COMMISSIONER TOM YEAGER

Tom Yeager is in his 27th year as the only commissioner in the history of the Colonial Athletic Association. He is currently the longest-tenured commissioner of a Division I conference.

Working with the conference presidents and athletic directors, Yeager has transformed what was once a Virginia/North Carolina conference into a league with a presence in virtually all of the major metropolitan areas on the East Coast. With the addition of six new members over the past decade, the CAA has positioned itself in five of the nation's top nine media markets from Boston to Atlanta and has enhanced its reputation as one of the most respected and well-run conferences in the nation.

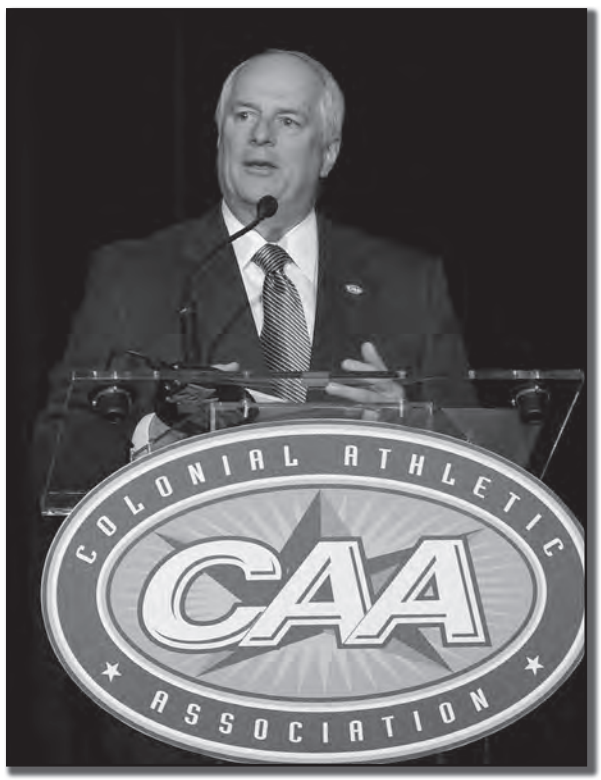

The CAA conducts championships in 23 men's and women's sports and the conference is rated among the top 10 nationally in many of them. The CAA has seen unprecedented success in basketball over the past six years, with 54 men's and women's teams earning postseason berths. The CAA has seen two men's basketball teams advance to the NCAA Final Four (George Mason – 2006, VCU – 2011) over the past five seasons and the conference had three teams selected to the NCAA Tournament field for the first time last season. In women's basketball, the CAA placed a league-record three teams in the 2007 NCAA Tournament and had a pair of teams selected to the NCAA's in 2009.

The CAA annually ranks among the top 15 in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, demonstrating the league's all-around excellence. Over the years, the conference has produced 16 national team champions in four different sports, 33 individual national champions, 12 national coaches of the year and 12 national players of the year. The league also boasts five Rhodes Scholar student-athletes, 23 NCAA post-graduate scholars and 12 Honda Award winners. In 2010-11, the CAA honored more than 1,900 student-athletes who achieved a 3.2 grade point average with the Commissioner's Academic Award.

While his job responsibilities are far reaching, Yeager's major duties include negotiation of championship, sponsorship and television contracts, representing the conference with the NCAA and supervising the 19 members of his staff.

Yeager came to the conference office from the NCAA staff in Kansas City, where he was Director of Legislative Services. He joined the NCAA in 1976, spending five years as an investigator in the enforcement department. In 1981, he was promoted to Assistant Director of Legislative Services and in 1984 to Director.

In addition to his duties with the CAA, Yeager is also actively involved with NCAA affairs. Currently, he is a member of the Board of Directors for the NCAA's college football and men's basketball officiating LLCs. Yeager recently completed a three-year term as chair of one of the NCAA's most important committees, the Division I Committee on Infractions, which hears and assesses penalties for violations of NCAA rules. Previously he served as a member of the NCAA Council and chaired the NCAA Interpretations Committee for eight years, in addition to serving on numerous other NCAA committees. Well respected by other commissioners, Yeager is also a former executive vice president of the Collegiate Commissioners Association and is the chair of the National Letter of Intent Steering Committee.

CAA Commissioner Tom Yeager speaks at the 2011 CAA Men's Basketball Championship awards banquet.

In April, 1994, the National Invitation Tournament recognized Yeager's contributions to college basketball by selecting him as the "NIT Man of the Year" joining a prestigious group of past recipients including John Wooden, Bobby Knight and Vic Bubas.

Yeager is a 1972 graduate of Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education (1975). As an undergraduate, he was a member of the gymnastics team; as a graduate student, he was an assistant coach for the squad. After earning his first degree, Yeager worked at the YMCA in Allentown, Pa. He then returned to Springfield as a teaching fellow on the physical education faculty. After receiving his master's degree, he remained at Springfield as the assistant director of athletics for the 1975 76 school year prior to joining the NCAA staff. In November 2009, Yeager received Springfield's Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Yeager, 61, and his wife Dorcas, also a Springfield graduate, have two children: Kyle and Hallie, both graduates of James Madison University.

COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Colonial Athletic Association continues to build on its reputation as one of the nation's top collegiate conferences both athletically and academically.

The CAA encompasses five of the nation's nine largest metropolitan areas with a geographic footprint that stretches from Boston to Atlanta. The conference has produced 16 national team champions in five different sports, 33 individual national champions, 12 national players of the year, 12 national coaches of the year and 12 Honda Award winners. Just as impressive, however, are the honors accumulated away from competition, which include five Rhodes Scholars and 22 NCAA post-graduate scholars. In 2010-11, more than 1,900 of the league's 4,000 student-athletes received the Commissioner's Academic Award after posting at least a 3.2 grade point average while lettering in a varsity sport. The conference had 21 teams in 12 different sports receive NCAA Public Recognition Awards based on the latest Academic Progress Report released in 2011.

The landscape of the conference stretches along the majority of the East Coast, and includes six of the nation's top 25 media markets – New York (1), Philadelphia (4), Boston (7), Atlanta (8), Washington, D.C. (9) and Baltimore (25). The number of television homes in the CAA market exceeds 20 million.

THE CAA ON TELEVISION

The Colonial Athletic Association will feature its most extensive television package in league history in 2011-12. CAA action can be seen regularly on regional sports networks such as Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic, Comcast SportsNet Philadelphia, SportsNet New York, Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast and Comcast SportsNet New England as well as The Comcast Network. The conference will also have several national telecasts on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN3 and the ESPN Regional network. Other affiliates such as MSG, FOX Sports New York, Cox Communications in Fairfax and Norfolk Va., Time-Warner Cable in Wilmington, N.C., and WSKY-TV in Hampton Roads are regular carriers of CAA Basketball.

The CAA conducts championships in 23 sports. Male athletes compete for championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and wrestling. Female athletes battle for conference titles in basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and volleyball. In 2010-11, 25 teams earned NCAA Tournament berths and 50 student-athletes received All-America honors in 13 different sports.

The conference has made its presence known nationally in men's basketball with two teams – George Mason (2006) and VCU (2011) – advancing to the NCAA Final Four over the past five years. Three CAA teams earned NCAA Tournament berths for the first time in 2011 as conference champion Old Dominion was joined by VCU and George Mason. VCU knocked off USC, Georgetown, Purdue, Florida State and top-seeded Kansas, while Mason defeated Villanova. The Rams were ranked No. 6 in the final ESPN/USA Today Top 25 poll, which was the highest ranking ever for a CAA team. In 2006, George Mason captured the nation's imagination by becoming the first mid-major program since 1979 to reach the Final Four, posting victories over Michigan State, North Carolina, Wichita State and Connecticut along the way.

Six CAA women's basketball teams advanced to postseason play in 2011. James Madison represented the conference in the NCAA Tournament after capturing its second straight conference championship. Delaware, Drexel, UNC Wilmington, Old Dominion and VCU participated in the WNIT, with the Seahawks advancing to the second round. ODU, which won an NCAA-record 17 straight CAA titles from 1992-2008, boasts three national championships (1979, 1980, 1985) and was national runner-up in 1997.

COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The conference also excels in many other sports. CAA squads have combined to win 10 field hockey national titles since the championship began in 1981. At least two women's soccer teams have advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in three of the past four seasons and William & Mary gave the CAA a team in the final 16 of the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship for the sixth time in the last nine years. In men's cross country, William & Mary advanced to the NCAA Championship for the 12th straight year and finished 19th overall. In the pool, Towson's Meredith Budner finished as the runner-up in the 500 freestyle and 1650 freestyle at the 2011 NCAA Championship and received All-America honors along with George Mason's Ashley Danner. Delaware and Towson have each reached the Final Four of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship in the past decade. The CAA has sent multiple teams to the NCAA Baseball Championship in nine of the last 14 years and has had at least 12 players selected in the eight of the last nine Major League Baseball drafts. The conference also boasts numerous All-Americans in lacrosse, tennis, golf, track and field, women's lacrosse and wrestling.

CAA member institutions are committed to excellence in the classroom. The Colonial Academic Alliance was created in 2002 by the league's presidents with a goal of expanding their partnership to all aspects of university life outside of intercollegiate athletics. Among the programs that have been established are an undergraduate research conference, coordination of study abroad programs and granting visiting academic status to student-athletes traveling to an away contest so that they have access to libraries, academic resource centers and computer labs.

In 2002, two faculty members from CAA institutions were awarded academia's most coveted distinction – the Nobel Prize. John B. Fenn, a research professor in the Department of Chemistry at Virginia Commonwealth University, received the Nobel Prize for chemistry, and Vernon Smith, a professor of economics and law at George Mason University, shared the Nobel Prize in economic sciences.

Commissioner Thomas E. Yeager has guided the CAA since its inception. The conference traces its roots back to 1983 when three of its current members- George Mason University, James Madison University, and the College of William and Mary - were aligned with East Carolina University, the United States Naval Academy and the University of Richmond as a basketball league

Commissioner Tom Yeager presented Drexel University with the 2010 CAA Blood Challenge trophy. The Blood Challenge resulted in 4,718 productive units of blood last year and the event has raised over 26,819 units of blood over the past nine years.

