a Big South-record 13 student-athletes achieve Academic All-America status in 2003-04 and 2013-14;
- Had an individual reach the round of 32 in the NCAA Men's Singles Championship;
- Has started football and reached the FCS playoffs in five years and eventually gaining an automatic bid to the football postseason;
- Had two teams reach the FCS playoffs in same year twice, and advancing in the playoffs four consecutive years;
- Had a team advance to the FCS quarterfinals twice (2013 and 2014);
- Had its first-ever national finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year;
- Had members defeat the No. 1-ranked football and baseball team in the nation;
- Had its first-ever NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament first round win;
- Had its first-ever berth in the NCAA Baseball Super Regionals;
- Has placed two teams in the NCAA Baseball Regionals eight times;
- Has had a baseball team earn a No. 1 seed and host an NCAA Regional and Super Regional;
- Had its highest-ever team finish in an NCAA event (Coastal Carolina men's golf, fifth in 2007);
- Has had women's basketball, men's soccer, softball, baseball, women's soccer, volleyball and women's lacrosse televised for the first time;
- Has had a softball team reach the Regional Championship game twice;
- Has had a women's golf team advance to the NCAA Championship three times in five years;
- Had a League-record 42 student-athletes earn All-America distinction in 2011-12;
- Saw seven programs receive at-large postseason berths in 2012-13;
- And has utilized live video streaming of conference events to elevate the league's exposure to new audiences via the newly integrated digital platforms

The conference has produced more All-Americans since Kallander took office, while increasing its share of Academic All-Americans and All-District selections. Close to 50 percent of the league's student-athletes have achieved at least a 3.0 grade point average the last six years, while several student-athletes have been recipients of various Postgraduate Scholarships during his timeframe. Kallander has also successfully integrated the conference's profile with the member institutions' general student body, notably through the development of the Big South Academic Consortium, which sponsors the annual Academic College Bowl among league members and the Big South Undergraduate Research Symposium. Furthermore, the Big South began offering one male and one female graduating student-athlete a Graduate Fellowship for postgraduate studies in 2006.

As a testament to his leadership, Kallander continues to secure aggressive television packages through relationships with the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN), American Sports Network (ASN), and ESPN/ESPN2/ESPN3. The partnerships have brought the Big South new and enhanced television exposure for its member institutions and student-athletes, and coupled with the conference's free online channel, the Big South Network, the League's exposure is now seen by a worldwide audience. Kallander successfully negotiated a seven-year TV deal with ESPN through 2019, which has expanded the number of Big South events on ESPN platforms. Under the agreement, an average total of 62 Big South events will air annually on ESPN outlets, including a minimum 50 exclusive events on ESPN3. In addition, ESPN2 will now televise six events per season. At least 417 Conference events will appear on ESPN platforms during the life of the deal.

Named the Big South's third commissioner on June 24, 1996, Kallander formed the Big South Marketing Group (BSMG) upon his arrival, a partnership with member institutions that enables the Conference to develop an integrated marketing strategy and offer comprehensive corporate partnership packages. The Big South Business Group (BSBG) was also created, involving the Chief Financial Officers from each member institution. The BSBG explores ways that members can benefit through working together and with Conference corporate partners. Kallander has overseen a revision of the League's governance structure and has been instrumental in securing record sponsorship revenues in the past decade, and has been innovative in developing and executing a public relations plan for the Big South, which has resulted in increased exposure, both on a regional and national level. On the field, the conference has added four Championship sports under Kallander -- men's and women's indoor track & field, football and women's lacrosse.

Nationally, Kallander has been heavily involved in several organizations and committees. He currently sits on the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and served on the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee -- including Chair for the 2011-12 season. He also previously served on the NCAA/USOC Task Force, which examined the decline of Olympic sports programs at the nation's college and universities, chaired the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee, and served on the NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics.

Kallander came to the Big South after serving as Southwest Conference Commissioner during the 1995-96 season. Under his guidance, the Southwest generated more than $22 million in revenue, an all-time record. Kallander was also directly responsible for negotiating and implementing television agreements with CBS, Raycom and Prime Sports Southwest for the 1995-96 football and basketball seasons. He successfully administered the league's postseason basketball tournaments, which attracted its largest attendance since 1990, and also served as Tournament Director for the 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Region First and Second Round Games in Dallas.

