BROWN ATHLETICS
2015-16 ANNUAL REPORT
WINS OVER NO. 1 TEAMS

Brown University athletic teams rose to the highest of challenges multiple times this past year, defeating No. 1 ranked teams on three different occasions in 2015-16.

NO. 4 MEN’S LACROSSE BEATS NO. 1 YALE, 14-12:
In front of the largest crowd ever (3,450 fans) at Stevenson-Pincince Field, the Bears knocked off the previously undefeated Bulldogs. Dylan Molloy ’17 scored five goals and Brendan Caputo ’16 (pictured at top left) added a goal and two assists to give Brown its first-ever win over a top-ranked opponent.

NO. 3 WOMEN’S CREW DEFEATS NO. 1 OHIO STATE:
The Bears defeated the three-time defending NCAA Champion Buckeyes in their opening race of the 2016 spring season. Brown claimed first-place finishes in the first varsity eight, second varsity eight, varsity four, and third varsity eight against both Ohio State and No. 11 Princeton on the Tigers’ home course on Lake Carnegie.

MEN’S ICE HOCKEY TOPS NO. 1 PROVIDENCE, 4-3 (OT):
Playing against the defending NCAA Champions, the Bears topped the Friars in overtime in the Mayor’s Cup finale at Meehan Auditorium. Tommy Marchin ’19 (pictured, No. 26) scored the game-winning goal at the 2:30 mark of the overtime period as Brown earned its first win over a No. 1 team since the 2012-13 season.
Dear Friends of Brown Athletics:

Welcome to the 2015-16 Brown Athletics Annual Report. We are proud to share with you the outstanding accomplishments of our student-athletes, coaches and alumni that took place throughout the past year.

We are extremely grateful to our graduating student-athletes. The members of the Class of 2016 have been outstanding representatives of the athletics program and the University over the course of their careers. This group of men and women include All-Americans, Academic All-Americans, an Ivy League all-time record holder, and All-Conference honorees. Many of these individuals are now listed throughout the Brown record books in their respective sports.

The year was highlighted by the men’s lacrosse team’s second consecutive Ivy League Championship and its run to the NCAA Final Four, the women’s crew team’s 20th consecutive trip to the NCAA Championship, the gymnastics team’s third Ivy Classic title in the past four years, the football team’s win in the 100th annual Governor’s Cup game, and wins over the No. 1 ranked team in the country in three different sports (see opposite page). Dylan Molloy ’17 was named the National Player of the Year in men’s lacrosse, while Cedric Kuakumensah ’16 finished his career as the Ivy League record holder with 311 career blocked shots.

Several of our accomplished alumni represented Brown in the 2016 Rio Olympics, including former women’s crew standout, Tessa Gobbo ’13, who captured a gold medal with the U.S. Women’s Eight.

The past year also marked the end of Phil Pincince’s outstanding coaching career. Coach Pincince led the women’s soccer program for 39 years and served as the head softball coach for 14 years. Between the two sports, he captured 15 Ivy League Championships, coached nine All-Americans, and seven Ivy League Players of the Year. We are grateful for all of his contributions to our athletics program.

I want to thank President Christina Paxson for her leadership to the entire Brown Community. Whether on the sidelines or in the stands at games, or meeting with student-athletes, President Paxson continues to provide outstanding support for Brown Athletics.

The 2016-17 academic year is underway and there is much excitement, anticipation and momentum. Many of those student-athletes who have been recognized for their excellence this past year were underclassmen, and we are excited to see them return to action.

We look forward to seeing you throughout the 2016-17 academic year.

Ever True,

Jack Hayes

FALL HIGHLIGHTS

Brown football and head coach Phil Estes (pictured at top) captured the 100th Governor’s Cup game behind a 41-31 win over Rhode Island with Governor Gina Raimondo on hand to present the cup.

Natalie Schudrowitz ’18 (pictured) qualified for the 2015 NCAA Cross Country Championships and earned All-America honors as she placed 23rd out of a field of 254 runners.