(ECAC South). During the next two years, the league added 11 sports, acquired two new members (the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and American University) and decided to form a new association. The transformation from ECAC South to CAA took place on June 6, 1985.

Charter members George Mason, James Madison, UNC Wilmington and William and Mary were joined by Old Dominion University in 1991 and by Virginia Commonwealth University in 1995. The conference added the University of Delaware, Drexel University, Hofstra University and Towson University in 2001. Georgia State University and Northeastern University became members of the conference on July 1, 2005.

Old Dominion has won nine national championships in field hockey.

COLONIAL ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

The Colonial Academic Alliance is the academic consortium that links the 12 colleges and universities of the Colonial Athletic Association in programs that improve the quality of teaching, learning and research for all.

The Alliance was created by the CAA presidents in 2002 and is administered by the provosts of the member institutions. It is a cooperative effort committed to enhancing all areas of excellence throughout each institution. Interest groups, representing various academic and administrative areas from all 12 universities, jointly develop collaborative programs that benefit each member institution.

The Alliance extends its programs to all aspects of university life outside of intercollegiate athletics. Its efforts are focused on the following areas:

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH

This annual symposium brings together more than 100 of the "best and brightest" undergraduate students and their faculty mentors from the 12 CAA institutions to share their research findings, develop a sense of academic community, and learn about career and graduate-school opportunities. This year's conference will be held at Northeastern University. The Alliance is also exploring the development of summer research opportunities for CAA students.

VISITING ACADEMIC STATUS FOR ATHLETIC TEAMS

Traveling CAA athletic teams have been granted "visiting academic status" at other Alliance institutions, allowing access to institutional libraries, academic resource centers and computer labs. This access will help to minimize the academic disruption caused by traveling to represent the institution in intercollegiate competition.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

CAA institutions have agreed to work together to coordinate study-abroad programs for students at CAA institutions, as well as develop new international programs that open new opportunities for students and faculty.

RESOURCE SHARING

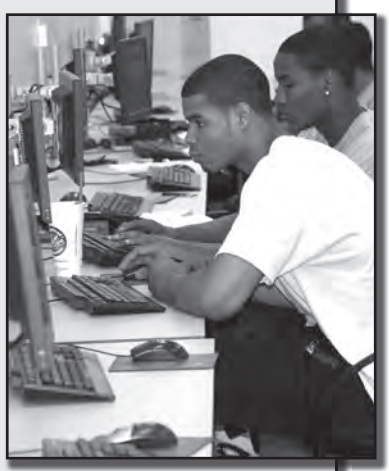

The 12 institutions are developing a network of programs and facilities – found only at one of the member schools -- that can be shared by other members of the Alliance.

UNIVERSITY LIFE

Alliance members are planning staff exchange programs and other opportunities to share "best practices" in residential life and university life programs. In addition, a CAA "alternative spring break" will put CAA students to work side by side in community service.

ADVANCEMENT AND ALUMNI RELATIONS

Alumni relations directors from the 12 institutions recently participated in a benchmarking survey for their programs, and are planning joint alumni events to unite graduates of the CAA schools.

The Colonial Academic Alliance reflects a commitment from the institutions for further excellence in all aspects of university operations. Collectively, these institutions comprise more than 20,000 students and nearly 10,000 full-time faculty, including three Nobel Prize-winning professors. By leveraging the strengths of each institution, the Alliance can build programs that no one college or university could undertake on its own.

2011-12 CAA MEN'S YEARBOOK

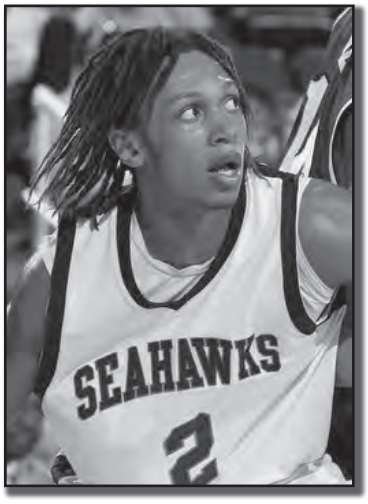

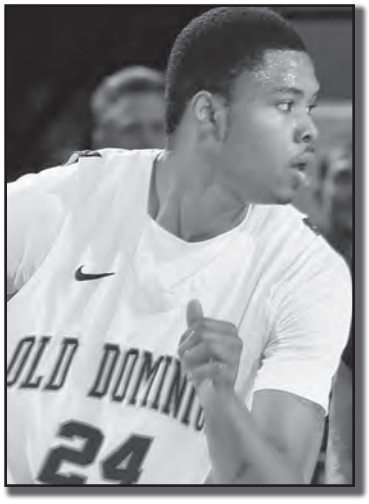

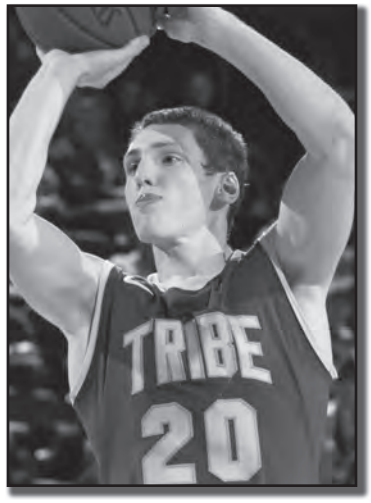

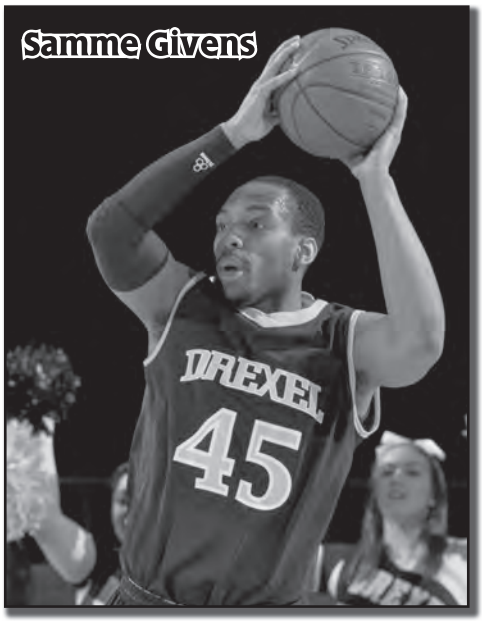

2011-12 CAA TEAM OUTLOOKS

DELAWARE

Delaware welcomes back five players who started at least 10 games a year ago and hopes to continue its climb up the CAA standings. The Blue Hens are led by dynamic sophomore point guard Devon Saddler, who earned CAA Rookie of the Year honors after contributing 13.3 ppg and dishing out a team-high 88 assists. Highly-touted freshmen Jarvis Threatt and Kyle Anderson should battle for a starting role beside Saddler in the backcourt. Delaware features one of the league's deepest frontcourts. Junior Jamelle Hagins (8.4 ppg, 7.3 rpg) made the CAA All-Defensive team last season after leading the league with 87 blocked shots. Junior Josh Brinkley (7.5 ppg, 5.2 rpg) returns to the lineup after missing the final 11 games with a stress fracture in his foot. Also back for the Hens in the post are 6-foot-8 senior Hakim McCullar (4.6 ppg) and junior Kelvin McNeil (5.0 ppg, 5.0 rpg).

DREXEL

With four starters and its top two reserves back from last year's 21-10 squad, Drexel will be among the favorites to capture the CAA title. The Dragons had three of the CAA's top seven rebounders last season and all return. Senior Samme Givens earned second-team All-CAA honors after being the only player in the league to average a double-double (12.2 ppg, 10.1 rpg). He is joined in the post by junior Daryl McCoy (5.4 ppg, 7.8 rpg) and sophomore Dartaye Ruffin (8.4 ppg, 7.4 rpg), who was a CAA All-Rookie team member. Junior Chris Fouch (14.9 ppg), a third-team All-CAA selection, hit 62 treys and was the team's top scorer off the bench. Back at the point is Frantz Massenat (5.5 ppg, 3.3 apg), who started all 31 games as a freshman and made the CAA All-Rookie team. Junior Derrick Thomas (6.9 ppg) is a returning starter on the wing.

GEORGE MASON

New coach Paul Hewitt takes over a George Mason squad that returns three starters from last year's 27-7 squad that advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament. The Patriots feature two of the league's top frontcourt players in seniors Ryan Pearson and Mike Morrison. Pearson made the All-CAA second team after ranking among the league's top 15 in scoring (14.2 ppg) and rebounding (6.7 rpg), while Morrison added 6.8 ppg and 5.5 rpg and blocked 40 shots. Adding to Mason's inside depth are junior Paris Bennett, sophomore Jonathan Arledge and freshman Erik Copes. In the backcourt, Mason will be counting on several players to move into more prominent roles. Sophomore Sherrod Wright, who missed last season due to injury, is expected to challenge for a starting spot. Also back is sophomore Vertrail Vaughns, who shot 49% from 3-point range, and sophomore point guard Bryon Allen.

GEORGIA STATE

Georgia State begins its first season under new coach Ron Hunter, who recorded nearly 300 wins in 17 seasons at IUPUI. He inherits a Panthers' squad with four returning starters, led by senior forwards Eric Buckner and Brandon McGee. Buckner topped GSU in scoring (9.4 ppg), rebounding (5.6 rpg) and blocks (49) in 2010-11, while McGee was second on the team with 7.8 ppg and 4.8 rpg. Providing depth are 6-foot-10 junior James Vincent (3.0 ppg, 3.1 rpg) and Florida State transfer Jordan DeMercy. There is also plenty of experience in the GSU backcourt with the return of senior shooting guard Jihad Ali (7.2 ppg) and senior point guard James Fields (5.5 ppg, 94 assists). Sophomore point guard Devonta White (5.2 ppg) made an impact in his rookie year despite battling through injuries and senior Josh Micheaux (6.5 ppg) scored double digits in five of his 10 starts.