Kallander began his collegiate athletics career at his alma mater, the University of Washington, in 1985, where he served as Director of Advertising & Promotions, as well as Director of Compliance, before joining the Southwest Conference in 1992 as Assistant Commissioner.

Kallander received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Physical Education in 1980, and a Master of Science Degree in Kinesiology in 1982, from Washington. He is married to the former Lisa Dallosto and has two children, Stefan, 25, and Tristan, 22.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE HALL OF FAME

The Big South Conference Hall of Fame was formed as part of the League's 20th anniversary celebration in 2003-04. Each year the Conference will induct up to eight (8) individuals into the Hall of Fame. The Conference Hall of Fame is housed at the League Office in Charlotte, N.C., and features historical timelines, images and artwork of the League's accomplishments and achievements over the years, including All-Americans, Annual Champions and NCAA Championship successes, as well as each enshrinee's plaque.

The inaugural class was inducted in May 2003 and consisted of 11 former student-athletes, coaches and administrators who were integral in the creation, development and early success of the Big South Conference. Inductees are enshrined as part of the League's annual Spring Meetings. The Big South Hall of Fame now boasts 57 members -- including one inducted as a student-athlete and coach. The Hall of Fame did not induct a class in 2009 due to the League's 25th Anniversary celebration during the 2008-09 campaign.

2015 BIG SOUTH PRESEASON FOOTBALL NOTES & INFORMATION

COASTAL CAROLINA PICKED TO WIN IT ALL IN 2015

For the third consecutive season, defending Conference co-champion Coastal Carolina University has been tabbed the favorite in the Big South Conference's annual preseason football poll for the 2015 campaign, as voted by the league's head coaches and media panel. The Chanticleers have won or shared seven Big South titles since the program's first season in 2003. See page 95 for the Big South's preseason poll history.

COASTAL'S ROSS TABBED PRESEASON OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Coastal Carolina redshirt-senior quarterback ALEX ROSS has been voted the Big South's 2015 Preseason Offensive Player of the Year. Ross is the reigning Big South's Offensive Player of the Year and is among the initial 22 candidates for the FCS National Offensive Player of the Year award, which is given to the top player in FCS. He set conference and school single-season records in 2014 for passing yards (3,389), completions (271) and total offense (4,080) while rushing for 691 yards -- second-most in a season by a Big South quarterback -- and had seven games with at least 300 yards of total offense. Ross led the Big South in six offensive categories last season while ranking among the FCS leaders in passing yards (8th, 3,389); total offense (11th, 291.4 ypg); completion percentage (14th, 64.2); points responsible for (18th, 176); yards per passing attempt (20th, 8.03); passing efficiency (20th, 144.0 rating) and passing touchdowns (30th, 20).

GWU'S MAU PICKED AS PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Gardner-Webb senior defensive lineman O.J. MAU, named a 2015 National Defensive Player of the Year candidate and preseason All-American by STATS, is the first defensive lineman since 2007 to be voted Big South Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. He earned postseason All-America honors from Phil Steele (2013) and College Sporting News (2014) over the past two seasons, and was a finalist for the 2014 Buck Buchanan Award as a junior. Mau was the lynchpin for a defense that ranked No. 5 nationally as a sophomore in 2013, and last season posted a career-high 60 total tackles, 10.0 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks from his spot in the middle of the trenches. He forced a career-best two fumbles and had a 27-yard fumble return in the season finale. Mau also blocked a field goal for the first time in his career in 2014. Not surprisingly, 82 percent of Mau's tackles came on run plays in 2014. He had double figures stops in wins over both Wofford and Charlotte and collected a season-best 3.0 tackles for loss in the season opener vs. Furman. He has totaled 20.5 career tackles for loss and burst onto the scene as a first-year starter in 2013.

WELCOME MAT

The Big South Conference welcomes start-up program KENNESAW STATE UNIVERSITY as an associate member in 2015, returning the league to seven football members.

GOOD WORK YOUNG MEN

For the second time in Big South history, two football players have been nominated for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®, as Gardner-Webb's CHAD GETER and Liberty's CHIMA UZOWIHE are among the 197 candidates from every subdivision and classification. The Big South has had one honoree named to the team -- Charleston Southern's JORDAN LANCASTER in 2010.

