caa football

CAA Football fans thought the league's opening season in 2007 was spectacular in terms of success. Little did they know 2008 would build off the previous season's success, and include the league's fourth National Championship. In 2008 as many as six teams ranked among the national Top-25 during the season, while both James Madison and Richmond had a strangle-hold on the No. 1 spot over the last 11 weeks of the season. CAA Football upped its record of national player of the week honorees by earning 19 last season, compared to 15 accolades in 2007. All of the regular season success carried over into the postseason when, once again, CAA Football equalled its own record by placing five squads in the NCAA Division I Football Championships. Prior to the 2007 season no conference had earned more than four berths in one season, and CAA Football has now done it twice in two seasons.

The CAA Football dominance in the regular season carried over into the postseason as four of its five playoff squads advanced to the quarterfinal round. Both James Madison and Richmond moved on to the final four, marking the ninth time in 12 years a CAA Football squad has competed in the semifinals. Richmond logged a come-from-behind win over Northern Iowa in the semifinals, giving the league its fifth National Final berth in six seasons. The Spiders then went on to dominate Montana in the Championship game, 24-7, to earn the league's first NCAA crown under the CAA Football banner. Richmond's National Championship was also the league's fourth in 10 years and third over the last six seasons. Following the season, the league boasted six Top-25 teams, four Top-10 squads and notched a total of 78 All-America honors.

The quality and depth of CAA Football is unmatched in the FCS. Ten of the league's 12 teams have participated in the NCAA playoffs over the past eight seasons and at least one team has advanced to the national semifinals in nine of the last 12 years.

In 2004, James Madison claimed the national championship with a 31-21 triumph over Montana, becoming the first team to reach the title game by winning three road playoff contests since the field expanded to 16 teams in 1986. Delaware rolled past Colgate 40-0 to capture the national championship in 2003, becoming the first team to ever post a shutout in the title game. No other conference has had two different teams win national titles in back-to-back years. Massachusetts earned a national championship in 1998, beating perennial power Georgia Southern, 55-43.

Along with the team accomplishments, the conference has accumulated numerous individual accolades. Santos (2006), William & Mary quarterback Lang Campbell (2004), Villanova running back Brian Westbrook (2001), Villanova wide receiver Brian Finneran (1997), New Hampshire running back Jerry Azumah (1998) and Towson running back Dave Meggett (1988) all have won the prestigious Walter Payton Award under the league banner. James Madison linebacker Derrick Lloyd received the Buck Buchanan Award in 2001. New Hampshire's Sean McDonnell (2005), James Madison's Mickey Matthews (1999 & 2008), Villanova's Andy Talley (1997) and Boston University's Dan Allen (1993) have earned the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award. Richmond's Mike London (2008), Matthews (2004), Massachusetts' Mark Whipple (1998) and Talley (1997)have garnered the American Football Coaches Association National Coach of the Year honor.

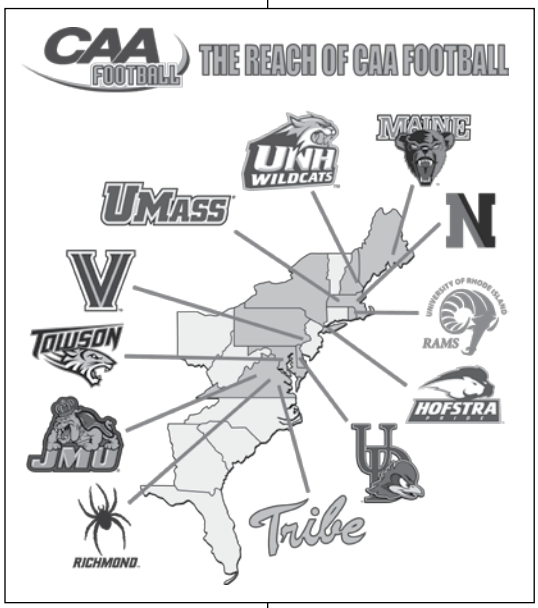
The CAA Football geographic footprint encompasses much of the East Coast with schools located from Maine to Virginia. Members include Delaware, Hofstra, James Madison, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Northeastern, Rhode Island, Richmond, Towson, Villanova and William and Mary. While CAA Football officially began March 1, 2007, its roots date back more than 60 years.



On December 3, 1946, the Code of the Yankee Conference went into effect. Established as an all-sports conference for the New England land grant colleges, the six charter members included Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont. Upon the formation of Division I-AA football in 1978, the league disbanded all sports except football. Delaware and Richmond were admitted to the conference in 1986, Villanova was added in 1988 and James Madison, Northeastern and William and Mary joined the league in 1993.

The Atlantic 10 assumed operation control of the conference from 1997-2006, with Hofstra becoming part of the league in 2001 and Towson joining the group in 2004.

Since 1978, CAA Football members have accumulated 67 playoff berths, 19 Lambert Cups, 88 final top 25 rankings and 44 final top 10 rankings.