HOFSTRA

In its first season under coach Mo Cassara, Hofstra went 21-12 overall and recorded its best finish ever in CAA play (tied for 2nd). Despite the loss of two-time CAA Player of the Year Charles Jenkins, the Pride should be solid once again. Senior guard Mike Moore tallied double figures in 23 of his final 24 games and ranked 11th in the CAA in scoring (14.9 ppg) a year ago. Hofstra also welcomes back senior guards Nathaniel Lester (8.0 ppg, 4.8 rpg) and Dwan McMillan (6.8 ppg) from injuries. Rhode Island transfer Stevie Mejia is expected to take over at the point and sophomore Shemiye McLendon (6.1 ppg) provides backcourt depth. The Pride's top inside returnee is junior forward David Imes, who contributed 7.6 ppg and ranked 12th in the CAA in rebounding (6.8 rpg). Sophomore forward Stephen Nwaukoni (2.0 ppg, 3.3 rpg) should challenge for a starting spot.

JAMES MADISON

James Madison returns four starters from a team that reached the 21-win mark for the second time in the last three years. The Dukes are led by one of the league's top point guards in junior Devon Moore, who made a successful comeback from a torn ACL and contributed 11.4 ppg and 4.2 apg. He'll be joined in the backcourt by senior Humpty Hitchens (8.9 ppg) and Wyoming transfer A.J. Davis. On the wing, senior Julius Wells (10.7 ppg) is a three-year starter who is already among the top 3-point shooters in school history. Also back is junior forward Andrey Semenov (7.5 ppg), who contributes in all phases of the game. Anchoring the post for the Dukes is senior Rayshawn Goins, who averaged 9.7 ppg and 6.8 rpg in his first year with the team. Junior guard Alioune Diouf (2.2 ppg) and junior forward Trevon Flores (1.5 ppg) provide depth.

2011-12 CAA TEAM OUTLOOKS

UNCW

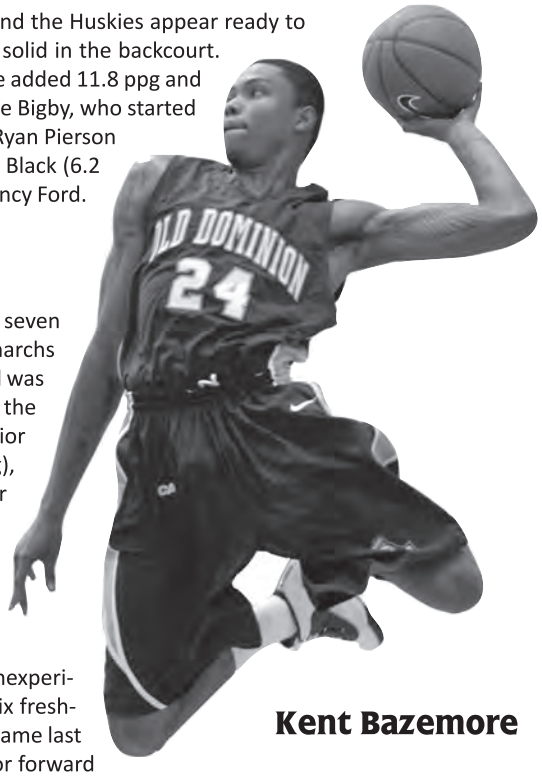

UNCW welcomes back three starters and a pair of top reserves from last year's 13-18 squad, but is also counting on big contributions from an eight-man freshmen class. The Seahawks will build around junior forward Keith Rendleman, who poured in 11.2 points per game a year ago and ranked fifth in the league in rebounding (7.8 rpg). Joining him up front is 7-foot junior center Matt Wilson (4.5 ppg, 2.8 rpg) and sophomore forward Donte Morales (5.2 ppg, 3.9 rpg), who made 26 starts in his first year. Senior Trevor Deloach (8.8 ppg) provides a veteran presence in the backcourt along with sophomore Tanner Milson (6.1 ppg), who knocked down 45 three-pointers in his freshman season. Among the newcomers who are expected to make an immediate impact are combo guard K.K. Simmons, 6-foot-8 forwards Cedrick Williams and Nate Anderson and point guards Craig Ponder and Adam Smith.

NORTHEASTERN

Northeastern overcame a slow start to win seven of its final 11 regular-season games last season, and the Huskies appear ready to build on that success. Despite the loss of two-time All-CAA standout Chaisson Allen, NU should be solid in the backcourt. Junior Joel Smith tallied 12.2 ppg and ranked third in the CAA with 77 treys, while junior Jonathan Lee added 11.8 ppg and made a school-record 47.2% of his shots from beyond the arc. Also back is sophomore guard Alwayne Bigby, who started seven games before suffering a season-ending injury. The frontcourt is led by 6-foot-10 sophomore Ryan Pierson (7.5 ppg, 3.7 rpg), who earned a spot on the CAA All-Rookie team, and athletic junior forward Kauri Black (6.2 ppg, 4.0 rpg). Providing depth up front are sophomore forward Alex Bates and 6-foot-8 freshman Quincy Ford. Among the newcomers is senior forward Kashief Edwards, a transfer from Niagara.

OLD DOMINION

After capturing its second straight CAA championship and earning a fourth NCAA Tournament bid in seven years, Old Dominion will be counting on several players to fill new roles this season. Leading the Monarchs is senior guard Kent Bazemore (12.3 ppg, 5.1 rpg), who made the All-CAA second team a year ago and was named the CAA Defensive Player of the Year after making a league-best 76 steals. He'll be joined in the backcourt by senior Trian Iliadis (6.0 ppg), who drained a team-high 41 threes last season, and senior point guard Marquel DeLancey (1.9 ppg). ODU, which led the nation in rebound margin (+11.7 rpg), has two of its top frontcourt players back with senior starter Chris Cooper (5.0 ppg, 5.5 rpg) and junior Nick Wright (1.5 ppg). Among the newcomers who should contribute are Clemson transfer guard Donte Hill, JUCO forward Nayquann Mitchell and redshirt freshman guard Dimitri Batten.

Kent Bazemore

TOWSON

New head coach Pat Skerry is focused on turning around the Towson program by instilling a hard-hat mentality and making a commitment to defense. The former Pittsburgh assistant will have an inexperienced roster to work with as three returning lettermen are joined by a junior college transfer and six freshmen. The Tigers' lone returning starter is senior guard RaShawn Polk, who averaged 11.6 points per game last season and knocked down a team-high 50 threes. Towson will also get a lift from the return of senior forward Robert Nwankwo, who averaged nearly 10 points and nine rebounds in 2009-10 and made the CAA All-Defensive team after blocking 83 shots. Sophomore Erique Gumbs (3.6 ppg, 2.8 rpg) provided depth in the post last year. Among the newcomers who should contribute immediately are sophomore forward Marcus Damas, freshman forwards Deon Jones and Jervon Pressley and freshman guard Kris Walden.

Bradford Burgess

VCU

VCU will look to build on the momentum generated from last season's magical run to the Final Four. The Rams are without four of their top five scorers from a year ago, but return several players who played key roles on that 28-12 squad. VCU will be led by senior forward Bradford Burgess, who ranked among the top 15 in the CAA in scoring (14.3 ppg) and rebounding (6.3 rpg). Also back are a pair of talented sophomore post players in 7-foot D.J. Haley (1.1 ppg, 1.5 rpg) and 6-foot-9 Juvonte Reddic (3.5 ppg, 1.9 rpg). In the backcourt, junior Darius Theus (3.0 ppg) should step into a starting role at the point. Rob Brandenberg (4.9 ppg) showed excellent scoring ability as a freshman and junior Troy Daniels (2.0 ppg) is a solid perimeter shooter. Several newcomers should also challenge for playing time, led by freshmen Treveon Graham and Briante Weber.

WILLIAM & MARY

Inexperience caused William & Mary to slide down the CAA standings a year ago, but the Tribe is primed for a rebound with 12 of 13 letterwinners returning. Senior forward Quinn McDowell, a two-time All-CAA honoree, ranked seventh in the league in scoring (15.5 ppg) and led the conference in 3-point (45.5%) and free throw (86.6%) percentage in 2010-11. He will be joined in the frontcourt by scrappy sophomore Tim Rusthoven (5.5 ppg), junior Kyle Gaillard (5.8 ppg) and senior 3-point specialist JohnMark Ludwick (3.8 ppg). W&M featured two of the CAA's top freshmen guards a year ago in Brandon Britt (10.9 ppg), who made the All-Rookie team, and Julian Boatner (6.8 ppg), who shot nearly 40% from 3-point range. Providing experience and depth in the backcourt are senior Kendrix Brown (3.3 ppg) and junior Matt Rum (5.1 ppg). W&M is also expecting freshman guard Marcus Thornton to provide a spark.

CAA NOTEBOOK

George Mason's Ryan Pearson

Majority Of Starters Return: CAA teams have 60% of their starters (36-of-60) back from a year ago. Five squads return four starters and three others welcome back three.

Five All-Conference Honorees Are Back: Five players who earned All-CAA honors in 2010-11 return this season. Headlining that list are three second-team All-CAA picks - ODU senior guard Kent Bazemore, Drexel senior forward Samme Givens and George Mason senior forward Ryan Pearson. Back from the All-CAA third team are Drexel junior guard Chris Fouch and William & Mary senior forward Quinn McDowell.

VCU Becomes Second CAA Team To Reach NCAA Final Four: VCU reached the NCAA Final Four in 2011, becoming the second CAA team in five years (George Mason - 2006) to achieve the feat. Both the Rams and Patriots were #11 seeds in the tournament and upset #1 seeds (VCU over Kansas, Mason over UConn) in the regional finals. Only five other conferences have had more Final Four appearances than the CAA since 2006.

Three CAA Teams Earn NCAA Berths For First Time: Following the best regular season in conference history, the CAA had three teams invited to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 2011. Conference champion Old Dominion was joined by at-large picks George Mason and VCU. The Patriots advanced to the third round after knocking off Villanova, while the Rams defeated USC, Georgetown, Purdue, Florida State and Kansas on the road to the Final Four.