ROSS, PETERSON NAMED CANDIDATES FOR NATIONAL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARD

For the second consecutive year and third time in Big South history, two players open the season as official candidates for the FCS National Offensive Player of the Year Award, as Coastal Carolina QB ALEX ROSS, who finished seventh in the voting last year, and Liberty WR DARRIN PETERSON are among the initial 22 candidates for the top individual award in FCS. Last season, Ross and Gardner-Webb WR KENNY COOK opened the campaign among the initial candidates. In 2011, Liberty QB MIKE BROWN and Flames' WR CHRIS SUMMERS were the Big South's first preseason duo.

MAU, UZOWIHE NAMED CANDIDATES FOR NATIONAL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARD

For the second consecutive year, the Big South has multiple players among the initial 22 candidates for the FCS National Defensive Player of the Year Award, as Gardner-Webb DL O.J. MAU and Liberty DL CHIMA UZOWIHE are on this year's watch list. The Big South had a record three candidates in 2014.

SEVENTH HEAVEN

The Big South had a record-tying seven players named preseason All-American by STATS LLC, matching the record set in 2014. Liberty led all of FCS with three first-team selections -- OG JONATHAN BURGESS, WR DARRIN PETERSON and PK JOHN LUNSFORD.

RANK AND FILE

The Big South has advanced in the FCS Playoffs four consecutive years -- including its second consecutive quarterfinal appearance in 2014 -- and is 7-8 all-time in the postseason. Six of those victories have been against ranked opponents, and the Big South is 9-10 all-time when a ranked Big South member plays a ranked non-Conference foe -- including 3-2 last season. Meanwhile, the Big South has recorded nine wins over nationally-ranked non-Conference opponents since 2013 (9-8 record in that span).

BIG SOUTH'S RECENT PLAYOFF RUN

The Big South has had two teams earn at-large berths to the FCS Playoffs in the last three years (Stony Brook in 2012, Coastal Carolina in 2014). Coastal Carolina has captured three automatic bids in the Big South's first five years of having an AQ, with the other two going to Stony Brook (2011) and Liberty (2014). The Chanticleers hosted a playoff game for the third time in 2014 (previous were 2010 and 2013) and the Big South is 5-2 in first round games -- including 3-1 at home.

7-UP

Having shared the 2014 Big South football championship, Coastal Carolina and Liberty are the only Big South programs to win/share seven titles in League history. The Chanticleers' seven rings have occurred in 2004, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2012, 2013 and 2014, while the Flames' seven have come in the last eight years -- 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR THIS ONE

The highly-anticipated Coastal Carolina at Liberty season finale on Nov. 21 has been moved to Thursday night, Nov. 19, at 7:00pm and will be televised live on ESPNEWS. It will be the first time a conference game will air on one of ESPN's linear networks, as well as the first league contest to be played on Thursday night. The teams will meet the final weekend for the second consecutive year, and the series is tied, 6-6, and the winner of the match-up has won or shared the Big South football Championship 10 times. The Chanticleers won three-straight over Liberty from 2004-06 en route to three consecutive titles (two outright, one shared). The Flames were victorious from 2007-09 while winning three-straight Big South crowns (two outright, one shared). Liberty won last season's meeting and both teams shared the title in 2014, as well as 2010, 2012 and 2013.

BIG SOUTH SETS RECORD FOR MOST FCS WINS FOR SECOND-STRAIGHT YEAR

One year after posting an all-time league best 18-10 mark against FCS opponents in 2013 -- including 16 regular-season victories, the Big South eclipsed that standard with a record-setting 24-7 performance in 2014 with 22 regular-season wins. In addition, the Big South won 11 of its 24 FCS games on the road last season -- also setting a league record. The previous best was eight in 2013. Big South members were 3-2 against the Colonial and 7-2 against the SoCon in 2014.

LIBERTY BECOMES SECOND BIG SOUTH MEMBER TO DEFEAT NATION'S NO. 1

Liberty's 15-14 win at No. 1/2 Coastal Carolina in the 2014 season finale marked the second time in Big South history that a League member defeated the No. 1 ranked team in FCS. Coastal was the first in 2005 when the Chanticleers defeated No. 1 James Madison, 31-27, on Sept. 10. Liberty has defeated a ranked Big South member four consecutive years, while a Big South program has knocked off a nationally-ranked conference counterpart at least once in the past nine seasons.