In its second season as a varsity program, Brown women’s rugby hosted the inaugural NCWVRA National Championship. The Bears (pictured) advanced to the quarterfinals of the first edition of the tournament.

Men’s water polo (pictured at bottom) won its second straight CWPA Northern Division Tournament title with a 14-13 win over Harvard in sudden death overtime.
WINTER HIGHLIGHTS

Nick Lappin ’16 (pictured at top) and Mark Naclerio ’16 each eclipsed the 100-point mark for their careers as Bears and helped the men’s ice hockey team earn a win and tie at the inaugural Friendship Four Tournament in Belfast, Northern Ireland.

Brown gymnastics (pictured) set a program record for team score as the Bears notched a 195.175 in its preliminary session at the USA Gymnastics Collegiate National Championships, advancing to team finals for the second time in school history.

For the second straight year, Brown hosted a “Beauty and the Beast” meet with the Bears’ wrestling and gymnastics teams competing alongside one another before an enthralled audience at the Pizzitola Sports Center. (pictured)

SPRING HIGHLIGHTS

Faceoff specialist Will Gural ’16 (pictured at top left) and the men’s lacrosse team enjoyed a banner year in 2016, setting a school record for wins in a season (16), winning an outright Ivy League title, and advancing to the NCAA National Semifinals for the second time ever and for the first time since 1994.

After striking out 90 batters over 86 innings in his final two seasons, Austin French ’16 (pictured) earned a shot at the big leagues as the Los Angeles Dodgers selected him in the 27th round, 821st overall in the 2016 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft.

Brown men’s crew’s (pictured) first varsity eight earned a bronze medal at the Eastern Sprints and finished in sixth place going up against the nation’s best at the IRA National Championships.

Brown women’s crew won the team points trophy at the Ivy League Championship for the third straight year and qualified for the NCAA Championships for the 20th straight season as one of three programs to compete in all 20 NCAA Championships. (pictured at bottom)

COACHES AWARDS

Kathy Flores
Rugby
U.S. Rugby Hall of Fame

Kathy Flores earned induction into the U.S. Rugby Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2016 this past spring. Flores, Brown's only head coach since the Bears began varsity play in 2014-15, won four national titles at Florida State and also played and coached for the U.S. Rugby Women's National Team.

Michael LeBlanc
Skiing
ECSC MacConnell Coach of the Year

Michael LeBlanc took home the 2016 USCSA ECSC MacConnell Division Coach of the Year award through a vote of his peers. LeBlanc led the Bears to a second-place finish at the USCSA National Championships, matching the best overall finish in program history.

Mike Martin ’04
Men’s Basketball
New England Basketball Hall of Fame

Mike Martin ’04 gained a spot in the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in August 2015 as a standout player at Brown from 2000-04 and as a rising young coach for the Bears since the 2012-13 season. Martin went into the Hall of Fame along with his father, grandfather, uncle, and two cousins.

Lars Tiffany ’90
Men’s Lacrosse
Ivy League Coach of the Year & New England Coach of the Year

Lars Tiffany ’90 garnered recognition as the 2016 Ivy League Coach of the Year and the 2016 New England Coach of the Year. Tiffany helped the Bears set a school record for wins in a season (16), win an outright Ivy League title, and capture a berth in the NCAA National Semifinals for the first time since 1994.
Alli Rolandelli, a defender on the women’s hockey team, dedicated herself to her team and the community throughout her four years.

On the ice, Rolandelli was a two-time captain and a three-time recipient of the program’s Greatest Teammate Award. After the 2015-16 season, the award was renamed in Rolandelli’s honor.

Off the ice, Rolandelli was a finalist for the 2016 Hockey Humanitarian Award, for her primary involvement with the Love Your Melon Foundation. Rolandelli brought Love Your Melon to Brown in May of 2015 when she started the University’s Campus Crew, which has raised over $6,500 for the organization.

Originally, the NCAA would not allow student-athletes to participate in Love Your Melon due to rules banning student-athletes from selling commercial products. Rolandelli worked with the compliance office at Brown to allow all student-athletes the right to participate with the organization, thus increasing college involvement with the group.