Postseason Success: CAA teams have combined to win 30 games in postseason play over the last six years. During that six-year period, the conference has had two teams reach the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament (George Mason – 2006 and VCU - 2011), a team reach the semifinals of the NIT (Old Dominion – 2006) and squads capture championships of the College Basketball Invitational (VCU – 2010) and the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (Old Dominion – 2009). The CAA has had at least five teams reach postseason play for the past three years.

Piling Up The Wins: For the first time in CAA history, six teams finished the 2010-11 season with at least 21 victories. Only four other Division I conferences had six 21-win squads. The CAA also had three teams (Mason, ODU and VCU) with at least 27 wins, which was second to the Big East with four.

CAA Welcomes Three New Coaches: Three new coaches with impressive backgrounds join the CAA this season. Paul Hewitt takes over at George Mason after serving as the head coach at Georgia Tech for the past 11 seasons. Hewitt guided the Yellow Jackets to five NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2004 national championship game. Ron Hunter was hired at Georgia State after leading IUPUI to 293 victories over 17 seasons. Hunter led the Jaguars to the 2003 NCAA Tournament and was a two-time Summit League Coach of the Year. Pat Skerry is the new head coach at Towson after serving as an assistant at Pittsburgh last season when the Panthers captured the Big East regular-season title. Skerry has also previously worked as an assistant coach at CAA members Northeastern and William & Mary.

VCU Ranked #6 In Final Coaches Poll: VCU was ranked #6 in the final ESPN/USA Today Top 25 Coaches Poll, which was the highest final national ranking ever for a CAA team. George Mason and Old Dominion also received votes (9 points) in the final poll.

Three CAA Teams Among Top Four In Mid-Major Top 25 Poll: The CAA had three of the top four teams in the final Mid-Major Top 25 poll of 2010-11 released by CollegeInsider.com. VCU was ranked #2 in the poll, George Mason was ranked #3 and Old Dominion was ranked #4. Butler was #1 in the final poll. Drexel, Hofstra and James Madison were among others receiving votes.

From CAA To NBA: Hofstra guard Charles Jenkins was selected by the Golden State Warriors with the 44th overall pick in the second round of the 2011 NBA Draft. It marked the third straight year that a CAA player was selected in the NBA Draft as Jenkins joined VCU guard Eric Maynor, who was selected 20th overall by the Utah Jazz in 2009, and VCU center Larry Sanders, who was chosen 15th overall by the Milwaukee Bucks in 2010.

Non-Conference Success: The CAA posted its best non-conference record ever in 2010-11, going 90-63. Conference teams finished 4-4 against the ACC, 2-0 versus the Pac 10, and 9-7 against the Atlantic 10. CAA teams had an impressive 47-13 mark in non-conference home games, were 16-13 on neutral courts and recorded 27 non-conference victories on the road.

Impressive RPI: The CAA's RPI ranked ninth among the nation's 32 Division I conferences last season. Three CAA squads - Old Dominion (#23), George Mason (#24) and VCU (#31) - were in the top 31 of the RPI, which was second only to the Big East with eight teams in the top 31. For the first in conference history, the CAA had six teams in the top 90 of the RPI with the top three joined by Drexel (#77), Hofstra (#88) and James Madison (#90).

VCU celebrates its upset of Kansas to advance to the Final Four.

CAA CHAMPIONSHIP

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE FOR CAA CHAMPIONSHIP SEEDING

Seeding for the Men's Basketball Championships will be based on Regular Season Conference Record. In case of ties, ties will be broken from top to bottom. Once a tie is broken and the seeds are determined, the seeds will be used to break any subsequent ties.

1. TWO TIED TEAMS:

a) Head-to-head competition.

b) If two tied teams split their two games during the regular season, compare each tied team's record against the team occupying the highest position in the standings and continue down through the standings until one team gains the advantage, thereby earning the higher seed. When comparing records against a single team or a group of teams, the higher winning percentage shall prevail, even if the number of games played against a team or group is unequal (i.e., 2-0 is better than 3-1; 1-0 is the same as 2-0; 2-0 is the same as 4-0; 2-1 is the same as 4-2; 1-0 is better than 1-1; 0-1 is the same as 0-2; 0-2 is the same as 0-4). If the winning percentage of the tied teams is equal against a team, or a group of tied teams, continue down through the standings until one team gains an advantage.

i) When arriving at another pair of tied teams while comparing records, use each team's record against the collective tied teams as a group (prior to their own tie-breaking procedures), rather than the performance against the individual tied teams.

c) If a tie still exists, the Ratings Percentage Index, as computed from the RPI Report by 9:00 AM, on the day following the last scheduled conference game, will be used to break the tie. The team with the better RPI will earn the higher seed.

2. THREE OR MORE TIED TEAMS:

a) Head to head competition as determined by the combined record of games among the tied teams involved. Ties will be broken and seeds will be based on the winning percentage of games amongst the tied teams, even if the number of games played against the group is unequal (i.e., 2-0 is better than 3-1; 1-0 is the same as 2-0; 2-0 is the same as 4-0; 2-1 is the same as 4-2; 1-0 is better than 1-1; 0-1 is the same as 0-2; 0-2 is the same as 0-4).

b) If procedure 2a fails to break the tie, then each tied team's record shall be compared to the team occupying the highest position in the standings, continuing down through the standings until one team gains an advantage by a higher winning percentage as described in 2a.

c) If the tie is broken by 2a or 2b regarding one or more teams, but three or more teams remain tied, then procedures 2a and 2b will be re-applied among those tied teams only. If two teams remain tied, revert to the two-tied team procedure.

d) If a tie still exists, the Ratings Percentage Index, as computed from the RPI Report by 9:00 AM, on the day following the last scheduled conference game, will be used to break the tie. The team with the better RPI will earn the higher seed.

TWELVE CAA SCHOOLS WILL PARTICIPATE IN THE TENTH ANNUAL

A record total of 142 teams – representing 16 collegiate athletic conferences– will compete in the three-day event (February 17-19), with the entire Sears BracketBusters slate of matchups to be announced in late January. Delaware, George Mason, Georgia State, Hofstra, Northeastern and VCU will serve as host schools, while Drexel, James Madison, UNCW, Old Dominion, Towson and William & Mary will play on the road.

Of the 71 games, a minimum of 13 will be televised with six contests on ESPN2, five games on ESPNU and two games on ESPN3.

The CAA has had great success in BracketBusters, with the conference posting a 16-10 record in televised contests over the past seven years. Last season the CAA was 4-1 in televised games, which was the best of any participating league. The CAA has had five teams chosen for televised matchups in four of the last five years.

HOME TEAMS: Delaware, George Mason, Georgia State, Hofstra, Northeastern, VCU, Bradley, Creighton, Evansville, Illinois State, Missouri State, Albany, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Montana, Northern Arizona, Northern Colorado, Sacramento State, Weber State, Charleston Southern, Coastal Carolina, Gardner-Webb, Radford, Virginia Military Institute, Cal State Fullerton, Cal State Northridge, Pacific, UC Irvine, UC Riverside, Butler, Cleveland State, Detroit, Green Bay, Milwaukee, Canisius, Iona, Loyola (Md.), Manhattan, Saint Peter's, Ball State, Bowling Green, Central Michigan, Kent State, Miami (Ohio), Ohio, Morgan State, Austin Peay, Eastern Illinois, Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State, Murray State, SIU-Edwardsville, Appalachian State, Davidson, McNeese State, Nicholls State, Northwestern State, Sam Houston State, Southeastern Louisiana, Stephen F. BRACKETBUSTERS

For the sixth straight season, all 12 CAA men's basketball teams will participate in Sears BracketBusters. The three-day event, which is set for February 17-19, 2012, will feature 13 nationally televised contests on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU and ESPN3.

A record total of 142 teams from 16 different conferences will be involved in the 2012 Sears BracketBusters. The field includes teams with 87 combined appearances in the last six NCAA Tournaments, including 2011 Final Four squads VCU and Butler. Five CAA teams have been chosen for televised BracketBusters games in each of the last three years, which is more than any other participating conference.

"No conference has benefitted more from BracketBusters than the CAA," CAA Commissioner Tom Yeager said. "Having the opportunity to participate in a late-season national television game has dramatically helped position our teams for post-season consideration."

The CAA has had great success in BracketBusters, with the conference posting a 16-10 record in televised contests over the past seven years. Last year the CAA was 4-1 in televised games, which was the best record of any of the participating conferences.

CHARLES JENKINS, Hofstra

Hofstra senior Charles Jenkins was honored as the CAA men's basketball Player of the Year for the second consecutive season in 2011. The Pride guard led the league and ranked sixth nationally in scoring with 22.6 points per game and capped his career on a 58-game double-figure scoring streak. Jenkins was also second in the CAA in assists (4.8 apg), fourth in steals (1.7 spg) and was among the top six in the conference in field goal (51.7%), free throw (82.4%) and 3-point (42.0%) shooting percentage. Jenkins is the all-time leading scorer in Hofstra history and ranks second on the CAA's all-time scoring list with 2,513 points.

COACH OF THE YEAR

JIM LARRANAGA, George Mason

George Mason's Jim Larranaga received CAA Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Patriots to their first regular-season title since 2000 with a 16-2 mark. Mason set a school record for regular-season victories (25) and put together a school-record 16-game winning streak from Jan. 12-March 5. The Patriots, who were ranked #25 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll on Feb. 28, earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the third round after beating Villanova, 61-57. It was Larranaga's second CAA Coach of the Year award.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

DEVON SADDLER, Delaware

Delaware guard Devon Saddler was selected as the CAA Rookie of the Year, becoming the first Blue Hen to ever earn the award. The freshman started all 31 games at point guard for Delaware and ranked 15th in the conference in scoring with 13.3 ppg, which was the best of any rookie in the league. His 411 total points set a Blue Hens' freshman scoring record. Saddler was ranked 14th in the conference in assists (2.8 apg) and field goal percentage (46.9%).