PULLING RANK

Liberty defeated three nationally-ranked opponents in 2014, tying the Big South single-season record. It was the second consecutive year that a Big South member achieved the feat, and the Flames were the third league team with the accomplishment since 2013, joining Gardner-Webb and Coastal Carolina. Liberty defeated No. 25 Bryant and No. 1/2 Coastal Carolina, then toppled No. 15/15 James Madison in the postseason. The Flames faced a total of five ranked teams last season, and lost its other two contests by just seven points each.

POLL POSITION

Last season, the Big South had two teams ranked in the final Top 25 national polls for the fourth consecutive year and fifth time overall in League history. Coastal Carolina was ranked No. 5 in both the final Sports Network poll and FCS Coaches ranking. Liberty was No. 17 in both final polls.

COASTAL TIES BIG SOUTH SINGLE-SEASON WIN RECORD

Coastal Carolina tied its Big South single-season record with 12 wins last season, becoming the first league member with two 12-win campaigns and first to win 10 games in a season three times. The Chanticleers became the first Big South program to win 11 regular-season contests last year as well.

2015 PRESEASON FOOTBALL NOTES & INFORMATION

BIG SOUTH CONTINUES PRESEASON TREND OF RANKED TEAMS

For the first time in league history, the Big South has two teams ranked in the pre-season Top 25 polls, as Coastal Carolina is No. 5/5 (FCS Coaches / STATS), while Liberty is No. 14/15. The Chants' season-opening rank is the highest in league history, and marks the sixth consecutive year that a Big South member has opened the season as a nationally-ranked program.

SPEAKING OF NATIONAL RANKINGS

The Big South has had a football squad nationally-ranked for 51 consecutive weeks, dating back to Week 9 of the 2011 campaign (Oct. 24). The league had two teams ranked at the same time six times in 2014, including the final polls. In fact, all six Big South football members were either ranked or received votes in one or both national polls at some point in 2014 -- a league first. Coastal Carolina spent two weeks (Nov. 10-22) as the nation's No. 1 ranked team in the FCS Coaches poll -- the first time in the conference's history that any athletic program received a No. 1 national poll ranking. The Big South's all-time week-by-week rankings appear on pages 134-136.

CRAZY EIGHTS

For the second consecutive year in 2014, three Big South programs won eight games in the same season, as Coastal Carolina (12), Liberty (9) and Charleston Southern (8) turned in the trifecta. Five of the six Big South members finished with winning records last year -- the most teams to finish above .500 in the same campaign. The previous best was four in 2006, 2009 and 2013.

BIG SOUTH'S SEASON-ENDING TRADITION COMES TO AN END

For the first time in Big South history, a league member did not end the season with at least a four-game win streak. The previous streaks were: 2002 - Gardner-Webb (8); 2003 - Liberty (4); 2004 - Coastal Carolina (8) and Liberty (4); 2005 - Charleston Southern (5); 2006 - Coastal Carolina (8); 2007 - Liberty (5); 2008 - Charleston Southern (4); 2009 - Charleston Southern (4); 2010 - Coastal Carolina (4); 2011 - Stony Brook (8); 2012 - Coastal Carolina (5); 2013 - Liberty (5).

HIGH RATE OF RETURN

Coastal is 25-1 in its last 26 games when rushing for more than 200 yards, including 9-0 last season. The Chanticleers have rushed for more than 200 yards 70 times in their history, and are 65-5 (=92.9) when reaching the 200-yard plateau. Coastal Carolina has rushed for 200-plus yards in 27 of Head Coach JOE MOGLIA's 42 games as CCU's head coach, posting a 26-1 record in such games.

CUP OF JOE

Coastal Carolina fourth-year head coach JOE MOGLIA is the first head coach in Big South history with four playoff wins. He has won 32 of his first 42 games leading the Chanticleers -- the most wins by a head coach in his first three years in the Big South. The previous record was 25 victories established by former CCU leader DAVID BENNETT in his first three seasons in the Big South from 2003-05 (25-8).

CHAMPIONSHIPS ARE WON IN NOVEMBER

Seven-time Big South football champion Coastal Carolina is 30-9 (=76.9) in its history in regular-season games in November. In fact, the Chanticleers are the only Big South member to win a game in November every season since 2003. In addition, seven-time champ Liberty is 31-10 (=75.6 percent) since 2002 during the month of November.