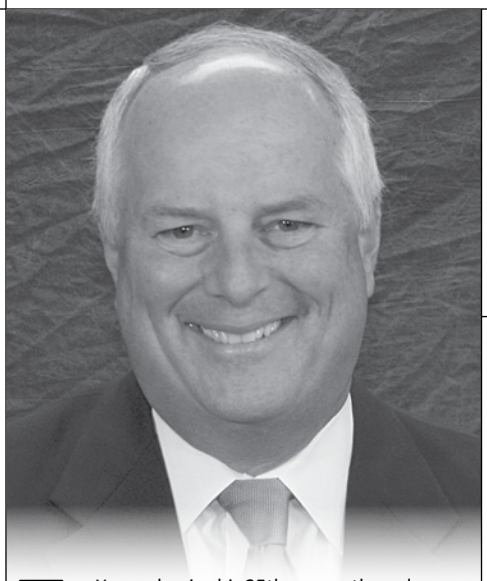
caa football commissioner



Thomas E. Yeager

Commissioner • Springfield (1972)
Third Year • CAA Football
25th Year • Colonial Athletic Association

Tom Yeager begins his 25th year as the only commissioner to lead the Colonial Athletic Association and his third year guiding CAA Football.

Yeager played a vital role in the addition of football to the CAA in 2007, bringing the nation's top FCS conference into a league that has built a reputation as one of the most respected and well-run conferences in Division I. In just a short time at the helm, Yeager negotiated an enhanced television package for the conference which resulted in a significant increase in both the number of CAA Football games televised and the number of homes the games were broadcast to. He also implemented an aggressive marketing and branding campaign to promote the quality of CAA Football along the East Coast and throughout the country. After its record-breaking 2007 Inaugural season, CAA Football was able to boast even-bigger accomplishments.

As many as six CAA Football teams were ranked among the national Top-25 during the season, while James Madison and Richmond had a stranglehold on the No. 1 spot over the last 11 weeks of the season. CAA Football upped its record of national player of the week honorees by earning 19 last season, compared to 15 accolades in 2007. All of the regular season success carried over into the postseason when, once again, CAA Football equalled its own record by placing five squads in the NCAA Division I Football Championships. Prior to the 2007 season no conference had earned more than four berths in one season, and CAA Football has now done it twice in two seasons. Richmond capped off the second year of CAA Football with a dominant 24-7 win over Montana in the NCAA Division I National Championship final, helping earn the league's first NCAA crown under the CAA Football banner and its fourth title in 10 seasons.

The CAA conducts championships in 23 men's and women's sports, with the conference rated among the top 10 nationally in many of them. In 2008-09, the CAA had 28 teams earn NCAA Tournament berths and 45 student-athletes earn All-America honors in 10 different sports.

While his job responsibilities are far reaching, Yeager's major duties include negotiation of championship, sponsorship and television contracts, representing the conference with the NCAA and supervising the 15 members of his staff.

Yeager came to the conference office from the NCAA staff in Kansas City, where he was Director of Legislative Services. He joined the NCAA in 1976, spending five years as an investigator in the enforcement department. In 1981, he was promoted to Assistant Director of Legislative Services and in 1984 to Director.

In addition to his duties with the CAA, Yeager is also actively involved with NCAA affairs. He recently completed a nine-year term -- three years as chair -- on of one of the NCAA's most important committees, the Division I Committee on Infractions, which hears and assesses penalties for violations of NCAA rules. Previously he served as a member of the NCAA Council and chaired the NCAA Interpretations Committee for eight years, in addition to serving on numerous other NCAA committees. Well respected by other commissioners, Yeager is also a former executive vice president of the Collegiate Commissioners Association and is chairing the National Letter of Intent Steering Committee.

In April, 1994, the National Invitation Tournament recognized Yeager's contributions to college basketball by selecting him as the "NIT Man of the Year" joining a prestigious group of past recipients including John Wooden, Bobby Knight and Vic Bubas.

Yeager is a 1972 graduate of Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education (1975). As an undergraduate, he was a member of the gymnastics team; as a graduate student, he was an assistant coach for the squad. After earning his first degree, Yeager worked at the YMCA in Allentown, Pa. He then returned to Springfield as a teaching fellow on the physical education faculty. After receiving his master's degree, he remained at Springfield as the assistant director of athletics for the 1975-76 school year.

Jim Maconaghy

Coordinator of Officials
Third Year • CAA Football
Ninth Year Overall

Jim Maconaghy begins his ninth year serving the conference as its Coordinator of Officials. The Plymouth Hill, Pa., native has been involved in officiating at the Football Championship Subdivision level since 1986 when he was part of the officials bureau for the Ivy and Patriot League as well as the Yankee Conference.

Maconaghy became a full-time official for the Atlantic 10 and Big East Conference in 1996, before coming off the field to serve as the Atlantic 10 Conference's Coordinator of Officials in 2001. He later took over coordinating duties for the both the Ivy League and Patriot League, and moves into the upcoming 2009 season with all three leagues.