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

KENT BAZEMORE, Old Dominion

Old Dominion guard Kent Bazemore earned CAA Defensive Player of the Year accolades after leading the conference and ranking 21st in the nation with 2.2 steals per game. His 76 total thefts were the seventh-best season total in CAA history. The junior guard also grabbed 5.1 rebounds per game from the backcourt and was part of a Monarchs' squad that ranked third nationally in scoring defense (58.4 ppg). Bazemore was also honored as the National Defensive Player of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

DEAN EHLERS LEADERSHIP AWARD

QUINN MCDOWELL, William & Mary

Junior guard/forward Quinn McDowell was chosen as the recipient of the Dean Ehlers Leadership Award, which is presented annually to a basketball player who "embodies the highest standards of leadership, integrity and sportsmanship." He was the second straight Tribe player to earn the honor, joining David Schneider in 2010. McDowell was named to the All-CAA third team after ranking seventh in the league in scoring with 15.5 ppg and leading the conference in free throw (86.6%) and three-point (45.5%) percentage. He was also a member of the CAA All-Academic first team.

As part of its 25th Anniversary in 2009-10, the Colonial Athletic Association honored Silver Anniversary teams in 21 championship sports. Chosen by a panel of current and former head coaches, the 25-member teams featured the "best of the best" in the conference's storied history.

The 25th Anniversary men's basketball team included 16 former CAA Players of the Year, seven NBA draft picks, and several players who were key performers during some of the conference's greatest moments in the NCAA Tournament.

POSTSEASON RESULTS

Three CAA teams earned NCAA Tournament berths for the first time in conference history in 2010-11, with VCU becoming the second CAA team (George Mason - 2006) in five years to advance to the NCAA Final Four. The CAA has won 30 postseason games over the past six seasons, including 12 victories in the NCAA Tournament. CAA teams have also won the CBI and CIT during that time period. Here's a year-by-year look at the CAA's postseason results.

2006 FINAL FOUR: GEORGE MASON

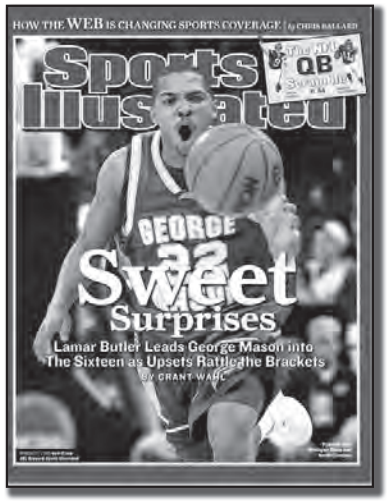

The CAA had two teams advance to the NCAA Final Four in a five-year period with George Mason in 2006 and VCU in 2011. The accomplishment places the CAA in elite company as only five other conferences have made more Final Four appearances than the CAA since 2006. There were many similarities in the two runs. Both the Rams and Patriots were at-large selections and played their opening game in Dayton, Ohio, both received #11 seeds in the tournament, and both had to upset #1 seeds in the regional finals to reach the Final Four. Here's a game-by-game look at each team's Road to the Final Four!

#11 George Mason 75, #6 Michigan State 65 • March 17, 2006 – First Round – Dayton, Ohio

George Mason won its first NCAA Tournament game in school history, knocking off 6th-seeded Michigan State, 75-65. Sophomore guard Folarin Campbell scored a team-high 21 points on perfect 8-for-8 FG shooting and forward Will Thomas posted a double-double with 18 points and 14 rebounds. Mason was ahead just 52-51 with 6:41 to go, but reeled off 10 unanswered points and never let the Spartans get closer than six points the rest of the way.

#11 George Mason 65, #3 North Carolina 60 • March 19, 2006 – Second Round – Dayton, Ohio

George Mason became the first CAA team to advance to the Sweet 16 since 1988 with a 65-60 upset of 3rd-seeded North Carolina. The Patriots fell behind 16-2 early, but rallied to within 27-20 at the break and then scored the first eight points of the second half to grab the lead. Senior guard Lamar Butler, who tallied 16 of his team-high 18 points in the second half, hit two free throws to give Mason a 56-54 lead with 2:52 to go and nailed a key jumper with 1:06 left. The Patriots made 7-of-8 free throws in the final 51 seconds to seal the win.

#11 George Mason 63, #7 Wichita State 55 • March 24, 2006 – Sweet 16 – Washington, D.C.

George Mason led from start to finish in beating 7th-seeded Wichita State, 63-55, to advance to the Elite Eight. The Patriots opened the game on a 9-0 run with a three-pointer by Lamar Butler and back-to-back treys from Folarin Campbell. Mason went on to bury 7-of-11 shots from beyond the arc in the first half and led 35-19 at the break. The Patriots pushed the margin to 19 with 17:21 left and never let the Shockers get closer than seven the rest of the way. Campbell finished with 16 points while Butler and Tony Skinn added 14.

#11 George Mason 86, #1 Connecticut 84 (ot) • March 26, 2006 – Elite 8 – Washington, D.C.

George Mason became the first team in CAA history to advance to the NCAA Final Four by shocking top-seeded Connecticut, 86-84 in overtime. The Patriots trailed by nine at the break but shot 56% in the second half, including 6-of-7 from 3-point range, to stage a remarkable comeback. Mason grabbed its first lead, 52-51, on a Lamar Butler trey with 11:10 to go and was up 74-70 with 18 seconds left in regulation after a pair of Butler free throws. UConn forced overtime with a layup at the buzzer, but the Patriots made 5-of-6 from the floor and never trailed in overtime. Mason went ahead 86-81 with 25 seconds to go, but had to survive a missed 3-point attempt by the Huskies as the horn sounded. All five Patriots' starters scored in double figures, led by senior forward Jai Lewis with 20 points and Butler with 19. Will Thomas recorded his second straight double-double with 19 points and a team-high 12 rebounds.

#3 Florida 73, #11 George Mason 58 • April 1, 2006 – National Semifinals – Indianapolis, Ind.

George Mason's Cinderella season came to an end as the Patriots lost to eventual national champion Florida, 73-57, at the NCAA Final Four. Mason trailed just 31-26 at halftime, but the Gators hit three straight treys to open the second period and never let the Patriots get closer than nine points the rest of the way. Seniors Tony Skinn and Jai Lewis each scored 13 points for Mason, which was the first mid-major squad since 1979 and the first #11 seed since 1986 to reach the Final Four. The Patriots would finish the season ranked #8 in the final ESPN/USA Today Top 25 poll.

2011 FINAL FOUR: VCU

#11 VCU 59, #11 USC 46 • March 16, 2011 – First Four – Dayton, Ohio

VCU turned in a stellar defensive effort and defeated USC, 59-46, in the inaugural First Four. The contest was tied 22-22 at the break, but Jamie Skeen opened the second half with a three-pointer and the Rams never trailed after that. VCU drained six treys over the final 20 minutes and converted numerous second-chance points. Skeen finished with a team-high 16 points and nine rebounds and junior Bradford Burgess added nine points and a 10 boards.

#11 VCU 74, #6 Georgetown 56 • March 18, 2011 – Second Round – Chicago, Ill.

VCU made 12 three-pointers and dominated 6th-seeded Georgetown, 74-56, to record two wins in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. Senior Brandon Rozzell hit 6-of-10 from beyond the arc and scored a team-high 26 points, while guard Joey Rodriguez contributed 17 points and seven assists. VCU trailed 19-18 midway through the first half when Rozzell made a three that put the Rams in front for good. VCU was ahead 35-24 at the break and then opened the second half on a 14-4 run to put the game away. The Rams' defense forced the Hoyas into 17 turnovers.

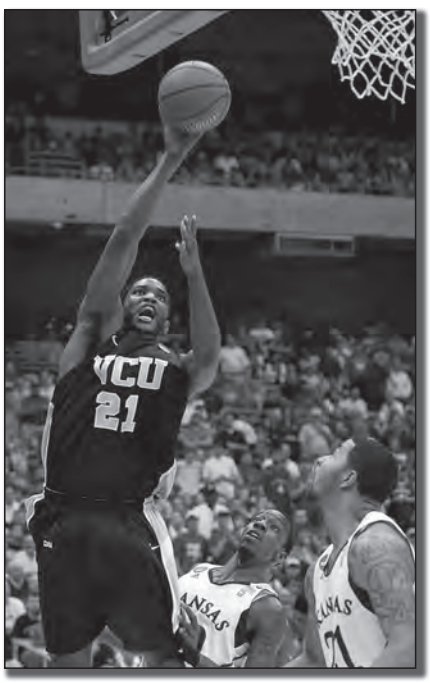

#11 VCU 94, #3 Purdue 76 • March 20, 2011 – Third Round – Chicago, Ill.

VCU recorded its third victory in five days, cruising past 3rd-seeded Purdue 94-76 to advance to the Sweet 16 for the first time ever. Led by 23 points and eight rebounds from Bradford Burgess, the Rams had six players score in double figures for the first time in three years. Guard Joey Rodriguez posted a double-double with 12 points, 11 assists and no turnovers. Trailing 18-13, VCU went on a 23-6 run and eventually took a 42-32 advantage into halftime. The Rams hit 7-of-8 shots to start the second half and pushed their lead to 67-48 with 11 minutes to go. VCU shot 57% for the game and had 26 assists with only four turnovers.

#11 VCU 72, #10 Florida State 71 (ot) • March 25, 2011 – Sweet 16 – San Antonio, Texas

Bradford Burgess made a layup off an inbounds pass with 7.1 seconds left and Jamie Skeen blocked a shot at the buzzer, giving VCU a 72-71 overtime victory against 10th-seeded Florida State. The Rams led 36-31 at the half and held a 57-49 cushion with 10:17 to play before the Seminoles rallied to send the game into overtime at 65-65. VCU trailed 71-70 when Burgess converted off the inbounds play for the last of his team-high 26 points. The Rams shot 45.3% from the floor, including 12-of-26 from 3-point range. Brandon Rozzell chipped in 16 points off the bench and Skeen had 11 points and eight boards.