POINT OF ORDER

Liberty owns the Big South record for most consecutive games with a point scored at 111, while the second-longest active streak belongs to Coastal Carolina (45). Meanwhile, Liberty is the Big South's active leader for most consecutive games scoring in double figures at 55, breaking its old mark of 45 (Sept. 23, 2006 - Sept. 18, 2010).

DOUBLED UP

Liberty owns the conference record for most consecutive Big South games scoring in double figures at 51. Meanwhile, the Flames have scored in all 63 of their League games since 2002. Presbyterian College has also never been shut out in a Big South contest (34 games).

TOO LEGIT TO BRITT

Presbyterian College CB ED BRITT is the only player in Big South history with return touchdowns of an interception, fumble and blocked field goal -- all of which occurred last season. He had a 15-yard fumble return TD in Week 2 vs. Bluefield, followed by a 25-yard pick-six in Week 6 against Western Carolina. Britt's third return touchdown of the season was in Week 12 at Gardner-Webb when he scooped up DaRON DICKEY's blocked field goal and raced 80 yards for a score. It was the second-longest such return in League history.

HENDERSON HOPPING THROUGH BIG SOUTH RECORD BOOK

Coastal Carolina RB DE'ANGELO HENDERSON needs 867 rushing yards to become the fifth player in Big South history with 3,000 in a career. He is also four rushing TDs away from 30, which would make him the fifth on that list as well. Once Henderson hits 3,000 career rushing yards and 30 career rushing touchdowns, he would be just the third player to achieve this feat. The other two are Big South all-time leading rusher MIGUEL MAYSONET (4,725 yards, 48 TD) and RASHAD JENNINGS (3,633 yards, 42 TD).

PASSING GRADES

Liberty QB JOSH WOODRUM is 2,275 passing yards away from breaking the Big South career record of 9,768, which was established by Charleston Southern's COLLIN DRAFTS from 2003-06. Woodrum is currently third all-time with 7,494, and needs 682 yards to surpass Gardner-Webb's LUCAS BEATTY for second. Beatty had 8,175 yards from 2011-14. Coastal Carolina QB ALEX ROSS is lurking as well, as he is fifth in league history with 6,909 career passing yards, just 2,859 yards from catching Drafts.

OFFENSIVE JUGGERNAUTS

After becoming the first player in Big South history with 4,000 yards of offense in a season with 4,080 in 2014, Coastal Carolina QB ALEX ROSS needs 2,308 yards this year to become the Big South's all-time leader. The current career mark is 10,571, set by Charleston Southern's COLLIN DRAFTS from 2003-06. Ross, who is second only to Drafts in yardage, is 1,736 yards away from joining Drafts in the 10,000-yard club. Meanwhile, Liberty QB JOSH WOODRUM is lurking as well, as he is fifth in league history with 7,899 career offensive yards, just 2,101 away from 10,000 and 2,672 from catching Drafts.

CATCH ME IF YOU CAN

Liberty WR DARRIN PETERSON is on pace to become the Big South's all-time leading receiver by seasons end. He enters 2015 in 11th-place with 147 career receptions -- 76 away from the record of 223 set by Gardner-Webb's JAMES PERRY III from 2008-11. Peterson is 53 catches shy of becoming just the third Big South player with 200. Meanwhile, Peterson needs just 457 receiving yards to break the Big South record of 2,720, which is held by Coastal Carolina's JEROME SIMPSON.

PITCH-AND-CATCH COMBO

Monmouth RB LAVON CHANEY became the first non-quarterback in Big South history to throw two touchdown passes in a game in Week 7 against Columbia. Chaney's first TD pass was to Hawks QB BRANDON HILL -- who became the first Big South QB with a TD reception since Liberty's KYLE PAINTER in 2002, and the second overall.

BIG MEN ON CAMPUS

The seven Big South Conference football members have a total of 33 players on its collective rosters weighing at least 300 lbs. Liberty has the most with 10, followed by Presbyterian College with six. Last season, the Big South had 39 players at the 300-pound threshold.

THE TALL AND SHORT OF IT

Charleston Southern TE NATHAN PRATER and Monmouth TE SHAWN CLARK are the tallest players in the Big South this season at 6-8. Gardner-Webb OL MADISON O'CONNOR is the heaviest player at 356 lbs.