In addition, Rolandelli volunteered weekly for the past four years at the Vartan Gregorian Elementary School in a first grade classroom and assisted at numerous youth hockey programs in various capacities.

At the conclusion of the season, Rolandelli received the 2016 Sarah Devens Award, a joint award between the ECAC and the Hockey East for demonstration of leadership and commitment both on and off the ice.

To close out her time on College Hill, Rolandelli received Brown’s Bessie H. Rudd Award, for the promotion of women’s sports during the year while showing enthusiasm, spirit and leadership.

Rolandelli concentrated in Health and Human Biology and will pursue dentistry as a career.

A diver on the men’s swimming & diving team, Sazzy Gourley is the epitome of a student-athlete at Brown with values on campus, with the community and in the pool.

Serving as the Undergraduate Council of Students (UCS) Vice President as a junior and then as the UCS President as a senior, Gourley worked tremendously with the Brown student body, collaborating with fellow student leaders to institute multiple policies and plans intended on improving the quality of life for all students at the University. Gourley co-wrote a resolution on Brown’s Mental Health resources, which led to the hiring of three new staff members, bringing more support to students.

In his four years on College Hill, Gourley served as a student representative in nine Brown-wide committees while also partaking in diverse humanitarian activities. He acted in an essential role in helping to promote diversity and inclusion on campus and to provide support to students in financial need.

An American Studies concentrator with a 4.0 GPA, Gourley was one of 27 Brown students awarded the Fulbright Scholarship. He will spend the next year teaching English at a secondary school in South Korea.

In the pool, Gourley scored in every Ivy League Championship over his four years. He and his fellow diving teammates produced the third-most points this season in the conference. At Brown’s Senior Celebration, Gourley was recognized with Brown’s Cliff Stevenson Award for boundless enthusiasm, indomitable spirit and devotion to the quality of life at the University and the community.
The Nation’s Leader in NCAA APR

Brown University ranked first among all NCAA Division I schools in academic achievement in 2015-16, earning 21 NCAA APR Public Recognition Awards – the most of any program in the nation. Brown’s 21 teams, based on their most recent multi-year Academic Progress Rate, earned the awards for posting scores in the top 10 percent of their sport. The APR is an annual scorecard of academic achievement calculated for all Division I sports teams nationally.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Serving the community stands as an integral part of the student-athlete experience at Brown, and each year hundreds of student-athletes and dozens of coaches spend time working towards this central part of the mission of the University. From SAAC’s inaugural “Tug for a Cure” event to football’s annual “Be The Match” registry drive to multiple teams’ visits to The Wolf School, Brown student-athletes are working to make the Providence community – and beyond – a better one.

Brown athletics and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee partnered to host the inaugural “Tug for a Cure” in which Bear teams competed in a tug-of-war competition to raise money for the Brown University Oncology Group (BrUOG). (pictured top left)

As part of women’s basketball’s “What I Want to be Day,” Brown hosted over 1,500 local elementary and middle school students for the Bears’ game vs. Rhode Island College. Prior to the game, the students listened to presentations from a variety of professionals, including EMS personnel and a police K-9 unit. (pictured middle left)

Senior Celebration and Awards Luncheon
Brown athletics held its eighth annual Senior Celebration and Awards Luncheon at the Providence Biltmore on Monday, May 23, 2016. Over 275 student-athletes, coaches, staff and distinguished guests attended the event to celebrate another year of success in competition, in the classroom and in the community. President Christina Paxson and Director of Athletics Jack Hayes each took the opportunity to address the room and acknowledge the accomplishments and contributions of the Class of 2016.
In its third year of operation, Brown's channel on the Ivy League Digital Network continued to make improvements to its offerings, particularly in the area of multi-camera broadcasts. In 2015-16 as part of its more than 135 live broadcasts, Brown athletics produced over 65 multi-camera broadcasts, more than doubling its output from the previous years. The Bears simulcast nine of their ILDN-produced broadcasts on ESPN3, giving multiple Brown teams exposure on a national platform.