#11 VCU 71, #1 Kansas 61 • March 27, 2011 – Elite 8 – San Antonio, Texas

Senior Jamie Skeen scored 26 points as VCU delivered the biggest upset of the NCAA Tournament by knocking off #1 Kansas, 71-61, to advance to the NCAA Final Four. The Rams became just the third #11 seed to reach the Final Four. VCU stormed out of the gates, hitting 9-of-12 from 3-point range in the first half to open up a 41-27 advantage at the break. The Jayhawks rallied to within 46-44 with 13:11 left, but the Rams responded with a 10-2 run to regain control. Brandon Rozzell added 12 points but it was VCU's defense that stole the show. The Rams held Kansas to a season-low 61 points on 36% FG shooting, including 2-of-21 on three-pointers.

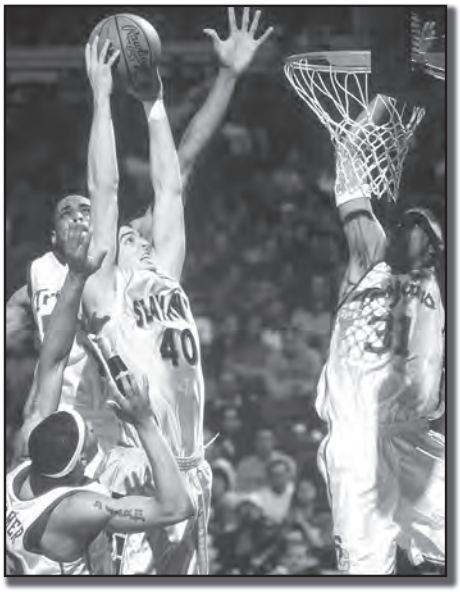

#8 Butler 70, #11 VCU 62 • April 2, 2011 – National Semifinals – Houston, Texas

VCU's amazing run to the Final Four came to an end with a 70-62 setback to 8th-seeded Butler. Jamie Skeen was spectacular for the Rams with a game-high 27 points and Bradford Burgess contributed 15 points and nine rebounds. The Rams used an early 15-2 run to build an eight-point lead, but the Bulldogs rallied to grab a 34-26 advantage at the break. VCU scored 10 of the first 12 points in the second half to move back in front 38-36 with 15:16 remaining, but Butler clamped down defensively and regained control. The Rams finished with a school-record tying 28 victories and were ranked #6 in the final ESPN/USA Today poll, which was the highest final ranking ever for a CAA team.

NCAA SHOCKERS

In addition to the Final Four runs made by George Mason in 2006 and VCU in 2011, the CAA has been known as a giant killer for pulling some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship. The list of CAA victims reads like a "Who's Who" of college basketball – Georgetown, Syracuse and Villanova from the Big East, Auburn, LSU and South Carolina from the SEC, Ohio State and Indiana from the Big 10, USC from the Pac 12 and Georgia Tech from the ACC. The tradition has continued in recent years as VCU upset perennial power Duke in 2007 and Old Dominion beat Notre Dame in 2010. Since 1981, CAA squads have posted 22 wins over higher-seeded teams and 27 victories overall. Here's a brief look at the "bracket busters":

Stewart Hare's dunk sealed UNCW's win over USC in 2002.

#13 Navy 78, #4 Louisiana State 55

For the fifth consecutive season, an ECAC-South member pulls the first round upset. Vernon Butler pours in a team-high 20 points and David Robinson grabs 18 rebounds as Navy thrashes LSU 78-55 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Dayton, Ohio.

#7 Navy 97, #2 Syracuse 85

After getting 30 points and 12 rebounds in a first-round win over Tulsa, CAA Player of the Year David Robinson tallies 35 points, 11 rebounds and seven blocks as Navy dominates Syracuse 97-85 on its home court at the Carrier Dome to reach the Sweet 16. The Middies then sink #14-seed Cleveland State 71-70 on a Robinson one-hander in the lane with five seconds left to earn a berth in the Elite 8. Navy falls to Duke in the Regional finals.

#13 Richmond 72, #4 Indiana 69

Richmond held Indiana scoreless for the last 2:40 and knocked the defending national champions out of the tournament with a 72-69 triumph in Hartford, Conn. Rodney Rice scored a team-high 21 points, including a jumper with less than a minute to play that put the Spiders ahead to stay.

#13 Richmond 59, #5 Georgia Tech 55

Richmond earned its first-ever berth in the Sweet 16 as Peter Woolfolk tallied 27 points and nine rebounds in a 59-55 upset of Georgia Tech. The Spiders' defense limited the high-scoring Yellow Jackets to 5-of-22 shooting from 3-point range.

#15 Richmond 73, #2 Syracuse 69

In what the Washington Post calls "one of the greatest upsets in college basketball history," Richmond becomes the first #15 seed to drop a #2 seed with a 73-69 win over Syracuse in College Park, Md. The Spiders never trailed and sealed the game when freshman Eugene Burroughs hit two free throws with 21 seconds left. Curtis Blair scored a team-high 18 points and Terry Connolly added 14 points off the bench.

#14 Old Dominion 89, #3 Villanova 81 (3 OT)

In perhaps the most exciting game in conference history, the Monarchs survive three overtimes and defeat Kerry Kittles and Big East champion Villanova, 89-81. CAA Player of the Year Petey Sessoms scores a career-high tying 35 points, including seven in the third OT. Before the night is over, most of the 15,100 fans in Albany's Knickerbocker Arena are chanting "O-D-U."

#14 Richmond 62, #3 South Carolina 61

The Spiders freshened their image as NCAA Tournament upset specialists with a 62-61 win over South Carolina in Washington, D.C. Richmond gets 24 points from CAA Player of the Year Jarod Stevenson and holds the Gamecocks scoreless over the final 1:16 for the victory.

#13 UNCW 93, #4 Southern Cal 89 (ot)

UNCW pulls the biggest upset in the first round of the 2002 NCAA Tournament, defeating Southern Cal 93-89 in overtime. Six Seahawks score in double figures, including senior reserve Stewart Hare who punctuates the victory with a mammoth two-handed dunk in the final minute. It's the first NCAA Tournament win for UNCW and the school's first victory over a ranked opponent.

#11 VCU 79, #6 Duke 77

Eric Maynor scores a team-high 22 points, including a 15-foot jumper with 1.8 seconds left, as VCU rallies for a 79-77 victory over Duke in Buffalo, N.Y. The Rams trail by seven with eight minutes remaining before grabbing a 72-71 lead on a Jesse Pellot-Rosa jumper. It was the first NCAA Tournament win for VCU since 1985. The Rams rally from a 19-point deficit to force overtime against Pitt in the NCAA second round before suffering an 84-79 setback.

#11 Old Dominion 51, #6 Notre Dame 50

Old Dominion rallies from an eight-point second-half deficit to knock off Notre Dame, 51-50, in New Orleans, La. The Monarchs took a 48-46 lead on Gerald Lee's jumper with 1:26 left and Keyon Carter sank a pair of crucial free throws with 10 seconds to go. The Irish missed a game-tying 3-pointer to give ODU its first NCAA Tournament victory since 1995. Frank Hassell had a team-high 15 points and nine rebounds and Carter added 11 points off the bench.

2011-12 CAA WOMEN'S YEARBOOK

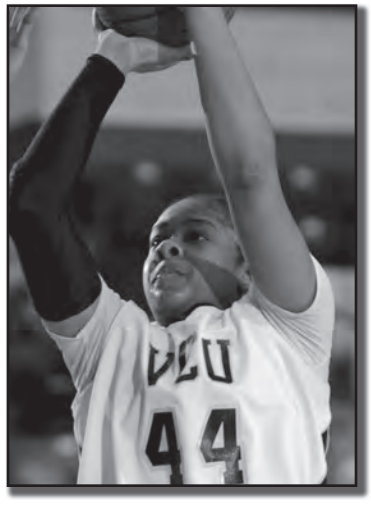

2011-12 CAA TEAM OUTLOOKS

DELAWARE

Delaware welcomes back all five starters from a squad that recorded its second straight 20-win season and earned a WNIT berth. Among those returning for head coach Tina Martin is junior All-America forward Elena Delle Donne, who contributed a team-high 25.3 points per game and added 7.8 rebounds a contest to earn first team all-conference honors for the second year in a row. She will be joined in the frontcourt by junior Danielle Parker (8.1 ppg), who ranked sixth in the CAA in rebounding (7.9 rpg). The Blue Hens' backcourt is led by junior guard Lauren Carra (10.8 ppg), who earned third-team All-CAA honors a year ago, and senior guard Jocelyn Bailey (7.4 ppg). Also in the mix will be senior guard Kayla Miller (3.5 ppg/3.1 apg), who returns after missing the 2010-11 season with injury, and senior guard Vanessa Kabongo, who contributed 6.2 ppg last season.

DREXEL

Drexel will look to build off last year's 19-13 campaign that included a berth in the WNIT for the second year in a row. Leading a group of four returning starters for Dragons' coach Denise Dillon is senior guard Kamile Nacickaite, who made the All-CAA second team after leading the squad in scoring (17.6 ppg) and rebounding (6.3 rpg). Nacickaite also drained a team-high 75 treys and led the CAA in three-point percentage (.478). Senior Marisa Crane is back at the point guard spot after missing the majority of last season due to an injury. Senior forward Tyler Hale (7.5 ppg/5.6 rpg) and junior forward Taylor Wootton (7.3 ppg) are returning starters for Drexel at the forward spots. Junior guard/forward Hollie Mershon provided a big spark off the Dragons' bench a year ago, tallying 9.8 points and 4.3 rebounds per game while knocking down 45 treys.

GEORGE MASON

George Mason continued to make progress under coach Jeri Porter last season, posting their best CAA finish since 2005-06. The Patriots hope to continue their climb up the standings as two starters and three top reserves return. Senior guard Taleia Moton led the team and ranked 11th in the CAA in both scoring (12.2 ppg) and assists (2.6 apg) last season. Also back in the starting lineup is junior guard/forward Amber Easter, who contributed 9.9 ppg and was Mason's second-leading rebounder (5.6 rpg). Expected to play more prominent roles this season for Mason are senior forward/center Evelyn Lewis, who chipped in 4.0 points and 4.4 rebounds and blocked 16 shots, and junior guard Rahneeka Saunders (4.8 ppg), who made a team-high 42 steals despite averaging only 16 minutes per game. Guard Christine Weithman (3.4 ppg) should provide depth after a solid freshman season.