Maconaghy, inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2000, was selected as the National Football Foundation's "Collegiate Official of the Year" in 1996. He has worked countless rivalry games during the regular season and been part of Championship game officiating crews including Division I-AA (1989, 1992, 1995) and Division III (1985-86).

During his career, Maconaghy has also had the privilege of officiating the Army vs. Navy game in 1997, the 1999 Eddie Robinson Football Classic (Kansas at Notre Dame) and the 1999 Independence Bowl (Mississippi vs. Oklahoma).

CAA Football Tie-Breaker -- NCAA Automatic Qualifier

The following is the tie-breaker format used to determine the conference's automatic qualifier for NCAA Championship participation.

4.01 The team with the best conference record based on win-loss percentage shall represent the Conference as the NCAA automatic qualifier.

4.02 In the event of a tie within or outside the division, the following tie-breaker formats will be utilized to determine the Conference automatic qualifier.

4.03 Tie Within the Division.

1. Head-to-head competition.
2. Division winning percentage.
3. Record versus the highest-placed teams in the division and proceeding down.
4. Record versus the highest placed common opponents in the opposite division and proceeding down.
5. Number of conference road wins.
6. Coin Toss.

4.04 Two team tie Outside the Division.

1. Head-to-head competition.
2. Combined record versus all common opponents.
3. Number of conference road wins.
4. Coin Toss.

4.05. 3 or more teams tied Outside the Division.

1. Break the divisional tie first under 4.03.

4.06 Tie-Breaker Operating principles.

1. All ties are broken in descending order. When arriving at another set of tied teams while comparing records, use each team's record against the tied teams as a group rather than individually.
2. Once a team has been eliminated at any point, the process reverts back to the beginning with the remaining tied teams. If the remaining teams are all from the same division, then the tie-breaker listed under 4.03 will be used. If outside the division, the tiebreaker under 4.04 or 4.05 will be used.

CAASports.com

CAASports.com features the latest news and stories on all of the happenings around the conference, including the 12 football schools. Standings along with team-by-team and composite results are updated after each game. National polls, weekly award winners and team notebooks are updated each week.

The site also contains schedules, championship information, television listings, past conference records and much more.

Weekly Release & Stats

Media can access Adobe Acrobat PDF files of the complete weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, by logging on to www.CAASports.com. Weekly releases will also be sent via email to a number of accredited media outlets around the league. Media members should contact Scott Meyer (804-754-1616 x20) at the CAA office to be added to the CAA Football email list.

Weekly Awards

CAA Football names Offensive, Defensive, Rookie and Special Teams Players of the Week each Monday morning during the season. Winners, announced at the beginning of the weekly teleconference, are chosen from nominations provided by CAA Football sports information directors. The information will also be available from the CAA Football office via release as well as on the league's website.

Annual Awards

All-CAA Football First, Second and Third Teams, Players of the Year on offense, defense and specials teams, Rookies of the Year on offense and defense and Coach of the Year are selected by a vote of the league's 12 head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. The awards will be announced by the CAA Football office via release as well as on the league's website, Nov. 23, 2009.

CAA Football Pressbox

Located as a button on the football page as well as in the menus down the left-hand side of the football page, The Pressbox is the official source for all CAA Football information for fans and members of the media. Check The Pressbox each week for updated team-by-team weekly releases, two-deep charts, league and team stats as well as other "media-type" information. CAA Football plans to archive the conference's weekly releases throughout the 2009 season, in addition to archiving each team's home-game flipcards in a printer-friendly format. Also available on the site are coach and player pictures and each team's logo and helmet illustration.

CAA Football– Follow us on Twitter

Fans and members of the media can now follow CAA Football on Twitter: twitter.com/The_CAAFootball. Logon now and "follow" the league to get a behind-the-scenes look at one of the top collegiate football conferences in the country. CAA Football updates will be posted on Twitter throughout the upcoming season and continue into the offseason.

Weekly Media Teleconference

The CAA Football coaches will hold a weekly teleconference for the media beginning Monday, Aug. 31. The call will take place each Monday throughout the entire 2009 season. The scheduled calls will come to an end when the final CAA Football completes its season in the 2009 NCAA Division I National Championships. Coaches and a selected student-athlete will participate in the postseason calls if their teams are still alive in Championship play.

The teleconference will open with the release of the selected player of the week winners, a recap of the weekend and a preview of the following week. CAA Football coaches will be available to answer questions beginning at 10:10 a.m. The weekly lineup is listed below. Beginning Sept. 7 and continuing throughout the 2009 season, a featured student-athlete will conclude the call with a 10-minute interview segment at 12:10 p.m.

The phone number to take part in the call is 877-805-0692. Members of the media should contact Scott Meyer (804-754-1616 x20) at the CAA office for the password to access the call. Comments from the call will also be available on the web at www.CAASports.com each Monday after 1 p.m.