On the lighter side, the shortest player stands at 5-4 -- Kennesaw State RB CHE DARIOUS ROBINSON. Coastal Carolina WR GARY BRADSHAW weighs the least at 145 pounds. Below is a team-by-team look at all four categories:

COASTAL CAROLINA - THE BIG SOUTH'S FIRST PLAYOFF TEAM

The 2006 season set another new standard for the Big South Conference and the Coastal Carolina football program. However by the end, the Chanticleers had made more than just history in just their fourth year of play and the Conference's fifth season of football.

Ranked in the top 25 of all three major national polls, Coastal Carolina opened the season against Southern Conference foe Elon for the second straight year, though this time at home. The Chanticleers carried a 12-game home win streak into the contest but a slow start to the year ensued, as Coastal Carolina dropped the opener, 23-20 to the Phoenix.

The second of three consecutive SoCon opponents was next, as Coastal Carolina made its first-ever trip to Spartanburg to take on Wofford. A big third quarter rally sparked the Chants and a touchdown in the final minute of play gave Coastal Carolina a dramatic 41-38 victory over the Terriers.

Back on the road for the second straight week, Coastal Carolina traveled to No. 24 Georgia Southern for a televised night contest. The Eagles came into the contest off a loss and inspired by the passing of their former legendary coach Erk Russell, and handed the visiting Chanticleers the 38-21 defeat.

The Chants rebounded with solid performances in wins over in-state rival South Carolina State and at Winston-Salem State. The wins got Coastal Carolina back above .500 at 3-2, setting up another classic at Brooks Stadium.

No. 3 Furman was next welcomed to Conway, and both teams arrived for a battle. The game went back and forth, with Furman taking the lead 27-21 on a fourth-quarter touchdown. However, the point after attempt was blocked and returned by the Chanticleers for two points to cut the margin to 27-23. Coastal Carolina then marched the football down the field for the game-winning score and held on for a 29-27 win.

Moving back into the top 25, the Chanticleers had a pair of challenges to open Big South Conference play. A last minute drive gave Coastal Carolina a 31-27 win at VMI, followed by another fourth-quarter comeback in a 28-26 victory over Liberty.

Coastal Carolina handled Savannah State for Homecoming to move to 7-2 on the year heading into the final two League contests. Gardner-Webb was next on the schedule, and the Chants were up to the task, handling the host Bulldogs for a 52-24 win on Big South TV.

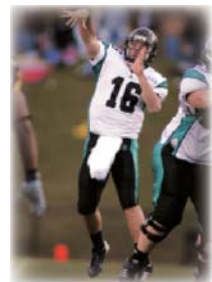

The "Battle of the Beach" wrapped up the regular season, as Charleston Southern looked to play the spoiler again for Coastal Carolina's bid for the playoffs. However this time, the Chants made it count down the stretch, posting a 31-17 win to run their record to 9-2.

When the bids came out for the 16-team NCAA Division I Football Championship, Coastal Carolina and the Big South Conference heard their name called, making the Chanticleers the third-fastest team in FCS history to qualify for the playoffs. However, the challenge was daunting for the upstarts, as defending National Champion Appalachian State would play host to the No. 13-ranked Chants for the first round.

Similar to their meeting in 2005, the Mountaineers jumped on top early in the first half to a 31-0 halftime lead. Coastal Carolina battled back and eventually scored more points than any ASU opponent in 2006, but fell short in a 45-28 loss.

Coastal Carolina set 11 Big South Conference records during the 2006 season, and had 12 players earn All-Big South honors, including Offensive Player of the Year TYLER THIGPEN. The Chanticleers also had seven players honored on All-American squads, again led by Thigpen on the Associated Press' First Team. Graduating 36 senior letterwinners, the final recognition came from the NFL, as Thigpen became the first player ever drafted from the Big South Conference. The 2006 Coastal Carolina Chanticleers produced three more NFL players in QUINTON TEAL (signed by Carolina in 2007), JEROME SIMPSON (drafted by Cincinnati in 2008) and MIKE TOLBERT (signed by San Diego in 2008).

In addition, Coastal Carolina's 2006 football season was voted one of the Big South Conference's 25 "Best of the Best Moments" as part of the League's 25th Anniversary celebration in 2008-09.