GEORGIA STATE

Four starters return for Georgia State as head coach Sharon Baldwin-Tener begins her second season at the helm of the Panthers. GSU should have a strong frontcourt with a trio of returnees in senior Chan Harris, junior Cody Paulk and junior Tiffany Anderson. Harris earned a spot on the 2011 All-CAA third team after ranking third in the CAA in rebounding (8.9 rpg) and 10th in scoring (12.3 ppg). Paulk (5.1 ppg/5.0 rpg) was second in the conference with 56 blocked shots while Anderson chipped in 6.0 ppg and 3.9 rpg. Back as a starter in the GSU backcourt is sophomore Kendra Long (7.6 ppg), who made a team-high 57 threes and was a member of the CAA All-Rookie team. Junior guard Jerlisa Taylor (3.1 ppg) topped the team with 67 assists off the bench. Junior transfer Sade Means made the Southern Conference All-Rookie team while at Appalachian State.

HOFSTRA

Hofstra could be in the hunt for a CAA title in 2011-12 as four starters are back from coach Krista Kilburn-Steveskey's 19-12 team. Junior forward Shante Evans earned first-team All-CAA and honorable mention All-America honors after ranking third in the league in scoring (18.4 ppg) and second in rebounding (11.0 rpg). Also back up front is junior Candace Bond (7.5 ppg/5.0 rpg), who was named to the CAA All-Defensive team after leading the Pride with 75 steals a year ago. Senior guards Nicole Capurso and Candice Bellocchio will lead the backcourt. Capurso was 19th in the CAA in scoring (11.1 ppg), while Bellocchio topped the league in assists (5.0 apg). Guard Kate Loper, a CAA All-Rookie honoree, is coming off an excellent freshman year in which she scored 11.5 ppg and made 75 three-pointers off the bench. Senior center Marie Malone returns after missing a majority of last season due to an injury.

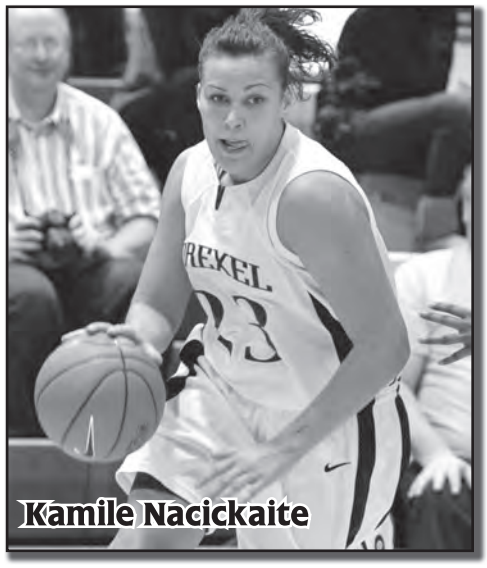

JAMES MADISON

James Madison will be looking to capture its third straight CAA title and advance to postseason play for the seventh year in a row in 2011-12. Coach Kenny Brooks faces the big challenge of replacing CAA all-time leading scorer Dawn Evans (2,667 career points), but returns a pair of starters in junior guard Tarik Hislop and Nikki Newman. Hislop contributed 10.8 points per contest and was second on the team with 63 assists. Newman pulled down 5.6 rebounds per outing a year ago and blocked 27 shots. Several top reserves should step into more prominent roles. Senior forward Lauren Whitehurst (6.3 ppg) made 20 starts a year ago and was third on the team in rebounding (6.2 rpg), while senior forward Kanita Shepherd (4.2 ppg/3.0 rpg) was limited to just nine games in 2010-11. Senior guard Kiara Francisco produced 3.1 ppg off the bench last season.

2011-12 CAA TEAM OUTLOOKS

Kamile Nacickaite

UNCW looks to continue the momentum from last season's school-record 24-win campaign in which the Seahawks advanced to the second round of the WNIT. CAA Coach of the Year Cynthia Cooper-Dyke will have to rebuild after losing a pair of all-conference performers, but returns CAA Rookie of the Year Alisha Andrews and junior Jessica Freeman. Andrews averaged 10.8 points and dished out 166 assists from the point guard spot and was one of the league's top 3-point shooters with 71 treys. She also made the CAA All-Defensive team after averaging 3.0 steals per game. Freeman hit 31 threes and added 6.2 ppg while starting 32 of her 33 appearances. Sophomore guard/forward Abria Trice (2.4 ppg) and junior Brittany Gamby (1.9 ppg) will step into more prominent roles for the Seahawks this season. The Seahawks welcome five newcomers including junior transfers Tawanna Lee, Ayoola Weaver, Karneshia Garrett and Chelsea McGowen.

NORTHEASTERN

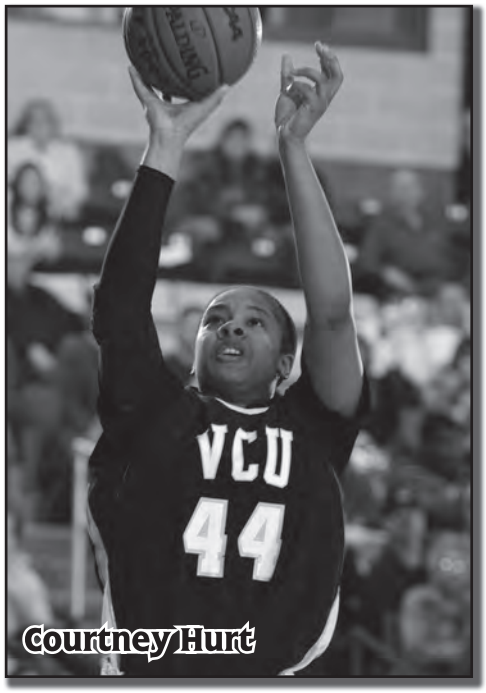

Northeastern returns three starters and should be improved under coach Daynia LaForce-Mann. The Huskies' strength will be in the backcourt. Junior Deanna Kerkhof contributed 11.0 points per game last season and made 42 threes in only 21 games. Senior Jamie Conroy was the only NU player to start all 30 games in 2010-11. She scored 10.0 ppg while ranking sixth in the CAA in assists (4.3 apg) and fifth in steals (2.2 spg). Senior Kashaia Cannon led NU with 48 treys and poured in 10.7 points per game. Senior guard Dani Iervolino (3.2 ppg) provides backcourt depth. Junior forward Christine Huber will anchor the frontcourt for Northeastern, after ranking second on the team in rebounding (5.5 rpg) and adding 8.0 points per game last season. The Huskies also welcome back post players Jewell Tunstull (3.9 ppg/2.3 rpg) and Sierra Mendenhall (1.2 ppg/1.4 rpg), who made contributions in their freshman seasons.

OLD DOMINION

First-year head coach Karen Barefoot is back at Old Dominion with the goal of returning the Lady Monarchs to the top of the CAA standings. Barefoot, who served as an ODU assistant from 2005-08, will have only one returning starter from last year's 20-11 squad that made the WNIT. Senior center/forward Tia Lewis earned third team all-conference honors after leading the Lady Monarchs in both scoring (12.1 ppg) and rebounding (7.8 rpg). Junior center Mairi Buchan, who averaged 4.8 ppg and 2.3 rpg as a sophomore, will return after missing 2010-11 due to injury and sophomore forward Shakeva Richards (2.0 ppg) should also contribute. In the backcourt, juniors Jackie Cook and JoNiquia Guilford are the top returnees. Cook scored 6.5 ppg and made 34 three-pointers, while Guilford added 4.7 points and 3.6 rebounds per contest. Sophomore Rebecca Allison (2.5 ppg) is also back. ODU welcomes five newcomers who could contribute immediately.

TOWSON

Towson welcomes back three starters and has the potential to make a move up the CAA standings. Expected to lead coach Joe Mathews' squad is senior guard Krystal Parnell, who scored a team-high 10.8 points per game, ranked fourth in the CAA in assists (4.5 apg) and also made 46 steals. Senior guard Sheree Ledbetter was second on the team in scoring (8.7 ppg) and rebounding (5.9 rpg) a year ago, while senior guard/forward Deree Folks contributed 8.1 points per contest. The Tigers will also receive help in the backcourt from sophomore guard Tanisha McTiller, who scored 5.0 ppg while seeing time in 29 games, and senior guard Krystin Fields (3.8 ppg). Sophomore forward Nyree Williams, a transfer from North Carolina, is expected to make an immediate impact for the Tigers. She is one of seven newcomers to this year's squad and several should see playing time.

Courtney Hurt

VCU

VCU head coach Beth Cunningham looks to lead the Rams to the postseason for the fifth-straight year and has a veteran group of four senior returning starters to lead the charge. Courtney Hurt, a first-team All-CAA and honorable mention All-America selection, returns for her senior campaign after a stellar junior season. The forward led the nation in rebounding (12.4) and double-doubles (25), and topped the conference and was second in the nation in scoring (23.2 ppg) a year ago. Guard Andrea Barbour made the All-CAA second team in her first year at VCU after contributing 16.3 ppg and 5.6 rpg. Helping Barbour in the backcourt will be senior guard Jennifer Lane (6.3 rpg), who ranked third in the conference with 4.6 assists per game. Chelsea Snyder (4.0 ppg/4.8 rpg) is a returning starter for the Rams in the post. Providing depth are sophomore wing Robyn Parks (3.0 ppg) and junior forward Daphne Adebayo (1.5 ppg).

WILLIAM & MARY

William & Mary returns all five starters to a veteran team that has the potential to be much-improved. Coach Debbie Taylor will build around senior guard Taysha Pye, who earned third-team All-CAA honors after ranking among league leaders in scoring (16.7 ppg/5th), rebounding (5.8 rpg/16th) and assists (2.6 apg/12th). Joining Pye in the backcourt will be senior guard Katherine DeHenzel (7.7 ppg), who dished out a team-best 106 assists last year. Back on the wing is junior Taylor Hilton, who chipped in 8.0 ppg and 4.4 rpg. Up front, junior forward Emily Correal was second on the team in scoring (10.3 ppg) and rebounding (5.2 rpg) a year ago. Junior center Jaclyn McKenna started all 29 games and contributed 6.0 ppg and 4.2 rpg. Center Kaitlyn Mathieu made the CAA All-Rookie squad in 2010-11 after averaging 9.3 ppg and 5.0 rpg and should have an even bigger impact.

