As part of the Big South's 30th Anniversary celebration in 2013-14, the Conference announced its first-ever All-Decade Teams to recognize the student-athletes and coaches who excelled in their respective sport since the Conference's founding in 1983. A committee of Big South Conference administrators served as the official voting panel to determine the All-Decade Teams, with fan voting comprising 20 percent of the overall total. Baseball All-Decade Team candidates were determined based on being at least one of the following: 1) Was a multiple All-Conference honoree at one or more position; 2) Was named an All-American; 3) Is a member of the Big South Conference Hall of Fame; 4) Student-athletes must have been a college graduate or left their respective institution in good academic standing; 5) Won a Conference Championship as a coach and/or was voted Conference Coach of the Year; and 6) Every All-Conference honoree and Tournament MVP from 1986-89 was included in the candidate pool for the 1986-89 All-Decade Team. Candidates that participated in two different decades were placed in a specific decade based on consultation from member institutions. Candidates were also listed under their primary position during their careers. Member institutions had final determination in regards to inclusion of student-athletes and coaches.. The next Baseball All-Decade Team will cover 2020-29.

To be ranked, players must have appeared in 75% of team's games, have 2.5 AB per team game to qualify for the hitting leaders and 1.0 IP per team game to qualify for the pitching leaders.

Because the 2020 season was not close to completion when canceled on March 18 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, individual annual leaders are not included among the records.