Brown also produced over 50 highlights packages and features. Some of the Bears’ video feature subjects included the retirement of 39-year head women’s soccer coach Phil Pincince, Cedric Kuakumensah’s ‘16 setting of the Ivy League men’s basketball blocks record, Brown women’s basketball’s partnership with the Brown University Oncology Group, and the Bears’ kickoff event at the Vartan Gregorian Elementary School.

Clad in their Henley blazers, Brown women’s crew (pictured at bottom) became the first program to send its entire squad to the Henley Women’s Regatta with 38 student-athletes competing during the Bears’ trip to England during the summer of 2015. Select student-athletes remained in the UK to compete at the Henley Royal Regatta.
Brown won its first outright Ivy League Championship since 1994, completing an undefeated Ivy season with a 6-0 mark – the fourth undefeated league season in program history.

The Bears hosted their first NCAA tournament home game since 1995 when Brown beat Johns Hopkins, 17-8, before a sold out crowd of 3,200 at Stevenson-Pincince Field in the first round.

Making its second ever appearance in the NCAA National Semifinals in program history, Brown fell to No. 1 seed Maryland, 15-14, in overtime before a crowd of 33,137 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia, Pa.
PHYSICAL EDUCATION, RECREATION, AND CLUB SPORTS

Brown University recreation caters to individuals of all interests and abilities. Brown’s qualified staff is committed to enhancing the physical, mental, and emotional development and wellness of members of the Brown community.

The recreation department offers a variety of activities in the form of fitness, intramural programs, and club sports. Over 35 group fitness classes are offered per week in the areas of aerobics, fitness, and mind/body. The group fitness programs average over 2,700 participants per year. Brown’s 25 intramural programs provide a multitude of team, dual, individual, and special event activities to over 3,500 registered participants within the Brown community. The 33 club sports teams service over 835 student-athletes, striving for an organized, structured, and competitive environment on campus.

Men’s Basketball
March 14, 2016

From SI: “Kuakumensah, a 6’9” power forward at Brown, blocked the 253rd shot of his career, against Georgetown, to become the Ivy League’s all-time leader (since extended to 311). Averaging 14.0 points and 9.6 boards this year, the three-time captain holds the league record for blocks in a season (93) and is a two-time league defensive player of the year.”

Dylan Molloy ’17
Men’s Lacrosse
July 4-11, 2016

From SI: “Molloy, a rising senior attackman at Brown and the nation’s leading scorer with 247 career points, carried the Bears to a school-record 16 wins and their first NCAA Final Four appearance since 1994. He led the country with 116 points, 54 assists and 6.44 points per game, and he won the Tewaaraton Award, college lacrosse’s highest honor.”

WINS OVER NO. 1 TEAMS

Brown University athletic teams rose to the highest of challenges multiple times this past year, defeating No. 1 ranked teams on three different occasions in 2015-16.

NO. 4 MEN’S LACROSSE BEATS NO. 1 YALE, 14-12:
In front of the largest crowd ever (3,450 fans) at Stevenson-Pincince Field, the Bears knocked off the previously undefeated Bulldogs. Dylan Molloy ’17 scored five goals and Brendan Caputo ’16 (pictured at top left) added a goal and two assists to give Brown its first-ever win over a top-ranked opponent.

NO. 3 WOMEN’S CREW DEFEATS NO. 1 OHIO STATE:
The Bears defeated the three-time defending NCAA Champion Buckeyes in their opening race of the 2016 spring season. Brown claimed first-place finishes in the first varsity eight, second varsity eight, varsity four, and third varsity eight against both Ohio State and No. 11 Princeton on the Tigers’ home course on Lake Carnegie.

MEN’S ICE HOCKEY TOPS NO. 1 PROVIDENCE, 4-3 (OT):
Playing against the defending NCAA Champions, the Bears toppled the Friars in overtime in the Mayor’s Cup finale at Meehan Auditorium. Tommy Marchin ’19 (pictured, No. 26) scored the game-winning goal at the 2:30 mark of the overtime period as Brown earned its first win over a No. 1 team since the 2012-13 season.