CAA NOTEBOOK

VCU's Courtney Hurt (L) and Hofstra's Shante Evans (R) are two of the league's top returnees in scoring and rebounding.

Hungry For More: Nine of the 15 players who received all-conference honors in 2010-11 return this season. Back from the All-CAA first team are Delaware's Elena Delle Donne, Hofstra's Shante Evans and VCU's Courtney Hurt, who all earned All-America accolades. All but one of the All-CAA third team will return. The CAA teams also return 70% of their starters from a year ago.

Top Guns: The CAA returns four of the top five scorers from a year ago, including VCU's Courtney Hurt who was ranked second in the nation in scoring with 23.2 points per game. Overall, 21 of the CAA's top 30 scorers from last season are back in 2011-12. Hurt led the nation in rebounding with 12.4 boards per game, as well as double-doubles (25), and joins 12 of the top 20 rebounders returning for the new season. The conference also welcomes back eight of the top 10 in assists.

Returning Three All-America Honorees: The CAA welcomes back three Associated Press All-America honorees in Delaware's Elena Delle Donne, Hofstra's Shante Evans and VCU's Courtney Hurt. The trio joined former JMU all-star Dawn Evans in receiving Honorable Mention accolades in 2011.

Representing The United States In Women's Hoops: Colonial Athletic Association women's basketball standouts Elena Delle Donne of Delaware and Shante Evans of Hofstra were invited to participate in a pair of USA Basketball events. Delle Donne was selected for the 2011 USA World University Games Team and led her team to a gold medal in China in August 2011. VCU's Courtney Hurt also received an invite to the team trials with Delle Donne. The Delaware stand-out and All-American led the USA team averaging 15.7 points and 8.5 rebounds for the Red, White and Blue during six games. Evans was selected as a member of the USA Basketball Women's Pan American Games Team in September 2011. The Hofstra all-star will participate in that event Oct. 21-25 in Guadalajara, Mexico.

2012 Virginia 529 CAA Women's Basketball Championship: The 2012 Virginia 529 CAA Women's Basketball Championship will return to The Show Place Arena in Upper Marlboro, Md., for the second straight season. The 2011 outing was the first time that The Show Place Arena had served as host of the CAA women's championship. The Show Place was the first neutral site since 1998 for the CAA women's championship and the teams played in front of 7,727 fans during the four-day event.

Old Dominion Welcomes Karen Barefoot As Head Coach: Former Lady Monarch assistant coach Karen Barefoot, who last season led Elon to its first ever Division I postseason appearance, was named Old Dominion's new head women's basketball coach on June 8, 2011. Barefoot became just the sixth head coach in Lady Monarch basketball history and first new hire since 1987. Barefoot, the school's first Native American head coaching hire, takes over a program that has reached postseason play in 19 of its last 20 years and has won 929 games, the third most all-time in women's basketball history. Barefoot, who hails from Newport News, Va., has a career head coaching record of 209-144, resulting in 11 winning seasons. Aside from Elon, Barefoot has also held the head coaching position at Division II Lenoir Rhyne College and at the Apprentice School. A three-time Kodak/WBCA All-American, she has been inducted into the CNU Athletic Hall of Fame and had her college jersey (No. 10) retired. In 2006 she was named to USA South's 25th Anniversary Team.

Six Teams Dance In Postseason Play: For the sixth consecutive season, at least three CAA teams advanced to the postseason and for the 11th consecutive season the CAA had a representative in the WNIT, as the CAA was just one of three conferences to see five teams in the WNIT. CAA champion James Madison was selected as the 11th-seed in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament, while Delaware, Drexel, UNC Wilmington, Old Dominion, and VCU were invited to the Women's National Invitation Tournament. The Southeastern and Atlantic 10 also saw five conference teams advance to the postseason WNIT event in 2011.

TV Exposure: The CAA surpassed its all-time record and saw 30 women's basketball games air on television. All 12 teams made at least one television appearance. The CAA women's basketball television package has aired over 20 games for at least the last four seasons. The CAA also enjoyed a record amount of exposure through new media efforts.

Delaware's Elena Delle Donne was selected to the 2011 USA Basketball World University Games Team and led the team to a gold medal.

CAA CHAMPIONSHIP

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE FOR CAA CHAMPIONSHIP SEEDING

Seeding for the Women's Basketball Championships will be based on Regular Season Conference Record. In case of ties, ties will be broken from top to bottom. Once a tie is broken and the seeds are determined, the seeds will be used to break any subsequent ties.

1. TWO TIED TEAMS:

a) Head-to-head competition.

b) If two tied teams split their two games during the regular season, compare each tied team's record against the team occupying the highest position in the standings and continue down through the standings until one team gains the advantage, thereby earning the higher seed. When comparing records against a single team or a group of teams, the higher winning percentage shall prevail, even if the number of games played against a team or group is unequal (i.e., 2-0 is better than 3-1; 1-0 is the same as 2-0; 2-0 is the same as 4-0; 2-1 is the same as 4-2; 1-0 is better than 1-1; 0-1 is the same as 0-2; 0-2 is the same as 0-4). If the winning percentage of the tied teams is equal against a team, or a group of tied teams, continue down through the standings until one team gains an advantage.

i) When arriving at another pair of tied teams while comparing records, use each team's record against the collective tied teams as a group (prior to their own tie-breaking procedures), rather than the performance against the individual tied teams.

c) If a tie still exists, the Ratings Percentage Index, as computed from the RPI Report by 9:00 AM, on the day following the last scheduled conference game, will be used to break the tie. The team with the better RPI will earn the higher seed.

2. THREE OR MORE TIED TEAMS:

a) Head to head competition as determined by the combined record of games among the tied teams involved. Ties will be broken and seeds will be based on the winning percentage of games amongst the tied teams, even if the number of games played against the group is unequal (i.e., 2-0 is better than 3-1; 1-0 is the same as 2-0; 2-0 is the same as 4-0; 2-1 is the same as 4-2; 1-0 is better than 1-1; 0-1 is the same as 0-2; 0-2 is the same as 0-4).

b) If procedure 2a fails to break the tie, then each tied team's record shall be compared to the team occupying the highest position in the standings, continuing down through the standings until one team gains an advantage by a higher winning percentage as described in 2a.

c) If the tie is broken by 2a or 2b regarding one or more teams, but three or more teams remain tied, then procedures 2a and 2b will be re-applied among those tied teams only. If two teams remain tied, revert to the two-tied team procedure.

d) If a tie still exists, the Ratings Percentage Index, as computed from the RPI Report by 9:00 AM, on the day following the last scheduled conference game, will be used to break the tie. The team with the better RPI will earn the higher seed.

DAWN EVANS, James Madison

Dawn Evans is the fifth James Madison player to earn CAA Player of the Year accolades. The senior guard was second in the conference and ranked third in the nation in scoring with 23.1 points per game. Evans became the CAA's all-time leading scorer on March 2 and completed her collegiate career with 2,667 points. She also set a number of school records, including career field goals (851), career free throws (578) and career three-pointers (387). Evans scored in double-figures in 116 career games, breaking the school record of 112 formerly held by Tamera Young ('08).

COACH OF THE YEAR

CYNTHIA COOPER-DYKE, UNCW

Cynthia Cooper-Dyke guided the Seahawks to a 24-9 overall record and a 14-4 conference mark in her first year at UNCW. The Seahawks were tied for second in the CAA regular-season race, representing the program's highest league finish since joining the conference in 1984-85. UNCW was picked to finish eighth in the CAA's preseason poll, but turned in one of the top turn-arounds in the nation after going 12-19 overall and 6-12 in the CAA in 2009-10.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

ALISHA ANDREWS, UNCW

Alisha Andrews started all 33 games as UNCW's point guard and turned in a sensational rookie year. The Seahawks' guard ranked second in the CAA with 5.0 assists per game and was fourth in the league with 3.0 steals per contest. Andrews also contributed offensively, scoring 10.8 points per game. Much of her offense came from the perimeter as she drained a team-high 71 three-pointers and shot 40.3% from beyond the arc.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

JASMINE PARKER, Old Dominion

Old Dominion's Jasmine Parker led the CAA and ranked ninth in the nation with 3.2 steals per game in 2010-11. The senior guard grabbed the team's third-most defensive rebounds (96) en route to 119 total boards. She also topped the Lady Monarchs with 132 assists. Parker was just the third Old Dominion player to earn Defensive Player of the year honors.

DEAN EHLERS LEADERSHIP AWARD

LINDSEY MOLLER, William & Mary

William & Mary's Lindsey Moller was the recipient of the Dean Ehlers Leadership award, which is presented annually to the women's basketball student-athlete who "embodies the highest standards of leadership, integrity, and sportsmanship in conjunction with her academic athletic achievement." Moller, a senior guard, started 10 games in 2010-11 and was third on the Tribe's squad with 45 assists. She also scored 30 points and recorded 24 steals.

As part of its 25th Anniversary in 2009-10, the Colonial Athletic Association honored Silver Anniversary teams in 21 championship sports. Chosen by a panel of current and former head coaches, the 25-member teams featured the "best of the best" in the conference's storied history.

The 25th Anniversary women's basketball team included 17 former CAA Players of the Year, eight WNBA draft picks and several players who were key performers during some of the conference's greatest moments in the NCAA Tournament.

POSTSEASON RESULTS

For the sixth consecutive season, at least three CAA teams advanced to the postseason and for the 11th consecutive season the CAA had a representative in the WNIT. James Madison captured its sixth CAA championship and reached the NCAA Tournament for the ninth time in school history. The Dukes, who reached postseason play for the sixth consecutive year, fell 86-72 to Oklahoma in the first round. Delaware, Drexel, UNCW, Old Dominion, and VCU received spots in the WNIT, with the Seahawks advancing to the second round.
